The NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions issued a decision dated March 6, 2015, (the "Decision") in which the Committee found Syracuse University responsible for certain violations of NCAA legislation. The specific infractions, largely arising out of conduct from the past decade that the University voluntarily self-reported to the NCAA, regard: (a) impermissible extra benefits in the form of money, food, or transportation provided to certain student-athletes on the men's basketball, women's basketball, and football teams by a non-employee representative of the University's athletics interest; (b) unethical conduct committed by three football student-athletes and a part-time tutor regarding the student-athletes' involvement in an internship for academic credit at the part-time tutor's place of full-time employment; (c) the former director of men's basketball operations and a former receptionist's unethical conduct when they engaged in academic fraud with a former men's basketball student-athlete; (d) a former tutor and a former receptionist provision of impermissible academic extra benefits to three former men's basketball student-athletes; (e) although testing and enforcement occurred, the University's failure to follow its written drug testing procedures for student-athletes; (f) Men's basketball staff's provision of more than two complimentary admissions on several occasions; (g) three athletics department staff members failure to report outside income or benefits to the University's chancellor; (h) former student-athletes participation in approximately 12 promotional activities without completing the promotion activity forms, and one former student-athlete fundraising for a charitable organization when the funds actually went to a commercial entity; (i) a former women's basketball student-athlete participation in an organized basketball game outside of intercollegiate competition; (j) two institutional employees provision of impermissible transportation to one former men's basketball student-athlete and one former football student-athlete; (k) the head men's basketball coach failure to promote an atmosphere of compliance within his program or to monitor the activities of those who reported directly and indirectly to him; and (l) the University's failure to exercise control and monitor the conduct and administration of its athletics programs. In the Decision, the Committee on Infractions imposed a period of five years of probation on the University from March 6, 2015, through March 5, 2020. Additional information regarding the Decision and the penalties it imposed are available upon request.

2019-20 SEASON PREVIEW

The Orange bench celebrates as Syracuse advances to the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament Semifinals for the third time in six years.

HILLSMAN IN HIS 13TH SEASON

The Orange put together one of the most successful regular seasons in program history in Hillsman's 13th year on The Hill. He led Syracuse to the NCAA Tournament Second Round and best tournament seed (No. 3) in program history. Syracuse was ranked in the Associated Press (AP) Top-25 all season long peaking as high as No. 12. The Orange collected five wins over nationally-ranked opponents, had the No. 3 strength of schedule in the country and was top-10 in the RPI. Mangakahia earned AP and WBCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades while being named the ECAC Player of the Year, All-ACC First Team for a second-straight season and was a Nancy Lieberman Finalist.

TOP-25 ORANGE

Syracuse was named a top-10 squad by Charlie Creme in the Way-Too-Early Top-25 (April 2019). In the most recent Way-Too-Early Top-25 by Creme, the Orange are receiving votes after the departure of eight players from last year's squad including two-year started and all-time leader in three-point field goal percentage, Miranda Drummond. The Orange graduated Drummond, Raven Fox, Brandi Fowler, Isis Young and junior Chelayne Bailey last season.

The Orange were ranked in each week of the Associated Press (AP) Top-25 poll in 2018-19, peaking at No. 12.

NEW ROSTER, SAME STYLE

'Cuse has six new names roster in 2019-20, including a trio of graduate transfers. The Orange return seven players from last year's NCAA Tournament squad. The experience and leadership of transfers Emy Colome (Rhode Island), Whisper Fisher (St. Joseph's) and Brooke Alexander (UT Arlington) will be valued with Gabrielle Cooper being the lone senior and four-year member on the team.

Hillsman added a trio of freshmen guards in Alisha Lewis, Teisha Hyman and Taleah "Noo Noo" Washington.

Syracuse has a 153-47 overall record overall in the Carrier Dome under Hillsman's watch, including an 92-4 record against non-conference opponents. Syracuse has defeated 11 nationally-ranked opponents inside the Dome since Hillsman took over the program and has hosted the NCAA First and Second Rounds twice (2016 & 2019).

300-WIN QUENTIN

Hillsman enters this season 12 wins away from his 300th career win. He's led the Orange to 11-straight 20+ win seasons and seven-straight NCAA Tournament appearances during his tenure.

BACK FOUR MORE

Senior Gabrielle Cooper enters her final season ranked fourth in program history with 224 made three-pointers. She has appeared in 97 games during her career and averages 8.9 points, 4.3 rebounds and is shooting .322 from behind the arc during that time. Cooper is the only member of Syracuse's starting lineup that enters her fourth season starting every game she has played for the Orange.

Juniors Digna Strautmene and Amaya Finklea-Guity have two years of experience under their belt in the starting lineup. The pair aims to make a splash at the post for Syracuse with the help of new assistant coach and 17-year WNBA veteran DeLisha Milton-Jones' mentorship.

KIKI, DO YOU LOVE ME?

Kiara Lewis is expected to replace Mangakahia in the starting lineup as the Orange's new point guard. Lewis averaged 8.4 points, 2.1 rebounds and 1.4 assists per game for the Orange off the bench last season. Lewis transferred to Syracuse after beginning her career at Ohio State. The former Illinois Gatorade State Player of the Year grew up in Chicago, Ill.

UH OH! A HUMAN

Freshman Teisha Hyman is a published author. The White Plains, N.Y., native and McDonald's High School All-America Nominee wrote a children's book "Uh Oh! A Human" in high school.

QUENTIN HILLSMAN

HEAD COACH

14TH SEASON AT SYRACUSE ST. MARY'S (MD.) '93

Quentin Hillsman has transformed the Orange women's basketball program into a national championship contender. Hillsman took over a program that went 28-55 in the three seasons prior to his appointment and has since guided the Orange to unprecedented heights.

In his 13 seasons at the helm, Syracuse boasts an impressive resume, which includes 12 consecutive postseason appearances, seven trips to the NCAA Tournament, 17 all-conference selections, five All-Americans, and four WNBA Draft picks. Under Hillsman, the Orange own a 288-145 overall record, averaging more than 21 victories per season. Hillsman is the all-time winningest coach in school history.

The Orange put together one of the most successful regular seasons in program history in Hillsman's 13th year on The Hill. He led Syracuse to the NCAA Tournament Second Round and best tournament seed (No. 3) in program history. Syracuse was ranked in the Associated Press (AP) Top-25 all season long, peaking as high as No. 12. The Orange collected five wins over nationally-ranked opponents, had the No. 3 strength of schedule and were top-10 in the RPI. Tiana Mangakahia earned AP and WBCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades and was named the ECAC Player of the Year, All-ACC First Team for a second-straight season and was a Nancy Lieberman Award finalist.

In 2017-18, Hillsman guided Syracuse to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth-straight season. The Orange finished 22-9 overall and held a 10-6 record in the nation's best conference, the Atlantic Coast. Mangakahia led the nation in assists and assists per game en route to earning All-ACC First Team honors while two freshman, Digna Strautmene and Amaya Finklea-Guity, were All-ACC Freshman Team selections.

The 2015-16 campaign put Syracuse on the national map. The Orange advanced to its first Sweet 16, Elite Eight, Final Four, and national final in their history. Syracuse set program records with five wins against nationally-ranked foes, 13 conference victories, 23 regular-season wins, and 30 overall victories. Following its run to the national final, Syracuse was ranked third in the final USA Today Coaches Poll.

Hillsman's impact as the head coach of the Orange program was immediate. In only his second season in 2007-08, he guided Syracuse to a 22-9 overall record and its fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament in school history. SU climbed into the national rankings for the first time in history, checking in as high as No. 21 in the country in the Associated Press Poll. Hillsman was recognized as the 2008 BIG EAST Coach of the Year.

Quentin Hillsman guided Syracuse to its ninth NCAA Tournament win in program history on March 23, 2019 vs. Fordham at the Carrier Dome.

2018-19 SEASON REVIEW

NATIONALLY-RANKED ORANGE

For the fourth time in five years, the Orange began the season ranked in the Associated Press (AP) Top-25 Poll. Syracuse checked in at No. 18 in the first poll of the year, earning their highest preseason ranking since debuting at No. 14 prior to the start of the 2016-17 campaign. The Orange did not hold an AP ranking once during the 2017-18 season.

POSTSEASON IN THE DOME

After going 22-7 in the regular season, the 12th-ranked Orange not only punched their ticket to the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament for the seventh consecutive year under head coach Quentin Hillsman, third-seeded Syracuse was prepped to host the first and second rounds for just the second time in program history.

Syracuse originally hosted the first two rounds in 2016, the same year the Orange reached the NCAA Women's Final Four for the first time in program history. The Orange successfully defeated Fordham 70-49 in the first round of the 2019 NCAA Tournament before losing, 75-64, to South Dakota State, ending the season 25-9.

DOMESWEET DOME

There is no place like home. Syracuse went 11-4 at the Carrier Dome in 2018 and is 154-46 at home under head coach Quentin Hillsman. The Orange hold a 78-16 Dome record since joining the Atlantic Coast Conference prior to the 2013-14 season.

Syracuse has defeated 11 nationally-ranked opponents inside the Dome since Hillsman took over.

'Cuse had the third-largest crowd in program history on Feb. 25 when No. 4 Notre Dame came to town, with 7,568 in attendance to see the Orange take on the Fighting Irish.

HOLDING OUR OWN

After having one of the toughest schedules in program history that featured 11 nationally ranked opponents, Syracuse held its own with five wins against top-25 programs. Those wins included victories over No. 16 Miami in the ACC Tournament, along with wins over No. 20 Texas A&M, No. 16 DePaul, No. 25 Virginia, and No. 22/21 Florida State.

MANGAKAHIA MADNESS

Tiana Mangakahia's second season with the Orange was a fairytale. The Australian averaged 16.9 points, 4.9 rebounds, and 8.4 assists throughout the season. She recorded her first career triple double against North Carolina when she tallied 34 points, 10 rebounds, and 10 assists. Weeks later against No. 22/21 FSU, she tied her career-high of 44 points, and posted eight assists. Her efforts earned her Associated Press (AP) All-America Honorable Mention and WBCA All-America Honorable Mention honors.

Mangakahia was also a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award, which is given annually to the best point guard in NCAA Division I Women's Basketball. She cemented her name amongst the nation's best as she earned a spot on the Wooden Award Late Season Watch List and the Citizen Naismith Trophy Midseason Team. In addition, Mangakahia went on to earn a spot on the All-ACC First Team.

Mangakahia led the ACC in three different categories last year: assists, assists per game, and free throw percentage. Since Coach Hillsman's hiring, she is the fifth person to be named an All-American. In 65 career games at Syracuse, she's also recorded 1,114 points which ranks 20th in program history.

GONE STREAKIN'

Syracuse started last year's campaign red hot and ready to play. After following the season-opening win with a 75-73 loss to No. 3 Oregon, the Orange went on a five-game unbeaten streak. That winning streak was stopped by a 72-78 setback to No. 20 Minnesota, but Syracuse then blew it wide open and didn't register a loss for nine-straight games.

During the stretch, 'Cuse defeated Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) foes No. 25 Virginia Tech, North Carolina and Clemson and outscored the competition by 214 points (763-549). Syracuse climbed its way to No. 12 in the Associated Press (AP) Top-25, its second-highest regular season ranking in program history.

IF IT AIN'T BROKE, DON'T FIX IT

With the absence of Miranda Drummond from the lineup against Miami on Jan. 23, Syracuse's starting lineup changed for the first time in 50 games. Freshman Kadiatou Sissoko made her first career start in place of Drummond, who had spent the past 49 games as a starter with Tiana Mangakahia, Amaya Finklea-Guity, Gabrielle Cooper and Digna Strautmene. 'Cuse got back on track with the return of Drummond against Duke four days later.

The Orange quintuplet made up 81.4 percent of the team's scoring during the season, led by Mangakahia's team-high 17.5 points per game and squad-leading 9.8 assists per game. Drummond (14.9 points per game) and Cooper (10.9 points per game) were the main beneficiaries from Mangakahia's unselfishness. The duo was lethal from the outside, shooting 40.2 percent and 34.3

Head coach Quentin Hillsman guided the Orange to their 12th-straight 20 win season with a 25-9 overall record. The Orange have had 25-plus wins on four occasions during that stretch including a 30-win season in 2015-16.

Prior to Hillsman's arrival on The Hill, the Orange had only two 20-win seasons in program history.

Maeva Djaldi-Tabdi earned All-ACC Freshman Team honors in 2018-19.

KENT SYVERUD

Chancellor and President

Chancellor Kent Syverud is the 12th Chancellor and President of Syracuse University. A legal scholar and educator, Chancellor Syverud earned distinction as a strategic thinker and visionary leader who has put forward a bold strategic plan to position the University for growth and recognition as a thriving global research university.

At Syracuse, Chancellor Syverud identified four key institutional priorities: providing an outstanding undergraduate experience; empowering research excellence; fostering and supporting change and innovation; and positioning Syracuse as the best university in the world for veterans. The Chancellor also launched a three-pronged initiative, Fast Forward Syracuse, to achieve these ambitious goals. Part of that initiative is an academic strategic planning process that builds on historic institutional strengths, positions the University to anticipate and quickly respond to emerging challenges and opportunities, and aligns the academic goals with a new framework for the physical transformation of the main campus.

A native of Irondequoit in Upstate New York, Chancellor Syverud came to Syracuse from Washington University in St. Louis, where he served as dean and the Ethan A.H. Shepley Distinguished University Professor at the School of Law. Prior to that, he served as dean at Vanderbilt Law School and as associate dean for academic affairs and professor at University of Michigan Law School. At Syracuse, he continues to teach each semester as a member of the College of Law and School of Education faculties. An elected member of the American Law Institute, Syverud's scholarship has addressed negotiation, civil litigation, dispute resolution, and higher education.

Chancellor Syverud has a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University School of Foreign Service and a law degree and master's in economics from University of Michigan. He counts among his closest mentors retired U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, for whom he clerked shortly after she became the first woman named to the Supreme Court bench.

In addition to his higher education leadership, Chancellor Syverud was appointed in October 2016 to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Academic Advisory Council, where he, and other academic leaders, advises DHS on homeland security, career opportunities for graduates, campus resilience and academic research. In January 2017, Chancellor Syverud began a two-year term as Commissioner for the Middle States Commission on Higher Education. In this role, Chancellor Syverud works with his colleagues to refine and implement accreditation standards and define the strategic direction and processes of the Commission. In 2016 he completed six years of service as one of the two trustees of the $20 billion Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Trust.

Chancellor Syverud is married to Dr. Ruth Chen, an accomplished environmental toxicologist and professor of practice at Syracuse University's College of Engineering and Computer Science. They are the parents of three grown sons, Steven, Brian, and David; and they have one granddaughter.

JOHN WILDHACK

Director of Athletics

A uniquely qualified leader with a vast knowledge of and passion for Syracuse University Athletics, former ESPN executive John Wildhack was named Syracuse's 11th director of athletics in July 2016.

At Syracuse, Wildhack leads the daily operations of a 20-sport athletics department with more than 600 student-athletes. During his tenure, he has worked diligently to create an environment that fosters academic and athletic excellence which prepares student-athletes to be leaders in our global society. Those efforts have resulted in tremendous success both on and off the field.

In Wildhack's first three years, 39 teams have represented Syracuse at national championship events, including 36 NCAA competitions. In 2018-19, a total of 14 programs qualified for their national championship. In addition, the football team returned to the postseason and captured its 16th bowl victory by defeating West Virginia in the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

The Orange have won 22 conference championships (three team, 19 individual) in that span and two national championships. Both national titles were courtesy of Justyn Knight, who won the NCAA Cross Country Championship and the NCAA Indoor Championship in the 5,000 meter-run during the 2017-18 academic year.

Syracuse student-athletes are succeeding at a high rate in the classroom, as well. The Orange had a record seven teams post perfect four-year scores in the 2019 release of the Academic Progress Rate (APR), and the University's four-year average of 987 is the highest since APR tracking began in 2006. As a group, the Orange student-athlete body achieved better than a 3.0 cumulative GPA in 2018-19, the third year in a row they surpassed that benchmark.

Since his arrival on campus, Wildhack has overseen multiple strategic initiatives to ensure the future success of the department. Among the most impactful have been securing a $118 million investment from the University for enhancements to the Dome and the formation of an in-house production unit.

Authorized by the Board of Trustees in May 2018, the $118 million in funds enables the University to move forward with improvements to the Carrier Dome, which include a new fixed roof, vertically-hung scoreboard, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems.

The Syracuse Athletics Production team formed in the fall of 2017. In its first two years, the group broadcast 205 live events and was responsible for more than 700 hours of content for the ACC's digital platform – ACC Network Extra.

During his distinguished career at ESPN, which spanned more than 30 years, Wildhack held a number of leadership roles and was responsible for several firsts at the network. Those firsts included producing ESPN's first live regular-season college football game in September 1984 and its first live NFL game in August 1987. Before joining the Orange, Wildhack most recently served as the network's executive vice president for programming and production. He was responsible for oversight of all ESPN and ABC game, event and studio production work for domestic and international television and radio, as well as programming acquisitions, rights-holder relationship management and scheduling. He managed all league and conference relationships, negotiated all live sports television rights and was responsible for 50,000 hours of on-air content annually.

From 2007 to 2012, Wildhack was ESPN's executive vice president for programming and acquisitions. In that role, he oversaw all rights negotiations and managed relationships with rights holders for all ESPN entities. These included ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Classic, ESPNNews, ESPN Deportes, ESPNU, ESPN International, ESPN Radio, ESPN.com, ESPN3, ESPN Mobile Properties, print and more. In 2009, he began leading strategic program planning for all ESPN television networks, ESPN on ABC and ESPN's digital platforms.

Wildhack's managerial role at the company began in 1990 when he was named director of event productions. In 1991, he was promoted to vice president for remote production, a position he held through 1993 when he became senior vice president for remote production. In September 1994, he moved to the programming department as senior vice president for programming, and in 2005 he became senior vice president for programming acquisitions & strategy. Wildhack was directly involved in the renewal and expansion of many ESPN and ESPN2 programming agreements for the NFL, MLB, NBA, Bowl Championship Series, NCAA, tennis' four Grand Slam events and a variety of major college conferences. His efforts were integral to the increase of live and original programming on ESPN and ESPN2. Under his direction, the evolution of ESPN2's programming lineup included an extensive commitment to auto racing and college football and basketball, leading to ESPN2 becoming the fastest growing network of the 1990s.

Wildhack first joined ESPN as a production assistant in 1980. He served in a number of production positions prior to his move to the management track, including production assistant, associate producer, senior associate producer, producer, coordinating producer and director of event productions. Among the sports he worked on were college football, NCAA basketball, boxing, golf and auto racing. He served as coordinating producer for ESPN's "Sunday Night Football" and NFL Draft telecasts in 1988 and 1989 and produced NFL games for the network – the first NFL games on cable – from 1987-89.

A native of Buffalo, New York and a 1980 alumnus of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications with a degree in telecommunications, Wildhack joined ESPN in its first year of operation immediately following his graduation. An active alumnus of the University, he sits on the Advisory Board for the David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics and was an honoree at the "Newhouse at 40" Gala.

He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Tommy and James. John is also the father of a son, M.J.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

The Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center is the home of Syracuse basketball. The $19 million dollar facility officially opened in September 2009 with a ribbon-cutting ceremony, which included the building's namesake - Carmelo Anthony. The "Melo Center," as it is commonly referred to, includes two NCAA regulation-size practice courts, a weight room, training room, equipment room, locker rooms and coaches offices. In addition, fans can relive some of the greatest moments in Syracuse basketball history in the building's Hall of Fame Wing.

DOMESWEET DOME

The Carrier Dome, America's most famous and largest structure of its kind on a college campus, is a facility that generates media exposure and adds glamour that attracts some of the nation's most talented student-athletes to Syracuse University. Former greats that have graced the Carrier Dome hardwood include Dwayne "Pearl" Washington, Billy Owens, Rony Seikaly, Sherman Douglas, Derrick Coleman, John Wallace, Jason Hart, and Etan Thomas.

Millions of people have passed through the Dome's revolving doors since the building's first public event in 1980. Most fans are aware that the Carrier Dome is a tough place for an opponent to play a basketball game.

Since the 2010-11 season, the Syracuse women's basketball program has played all of its home contests inside the Carrier Dome. Under head coach Quentin Hillsman, Syracuse has had tremendous success on its home court. From 2006-2015 the Orange won 72 straight non-conference games on its home floor.

The Orange hold a 156-54 record all-time at the Dome and the Orange won a program record 20 games at home during the 2010-11 season.

The Dome has been a host to numerous men's and women's NCAA Tournament contests in March and continues to act as a multi-purpose facility adaptable to staging events. These events range from the annual spring commencement to concerts featuring musicians such as Bruce Springsteen and Billy Joel.

On Feb. 19, 2017, Syracuse set a women's basketball attendance record with 11,021 fans inside the Carrier Dome.
