ORANGE SELECT TEAM CAPTAINS

- Juniors Amferny Sinclair and Noah Singelmann and graduate student Max Kent are the 2021 captains.
- Singelmann led the team in points and was the second highest goal scorer in 2020-21.
- Kent transferred to Syracuse in 2020 to complete his graduate studies.

MILESTONE FOR MCINTYRE

- Syracuse's win against Binghamton on Sept. 14 was head coach Ian McIntyre's 100th win as head coach of Syracuse.
- Syracuse's win over NC State on Oct. 26, 2019 marked the 200th career victory for McIntyre.
- His record at Syracuse is 96-77-34.
- He has a career record of 203-141-66. The Basildon, England native started his career at Oneonta State, where he led the Red Dragons for four seasons. He returned to his alma mater, Hartwick, in 2003, before he took over the helm of the Syracuse program in 2010.

500 AND COUNTING

- The Orange's 1-0 victory at Colgate on Sept. 24, 2019 was the 500th win in program history.
- Syracuse has an all-time record of 505-522-124.
- The first Syracuse team took to the pitch in 1920. No games were played in 1922, 1943-45 and 1951. The program was briefly discontinued between 1961-69 before being reinstated in 1970.

ORANGE EARN ACADEMIC HONORS

- Hilli Goldhar and Noah Singelmann were named to the All-ACC Men's Soccer Academic Team in June.

ORANGE IN THE MLS

- Ryan Raposo and Nyal Higgins were selected in the first round of the 2020 MLS SuperDraft.
- Raposo was the fourth overall pick by Vancouver FC, while Higgins was the 19th pick by Toronto FC.
- Raposo's selection marks Syracuse's fifth top-10 draft pick in the last six years. In addition, he is the second top-five pick for the Orange, joining Miles Robinson, who was the No. 2 selection by Atlanta United in 2017.
- Syracuse was one of three schools to have two first-round draft picks. It marked the third time two former Orange have been taken in the first round since 2015. Overall, eight Syracuse players have been selected in the first round in the last six years.
- Raposo signed a Generation adidas contract with the MLS following the 2019 season. It marks the sixth consecutive season that a member of the Orange has signed a Generation adidas contract. Syracuse's six signees are the most for any school in the nation.
- Miles Robinson scored the game winning goal in the Gold Cup for the U.S. to defeat rival Mexico.
- Tajon Buchanan will move from New England Revolution to Club Brugge in Belgium in January of 2022. The transfer fee was 6 million euros.

One of the brightest head coaches on the college circuit, Ian McIntyre has led Syracuse to unprecedented heights in his first eight years at the helm of the program.

A 1996 Hartwick graduate, McIntyre owns a 186-120-53 (.592) record in 19 seasons as a college head coach. He's been honored with multiple coaching awards, including the ACC Coach of the Year Award in 2014.

DONNING ORANGE

McIntyre became the 15th coach in Syracuse soccer history on Jan. 6, 2010. During his time in the Emerald City, McIntyre has gone about the task of building the Orange into a national contender. That effort began paying dividends in 2012 as Syracuse won 14 games, more than twice the number of victories in McIntyre's first two years with the Orange, and the most victories for the program since 1986.

Overall, Syracuse finished 14-6-1 in 2012 and was the most improved team in the nation, posting a win-loss improvement of +8.5. The Orange nearly doubled its number of goals (39) from the previous year and the defense posted 12 shutouts, tied for the third-most in the country. As a result, Syracuse finished second in the BIG EAST Red Division and earned a berth in the 2012 NCAA Championship, just the second time in program history the Orange advanced to the national tournament.

Syracuse continued to perform upon reaching the national stage, knocking off Ivy League champion Cornell and VCU in the opening two rounds to notch the first NCAA Tournament victories in team history. In the third round (Sweet 16), the Orange tied eventual national finalist Georgetown, 1-1, before being eliminated on penalty kicks.

McIntyre and his assistants were rewarded with 2012 BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year honors for authoring the breakout campaign.

In 2013, Syracuse's first year in the Atlantic Coast Conference, McIntyre led the Orange to a 10-7-1 record, marking the first time in more than a decade that the team posted double-digit wins in consecutive years. Along the way, the Orange went undefeated in non-conference play (7-0-0), beat two ranked teams (#12 Connecticut and #19 Clemson) and earned its first ACC win, a 2-1 victory at Duke.

The Orange reached unprecedented heights in 2014 when it climbed to No. 1 in the national rankings for the first time in school history. Syracuse won a share of the ACC Atlantic Division and earned a program-best No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Orange defeated Penn State on its home field before its season came to an end in the Sweet 16 in a 2-1 overtime loss to Georgetown. Syracuse posted a 16-4-1 record, finishing just one win shy of the single-season school record for victories.

The 2015 squad produced the most successful season in school history. Syracuse, which had to replace seven starters, became the first No. 10 seed to win the ACC Tournament, the first in school history. The Orange earned a program-best sixth seed in the NCAA Tournament. After a first-round bye, they defeated Dartmouth, Seattle and Boston College to advance to the College Cup for the first time in school history. The Orange faced No. 3 Clemson for the third time that season and were tied with the Tigers, 0-0, after 110 minutes of play. Clemson won the penalty kick shootout to advance to the national final. Syracuse ended the season with a 16-5-4 record and was No. 4 in the final NSCAA poll, its highest final ranking in school history.

Syracuse continued its success in 2016, earning the No. 8 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Orange

Elite-level players have keyed the Orange's success as McIntyre's recruiting classes have consistently been ranked in the top 40 by College Soccer News.

REVIVING A SLEEPING GIANT

Prior to taking over the Orange, McIntyre spent seven seasons (2003-09) as the head coach at his alma mater, Hartwick College. He guided the Hawks to four 10-win seasons and a 2005 NCAA Championship appearance.

McIntyre succeeded the legendary Jim Lennox in 2003 and promptly led the Hawks to 15-2-1 overall record, the most wins for the program since 1993. The next season, McIntyre was named the regional coach of the year after presiding over a 13-3-3 campaign that featured a nine-game winning streak and an Atlantic Soccer Conference runner-up finish.

In 2005, McIntyre guided the team to another 13-win season and the Atlantic Soccer Conference regular-season and tournament titles. For his efforts, McIntyre was rewarded with 2005 Atlantic Soccer Conference Coach of the Year honors, and by virtue of its conference championship, Hartwick earned its first trip to the NCAA Tournament in a decade.

Two years later, McIntyre was the driving force behind Hartwick's successful move from the Atlantic Soccer Conference to the MAC, qualifying for the league's postseason tournament in all three seasons (2007-09) he was at the helm.

AN ALL-AMERICAN PLAYING CAREER

Before becoming Hartwick's sixth head coach, McIntyre was a standout player for the Hawks, earning NSCAA First Team All-America honors as a senior in 1995. He helped the program to two NCAA Tournament berths and a 52-20-7 record in his four seasons (1992-95).

McIntyre scored 18 goals and had 10 assists in his career and developed a reputation for clutch goal-scoring. He tallied game-winning goals in NCAA Tournament victories against Rutgers and Boston University in 1993, and the Hawks were 16-0-1 in his career when he scored a goal.

McIntyre was named the Hartwick Male Athlete of the Year in 1995-96 and earned the President's Scholar-Athlete Award. In addition, he was enshrined in the Hartwick College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001, his first year on the ballot.

CLIMBING THE COACHING LADDER

After his college playing career, McIntyre served as an assistant coach at Fairfield from 1996-98 under former Hartwick assistant coach Carl Rees. He helped Rees lead the Stags to a pair of Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) championship game appearances.

In 1998, Fairfield went 15-4-1 and earned the program's first national ranking, checking in at No. 24 after a 10-0-1 start. In addition, McIntyre coached the Region I amateur team to the gold medal at the 1999 U.S. Soccer Festival in Portland, Ore.

Following his stint at Fairfield, McIntyre returned to Oneonta, N.Y. to become head coach for the former Division I program at Oneonta State. He posted a 36-28-7 record for the Red Dragons from 1999-2002. He led them to three straight double-digit win seasons and was named Independent Coach of the Year in his debut campaign after leading Oneonta to a 10-6-1 record and an upset of Hartwick in the 1999 Mayor's Cup title game.

PERSONAL

A native of Basildon, England, McIntyre and his wife, Jenn, have a daughter, Lyla, and a dog, Elmore.
