- The stretch is among the longest in the nation away from home this season. Eastern Michigan will have a 38-day span where they do not play in their home venue, but will play a game at Ford Field in Detroit as the designated home team. Stanford is the only Power Four team with a longer stretch away from home, with a 36-day stretch away from home (Oct. 23-Nov. 21).
- The stretch of 35 days away from home is the longest since 2024 when the Orange spent the month of October on the road with a bye during the span. The Orange went 2-1 with wins over UNLV and NC State with the lone loss coming against Pitt. The stretch was also 35-days long.

TIGHT ENDS IN THE ACTION

- The Orange TEs have accounted for half of the Orange's receiving touchdowns (five of 10). Daunte Bacheyie leads the group with three while David Clement and Noah Meyers each have one.
- Bacheyie is one of just 18 TEs around the nation to have three touchdowns this season. He is just one of two TEs to do so with less than five games this season.
- Meyers scored his first TD of the season, making him the third TE to get in the endzone. Syracuse is one of eight schools to see at least three different TEs score TDs (Arkansas, Kentucky, Memphis, Missouri State, Oregon, SMU). Georgia is the only school with more with five different TEs finding the endzone.
- Clement and Bacheyie spent the beginning of their careers behind a pair of TEs who earned spots on NFL rosters. Oronde Gadsden, a member of the Los Angeles Chargers, and teammate from a year ago Dan Villari, who is on the Los Angeles Rams practice squad, both spent time in the TE room with Clement at Syracuse.

RUNNIN' UP THAT HILL

- RB Tylik Hill ran for 140 yards on 28 carries against UConn, both career highs for the sophomore.
- It was the first career 100-yard performance of his career and the second by a Syracuse player this season, joining Shavane Anderson Jr.'s performance against New Hampshire.
- It was most rushing yards in a game by an SU player since LeQuint Allen ran for 144 yards in 2023.
- Hill is averaging 6.24 yards per carry this season (46 atts, 288 yards), the 20th best mark in the nation and second-best in the ACC.

RUSSELL III JOINS THE FOLD

- Freshman WR Calvin Russell III, the program's highest rated recruit in the modern era, made his collegiate debut against UConn.
- He brought in two receptions for 14 yards.
- He was rated five-stars by 247Sports and was the No. 2 WR and No. 2 player in the state of Florida in the Class of 2026.

BIG PEOPLE BEAT UP LITTLE PEOPLE

- Using the week one starting lineup, Syracuse boasted the heaviest starting offensive line in the entire country at an average of 336 pounds and a median of 325 pounds. The next closest team was UMass at 331 pounds. The Orange starting offensive line checked in at about 6-foot-6.
- Sophomore Byron Washington was the heaviest starting offensive lineman in the entire nation among players who started the season as the starter.

1959

Syracuse continued its 1959 National Championship season with a 32-6 triumph over Navy at the Norfolk's Oyster Bowl. The Orange scored on their first possession, going 59 yards on 16 plays. Moments later, SU's Art Baker recorded a 97-yard interception return for a touchdown to set the tone in the decisive victory and lift the Orange to 3-0 in the season.

1992

The Orange welcomed Big East foe Rutgers on this day in 1992, earning a 50-28 win in front of 49,194 fans at the Dome. The Orange racked up 675 yards of total offense in the win, the second-most in program history. It was the previous high until SU tallied 677 against Colgate in 2023.

FRAN BROWN

Head Coach • Third Season • Career Record: 15-14 (.517)

Fran Brown was hired as Syracuse's 31st head coach on Nov. 28, 2023 and immediately invigorated the Syracuse football program, winning multiple national coach of the year honors, delivering a 10-win season and signing the three highest-ranked recruiting classes in the modern era for Syracuse football through his first two seasons.

Brown delivered a 10-win season in his first year at the helm, tying Paul Pasqualoni (1991) for the most victories by a coach in their first season at Syracuse. The 10 wins tie for the third-most victories in a season in program history and was just the third double-digit win campaign for Syracuse since the start of this century.

Buoyed by the culture of D.A.R.T. (Detailed. Accountable. Relentless. Tough.), Brown's Orange won three games against top-25 opponents, the most since 1998 for Syracuse, tallied nine wins over bowl teams, finished the season ranked in every poll for the first time since 2018 and boasted a 7-2 mark in one-score games. 'Cuse capped the season with a win over Washington State in the DIRECTV Holiday Bowl, the program's third-straight bowl appearance.

Syracuse had 12 players earn All-ACC honors in 2024, the most since joining the conference, despite the league now having the most teams in conference history (17), including First Team All-ACC selection Oronde Gadsden II, who also earned AP All-America honors.

The Orange's passing attack led the nation and set numerous records in Brown's first season. Led by standout Kyle McCord, who became the first Syracuse player to finish in the top-10 of Heisman Trophy voting since 2001. McCord set new program records for passing yards (4,779), completions (391), passing attempts (592), passing touchdowns (34), yards per game (367.6) and total offense (4,714).

'Cuse had four players with 60+ receptions, the only school in the nation to do so, and had five players have over 500 yards receiving. Trebor Pena (84), Jackson Meeks (78), Oronde Gadsden II (73) and LeQuint Allen Jr. (64), all finished in the top-11 of single-season receptions at Syracuse.

Allen also had over 1,000 yards on the ground, making him the first running back in school history to have over 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. Allen set new program records for receptions (64) and receiving yards (521) by a running back. He was one-of-two running backs nationally to go over 1,000 rushing and 500 receiving yards on the season.

With Allen's 1,021 rushing yards and Jackson Meeks' 1,021 receiving yards, it was the first time since 2012 that 'Cuse had a 1,000+ yard rusher and receiver.

In addition to Allen's records by a running back, Gadsden broke his own record for receptions by a tight end (73) on the season.

The Orange offense set over 20 individual or team single-season or career records on the season.

Defensively, 10 different Syracuse players recorded an interception on the season, a hallmark of Brown's experience in the secondary and development of defensive backs.

His second season picked up right where he left off, with the Orange defeating Clemson at Memorial Stadium in the ACC opener, the program's first victory in Death Valley. However, mounting injuries to key players stalled momentum, with Syracuse finishing the season 3-9.

Quarterback Steve Angeli was leading the nation in passing through four games, showing that a prolific passing attack was no fluke in year one, however a season-ending injury in the second half of the Clemson game stalled the results offensively the rest of the way.

Jack Stonehouse was the Orange's lone All-ACC selection in 2025, setting the program's single-season punting record, but the future remains bright. The Orange played the most first-time starters in the power 4 in 2025, and more than 60-percent of the players who saw the field were underclassmen.

Freshman linebacker Antoine Deslauriers was named a Freshman All-American and two-way player Demetres Samuel Jr. was a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Award, presented annually to the nation's top true freshman.

The nation's top recruiter, a member of the 2022 College Football National Championship coaching staff and a New Jersey native, Brown has invigorated Syracuse's recruiting efforts in just one season at Syracuse. The 2024 and 2025 recruiting classes – Brown's first two classes – are the two highest-ranked recruiting classes since the advent of national recruiting services. His first transfer portal class ranked No. 9 nationally, another program best.

Brown came to Syracuse from Georgia, where he joined the staff in early 2022. The Bulldogs were 27-1 in his time there and he was part of the coaching staff that led the team to an undefeated season and victory in the 2022 College Football National Championship. Under the leadership of the defensive coaching staff, the Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense, scoring defense, red zone defense and total defense. The defense also finished the season with two first team All-Americans and finalists for awards, including the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award.

According to 247Sports, Brown was the No. 1 recruiter in the nation for the 2024 recruiting class and played a critical role in attracting top talent to Georgia. This designation follows his recruitment of two five-star prospects, both of whom were ranked No. 1 in their respective positions.

Brown's extensive resume also includes stops at Rutgers, Temple (2011-16, 2019), Baylor (2017-18) and Paul VI High School (2010).

Prior to joining the Georgia staff, Brown was defensive backs coach at Rutgers for two seasons. In his first year with the program, his secondary helped create 19 turnovers in 2020, 10 more than the previous season and the most since 2012 for the Scarlet Knights.

Before Rutgers, Brown was co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Temple. While there, the defensive unit was nationally ranked in red zone defense, sacks, defensive touchdowns, tackles-for-loss and fumbles recovered. At Temple, Brown recruited or coached five players who went on to play in the NFL, including three draft picks: Harrison Hand (fifth round, Minnesota Vikings), Shaun Bradley (sixth round, Philadelphia Eagles) and Chapelle Russell (seventh round, Tampa Bay).

Brown has also recruited and worked with future NFL players, such as Sean Chandler, P.J. Walker, Haason Reddick, Jullian Taylor, Sharif Finch, Jacob Martin and Raquell Armstead.

At Baylor, Brown served as the assistant head coach/defensive backs coach. While in Waco, he helped turn the program around from a 1-11 season in 2017 to a 7-6 mark the following year, which culminated in a Texas Bowl victory.

A former student-athlete, Brown played football at Western Carolina University, where he was named a team captain and earned First Team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts. He went on to play two seasons in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Brown grew up in Camden, New Jersey, and began his collegiate career at Hudson Valley Community College, before finishing his college career at Western Carolina.

Brown and his wife, Teara, have two sons, Fran Jr. and Brayden, and a daughter, Ivy Ann.

Despite out-gaining Cal by nearly 200 yards of total offense, Syracuse came up short in their ACC opener, losing 21-18.

Syracuse (1-1, 0-1 ACC) jumped out to an early two-score lead and had multiple chances to tie or take the lead in the fourth quarter, but two missed field goals, and a pair of Cal (1-1, 1-0 ACC) interceptions, put the game away. Tight end Daunte Bacheyie had a career-high four receptions for 74 yards and a touchdown. Quarterback Steve Angeli threw for 307 yards and a touchdown, paired with three interceptions. Wide receiver Justus Ross-Simmons tallied six catches for 105 yards in his first game of the 2026 campaign. Running back Tylik Hill led all Syracuse rushers with 56 yards, before exiting the game with injury after the opening drive.
