GAME NOTES: OFFENSE

TIGHT ENDS IN THE ACTION

- The Orange TEs have accounted for three of the Orange's five receiving touchdowns. David Clement had one in the season opener and Daunte Bacheyie scored one each against Cal and New Hampshire.
- Bacheyie is one of just 27 TEs around the nation to have multiple touchdowns this season.
- Clement and Bacheyie spent the beginning of their careers behind a pair of TEs who earned spots on NFL rosters. Oronde Gadsden, a member of the Los Angeles Chargers, and teammate from a year ago Dan Villari, who is on the Los Angeles Rams practice squad, both spent time in the TE room with Clement at Syracuse.

BALL SECURITY

- The Orange are one of 20 teams to not lose a fumble this season.
- The only other ACC team to not lose a fumble this season is Louisville.

RUSSELL III JOINS THE FOLD

- Freshman WR Calvin Russell III joins the program as Syracuse's highest rated recruit in the modern era.
- He was rated five-stars by 247Sports and was the No. 2 WR and No. 2 player in the state of Florida in the Class of 2026.
- Russell III is expected to return to the field in October.

WHO'S IN THE BACKFIELD?

- Nine different non-QBs have attempted at least one rush through three games.
- Ahmad Miller had the most carries against Pittsburgh with 14 attempts for 82 yards, good for 5.9 yards per carry.
- A pair of underclassmen, sophomore Tylik Hill and freshman Shavane Anderson Jr. have accounted for a bulk of those attempts (48-of-100 total rushes by non-QBs). Anderson Jr. leads the room in total carries with 30.
- Hill racked up 148 yards on 18 attempts in the first two games of the year, an average of 8.2 yards per attempt. He did not play against Pittsburgh.
- Ju'Juan Johnson made his SU debut against Cal, carrying the ball 15 times, the most carries in a game in his career. This nearly doubled his previous career-high of eight in a game against Southeastern Louisiana when he was at LSU.

1959

Syracuse blanked #20 Maryland 29-0 in the second game of its 1959 national championship season, a rout that set the tone for a defense that would post five shutouts on the year. The Orange finished the season 11-0, outscoring opponents by an average of 39.0-5.9 per game.

1992

On this day in 1992, Syracuse went on the road and shut down a No. 17-ranked Louisville squad, 15-9. Trailing 9-7 at halftime, the Orange defense clamped down after the break, holding the Cardinals to just 13 yards of offense — including an 0-for-7 mark through the air over the final 30 minutes. Six sacks fueled the shutdown, while TE Chris Gedney led the offense with five catches for 81 yards.

FRAN BROWN

Head Coach • Third Season • Career Record: 14-14 (.500)

Fran Brown was hired as Syracuse's 31st head coach on Nov. 28, 2023 and immediately invigorated the Syracuse football program, winning multiple national coach of the year honors, delivering a 10-win season and signing the three highest-ranked recruiting classes in the modern era for Syracuse football through his first two seasons.

Brown delivered a 10-win season in his first year at the helm, tying Paul Pasqualoni (1991) for the most victories by a coach in their first season at Syracuse. The 10 wins tie for the third-most victories in a season in program history and was just the third double-digit win campaign for Syracuse since the start of this century.

Buoyed by the culture of D.A.R.T. (Detailed. Accountable. Relentless. Tough.), Brown's Orange won three games against top-25 opponents, the most since 1998 for Syracuse, tallied nine wins over bowl teams, finished the season ranked in every poll for the first time since 2018 and boasted a 7-2 mark in one-score games. 'Cuse capped the season with a win over Washington State in the DIRECTV Holiday Bowl, the program's third-straight bowl appearance.

Syracuse had 12 players earn All-ACC honors in 2024, the most since joining the conference, despite the league now having the most teams in conference history (17), including First Team All-ACC selection Oronde Gadsden II, who also earned AP All-America honors.

The Orange's passing attack led the nation and set numerous records in Brown's first season. Led by standout Kyle McCord, who became the first Syracuse player to finish in the top-10 of Heisman Trophy voting since 2001. McCord set new program records for passing yards (4,779), completions (391), passing attempts (592), passing touchdowns (34), yards per game (367.6) and total offense (4,714).

'Cuse had four players with 60+ receptions, the only school in the nation to do so, and had five players have over 500 yards receiving. Trebor Pena (84), Jackson Meeks (78), Oronde Gadsden II (73) and LeQuint Allen Jr. (64), all finished in the top-11 of single-season receptions at Syracuse.

Allen also had over 1,000 yards on the ground, making him the first running back in school history to have over 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. Allen set new program records for receptions (64) and receiving yards (521) by a running back. He was one-of-two running backs nationally to go over 1,000 rushing and 500 receiving yards on the season.

With Allen's 1,021 rushing yards and Jackson Meeks' 1,021 receiving yards, it was the first time since 2012 that 'Cuse had a 1,000+ yard rusher and receiver.

In addition to Allen's records by a running back, Gadsden broke his own record for receptions by a tight end (73) on the season.

The Orange offense set over 20 individual or team single-season or career records on the season.

Defensively, 10 different Syracuse players recorded an interception on the season, a hallmark of Brown's experience in the secondary and development of defensive backs.

His second season picked up right where he left off, with the Orange defeating Clemson at Memorial Stadium in the ACC opener, the program's first victory in Death Valley. However, mounting injuries to key players stalled momentum, with Syracuse finishing the season 3-9.

Quarterback Steve Angeli was leading the nation in passing through four games, showing that a prolific passing attack was no fluke in year one, however a season-ending injury in the second half of the Clemson game stalled the results offensively the rest of the way.

Jack Stonehouse was the Orange's lone All-ACC selection in 2025, setting the program's single-season punting record, but the future remains bright. The Orange played the most first-time starters in the power 4 in 2025, and more than 60-percent of the players who saw the field were underclassmen.

Freshman linebacker Antoine Deslauriers was named a Freshman All-American and two-way player Demetres Samuel Jr. was a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Award, presented annually to the nation's top true freshman.

The nation's top recruiter, a member of the 2022 College Football National Championship coaching staff and a New Jersey native, Brown has invigorated Syracuse's recruiting efforts in just one season at Syracuse. The 2024 and 2025 recruiting classes – Brown's first two classes – are the two highest-ranked recruiting classes since the advent of national recruiting services. His first transfer portal class ranked No. 9 nationally, another program best.

Brown came to Syracuse from Georgia, where he joined the staff in early 2022. The Bulldogs were 27-1 in his time there and he was part of the coaching staff that led the team to an undefeated season and victory in the 2022 College Football National Championship. Under the leadership of the defensive coaching staff, the Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense, scoring defense, red zone defense and total defense. The defense also finished the season with two first team All-Americans and finalists for awards, including the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award.

According to 247Sports, Brown was the No. 1 recruiter in the nation for the 2024 recruiting class and played a critical role in attracting top talent to Georgia. This designation follows his recruitment of two five-star prospects, both of whom were ranked No. 1 in their respective positions.

Brown's extensive resume also includes stops at Rutgers, Temple (2011-16, 2019), Baylor (2017-18) and Paul VI High School (2010).

Prior to joining the Georgia staff, Brown was defensive backs coach at Rutgers for two seasons. In his first year with the program, his secondary helped create 19 turnovers in 2020, 10 more than the previous season and the most since 2012 for the Scarlet Knights.

Before Rutgers, Brown was co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Temple. While there, the defensive unit was nationally ranked in red zone defense, sacks, defensive touchdowns, tackles-for-loss and fumbles recovered. At Temple, Brown recruited or coached five players who went on to play in the NFL, including three draft picks: Harrison Hand (fifth round, Minnesota Vikings), Shaun Bradley (sixth round, Philadelphia Eagles) and Chapelle Russell (seventh round, Tampa Bay).

Brown has also recruited and worked with future NFL players, such as Sean Chandler, P.J. Walker, Hasson Reddick, Jullian Taylor, Sharif Finch, Jacob Martin and Raquell Armstead.

At Baylor, Brown served as the assistant head coach/defensive backs coach. While in Waco, he helped turn the program around from a 1-11 season in 2017 to a 7-6 mark the following year, which culminated in a Texas Bowl victory.

A former student-athlete, Brown played football at Western Carolina University, where he was named a team captain and earned First Team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts. He went on to play two seasons in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Brown grew up in Camden, New Jersey, and began his collegiate career at Hudson Valley Community College, before finishing his college career at Western Carolina.

Brown and his wife, Teara, have two sons, Fran Jr. and Brayden, and a daughter, Ivy Ann.

SYRACUSE	18
CALIFORNIA	21

Despite out-gaining Cal by nearly 200 yards of total offense, Syracuse came up short in their ACC opener, losing 21-18.

Syracuse (1-1, 0-1 ACC) jumped out to an early two-score lead and had multiple chances to tie or take the lead in the fourth quarter, but two missed field goals, and a pair of Cal (1-1, 1-0 ACC) interceptions, put the game away. Tight end Daunte Bacheyie had a career-high four receptions for 74 yards and a touchdown. Quarterback Steve Angeli threw for 307 yards and a touchdown, paired with three interceptions. Wide receiver Justus Ross-Simmons tallied six catches for 105 yards in his first game of the 2026 campaign. Running back Tylik Hill led all Syracuse rushers with 56 yards, before exiting the game with injury after the opening drive.
