Quickly: Southern Utah opens the Summit League tournament Saturday at 6:00 p.m. (Central) against the same team it ended the season against last week, Oakland. SUU enters the tournament as the eighth seed while Oakland is the top-seeded team for the second straight season.

The Thunderbirds (11-18/7-11 Summit League) had won three straight games, their longest winning streak of the year, prior to suffering a 82-68 defeat at the hands of Oakland last Saturday. SUU, which has won five of its last eight games, had posted a convincing 84-66 home win over IPFW on Thursday night, a win that came on the heels of its first conference road sweep since the 2003-04 season. Those two road wins were an 80-68 upset over IUPUI and a 68-63 win at Western Illinois. Prior to the win at IUPUI the T-Birds went 2-2 on a four-game homestand, beating Cal State Bakersfield (63-59) and Centenary (70-49) and losing close battles against UMKC (71-68) and Oral Roberts (71-69).

Oakland (22-9/17-1) has won five straight after the win at SUU on Saturday. The Golden Grizzlies – who have won 15 of their last 16 games – wrapped up the Summit League regular-season championship and the top seed in the league tournament with a win at North Dakota State on Feb. 17. They were the first team in the country to clinch a regular-season title. Oakland is the defending conference regular-season and tournament champion.

This marks the third time in its Summit League history that SUU will meet the same team it ended the regular season against in the first round of the conference tournament, and the second against Oakland. SUU is 1-2 in such games. The first occurrence was in 1997-98 when the Thunderbirds lost at Oral Roberts, 86-69, then dropped a 94-84 double overtime decision to the Golden Eagles in the tournament to finish 0-3 vs. ORU that season. The second time was against Oakland in 2002-03 when SUU lost at Oakland, 92-77, but avenged that setback with a 66-55 tournament win to finish the season 2-1 vs. the Golden Grizzlies. The last time was in 2007-08 when the Thunderbirds beat IPFW, 99-89, at home in the season finale only to lose to the Mastodons, 66-62, in the tournament to finish 2-1 vs. IPFW that season.

The Game: Southern Utah (11-18/7-11) vs Oakland (22-9/17-1) Saturday at 6:00 p.m. (Central) in the first round of The Summit League tournament, at the Sioux Falls Arena, Sioux Falls, S.D.

Radio: All Southern Utah men's basketball games are broadcast live by KSUU (91.1 FM) and KSUB AM (590) as well as on the internet at www.suu.edu/ksuu. Art Challis is in his 36th season as the Thunderbirds' basketball play-by-play voice. He is joined on home broadcasts by former SUU great Dean O'Driscoll.

TV: The game will be televised live in Utah by KMYU. It is available over the air on channel 12.1 in southern Utah and 2.2 in Northern Utah, on DishNetwork channel 12, and on the following cable outlets: Comcast channel 22, Bresnan Channel 18 and Skyview Channel 12.

The Series: The Grizzlies took a 14-13 advantage in the series with the win last Saturday and have won five straight against the 'Birds. In addition to the win in Cedar City Oakland notched an 81-65 home win earlier this season. They also swept the T-Birds last year, taking a 99-53 home win and a 85-72 win in Cedar City. The five-game winning stretch against SUU began with a 78-62 decision in Rochester, Mich., at the end of the 2008-09 regular season. Prior to the 2009 loss the Thunderbirds had won four straight against the Grizzlies. The Thunderbirds are 1-0 in neutral site games against Oakland, the 66-55 win in Kansas City in 2003.

Southern Utah In The Summit League/Mid-Con Tournament: SUU is 7-11 all-time in the league's post-season tournament, including a 3-0 championship run in 2001. Since joining the league in 1997-98 SUU has entered the tournament four times as the fifth seed (1999, 2006, 2007 and 2009), twice each as the second (2000 and 2001), fourth (2002, 2008), seventh (2004 and 1998) and eighth seed (2005, 2011); and once as the sixth (2003) seed. SUU has never been a three seed.

Through their tournament history the Thunderbirds are 2-0 vs. Western Illinois, 1-0 vs. Oakland, 1-1 vs. UMKC, 1-2 vs. both Valparaiso and Oral Roberts, 1-3 vs. IUPUI, and 0-1 vs. IPFW, North Dakota State and former league member Youngstown State.

In their championship run in 2001 the Thunderbirds topped Western Illinois (66-53), Oral Roberts (73-62) and Valparaiso (62-59 for the championship) in their three-game run.

In 2000 SUU beat Western (78-68) and UMKC (72-54) before falling to Valparaiso (71-62) in the championship game.

In 1998, the first year for both teams in the Mid-Con, Oral Roberts took a 94-84 double-overtime victory in the first round, in 1999 Youngstown State prevailed 78-56 in the first round and SUU dropped a 70-57 decision to UMKC in the first round following the 2001-02 season. In 2004 the Thunderbirds lost a 74-60 decision to IUPUI and in 2005 top-seeded Oral Roberts beat the Thunderbirds, 82-59. In 2006 the Thunderbirds lost a 77-66 decision to Valpo in the quarterfinal round and in 2007 IUPUI took a 71-59 win in the quarterfinals. IPFW came out on top of a 66-62 decision against the Thunderbirds in 2008.

For the most part the tourney has been an all-or-nothing proposition for the 'Birds, as they have either lost in the first round or made it all the way to the championship game in all but two of their 11 previous go-arounds. Only in 2003 and 2009 did the 'Birds buck that trend. In '03 they won their first round game against Oakland (66-55) before falling in the semifinals to eventual champ IUPUI (72-67), and in '09 they pulled out a 53-48 win over IUPUI before falling again the eventual champion, North Dakota State (79-67) in the semis.

Prior to moving to Sioux Falls, the tournament had been held in four venues since the Thunderbirds joined the league. SUU was 0-2 at The Mark in Moline, Ill., 5-2 at Memorial Coliseum in Ft. Wayne, Ind., 1-2 in tournament games at Kansas City's Kemper Arena and was 0-3 at John Hammons Arena in Tulsa, Okla.

Practice Schedule: The Thunderbirds will practice Tuesday from 3:00-to-5:00 p.m. in the Centrum Arena prior to departing for Sioux Falls on Wednesday. At Sioux Falls, the team has a scheduled practice from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Friday at the Family Wellness Center with its 27-minute shoot-around scheduled for 9:00 a.m. Saturday in Sioux Falls Arena. Friday's practice is open to the public while the shoot-around is a closed session. Contact SUU Sports Information Director Neil Gardner at (435) 559-0275 for more information.

Looking Ahead: The winner of Saturday's game will face the winner of No.4 IPFW vs. No. 5 South Dakota State, Monday night at 6:00 p.m. (CST).

The Coaches:

Head Coach Roger Reid (Weber State '68) is in his fourth season on the SUU bench this year after spending the previous two at Snow College.

Reid takes a career Division I mark of 192-155, including a 40-79 record at

THUNDERBIRDS MEET OAKLAND IN SUMMIT QUARTERFINALS 4-4-4-4-4

SUU, into the tournament. His record includes six years as head coach at Brigham Young.

Coach Reid's career has spanned virtually every level of the coaching strata, including the high school, junior college, and NCAA Division I levels as well as the NBA and international ranks. He is probably best known for his success at Brigham Young University, where he led the Cougars to five NCAA tournament berths and three Western Athletic Conference championships. He has also coached the Phoenix Suns of the NBA and the Hangzhou Horses of the Chinese Basketball Association. Reid coached Snow College to a conference title and a No. 18 national ranking in his final season on the bench there.

Reid is assisted by Ron Carling (BYU '70), a 39-year coaching veteran who is also in his fourth season with the program; Johnny Brown (New Mexico '86), a 17-year veteran of the coaching ranks who is in his fourth year in Cedar City; and assistant Kenya Crandell (Nebraska-Kearney '96) who is in his 14th season as a collegiate coach and his third year at SUU.

About the Golden Grizzlies:

Oakland is 2-0 in neutral site games this season, with wins over Southern (105-53) and Austin Peay (78-70 in overtime) in the Chicago Invitational Challenge.

Senior Keith Benson (C, 6-11, 230), the Summit League's reigning player of the year, leads the team with 17.7 points, 10.2 rebounds and 1159 blocks but he is far from the only OU threat. Three more players, including guard Reggie Hamilton (5-11, 175, Jr), forward Will Hudson (6-9, 235, Sr) and guard Travis Bader (6-4, 180, RSFr) carry double-figure scoring averages. Hamilton, who also leads the team with 5.3 assists per game, checks in at 16.8 ppg, while Hudson averages 12.7 points (and 7.0 rebounds) and Bader scores at a 10.4 ppg clip. Guard Larry Wright (6-2, 165, Sr) averages 9.9 points and 3.1 assists.

The Grizzlies are the highest-scoring team in The Summit League, at 84.98 ppg. They have hit 48.8 percent of their shots, also the best in the league, and 37.4 percent of their 3-point attempts. OU has allowed opponents an average of 76.5 ppg on .440 shooting (.362 threes), has out-rebounded its opponents by an average of 39.5-to-33.9 caroms per game and has connected on 72.2 percent of its free throws.

T-Bird Notes:

- SUU is 1-2 in neutral site games this season, with a win against Houston Baptist and losses to Drake and Ball State at the Great Alaska Shootout.

- Ramell Taylor arguably his best game since the

THUNDERBIRDS MEET OAKLAND IN SUMMIT QUARTERFINALS 5-5-5-5-5

Thunderbirds played Utah State against Oakland. The junior forward from Detroit, Mich., led the T-Birds with 15 points and eight rebounds and blocked a shot as well. In 25 minutes on the floor he hit 7-of-10 shots and had four offensive rebounds. The rebounds were a career-high while the points were his most since he scored 22 against USU back on Nov. 20.

- Ryan Brimley, SUU's only senior this year, had a good effort in his final home game. He hit 4-of-8 shots – including 3-of-6 from 3-point range – to finish with 13 points, dished out two assists and had a pair of steals in 28 minutes on the floor.

- The Thunderbirds had a string of three straight games shooting 60 percent or better come to an end vs. Oakland, when they hit 28-of-65 shots, 43.1 percent. The 65 shots were the most the team has taken in a game this year. Prior to the Oakland game the 'Birds shot .625 at WIU and .620 at IUPUI, their two best shooting games of the season, then finished at an even .600 against IPFW. The Thunderbirds hit 20-of-32 shots vs. the Leathernecks, 31-of-50 vs. the Jaguars and 30-of-50 vs. the 'Dons. In all three games the T-Birds were scorching the net in the second half, hitting 21-of-28 at IUPUI (75 percent), 11-of-15 at WIU (.733) and 14-of-22 vs. IPFW (.636).

- The Thunderbirds did a good job defensively on Oakland, holding the Grizzlies to 24-of-62 shooting (.387), but OU was able to convert 28-of-38 free throw attempts. Oakland's 38.7 percent success rate was its lowest in a Summit League game this season and its lowest since Ohio State held the Grizzlies to 37.7 (23-61) percent back on Dec. 23.

- SUU had four starters in double figures vs. IPFW as Kyle Davis scored 18 points, Ray Jones, Jr., scored 16, Jackson Stevenett had 15, and Matt Massey finished with 10. The fifth starter, Ryan Brimley, finished with nine points.

- Davis had a good all-around game vs. the Mastodons, leading the team in scoring (18 points on 8-of-11 shooting), rebounds (eight), assists (five), co-leading the team with one steal and blocking three shots. His five assists were a personal-best.

- SUU blocked seven shots vs. IPFW. Along with Davis' three rejections, Stevenett blocked a team-high and personal-best four shots vs. IPFW.

- Until Oakland pulled down 49 rebounds to SUU's 37 the T-Birds had ruled the glass in four straight games. Led by Davis' eight boards the T-Birds out-rebounded IPFW 35-to-28. Massey pulled down six and Stevenett had five boards. At WIU, SUU held a 25-18 edge, with Jones pulling down a team-high five while Stevenett and Nielson each had four rebounds. SUU pulled down 30 rebounds (including 11 on the offensive end) to IUPUI's 22, with Matt Hodgson, Ramell Taylor and Jordan Weirick leading the way with five each. On Feb. 12, SUU out-rebounded Oral Roberts 41-24. Davis led the way with nine, Ryan Brimley pulled down a career-high seven, and Massey and Jones each had six.

- Davis is third in the League in field goal percentage (conference games) at .649 and in blocks with 1.3 per game, is sixth in defensive rebounds (4.7 rpg) and is 12th in overall rebounding (6.0 rpg). Hodgson is sixth in blocks with 1.1, Brimley is fifth in free throw percentage at .849. Jones is fourth in assists (3.9 apg) and 6th in assists/turnover ratio (1.4). Massey is ninth in field goal percentage (.556), and Nielson is 10th in steals (1.2 per game).

- Stevenett hit 5-of-7 shots and 4-of-4 free throws at IUPUI then converted 4-of-5 shots and 7-of-8 free throws at Western Illinois, making him 9-12 from the field and 11-12 from the line that week. He led the team in scoring with 15 points at WIU.

- With the wins at IUPUI and Western Illinois, the Thunderbirds pulled off their first conference road sweep since the 2003-04 season, when they won at Oakland, then traveled south to win again, at IUPUI.
- SUU's bench outscored IUPUI's 58-8 on Feb. 17. Four T-Bird reserves scored in double figures, with a season-high five players scoring 10 or more points. Jake Nielson came off the bench to lead the way with a season-high 15 points, while Matt Hodgson had a season-best 14 (with five rebounds and a season-high four blocks), Jordan Weirick came in and scored 12 (and also had five rebounds) and Ramell Taylor finished with 10 points (and five boards). Jackson Stevenett was the only Thunderbird starter to play more than 15 minutes or score in double figures; he finished with 14 points and four boards.
- Damon Heuir also had a major contribution off the bench against IUPUI. He tied his season-high with four assists, had seven points, three rebounds and a steal, but perhaps most importantly, didn't turn the ball over in 33 minutes at point guard.
- SUU combined to block eight shots at IUPUI, their most since swatting a school-record 13 vs. Panhandle State on Dec. 14. Hodgson's four led the way while Davis had two and Stevenett and Taylor each had one. Davis had two more at WIU while Jordan Weirick rejected one.
- The win at IUPUI was the team's first when trailing at the half. The home loss to the Jaguars was SUU's first when leading at the half. SUU is 10-2 when leading at the half (the T-Birds also lost at home to UMKC when leading at halftime) and 1-16 when trailing at the break.
- SUU had just three turnovers in the second half at IUPUI. That tied the team's fewest in a half this season. SUU had just three in the first half in the first game vs. WIU.
- Until playing just seven minutes and finishing with four points and three rebounds at IUPUI Davis had led the Thunderbirds in scoring and rebounding in three straight games. He scored 17 points in each game and pulled down 11, eight and nine rebounds. He recorded the fourth double-double of his collegiate career Feb. 5 when he scored a team-high 17 points and pulled down 11 rebounds vs. UMKC. He followed that with 17 points and eight rebounds vs. Centenary and 17 points and nine boards vs. Oral Roberts.
- The 48 points SUU allowed WIU the first time the teams met were the fewest by a T-Bird opponent since the team held IUPUI to that same total in the quarterfinals of the 2009 Summit League tournament. SUU held WIU to 26.7 percent shooting (12-45) in that game, its best defensive effort since holding Washington State to a .255 effort (14-of-55) on Nov. 28, 2003. The 12 field goals WIU scored were the fewest by an SUU opponent since Montana Tech also had 12, on Dec. 19, 2002.
- SUU went with just eight players at home against UMKC, their shortest bench of the season. The starters played 178 of the 200 minutes but the T-Bird bench still outscored the 'Roo reserves, 8-7. The fewest players the team had used prior to the game was 10.
- Block Party: The Thunderbirds combined to block a school-record 13 shots against Panhandle State. Davis led the way with four rejections, while four more Thunderbirds, Massey, Koehler, Stevenett and Hodgson each swatted a pair. Nielson got in on the action as well, blocking one shot. The previous high by the team came back in December of 2006 when Brad Kanis blocked 10 shots, to set both the school's individual and team records.
- The Thunderbirds have blocked 132 shots this season, led by Hodgson's 34. Hodgson, the SUU single-season blocks leader with 64 last year, is now second on the SUU career list with 98, behind Sean Allen's 113 from 1993 to 1995. Hodgson's 34 rejections this season rank eighth on the SUU single-season list. Davis has 31 blocks this season, the 10th-best total in SUU history.
- Massey was named to the Great Alaska Shootout all-tournament team. Massey averaged 16.0 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.3 assists per game while shooting at a .581 clip. He was also named player of the game in the win over HBU after scoring 20 points (on 10-of-16 shooting), pulling down four rebounds, blocking a shot and dishing out an assist against the Huskies.
- The Thunderbirds are playing their penultimate season in The Summit League. Southern Utah announced on Nov. 1, that it will be departing The Summit in the fall of 2012 to join the Big Sky Conference.

T-Birds Picked Ninth In Summit Poll: Southern Utah was picked to finish in ninth place in the annual poll of the league's coaches and media. SUU received 167 votes to finish 10 behind eighth-place UMKC and 80 ahead of 10th-place Centenary. Oakland was selected to defend its league title with 504 points and 29 first-place votes, while Oral Roberts was second with 455 points and three first-place votes. IUPUI received two first-place nods and 423 points for third place. From there it was a drop to fourth-place North Dakota State, which received 315 points, South Dakota State had 296 points, IPFW had 284 and Western Illinois had 232.

#2 Brian Cameron

6-3, 190, So., G; Draper, Utah/Snow College

Career Highs: 6 points vs. University of the Southwest (11/19/09), 3 rebounds at UNLV (12/18/10), 3 assists vs. Ball State (11/26/10)

2010-11 Highs: 5 points, 3 rebounds at UNLV; 3 assists vs. Ball State

The Skinny: Played sparingly earlier in the season then appeared in five straight games until not playing vs. ORU. Didn't play at IUPUI or WIU but appeared against both IPFW and Oakland. Dished out two assists with a rebound and a steal vs. Oakland. Co-led team in steals three times.

2010-11 Highlights: Had his best game of the season at UNLV where he scored a season-high five points and pulled down a career-best three rebounds in eight minutes on he floor; he had two of the highlight plays of the game, with a quick drive to the basket for a dunk in the first half and a soaring Alley Oop dunk in the second. Played four minutes at SDSU, had a steal and a basket. Made the most of his one minute on the floor at NDSU where he had four points and two rebounds.

At SUU, 2009-10: Spent the season as a medical redshirt. Played in two games early in the season before suffering an injury, scored six points vs. University of the Southwest and 2 against Wayland Baptist, with a rebound and a block in each game and a steal vs. USW. Hit 4-of-7 shots.

At Snow College: Spent the 2006-07 season playing for Coach Reid before serving an LDS church mission to Seoul, Korea. Played in 20 games with seven starts, averaged 3.6 points, 1.5 rebounds, 1.2 assists and 0.8 steals per game. Shot .385 from the field and .818 from the free throw line.

At Alta High School: A three-year letterman for Coach Tony Cannon's Hawks, helped his team to three region titles and earned second-team all-state honors as a senior. Averaged 12.1 points, 4.8 rebounds, 3.7 assists. Best game was vs. Taylorsville when he scored 29 points. Was also a two-year letter-winner in football and track.

THUNDERBIRDS MEET OAKLAND IN SUMMIT QUARTERFINALS 10-10-10-10-10

#10 Ryan Brimley

6-4, 190, Sr., G; Sandy, Utah/Snow College

Career Highs: 29 points vs. South Dakota St. (1/1/11), 7 rebounds vs. Oral Roberts (2/12/11), 4 assists vs. UC Riverside (12/21/09)

2010-11 Highs: 29 points vs. South Dakota St.; 7 rebounds vs. Oral Roberts; 3 assists vs. SDSU, vs. Western Illinois, at SDSU

The Skinny: The only senior on the team. Started at UMKC, his first since the season-opener, and has been in starting lineup since. Leads team in 3-pointers attempted and made, and in free throw percentage among players with 10-plus attempts. Has led or co-led team in scoring and steals six times, in rebounds and assists once each.

2010-11 Highlights: Scored 13 points on 4-of-8 shooting (3-6 threes), also dished out two assists and had two steals on senior night vs. Oakland. Pulled down a career-high seven rebounds vs. Oral Roberts. Co-led team with three steals vs. Centenary, also had 13 points. Paced team with 14 points and had six boards vs. CS Bakersfield. Led team with 23 points at SDSU where he hit 8-of-14 shots, including 5-of-9 3-pointers. Scored 12 points at NDSU. Paced team with 19 points vs. IUPUI, hit 5-of-10 3-point attempts. Scored 18 points, including the team's final eight from the free throw line at Centenary where he was 10-of-10 from the line. Hit three 3-pointers down the stretch at UMKC, finished with 12 points and four rebounds. Scored a career-high 29 points vs. SDSU, hit 9-of-16 shots, including 6-of-9 threes, also hit all five of his free throws and had two steals. Came off the bench to score a team-high 16 points vs. OPSU. Led team with 18 points vs. Weber State. Scored 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting from 3-point range at Oakland. Hit the game-winner against Houston Baptist, a 3-pointer from the left wing with three seconds to play.

At SUU, 2009-10: Led the team in 3-pointers made and was second in free throw shooting at 84.8 percent, would have ranked fourth in The Summit League but didn't have enough attempts to qualify for the rankings. Finished the season fourth on the team in scoring with 7.8 points per game, third in assists with 1.2 per game, fourth in steals at 0.7 spg, and fifth in defensive rebounds with 2.0 rpg. scored in double figures in 10 games, led team in scoring six times and led or co-led team in steals seven times. Hit two big 3-pointers during the second half as SUU took control against McNeese St. Paced team with 19 points at Oral Roberts, where he hit 4-of-7 threes. Posted or tied his then-career-highs for points (26), rebounds (five) and assists (four) vs. UC Riverside when he scored 24 second half points to help lift the team to the win.

At Snow College: Earned honorable mention all-Scenic West Conference honors after leading the Badgers in scoring at 12.9 points per game. Also averaged 2.2 rebounds and was a .404 shooter from 3-point range as well as an 80.6 percent free throw shooter.

At Hillcrest High School: A two-time all-state performer at Hillcrest where he helped Coach Brad Tingey's Huskies to region championships his junior and senior seasons. Helped the team to a 21-3 record his junior year, when the team won 19 straight games, and a 17-5 mark as a senior. Best game was a 40-point night against Bingham High.

#13 Ramell Taylor

6-5, 190, Jr, G/F; Detroit, Mich./Fort Scott College

2010-11/Career Highs: 22 points vs. Utah State; 7 rebounds at CSUB, vs. Utah State; 4 assists vs. Cal Baptist

The Skinny: Played well early in the season when he led or co-led team in scoring, rebounds, assists, steals and/or blocks at least once through the first three games, including team-highs of 22 points seven rebounds and a block vs. Utah State. Played 25 minutes vs. Oakland, his longest stretch on the floor since going 28 minutes at UC Davis on Dec. 21. Has led or co-led team in scoring twice, in rebounds and blocks four times, in steals three times and in assists once.

2010-11 Highlights: Hit 4-of-7 shots vs. IPFW, finished with nine points. Sparked the team at IUPUI when he hit 5-of-7 shots for 10 points, co-led team with five rebounds, had an assist, a block and a steal. Came of the bench for 11 points, a co-team-high six rebounds and two blocks vs. CSUB; punctuated the win with a highlight-reel dunk. Scored with 11 points, four rebounds, two blocks and an assist at IPFW. Scored a season-best 22 points and tied his high with seven rebounds vs. Utah State, also blocked a shot and hit all five of his free throws in 40 minutes on the floor. Started, scored 16 points and pulled down seven rebounds at CS Bakersfield, also had two assists and two steals in 29 minutes on the floor. Scored 12 points in 26 minutes vs Cal Baptist, also led the team with four assists and had a pair of rebounds.

At Fort Scott CC: Earned academic all-America and second-team all-Jayhawk Conference honors last year when he averaged 16.8 points and 6.7 rebounds while shooting .540 from the floor. He also blocked 43 shots for Coach Mike Cook's Greyhounds. Ranked fourth in the league in scoring, 10th in blocks and among the top-20 in rebounding last season. A Phi Beta Kappa student at FSCC.

THUNDERBIRDS MEET OAKLAND IN SUMMIT QUARTERFINALS 12-12-12-12-12

#21 Jackson Stevenett

6-4, 190, So, F; Kaysville, Utah/Davis HS

Career Highs: 22 points at Oral Roberts (1/13/11); 8 rebounds vs. South Dakota St. (1/1/11), at ORU (1/13/11); 4 assists at NDSU (2/6/10), at UMKC (1/8/11), vs. Oakland (2/26/11)

2010-11 Highs: 22 points at Oral Roberts; 8 rebounds vs. South Dakota St., at ORU; 4 assists at UMKC, vs. Oakland

The Skinny: Has started the last 14 games and been one of the team's most consistent players. Has scored in double figures five straight games and is third on the team in field goal percentage. Had a three-game stretch (vs. SDSU, UMKC and Oral Roberts) when he averaged 19.3 points and 7.7 rebounds per game. Sat out fall semester because of issues with the NCAA's progress toward degree requirements. Has led or co-led team in scoring twice, in rebounds and assists three times and in blocks five times.

2010-11 Highlights: Tied his career-high with four assists vs. Oakland, also scored 12 points and pulled down seven rebounds vs. the Grizzlies. Scored in double-figures for the fourth straight game when he finished with 15 vs IPFW, also blocked a career-high four shots and had five rebounds. Scored a team-high 15 points at Western Illinois, hitting 4-of-5 shots and 7-of-8 free throws, also had four rebounds and dished out a pair of assists. Was the only starter in double-figures at IUPUI, where he scored 14 points with four boards, two assists and a block. Scored 10 points and pulled down four rebounds vs. ORU Had two blocks for the second straight game vs. CSUB, also had three assists, five boards and eight points with a steal. Led team with five rebounds and two blocks at SDSU, where he scored 12 points to get back into double-figures for the first time in five games. Scored 17 points, pulled down seven rebounds and tied his career-high with four assists at UMKC. Posted career scoring, rebounding and assists highs vs. SDSU when he came off the bench for 19 points, eight rebounds and two assists; hit 7-of-12 shots and had five offensive boards in the game. Scored a then-season-high eight points, also dished out two assists and blocked a shot vs. NDSU.

2009-10 Highlights: Walked on to the team and earned a spot in the playing rotation, appeared in 21 games with four starts. Finished the season sixth on the team's scoring list at 4.0 ppg, and fifth in rebounding, with 3.0 caroms per game, and tied for second in offensive rebounds with 1.3 rpg. Led or co-led team in steals four times, in blocks twice and assists once. Saw limited action through the first third of the season but got into the rotation at Weber State and played significant minutes in most of the remaining games. Got the first start of his career at IPFW, responded with seven rebounds, four points and two steals. Hit all five of his shots and all three of his free throws vs. Oakland for a then-career-high 13 points, also had two rebounds, an assist and a steal in 25 minutes on the court.

At Davis High School: Earned Utah's 5A Most Valuable Player honors in 2008 after leading the Darts to a 20-0 regular-season record and their third consecutive region championship. Helped lead DHS to the semi-finals of the state tournament where they lost in overtime to eventual state champ Lone Peak by a 57-55 margin. Averaged 18 points, 7.1 rebounds, 2.6 assist and 1.8 blocks per game his senior season for Coach Jay Welk. In addition to his 5A MVP honors he was also all-area MVP and earned first-team all-region recognition.

SUU #34 fouled out 14:31 second half

SUU's season-long three-game winning streak came to an end in an 82-68 defeat to league-leading Oakland University in SUU's regular season finale.

Junior forward Ramell Taylor led SUU with 15 points and a career-high eight rebounds while senior guard Ryan Brimley finished with 13 points in his final home game for the Thunderbirds. Sophomore forward Jackson Stevenett chipped in with 12 points and seven boards.

Southern Utah shot 43 percent from the field and scored 22 points off of 18 turnovers but Oakland's inside presence eventually took its toll as the Grizzlies owned a 49-37 advantage in rebounding and while as frontcourt combined for 36 points and 33 rebounds. Forward Will Hudson led the Golden Grizzlies with 16 points and added 10 rebounds while reigning Summit League Player of the Year Keith Benson finished with 13 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks.

The Thunderbirds opened the game with two quick buckets as Brimley knocked down a long three from the left wing to bring the crowd to its feet. Southern Utah continued to hit its shots and dial up the defensive pressure to keep its lead as Taylor provided a spark off the bench, scoring six straight points to give SUU a 12-5 advantage just over eight minutes in.

The Thunderbirds held 22-17 advantage with 6:10 to go in the half after layups by Stevenett and Jake Neilson, but that's when Oakland caught fire, closing the half with a 21-2 run, highlighted by the four straight three-pointers as the half's final 12 points to take a 38-24 lead at the break.

SUU shot 32 percent through the first 20 minutes and forced eight turnovers but Oakland shot 39 percent and made 12-of-15 at the free throw line to own the 14-point advantage at the break.

The Golden Grizzlies continued to knock down shots in the opening minutes of the second half, using their size advantage to pull away from the Thunderbirds. Oakland put together a 15-4 run in the early minutes to open up a 59-34 lead at the 14:31 mark.

SUU made several runs at the Grizzlies but were never able to get closer than the final 14-point deficit.

Southern Utah gave Summit League favorite Oakland all it wanted through the first 30 minutes Thursday night but a late SUU cold spell and two earlier Golden Grizzly runs spelled doom for the Thunderbirds as OU claimed an 81-65 win in the conference opener for both teams.

After Oakland took a 2-0 lead early in the game Jordan Weirick hit a 3-pointer for the Thunderbirds, who went on to lead through much of the early going until a cold spell allowed the Grizzlies to build a 19-12 lead. Tyson Koehler came off the bench to give the Thunderbirds a spark, however, eight points and pulling down a defensive rebound that led to a Ray Jones, Jr., fast-break basket as the Thunderbirds went back up 24-22.

Oakland went on a 9-0 run over the final 2:16 of the first half to turn a that deficit into a 31-24 halftime lead, however. After Kyle Davis hit a long jumper to stake the Thunderbirds to a 24-22 lead with 2:45 to go Reggie Hamilton answered with a 3-pointer to give the Grizzlies a 25-24 advantage. After Hamilton scored on a layup to give OU a 27-24 advantage Drew Valentine picked Ramell Taylor's pocket and got the ball to Will Hudson for a 29-24 OU lead, then after another SUU turnover Valentine found Hudson for a dunk at the buzzer to give the Grizzlies the 7-point halftime edge.

Koehler hit 4-of-4 shots to score eight first half points to lead the Thunderbirds while Hamilton had 10 points to lead Oakland.

The second Oakland run came after SUU had pulled back within 35-30 on a Koehler layup with just over 17 minutes to play. Oakland outscored SUU 16-4 over the next five minutes, however, with Valentine and Hamilton capping the run with back-to-back 3-pointers to give the Grizzlies a 51-34 advantage with 12:25 to play.

Southern Utah hung around, cutting the deficit to 11, at 56-45 on a Matt Hodgson free throw with 7:55 to play but Oakland was able to fend off the Thunderbirds despite Ryan Brimley hitting three 3-pointers in the final 1:09.

Jones led SUU with 13 points while Koehler and Brimley each added 12. Koehler finished the game 6-of-6 from the floor while Brimley was 4-of-5, including a perfect 4-for-4 from 3-point range in the second half as SUU converted 24-of-55 shots (43.6 percent) Jones dished out a career-high seven assists and the Thunderbirds finished with 16 dimes overall, their second-highest total of the season behind the 20 they had against Houston Baptist last Saturday.

Weirick and Hodgson each had five rebounds for the Thunderbirds, who were out-rebounded for just the second time all season, as the Grizzlies pulled down 35 caroms, led by Benson's 11. Hamilton led all scorers with 23 points while Benson added 19, Valentine had 12 and Hudson finished with 11 as Oakland hit 32-of-61 shots (52.5 percent).

Davis Baker scored 25 points and Tyler Quinney added 17 Sunday night as fifth seed Southern Utah ended a six-year Summit League tournament drought with a 53-48 win over fourth-seeded IUPUI.

Quinney led the Thunderbirds through the early going, scoring SUU's first 11 points and it was Baker who sewed up the deal at the end, tallying 12 of SUU's final 15.

"They were defending our perimeter in the first half and I was able to get some good looks inside early," Quinney said after the game. "I was able to take advantage of the opportunities they gave me."

Neither team led by more than six points in the first half and the Jaguars held a 26-25 lead at halftime after Mike Jossierand's 3-pointer late in the half pulled the Thunderbirds within one.

SUU took control early in the second period, scoring the first six points of the half to take a 32-26 lead with 15:41 to play when Baker hit the second of his four 3-pointers.

IUPUI battled back to take a 39-38 lead but that was when Baker took over, scoring nine straight points to give SUU a 47-39 edge with 6:25 to play.

Again IUPUI battled back, however, getting back within 49-48 on a Jon Avery layup with 1:37 to play. Southern Utah allowed the Jaguars to get back in the game by turning it over on the offensive end as well as, uncharacteristically, missing free throws.

SUU, which came into the game as the top free throw shooting team in the nation, but hit just 7-of-17 Sunday night. Quinney hit two, however, to push the Thunderbird lead to 51-48, and down the stretch Baker and Dave Marek each hit one of two chances to provide the final margin.

"I don't know why we missed so many; I think it's been a while since we played a game and we were a little jittery but we've got that behind us and I think we'll come out and hit them tomorrow," Baker said.

On his second-half success from the floor – he scored 18 of his 25 after the break – Baker pointed out that IUPUI's defensive emphasis switched to the inside, opening things up for him.

"They started collapsing after Tyler's first half and that gave me opportunities," he said. "With them guarding the middle it gave me some better looks."

SUU Coach Roger Reid pointed to a pair of critical factors in his team's win: defense and rebounding.

In addition to being SUU's first tournament win since the 2003 season, it snapped a six-game SUU losing streak against IUPUI, as well as a three-game skid against the Jaguars in tournament play.

Southern Utah's three seniors all scored in double figures but three of North Dakota State's four did as well, propelling the Bison to a 79-67 win over the Thunderbirds in the Summit League semi-finals.

Tyler Quinney scored 24 points and tied his career-high with 10 rebounds while John Clifford posted his eighth double-double of the season, scoring 19 and pulling down 11 boards for SUU. Dave Marek, the only four-year letterman on the squad, added 16 points, with two assists and two steals, but NDSU shut down Thunderbird leading scorer Davis Baker, limiting him to eight points, one night after he led SUU to a 53-48 win over IUPUI with 25.

North Dakota State countered with 22 points from Mike Nelson, 21 from Ben Woodside and 15 from Brett Winkleman, while sophomore Michael Tveidt chipped in 12 for the Bison.

Southern Utah scored the first four points of the game but their last lead, 21-20, came with 8:13 to go in the first half when Clifford scored inside.

NDSU went on a 17-4 run over the next five minutes, however, building a 37-25 advantage before taking an eight-point lead into halftime.

Southern Utah pulled back within six several times in the second half in a game that NDSU never really put away until the final minute.

"They went on that run late in the first half and we were never really able to recover," SUU Coach Roger Reid said. "We played a good, game, I'm proud of the effort our team made, and if [NDSU] had slipped up they would have lost but they didn't. They're an experienced basketball team that executed and didn't make mistakes. Once they got the lead they were able to keep it. We made runs at them, but they hit shots when they needed to."

Nelson almost single-handedly kept the Thunderbirds at bay in the second half, scoring nine straight Bison points from the 10:34 mark until 6:27 remained to keep NDSU with a 10-point advantage, but down the stretch is was Woodside, The Summit League's player of the year, who clinched it for the Bison.

After Nelson staked the Bison to a 68-55 lead with a 3-pointer with 4:00 to play, Woodside hit seven-of-eight free throws in the final three minutes to hold off the Thunderbirds.

Kevin Deeb scored 22 points to lead four Cal Baptist players in double-figures as the Lancers upset Southern Utah, 79-69, Monday night in Cedar City. Cal Baptist improved to 4-1 on the young season while SUU dipped to 0-1.

The Lancers closed the first half with a 7-1 run to take a 41-31 lead into the locker room, then held off the Thunderbirds in the second half.

Ray Jones and Ramell Taylor each scored four points as the Thunderbirds opened the second half with an 11-2 run to pull within 43-42, but Luke Evans hit a free throw and Jon Williams buried a 3-pointer to push the Lancer edge back to five at 47-42 with 13:26 to play.

The Cal Baptist advantage remained between three and seven points until the Thunderbirds pulled within 56-54 on a Jones jumper with 4:46 to play, but Deeb answered with a 3-pointer to push the margin back to 59-54. SUU stayed close, however, as Taylor scored to bring SUU back within three.

De'Jon Prescott scored to put CBU back up 61-56 but Matt Massey answered with a 3-point play to pull the Thunderbirds back within two, at 61-59. The Thunderbirds were able to get no closer, however and in the final minute CBU hit 10-of-13 free throws to pull away and seal the win.

Cal Baptist came into the game shooting 47.8 percent from the floor, including .268 from 3-point range, but the Lancers were on fire Monday night, hitting 9-of-17 from long-range (.520) and 24-of-48 shots overall. Meanwhile, SUU converted 26-of-54 shots and 16-of-18 free throws but hit just one of 12 from 3-point range.

The teams also finished even in rebounds, with 26 each.

Jones led SUU with 22 points while Massey finished with 15 and Taylor had 12 for the Thunderbirds. Matt Hodgson had a game-high seven rebounds for SUU but he played just 15 minutes because of foul trouble. Justus Von Wright scored 12 for CBU, while Evans and Nick Paulson each had 10.

Jordan Weirick and Ramell Taylor came off the bench in Southern Utah's two exhibition games and the season-opening loss to Cal Baptist on Monday night but both got starts on Wednesday.

Both made the most of their opportunity.

Weirick led the team with 17 points and eight rebounds while Taylor added 16 points and seven boards as the Thunderbirds evened their record at 1-1 with a 66-58 win at Cal State Bakersfield.

After taking a 30-27 halftime lead the Thunderbirds were able to just hold the Roadrunners at bay through the second half, until Weirick hit two jumpers, one of them a 3-pointer, to lift SUU to a 56-49 lead with 3:10 to play. Matt Hodgson followed that with a basket in the paint to give SUU a 9-point lead with 2:12 to play and the Thunderbirds were able to hold on down the stretch to pick up the win.

Southern Utah hit just 24-of-63 shots but held the Roadrunners to a 19-of-53 night while grabbing 47 rebounds to CSUB's 35, including 18 offensive rebounds. Four Thunderbirds: Taylor, Hodgson, Ray Jones, Jr. and Kyle Davis had three offensive boards apiece. Hodgson finished with 10 points and five rebounds while Jones finished with six rebounds, nine points and a team-high three assists. Davis finished with seven rebounds and four points while Tyson Koehler came off the bench to pull down six rebounds and score six points.

Weirick scored six straight points to lift the Thunderbirds to a 22-13 advantage midway through the first half but Donovan Bragg hit a three and a floater in the lane in the last 1:20 to pull the Roadrunners back to within 30-27 at the half.

The win was the Thunderbirds' first on the road since a 74-69 triumph at North Dakota State late in the 2008-09 season.

Utah State went on a 13-0 run midway through the second half to pull away from Southern Utah Saturday night, then held on to take a 66-53 victory. The Aggies moved to 2-1 with the win while SUU dipped to 1-2.

Brian Green came off the bench to score 19 points for the Aggies, hitting 4-of-5 3-point shots and 5-of-6 free throws. He scored seven points during the run that put the game away on a 3-pointer and four free throws.

After Ramell Taylor scored inside to pull the Thunderbirds within 36-32 at the 15:53 mark of the second half Tai Wesley hit two short shots to give USU a 40-32 edge. Green then hit a 3-pointer and four straight free throws and Pooh Williams hit a jumper to stake the Aggies to a 49-32 lead.

"The frustrating thing to me is we got close and then we let their best shooter get open and make shots," SUU Coach Roger Reid said. "We knew Brian Green was a shooter but we let him get too many wide-open shots.

"We were close but then we stopped executing too, which is also disappointing," Reid added. "I thought we played hard but we've got to play smart too. We can't let them control the game, and we did, we let them bump us and push us around and we stopped executing."

Taylor finished with a career-high 22 points but he was the only Thunderbird to finish in double-figures. He also pulled down a team-high seven rebounds.

USU held the Thunderbirds to a season-low 36.1 percent shooting, but the Thunderbirds stayed in the game by hitting 23-of-25 free throws and staying even with USU on the boards, as the Aggies had 265 rebounds to 25 for SUU.

Wesley had 12 points for the Aggies.

Men's Game 1 - Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout
Carrs/Safeway Player of the Game: S VanDeest (DU)

Matt Massey scored 14 points and pulled down eight rebounds but no other Thunderbird scored in double figures Wednesday night as Drake shut down the Southern Utah to take a 78-59 win in the opening game of the Great Alaska Shootout.

Sophomore center Seth VanDeest led the Bulldogs with 26 points and four blocks while freshman guard Ravonte Rice collected a double-double, with 15 points and 10 rebounds and sophomore forward Aaron Hawley finished with 11 points.

VanDeest scored 14 points, hitting 5-of-8 shots, in the first half when the Bulldogs built a 38-29 lead, then did his damage from the field and the free throw line as Drake pulled away in the second half, adding another 12 points, six from the line. Seven of Rice's rebounds and 11 of his points also came in the second half.

The game was close through the first half but Drake outscored the Thunderbirds 9-4 in the final four minutes of the period to take the nine-point halftime edge.

SUU scored the first four points of the second half, however, on a jumper by Jordan Weirick and another by Ramell Taylor, to pull back within 38-33, but Drake rattled off seven straight points to push the advantage to 12, the largest of the game after VanDeest hit a short jumper at the 16:16 mark.

Matt Hodgson scored on a layup for SUU and Weirick hit a 3-pointer to pull SUU back within 47-40 but SUU couldn't get any closer than seven the rest of the way, particularly after Hodgson, Massey and Taylor, all starters, fouled out.

After Hodgson picked up his fifth foul with 7:51 to go and the Thunderbirds down 60-49 the Bulldogs went on a 10-2 run, with the last two coming on Frank Wiseler free throws after Taylor was whistled for his fifth foul at the 5:53 mark. Massey fouled out three minutes later.

Weirick finished with nine points while Hodgson had six points, four blocks and five rebounds. Ray Jones dished out a career-best six assists, scored five points and had three steals.

SUU had 14 offensive rebounds and held a 39-20 rebounding edge but also committed 18 turnovers in the game.

Men's Game 5 (consolation semi #1) - Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout
Carrs/Safeway Player of the Game: R Davis (BSU)

Ray Jones, Jr., scored 16 points and Matt Massey added 14 to lead Southern Utah but Ball State had four players score in double figures as the Cardinals took a 73-54 win over the Thunderbirds at the Great Alaska Shootout on Friday.

Southern Utah fell behind early before battling back into the game but couldn't maintain consistency on the offensive end. Compounding matters for the Thunderbirds was the hot shooting of Ball State, which hit 57.1 percent of its shots (6.25 percent in the first half), by far the highest percentage by an SUU opponent this season.

Ball State rode center Jarrod Jones early in the game as the Cardinals ran out to an 11-0 lead to begin the game. The Thunderbirds responded, whoever, going on a 16-7 run to pull back within 18-16 when Jordan Weirick hit back-to-back shots, a 3-pointer and a jumper from the left wing.

Ball State responded by going outside, outscoring the Thunderbirds 20-6 to end the half and taking a 38-22 lead at the break. BSU's Jesse Berry hit two 3-pointers during the run, while Jauwan Scaife and Randy Davis each added a three, and Malik Perry converted a traditional 3-point play before Jones scored in the paint as time expired in the half.

Although the Cardinals pulled away via the three it was Jones who did the most damage, scoring 13 points in the first half, all but one, which came on a free throw, from within two feet. Jones finished with 19 points to lead all scorers, while Scaife had 14, Jesse Berry had 12 and Davis finished with 11 points and 11 assists.

For the second straight game in the Shootout the Thunderbirds out-rebounded their opponent, pulling down 29 rebounds to the Cardinals' 23. Massey and Tyson Koehler each had four to lead SUU, which got at least one rebound from all but one player who got into the game.

Men's Game 9 - Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout (7th/8th place)
Carrs/Safeway Player of the Game: M Massey (SUU)

Ryan Brimley hit just two of eight shots Saturday, but he buried the biggest one, a 3-pointer from the left wing with 3.4 seconds to play to stave off a Houston Baptist come-back and give Southern Utah a 64-61 win in the final round of the Great Alaska Shootout.

At halftime it looked as if Southern Utah might run away with the game, as the Thunderbirds controlled the game from the beginning, running out to an early 14-5 lead and building a 38-23 halftime advantage.

A technical foul call at the end of the first half gave the Huskies a spark in the second, however. Kyle Davis was whistled for the technical at the end of play, giving HBU two free throws to begin the second half. Andrew Gonzalez hit the free throws, and went on to score 12 points in the next six minutes — eight of them coming from the free throw line — as Houston Baptist began to fight its way back into the game.

After Gonzales hit two free throws with 14:32 to go to cut the SUU advantage to 47-37 HBU got a 3-pointer from Michael Moss to pull the Huskies within seven, the smallest margin since the 9:11 mark of the first half.

SUU pushed its lead back to 11 on a Matt Massey tip-in and a layup by Kyle Davis, but HBU continued to battle, pulling to within 55-51 on a Gonzalez layup with 5:42 to play, and finally tying the game at 61-61 when Jonathan Evans hit one-of-two free throws with 27 seconds to play.

Southern Utah brought the ball up-court and got the ball to Massey for a short jumper but the ball bounced off the rim and out of bounds off a Husky player. On the in-bound play Ray Jones, Jr., found Brimley on the wing and he calmly hit the shot.

Massey led the Thunderbirds with 20 points, 10 in each half, while Matt Hodgson chipped in 11 points, eight rebounds and four blocks. Kyle Davis came off the SUU bench to score 11 and pull down a career-high eight rebounds as the Thunderbird dominated the glass, out-rebounding HBU 46-28. SUU also had a season-high 20 assists, with Jones dishing out five while Davis and Jordan Weirick each had four.

Southern Utah gave Summit League favorite Oakland all it wanted through the first 30 minutes Thursday night but a late SUU cold spell and two earlier Golden Grizzly runs spelled doom for the Thunderbirds as OU claimed an 81-65 win in the conference opener for both teams.

After Oakland took a 2-0 lead early in the game Jordan Weirick hit a 3-pointer for the Thunderbirds, who went on to lead through much of the early going until a cold spell allowed the Grizzlies to build a 19-12 lead. Tyson Koehler came off the bench to give the Thunderbirds a spark, however, eight points and pulling down a defensive rebound that led to a Ray Jones, Jr., fast-break basket as the Thunderbirds went back up 24-22.

Oakland went on a 9-0 run over the final 2:16 of the first half to turn a that deficit into a 31-24 halftime lead, however. After Kyle Davis hit a long jumper to stake the Thunderbirds to a 24-22 lead with 2:45 to go Reggie Hamilton answered with a 3-pointer to give the Grizzlies a 25-24 advantage. After Hamilton scored on a layup to give OU a 27-24 advantage Drew Valentine picked Ramell Taylor's pocket and got the ball to Will Hudson for a 29-24 OU lead, then after another SUU turnover Valentine found Hudson for a dunk at the buzzer to give the Grizzlies the 7-point halftime edge.

Koehler hit 4-of-4 shots to score eight first half points to lead the Thunderbirds while Hamilton had 10 points to lead Oakland.

The second Oakland run came after SUU had pulled back within 35-30 on a Koehler layup with just over 17 minutes to play. Oakland outscored SUU 16-4 over the next five minutes, however, with Valentine and Hamilton capping the run with back-to-back 3-pointers to give the Grizzlies a 51-34 advantage with 12:25 to play.

Southern Utah hung around, cutting the deficit to 11, at 56-45 on a Matt Hodgson free throw with 7:55 to play but Oakland was able to fend off the Thunderbirds despite Ryan Brimley hitting three 3-pointers in the final 1:09.

Jones led SUU with 13 points while Koehler and Brimley each added 12. Koehler finished the game 6-of-6 from the floor while Brimley was 4-of-5, including a perfect 4-for-4 from 3-point range in the second half as SUU converted 24-of-55 shots (43.6 percent) Jones dished out a career-high seven assists and the Thunderbirds finished with 16 dimes overall, their second-highest total of the season behind the 20 they had against Houston Baptist last Saturday.

Weirick and Hodgson each had five rebounds for the Thunderbirds, who were out-rebounded for just the second time all season, as the Grizzlies pulled down 35 caroms, led by Benson's 11. Hamilton led all scorers with 23 points while Benson added 19, Valentine had 12 and Hudson finished with 11 as Oakland hit 32-of-61 shots (52.5 percent).

Ray Jones, Jr., scored 15 points, pulled down seven rebounds and dished out six assists to lead Southern Utah Saturday night but the Thunderbirds faded away late in the game and wound up on the wrong end of a 76-66 loss at IPFW.

SUU shot the ball well but turnovers and missed free throws denied them their chance to pick up a split of the two-game road swing to Oakland and IPFW. With the loss SUU dipped to 2-6 overall and 0-2 in Summit League play, while the Mastodons improved to 5-2 and 2-0 in league games.

SUU was red-hot in the first half, hitting 15-of-19 shots from the floor but a 10-1 turnover differential helped IPFW take 11 more shots than the Thunderbirds. IPFW took 31 shots in the period, hitting 16, and held a 42-39 lead at halftime.

Jones was 5-of-5 from the floor to lead SUU with 11 points in the half while Jordan Weirick scored seven points. Jones, despite playing on a sprained ankle, also dished out five assists in the period.

SUU played most of the first half without big men Matt Massey and Matt Hodgson, who both got into early foul trouble. Massey played just four minutes in the half while Hodgson logged just six. The Thunderbirds were still able to out-rebound IPFW in the period, however, 15-7, with Hodgson and Ryan Brimley leading the way with three each.

The Thunderbirds rallied in the second half, taking a 46-45 lead on a Tyson Koehler basket, and they extended the lead to 47-44 on a Jones jump shot after a Koehler steal.

After IPFW got a quick time out, however, Frank Gaines scored twice inside and Zach Plackemeier hit a 3-pointer as IPFW ran off nine straight points to re-assert itself and go back up 53-47.

The Thunderbirds kept it close, however, getting back within 58-57 on a Ramell Taylor dunk with 6:55 to play. Jeremy Mixon hit a jump shot, however, then rebounded a Taylor miss and got the ball to Trey McCorkle for a basket and IPFW was back up by five.

SUU got back within 66-64 on a Jake Nielson layup with 2:57 to lay, but the Thunderbirds couldn't get over the hump and IPFW hit its free throws down the stretch to pull away and seal the win.

Southern Utah wound up shooting 58.7 percent, its best percentage of the season, after hitting 11-of-27 shots in the second half to finish 27-of-46. The Thunderbirds did a better job taking care of the ball in the second half, with just six, but still wound up with 16 turnovers for the Thunderbirds to just six for the 'Dons.

Senior guard Ryan Brimley scored a team-high 18 points and junior point guard Ray Jones Jr. finished with 16 for the Thunderbirds but SUU dropped a 77-71 non-conference matchup to Weber State University at the Centrum Arena Saturday night.

SUU (2-7) shot 48% but the Wildcats (5-3) picked up the win by shooting 47%, outrebounding the Thunderbirds 35-25 and scoring 37 points from inside the paint.

The teams traded buckets in the opening minutes as sophomore guard Jordan Weirick hit a long three from straight away and later added another long jumper from the left wing. The physical play underneath prevented either team from playing with any rhythm, keeping the score down for most of the first half.

Later in the period, another Weirick jumper was followed by a nice runner in the lane from Jones Jr. to give SUU a 20-18 lead. Freshman forward Kyle Davis later hit a three to give SUU a three-point advantage but Weber State would use a 12-4 run in the closing minutes of the half to take a 34-31 lead at the break.

SUU shot 50% through the first 20 minutes while WSU shot 48% and forced SUU into 12 turnovers. Jones led the T-Birds with nine points in the half.

WSU opened the second half with a 9-3 run to build an eight-point lead but the Thunderbirds continued to hang around, eventually pulling back within one as Davis hit two free throws and Jake Nielsen later followed with a steal and layin to cut the Wildcat lead to 48-46 midway through the second half.

SUU got within three after a long 3-pointer from the right wing by Brimley and again on a putback by Tyson Koehler with just under nine minutes remaining. WSU got a layin and converted on a free throw for a 3-point play and followed with a long three on the next trip down to begin to pull away, 64-58 with 5:55 remaining.

In the final minute, Brimley hit a fall-away three and Jones cashed in a steal with a layup but Weber State continued to get points at the other end by knocking down free throws and went on to pick up the win.

Sophomore forward Tyson Koehler came off the bench to score eight points and grab a team-high six boards while Nielsen scored five points, had four rebounds and four assists also off the bench.

Senior guard Ryan Brimley came off the bench to score 16 points and lead Southern Utah to a 68-51 victory over visiting Oklahoma Panhandle State University Tuesday evening. It was the second straight game Brimley led the team in scoring.

The Thunderbirds (3-7) took advantage of their length most of the night, scoring 30 points from inside the paint, blocking 13 shots and turning 17 Oklahoma Panhandle State (2-8) turnovers into 21 points. The Thunderbirds also finished with 18 assists, two off their season-high led by junior point guard Ray Jones Jr. who dished out six assists.

Sophomore guard Jordan Weirick added 10 points and sophomore center Matt Hodgson came off the bench to grab a team-high 10 rebounds and block two shots. Freshman Kyle Davis used his 6-8 frame to block four shots for the Thunderbirds who snapped a three-game losing skid with the win.

The Thunderbirds overcame a sluggish start by using a 20-6 run to pull away from the Aggies. The game was tied at 7-7 in the opening minutes before Brimley sparked the big run with a couple layups, going on to finish the half with 10 points.

Southern Utah forced Oklahoma Panhandle State into 12 turnovers, scoring 12 points off those miscues as 10 Thunderbirds recorded baskets to give SUU a 35-21 lead at the break.

The Thunderbirds quickly pulled away to start the second half as Weirick hit a jumper and followed that with a long three from the left wing to give SUU a 40-22 lead.

Minutes later, back-to-back layups by junior forward Matt Massey and Jones Jr. gave the Thunderbirds their largest lead of the game, 45-24 at the 16:23 mark.

The Aggies would close the SUU lead to 10 around the 10:00 minute mark before Brimley hit a three and long two on consecutive trips for the Thunderbirds, pushing the lead back above 10. Junior forward Ramell Taylor's soaring one-handed dunk in the final seconds was the exclamation point on the SUU victory.

Southern Utah finished the game shooting 40%, holding the OPSU to 29% shooting and posting a 46-40 rebound advantage. Marcale Marshall led the Aggies with 19 points.

Matt Hodgson came off the bench to score 12 points and pulled down 10 rebounds but Southern Utah struggled to hit shots Saturday night in suffering a 72-50 loss at No. 22 UNLV. Anthony Marshall scored 17 points to lead all scorers, while Carlos Lopez came off the bench to finish with 12 for the Rebels.

The game was close through the early going, but UNLV grabbed control with a 15-0 run midway through the first half. After Kyle Davis scored inside to make it a 16-10 game the Rebels ran off 15 straight points. Chace Stanback started the run with a 3-pointer, Justin Hawkins added a traditional 3-point play and TreVon Willis had another three during the run that finally ended when Damon Heuir hit two free throws with 6:50 to go and the Rebels leading 31-12.

Southern Utah hit just 6-of-24 shots (25 percent) in the first half and struggled from the free throw line as well, hitting just 6-of-15 from the line (.400). The Thunderbirds limited the Rebels to 12-of-29 shooting in the half, (.414), but UNLV was able to convert 10-of-12 free throws and held a 37-18 edge at halftime.

The Thunderbirds cut into the Rebel lead early in the second half but UNLV slowly pulled away in the second half, going up by as much as 60-33 before settling for the 22-point win.

SUU shot the ball better in the second half, hitting 11-of-25 shots, but still wound up at 34.7 percent (17-of-49), the team's lowest of the year, as was their .483 free throw percentage (14-of-29).

Aside from Hodgson, Jordan Weirick – with 10 points – was the only Thunderbird to score in double-figures.

Damon Heuir scored a career-high 18 points to lead three Thunderbirds in double figures but UC Davis' Eddie Miller answered with a season-high 20 as UC Davis held off Southern Utah for a 74-65 non-conference win Tuesday night. SUU dipped to 3-9 overall with the loss while UCD improved to 5-7.

Jake Neilson and Matt Massey came off the bench to score 12 and 11 points, respectively, for the Thunderbirds, who out-rebounded UC Davis 30-to-24, with Massey and Matt Hodgson each pulling down five to lead the team.

Southern Utah – which shook up its starting lineup, inserting Heuir and Kyle Davis in place of Jordan Weirick and Massey – got off to a fast start, hitting five of its first six shots in running out to an early 12-5 lead.

The Aggies responded with an eight point run, however, taking their first lead at 13-12 on a Ryan Sypkens 3-pointer with 13:39 to play in the half. Weirick scored on a fast break then hit a 3-pointer as the Thunderbirds responded to grab a 17-13 lead with 11:11 to play.

UC Davis reclaimed the lead 20-19 on a 3-pointer by Sypkens at the 8:09 mark, and although SUU stayed close, tying it at 25-25 on a Ryan Brimley 3-pointer with 5:27 to go, the Aggies wound up with a 36-33 lead at halftime.

After its poorest shooting half of the year in the first period at UNLV on Saturday, SUU had its second-best half of the season at UC Davis, knocking down 56 percent (14-of-25) of its from the floor, hitting 4-of-6 3-pointers and its only free throw. The Aggies hit 11-of-22 shots in the half, 5-of-8 from long-range, and connected on 9-of-14 free throws.

Miller put the Aggies on his back early in the second half, scoring 10 of the team's first 13 points, including a jumper to give UCD a 49-44 lead with 12:02 to play.

After two Mark Payne free throws pushed the Aggie lead to 51-44 Massey converted a 3-point play to pull SUU back within four, but Sypkens hit one of his four 3-pointers to push the UCD lead to seven.

SUU got back to within 60-54 on a Jake Neilson steal and layup with 5:35 to play, and after Taylor pulled down a missed free throw the Thunderbirds had a chance to get even closer but turned the ball over and Miller buried a three, then after an SUU missed hit a jumper to give the Aggies a 65-54 lead with 4:10 to play. The Thunderbirds didn't get back within eight the rest of the way.

UC Davis wound up hitting 9-of-17 threes and 22-of-42 shots overall while the Thunderbirds wound up hitting 25-of-55, but 6-of-12 from 3-point range. The Aggies were also able to take advantage of 29 trips to the free throw line, hitting 21, while the Thunderbirds went to the line just 11 times, making nine.

Ray Jones, Jr. scored 18 points and Kyle Davis posted his first career double-double as SUU posted a 77-68 Summit League victory over North Dakota State. Matt Massey added 14 points as the Thunderbirds took advantage of 19 Bison turnovers with 21 points.

Southern Utah out-shot NDSU 51.5 percent to 35.5 in the first half in taking a 38-33 lead at the break, and although the Thunderbirds' shooting cooled in the second half, to 42.3 percent, they kept the pressure on the Bison, who shot 36 percent after the break to finish at 35.7, their lowest mark of the season. SUU also held NDSU to 4-of-15 shooting from beyond the 3-point arc, giving the Bison back-to-back 26.7 percent efforts from long range after they came into the week leading the nation at 44.6 percent from 3-point range.

Southern Utah built leads of as many as 13 points in the second half but the Bison stormed back late, pulling to within four on a pair of Freddy Coleman free throws with 47 seconds to play, but the Thunderbirds were able to withstand the comeback by hitting 7-of-10 free throws in the final 43 seconds.

Jake Nielson sealed the win when he picked off an inbounds pass with 11 seconds to play, then hit two free throws to give SUU the 77-68 advantage and ice the win.

SUU had just 10 turnovers, a season-low, and finished with a season-high 77 points.

Senior guard Ryan Brimley knocked down six 3-pointers en route to a career-high 29 points and sophomore forward Jackson Stevenett produced career-bests with 19 points and eight rebounds but SUU's comeback bid fell short as South Dakota State held off the Thunderbirds, 105-95.

The Thunderbirds (4-10, 1-3 Summit) shot 54% from the floor and hit 23-of-28 at the free throw line but could not overcome SDSU's (10-4, 2-1 Summit) 10 3-pointers and 31-of-46 free throws. The Jackrabbits came into the game leading the conference averaging 8.2 three-pointers per contest and knocked down seven of them in the second half while also shooting 62%.

SUU had four players score in double-figures with junior forwards Jake Nielson and Matt Massey finish with 14 and 13 points, respectively.

Southern Utah opened the game with three quick baskets from Massey in the opening minutes before a Nielsen jumper gave SUU an early 10-9 advantage.

The Jackrabbits responded with an 8-0 run and later producing a 15-2 run to open up a 37-19 lead with 5:58 remaining.

Brimley and Stevenett came off the bench near the end of the SDSU run and quickly sparked a 15-4 SUU run. Brimley got things started, scoring eight points beginning with a three from the right wing. He then followed an SDSU layup with baseline jumper before getting the Centrum Arena crowd back into the game with a long three. Stevenett followed Brimley's lead by scoring the next five points before Nielsen's runner capped the run and cut SDSU's lead to 41-34 with 1:56 left.

After the 'Jacks took a 45-38 lead into the locker room the Thunderbirds outscored SDSU 8-4 in the early minutes of the second half, cutting the SDSU lead down to three after a driving layup by Nielson.

As they would throughout the second half, however, the Jackrabbits answered right back, getting hot from the outside for a 14-5 run which opened up a 71-56 lead with just under 11 minutes to play.

The Thunderbirds cut the deficit back to six twice, the last time after Brimley stole an inbounds pass and quickly hit a three from the right corner with 1:36 remaining but the Jackrabbits hit 9-of-12 free throws down the stretch to hold SUU at bay and seal the win.

Matt Massey scored a career-high 24 points and Ryan Brimley had 12 in sparking a late comeback but slow starts at the beginning of both halves dug holes the Thunderbirds couldn't climb out of as Southern Utah lost 82-76 at UMKC Saturday night.

SUU dipped to 1-4 in Summit League play and 4-11 overall while UMKC improved to 2-3 and 9-7.

UMKC held SUU to 2-of-9 shooting while hitting eight of its first 12 shots to jump out to a 21-7 lead with 11:56 to play. Spencer Johnson did most of the damage for the 'Roos, scoring 14 points on 5-of-7 shooting, including a 2-4 effort from 3-point range.

The 'Roos went on to build a 17-point lead after Jay Cousinard hit a 3-pointer with 5:49 to play but SUU battled back., out-scoring the 'Roos 12-4 over the final four minutes of the half. Massey led the way for the Thunderbirds with nine straight points to close the period with SUU trailing just 41-34.

After opening the period hitting just 22.2 percent of its shots SUU warmed up in the second half of the first period and wound up shooting 50 percent for the half (12-24) while UMKC cooled down from a 66.78 percent start and wound up at 55.2 percent (16-29) at the break.

Unfortunately the Thunderbirds started slowly again in the second half, while UMKC's Jay Cousinard hit two 3-pointers and Johnson another as the 'Roos outscored SUU 16-6 to open the half. SUU again chipped away at the lead, however, and got back into it in the final two minutes as Brimley hit three straight 3-pointers to pull the Thunderbirds within 78-73 with 1:20 to play.

The Thunderbirds couldn't get any closer, however, trading baskets and free throws in the final minute to fall by six.

Southern Utah wound up shooting 50 percent from the floor, 28-of-56, but UMKC finished the night at 58.3 percent after hitting 28-of-48 shots, including 9-of-15 3-pointers.

Stevenett came off the bench with his third straight strong performance, scoring 17 points and pulling down seven rebounds, numbers which were both second on the team to Massey's 24 and eight. Stevenett also led the team with four assists while Ray Jones, Jr., chipped in 11 points and three dimes.

Cousinard finished with 32 points on 11-of-16 shooting, while Johnson added 21 after hitting 8-of-11 from the floor. The duo also combined to hit 7-of-11 3-pointers, with Cousinard knocking down 4-of-6.

Southern Utah's Jackson Stevenett scored a career-high 22 points and tied his career-best with eight rebounds while Matt Hodgson came off the bench to add a season-best 13 points and six boards but it was a case of too much Warren Niles Thursday night as Oral Roberts' sophomore guard scored 29 points, including 14 straight at one point, to lead the Golden Eagles to an 87-71 Summit League win.

ORU outscored the Thunderbirds 20-6 over a six-minute span at the end of the second half and beginning of the second to take control of the game. Niles supplied most of the firepower for the Golden Eagles, scoring 14 of those points on three 3-pointers, a traditional 3-point play and a pair of free throws.

The Thunderbirds led 34-33 with 1:12 to go in the first half after a Ryan Brimley 3-pointer from the left wing, but ORU scored the final six points of the half to take a 39-34 lead into the break. Javier Nasarre hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key to give the Eagles a 36-34 lead, then after an SUU miss Niles hit a three from the top of the key as time expired in the half.

It was all Niles at the beginning of the second half as he converted a 3-point play, then after two Stevenett free throws sandwiched a pair of 3-pointers around a Kyle Davis jumper to stake ORU to a 48-38 advantage. He then hit two free throws to extend the advantage to 12 points and Damen Bell-Holter scored on a dunk to make it a 14-point game.

The Golden Eagles kept the Thunderbirds at bay the rest of the way before pulling out the 16-point win.

Stevenett hit 8-of-13 shots and converted 6-of-7 free throws and Hodgson had five offensive rebounds and blocked three shots.

SUU wound up shooting 40.6 percent for the game (26-of-64), while the golden Eagles finished at 49.2 percent (29-of-59), including 11-of-23 3-pointers. SUU did win the battle of the boards, out-rebounding the Golden Eagles 40-32, including a 16-10 edge on the offensive glass.

Southern Utah scored its final 19 points from the free throw line and held off a determined Centenary comeback to pick up its first Summit League road win since the 2008-09 season Saturday night, 88-75.

Kyle Davis led the way for the Thunderbirds with career-highs of 21 points and 14 rebounds while Ryan Brimley hit 10 second half free throws to finish with 18 points and Matt Massey added 13.

In a game that was marred by fouls and technical fouls the teams combined to shoot 71 free throws. Southern Utah converted 29-of-34, including 22-of-23 in the second half and 19-of-20 in the final 6:10. Davis, Massey, Jackson Stevenett and Jake Nielson all fouled out for SUU, while Centenary's Max Naswaasah fouled out and Jonathan Blount was disqualified after receiving two technical fouls.

Massey scored eight of 12 consecutive SUU points as the Thunderbirds took an early 12-2 lead but the Gents rallied when Blount came off the bench to score seven points and help pull Centenary back within 15-13 with 11:12 to play in the half.

SUU slowly built another lead, however, pushing the advantage to 37-26 on a put-back and a free throw by Davis. The Thunderbirds' biggest lead of the half came with 51 seconds remaining in the half when Ramell Taylor picked off an errant pass and drove the length of the floor for a dunk and a 46-30 SUU advantage. Nakwaasah scored on a layup with eight seconds to go in the half to leave SUU with a 46-30 edge at the break.

SUU shot 65.5 percent in the first half, its second-best half of the season, after hitting 19-of-29 shots in the period. Davis hit 5-of-6 shots and 3-of-3 free throws to tally 13 points in the period while Massey hit 5-of-6 shots and had 11 points at the break.

Southern Utah built leads as high as 18 points in the second half but Centenary went to a full-court press and chipped away at the lead, cutting it to single digits at 79-17 on a 3-point play by Naswaasah with 2:08 to play but the Thunderbirds hit five free throws – four by Brimley – to push the lead back to 13 points and Centenary didn't ever get back within single digits.

Brimley hit eight straight free throws in the final two minutes to seal the win for the Thunderbirds, who wound up shooting 58 percent (29-of-50) and knocking down 85.3 percent of their free throws (29-of-34) while holding Centenary to .421 shooting (24-of-57) and out-rebounding the Gentlemen 41-to-22.

Southern Utah used its best defensive performance of the season to post a 69-48 Summit League victory over Western Illinois.

The Thunderbirds (6-12 overall, 3-5 Summit League) held Western Illinois (7-11 overall, 2-6 Summit League) to 26% shooting and scored 24 points off of 18 WIU turnovers. The 48 points are the fewest and the 26.0 shooting percentage is the lowest allowed by SUU this season.

Junior point guard Ray Jones Jr. scored a game-high 16 points and freshman forward Kyle Davis turned in another solid performance with 12 points while matching his career-high of 14 rebounds to notch his third double-double of the season. SUU won the battle on the boards 42-33 and held the Fighting Leathernecks to .240 shooting in the second half.

Western Illinois held an early lead in the opening minutes before the Thunderbirds used a couple of 3-pointers from senior guard Ryan Brimley to give SUU a three-point lead. Both teams struggled shooting throughout most of the first half after those early minutes before Southern Utah put the clamps down on defensive end from there on out. The Thunderbirds held WIU scoreless for a six-minute stretch as the Fighting Leathernecks missed eight consecutive shots.

Jackson Stevenett sparked an 11-4 SUU run during WIU's tough shooting stretch with a three and jumper as SUU built a six-point lead on a Jones jump shot with 1:14 to go in the half. The lead would grow to ten as the Thunderbirds ended the half with three straight buckets. Jones had a runner in the lane and junior forward Ramell Taylor followed his big block on the defensive end with a jumper from the top of key. SUU then benefitted from a Western Illinois miscue in the final seconds as a pair of WIU players tried to save a loose ball from going out of bounds underneath their own basket in the final seconds. The two players were able to save the ball but threw it right back to Massey underneath the basket who layed it in before the buzzer.

SUU head a 35-25 lead at the half after holding Western Illinois to 30 percent shooting and forcing eight turnovers. Jones led SUU with eight points and Davis had seven rebounds.

The second half was all Thunderbirds as they shot 44% from the floor and held Western Illinois to just 23 points in the period. Southern Utah kept its lead in the double-digits throughout the half with its largest lead coming on Taylor's layup that put SUU up 23 with 2:54 remaining.

Sophomore forward Tyson Koehler came off the bench to score eight points in the second half alone for SUU. Junior forward Matt Massey finished the game with nine points while sophomore guard Damon Heuir grabbed six rebounds

Technical foul SUU #25, 8:01 in second half

Ryan Brimley scored 19 points and Kyle Davis added 13 but IUPUI overcame a 10-point Thunderbird lead and dominated the second half in posting an 87-61 Summit League win over Southern Utah.

The Thunderbirds dropped to 6-13 overall and 3-6 in Summit League play while IUPUI improved to 12-10 overall and 6-3 in conference. Thunderbird junior point guard Ray Jones Jr. finished with nine points and a career-high eight assists.

SUU shot 42 percent from the field while the Jaguars finished the game shooting 57 percent. IUPUI used a strong second half to overcome SUU's half time lead, shooting a sizzling 65 percent and outscoring the Thunderbirds 47-18 in the second half. IUPUI was led by Alex Young's game-high 27 points ; Young came into the game leading the Summit League at 19.4 ppg.

Southern Utah opened the game on fire from the field as Brimley knocked down three form behind the arc to give SUU at 21-15 lead just over eight minutes in. The Thunderbirds then added an 8-0 run to build a 10-point advantage with 8:51 left in the half.

IUPUI didn't go away though, continuing to battle despite SUU holding another 10-point lead at the 5:26 mark. Following SUU junior forward Jake Nielson's layup, the Jaguars put together a 15-6 run to cut the Thunderbird lead to one before a couple free throws by sophomore center Matt Hodgson gave SUU a 43-40 lead at the break.

The Thunderbirds held IUPUI to 1-7 form behind the arc and shot 53 percent from the field to lead through the first 20 minutes. Brimley led SUU with 16 points and Davis added 11 for SUU. Young had 18 points for the Jaguars at the break.

Southern Utah scored on its first three possessions of the second half but the Jaguars were able to match nearly every basket before they caught fire. The Jaguars took its first lead since the opening seconds of game on a long three from Stephen Jones at the 15:59 mark and after a Jones Jr. layin, IUPUI added a layup to give them a 53-51 lead.

The Jaguars slowly expanded on their lead in the next couple minutes before they erupted for a 22-0 run over a 10-minute stretch to put the game out of reach.

Sophomore forward Tyson Koehler came off the bench to register six points, seven rebounds, three assists and two blocks. SUU finished with seven blocks and a 18 assists as a team.

Southern Utah's Matt Massey scored 18 points and Kyle Davis added 16 but Michael Tveit finished with 27 points to lead North Dakota State to an 87-75 Summit League win over the Thunderbirds Thursday night.

NDSU improved to 4-6 in Summit League play (10-10 overall) and took over sole possession of seventh place in the league standings with the win while SUU dipped to 3-7 (6-14 overall) and fell to eighth place with the loss.

Tveit hit four 3-pointers in the second half, including one that gave the Bison a 74-64 advantage with 5:34 to play and another at the 4:20 mark that pushed the NDSU to 79-66, a deficit the Thunderbirds couldn't overcome.

Southern Utah led through most of the first half, building a 21-16 lead on a Matt Massey jumper with 10:57 to play in the period but the Bison took their first lead, 26-25, on an Erick Carlson jumper at the 6:55 mark. The game was back-and-forth through the end of the half until the Bison scored the final four points to take a 41-37 edge at the break. After Drew Lundberg hit a running jumper in the lane to give NDSU a 39-37 lead with 16 seconds to go Ryan Brimley was called for carrying the ball, giving the Bison a first possession. After a short Lundberg shot caromed out of bounds off a Thunderbird player Carlson hit a turnaround jumper as time expired to lift NDSU to the four point halftime advantage.

Massey and Carlson led the way for their respective teams with 12 points in the half. SUU shot 63.6 percent (14-of-22) in the half but also allowed NDSU to shoot well, 58.1 percent (18-of-31).

Southern Utah then missed its first five shots to open the second half as NDSU built a 47-37 advantage before the Thunderbirds got on the board with a pair of Ryan Brimley free throws with 16:00 to play. The T-Birds pulled within 49-45 back-to-back layups from Davis and another from Ray Jones, Jr. with 14:47 to play, but the Bison slowly pulled away again.

Carlson answered Jones' bucket with a 3-point play at the and Tveit hit a three with 11:02 to play to push the NDSU advantage back to 10, at 61-51. The Thunderbirds continued to battle, but Tveit's 3-pointers kept them at bay.

Ryan Brimley scored 23 points to lead all scorers, including four Southern Utah players in double-figures, but South Dakota State took advantage of runs in the first and second half to grab momentum as the Jackrabbits took a 96-79 Summit League win over the Thunderbirds.

The Jackrabbits grabbed the initial momentum with a 10-point first half run. After Kyle Davis tied the score at 9-9 with a layup at the 16:36 mark Dale Moss hit a 3-pointer and a layup, then 6-foot-8 center Jordan Dykstra stepped outside and nailed another three before Wolters capped the run with another layup to give SDSU a 19-9 lead.

South Dakota State then gradually extended its lead, going up 36-19 on another Dykstra three at the 5:28 mark. After SDSU pushed the advantage to 40-22 on a pair of Wolters free throws Jackson Stevenett hit a three from the left corner to pull SUU back within 15 and the Jacks wound up taking a 45-29 lead into the break.

The Thunderbirds shot the ball well in the first period, hitting 13-of-23 shots (.565), including 3-of-5 threes, but the Jacks took nine more shots and hit 17 of them (17-32, .531), including 7-of-14 3-point attempts. SDSU also out-rebounded the Thunderbirds 17-to-9 in the period.

Southern Utah cut into the SDSU lead several time in the second half but the play that essentially put the 'Birds away was a rare 5-point play for the 'Jacks. Chad White hit a 3-pointer, and as the shot went up Matt Massey was called for a foul away from the ball, sending Dykstra to the free throw line, where he hit both ends of a one-and-one to push the Jack lead to 75-56 with 8:07 to play.

The Thunderbirds tried to battle back, as Brimley hit a runner and a 3-pointer, then Massey added a pair of free throws to pull the Thunderbirds back within 12 but they couldn't get any closer the rest of the way.

Southern Utah wound up shooting 57.7 percent for the game (30-52) to 56.1 percent for SDSU (32-57), but the Jackrabbits hit 13 3-pointers to the Thunderbirds' season-high 10, and held a significant advantage at the free throw line, where the converted 19-of-23 attempts to just 9-of-12 for SUU.

Brimley hit 8-of-14 shots, including 5-of-9 3-pointers, while Damon Heuir finished with 18 points after hitting 7-of-14 shots, including 4-of-5 from beyond the stripe. Massey added 14 points for the Thunderbirds while Jackson Stevenett finished with 12.

Clint Sargent was red-hot for SDSU, hitting 7-of-10 shots (5-of-7 threes), for 22 points, while Wolters finished with 21 points, Dykstra had 20 and Moss finished with 13.

Freshman forward Kyle Davis notched his fourth double-double of the season with team-highs of 17 points and 11 rebounds while junior forward Matt Massey finished with 16 points and seven boards but Southern Utah fell behind late in the game and wound up on the wrong end of a 71-68 decision with UMKC.

The Thunderbirds (7-16, 3-9 Summit League) owned a one-point lead with 1:30 remaining after a Ryan Brimley 3-pointer but UMKC (14-9, 7-5 Summit League) answered with a driving layup and added four free throws.

Southern Utah shot 40 percent for the game but was held to 32 percent in the second half while UMKC shot 50 percent in the final 20 minutes and knocked down 10 three's during the game. The Kangaroos also had three players score in double-figures, including a pair that produced 22-point.

Damon Heuir gave the Thunderbirds a 33-31 halftime lead after stealing a UMKC pass underneath the Roos basket and laying one in with six seconds remaining. Davis had eight points in the half to lead SUU, which shot 48 percent through the first 20 minutes while UMKC knocked down 42 percent of its shots, including six threes in the first half.

The Kangaroos hit their first two shots of the second half but the Thunderbirds countered with a 7-1 spurt to own a 42-37 lead at the 16:35 mark. UMKC was able to tie the game with a couple free throws before Ray Jones Jr. put SUU up 48-46 on a rebound putback.

Southern Utah would open its lead up to five, 58-53 on a pair of free throws by Jake Nielson but UMKC got back within one after knocking down two from the charity stripe. The next time down the 'Roos again went to the three-ball, hitting one to take a 61-60 lead with 5:30 remaining. UMKC would add another three minutes later to cap their 12-4 run, giving them a 65-62 lead at the 3:44 mark.

Davis continued to battle down low and attack the rim, either finish with a layin or get fouled. He hit one free throw to cut the UMKC lead to 65-63 and minutes later Brimley came off a screen at the top of key and knocked down a three to give SUU a one point lead, 66-65 with just over a minute remaining.

The Thunderbirds got a stop on the defensive end but missed on the offensive end that saw players scramble for rebound and UMKC came away with rebound before getting fouled. They would only hit one of two to take a 68-66 lead with 43 seconds remaining.

On the ensuing possession, Jones Jr. drove the length of the floor and got into the paint and missed his runner in the lane but got his own rebound and was fouled. He missed both free throws and SUU was forced to foul. UMKC's Jay Cousinard hit two free throws to open up a 70-66 lead with 21 seconds to go.

Jones Jr. was again fouled on SUU's inbounds play and made both free throw attempts to again make it a two-point game. Cousinard was then fouled but only hit one of two at the line, giving UMKC a 71-68 lead and SUU one more chance with 19 seconds remaining

The Thunderbirds got one last look but Brimley's contested three hit off the front rim and the battle for the rebound was knocked out of bounds by SUU with virtually no time left on the clock, giving UMKC the win.

SUU shot 62 percent in the second half and three players scored in double figures to lead them to a 70-49 home win over Centenary Thursday evening.

The Thunderbirds were led by freshman forward Kyle Davis who finished with a game-high 17 points and brought down eight rebounds. Junior guard Jake Nielson came off the bench to match a season-high with 14 points and grab a season-best seven rebounds while senior guard Ryan Brimley chipped in 13 points. SUU held the Gents to 25 percent shooting in the second half and scoring 24 points off of 23 Centenary turnovers.

Southern Utah quickly built a 15-6 lead after a 13-2 run with five different Thunderbirds recording baskets during that stretch. Davis capped the run with a rebound put-back. The Gents followed with a 7-1 spurt but SUU slowly built its lead up to ten after sophomore guard Damon Heuir's jumper with just over two minutes left in the first half.

Centenary scored the final four points of the half by the Thunderbirds took a 31-25 lead into the break. Davis led all scorers with eight points while junior forward Matt Massey finished with seven through the first 20 minutes. Both teams struggled shooting, each owning a 34 percent shooting percentage through the first half with SUU scoring 11 points off of 10 Centenary turnovers.

After trading baskets in the opening minutes of a sloppy second half by both teams, the Thunderbirds eventually pulled away with one final 16-4 run while buckling down on defense. Sophomore forward Jackson Stevenett got things started with a jumper, Brimley later followed with four straight points. Nielson had a steal and a layup, sophomore forward Tyson Koehler followed with rebound put-back and Jones added a layup before Davis had a jumper and two free throws to cap the deciding run and open up a 54-39 lead at the 6:23 mark.

SUU would keep the lead in double-digits for the remainder of the game with Nielson giving the Thunderbirds their largest lead after knocking down a pair of free throws for the games final two points.

Southern Utah finished the game shooting 43 percent and made 11 steals. Nielson knocked down 10-of-14 at the free throw line, dished out four assists and made three steals.

Kyle Davis scored 17 points for the third straight game to lead four Thunderbirds in double figures Saturday night but Oral Roberts held off Southern Utah Saturday night for a 71-69 Summit League victory.

The Thunderbirds (8-17, 4-10 Summit League) were led by Davis who notched team-highs of 17 points and nine rebounds while junior point guard Ray Jones Jr. finished with 13 points, six boards and three assists. Southern Utah shot 43 percent from the field and outrebounded ORU (13-14, 10-5 Summit League) 41-24 but saw the Golden Eagles score 20 points off of 16 SUU turnovers. Junior forward Matt Massey and sophomore forward Jackson Stevenett each finished with 10 points.

Southern Utah led in the early minutes as Davis and Jones Jr. opened the game with back-to-back threes but ORU eventually took its first lead of the game midway through the half. The Golden Eagles owned a 10-point, 26-16 lead at the 8:56 mark after a 9-2 run. Their lead would say around that mark before the Thunderbirds closed the half with an 8-3 spurt and go into the break trailing 37-32.

Jones Jr. scored four quick points to make it a one-point game just seconds into the second half but ORU countered with a 6-0 run to regain a seven-point lead. Minutes later, senior guard Ryan Brimley's three made it a two-point game and Stevenett added a layup to tie the game at 49-49 at 14:49 mark.

Stevenett would give the Thunderbirds the lead with a pair of free throws two minutes later and SUU would hold its lead until an Oral Roberts three tied the game at 57-57 with 7:19 remaining.

ORU regained the lead on a free throw at 6:14 and went on to keep their lead in single digits for the rest of the way. SUU got within one a couple times on layups by Jones Jr. and Massey with just under two minutes to go but the Golden Eagles continued to knock down free throws and finish on a couple driving layups to hold off the Thunderbirds.

Massey's rebound putback made it 63-62 Oral Roberts but ORU converted on free throws on the ensuing possession before blocking a pair of shots in the next two SUU possessions.

Following an ORU layup, Massey was fouled with 15 seconds on the clock and hit the first free throw. He missed the second but the rebound was knocked out of bounds by and Oral Roberts players. Down 68-65, the Thunderbirds got once last chance but Brimley's fall-away three off an inbounds play bounced off front rim and ORU came away with rebound. SUU was forced to foul and ORU hit two of two free throws. Massey then got behind the defense on a long pass and was fouled and hit one for two free throws to make it a 66-69 ballgame.

The Thunderbirds again had to foul but Oral Roberts hit both free throws to open up a five-point lead with three seconds left. Brimley hit a three as time expired to complete the scoring at 71-69.

Nobles (IUPUI) fouls out at 50.3 (2nd)

Southern Utah turned the tables on IUPUI Thursday night, putting together a furious rally to upset the Jaguars, 80-68 in Summit League play. Four Thunderbird bench players finished in double figures, including a team-high 15 by Jake Nielson, 14 from Matt Hodgson, 12 from Jordan Weirick and 10 by Ramell Taylor. Jackson Stevenett, a starter, also had 14 points.

SUU's bench outscored IUPUI 58-8 and out-rebounded the Jaguar reserves 19-2.

The first time the teams met, in late January, SUU led throughout the first half but IUPUI outscored the Thunderbirds 47-18 in the second half to take an 87-61 win. This time around it was SUU which dominated the second period, hitting 21-of-28 shots and out-scoring the Jaguars 52-28 in the half.

SUU hit six of its first seven shots in overcoming a 12 point halftime deficit to pull within 42-41 at the first media time out of the second half. Jake Nielson started the run with a layup, then after Christian Siakam scored inside for IUPUI SUU scored 11 straight points. Damon Heuir hit a 3-pointer, Nielson scored on a breakaway dunk, then Hodgson and Taylor both dunked off feeds from Heuir, and a Heuir capped the run with a dunk on another breakaway.

Heuir's dunk brought SUU to within 42-41. After a timeout Leroy Nobles hit one of two free throws to push the Jaguar lead back to two, but SUU got a put-back basket from Taylor and a dunk from Hodgson for the first SUU lead of the game, 45-43.

The teams went back and forth over the next 10 minutes, but SUU took the lead for good when a Weirick jumper in the lane with 5:43 to go gave the T-Birds a 64-63 advantage. After Nobles was called for an offensive foul Stevenett got a rebound and scored to push the advantage to three.

IUPUI got back within one several times before Hodgson scored inside on a short jumper, then after a Heuir floater in the lane Hodgson blocked a Nobles shot in the lane and Stevenett grabbed the rebound. Hodgson finished the series with a dunk on the SUU end for a 74-67 SUU lead and the Thunderbirds hit four free throws down the stretch to clinch the win.

IUPUI looked like it might run away with the game early with a 14-2 run.

Leroy Nobles sparked the run with a 3-pointer and a dunk on a fast break, then Sean Esposito hit a three and Alex Young scored inside to give the Jaguars an 18-4 lead. Matt Massey finally scored inside to break the SUU drought, but IUPUI pushed the advantage to 22-6 before SUU rallied.

The T-Birds got two jumpers from Ramell Taylor and a 3-pointer from Jordan Weirick before a Jake Nielson three pulled SUU back within 26-16. IUPUI inched ahead again, going up 40-24 on an Esposito three with 1:09 to go in the half but Nielson hit two free throws and Kyle Davis finished a fast break for the Thunderbirds to pull them within 40-28 at halftime.

Southern Utah punched its ticket to the Summit League basketball tournament Saturday night, but it wasn't easy.

The Thunderbirds held off a determined Western Illinois squad, hitting eight of 10 free throws in the final minute to pull out a 68-63 win over the Leathernecks. SUU improved to 10-17 overall and 6-10 in league play in eliminating WIU from tournament consideration as the Leathernecks dipped to 7-20 overall and 2-14 in conference play.

After trailing by as many as 11 points early in the second half Western Illinois battled back to take a 40-39 lead on a Jack Houpt 3-pointer with 12:04 to play. The Leathernecks pushed their advantage to 43-39 on a traditional 3-point play by Houpt at the 10:37 mark, then went up 49-42 on Jelani Johnson 3-pointer with 9:15 to play.

Southern Utah got a 3-pointer of its own from Jordan Weirick, however, and after a Tyson Koehler jumper from the top of the key SUU was back within 50-47. Ray Jones, Jr., brought the T-Birds within 50-48 with a free throw, then Jackson Stevenett converted a three point play to give SUU a 51-50 lead with 6:23 to play.

SUU scored the next five points on a Jake Nielson free throw, a Stevenett jumper from the right elbow and a Stevenett layup on a feed from Koehler, which put the 'Birds up 56-50 with 4:35 to play.

Western Illinois cut the deficit to 60-57 with 2:17 to play, then the teams went through a series of missed shots and turnovers until Stevenett hit two free throws at the 44 second mark. That started the stretch of WIU sending SUU to the line, but the Thunderbirds converted them when they needed to in pulling out the win.

Western jumped out to a 5-0 lead and was up by as many as six, 14-8, after Matt Lander hit a three at the 13:43 mark but SUU scored the next seven points on a Damon Heuir jumper, a Ray Jones, Jr., layup on a fast break and a Heuir three that gave the 'Birds their first lead of the game, 15-14.

It was back-and-forth through the remainder of the half but SUU scored the final four points of the period. Matt Hodgson scored on a dunk, then after a Western turnover Heuir rebounded his own miss with three seconds to play and put it back for a 27-22 Thunderbird lead at the break.

Stevenett scored 15 points to lead four Thunderbirds in double figures, with Kyle Davis, Jones and Heuir all finishing with 10. Jones also had team-highs of four assists and five rebounds for the Thunderbirds, who hit 20-of-32 shots (52.9 percent), including 11-of-15 in the second half.

Western Illinois, which was led by Lander's 26 points, hit 19-of-42 shots (45.2 percent) but just 7-of-21 in the first half. SUU also out-rebounded the Leathernecks, 25-18.

Kyle Davis scored 18 points to lead four players in double figures as Southern Utah University posted an 84-66 Summit League victory over IPFW.

The Thunderbirds notched their third straight win and their fourth in five games after shooting 60 percent from the floor and outscoring IPFW 38-18 from in the paint. Along with Davis 18 points, eight rebounds, career-high five assists and three blocks Ray Jones Jr. finished with 16 points. Jackson Stevenett added 15 points and four blocks while junior forward Matt Massey recorded 10 points and grabbed six boards for the T-Birds.

The Thunderbirds were off and running in the early minutes, scoring the game's first eight points, then using a Davis three to open up an 11-3 lead. SUU would use defensive pressure and attacked the basket on the offensive end to open up a double-digit lead midway through the half. Jones Jr. highlighted a 10-3 run with eight points during that stretch that saw the Thunderbirds build a 21-9 lead at the 13:11 mark.

The Mastodons battled back with a 6-0 spurt of their own to cut the SUU lead to eight with 6:09 remaining but the Thunderbird bench provide a big boost in the final minutes of the period. Ramell Taylor came off the bench and quickly contributed, slamming home a rebound to bring the Centrum Arena crowd to its feet and end the IPFW run. The dunk spurned a 14-4 SUU run to close the half as Taylor added a pair of jumpers and Stevenett had a pair of old-fashioned 3-point plays to send Southern Utah into the half up 43-25.

Jones Jr. led all players with 10 first half points while Davis added nine and Taylor had six for the Thunderbirds who shot 57 percent from the field. The SUU defense held IPFW to 29 percent shooting and owned a 21-11 rebounding advantage through the first 20 minutes.

The Thunderbirds continued to play well on both ends of the floor in the second half, forcing IPFW into tough shots, grabbing rebounds and attacking the basket. After trading baskets in the opening minutes, Stevenett caught fire for the Thunderbirds, connecting on jumpers in three consecutive trips down the floor to extend the lead to 17, 53-36.

SUU went on to put the game out of reach with a 15-4 midway through half, building its largest lead of the game, 74-48 after a Taylor free throw at the 6:06 mark.

Taylor and senior guard Ryan Brimley each finished with nine points as SUU dished out 19 assists, its second highest total of the season.
