SUU VOLLEYBALL BEGIN GRUELING SIX-DAY ROAD TRIP THIS WEEK

CEDAR CITY, Utah - Southern Utah University will begin a three-game road swing this week when the Thunderbirds travel to Sacramento State, CSU Bakersfield and Northern Arizona.

"This will be an important week for us," head coach Debby Baker said. "We need to do everything we can to move up the conference standings and feel that we have a great opportunity against these teams this week."

SUU split its games against Sacramento State and Northern Arizona earlier this season in Cedar City, taking a 3-1 win over CSUS only to fall by the same score, 3-1, to NAU. The Thunderbirds are currently seventh in the league and only one game out of sixth place and a berth into the Big Sky Conference tournament.

Much of Southern Utah's success this season has come by way of a strong block, as the T-Birds are third in the league with 2.52 per set average and 207 total on the year. Individually, Cashaana Renfro has paced the block with 93 this season, averaging 1.16 per set which ranks fifth in the conference.

Gabi Mirand is also tops individually in the league with 32 service aces and an average of 0.41 per set which ranks second. Analaine Mailoto is the final T-Bird in the top five of the Big Sky Conference, residing third in the league in kills with 314 on the year and an average of 3.92 per set.

Southern Utah will face Sacramento State on Thursday, Bakersfield on Saturday and Northern Arizona on Monday night with game time slated for 8:00 p.m. (MT). Live stats are anticipated to be available for each game with links online at www.suutbirds.com.

COMING INTO 2012 WITH GUNS BLAZING

Southern Utah University will enter the 2012 season with all five of its top hitters from 2011. Headlining the group is Analaine Mailoto, a three-time first-team all-conference honoree, with 515 kills (4.15 per set) last season and 1,447 kills for her career going into 2012.

The group is rounded out by Kylie Schofield (286 kills), Cashaana Renfro (243 kills, 2009 Summit League all-tournament team), Alissa Youart (164 kills, 2009 Summit League all-freshmen team) and Hailey Moore (148 kills).

NEW YEAR, NEW LIBERO

Southern Utah University will enter its fourth season of women's volleyball in 2012, since the program's return in 2008, and will do so with its fourth different starting libero.

SKY'S THE LIMIT

Southern Utah University will begin its inaugural year in the Big Sky Conference in 2012 after having competed in the Summit League since the 1997-98 season.

DROPPING THE HAMMER

Southern Utah University is 24-2 in sets when hitting the 20-point plateau before its opponents.

DEBBY BAKER

Debby Baker has already enjoyed a strong head coach career at Southern Utah University since bringing the program back in 2009. In her brief five years, four years of competition, Baker has led the Thunderbirds to the Summit League tournament and had athletes garner three first-team all-conference, two all-freshmen team and one league freshman of the year award.

Southern Utah opened its first volleyball season since the 1988 season in 2009, posting a straight-set victory over Delaware State (25-21, 25-21, 25-20) and also opened its first game in the Centrum Arena with a 3-1 victory over IPFW (25-19, 25-15, 19-25, 25-22). Baker's charges also opened the 2010 season with a straight-set victory over Murray State (25-22, 25-14, 25-23) en route to a season-best mark of 15-15, including a 12-6 record in conference play. The record qualified the Thunderbirds for the fourth seed in the conference tournament in only the teams' second year of competition.

Baker joined the Thunderbirds after six seasons with New Mexico State University where she served as an assistant coach and the Director of Volleyball Operations. During her time with the Aggies, NMSU compiled a 165-32 (.858) record with 20 all-conference athletes, two conference titles and four NCAA tournament appearances. Baker was a strong recruiter for New Mexico State, signing a top-50 national class in 2003 and the 2005 Western Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year, Amber Simpson. Baker also did her part for her student-athletes to succeed in the classroom with two athletes (Jackie Chio and Jordan Bostic) earning CoSIDA Academic All-American plaudits.

Prior to her stop in Las Cruces, N.M., Baker served as an assistant coach with the University of New Mexico during the 2001 season. She also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Utah State University during the 2000 season and at the College of Southern Idaho during the 1994 and 1995 seasons. During her time at CSI, Baker helped coach the Eagles to an NJCAA National Championship with a 62-3 record in 1994 and an undefeated season in 1995 with a 65-0 mark.

Baker played collegiately for the Aggies of Utah State (1992-1993) following an all-region career at the College of Southern Idaho (1990-1991). While in Logan, Baker earned Big West academic honors, graduating Cum Laude with a Marketing degree in 1994.

Baker is originally from Star Valley, Wyo. and is married to Jon Baker. The couple have one son together, Logan, and reside in Cedar City.

Women's volleyball will be making a comeback after the program was dropped by the university following the 1988-1989 season despite a rich history while competing in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. During their years in the NAIA, the Thunderbirds accumulated seven consecutive conference titles from 1976-1983, losing only three Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference games in the process. The run also included several postseason appearances, culminating with a fourth-place national finish in 1981.
