T-Birds Set to Take on the Wolverines and Spartans on the Road

SUU SET TO VISIT UVU, SJSU

Southern Utah (2-4) returns to the road this week to face in-state rival Utah Valley (2-7) and San Jose State University (3-4). The Thunderbirds will look for their sixth-straight win against the Wolverines when the two teams meet in Orem this Thursday at 7 p.m. SUU swept UVU last year, taking an 80-65 victory in Cedar City and coming up with a 60-58 win on Utah Valley's home court. The T-Birds will then wrap up the weekend with a trip to San Jose for a 3 p.m. (MT) meeting with the Spartans. SJSU held on to edge SUU by a 70-68 final when the two teams met last season. Coverage of this week's games can be found on www.SUUTbirds.com.

Carli Moreland had 16 pts and 13 rebs against NMSU for her second double-double of the season.

ABOUT THE WOLVERINES

Utah Valley knocked off Weber State by a final score of 68-56 on Tuesday to snap a six-game losing skid after picking up their first win of the year with a 78-62 victory over Utah State. Senior forward Sammie Jensen has been a standout for the Wolverines this season, averaging 17.3 points and 12.5 rebounds. Head Coach Cathy Nixon is in her 18th season at UVU where she has compiled a career record of 299-224. SUU leads the all-time series 8-4.

ABOUT THE SPARTANS

After starting the year with a pair of wins, San Jose State has dropped three of its last four to fall to 3-4. The Spartans most recently suffered a 74-60 at home to Pacific this past Monday. Sophomore guard Ta'Rae Cunningham leads the team with over 20 ppg while freshman forward Riana Byrd is currently averaging 9.3 rpg. Head Coach Tim La Kose has led SJSU to a record of 12-20 since taking over the program in 2011. The Spartans came away with a 70-68 win last year in Cedar City to improve to 4-1 all-time against the T-Birds.

NMSU COMES BACK TO EDGE SUU

Southern Utah took a 14-point halftime over New Mexico State in its second home game of the season Saturday night, but then saw the visiting Aggies rally late to pull out a 70-68 win in the game's final seconds. NMSU guard Danesia Williamson drove the length of the court before laying a shot off the glass to give New Mexico State the lead in the final seconds. SUU finished the game with a 42.4 field goal percentage and went 7-14 from behind the arc while outrebounding the Aggies by a count of 43-33, but also turned the ball over 22 times. Moreland turned in her second double-double of the season for Southern Utah, racking up game-highs with 16 points and 13 rebounds.

BALL SKILLS

Southern Utah's Andrea Jones has been very stingy when it comes to turnovers this season. The SUU guard has only given up nine takeaways while dishing out 24 assists. That equates to a assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.67, the 18th best count in the NCAA. Jones has also been dangerous on the defensive end, averaging 1.33 steals per game.

BATTLE ON THE BOARDS

The Thunderbirds have proved themselves to be a strong rebounding team and are currently averaging 46.5 boards a game. SUU also holds a +9.3 rebounding margin advantage over its opponents, which is the 27th best mark in the nation. Junior forward Carli Moreland has been the top T-Birds on the glass so far this season with an average of 8.0 rpg putting her among the top 150 players in the NCAA.

SUU PERFECT IN PRESEASON

Southern Utah wrapped up the preseason with a 71-59 win over Dixie State to finish with a record of 2-0 in exhibition play. Kimie Hawkins led the T-Birds to victory with 17 points and 15 rebounds. The win came two days after SUU opened the year with a 83-62 win over New Mexico Highlands. Sophomore guard Marquelle Funk led Southern Utah with 18 points while connecting on 4-of-5 shots from behind the arc.

SUU ELEVENTH IN PRESEASON POLL

The Southern Utah University women's basketball team has been picked to finish eleventh in its first season a member of the Big Sky Conference. Defending champion Idaho State received eight first place votes to come out on top of the coaches polls followed by Northern Colorado and the University of Montana. Northern Arizona and Weber State were slotted ninth and tenth respectively, just ahead of SUU.

T-BIRDS ADD TO COACHING STAFF

Southern Utah University has announced the hiring of new assistant coach Jill Mahoney who will join the Thunderbird women's basketball program for the upcoming season. Mahoney comes to SUU from Western State College of Colorado where she helped the Mountaineers to a top four finish in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

SUU HAS SOMETHING 'BRUIN'

Southern Utah adds three JC transfers this year, all of whom were teammates at Salt Lake Community College over the past two seasons. Sofia Hepworth (G) was the Bruins leading scorer with 14.9 ppg, Marissa Robbins (G) ranked second on the team with 10.7 ppg and Nicole Newbold (F) shot over 53% from the floor for SLCC.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Junior Forward Carli Moreland recorded the first double-double of the season for SUU with an 11 point and 13 rebound performance against SOU. She then followed that up with a 16 point and 13 rebound outing against New Mexico State for her 11th career double-double.
- SUU returns three different players who finished last season with a double-digit scoring average including, Hailey Mandelko (13.1 ppg), Carli Moreland (11.1) and Andrea Jones (10.6).
- Sophomore guard Hailey Mandelko has connected on 11 of her first 24 three-point field goal attempts this year for a 3FG% mark of 45 percent.

HEAD COACH JR PAYNE

JR Payne is set to lead the Thunderbirds into the Big Sky Conference as she begins her fourth season at Southern Utah. Since taking over the program on April 20, 2009, she has led the T-Birds to a combined record of 29-60 as well as an appearance in the 2011 Summit League Tournament.

Under Payne's direction the 2011-12 season saw the emergence of a talented young group of players led by standouts Hailey Mandelko and Carli Moreland. Mandelko started at the point as a true freshman and finished the season as the T-Birds leading scorer (13.1 PPG) to earn all-newcomer honors in the conference. Moreland received honorable mention honors after ranking fifth in the league in rebounding (7.9 RPG) and eleventh in scoring (12.3 PPG). SUU also placed six student-athletes on the Summit League Academic All-League teams.

Payne's tenure at Southern Utah has been highlighted by the 2010-11 season when the team posted a record of 16-14, its best mark in the past seven years. The 2011 squad also had one of their best seasons as a member of the Summit League, posting a 10-8 record to finish fifth in the conference. Under Payne's guidance, forward Challis Pascucci produced one of the best individual performances in SUU history, earning a spot on the All-Summit League first team after finishing third in the conference in scoring (17.7 PPG), second in rebounding (9.7 RPG) and sixth in blocks (23). Pascucci finished the 2011 season as the Thunderbirds all-time leader in career rebounds (929) and fourth in scoring (1,328).

Prior to coming to SUU, Payne served as the top assistant at Santa Clara University under first-year head coach Jennifer Mountain for the 2008-09 season.

Payne also served as an assistant coach at Boise State University and Gonzaga University. During her time in Boise, the Broncos enjoyed a wealth of success, winning conference titles two of the three years and advancing to the NCAA postseason. BSU posted back-to-back 24-8 seasons, including a perfect 14-0 mark at home during the 2007-08 season. Payne began her career at Gonzaga University, serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Kelly Graves. Payne was an integral part of the Bulldogs turnaround as the team posted a five-win season during the staff's first year then went to a 28-win season during the 2004-05 season, including an undefeated run in the West Coast Conference. Payne was a part of the process that brought Gonzaga's first All-American to campus in guard Shannon Mathews.

As a player, Payne was a four-year letter winner at St. Mary's College (Calif.), helping the Gaels earn their first trip to the NCAA Tournament in school-history during the 1998-99 season. The former point guard was an All-West Coast Conference first team selection and was also named to the West Coast Conference All-Tournament first team twice.

Southern Utah took a 14-point halftime over New Mexico State in its second home game of the season Saturday night, but then saw the visiting Aggies rally late to pull out a 70-68 win in the game's final seconds. SUU led the game from two minutes in until the final minute, but the Aggies battled back for the improbable win to improve their record 5-2 while dropping the T-Birds to 2-4. Southern Utah was the first to get on the board first after Kimie Hawkins earned a trip to the line with a strong drive and knocked down both free throws for the first points of the game. Sofia Hepworth then took a steal the length of the court and was fouled on her way up for another trip to the line and two more points to put Southern Utah up 4-0. The T-Birds continued to add to their lead and eventually doubled up NMSU at 26-13 near the nine-minute mark as Marquelle Funk connected on a jumper from the outside. The Thunderbirds went on to take a 43-29 lead into the break after Sofia Hepworth hit a pull-up jumper in the closing seconds of the half.

The Aggies started the second half with two quick baskets and a pair of free throws, but Mandelko found her range from the outside again, hitting a three from the wing to push the lead back into the double-digits at 46-36.

The Aggies refused to go away however, and pulled back within a single basket as Gilbreath scored inside to make it 64-62 with four minutes remaining. The score remained tight down the stretch as the two sides traded baskets while the Thunderbirds held onto for 68-66 edge as the clock wound down to the final 60 seconds of play.

NMSU guard Danesia Williamson then got to free throw line to tie the score at 68-68 with 21 seconds remaining. SUU also earned a trip to the line on its ensuing possession but both attempts from Funk rimmed out and the Aggies took the ball back with 11 seconds left. Williamson took the ball for the visitors again and drove the length of the court before laying a shot off the glass to give New Mexico State the lead.

The Thunderbirds got the ball on the baseline with 2.1 seconds on the clock, but their down-court pass went out of bounds giving possession back to NMSU. SUU fouled on the inbounds pass and took the ball back after two missed free throws, but Anderson's last second heave came up well short of the basket and New Mexico State escaped with the 70-68 come-from-behind victory.

Southern Utah closed out its appearance at the BTI Classic with a 65-54 loss to Nicholls State on Sunday. The Thunderbirds made a late push in the second half after falling behind early on, but were unable to catch the Colonels who held on for the win.

Nicholls State put up the first five points of the game, but SUU came back to tie the score at 7-7 on a basket by Tayler Anderson five minutes in. The Colonels would then mount another run take a 17-10 lead on a pair of free throws from LiAnn McCarthy just past the midpoint of the opening period.

The T-Birds rallied once again however, outscoring their opponents by a count of 6-1 over the next five minutes to narrow the margin to 18-16 with the half winding down. Nicholls then went on to close out the period on 10-2 run, finished off by a three-pointer for KK Babin, to take a 28-20 advantage into the break.

Southern Utah held a 26-15 rebounding edge in the early going, but trailed its opponents in field goal percentage with a mark of 28.6 percent to the Colonels 34.5 percent.

The Thunderbirds got the first points of the second half as Anderson knocked down another jumper to bring SUU within six with the score at 28-22, but the Colonels used another run to push their lead to a game-high 17 after Alisha Allen scored a basket to make the count 51-34 near the six-minute mark.

Hailey Mandelko sank a three to bring SUU back within ten with three minutes left on the clock and Andrea Jones added another after a Nicholls basket to make the score 58-49 with just over a minute to play, but the Colonels would go 5-6 from the free throw line in the final seconds to hold on for the 65-54 win.

Southern Utah went 18-52 from the field for an overall shooting percentage of 34.6 percent while Nicholls State shot the ball 23-55 for a mark of 41.8 percent. SUU outrebounded its opponent 41-33 but gave up 21 turnovers. The Colonels had three players score in the double-figures, led by McCarthy and Babin who each had 16. Mandelko was the Thunderbirds top-scorer with 12 points and went 3-6 from the three-point line. Anderson and Jones also each chipped in eight for SUU.

Senior forward Tayler Anderson was also named to the all-tournament team after averaging 5.7 rebounds per game, 1.3 assists and 6.7 points on 52.9 percent shooting.

Southern Utah shot the ball a season-high 43.3 percent from the floor to run away with a 76-47 win over the University of New Orleans in its second outing of the BTI Classic on Saturday. In a performance similar to their first win of the season, the Thunderbirds used a balanced offensive attack that saw a dozen players come up with a basket. Leading the way were Sofia Hepworth and Tayler Anderson who each had 10 points in the win.

SUU came out firing as junior guard Andrea Jones knocked down a three in the games opening possession to spark a 20-7 game-opening run that ended with Desiree Jackson driving in for a lay-up that put the T-Birds up by 13 near the 12 minute mark.

Southern Utah continued to score the ball well throughout the half pushing its lead to as many as 17 in the final minute of the period. New Orleans beat the buzzer with a three from Mirjam Sipos to make the score 38-24 at the break. The Thunderbirds finished the half shooting the ball over 46 percent from the floor while holding their opponents to a mark of just 27 percent. SUU also posted a 33-9 rebounding advantage in the early going and was a perfect 2-2 from behind the arc.

It would be more of the same after halftime as SUU opened with six unanswered to push its lead to 20 at 44-24. The margin reached 33 points after freshman Ashleigh Munns sank a three to make the count 62-29 halfway through the period, and eventually went as high as 40 on another outside shot from Munns that brought the score to 73-33 with just over four minutes left to play.

The Privateers worked to narrow the deficit in the final minutes, but the Thunderbirds had the game well in hand as they cruised to the 76-47 victory. The win helps SUU improve its overall record to 2-2 on the year while UNO drops to 1-4.

Freshman Lori Parkinson had a solid outing in her second-straight game, pulling down 12 rebounds to go along with eight points. Sipos finished as the Privateers top-scorer with 15 points.

The Thunderbirds turned in their best shooting performance of the early season, going 5-6 from the three-point line and 29-67 from the floor for a field goal mark of 43.3 percent. SUU also played well on the defensive end holding its opponents to just 16-56 shooting and winning the battle on the boards by a tally of 62-23.

Southern Utah came up short in its opening game at the BTI Classic on Friday night, falling to tournament host Texas Tech by a final score of 73-54. The T-Birds defense held TTU to just 28.6 percent shooting from the floor, but the Lady Raiders made 43 trips to the free throw line where they were able to pick up 30 of their points.

The two sides traded baskets in the early going until Tech guards Christine Hyde and Casey Morris hit back-to-back threes as part of a 10-0 run that saw the Raiders go up by a count of 14-4. SUU then battled back with a jumper by Carli Moreland and a pair of Kimie Hawkins free throws that narrowed the margin to 16-10 halfway through the period.

Texas Tech then put together another big run as it ran off nine-straight points over the next three minutes to push its advantage to 23-10. The Lady Raiders held onto the lead throughout the closing minutes of the half, eventually taking a 34-20 advantage into the break.

SUU opened the second half with a six straight points, including a pair of jumpers from freshman Lori Parkinson, to pull within eight with the score at 34-26. The deficit hung around ten points for the first several minutes of the half until Texas Tech put together 16-2 run near the 12 minute mark to pull ahead 62-38.

The T-Birds made a push to cut into the lead in the final minutes, but were unable to overcome the deficit as Texas Tech held on for the 73-54 victory. Southern Utah showed a marked improvement in the second half, shooting the ball 40 percent from the floor while holding TTU to just 31 percent down the stretch. The Thunderbirds also battled back on the boards trailing the Raiders by a single rebound with the count favoring the home team at 22-21 in the final period. SUU also held a 11-9 advantage in assists for the game and scored 32 points in the paint to Texas Tech's 20.

Parkinson turned in her best game so far as a T-Bird, scoring 11 points on 5-7 shooting while also pulling down five rebounds. Kimie Hawkins grabbed 10 boards for SUU to go along with seven points. The Lady Raiders had three players finish in the double-figures including Morris with 18, Hyde at 16 and Kelsi Baker who had 13.

Sofia Hepworth came off the bench to lead Southern Utah to a 99-71 win over Southern Oregon in the team's regular season opener on Saturday night. The junior transfer player had 21 points in a game that saw the Thunderbird reserves record 60 points.

"Sofia did exactly what we expect her to do for us, she is instant offense," explained SUU head coach JR Payne. "She is also a great teammate and brings a terrific spirit to this team."

SUU guard Hailey Mandelko opened the game with a three pointer from the left wing, but the Raiders quickly answered with a driving score by Ashley Claussen that started a 6-0 run to go up 6-3. The Thunderbirds came back with four straight to retake the lead at 7-6.

The Raiders narrowed the margin to one at 40-39 in the closing minutes of the period, but the Thunderbirds put up six points in final 60 seconds, capped by a put-back lay-up by Lori Parkinson just before the horn to take a 46-39 advantage into the locker room.

Mandelko opened the second half the same way she started the game as she knocked down another three-pointer to push the SUU advantage into the double-digits. She then put up four more points as the Thunderbirds started the period on a 15-4 run that pushed the margin to 18 points with the score at 61-43.

The SUU lead would grow to as much as 32 points in the closing minutes before the Thunderbirds eventually took the game by a final score of 99-71. The Southern Utah offense started the season strong recording its highest scoring total since the 2010-11 season while shooting 42.3 percent from the floor. The T-Birds also held a 56-39 rebounding advantage and went 30-45 from the foul line.

Five Thunderbirds turned in double-digit scoring performances including Hepworth with 21, Mandelko at 18, Moreland with 11 and Hawkins and Jones who each had 12. Moreland also pulled down 13 rebounds to start the year with a double-double. Sweat finished with 26 for the Raiders who got another 13 from forward Alexi Smith.

"I thought we played really well in spurts," commented Payne. "Overall it was a great win and it was good that everyone got to play."

After falling behind by as many as 23 points in its road-opener at Utah on Tuesday, SUU came back to cut the margin into the single digits in the game's closing moments. The Thunderbird rally would come up just short however as the Utes were able to hold on for the 79-61 victory.

Southern Utah got on the scoreboard first after Desiree Jackson drew contact on a drive on the Thunderbirds second possession and hit both free throws to put SUU up 2-0. The Utes came back with a three-point play by Taryn Wicijowski. After a three from Hailey Mandelko and a pair of Desiree Jackson free throws the score was knotted up again at 7-7.

The two sides traded scores in the closing minutes of the half until SUU took possession with four seconds left on the clock. Andrea Jones took the inbounds pass and quickly dribbled the length of the court before firing off a runner from the right side that beat the buzzer to make the score 35-28 heading into the break.

Utah opened the second half with a 16-0 run capped by a three from Rodriguez, to push its lead to 51-28. Mandelko knocked down a three to stop the streak and Marissa Robbins added four straight as SUU narrowed the margin to 57-37. The Thunderbirds then continued to cut away at the deficit as they outscored the Utes 18-10 over a five-minute stretch to bring the tally to 61-46. The Utes took back momentum Paige Crozon hit a pair free throws that pushed the lead to 70-52, but the Thunderbirds came back with another Mandelko three that started a 9-0 run to bring the score to bring SUU within nine at 70-61 with just over four minutes left to play.

Four-straight free throws and a lay-up by Rodriguez would then push the Utah lead to 76-61 with under two minutes left in the game. The Utes added on a few more free throws in the closing moments to eventually hold on for the 79-61 victory.

The Utes got big performances from Rodriguez who scored 20 points and Wicijowski who finished with 20 points and 15 rebounds. Robbins was the Thunderbirds top-scorer with 10 points, but 10 different players scored for SUU. Utah held a slight edge on the glass, outrebounding Southern Utah 46-40, and a significant advantage from the foul line where it connected on 25 attempts to the T-Birds 10 makes.

Southern Utah had one of its most productive nights of offense of the season, outscoring visiting in-state rival Utah Valley by a final count of 80-65. Freshman point guard Hailey Mandelko came into the game as the Thunderbirds leading scorer on the year and eventually finished the night with a career high 23 points.

The Thunderbirds got things going right from the start on their end of the court, converting 10 of their first 15 field goal attempts for a 24-12 lead near the 10-minute mark. Mandelko did the majority of the scoring in the game's early minutes, pouring in 14 during Southern Utah's opening run. The freshman point guard was accurate from long range, draining three three-pointers, and was able to consistently get to the free throw line where she was 5-5 in the in the opening half.

Utah Valley made a push to trim the lead to five over the next five minutes with a 13-6 run capped by a three-point play by Erika Newbold. SUU wouldn't allow UVU to get any closer however as they held off the Wolverines attempted rally to take a 41-35 advantage into the break. Both teams struggled to score the ball in the opening minutes of the second period, and after nine minutes of play the T-Birds still found themselves in control with an eight point, leading Utah Valley 51-43. Southern Utah would then run off seven unanswered to stretch its advantage to a game-high 15 at 58-43. SUU maintained control for the remainder of the game as the Wolverines were rarely got the deficit back down to single digits. On one of those occasions Newbold was able to complete another three-point play to pull UVU within nine, but the Thunderbirds outscored the visitors 11-5 in the final two and a half minutes to take the 15 point victory and set the final margin at 80-65.

Mandelko led all scorers with 23 points, finishing the game 4-8 from behind the arc and 7-7 at the free throw line. Three other players would also score in the double-figures for SUU as Kimie Hawkins had 12, DJ Norman matched a career high with 10 and Carli Moreland set a new personal best with 17. Junior forward Tayler Anderson also helped to fill the box score with eight points, seven assists and eight rebounds. Junior center Erica Newbold paced Utah Valley with 14 points, six of which came from the free throw line.

Southern Utah defeated Utah Valley for the second time of the season, and made it five wins in a row in the series, after taking a 60-59 decision over the Wolverines on their home floor. Angel Dorn helped the Thunderbirds come out on top by earning a trip to the free throw line with less than a second remaining where she knocked down her first attempt to break a 59-59 tie and clinch the one-point victory for SUU.

DJ Norman and Kimie Hawkins got the Southern Utah offense going in the game's opening minutes, accounting for 10 of team's first 13 points be to help the Thunderbirds jump out to a 13-8 advantage. SUU would eventually take a 29-25 edge into the break as Norman chipped in another five points to close the half.

Sammie Jensen and Jenna Johnson opened the second half with back-to-back baskets for Utah Valley to pull the score even at 29. The Wolverines followed those scores with a 16-7 run capped by a three pointer by Jensen that pulled their lead to seven at 41-34. The Thunderbirds answered by outscoring their opponents 11-5 over the next two minutes to trim the deficit back down to one, trailing by a score of 46-45.

With SUU in need of a basket Hailey Mandelko took the ball at top of the arc where she fired off a deep-three just before being hit a by a UVU defender. The ball found the bottom of the net and Mandelko went to the line where she completed the four-point play to knot the score at 59.

Following an SUU timeout the Thunderbird attack was unable to find a hole in the Utah Valley defense and settled for a three-point attempt from the corner as the clock wound down. The shot missed the rim and bounced out of bounds, giving the ball back to UVU with a little over a second left. The Wolverines were unable to connect on their inbound pass however and turned the ball back over to the T-Birds. Mandelko found Dorn with a quick pass from the baseline as she was cutting to basket drawing a foul to earn a trip to the line for two chances at a potential game-winning free throw. Her first attempt shot through the net to put her team up one and her second bounced off the rim forcing time to expire on the rebound, clinching the victory and setting the final score at 60-59 in favor of SUU.

Kimie Hawkins recorded a double double in the win, leading all scorers with 14 points while pulling down 10 rebounds. Mandelko finished with 12 points for SUU and Dorn chipped in a dozen more off the bench. The Wolverines were led by Whitney Jenkins who scored 14 points, including six from the free throw line.

Sophomore forward Carli Moreland posted 22 points and 17 rebounds against visiting San Jose State, but it wouldn't be enough as late come-back attempt by Southern Utah came up just short as the Spartans held on for a 70-68 victory.

The two teams went back and forth early on, reaching a 6-6 tie after four minutes of play. Moreland got off to a fast start for the Thunderbirds, scoring four of the first six points for SUU. The Thunderbirds would then go on a 12-2 run as Moreland added four more points while Hailey Mandelko and Andrea Jones both connected from the outside to help their team go up by a margin of 18-8.

The Spartans quickly rallied with six straight points and after a Tayler Anderson free throw trailed by just five with the score at 19-14 in favor of SUU near the 12-minute mark. Mandelko would sink another three to put SUU back up by five near the end of the opening period. The final five minutes of the half belonged to San Jose State however as Sara Plavljanin sank three shots from behind the arc to help the Spartans score 16 unanswered on their way to an 11-point lead. Hawkins finally closed the half with a put-back lay-up to stop the run and set the score at 37-28 heading into the break.

With just over six-minutes remaining in the game Southern Utah would mount one last rally in which the Thunderbirds outscored the Spartans 12-0 over a three-minute period to pull within a single point of San Jose. SJSU would then tally a couple of baskets to go back up by five, but SUU answered once again as a pair of free throws by Mandelko cut the advantage to one with 12 seconds remaining. Following a made free throw by Johnson the T-Birds took possession trailing 70-68 with 11 seconds on the clock. Mandelko quickly brought the ball up the court and found Hawkins who fired a jumper that was just partially deflected by Myesha Broaden. Moreland was there to grab the loose ball and fire up another shot but her try was just off the mark as the horn sounded to seal the victory for the visiting Spartans.

Carli Moreland had a career night for the Thunderbirds in the loss, finishing the game with 22 points and 17 rebounds. Kimie Hawkins would also post a double double, pulling down 14 boards to go along with her 12 points. Brittany Johnson led all scorers with 28 points, 12 of which came from the free throw line. Sara Plavljanin and Ta'Rea Cunnigan each tallied 15 from the guard line for SJSU.

| 11. Weber State | 25 |

A new era in the Big Sky Conference begins in 2012-13 as the league enters its 50th year of athletic competition, and its 25th sponsoring women's collegiate athletics.

The Division I Big Sky Conference welcomes the University of North Dakota and Southern Utah University into the fold as full members. Cal Poly and UC Davis join the league as affiliate members in football, where the league competes at the Championship Subdivision level (formerly I-AA).

The additions of North Dakota and Southern Utah give the stable Big Sky 11 full institutions and 13 football members. The current lineup includes four of the six charter members: Idaho State University, The University of Montana, Montana State University and Weber State. Northern Arizona enters its 43rd season in the Big Sky, giving the conference five members with at least 40 years of continuous membership.
