Thunderbirds Travel To Cal

Quickly: Southern Utah University travels to Berkeley, Calif., for a first-time meeting with California this Saturday. It is the Thunderbirds' first meeting with a Pac-12 school on the football field.

Southern Utah (0-1/0-0 Big Sky) is coming off a 34-3 loss at Utah State on Thursday, Aug. 30. The Thunderbirds dug themselves a 21-0 hole in the first quarter, and although they played better on both sides of the ball the rest of the way they couldn't overcome the Aggies.

California (0-0/0-0 Pac-12) fell at home to Nevada in its home opener last week, 31-24. Like the Thunderbirds, the Bears got behind early, giving up a pair of touchdowns in the first quarter, and although they eventually tied the game at 24-24 midway through the fourth quarter, the Wolfpack scored with 36 seconds to play to claim the win.

The Game: Southern Utah (0-1) at California (0-1), Saturday at noon (PDT), Memorial Stadium (63,000, Artificial), Berkeley, Calif.

The Series: Saturday's game will be the first meeting between the two schools in football.

TV: Saturday's game will be televised live by the Pac-12 Networks.

SUU's TV Games in 2012: SUU is scheduled to play on live television three more times this season, including two of the next three contests. The Big Sky opener at Portland State (Sept. 22), the Big Sky home-opener vs. Montana State (Sept. 29) and the regular-season finale at Northern Arizona (Nov. 10) will all be televised. The Cal game will be on the Pac-12 Networks, the PSU game will be on FOX Northwest, and the Montana State game will be televised in high definition on ROOT Sports. The Northern Arizona game will be televised live on FOX Sports Arizona Plus.

Video Highlights: Video highlights of the Thunderbirds' home and road games will be available to accredited media outlets via SUU's FTP site. For information on obtaining those highlights contact SUU Director of Athletic Media Relations Neil Gardner.

Thunderbirds to their second straight winning season and their first win over an FBS-level opponent (UNLV) since 1997. Prior to taking over at SUU, Lamb spent three seasons at the University of San Diego where he coordinated the special teams and recruiting and was the Toreros' defensive backs coach. ## SUU picked to finish eighth in Big Sky Polls

Southern Utah was picked to finish eighth by both the coaches and the media in the 2012 Big Sky Conference football polls. The Thunderbirds are entering their first season in the BSC this fall.

SUU received 74 points, including one first-place vote from the coaches, one point behind Northern Arizona and seven behind No. 6 Weber State. The Thunderbirds garnered 258 points from the media to finish 26 behind Weber State, which was voted seventh.

"I think that when these preseason polls come, most coaches look to be somewhere in the middle two-thirds area," SUU Coach Ed Lamb said. "They want to be in striking distance and have enough respect around the league that we can be in striking distance of a realistic shot at a conference championship and it appears that most of the coaches and media place us in that middle two-thirds area."

"I would think puts us in a position there most people think we have a realistic shot at competing and yet we're flying under the radar," Lamb pointed out. "We're not one of the favorites, we're not a red-letter opponent for any of our opponents, they're probably looking forward to other games against other opponents in the conference as being bigger games, at least as far as conference championship implications go. So I think that we're probably in a situation, at least early in the season where you're going to be playing an underdog role. Traditionally SUU and our players respond very well to that role."

Montana State was picked to win the conference and was followed by Eastern Washington, Montana, Portland State and Cal Poly in both the coaches and the media polls.

"That's the way that I see it," Lamb said. "Usually preseason polls are a combination of what teams did the previous year in their league and then who they have coming back, particularly a the quarterback position because I think we all make the assumption that there's some player leadership present when the quarterback is returning. Montana State matches up in both those criteria, they had a nice in-conference record last year, plus they return their quarterback and I think that in every regard they should be considered the preseason number-one."

Sacramento State was picked ninth by the coaches, followed by North Dakota, Idaho State, UC Davis and Northern Colorado. North Dakota was picked sixth in the media poll while Northern Arizona was ninth, followed by Sacramento State, UC Davis, Idaho State and Northern Colorado.

College Football Performance Awards: Southern Utah defensive end Jeff Tukuafu and punter Brock Miller earned recognition as impact players from CFPA following the Utah State game. Tukuafu got in on three tackles for loss, including one sack, and finished the night with seven tackles, including two solos which both went for losses. Miller punted nine times for 411 yards and pinned the Aggies inside the 20 yard line four times, he also had a career-long 72-yard boot.

Off to a good start: First-year players dominated Southern Utah's stat sheet on the defensive side of the ball at Utah State, as six of the top-seven tacklers were either starting or playing in their first games as Thunderbirds. Senior OLB Namari Flentroy (13 tackles, one fumble recovery), senior OLB Rickey Clark (13) and true freshman ILB Zak Browning (12) were 1-2-3 on the tackles list and all were making their first starts as a Thunderbird, with Flentroy and Browning playing their first games for SUU. Junior safety Tommy Collet, Jr., who was a part-time starter last year, was fourth on the list with 10 stops, while red-shirt freshmen LeShaun Sims and Miles Killebrew, a corner and strong safety, each had nine tackles in their first starts. Junior cornerback Tyree Mills, who was also starting for the first time, was next on the tackles list with eight, including four solo stops and he had the team's lone pass deflection. DE Austin Anderson, a redshirt sophomore, also had a solo sack and was in on another tackle for loss in his first start. Other first-year players who got into the action on the defensive side of the ball were redshirt freshman end James Cowser, who tallied four tackles, including a TFL that nearly went for a safety, and true freshman LB Mike Needham, who had one stop.

Pick Me: Collet notched the first interception of his SUU career at Utah State when he picked off a Chuckie Keeton offering in the third period.

Turnovers and Penalties: SUU won both the turnover and the penalty battles at Utah State. The Thunderbirds recovered an Aggie fumble and tallied Collet's pick while turning it over just once, an interception in the USU end zone on a tipped ball on the final play of the game. As far as penalties went, Southern Utah was flagged four times for 35 yards while the Aggies drew 10 flags for 108 yards, including four pass interference calls. A fifth pass interference call was declined after the receiver caught the ball.

Left-footed kickers: For the second year in a row, Southern Utah's kickers are both left-footed. Both specialists had relatively good nights at Utah State. Brock Miller punted nine times for 411 yards – including a 72-yarder on his first boot of the game – and pinned the Aggies inside the 20-yard line four times. Just one punt was returned more than 10 yards and just two were returned at all. Colton Cook averaged 65 yards on his two kickoffs and neither was returned past the 25 yard line. Cook also hit his only field goal attempt, a 22-yarder for the team's only points of the evening.

Thunderbird Quick Hits:

- SUU is in its 50th season as a four-year football-playing institution and its 27th as a member of the NCAA. The 2012 season also marks the Thunderbirds' 20th as a member of the NCAA's Football Championship Subdivision and is the school's first in the Big Sky Conference. SUU competed in the Great West Conference the past eight seasons.

- The opener at Utah State marked the eighth time in the last 10 seasons the Thunderbirds have played their first game of the season on the road, including the last three in a row. Last year SUU opened at South Dakota State, in 2010 it opened at Wyoming. The other openers at the road during the past 10 years came at Air Force (2008), at Montana (2007), at Idaho State (2005), at Weber State (2004) and in 2003 the opener was at Nevada. The two openers at home were in 2009 against Dixie State and in 2006 when the 'Birds kicked off the season against Montana Tech at Eccles Coliseum.

- The Thunderbirds have five players returning who earned first-team all-Great West Conference honors last year, including the four preseason all-Americans and linebacker Chad Hansen.

- SUU has eight returning academic all-GWC honorees, including Larsen, senior offensive linemen Russell Petersen and Dylan Fox, junior defensive lineman Brad Meyer (who had the only 4.0 GPA among football players on the list), junior cornerback Tyree Mills, junior linebacker K.C. - SUU plays 10 of its 11 games against NCAA Division I opponents this year, with eight against teams from the championship subdivision and two from the bowl subdivision. Utah State and California are the two FBS opponents and SUU faces a Division II opponent for the first time in two seasons when it hosts New Mexico Highlands.

- About half of the players on the roster are Utah natives, with 45 hailing from the Beehive State. California is the next-most represented state, with 24, while nine call Nevada home. Four players come from Texas, with two from Florida, Idaho and Washington, and one each from Arizona, Colorado and Tonga.

Coaching Lineup: The SUU staff returns almost intact for 2012, with Head Coach Ed Lamb entering his fifth season on the SUU sidelines. The only change in the staff this year is former passing game coordinator Paul Peterson has moved on to take the offensive coordinator duties at Sacramento State. Justin Ena, an NFL veteran and former BYU standout, will continue as defensive coordinator and will work with linebackers. Former BYU and Utah assistant Steve Clark will again handle offensive coordinator duties. Ryan Hunt, a former all-conference performer at offensive tackle for SUU, returns as defensive line coach while Demario Warren, a former UC Davis running back, returns as secondary coach and has taken some of Peterson's recruiting duties. Teag Whiting, another NFL veteran and former BYU standout, is in his third season as offensive line coach after working as a graduate assistant in 2009. Ronnie Pentz is in his fourth season with the team, his second co-coordinating special teams and his second as tight ends coach after working with the linebackers his first two seasons. Aaron Fernandez, an all-GWC defensive tackle in 2008, is the co-linebackers coach and co-recruiting coordinator, while former Thunderbird standout WR/KR Justin Wattenscheid enters his third season with the team as co-special teams coordinator and running backs coach. Fesi Sitake, a former all-conference receiver for the Thunderbirds who worked as a student assistant last year, moves into a full-time position this year, working with the team's receivers.

SUU's Eccles Coliseum is one of two football stadiums in the world sporting both the Olympic Rings and an Olympic Cauldron inside the stadium (The Los Angeles Coliseum is the other). ### Cal Notes:

The Bears will be playing their second game in the renovated Memorial Stadium after playing its 2011 season at AT&T Park ... Cal returns five starters on offense and five on defense from last year's 7-6 squad that advanced to the Holiday Bowl.

Wide receiver Keenan Allen (6-3, 210, Jr) is a pre-season all-American and National Player of the Year candidate. He is one of four preseason all-Pac-12 selections on the team, including DL Deandre Coleman (6-5, 309, Jr), OL Matt Summers-Gavin (6-4, 300, Sr) and DL Aaron Tipoti (6-2, 280, Sr). Summers-Gavin and Tipoti are on the Outland Trophy watch list while Coleman is on the Hendricks Award watch list.

Zach Maynard (6-2, 185, Sr) returns to the Bears after starting last season. In 2011 he completed 231-of-405 passes for 2,990 yards and 17 touchdowns, with 12 interceptions. Last week he came off the bench to complete 17-of-30 passes for 245 yards and two scores but also lost a fumble deep in Nevada territory in the fourth quarter. Allen pulled in six passes, for 67 yards, while Chris Harper (WR, 6-0, 179, Fr) had five receptions for 57 yards and a score and Bryce Treggs (WR, 5-11, 175, Fr) had three catches for 62 yards and another TD.

Tailback Isi Sofele (5-8, 200, Sr) rushed for 1,322 yards last year to lead the team but he had just five carries for 22 yards against Nevada. C.J. Anderson (5-11, 210, Sr), the team's second-leading rusher last year with 345 yards, carried the rushing load for the Bears last week, with 14 rushes for 66 yards, while Allen had a pair of carries, including a 35-yard TD run.

Defensively, cornerback Steve Williams (5-10, 185, Jr), safety Josh Hill (5-10, 203, Sr), LB Scarlett Brennan (6-4, 255, So) and LB Robert Mullins (6-0, 225, Sr) each had 12 tackles against the Wolfpack last week. Coleman had eight tackles, including a half-sack, and Tipoti had four stops.

The Bear defense combined for 11 tackles for loss last week but gave up 450 total yards, including 220 on the ground and 230 through the air. On the offensive side of the ball Cal threw for 251 yards and ran for 113 against Nevada.

Coach Ed Lamb On The Thunderbirds: "It's a matter of getting better, Utah State made us better. That's the reason we schedule these games, I'm very encouraged by the way our guys fought back [at Utah State] and I think we will have a better team going into Berkeley next week and we'll learn some things about ourselves that we'll need to correct then too. The players and coaches need to keep believing in each other and work really hard this week and we'll be fine."

Heading into Thursday night's game against Utah State, Southern Utah Coach Ed Lamb called the Aggies "the hottest team in the State." USU certainly lived up to that standard, rushing for 265 yards and throwing for 304 more in a 34-3 win over the Thunderbirds.

The Aggies scored the first three times they touched the ball, all in the first quarter, to run out to a 21-0 lead, and although Southern Utah came back to win the second quarter, 3-0, they weren't able to climb back out of the early hole.

USU, which had the sixth-best rushing attack in the NCAA Bowl Subdivision last year, hurt the Thunderbirds with the run but early on did the most damage through the air, taking a 14-0 lead on a pair of long passes.

Utah State put together an 11-play, 97-yard drive on its first possession, with quarterback Chuckie Keeton finding Chuck Jacobs on a 48-yard touchdown pass at the 8:51 mark, then less than three minutes later Keeton hit Matt Austin for a 35-yard touchdown.

A 27-yard Joe Hill run staked USU to a 21-0 lead as time expired in the first period.

The Thunderbirds didn't record a first down or complete a pass in the first period when they had just 19 yards of offense, all on the ground.

The first SUU first down came on a 10-yard Brad Sorensen run at the 14:52 mark of the second period and that play sparked the Thunderbirds, who went on to drive to the USU three yard line before the drive stalled and Southern Utah was forced to settle for a 22-yard Colton Cook field goal. The Thunderbirds' first completion of the game also came on the drive, an 18-yard completion from Sorensen to Griff McNabb.

Hill scored on a 19-yard run at the 11:53 mark of the third period to give the Aggies a 28-3 lead, then went 33 yards on the first play of the fourth period to make the Aggie advantage 34-3.

Sorensen struggled, particularly early on and finished with 153 yards on 12-of-33 passing with one interception, which came on the final play of the game on a ball that was tipped high in the air.

NOTES: Tommy Collet, Jr., intercepted a pass in the third period, his first career interception. Brock Miller had a good night punting the ball, with nine boots for 411 yards, a 45.7 yard-per-kick average. First-year starters Namari Flentroy, Rickey Clark and Zak Browning did well in their first games as starters. Flentroy and Clark co-led the team with 13 tackles each and Browning finished with 12 while Collet had a career-high 10.
