Southern Utah's men's basketball team hits the road for a pair of Big Sky clashes this weekend. The Thunderbirds, who currently share first place in the league with Weber State and Montana at 2-0, face Northern Arizona Saturday at 3:05 p.m. (MST), then continue on to meet Sacramento State on Monday at 7:05 p.m. (PST).

SUU will be facing the Big Sky's top two scorers in the two games this weekend, as Sac State forward John Dickson averages a league-high 15.80 points per game while NAU guard DeWayne Russell is right behind Dickson at 15.75 ppg.

Saturday's game will air live on FOX Sports Arizona.

SUU (4-7/2-0 Big Sky) will be looking to post-back-to-back wins after edging Northern Colorado, 51-50, at home last Saturday night. The Thunderbirds opened the Big Sky schedule with a 79-67 win over North Dakota on Dec. 17. Jackson Stevenett, who has led the team in scoring and assists the past three games, scored 14 points against the Bears, while Wade Collie added 13, including the game-winner with 12 seconds to play.

Northern Arizona (4-8/1-1 Big Sky) will face Sacramento State on Thursday prior to Saturday's game. NAU is currently on a three-game skid which began with a 62-56 loss at home to Montana on Dec. 19. Since that game the Lumberjacks have also suffered setbacks at Colorado (98-51) and BYU (84-54). The 'Jacks opened their Big Sky schedule with an 87-80 home win over Montana State on Dec. 17.

Sacramento State (6-4/1-1 Big Sky) will have been off since Dec. 21 when the game against NAU rolls around on Thursday. The Hornets lost a 61-60 home decision to Montana the last time out, evening their Big Sky record at 1-1 after opening conference play with a 62-57 home win over Montana State. CSUS is 4-2 at home this season, with the only other loss coming at the hands of arch-rival UC Davis, 87-76, on Nov. 20.

The Games: Southern Utah (4-7/1-0) at Northern Arizona (4-8/1-1 pending the outcome of Thursday's game vs. Sacramento State), Saturday at 3:05 p.m. in the Rolle Activity Center (1,000). Southern Utah at Sacramento State (6-4/1-1, pending the outcome of Thursday's game), 7:05 p.m. (PST) in the Hornet's Nest (1,200).

The Series: NAU holds a 13-8 edge in the series with the Thunderbirds, including a season sweep the last time the teams met, during the 2002-03 season. The Lumberjacks took a 73-56 win in Cedar City, then completed the sweep with an 85-68 win in Flagstaff later in the season. Southern Utah holds an 11-6 advantage in the series with Sacramento State, including a 76-51 win the last time the teams met, during the 2008-09 season. SUU won the last meeting in Sacramento, 57-54, in the second game of the 2007-08 season.

TV: Saturday's game will be televised live by FOX Sports Arizona. There will be no live television for Monday's game.

Radio: All of Southern Utah men's basketball games are broadcast live by KSUU (91.1 FM) as well as on the internet at www.power91radio.com. Art Challis is in his 40th season as the Thunderbirds' basketball play-by-play voice. Practice Schedule: The practice schedule calls for the Thunderbirds to work out daily at 3:15 p.m. in the Centrum Arena.

Media Availability: The schedule will remain TBA until the beginning of spring semester, at which time players and coaches will be available Tuesdays at 2:30 p.m.

Next Up: Following Monday's game the Thunderbirds will return home to host Weber State on Jan. 10 and Idaho State on Jan. 12.

Thunderbird Club Luncheons: The Thunderbird Club's weekly no-host luncheon is held Mondays at noon at the Cedar City Crystal Inn. The public is invited to attend the luncheons where Southern Utah's in-season coaches talk about their upcoming contests and review the past week's action.

Captains: This year's captains are seniors Jackson Stevenett and Tyson Koehler.

The Coaches: Head Coach Nick Robinson (Stanford, 2005) is 4-7 in his first season at SUU and his first season as a head coach. Coach Robinson came to Southern Utah from LSU, where he spent three seasons on the staff. Prior to his time at LSU Robinson spent a season at William Jewell College and two seasons on the staff at his alma mater, Stanford. During his time as an assistant coach, Robinson helped guide his teams to a combined record of 87-47 and four post-season appearances, including two NCAA, one NIT and one NAIA Division I national tournaments.

Robinson is assisted by Jared Barrett (Eastern Oregon, 1996), Todd Okeson (Nevada, 2005) and Drew Allen (Southern Utah, 2010).

Northern Arizona is coached by Jack Murphy (Arizona, 2005). Coach Murphy is in his first season at NAU and his first season overall as a head coach.

Sacramento State is coached by Brian Katz (Sacramento State, 1980). Coach Katz brought an overall record of 28-87 into his fifth season at CSUS and his fifth season overall as a head coach.

Affiliations: Southern Utah is in its first season as a member of the Big Sky Conference. All of SUU's sports except gymnastics and men's golf compete in the Big Sky. Gymnastics is an affiliate member of the WAC while men's golf competes in the American Sky Conference. Northern Arizona and Sacramento State are also members of the Big Sky Conference.

The Schedule: The Thunderbirds have played nine non-conference games, three at home, four true road contests, and two neutral court match-ups and they have played two conference games at home. SUU opened at #21 Gonzaga, then played three games in three days at the World Vision Classic, meeting Green Bay, Cal State Fullerton and host Nevada before opening its home schedule against Carroll College. SUU also played non-conference games at TCU, at Denver, and at home against San Diego Christian and San Diego. The T-Birds played Big Sky games on Dec. 17, against North Dakota and Dec. 29 against Northern Colorado. SUU has just one non-conference game remaining, a BracketBuster match-up at home on Feb. 23.

Last Time Out: SUU bounced back from a road loss at Denver to upend Northern Colorado, 51-50, after A.J. Hess stole an in-bounds pass, then fed the ball to Wade Collie, who scored on a layup to complete a 9-2 run and keep the Thunderbirds undefeated in the Big Sky and tied atop the standings. SUU out-rebounded the Bears 45-32 and posted its first win of the season after trailing at the half, trailing in the last minute and when scoring fewer than 60 points. The Thunderbirds also notched their first win when the opponent turned the ball over more (UNC had 18 turnovers to SUU's 14), when the opponent's bench outscored the 'Birds (14-8), in a game decided by seven or fewer points and when the opponent shot a better percentage from the floor (.380-to-.339),

Thunderbirds Travel To Northern Arizona, Sacramento State 4-4-4-4-4

T-Birds In The National Ranks: SUU has two players ranked among the NCAA's top-50 this week, and the team ranks in the top-50 in two categories as well. Jayson Cheesman ranks 26th in blocks per game with an average of 2.55 while Jackson Stevenett is 41st in free throw percentage at .872. As a team the Thunderbirds are 18th in the country with 5.6 blocks per game and are 49th in rebounding margin, at plus-6.5.

T-Birds In The Big Sky: Cheesman leads the Big Sky in blocks per game with 2.5 and Stevenett is third in the league in free throw percentage at .872. Stevenett is also sixth in scoring at 14.1 points per game and 11th in rebounding with 5.80, while Cheesman ranks 10th in rebounding with 5.82 rpg and in defensive rebounds with 4.3. Wade Collie is fifth in 3-point percentage at .429, Cal Hanks is ninth in blocks per game with 1.3 and Damon Heuir is 12th in scoring at 12.9 ppg. The team leads the BSC in rebounding margin (+6.5) and blocks (5.6 bpg) and is second in defensive rebounds (26.6 drpg).

Cleaning The Glass:

- The Thunderbirds were out-rebounded in their first three games of the season but have won the battle of the boards in the eight subsequent games.
- SUU has reeled in 40 or more caroms six times this season, already two more than last year's total of four 40-rebound games, including 45 against Northern Colorado, the second-highest total of the season.
- SUU pulled down a season-high 51 rebounds vs. San Diego Christian and followed that with a 43-board performance against San Diego and 42 more against North Dakota.

• Although they out-rebounded Denver the Thunderbirds finished with just 31 caroms against the Pioneers, SUU's lowest total since a season-low 28-board effort against Cal State Fullerton in the third game of the campaign.

Block Party:

• SUU averages a Big Sky-leading 5.6 blocks per game, which ranked 18th in the NCAA heading into the week. The Thunderbirds have rejected 35 shots in their last four games, including 12 against North Dakota, SUU's highest total since the team combined for 13 rejections against Panhandle State on Dec. 14, 2010 and the highest total in the Big Sky so far this season. The Thunderbirds combined to block 10 shots vs. San Diego.

• Jayson Cheesman didn't take much time to break into the SUU record books. In his first game as a Thunderbird the junior transfer from Salt Lake Community College blocked five shots, which tied the sixth-highest single-game blocks total in SUU history. With 28 total blocks this season Cheesman needs just two to move into 10th place in the SUU single-season blocks record book.

• Cal Hanks tied Cheesman in sixth place on that single-game list when he came off the bench to block five shots against North Dakota. Hanks had blocked 11 shots (of his total 14) in the three games prior to the Northern Colorado game, but he went without a rejection against the Bears.

Thunderbirds Travel To Northern Arizona, Sacramento State 5-5-5-5

- SUU tallied five blocks against Northern Colorado.

T-Bird Notes:

- SUU is the first team to win its first two Big Sky Conference games in its first season of play since Cal State Northridge back in 1996-97. CSN lost its third game to Montana State. The last team to win its first three games in its first season in the league was Boise State, which went on to start out 4-0 back in 1970-71.
- Jackson Stevenett's 29 points at Gonzaga is tied as the highest single-game point total in the Big Sky this season. His 11 field goals made against the Zags is also the highest total in the conference so far this season, while his 11-of-15 shooting night (.733) ranks second-best in the Sky, behind Northern Colorado's Connor Osborne, who hit 8-of-9 shots against University of the Southwest.
- SUU had a season-high six players score in double figures against San Diego Christian. Stevenett led the way with 15, while Damon Heur and Wade Collie each finished with 13. Jayson Cheesman finished with 12 points and both Jaren Jeffery and Jordan Johnson had 10. For Cheesman and Johnson the totals were career-highs while Collie's 13 were a season-high. Johnson was a perfect 5-for-5 from the floor while Collie was 5-of-6 and Hanks, who finished with a then-career-high seven points, was 3-for-3 from the field as SUU finished with a season-best 55.9 field goal percentage.
- Stevenett has scored 872 points in his three-plus seasons at SUU. He needs 205 more to move into 10th place on the school's career scoring list.
- Cheesman pulled down 13 rebounds at TCU, the third-highest total in the Big Sky this season.
- SUU combined for a season-high 18 assists vs. SDCC. Freshman A.J. Hess came off the bench to lead the squad with a career-high five dimes vs. the Hawks, while Collie had four and all but two Thunderbirds who saw action dished out at least one.

T-Bird Trivia:

- SUU has nine lettermen, one squad member and one red-shirt returning from last season's team that finished 8-10 (14-17 overall) and in sixth place in the Summit League.
- Five seniors, three juniors, three sophomores and four freshmen make up the 2012-13 Thunderbird squad.
- Senior Jackson Stevenett was a second-team all-Summit League honoree last season and he also earned a spot on the five-player Summit League all-tournament team.
- SUU advanced to the Summit League tournament as the number six seed last year, then upset third-seeded Oakland (84-82) in the tournament's first round before falling to eventual tourney champion South Dakota State (63-47) in the semi-finals.
- Nick Robinson is the eighth head men's basketball coach in SUU's 50-year history as a four-year institution.
- Nevada's World Vision Classic was the fourth in-season tournament for the Thunderbirds in as many years. Last year SUU competed at San Diego State's Basketball Travelers Classic, in 2010 SUU traveled to the Great Alaska Shootout and in 2009 the team was in Hawai'i for the Rainbow Classic.
- Southern Utah plays 14 home games this season, including 10 Big Sky Conference contests and one in the Bracket-Busters tournament. The 10 conference match-ups are the most ever in a season for SUU, a far cry from the four the team had in 1993-94 and 1994-95 when it was a member of the five-team American West Conference and there were just four home conference dates. The last several years SUU has played nine Summit League games per season in the Centrum.
- SUU's non-conference road games this season included contests at Gonzaga and vs. Nevada at the World Vision Classic, at TCU and at Denver.
- SUU and the University of North Dakota are in their first seasons in the Big Sky, making it an 11-team conference. The Thunderbirds had been members of the Summit League (nee. Mid-Continent Conference) for the past 15 seasons before joining the BSC. As members of the 10-team Summit League the Thunderbird men's basketball team qualified for the conference's eight-team post-season tournament 14 of 15 seasons, missing only in 2009-10 when the T-Birds finished ninth.

- Seven teams qualify for the Big Sky tournament, which will be hosted by the regular-season champion, March 14-16.
- SUU is in its 50th season as a four-year institution, its 25th at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to joining the NCAA Division I ranks the University spent two seasons at the Division II level and 23 as a member of the NAIA.

Scouting Northern Arizona: The Lumberjacks, who were tabbed in the pre-season Big Sky polls to finish 11th (the only team picked below SUU in the polls) are currently tied for third place in the league with a .500 record and they have the fifth-best overall mark in the conference, at .333. The 'Jacks are 2-2 at home this season, with wins over Sam Houston State (77-70) and Montana State (87-70) and losses to Loyola-Marymount (92-86 in overtime) and Montana (62-56). Two Lumberjacks carry double-figure scoring averages, guards DeWayne Russell (5-11, 155, Fr) and Gabe Rogers (6-2, 175, Sr), who check in at 15.8 and 14.5 points per game, respectively. Russell, who is second in the Big Sky in scoring, also paces the 'Jacks in assists with an average of 3.6 per game. Gaellan Bewernick (F, 6-6, 215, So) leads the team with 5.5 rebounds per game while chipping in 6.2 points, while Max Jacobsen (F, 6-8, 230, Jr) has averaged 7.8 points and 4.8 rebounds per game and Stallon Salvador (G, 6-0, 185, Sr) averages 6.0 points, 4.9 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game. As a team NAU averages 65.9 points per game on .421 shooting (.421 threes) while giving up 78.2 ppg on .469 shooting (.360 threes). The Lumberjacks have converted 69.4 percent of their free throws and have been out-rebounded by an average margin of 38.6-to-33.5.

Scouting Sacramento State: The Hornets – who were tabbed to finish seventh in the BSC by the coaches and eighth by the media in the pre-season polls – have played six home games, more than any other Big Sky school heading into Thursday night's play. Sac State has fared well at home, with four wins against two losses. The wins came against UC Merced (96-62), Cal State Bakersfield (85-67), Dominican (77-68) and Montana State (62-57), while the losses came at the hands of UC Davis (87-76) and Montana (61-60). Four Hornets carry double-figure scoring averages, led by John Dickson's (F, 6-6, 200, Sr) Big Sky-leading 15.8 points per game. Mikh McKinney (G, 6-1, 165, So) checks in at 13.5 ppg, while Dylan Garrity (G, 6-2, 175, So) averages 13.0 ppg and Konner Veteto (C, 6-8, 290, Sr) is at 11.1. Veteto also leads the team with 6.5 rebounds per game, while Jackson Carbajal (G, 6-3, 190, Jr) averages 5.2 and Dickson 5.8 caroms per contest. Garrity is the team's top assists man, with 5.5 per game, which is tied atop the Big Sky charts. As a team the Hornets score at a 72.8 points per game clip on .422 shooting (.370 threes) while allowing an average of 69.3 ppg on .419 shooting (.313 threes). Sacramento State has been out-rebounded by an average of 38.5-to-37.6 per game and has knocked down 72.2 percent of its free throws.

Southern Utah	28	40	68
Northern Arizona	35	50	85

Kelly Golob it six of Northern Arizona's 16 3-pointers to finish with 25 points and lead the Lumberjacks to an 85-68 win over the Thunderbirds.

Stephen Garnett, who added five 3-pointers for the 'Jacks, hit four threes to fuel a 24-5 NAU run early in the second half. NAU held a 38-35 lead but scored the next 14 points, six on a pair of Garnett threes, before Al Williams hit a three for SUU to stop the run. Northern Arizona wasn't finished, however, as Garnett scored two more long-range baskets during a 10-0 'Jack run that gave NAU a 62-38 advantage.

SUU rallied to pull back within nine after Jay Collins stoke the ball from Aaron Bond and drove to the hoop, but Golob and Garnett teamed to make a trio of 3-pointers to give NAU a 75-57 advantage and effectively end the Thunderbirds' chances.

Despite shooting .571 in the first half the Thunderbirds trailed 35-28 at the break.

SUU wound up shooting .538 for the game (28-52) while NAU hit 51.8 percent of its shots (29-56) including 16-of-32 3-pointers. The Thunderbirds also held a 22-16 rebounding advantage.

David Palmer led Southern Utah with 15 points while Williams came off the bench to add 12 and Collins finished with 10. NAU had five players in double figures. In addition to Golob's 25 and Garnett's 17 Kokiak Yazzie added 13, Ryan McDade finished tieh 12 and Bond finished with 10.

A.J. Hess stole an in-bounds pass and got the ball to Wade Collie under the basket for a layup with 12 seconds remaining, then SUU held on to complete a come-back bid and beat Northern Arizona, 51-50, in Big Sky play.

Southern Utah scored the game's final seven points and held UNC scoreless in the final three minutes of the defensive clash.

After Tevin Svihovec scored on a lay-up with 3:16 to go to stake the Bears to a 50-44 advantage the Thunderbirds pulled within four on a pair of Jackson Stevenett free throws. Jordan Johnson rebounded a Svihovec miss and Hess wound up scoring in the paint to pull the Thunderbirds within 50-48, then after both teams missed opportunities SUU pulled within 50-49 when Stevenett hit one of two free throws with 32 seconds to go.

SUU elected not to foul and got what they wanted as Johnson blocked an Emmanuel Addo layup on the UNC end and Hess gathered in the loose ball. Damon Heuir missed a running jumper that wound up going out of bounds with 16 seconds to play, but on the in-bound play Hess got in front of Svihovec's in-bound pass, then shovelled the ball to Collie, who layed it in for the lead.

Svihovec had one last chance to tie the game, but his driving layup with under 10 seconds to go rimmed out and Johnson grabbed the rebound and dribled up court to run out the clock and seal the win.

Stevenett wound up with agame-high 14 points and four assists to lead SUU, while Collie added 13 points and six rebounds. Jayson Cheesman had eight rebounds to go along with eight points and two blocks, while Johnson finished with four points, two blocks, two steals, an assist and six rebounds.

Derrick Barden led Northern Colorado with 12 points and a game-high nine rebounds, while Addo came off the bench to score 10 points for the Bears. Svihovec finished with six points, five rebounds and five assists but also turned the ball over seven times.

SUU out-rebounded UNC 45-32 to give the team eight consecutive games out-rebounding the opposition. The Thunderbirds also had 14 turnovers, but just four in the second half, and finished with 15 assists, as every player but Collie and Chris Nsenki had at least one dime.

Jackson Stevenett scored a career- and game-high 29 points and pulled down six rebounds to lead Southern Utah but the Thunderbirds were no match for No. 21 Gonzaga in the season-opener for both teams as the Bulldogs cruised in the second half to a 103-65 win at McCarthy Athletic Center on Friday night.

Down 44-27 at the half SUU was in striking distance but Gonzaga went on an 8-2 run to open the second period, then after a Stevenett layup, the Zags ran off another six straight to take a 62-31 lead with 15:19 to play.

After that point SUU made runs but couldn't ever get back within striking distance of the Bulldogs.

"I felt we had good execution at times in the game but Gonzaga did what they like to do. They're well coached, an established program," SUU first-year Head Coach Nick Robinson said. "We'll continue to work, continue to improve and we'll be a better team next game."

Stevenett hit 11-of-15 shots and teammate Julian Scott buried 4-of-5 en route to a nine points, also a career-high, while Wade Collie finished with 10 points. Scott, Jayson Cheesman, who was playing his first game as a Thunderbird, and Jaren Jeffery all pulled down five rebounds for SUU, who had 33 rebounds to Gonzaga's 36.

"Jackson has been here before, he was aggressive, looked for his shot and was effective," Robinson noted. "That's something we want all of our guys to do. He got some open looks and he was able to knock down some shots tonight."

SUU wound up hitting 27-of-55 shots, 49.1 percent, while Gonzaga hit 40-of-73, .548.

"For the first game out against a good team I thought our execution at times was good. Shooting 50 percent for the first game against a good defensive team was a good effort for us."

Six Gonzaga players finished in double figures, led by Przemek Karnowski 's 22 points off the bench. Guy Landry Edi added 16, Sam Dower scored 15, David Stockton and Elias Harris had 12 and Kevin Pangos chipped in 10 points for the Zags.

Southern Utah improved considerably from game one to game two, but unfortunately for the Thunderbirds the result was a loss as the Thunderbirds got down early and spent the rest of the game playing catch-up in a 66-54 loss to Wisconsin-Green Bay in the first round of the World Vision Classic on Thursday night. SUU dipped to 0-2 on the young season while Green Bay stayed undefeated at 2-0.

Green Bay went on a 12-0 first-half run to turn an 11-8 game into a 23-8 contest, and although the Thunderbirds got back to within seven, at 25-18 on a 3-pointer by Jackson Stevenett with 4:42 to play in the half, the Phoenix pushed the lead back to 10, 34-24, at halftime.

The game remained an 8-to-12 point affair through most of the rest of the game, with SUU consistently cutting into the lead but never able to completely climb back into the game.

Neither team shot the ball particularly well, as SUU finished 19-of-55 from the floor, 34.5 percent, while UWGB was only marginally better, at 26-of-69, 37.7 percent, although both teams shot 40 percent after halftime.

After giving it away 28 times in the opener at Gonzaga the Thunderbirds committed just 13 turnovers vs. the Phoenix, a definite improvement.

The Thunderbirds were led in scoring by Jackson Stevenett, who finished with 15 points. Damon Heuir chipped in eight points while freshman A.J. Hess came off the bench to score seven. Wade Collie led the team in both rebounds, with eight, and assists, with five while Jayson Cheesman blocked a pair of shots.

Damon Heuir scored 14 points to lead four Thunderbirds in double figures but Cal State Fullerton shot 64.9 percent from the field and forced 31 turnovers in taking a 112-69 win over the Thunderbirds at the World Vision Classic.

Jackson Stevenett added 13 points and pulled down a game-high six rebounds for the Thunderbirds, who dropped to 0-3 on the season, while Julian Scott had a then-career-high 11 points and Chris Nsenki had his best scoring night as a Thunderbird with 10.

Fullerton's DJ Seeley scored 32 points to lead all scorers, hitting 10-of-13 shots in the game while Kwame Brown added 19 as four Titans scored in double-figures as well. CS Fullerton picked up its first win of the season and moved to 1-2.

SUU shot the ball well in the first half, hitting 12-of-22 shots (.545), but CSF hit 19-26, 73.1 percent in the period. Alex Harris hit 4-of-4 3-pointers for 12 points and Seeley hit 7-of-9 shots and had 21 points in the half.

Robinson said he was encouraged by the play of a handful of his reserves and younger players. Jordan Johnson came off the bench to score nine points while Drake Thomas led the Thunderbirds with six assists, Nsenki and Scott posted career scoring highs and Cal Hanks had three rebounds, a block and a steal.

Southern Utah gave one of its best efforts on the young season, giving Nevada all it wanted for 30 minutes Sunday afternoon, but the Wolf Pack warmed up down the stretch to overcome an eight-point second half deficit to upend the Thunderbirds 79-61.

After trailing 34-33 at halftime the Thunderbirds hit four of their first five shots in the second half to take a 43-37 lead on a pair of Jayson Cheesman free throws with 16:22 to play. SUU pushed the lead to 47-39 on a jumper by Wade Collie at the 13:02 mark, but from that point Nevada's Malik Story led a Wolf Pack comeback.

Nevada ran off seven straight points on five free throws, three by Story, and a Cole Huff layup, but Julian Scott hit a jumper to give SUU a 49-46 edge. Deonte Burton buried a three with 10:51 to play to tie the game at 49-49, however, and the Wolf Pack took the lead when Burton got a steal then hit two free throws after Wade Collie fouled him on his way to the basket.

Two Marqueeze Coleman free throws gave Nevada a 52-49 edge with 10:21 to play, and although Southern Utah pulled back to within one the Thunderbirds didn't ever lead again.

Nevada scored its next six points from the free throw line and took a 61-56 lead on a Story jump shot. Three more Wolf Pack free throws made it a 63-56 game, then Story three straight 3-pointers to push the advantage to 75-58 with 2:29 to play as SUU got just a Julian Scott jumper during the stretch.

Damon Heuir hit 4-of-5 3-pointers in the first half and wound up with 14 points to lead the Thunderbirds, while Collie had 12 points and six rebounds. Jackson Stevenett finished with a team-high seven rebounds and two steals to go with eight points for SUU, which dipped to 0-4 on the season.

Damon Heuir scored 16 points to help lead Southern Utah to a 68-58 win over Carroll College in the Thunderbirds' home opener Wednesday night. The win was the first of the season for the Thunderbirds and marked head coach Nick Robinson's first career victory.

After falling behind 8-4 in the first five minutes Thunderbirds rallied with a 22-7 run that put them up 26-15. Freshman guard A.J. Hess sparked the run with a pair of 3-pointers and Wade Collie took a steal coast-to-coast for a lay-up and a free throw to make the count 17-11.

After a Carroll basket, Chris Nsenki fed Julian Scott down low for a two-handed slam. The Thunderbirds then went on to cap the run with Heuir finding Jayson Cheesman in transition for a lay-in.

Heuir scored eight-consecutive points for SUU in the closing minutes of the half to lead all scorers at the break with 12 and help Southern Utah to a 39-25 half-time advantage.

The Thunderbirds hit 16-of-33 shots in the first period (.485) and out-rebounded the Saints 21-to-11. The Saints hung around by going 5-of-11 from the three-point line, including two from junior Nick Jones.

Southern Utah built the advantage in the second half, extending it to 58-37 with 9:57 left to play. From that point Robinson went heavily to his bench, getting everyone into the action with no player seeing more than Heuir's 25 minutes on the court.

SUU finished the game shooting 45.9 percent from the floor with 40 points scored in the paint. In addition to Heuir's 16, the Thunderbirds got 10 from Collie and another nine from Scott. They also held a 40-27 rebounding advantage, led by Jaren Jeffery's 11.

The Saints were 18-45 from the field in the game, with half of the baskets coming from 3-point range. Ben Cutler scored 18 to lead the visitors, who got another 11 from Jones and 10 from both Brett Ball and Chris McGrath.

Damon Heuir scored a season-high 25 points and Jayson Cheesman pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds and blocked three shots but TCU outscored Southern Utah 24-15 in the final 10 minutes to overcome a one-point deficit and hand the improving Thunderbirds a 61-52 loss Thursday night.

Heuir hit two free throws with 10:50 to play to give Southern Utah a 38-37 lead, but TCU took the lead back on a Devona Abron layup, then after the Thunderbirds had two chances at a basket on the other end extended the advantage to 41-38 on a pair of Abron free throws with 9:19 to play.

That series started what turned out to be an 8-0 Horned Frog run, and although SUU back within five several times, the last at 52-47 on a Cheesman tip in with 2:17 to play, the Thunderbirds weren't able to get back over the hump.

Heuir hit 7-of-14 shots and 9-of-12 free throws, led the Thunderbirds with three assists and pulled down four rebounds while Jayson Cheesman pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds as SUU out-rebounded the Horned Frogs 36-29 and had their second-lowest turnover total of the season, 14, including just four in the second half.

Tyson Koehler came off the bench to post season-highs with six points, three rebounds and a block while Cal Hanks had a pair of rebounds.

Jackson Stevenett, who finished with just one point, his lowest total since Dec. 18, 2010 when he had just one point at UNLV. Stevenett, who missed the last game with a shoulder strain, was 0-10 from the field and 1-2 from the free throw line, although he did have two assists, a block and a rebound.

Heuir was the only Thunderbird to score in double figures, but Cheesman narrowly missed a double-double with nine points to go with his 13 rebounds, while Koehler had six points and Collie finished with five points and two assists. Cheesman chipped in a pair of assists as well.

Senior guard Jordan Johnson scored a career high 10 points on 5-5 shooting to help Southern Utah take a 95-65 win over San Diego Christian (3-8). The Thunderbirds shot the ball almost 56 percent as a team and out-rebounded their opponent 51-27 to open the year 2-0 at home and improve their overall record to 2-5.

SUU forward Jaren Jeffrey opened the game with a dunk and the Thunderbirds quickly jumped out to a 10-2 lead after knocking down three of their first four shots of the contest. The visiting Hawks hung around until the 12-minute mark when Wade Collie pulled down an offensive rebound and went back up for a lay-in to start a 9-2 run that eventually pushed the Southern Utah advantage into the double-figures at 26-15.

The Thunderbirds went on to lead 40-31 at the break after shooting 48.3 percent from the floor in the opening half. Southern Utah's Jayson Cheesman led the way with eight points and seven rebounds in the early going. SUU held a 24-15 advantage on the glass and converted on 10 of 11 attempts at the free throw line to start the game.

Southern Utah came out firing in the second half, outscoring San Diego 21-11 in the first eight minutes to run its lead to 61-42. Jackson Stevenett and Chris Nsenki each knocked down shots from the outside during the streak and Jordan Johnson added six more points while going 3-3 from the floor.

The Thunderbirds brought the crowd to its feet in the closing minutes as Damon Heuir pushed the ball up the court in transition and floated an alley-oop to Stevenett, who finished with a two-hand slam to push the margin to 90-62. Southern Utah eventually went on to the 95-65 win, turning in their best offensive performance so far this season.

SUU went 33-59 from the field in the game to tally a season high 95 points. The T-Birds also shot 46.7 percent from behind the arc and successfully converted 22 of their 28 free throw attempts. San Diego Christian was able to manage just 32.8 percent shooting from the floor and connect on six of its 22 tries from the outside.

Stevenett scored 15 to lead the Thunderbirds who also got 13 from both Heuir and Collie. Cheesman and Johnson each recorded new career highs in the win, scoring 12 and 10 respectively. Kwaminique Brandon finished with 15 points to lead the visitors.

Damon Heuir scored 17 points and Jackson Stevenett added 13 but after falling behind early against San Diego the Thunderbirds could never climb out of the hole in suffering a 67-53 loss to the Toreros.

The Toreros jumped out to a 14-4 lead and trailed 14-7 after Cal Hanks scored three points for Southern Utah, but Ken Rancifer sparked a 7-0 USD run with a 3-pointer for a 22-7 advantage with nine minutes remaining in the first half.

The Thunderbirds chipped away at the lead, pulling within 24-17 after a Stevenett 3-pointer but San Diego was able to stretch its lead again in the final minutes of the half, taking a 36-22 score into the locker room after Johnny Dee beat the buzzer with his third three of the of the game.

Southern Utah started the second half on a 17-3 run to bring the game back within three. That is as close as the Thunderbirds would get however as the visiting Toreros held on to win by a final score of 67-53.

Heuir started the second half by scoring on back-to-back drives to the basket and A.J. Hess added a lay-up to pull SUU back within ten with the score at 39-29. A corner three for Heuir and a transition bucket from Stevenett then helped pull SUU within 39-36.

After a basket and a pair of free throws pushed the San Diego lead back up to seven, Jayson Cheesman block led to a fast break lay-up for Heuir that made the score 45-40 with nine minutes to play.

The Toreros worked their lead back into the double figures but the T-Birds came back again after Heuir hit another three to make the count 58-49 with three minutes left on the clock. San Diego was able to hold on in final moments however, eventually coming away with the 67-53 win.

Heuir and Stevenett co-lead SUU with eight rebounds each as the Thunderbirds won the battle of the boards, 43-31. San Diego got 17 from Dee and another 13 from Chris Anderson.

 First-ever Big Sky game for both teams.

Jackson Stevenett turned in his first double-double of the season and led the Thunderbirds in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals as Southern Utah won its first-ever Big Sky Conference basketball game with a 79-67 triumph over North Dakota.

Stevenett scored 21 points, pulled down 10 rebounds, dished out five assists and had three steals to lead SUU. His rebounding and assists totals were both season-highs which tied his career-high totals, while his three steals tied the team's season high in 2012-13.

Wade Collie added a career-high 18 points coming off the bench for the first time this season and Cal Hanks blocked a career-best five shots as the team tallied a season-high 12 rejections. Jayson Cheesman had three blocks while Collie had two and Jaren Jeffery and A.J. Hess each rejected one attempt.

Southern Utah led through most of the game but had just a 62-59 advantage after Alonzo Traylor hit a jumper with 3:56 to play. UND had an opportunity to cut further into the lead but Traylor missed a free throw and a chance to convert a 3-point play, then after SUU was unable to score on the other end Traylor grabbed a rebound but Aaron Anderson's shot on the other end was blocked out of bounds by Cheesman. Anderson then drove to the basket but Stevenett corralled the rebound and Hess buried a 3-pointer to push the T-Bird lead to 65-59 with 2:49 to play.

Mitch Wilmer converted just one of two free throws the next time UND went down the floor and Stevenett grabbed the rebound on the miss, then scored on the other end to stake SUU to a 67-60 lead and UND would get no closer than six the rest of the way as the Thunderbirds converted 9-of-10 free throws down the stretch to seal the win.

SUU held UND to 30 percent shooting, the lowest percentage by an opponent this season, and hit 17-of-20 free throws for a season-high 85 percent success rate. UND scored 28 of its points from the free throw line, where it held a 35-20 advantage.

SUU also finished with 15 assists, its second-highest total of the season.

Jackson Stevenett scored 12 points and Jayson Cheesman added 10 and six rebounds but Denver shot 55.3 percent, including .438 from 3-point range as the Pioneers upended Southern Utah 72-47 in a non-conference match-up.

Royce O'Neale led four Pioneers in double figures with 12 points.

Denver outscored the Thunderbirds 21-7 over the final 10 minutes of the first half, taking advantage of five of SUU's 12 turnovers in the period, to stretch a 19-13 edge with 10:08 to play to 40-20 at the break.

DU went on a 10-1 run - with SUU scoring only on a Cal Hanks free throw - to extend a 19-13 advantage to a 29-14 lead. After SUU got a layup from Jordan Johnson to break the drought the Pioneers got seven points from Nate Engesser to close the half with an 11-4 spurt and take the 20-point lead into the break. The Thunderbirds got just a Stevenett lay-up and two Cheesman free throws in the final 5:11 of the half.

SUU got back within 47-32 on back-to-back Wade Collie 3-pointers early in the second half but the Pioneers answered with five straight points of their own and SUU didn't get within 18 the rest of the way.

Southern Utah out-rebounded the Pioneers 31-22, giving the T-Birds six straight games in which they have pulled down more boards than their opponents, but they finished with 22 turnovers and shot just .408 from the field, .381 in the first half.
