Southern Utah's men's basketball team takes a break from Big Sky play this weekend as the Thunderbirds host Cal State Northridge on Saturday night in the final BracketBuster.

The Thunderbirds (10-15/8-8 Big Sky) will welcome their return to the Centrum as they are coming off their longest road stretch of the season, four games, including defeats in the last three. The Thunderbirds opened the stretch with an 81-79 overtime win at Idaho State to give the team its longest winning streak in 11 years, five games, but since that win the 'Birds have suffered a 75-58 setback at Weber State, a 90-69 loss at Portland State and an 86-72 defeat at Eastern Washington.

SUU remains in third place in the Big Sky, however, tied with North Dakota and one game ahead of Sacramento State, Montana State, Northern Arizona and Northern Colorado with two weeks of conference play remaining.

Cal State Northridge (13-14/4-11) has also lost three straight, including a 73-61 loss at UC Davis last Saturday night. Prior to the current skid – which began with an 83-80 loss to Big West leader Long Beach State – the Matadors had won three in a row. The Matadors are 5-9 on the road and are currently in ninth place in the Big West standings.

The Game: Cal State Northridge (13-14/4-11) at Southern Utah (10-15/8-8), Saturday at 7:35 p.m. in the Centrum Arena (5,200), Cedar City, Utah.

Robinson is 0-0 vs. CSUN.

Robinson is assisted by Jared Barrett (Eastern Oregon, 1996), Todd Okeson (Nevada, 2005) and Drew Allen (Southern Utah, 2010).

Bobby Brazwell (Azusa Pacific, 1990) is 250-255 in his 17th season at the helm of the Cal State Northridge program and his 127th season as a head coach overall. Coach Brazwell is 0-0 vs. the Thunderbirds.

They have played four conference games at home and two on the road. SUU opened at #21 Gonzaga, then played three games in three days at the World Vision Classic, meeting Green Bay, Cal State Fullerton and host Nevada before opening its home schedule against Carroll College. SUU also played non-conference games at TCU, at Denver, and at home against San Diego Christian and San Diego. Saturday's game is the Thunderbirds' final non-conference match-up of the season.

Last Time Out: Jackson Stevenett scored 26 points for the second straight game and A.J. Hess added a career-high 24 but Eastern Washington countered with four players in double figures as Southern Utah lost an 86-72 decision at EWU. For the second straight game the Thunderbirds struggled from the field while the opponent was comfortable shooting in its own gym. SUU hit just 9-of-31 shots in the first half, 29 percent, and although they improved in the second half the T-Birds finished at 36.4 percent after knocking down 21-of-64 shots overall. Meanwhile, EWU hit 13-of-26 shots in the first half and bettered that in the second half, hitting 16-of-28 after the break for a .537 afternoon. Damon Heuir – Southern Utah's second-leading scorer, who was averaging 18.2 points per game – went scoreless in the first period for the first time all year.

Stevenett was the Thunderbirds' best threat in the first period as he scored 19 points after hitting nine free throws and a pair of 3-pointers among his four baskets in the half. Neither player made it to the end of the game, however, as Heuir was assessed a pair of technical fouls for an automatic disqualification, and Stevenett picked up his fifth personal with 3:59 to play. Jayson Cheesman pulled down 10 rebounds for SUU. The T-Birds tied their season-high with 16 assists. Eastern Washington blocked 10 SUU shots, an opponent-high this season.

has 1,170 points in his three-plus seasons as a Thunderbird, good for eighth on SUU's career scoring sheet. He needs 29 points to move past current Montana assistant Kerry Rupp (1975-77) to move into seventh place on the list and 36 to surpass former teammate Davis Baker (2007-10) for sixth. He also has 466 career rebounds, which ranks 10th all time at SUU. He passed Davor Marcelic (1988-92), who was 10th with 463 and now needs 27 to pass Dana Achtzehn (1990-92) for ninth place on the list and 33 to pass Lew Christensen (1965-69) for eighth. The only other two players currently in the top-10 in both scoring and rebound are Richard Barton and Robert "Dunn" Lee. Barton is second on SUU's career scoring list with 1,419 points and fourth on its rebounding list with 557 while Lee is second in rebounding with 652 boards and fifth in scoring with 652 points. Barton played in 1986-87 then returned to the team after an LDS church mission to lay the 1990-93 seasons while Lee played from 1974 to 1977.

Jayson Cheesman has blocked 55 shots this season, which is third on SUU's single-season list and tied for sixth on the career list. He needs five to tie Sean Allen's (1994-95) 60 in 1994-95 for second place and nine to tie Matt Hodgson (2009-10) atop the single-season list. He is tied with Donnie Jackson, who rejected 55 shots from 2001 to 2003, on the career list and needs four to tie Kerry Sherwood (1989-91) in fifth place with 59.

Cleaning The Glass:

- The Thunderbirds have won the battle of the boards 17 times this season but they have been out-rebounded in three straight games. SUU was out-rebounded in their first three games then won the battle of the boards in nine straight contests before Sacramento State had a 41-38 edge in the first meeting between the two teams and Weber State held a 46-41 advantage in the first meeting. SUU out-rebounded each subsequent opponent, a stretch of eight games, before Weber State pulled in 39 caroms to 33 for the 'Birds when the teams played in Ogden two weeks ago.

Portland State had a 37-36 advantage, and Eastern Washington also edged the 'Birds by one, 41-40.

- SUU has reeled in 40 or more caroms 12 times this season. Last year's team had a total of four 40-rebound games.
- SUU pulled down a season-high 51 rebounds vs. San Diego Christian. The team's high mark vs. a Division I foe was 45, against Northern Colorado.

Block Party:

- SUU averages 5.1 blocks per game, which ranks second in the Big Sky. The Thunderbirds have rejected 128 shots this season, including 12 against North Dakota, SUU's highest total since the team combined for 13 rejections against Panhandle State on Dec. 14, 2010 and the highest total in the Big Sky so far this season. The Thunderbirds were in double-digits against San Diego as well, when they blocked 10 shots.
- Jayson Cheesman has had two five-block and one four-block games this season, with both five-block efforts coming on the road. Cheesman didn't take much time to break into the SUU record books. In his first game as a Thunderbird, at Gonzaga, he blocked five shots, which tied the sixth-highest single-game blocks total in SUU history. He swatted five more at Weber State last week. The four-block effort came at home against San Diego Christian.
- Cal Hanks tied Cheesman in sixth place on that single-game list when he came off the bench to block five shots against North Dakota. Hanks has 25 blocks so far and needs eight to move into SUU's single-season top-10.
- SUU has five or more blocks in a game 15 times this season.
- SUU had four blocks against Eastern Washington, three by Cheesman, but the Eagles had seven, with three players swatting a pair of shots. It was just the second time this season – Green Bay was the other – that the Thunderbirds had more shots blocked than they blocked themselves.

Thunderbirds Host Matadors 6-6-6-6-6

T-Bird Notes:

- A.J. Hess hit 7-of-14 shots, 5-of-10 from 3-point range, to finish with a career-high 24 points at Eastern Washington. He doubled his previous career scoring high, 12 at Idaho State, with the effort.
- Jayson Cheesman has pulled down seven or more rebounds in six of the last seven games, including nine and 10 in the last two.
- Cheesman now has 159 rebounds this season and Jackson Stevenett has 148. If Stevenett gets two more it will mark the first time since the 2008-09 season that SUU has had two players with 150 or more rebounds. In '08-09 John Clifford pulled down 254 boards while Tyler Quinney finished with 155.
- Wade Collie has been dismissed from the squad for violation of team policies.
- The Thunderbirds had a season-low 10 turnovers at Weber State, unfortunately they also shot a season-low 29.1 percent. Jackson Stevenett hit 5-of-12 shots, 42 percent, no other T-Bird was better than .333. The team also had just six assists vs. the Wildcats, its second-fewest in 2012-13.
- Damon Heuir tied his career-high with eight assists at Idaho State, then went without a dime at Weber State. The WSU game was just his third without an assist this year.
- SUU's 81-79 win at Idaho State was the team's first overtime game this season and thus Coach Nick Robinson's first win in overtime. Both of the Thunderbird/Bengal games went down to the wire, with ISU winning 54-53 in Cedar City before SUU took the win in Pocatello.
- Chris Nsenki tied his career-high with 10 points at ISU, including a perfect 3-for-3 night from 3-point range.
- Northern Arizona is probably happy to see the last of Heuir. The senior guard scored 30 points in the first matchup between SUU and NAU – the highest total in the Big Sky until NAU's Gabe Rogers poured in 35 vs. North Dakota on Jan. 26 – and he poured in another 27 last Saturday. In his two games against the Lumberjacks, Heuir hit 15-of-30 shots, 7-of-12 3-pointers and hit 20-of-24 free throws. He also averaged four rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.5 steals and blocked a shot against NAU.
- Stevenett has posted double-figures in 19 straight games, including nine games during the streak with 20 or more points. Heuir had scored in double figures in 13 straight games until finishing with just three at Eastern Washington. He had tallied 14 or more points in each of the 12 and four 20-point-plus efforts during the streak. Either Stevenett or Heuir has led the team in scoring in all but one game this year.
- Stevenett notched his third double-double of the season vs. NAU with 15 points and 10 rebounds.
- Stevenett hit the 1,000 career points mark with 19 at Montana, which give him exactly 1,000. He is just the 11th player in SUU history to break the 1,000 point mark and just the third to cross that threshold since Richard Barton finished his career with 1,419 points in 1993 (third on SUU's all-time list). Jeff Monaco finished his career in 2001 with 1,568 points (second) while Davis Baker finished his in 2010 with 1,205 (sixth).
- Julian Scott, who missed five games with a foot injury, then played in the NAU, Sac State, Weber State and Idaho

State games, was lost for the season with a knee injury suffered in practice January 18.

- The Thunderbirds had just four players foul out of the nine non-conference games (including two at TCU) then had 13 disqualifications in the first eight Big Sky contests, including two at both Northern Arizona and Sac State and three against Weber State and at Montana. The 'Birds went without a disqualification for three games before Jordan Johnson was disqualified at ISU. Cal Hanks then fouled out at Weber State, Jaren Jeffery was disqualified at Portland State and Jackson Stevenett drew five fouls at Eastern Washington, making the total 17 in 16 conference games.
- SUU was the first team to win its first three Big Sky Conference games in its first season of play since Boise State started out 4-0 back in 1970-71.
- Stevenett has scored a career-high 29 points twice this season, at Gonzaga and again in the first game vs. Weber State. Stevenett's 11 field goals made against the Zags is tied as the second-highest total in the conference this season.

Scouting Cal State Northridge: The Matadors opened the season with six straight wins before falling at BYU, 87-75, on Nov. 24. Since the loss to the Cougars CSUN has not won more than three in a row but that three-game winning streak came immediately prior to the team's three-game skid when the Matadors beat Cal State Fullerton (92-86) and UC Riverside (69-53) on the road, then returned home to upend UC Irvine before falling to Big West-leader Long Beach State at home, 83-80. Last week the Matadors went on the road where they suffered a 66-59 loss at Pacific and a 73-61 setback at UC Davis. Wing Stephan Hicks (6-6, 200, So) leads three Matadors with double-figure scoring averages at 16.8 points per game, while Forward Stephen Maxwell (6-7, 220, So) adds 14.7 points and guard Josh Green (6-0, 180, Jr) checks in at 13.3 ppg. Maxwell and Hicks are also 1-2 on the team's rebounding charts, with 8.1 and 7.4 caroms per game, respectively, while Landon Drew (6-1, 175, Fr) leads the team with 3.8 assists per game despite starting just one contest. As a team the Matadors average 75.5 points per game on .438 shooting (.332 threes) while allowing opponents an average of 74.0 ppg on .466 shooting (.363 threes). Northridge has knocked down 71.7 percent of its free throws and has out-rebounded its opponents by an average of 37.4-to-34.1 caroms per game. CSUN is 1-1 in the state of Utah this season, with the loss to BYU and a 76-71 win at Utah. The two teams also have three common opponents: Eastern Washington, a team SUU split two games with and CSUN beat; Cal State Fullerton, which beat SUU and CSUN split two games with; and San Diego Christian, a team both SUU and CSUN handled easily.

Southern Utah 31 41 72

Eastern Washington 39 47 86

Jackson Stevenett scored 26 points for the second straight game and A.J. Hess added a career-high 24 but Eastern Washington countered with four players in double figures as Southern Utah lost an 86-72 decision at EWU.

For the third straight game the Thunderbirds struggled from the field while the opponent was comfortable shooting in its own gym. SUU hit just 9-of-31 shots in the first half, 29 percent, and although they improved in the second half the T-Birds finished at 36.4 percent after knocking down 21-of-64 shots overall.

Meanwhile, EWU hit 13-of-26 shots in the first half and bettered that in the second half, hitting 16-of-28 after the break for a .537 afternoon.

Damon Heuir – Southern Utah's second-leading scorer, who was averaging 18.2 points per game – went scoreless in the first period for the first time all year and finished with a season-low three points. Stevenett was the Thunderbirds' best threat in the first period as he scored 19 points after hitting nine free throws and a pair of 3-pointers among his four baskets in the half.

Neither player made it to the end of the game, however, as Heuir was assessed a pair of technical fouls for an automatic disqualification, and Stevenett picked up his fifth personal with 3:59 to play.

NOTES: Jayson Cheesman pulled down 10 rebounds for SUU. The T-Birds tied their season-high with 16 assists. Eastern Washington blocked 10 SUU shots, an opponent-high for the Thunderbirds this season.

First round game at BYU's Cougar Classic

Kenyatta Clyde scored 25 points and Tyson Hancock added 20 but Cal State Northridge outscored SUU 10-1 down the stretch to come from behind and hand the Thunderbirds an 83-77 setback in the first round of BYU's Cougar Classic.

The Thunderbirds took a 14-13 lead on a Hancock 3-pointer with 13:16 to play in the first half, then went on to build leads of as many as 12 points, including a 66-54 edge with 11:48 to go in the game, but could not withstand Northridge's full-court press down the stretch.

SUU committed a season-high 23 turnovers in the game to offset a 51.8 percent shooting night.

After taking the 66-54 lead on a Nate Pugmire basket the Thunderbirds went cold, going without a point until Hancock tipped in a Jimmy Faulkner miss at the 9:08 mark to make it a 68-63 contest. The Matadors continued to press and took their first lead of the second half on a Brian Heinle basket that made it a 77-76 game.

The Thunderbirds got just one point, a free throw from Clyde, the rest of the way.

Faulkner finished with 11 points and Tarvish Felton had 10 but the Matadors held Jeff Monaco scoreless, although he did dish out five assists. Heinle led CSUN with 23 points while Derrick Higgins added 22.

Jackson Stevenett scored a career- and game-high 29 points and pulled down six rebounds to lead Southern Utah but the Thunderbirds were no match for No. 21 Gonzaga in the season-opener for both teams as the Bulldogs cruised in the second half to a 103-65 win at McCarthy Athletic Center on Friday night.

Down 44-27 at the half SUU was in striking distance but Gonzaga went on an 8-2 run to open the second period, then after a Stevenett layup, the Zags ran off another six straight to take a 62-31 lead with 15:19 to play.

After that point SUU made runs but couldn't ever get back within striking distance of the Bulldogs.

"I felt we had good execution at times in the game but Gonzaga did what they like to do. They're well coached, an established program," SUU first-year Head Coach Nick Robinson said. "We'll continue to work, continue to improve and we'll be a better team next game."

Stevenett hit 11-of-15 shots and teammate Julian Scott buried 4-of-5 en route to a nine points, also a career-high, while Wade Collie finished with 10 points. Scott, Jayson Cheesman, who was playing his first game as a Thunderbird, and Jaren Jeffery all pulled down five rebounds for SUU, who had 33 rebounds to Gonzaga's 36.

"Jackson has been here before, he was aggressive, looked for his shot and was effective," Robinson noted. "That's something we want all of our guys to do. He got some open looks and he was able to knock down some shots tonight."

SUU wound up hitting 27-of-55 shots, 49.1 percent, while Gonzaga hit 40-of-73, .548.

"For the first game out against a good team I thought our execution at times was good. Shooting 50 percent for the first game against a good defensive team was a good effort for us."

Six Gonzaga players finished in double figures, led by Przemek Karnowski's 22 points off the bench. Guy Landry Edi added 16, Sam Dower scored 15, David Stockton and Elias Harris had 12 and Kevin Pangos chipped in 10 points for the Zags.

 World Vision Classic

Southern Utah improved considerably from game one to game two, but unfortunately for the Thunderbirds the result was a loss as the Thunderbirds got down early and spent the rest of the game playing catch-up in a 66-54 loss to Wisconsin-Green Bay in the first round of the World Vision Classic on Thursday night. SUU dipped to 0-2 on the young season while Green Bay stayed undefeated at 2-0.

Green Bay went on a 12-0 first-half run to turn an 11-8 game into a 23-8 contest, and although the Thunderbirds got back to within seven, at 25-18 on a 3-pointer by Jackson Stevenett with 4:42 to play in the half, the Phoenix pushed the lead back to 10, 34-24, at halftime.

The game remained an 8-to-12 point affair through most of the rest of the game, with SUU consistently cutting into the lead but never able to completely climb back into the game.

Neither team shot the ball particularly well, as SUU finished 19-of-55 from the floor, 34.5 percent, while UWGB was only marginally better, at 26-of-69, 37.7 percent, although both teams shot 40 percent after halftime.

After giving it away 28 times in the opener at Gonzaga the Thunderbirds committed just 13 turnovers vs. the Phoenix, a definite improvement.

The Thunderbirds were led in scoring by Jackson Stevenett, who finished with 15 points. Damon Heuir chipped in eight points while freshman A.J. Hess came off the bench to score seven. Wade Collie led the team in both rebounds, with eight, and assists, with five while Jayson Cheesman blocked a pair of shots.

World Vision Classic

Southern Utah gave one of its best efforts on the young season, giving Nevada all it wanted for 30 minutes Sunday afternoon, but the Wolf Pack warmed up down the stretch to overcome an eight-point second half deficit to upend the Thunderbirds 79-61.

After trailing 34-33 at halftime the Thunderbirds hit four of their first five shots in the second half to take a 43-37 lead on a pair of Jaysen Cheesman free throws with 16:22 to play. SUU pushed the lead to 47-39 on a jumper by Wade Collie at the 13:02 mark, but from that point Nevada's Malik Story led a Wolf Pack comeback.

Nevada ran off seven straight points on five free throws, three by Story, and a Cole Huff layup, but Julian Scott hit a jumper to give SUU a 49-46 edge. Deonte Burton buried a three with 10:51 to play to tie the game at 49-49, however, and the Wolf Pack took the lead when Burton got a steal then hit two free throws after Wade Collie fouled him on his way to the basket.

Two Marquize Coleman free throws gave Nevada a 52-49 edge with 10:21 to play, and although Southern Utah pulled back to within one the Thunderbirds didn't ever lead again.

Nevada scored its next six points from the free throw line and took a 61-56 lead on a Story jump shot. Three more Wolf Pack free throws made it a 63-56 game, then Story three straight 3-pointers to push the advantage to 75-58 with 2:29 to play as SUU got just a Julian Scott jumper during the stretch.

Damon Heuir hit 4-of-5 3-pointers in the first half and wound up with 14 points to lead the Thunderbirds, while Collie had 12 points and six rebounds. Jackson Stevenett finished with a team-high seven rebounds and two steals to go with eight points for SUU, which dipped to 0-4 on the season.

Damon Heuir scored 16 points to help lead Southern Utah to a 68-58 win over Carroll College in the Thunderbirds' home opener Wednesday night. The win was the first of the season for the Thunderbirds and marked head coach Nick Robinson's first career victory.

After falling behind 8-4 in the first five minutes Thunderbirds rallied with a 22-7 run that put them up 26-15. Freshman guard A.J. Hess sparked the run with a pair of 3-pointers and Wade Collie took a steal coast-to-coast for a lay-up and a free throw to make the count 17-11.

After a Carroll basket, Chris Nsenki fed Julian Scott down low for a two-handed slam. The Thunderbirds then went on to cap the run with Heuir finding Jayson Cheesman in transition for a lay-in.

Heuir scored eight-consecutive points for SUU in the closing minutes of the half to lead all scorers at the break with 12 and help Southern Utah to a 39-25 half-time advantage.

The Thunderbirds hit 16-of-33 shots in the first period (.485) and out-rebounded the Saints 21-to-11. The Saints hung around by going 5-of-11 from the three-point line, including two from junior Nick Jones.

Southern Utah built the advantage in the second half, extending it to 58-37 with 9:57 left to play. From that point Robinson went heavily to his bench, getting everyone into the action with no player seeing more than Heuir's 25 minutes on the court.

SUU finished the game shooting 45.9 percent from the floor with 40 points scored in the paint. In addition to Heuir's 16, the Thunderbirds got 10 from Collie and another nine from Scott. They also held a 40-27 rebounding advantage, led by Jaren Jeffery's 11.

The Saints were 18-45 from the field in the game, with half of the baskets coming from 3-point range. Ben Cutler scored 18 to lead the visitors, who got another 11 from Jones and 10 from both Brett Ball and Chris McGrath.

Damon Heuir scored a season-high 25 points and Jayson Cheesman pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds and blocked three shots but TCU outscored Southern Utah 24-15 in the final 10 minutes to overcome a one-point deficit and hand the improving Thunderbirds a 61-52 loss Thursday night.

Heuir hit two free throws with 10:50 to play to give Southern Utah a 38-37 lead, but TCU took the lead back on a Devona Abron layup, then after the Thunderbirds had two chances at a basket on the other end extended the advantage to 41-38 on a pair of Abron free throws with 9:19 to play.

That series started what turned out to be an 8-0 Horned Frog run, and although SUU back within five several times, the last at 52-47 on a Cheesman tip in with 2:17 to play, the Thunderbirds weren't able to get back over the hump.

Heuir hit 7-of-14 shots and 9-of-12 free throws, led the Thunderbirds with three assists and pulled down four rebounds while Jayson Cheesman pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds as SUU out-rebounded the Horned Frogs 36-29 and had their second-lowest turnover total of the season, 14, including just four in the second half.

Tyson Koehler came off the bench to post season-highs with six points, three rebounds and a block while Cal Hanks had a pair of rebounds.

Jackson Stevenett, who finished with just one point, his lowest total since Dec. 18, 2010 when he had just one point at UNLV. Stevenett, who missed the last game with a shoulder strain, was 0-10 from the field and 1-2 from the free throw line, although he did have two assists, a block and a rebound.

Heuir was the only Thunderbird to score in double figures, but Cheesman narrowly missed a double-double with nine points to go with his 13 rebounds, while Koehler had six points and Collie finished with five points and two assists. Cheesman chipped in a pair of assists as well.

Damon Heuir scored 17 points and Jackson Stevenett added 13 but after falling behind early against San Diego the Thunderbirds could never climb out of the hole in suffering a 67-53 loss to the Toreros.

The Toreros jumped out to a 14-4 lead and trailed 14-7 after Cal Hanks scored three points for Southern Utah, but Ken Rancifer sparked a 7-0 USD run with a 3-pointer for a 22-7 advantage with nine minutes remaining in the first half.

The Thunderbirds chipped away at the lead, pulling within 24-17 after a Stevenett 3-pointer but San Diego was able to stretch its lead again in the final minutes of the half, taking a 36-22 score into the locker room after Johnny Dee beat the buzzer with his third three of the of the game.

Southern Utah started the second half on a 17-3 run to bring the game back within three. That is as close as the Thunderbirds would get however as the visiting Toreros held on to win by a final score of 67-53.

Heuir started the second half by scoring on back-to-back drives to the basket and A.J. Hess added a lay-up to pull SUU back within ten with the score at 39-29. A corner three for Heuir and a transition bucket from Stevenett then helped pull SUU within 39-36.

After a basket and a pair of free throws pushed the San Diego lead back up to seven, Jayson Cheesman block led to a fast break lay-up for Heuir that made the score 45-40 with nine minutes to play.

The Toreros worked their lead back into the double figures but the T-Birds came back again after Heuir hit another three to make the count 58-49 with three minutes left on the clock. San Diego was able to hold on in final moments however, eventually coming away with the 67-53 win.

Heuir and Stevenett co-led SUU with eight rebounds each as the Thunderbirds won the battle of the boards, 43-31. San Diego got 17 from Dee and another 13 from Chris Anderson.

 First-ever Big Sky game for both teams.

Jackson Stevenett turned in his first double-double of the season and led the Thunderbirds in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals as Southern Utah won its first-ever Big Sky Conference basketball game with a 79-67 triumph over North Dakota.

Stevenett scored 21 points, pulled down 10 rebounds, dished out five assists and had three steals to lead SUU. His rebounding and assists totals were both season-highs which tied his career-high totals, while his three steals tied the team's season high in 2012-13.

Wade Collie added a career-high 18 points coming off the bench for the first time this season and Cal Hanks blocked a career-best five shots as the team tallied a season-high 12 rejections. Jayson Cheesman had three blocks while Collie had two and Jaren Jeffery and A.J. Hess each rejected one attempt.

Southern Utah led through most of the game but had just a 62-59 advantage after Alonzo Traylor hit a jumper with 3:56 to play. UND had an opportunity to cut further into the lead but Traylor missed a free throw and a chance to convert a 3-point play, then after SUU was unable to score on the other end Traylor grabbed a rebound but Aaron Anderson's shot on the other end was blocked out of bounds by Cheesman. Anderson then drove to the basket but Stevenett corralled the rebound and Hess buried a 3-pointer to push the T-Bird lead to 65-59 with 2:49 to play.

Mitch Wilmer converted just one of two free throws the next time UND went down the floor and Stevenett grabbed the rebound on the miss, then scored on the other end to stake SUU to a 67-60 lead and UND would get no closer than six the rest of the way as the Thunderbirds converted 9-of-10 free throws down the stretch to seal the win.

SUU held UND to 30 percent shooting, the lowest percentage by an opponent this season, and hit 17-of-20 free throws for a season-high 85 percent success rate. UND scored 28 of its points from the free throw line, where it held a 35-20 advantage.

SUU also finished with 15 assists, its second-highest total of the season.

A.J. Hess stole an in-bounds pass and got the ball to Wade Collie under the basket for a layup with 12 seconds remaining, then SUU held on to complete a come-back bid and beat Northern Arizona, 51-50, in Big Sky play.

Southern Utah scored the game's final seven points and held UNC scoreless in the final three minutes of the defensive clash.

After Tevin Svihovec scored on a lay-up with 3:16 to go to stake the Bears to a 50-44 advantage the Thunderbirds pulled within four on a pair of Jackson Stevenett free throws. Jordan Johnson rebounded a Scihovek miss and Hess wound up scoring in the paint to pull the Thunderbirds within 50-48, then after both teams missed opportunities SUU pulled within 50-49 when Stevenett hit one of two free throws with 32 seconds to go.

SUU elected not to foul and got what they wanted as Johnson blocked an Emmanuel Addo layup on the UNC end and Hess gathered in the loose ball. Damon Heuir missed a running jumper that wound up going out of bounds with 16 seconds to play, but on the in-bound play Hess got in front of Svihovec's in-bound pass, then shovelled the ball to Collie, who layed it in for the lead.

Svihovec had one last chance to tie the game, but his driving layup with under 10 seconds to go rimmed out and Johnson grabbed the rebound and dribbled up court to run out the clock and seal the win.

Stevenett wound up with a game-high 14 points and four assists to lead SUU, while Collie added 13 points and six rebounds. Jayson Cheesman had eight rebounds to go along with eight points and two blocks, while Johnson finished with four points, two blocks, two steals, an assist and six rebounds.

Derrick Barden led Northern Colorado with 12 points and a game-high nine rebounds, hwhile Addo came off the bench to score 10 points for the Bears. Svihovec finished with six points, five rebounds and five assists but also turned the ball over seven times.

SUU out-rebounded UNC 45-32 to give the team eight consecutive games out-rebounding the opposition. The Thunderbirds also had 14 turnovers, but just four in the second half, and finished with 15 assists, as every player but Collie and Chris Nsenki had at least one dime.

Julian Scott, who had missed the previous seven games with an injury, gave the Thunderbirds a lift with 13 points in 24 minutes off the bench.

SUU finished the game shooting 56.8 percent (25-of-44), its highest percentage of the season, and .538 from 3-point range (7-13), also its best of the season.

Southern Utah built leads as high as 18 points in the first half, going up 29-11 on Wade Collie's second straight 3-pointer with 10:50 to play, but the Max Jacobsen scored nine straight NAU points to spark a Lumberjack comeback. NAU went on a 13-1 run to get back within 30-24 when DeWayne Russell hit two free throws with 5:53 to play but the Thunderbirds answered with a 10-6 run and took a 42-30 lead at the break.

Southern Utah hit 6-of-10 3-pointers in the half, three by Heuir to get the T-Birds started, and two by Collie, and knocked down 15-of-24 shots overall, 62.5 percent.

Heuir opened the second half with the team's final 3-pointer of the afternoon, to lift the team to a 45-30 lead, and SUU pushed the advantage to 49-33 on a Stevenett layup but NAU scored the next nine points to pull within 49-42 and got as close as 51-45 on a pair of Gabe Rogers free throws with 12:33 to play.

Southern Utah kept the Lumberjacks at bay, however, going up 58-58 on a Collie free throw with 9:55 to play and answering every NAU run thereafter.

Heuir, A.J. Hess and Collie combined to hit 10-of-12 free throws in the final minute to clinch the win.

The win gave SUU back-to-back wins as well as a road victory for the first time this season.

Jackson Stevenett posted his second double-double of the season with 24 points and 12 rebounds but Southern Utah struggled on the offensive end at the beginning of the game, then after coming back struggled to score midway through the second half Monday night, enabling Sacramento State to end the Thunderbirds' three-game Big Sky winning streak with a 64-59 win. SUU dipped to 5-8 overall and 3-1 in Big Sky play while Sacramento State improved to 7-5 overall and 2-2 in conference play.

After shooting their best percentage of the season in a 90-77 win in the previous game at Northern Arizona (.568) the Thunderbirds dipped to 32.2 percent at Sacramento.

SUU was within one, at 41-40 after a Jayson Cheesman dunk with 9:32 to play, but turned the ball over three times and missed a shot on the next four possessions. Meanwhile Sacramento State scored on each possession to change the one-point edge into a 52-40 game with 5:20 to go.

The Thunderbirds battled back, pulling within five with 48 seconds to go but could get no closer than 63-59 with eight seconds to play.

SUU gave up two free points before the game started because of a technical foul for dunking in pre-game warmups, and then missed their first seven shots, to find itself down 12-0 before Jackson Stevenett finally got them on the board with a jumper at the 13:10 mark.

SUU fell behind by as many as 16, at 22-6, before finally making a run, pulling within 24-20 after a Stevenett tip-in at the 5:26 mark. Stevenett started the run with a layup, and after 3-pointers by Wade Collie and Damon Heuir, a Jayson Cheesman dunk, two Stevenett free throws and the tip in the Thunderbirds were back within four.

Sacramento State scored the next three points but the Thunderbirds got two free throws each from Heuir (after a technical foul on SAC's John Dickson) and Cheesman to pull within three, and after A.J. Hess grabbed a rebound on the defensive end Stevenett hit another jumper to pull the Thunderbirds within 27-26. Hess followed that basket with a steal and SUU had an opportunity to take the lead but Cheesman missed inside and Joe Eberhard got the rebound for Sacramento, was fouled, and hit two free throws to give the Hornets at 29-26 advantage at half-time.

Jackson Stevenett tied his career- and season-highs with 29 points and Damon Heuir added 16 but Weber State got balanced scoring, enjoyed a 49-27 edge in free throw opportunities and out-rebounded SUU 46-41 to remain undefeated and atop the Big Sky standings with an 81-74 win.

SUU dipped to 3-2 in conference play and 5-9 overall while WSU improved to 5-0, 10-3 overall.

Both teams got off to slow starts and for the second straight game the Thunderbirds went without a basket until Stevenett scored on a layup with 15:03 to play in the first half, making it a 4-3 game. Neither team led by more than six points in a back-and-forth first half that ended with the Wildcats leading 30-29.

SUU scored the first basket of the second half to take a one-point advantage, and although the lead went back and forth several times the Thunderbirds were never able to go ahead by more than a point.

Weber State went on an 11-2 run midway through the second period to extend a 42-40 lead to a 53-42 advantage with 9:14 to play, then slowly extended the advantage to 68-53 with 2:20 remaining before the Thunderbirds rallied to pull back within the final margin.

Heuir scored 10 of his points in the final 2:20, including a pair of 3-pointers.

SUU finished with 11 turnovers, its lowest total of the season, and although the Thunderbirds were out-rebounded for the second straight game it was just the second time in the last 11 games they had come up on the short end of the battle of the boards. WSU came into the game as the conference's top rebounding team, just ahead of the Thunderbirds.

Jayson Cheesman blocked three shots, giving him 34 on the season to tie him with Kerry Sherwood (1991-92) and Bryan Olsen (1983-84) for seventh place on SUU's single-season blocks list.

ISU's Tomas Sanchez led all scorers with 12 points in the opening half, nine from beyond the 3-point line. Jayson Cheesman led Southern Utah with eight points on 4-of-8 shooting during the first 20 minutes. The Thunderbirds held a 24-17 rebounding advantage to start the game and outshot the Bengals 35.3 percent to 34.8 percent.

Idaho State opened the second half on a quick 11-2 run to take a 37-30 lead on a layup from Andre Hatchett. SUU battled back with a 12-2 rally that ended with Stevenett throwing down a two-handed slam to even the score and Heuir sinking a corner three to put the Thunderbirds back in front 42-39.

The two sides traded scores down the stretch until a Jordan Johnson layup brought the game back to a 49-49 stalemate with 4:29 left on the clock. The Bengals eventually went back up by one, but a deep three from Stevenett gave Southern Utah a 53-51 lead with just over two minutes to play.

ISU took possession of the ball with a 54-53 advantage and 43 seconds remaining. Melvin Morgan made a drive to the hoop as the clock wound down to 14 seconds, but Stevenett got up in the air to deflect the shot off a Bengal player to give the ball back to SUU.

Southern Utah's Wade Collie took the inbounds pass at the wing and dribbled inside the three-point line for an 18-foot jumper. The shot was off but the ball went out of bounds and back to the T-Birds with 3.5 seconds left. Collie received the ball again and quickly shot a pass to Heuir who fired a corner three that bounced off the back edge of the rim as the horn sounded, sealing the 54-53 win for the Bengals.

Sanchez finished with 18 to lead ISU, which got another 17 from sophomore guard Chris Hansen. The Thunderbirds got 17 from Heuir and another 12 from Stevenett, but the two combined to shoot only 8-30 from the field.

Southern Utah shot the ball 32.1 percent as a team, just behind the Bengals who recorded a mark of 34.0 percent. SUU outrebounded its opponent by a count of 43-34 but also sent the visitors to the foul line 27 times.

Damon Heuir scored 19 points to lead three Thunderbirds in double figures but Southern Utah sent Montana to the free throw line 47 times and committed 21 turnovers as the Grizzlies took a 73-67 Big Sky win Thursday night.

Southern Utah got off to a hot start, making four of its first five shots to take and early 9-2 lead, but the prosperity didn't last as the 'Birds missed seven of their next nine attempts. Montana took advantage, moving out to a 16-14 lead, then extending the advantage to 31-23 at halftime.

The Griz forced 12 Thunderbird turnovers in the first period, but also enjoyed a significant edge at the free throw line in the half, hitting 14-of-18 from the line while SUU attempted just two free throws, converting them both.

In the second half the Thunderbirds cut down on the turnovers, giving it away just nine times, but Montana's parade to the free throw line didn't end as the Grizzlies attempted 29 more charity tosses in the second half while SUU got just three more attempts. Southern Utah wound up 5-for-5 from the line while Montana was 31-of-47.

The Thunderbirds stayed in the game, however. After giving up the first basket of the second half and committing four turnovers in their first five possessions they outscored Montana 9-2 to pull within 33-32 at the 15:38 mark.

The Grizzlies slowly pulled away, however, pushing the advantage to 44-36 before A.J. Hess hit a 3-pointer to cut the deficit to five. Montana stymied the SUU run, however, and continued to build the lead, going up 58-41 with 4:46 to play.

SUU scored the next eight points, however, getting a layup from Heuir, a 3-pointer from Jordan Johnson and another three from Wade Collie before Spencer Coleman hit one of two free throws for UM to make it a 59-49 game with 2:48 to play.

After the Griz went up 61-49 on two more Coleman free throws Heuir hit three 3-pointers to and the after Stevenett hit two free throws the Thunderbirds found themselves back within 66-62 but Montana hit seven free throws down the stretch to hold off SUU and pull out the win.

Damon Heuir scored 20 points to lead three Southern Utah players in double figures but Montana State outscored SUU 9-3 over the final 2:38 to take a 76-68 men's basketball victory in Big Sky play Thursday night.

SUU lost its fifth straight to dip to 3-5 in the Big Sky and 4-12 overall while the Bobcats improved to 4-4 in conference play and 7-9 overall. SUU slipped into a six-way tie for fifth place in the BSC while Montana State moved into a tie with North Dakota in third place.

Southern Utah trailed 36-31 at halftime but came back to tie the game at 50-50 on a Jayson Cheesman layup with 11:55 to play. MSU got two free throws from Xavier Blount, then a short jumper from Antonio Biglow to go up 54-50 and although the Thunderbirds stayed within striking distance the rest of the way they were never able to take the lead.

Heuir scored inside to pull the Thunderbirds within 59-58, but after a Bobcat timeout MSU got a dunk from Paul Egwuonwu and a layup from Christian Moon to push the edge back to five.

After Montana State pushed the lead up to five on a Flavien Davis basket the Thunderbirds got a free throw from Jackson Stevenett and a layup from Heuir to get back within 67-65. SUU then got a defensive rebound and had a chance to tie or take the lead but Heuir's three from the corner was off the mark.

SUU had another chance to tie or take the lead after Blount missed a pair of free throws but again Heuir's 3-point attempt was off the mark and Marcus Colbert pulled down the rebound, was fouled, and hit two free throws to give MSU a 69-65 lead with 57 seconds to play, and the Thunderbirds were able to get no closer than three the rest of the way.

Jayson Cheesman notched a double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds while Jackson Stevenett scored 21 points and Damon Heuir added 19 and six assists as the Thunderbirds broke a five-game skid with a 76-63 win over Portland State.

SUU jumped out to a 12-2 lead and never trailed, but the Vikings continued to rally throughout the game. SUU tied its season-low with 11 turnovers, combined for 13 assists and six blocks and out-rebounded PSU 33-32 in moving to 4-5 and into a tie for fourth place in the Big Sky standings.

Jordan Johnson started his third straight game and gave the Thunderbirds a lift from the outset, getting steals on the Vikings' first two possessions of the game and a rebound on their third, then scoring four straight points to lift SUU to an 8-2 advantage.

SUU went on to build a 13-point first half lead and was up 36-27 at the break. The Thunderbirds built the lead to 52-35 midway through the second half but PSU responded with a 9-1 run and eventually got back within 55-47 before SUU pulled away again down the stretch.

Cal Hanks added a career-high nine points and blocked two shots as the Thunderbirds finished with six blocks, marking the 12th time this season they have swatted at least five shots.

Wade Collie came off the bench to lead Southern Utah with 18 points and nine rebounds as the Thunderbirds won their second straight game to move back to .500 in Big Sky play with a 69-55 win over Eastern Washington.

Collie, who tied his career scoring high and his season rebounding high, missed five of his first seven shots but hit 5-of-8 after that point, including 5-of-7 in the second half when the Thunderbirds overcame a 33-31 halftime deficit. Collie scored four of the team's first seven second-half points (Jayson Cheesman provided the other three on a dunk and a free throw) and with a Jackson Stevenett three the T-Birds outscored the Eagles 10-2 to open the period and never trailed again.

The Thunderbirds held EWU to .296 shooting (8-of-27) in the second half and .333 overall (18-of-54) while knocking down 26-of-61 of their own shots (.426), including 15-of-28 (.536) in the second half.

Damon Heuir added 17 points while Stevenett finished with 16 and six rebounds. Jordan Johnson, who was starting his fourth straight game, didn't score but he dished out a career-best six assists to lead the team for the second time in three games and pulled down five rebounds while picking off a team-high three steals.

SUU ran out to a 9-2 lead to open the game, hitting 4-of-4 shots – including a Stevenett three – and 2-of-2 free throws but the Eagles answered with a 12-2 run to take a 14-13 advantage. EWU went on to built a 26-18 lead with 8:03 remaining in the half but Cal Hanks scored six points as the Thunderbirds came back to pull within 33-31 at the break.

Hanks finished with eight points, one shy of his career-high of nine that he scored two nights earlier against Portland State.

Cheesman blocked three shots, giving him 44 for the season, four behind Kenyatta Clyde's 48 in 1998-99, which ranks fourth in the SUU record books, and 19 shy of the SUU single-season record.

Stevenett's efforts left him with 1,037 points. He is in 11th place on the place on SUU's career scoring list, 40 behind Russell Otis' 1,077 from 1984-86.

Damon Heuir scored 28 points and Jackson Stevenett added 20 as Southern Utah overcame a 13-point halftime deficit to win its third straight game and move into a tied for third place in the Big Sky with a 79-67 home win over Sacramento State.

It was the biggest halftime deficit the team has overcome as well as just the third time the Thunderbirds have come back to win after trailing at the break this season.

After a lackluster first half in which they hit just 9-of-24 field goal attempts the Thunderbirds found themselves down 39-26 at halftime. They rallied in the second half, however, hitting 18-of-30 shots, an even 60 percent, while holding Sacramento State to 4-of-23 shooting in the period.

The Thunderbirds opened the second half with a 13-2 run, pulling within 41-39 on a Cal Hanks 3-point play with 14:59 to go. Heuir scored six points during the run, four on free throws. Sac State pushed the advantage back to six on a John Dickson jumper but Heuir hit a 3-pointer, Jayson Cheesman scored on a short jumper and Jordan Johnson scored inside off a feed from Wade Collie to give the Thunderbirds a 48-47 advantage, their first lead since they were up 17-16 with 9:52 to go in the first half.

The teams exchanged baskets the next two times down the floor, but after Stevenett hit a three to stake SUU to a 52-50 lead Hanks and Stevenett both scored from short range to give SUU a six point lead, the Hornets didn't ever get back within four. After the lead moved to 69-56 on a Jordan Johnson lay-up at the 3:15 mark it was never closer than seven.

Heuir hit just 6-of-17 shots but buried 3-of-7 3-pointers and 13-of-14 free throws, 9-of-10 of them in the second half. He also pulled down seven rebounds to co-lead the team, along with Cheesman, Collie and Hanks, and had a game-high seven assists.

Hanks wound up with career-highs in both points (11) and rebounds, and co-lead the team, along with Stevenett, with two blocks.

SUU out-rebounded the Hornets 41-26, marking the 10th time the team has tallied 40 or more caroms in a game this season.

Damon Heuir scored 27 points and Jackson Stevenett added a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds to lead Southern Utah past Northern Arizona 78-67 on Saturday.

The Thunderbirds took an 11-8 lead on a Heuir 3-pointer with 15:03 to play and never trailed again in earning their fourth-straight win to improve to 7-5 in the Big Sky and 9-12 overall. The Lumberjacks dipped to 4-7 in conference play and 7-14 overall.

Heuir scored seven points in the first seven minutes to help the Thunderbirds build a 17-11 advantage. The senior guard then added a three and a transition layup to extend the lead to 28-15 halfway through the period.

Southern Utah increased the margin to 35-18 on another make from the outside for Heuir after holding the Lumberjacks scoreless for nearly three minutes. NAU would bounce back with a 14-5 run in the closing minutes of the half to trail 40-32 at the break.

Heuir finished with 18 points in the first half after hitting 3-of-5 3-point attempts. Max Jacobsen led the visitors with 11 first half points on 5-6 shooting. SUU held a 23-11 advantage on the boards and shot 46.7 percent from the floor to start the game.

Northern Arizona connected on four of its first five shots in the second half to cut the deficit to 44-40 on a driving layup from Stallon Saldivar. Stevenett gave the Thunderbirds some cushion with four quick points and Heuir added another transition lay-in to extend the lead back to ten at 55-45 halfway through the period.

The Lumberjacks worked to chip away at the margin in the closing minutes, but Heuir and Stevenett answered each try with a score to help the Thunderbirds secure the 78-67 win.

Heuir's 27 points followed his 28-point performance against Sacramento State on Thursday night. Jordan Johnson dished out a career high seven assists. NAU got 17 points from Jacobsen while Saldivar led the way for the 'Jacks with 12 boards.

Southern Utah held a 39-34 rebounding advantage in the contest and out-shot the Lumberjacks 45.5 percent to 43.6 percent. The Thunderbirds also recorded seven steals, which they turned into 15 fast break points and 19 points off turnovers.

Jackson Stevenett scored 22 points and Damon Heuir added 17 as Southern Utah's men's basketball team outlasted Idaho State in overtime Thursday night, 81-79.

Stevenett's efforts moved him into ninth place on SUU's all-time scoring list with a total of 1,094 points. He moved past Russell Otis, who was 10th with 1,077 and Ted Thomas, who had 1,087 points.

Heuir scored six of his points in the extra period, four from the free throw line in the final minute, as the Thunderbirds were able to win the extra period 19-17. SUU got baskets from Jayson Cheesman and Hess to open the extra session and give the Thunderbirds a 66-62 edge but ISU answered with a traditional 3-point play by Walters to pull back within one.

Chris Nsenki gave the Thunderbirds a 69-65 edge with a 3-pointer but Walters converted another 3-point play to pull the Bengals within 69-68, then after a Hess miss Andre Hatchett scored to give ISU its first lead of overtime, 70-69.

Tomas Sanchez gave ISU a 73-71 lead with a 3-pointer with 1:45 to go but Stevenett hit two free throws, then Heuir picked Sanchez' pocket and was fouled. Heuir converted two free throws to give SUU the lead, and on ISU's next possession Stevenett blocked a Hatchett jumper, grabbed the rebound and got the ball to Heuir for a layup and a 77-73 edge. ISU pulled back within two on another Hatchett layin but SUU hit four straight free throws, by Heuir and Hess, to hold the Bengals off.

After averaging just over 11 turnovers per game in the last five games, four of them wins, the Thunderbirds gave it away 22 times on Thursday but just once in the overtime period .

Hess scored a career-high 12 points while Nsenki had 10 to tie his career best ... SUU out-rebounded ISU 42-28 (including 15 on the offensive end), offsetting a 40-28 edge the Bengals held at the free throw line ... Seven of ISU's 21 baskets came in overtime but just two of its 40 free throws came in the extra session ... Ten of Southern Utah's 28 free throw attempts came in overtime, and four of its 25 baskets ... SUU hit 25-of-28 free throws (.893) while ISU converted 33-of-40 (.825).

Jackson Stevenett scored 24 points and Damon Heuir added 18 but Southern Utah had its worst shooting night of the year Saturday night as Weber State topped SUU 75-58 to put an end to SUU's five-game winning streak, the team's longest in 11 years.

SUU hit just 16-of-55 shots – 6-of-24 in the second half – or 29.1 percent. The team's lowest percentage prior to Saturday night was .321 at home vs. Idaho State on Jan. 12.

After taking an eight point lead into halftime Weber put the game out of range with a 12-2 run that gave the Wildcats a 58-38 advantage. SUU finally got back on the scoreboard when Cal Hanks hit one of two free throws to make it a 58-39 game with 8:44 to play. SUU could get no closer than 17 the rest of the way, however.

Weber State used a 9-0 run to take a 10-point lead in the first half. Davion Berry hit a 3-pointer at the 12:21 mark to cap the run that turned a 12-11 edge into a 21-11 advantage. The Thunderbirds pulled back within 21-16 on a Jordan Johnson layup, then after the teams exchanged baskets SUU had several opportunities to pull within three but Stevenett was called for an offensive foul, Johnson missed a jumper and Heuir had his pocket picked by Berry, who went on to score and end the SUU run.

Weber went on to build the lead to 39-26 lead but the Thunderbirds got the last five points of the half on a Tyson Koehler layup and three Stevenett free throws to make it a 39-31 game at the break.

SUU hit just 10-of-31 shots in the first half (.323) while the Wildcats hit 14-of-23 (.609), including 7-of-10 from 3-point range.

Berry led Weber State with 21 points, while Scott Bamforth and Jordan Richardson each had 15 to lead Weber State.

Weber State also out-rebounded the Thunderbirds, 39-33, marking just the sixth time this season SUU has lost the battle of the boards.

NOTES: Jayson Cheesman blocked five shots, tying the sixth-highest single-game total in SUU history (which he already tied once this season) and giving him 53 for the season, tying him with Sean Allen (1993-94) for third-place on SUU's single-season blocks list. Stevenett moved into eighth place on SUU's career scoring list with 1,118 points, passing Gary Crosby, who had 1,101 points from 1973 to 1975 and he tied Marc Silson (1977-79) in 11th place on SUU's career rebounding list with 452. SUU had 10 turnovers to 15 for WSU; it was just the second time the T-Birds had lost this season when turning it over less than the opponent.
