COACHES

Head Coach Todd Simon THIRD SEASON 24-49 Overall, 8-28 Big Sky

At the start of the 2018-19 season Todd Simon will be in his third year at the helm of the Southern Utah University men's basketball team after being named the head coach on March 24, 2016.

In his second year with the team the Thunderbirds won 13 contests in 2017-18, and made it to the semifinals of the Big Sky Conference Championship Tournament for the first time in the history of the program. The 13 wins the program reached more than doubled the win total of the team Simon inherited.

In 2017-18 the Thunderbirds finished 9-5 at home. They beat a team from the Mountain West Conference for the first time since 2006 and a team from the West Coast Conference since the turn of the century. The Thunderbirds finished non-conference play 6-5, marking the first time the team had finished above .500 outside of league play since the 2006-07 season.

In his first year with the program Simon led the Thunderbirds to a first-round win at the Big Sky Road to Reno Conference Tournament with a triple overtime victory over Montana State. The Thunderbirds concluded the season with a 6-27 overall record and a 3-15 conference record.

Simon was named interim head coach of the UNLV men's basketball program in January 2016 and immediately led them to three consecutive victories. During Simon's 17 games, the Runnin' Rebels ranked as the number one team in the nation in adjusted tempo, scoring more than 100 points in four games. UNLV finished with a 9-8 record, despite playing with as few as five scholarship players.

Prior to being named interim head coach, Simon was in his third year as associate head coach with UNLV and had a critical role in assembling UNLV's roster, which Rivals.com ranked its 2014 recruiting class #5 in the nation, while the 2015 class was ranked #11.

Prior to his tenure as a Runnin' Rebel, Simon served Findlay Prep for seven years in both head and assistant coaching roles. As head coach at Findlay Prep in 2012-2013, he led the team to a 35-1 record, including eight wins over top-25 ranked teams.

The 35 victories are the most wins in school history. During Simon's tenure at Findlay Prep, they accumulated an overall record of 192-9.

During his career Simon has helped develop and coach several players that have become top NBA draft picks, including Anthony Bennett, who was selected as the top overall pick in 2013, Rashad Vaughn, who was picked No. 17 in 2015, and Avery Bradley. Other NBA player's Simon has coached in his career include Christian Wood, Jorge Gutierrez, Cory Joseph, DeAndre Liggins, Nick Johnson and Tristan Thompson.

A native of Fowler, Michigan, Simon earned his bachelor's degree from Central Michigan with a double major in sport studies and management information systems in 2003. He earned his master's degree from UNLV in sport education leadership in 2010. Todd and his wife, Kati, have three sons and one daughter: Rece, Raylan, Ryder and Sophia.

COACHES

John Wardenburg, Associate Head Coach (Third Year)

Associate Head Coach John Wardenburg is under his third season on the Thunderbird staff after joining head coach Todd Simon in May of 2016. Wardenburg was hired on as an Assistant Coach, but was promoted in August of 2018.

Wardenburg was been an integral part of the rebuilding process at Southern Utah, which culminated in the program's first-ever trip to the Semifinals of the Big Sky Conference Tournament to conclude the 2017-18 season. Wardenburg spent nine years as an assistant basketball coach at Brigham Young University, from May 2001 to July 2010.

Chris Pompey, Assistant Coach (Second Year)

Chris Pompey joined the Thunderbird basketball coaching staff in June of 2017. Pompey joins the Thunderbird family with 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, most recently spending four seasons with the Cal State Northridge Matadors. Last season, Pompey was rated the 5th best low to mid major assistant coach by Basketball Times. In his first year at Northridge, he helped compile a top 40 recruiting class.

Trent Angelucci, Assistant Coach (Second Year)

Trent Angelucci was promoted to assistant coach in June of 2017 after serving as a special assistant to the head coach during the 2016-17 campaign.

Angelucci's duties last season included preparing and analyzing film edits for scouting purposes along with breaking down opponent's offenses for trends or statistical analysis. Angelucci played a significant role in the Thunderbird's first-round triple overtime victory over Montana State at the Big Sky Road to Reno Conference Tournament.

Bryce Martin, Director of Basketball Operations (Third Year)

Bryce Martin is in his third season as the director of basketball operations for Southern Utah University basketball after joining the staff in September of 2016.

Martin's responsibilities include handling the program's budget, all aspects of team and recruiting travel, academic development. He is the primary liaison with University and Athletic Administration, community service groups and opposing schools. Martin also serves as assistant director of Southern Utah Boys Basketball Summer Camps.

Flynn Clayman, Special Assistant (Second Year)

Flynn Clayman joined the Southern Utah staff in August 2017 as a Graduate Assistant. He previously spent 18 months as the Head Coach of AUSA hoops, based out of Sydney, Australia, coaching players from all over the country. Players coached from AUSA AAU teams and academies have signed at DI schools like Marquette, TCU, Stanford, LSU, Umass, Creighton, Eastern Kentucky, Columbia, Drake, Albany, Yale, Lehigh, Rider, Seattle and Abilene Christian.

Quan Ngo, Special Assistant (First Year)

Quan Ngo was brought on to the Thunderbird coaching staff ahead of the 2018-19 Season.

CEDAR CITY, Utah -- The Thunderbird men's basketball team secured a win in their regular season opener on Tuesday night, knocking off the West Coast Baptist College Eagles 109-63 behind 28 assists on 43 made field goals.

"It was a good night for us in terms of how we're trying to establish our culture and how we want to play," SUU head coach Todd Simon said. "The 28 assists was a big deal for us on 43 field goals, and we forced 29 turnovers. We're trying to force tempo, create a little chaos out there and the guys did a good job doing that."

Dwayne Morgan led the Thunderbirds in scoring, dropping in 20 points on 8-of-13 shooting. Cameron Oluyitan had 19 points on 8-of-10 shooting from the field for the T-Birds as well. Freshmen Maizen Fausett and Harrison Butler both scored in double-figures for the T-Birds, scoring 16 and 15 respectively.

Brandon Better was the fifth T-Bird to score in the double-digits, dropping in 11 points of three-of-five shooting from behind the three-point line.

SEATTLE, Wash. -- The Thunderbird men's basketball team invaded the Redhawk Center and knocked off Seattle University 73-70 on Sunday afternoon. Southern Utah has improved to 3-0 on the season, marking the first time since the team's transition to Division I men's basketball that they have won their first three regular season contests.

"Any time you can win on the road it's gratifying, and the guys kind of controlled the game from wire-to-wire which was a credit to their physical and mental toughness," SUU head coach Todd Simon said.

The Redhawks, who compete in the WAC, were coming off a victory over Washington State out of the Pac-12 and had only lost on the road to Stanford, as the T-Birds handed them their first home loss of the season.

Oluyitan and Andre Adams finished as the team's leading scorers, both dropping in 15 points for the T-Birds.

"They played tough," Simon said. "They were getting in the paint, they were on attack and between the two of them they got eight free throws up."

LAS VEGAS -- The Thunderbird men's basketball team squared off against the Runnin' Rebels of UNLV on Friday night inside the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, and ultimately fell 76-71 in tightly played contest.

The Thunderbirds moved to 3-1 on the season after the loss, following the best start in school history.

Calloway led the T-Birds in scoring with 14 points on three-of-four shooting from behind the three-point line.

"Jacob is a guy that can stretch a defense and is a high IQ guy," Simon said. "We tried to get him the ball and make them make adjustments. He did a really good job and that's what we've come to expect from him."

Dwayne Morgan finished with 12 for SUU, and Richardson had 10.

Adams was the team's leading rebounder with eight, also finishing with nine points.

CEDAR CITY, Utah -- The Thunderbird men's basketball program improved to 4-1 on the season Thursday night inside the America First Event Center, knocking off San Diego Christian College 111-64.

The Thunderbirds got off to a somewhat sluggish start, which prompted SUU head coach Todd Simon to make a complete line change. Following the substitutions, freshman Kenton Eskridge went five-of-five from the field and sparked the Thunderbirds to a double-digit lead.

"We have so much depth, we have a lot of starters, and Kenton is getting better and better, and earned some time," Simon said. "He showed what we've been seeing in practice, he's been doing great, and it was good for him to get rewarded with a solid performance." By the half the T-Birds had built a 24 point advantage, leading 56-32.

The Thunderbirds never let their lead dip below 21 in the second half, and pulled away with a 47-point victory.

LONG BEACH, Calif. -- The Thunderbird men's basketball team started a two-game road swing on Wednesday night where they fell to Long Beach State 82-71 in California.

"Obviously it was a tough road game, they're very good at home and we didn't make enough plays to win the game," SUU head coach Todd Simon said.

The result moved the T-Birds to 4-2 on the season.

Andre Adams finished the game as the leading scorer for SUU, dropping in 18 points on seven-of-nine shooting from the field. He also pulled in seven rebounds in 23 minutes.

"He was aggressive," Simon said. "He was trying to score, trying to get to the rim, and that's what we need from him. He was very efficient, and hopefully he can keep picking that load up."

Cameron Oluyitan was second on the team in scoring with 14, while Jacob Calloway finished with 12 that all came from behind three-point line.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. -- The Southern Utah men's basketball team wrapped up a two-game road trip on Saturday in the state of Michigan, as they fell to the Central Michigan Chippewas 95-86.

"We had too many wasted possessions," SUU head coach Todd Simon said. "We shot 55 percent from the floor and lost which tells you a couple of different things, namely that were giving away too many possessions right now. Giving up 18 offensive rebounds and having 16 turnovers feeds directly to the result, so we need to clean up those issues and it's hard to do that on the road."

Jason Richardson hit an SUU career-high on Saturday, finishing with 22 points and shooting 8-of-11 from the field. He also hit three-of-three from behind the three-point line.

Better finished with a season-high 17 points, including knocking down four triples.

Cameron Oluyitan finished with 12 points, which all came in the second half.
