HEAD COACH DAN COCANNOUER

SWOSU alum Dan Cocannouer enters his seventh season as the head coach of the Southwestern Oklahoma State University football team in 2015. He returned home to lead his alma mater in 2009 following a long, successful high school career and he will begin his seventh season with a record of 21-43, which includes an 18-30 record in conference games.

Cocannouer led the Bulldogs to a 6-5 record and fourth-place finish in the Great American Conference in 2013, the program's first winning since 2007, but slipped back to 3-7 in 2014. Cocannouer is currently tied for seventh in career wins at SWOSU with Joe Milam (1926-31), nine shy of the next coach on the list. He bettered the Bulldogs win-loss total in each of his first three seasons, improving his team from 1-10 in his inaugural season to 5-6 in 2011, their first season in the GAC.

The resume for Cocannouer added another significant honor as he was inducted into the Oklahoma Coaches Association (OCA) Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015. He was one of 13 inductees from across the state of Oklahoma to be selected for induction following his storied coaching career at the prep level.

The 2014 season was highlighted by the All-American season of senior defensive tackle Devin Benton, who was named the GAC Defensive Player of the Year and Super Region 3 Defensive Player of the Year by one outlet after a dominating and record-setting season. He became the fourth All-American coached by Cocannouer at SWOSU as he earned consensus honors with four different honors, including first team selections from Beyond Sports Network and Don Hansen, a second team choice by Daktronics and an honorable mention pick by D2Football.com

With seven players earning All-Great American Conference honors in 2014, SWOSU has now had 28 all-conference honorees in the four-year history of the conference. Benton is also leading that list as the only four-time all-conference selection in the brief history of the league.

Prior to coming back to SWOSU, Cocannouer had spent 25 seasons as a high school head coach in the state of Oklahoma, establishing a reputation as one of the most prominent and well-respected coaching leaders in the state. He came to SWOSU after eight years at Edmond Santa Fe High School where he compiled a 70-26 record (.729 winning percentage) and led the Wolves to the Class 6A finals in 2003.

His other high school stops included lead high school programs at John Marshall, Chandler, Alva, Pauls Valley and Walters High Schools. All total, he has coached more than 36 years, including the last 30 as a head coach. He led five different schools to the state playoffs and served on the Oklahoma Football Coaches Association (OFCA) Advisory Board for several years and he is a past President of the Oklahoma Coaches Association (OCA) and the OFCA. With his prep success came the opportunity to coach numerous all-star games, including the Oklahoma All-State game (1988), Jim Thorpe Classic (2000,2002), Oil Bowl (1997-98) and Enid Shriner All-Star Game (1992-96).

Cocannouer played at SWOSU from 1974-77 under legendary head coach Otis Delaporte, helping the Bulldogs to conference titles in 1974 and 1977. He was a senior leader on the Bulldog team that won a school-record 11 games and finished as the NAIA National Runner-up in 1977 after playing in the Apple Bowl at the Seattle Kingdome. By returning to lead his alma mater, he became the first SWOSU graduate to lead the Bulldogs since Joe Metcalf did the same from 1952-57.

Cocannouer holds two degrees from SWOSU. He earned a bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education in 1978 before serving as a graduate assistant for the Bulldog football team while until he earned a master's degree in Education in 1983. He also later obtained a secondary administrative certificate from Northwestern Oklahoma State in 1996.

Dan is a native of Tuttle, Oklahoma. The Cocannouer family lost their beloved wife and mother, Jeri Lyn, in early August 2015. She now has the best seat in all stadiums to cheer on the Bulldogs! They have two adult daughters and son-in-laws Cory and Janie Pence of Weatherford, and Colton and Josie Blackburn of Edmond.
