Southern Nazarene (4)
Thursday, Nov. 3, 3 p.m.

Season Series
1-1

Last Meeting
October 29

Ouachita Baptist (2) / Harding (3)
Saturday, Nov. 5, 11 am

With a win on Thursday, SWOSU would play the winner of the Ouachita/Harding matchup for the GAC Tournament Championship.

Setting the Scene:

- SWOSU Soccer clinched the regular season Great American Conference Championship, a number-one seed in the post-season tournament, and the privilege of hosting the 2016 GAC Women's Soccer Championships for their (12-4-1, 9-3 GAC) performance this season
- The Bulldogs will face the fourth seeded Southern Nazarene Crimson Storm starting at 3 pm on Thursday, November 3 out at the Athletic Complex
- The Dawgs split the regular season series with SNU, beating them 2-0 at home and losing 2-0 in the final regular-season game of the season just last week

The Coaches:

SWOSU: Mark Persson (80-59-13; 8th season)

- Since taking over the program in 2009, Persson has amassed an 80-59-13 record, becoming the all-time winningest coach in program history
- Persson also led the Bulldogs to back-to-back GAC Championships in 2012 and 2013
- A two time All-Conference Coach of the Year, Persson holds a 37-24-7 record in GAC play
- He has coached one All-American, 12 All-Region players, and numerous All-Conference players during his time in Weatherford

Southern Nazarene: Julie Duncan (65-72-5; 7th season)

- Coach Duncan was the 2014 Great American Conference Coach of the Year after her team won the conference championship
- She has led the Crimson Storm to two SAC (NAIA) Conference Championships, including a runner-up finish in the NAIA National Championship game in 2009
- Duncan's coaching career began at Moore High School, where she coached the Moore girls' soccer program for 17 seasons

The Opponent:

Southern Nazarene Crimson Storm (7-11, 6-6 GAC)

- SNU finished fifth in the GAC standings, but qualified for the post season

due to Oklahoma Baptist's provisional status with the league

- The Crimson Storm ended the season strong, winning five of their last seven matches to make the conference tournament and edge out ECU for the last spot

- Meagan Chase led the SNU attack during the season, finishing with a team-high nine goals

- Natasha Fuentes collected 84 saves in 17 games with four shutouts to her credit, while giving up 31 goals on the year

Bulldog Facts:

- Freshman Alimata Rabo ended up tied as the second-best goal scorer in the NCAA Division II with two other players with 22 goals scored on the season, one behind Bridgeport University's Idoia Agirre (23)

- Other freshman Sandra Nabweteme is next on that list, with her 19 goals good enough for fifth place overall in the Division II category

- SWOSU finished fifth in the country by averaging 3.71 goals per game

- The Bulldogs come into the GAC tournament having scored 63 goals, and conceded 20 on the year

- Courtney Flores and the Dawg defense rank second in the GAC with six shutouts this season

- SWOSU had six different weeks where at least one player was awarded either the conference's offensive or defensive weekly honor. Rabo (offensive 3x), Nabweteme (offensive 2x), Brunet (defensive 2x), and Flores (goalkeeper 1x)

Looking Ahead:

-The Bulldogs have a must win on Thursday or their season it over

- With a win over SNU, SWOSU will play for the GAC Tournament Championship on Saturday at 11 am against the winner of Ouachita (2) and Harding (3)

- The GAC Tournament Champion receives an automatic invitation to the NCAA Central Region Tournament which will begin the following Friday (Nov. 11) at the highest seed in the region's home site which at this current moment would be Central Missouri

Head Coach: Mark Persson

Assistant Coaches: Kira Bertrand, Ellen Trotter

HEAD COACH MARK PERSSON

Mark Persson has built the SWOSU Women's Soccer program into a consistent contender since taking over the program in 2009 and he enters his eighth season with the Bulldogs in 2016. Persson is the winningest coach in program history, bringing a 68-55-12 (.548) record into this season.

Persson is a two-time conference Coach of the Year with the Bulldogs, earning the honor for the Lone Star Conference in 2009 and again from the GAC in SWOSU's record-setting 2012 campaign. His teams won back-to-back GAC regular season and tournament championships in 2012 and 2013 with a record of 16-1-2 against conference foes during that time.

In seven seasons at the helm of the SWOSU Soccer program, Persson has seen several players earn post-season accolades including 12 All-Region selections, 43 All-Conference (Lone Star & Great American) picks and nine GAC specialty award winners, including three-time Defensive Player of the Year Kira Bertrand and two-time Goalkeeper of the Year Courtney Flores.

Flores.

The Bulldogs had a bounce-back season in 2015, reaching the 10-win plateau for the third time in the past four seasons. SWOSU finished 13-6-1 overall, including a third-place finish in the GAC regular season standings with a mark of 8-3-1. In the conference tournament, SWOSU defeated No. 2-seed Ouachita Baptist to advance to their third GAC Championship game in four seasons, where they were defeated by tournament-host Harding.

SWOSU had a program-record 10 players selected to the All-GAC teams in 2015, led by Goalkeeper of the Year Courtney Flores, who was one of four players to earn First Team All-GAC honors. Also earning a selection to the first team were Cori Kelly, Samantha Nunez and Kylee Bertrand while Nunez (Second Team) and Bertrand (Third Team) were also selected to the All-Central Region team by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

A youthful Bulldog squad in 2014 was limited to two wins and missed the GAC Tournament for the first time, but his group had four players earn All-Great American Conference honors while defender Charlotte Eastman was named a Second Team All-Central Region choice by Daktronics. Her selection gives the Bulldogs an all-region selection in each of the past three seasons after not having a player earn all-region honors in the first 14 years of the programs existence.

The 2013 squad repeated as GAC Champions by finishing the regular season 7-1-1, three points ahead of second-place Ouachita Baptist. The Bulldogs then cruised through the conference tournament, defeating East Central and Harding by a combined score of 7-0 to claim a second straight tournament championship. SWOSU just missed out on a second straight bid to the NCAA Division II national tournament after they qualified in 2012.

With the success of the team came several more postseason accolades. Kira Bertrand was named the GAC Defender of the Year for the second consecutive season while Courtney Flores earned both Goalkeeper and Freshman of the Year honors following a standout freshman campaign at SWOSU. The Bulldogs placed four on the All-GAC First and two more on the second team. In addition to those honors, Bertrand was named to the NSCAA All-Central Region First Team for the second straight season while Carbonara and Visor both earned second team all-region honors.

Persson's 2012 team became the first in school history to advance to the NCAA Division II Tournament, where they defeated Minot State 3-0 before falling to host Central Missouri by the same score in the second round of the Central Regional. The Bulldogs were the only team in NCAA Division II to complete the regular season without a loss, ending the season with a record of 20-1-1.

For their efforts in 2012, the Bulldogs received several postseason awards including a very impressive sweep of the Great American Conference specialty awards: Josie Price was named the Offensive Player of the Year, Kira Bertrand won Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive year, Corey LaMoureux was the Goalkeeper of the Year and Ashlee Beitinger earned Freshman of the Year. Persson completed the sweep with his Coach of the Year Award.

Beyond that, Price was named a First Team All-Central Region and First Team All-American selection, becoming the first NSCAA All-American in SWOSU soccer history. Bertrand (first team) and LaMoureaux (third team) joined Price on the All-Central Region team.

Persson took over a program that had combined to win three games in the two seasons prior to his arrival. His teams won at least six games in each of his first three seasons before breaking through with the 20-1-1 record in 2012.

Before coming to SWOSU, Persson had spent 12 years as a high school and college coach, the last eight of which were spent at Southern Nazarene University. At SNU, he initially served as the men's head coach and posted a 100-33-14 in eight-plus years. His teams made five consecutive trips to the NAIA National Tournament and advanced to in the National Final 4 in 2005. He then served in the dual capacity as both the men's and women's head coach in the 2006 and 2007 before only coaching the women in 2008.

In the 2008 season at SNU, his team finished with a 14-2-3 record and were ranked as high as No. 13 in the final NAIA poll. The SNU women went 32-19-7 in three years under his guidance, included back-to-back winning seasons in 2007 and 2008.

A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, Persson is a 1996 graduate of SNU where he was a two-time NAIA All-American for the school. He then went on to play semi-professionally with the Oklahoma City Slickers before taking over the men's and women's coaching duties at Phillips University in 1997.

He led the Phillips men to the 1997 Sooner Athletic Conference championship and was voted the league's coach of the year, the first of now seven times that he received such an award. He remained in Enid after Phillips shuttered its doors in 1998 coaching both at Enid High School and later Northern Oklahoma College-Enid. Persson then moved to Bethany in 2001 when he joined the SNU coaching staff on a full-time basis.

He and his wife Sheila, have three young children.
