The Southwestern Oklahoma State University Sports Information department is responsible for providing public and media relation services for the Bulldogs' 12 athletic programs. Sports Information Director Doug Self is the primary contact for each SWOSU Athletic program.

Media Credentials

Credentials for Southwestern Oklahoma State University home games are available to personnel from working media outlets by contacting Sports Information Director Doug Self at least 24 hours prior to the start of an event. Credentials can be left at the gate or picked up from the Sports Information office in advance of the game. Media wishing to take photos must also obtain a credential from the SWOSU Sports Information office.

Interview Policy

Postgame interviews with SWOSU coaches and players are available to media personnel following a brief cooling off period. Requests must be made to the Sports Information Director prior to the end of contest. Requested athletes and coaches will be made available for interviews on the playing field or outside of the locker room following a contest.

Interviews during the week will be made on arrangement with the Sports Information Director. Please allow 24 hour notice for all such interviews.

Broadcast Information

All SWOSU Football games are broadcast on KWEY 95.5 FM "The Coyote" in Western Oklahoma. Those outside the listening area can access streaming audio online at www.kwey.com. In addition, a webstream and live stats of home games can be found at www.swosuathletics.com.

Mike Hammett is in his first season as the 'Voice of the Bulldogs' after joining Wright Wradio in August 2016 as the Sports Director. He is joined on the broadcast by color commentator Les Crall and sideline reporter Jared Jones

For further game updates, be sure to follow @SWOSUAthletics and @SWOSUFootball on Twitter.

- Ranked 7th in career wins at SWOSU with 29, needing one more to move into a share of sixth place on the list with Jake Spann (30, 1939-48)
- Has a record of 1-4 against Southern Arkansas, including a 1-1 record against the Muleriders in Weatherford

Southern Arkansas: Bill Keopple, 33-39 (Eighth Season)

- Has totaled 33 wins as the head coach at SAU with 26 of them coming in the past four seasons and he has guided the Muleriders to a winning record each of those year
- In his time at SAU, he has coached 39 all-conference players, 15 all-academic honorees, 12 all-region selections and four All-Americans
- Spent the six seasons prior to coming to SAU as the head coach at Arkansas High in Texarkana and he has previous NCAA Division I coaching stops at Arkansas, Boise State and Central Arkansas

THE LAST MEETING (SEPT. 5, 2015)

- SWOSU took a 24-22 lead in the fourth quarter before Southern Arkansas scored a late touchdown to defeat the Bulldogs 28-24 in the 2015 season opener
- Marc Evans was 14-for-32 passing for 179 yards and three touchdowns, directing the SWOSU offense to 331 yards of total offense on 67 plays
- Top targets for Evans included Carlos Smith and Derrick Styles, who each had three receptions while Styles hauled in a pair of touchdown passes
- The SWOSU Defense forced two turnovers with Tyler George and Gentry Rogers each recovering fumbles that the Bulldogs would convert into 15 points
- Tanner Thompson led the Bulldogs with 13 tackles and he blocked a punt through the end zone for a safety, giving SWOSU a 24-22 lead with 8:55 to play
- SAU scored the go-ahead 75-yard touchdown with 6:24 to play, but SWOSU held on the two-point conversion to keep the deficit at 28-24

LAST TIME OUT (DEC. 5, 2015)

- After a high-scoring first half, the SWOSU Football team was held scoreless by Central Oklahoma after halftime and fell to the Bronchos in the Live United Texarkana Bowl
- SWOSU scored on back-to-back drives to take a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter but went to halftime trailing UCO 28-21
- Two turnovers in the red zone cost the Bulldogs their past scoring opportunities in the second half and UCO converted for 10 points to provide the final margin
- Marc Evans finished 30-of-46 through the air for 301 yards and three touchdowns passing, finding Carlos Smith nine times, including one touchdown
- Conner Bays led the SWOSU defense with 10 tackles, giving him 115 for his junior season

SWOSU OFFENSIVE NOTES

- The Bulldogs return nine starters on offense, including their top-three leading rushers, five of their top six pass-catchers and four starting offensive linemen
- SWOSU also welcomes back their top two quarterbacks from last season, including Marc Evans, who started nine games and threw for 2,681 yards and 25 touchdowns last season
- In the backfield, the Bulldogs will boast a balanced attack led by Honorable Mention All-Great American Conference selections Karltrill Henderson and Kenneth Martey
- Henderson was SWOSU's leading rusher last season, rushing for 829 yards and setting a new single-season school scoring record with 84 points (14 touchdowns)
- Martey shared time in the backfield, rushing for 565 yards on 121 carries, including a school-record 93-yard touchdown run at Northwestern Oklahoma State
- SWOSU welcomes back seven players who had 12 or more receptions last season, a group led by returning All-American D.J. Jones
- Jones set a new single-season school and Great American Conference record with 1,797 all-purpose yards, with 903 of those coming through the air
- JR Omigie and Derrick Styles both started multiple games at wideout and return with a combined 52 receptions and 10 touchdowns to their credit from last season
- The top three tight ends return for the Bulldogs, including Collin Bricker, who had 21 receptions a year ago, and Dylan Power, who hauled in 12 receptions in 2015
- Four starters return along the SWOSU offensive line, a position that has zero seniors this season
- Garrett Luke was an Honorable Mention All-GAC pick last season, and he returns on the left side of the line along with Brandon Roe, who started the final six games of 2015 at left guard

- Sophomore Justin Bigelow has emerged atop the SWOSU depth chart at center after making three starts at the position a year ago
- On the right side, Kevin Blessing returns at guard after starting each game last season while Elijah Britton is slated to start at tackle as a redshirt freshman

SWOSU DEFENSIVE NOTES

- Defensively, the Bulldogs must replace seven starters from last year's team but they do return three of their top six tacklers from last season
- Conner Bays led SWOSU with 115 tackles last season, earning Second Team All-GAC and Second Team All-Super Region III honors
- Bays' tackle total is the second-most at SWOSU in the NCAA Division II era, trailing only Charles Thomas, who had 122 stops in 2004
- Joining Bays in the secondary will be Michael Adefolarin at the 'Dawg' position and Jamorion Rose at the other safety spot
- At the cornerback positions, 2014 All-GAC selection Kevin Joseph returns after redshirting in 2015 and he is slated to start next to Deric Robertson, a senior transfer from Oklahoma State
- Austin Loomis has started 21-of-22 games at linebacker the past two seasons and he was the Bulldogs fifth-leading tackler with 66 stops (23 solo, 43 assist) last season
- Gentry Rogers is the most experienced player on the roster, entering his senior season with 32 collegiate games under his belt and he is atop the depth chart at the other linebacker position
- SWOSU has depth at the interior defensive line position, where senior Clinton Horn and junior Tyler Follis are scheduled to start against SAU
- Joining the duo in the middle is George Woods, who started all 12 games and made 34 tackles and 5.5 tackles for loss last season
- Returners Bailey McKay and Dustin Johnson have been with the Bulldogs for multiple seasons and both appear poised to make their first career starts at defensive end against SAU

SWOSU SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

- All American D.J. Jones was SWOSU's leading kick and punt return man last season, averaging 24.2 yards per kick and 19.6 yards per punt return with two touchdowns
- The returning duo of Tyler Peterson (kicker) and Dalton Jackson (punting) will handle the kicking duties for SWOSU this season

LOOKING AHEAD

- SWOSU crosses the border into Arkansas each of the next two weeks to face Arkansas-Monticello (Sept. 10) and Ouachita (Sept. 17)
- The Bulldogs return home on September 24 to host Henderson State, the reigning GAC Champions and preseason favorite to again claim the conference crown

HEAD COACH DAN COCANNOUER

SWOSU alum Dan Cocannouer enters his eighth season as the head coach of the Southwestern Oklahoma State football team in 2016. The Bulldogs are coming off record-setting 2015 season that included an 8-4 record and the Bulldogs first-ever NCAA Postseason appearance in the Live United Texarkana Bowl. Cocannouer, who returned home to lead his alma mater in 2009, has a career record of 29-47 at SWOSU.

The breakthrough season of 2015 came with accolades as Cocannouer was named the Great American Conference Coach of the Year and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 4 Coach of the Year after leading the Bulldogs to a five-win turnaround and second-place finish in the GAC after being picked to finish seventh. SWOSU ended the season with a defeat at the Live United Texarkana Bowl, which was just the eighth postseason game in Bulldog football's 107-year history.

Resilience was the key for SWOSU in 2015 as the Bulldogs bounced back from starting the season 2-3 to win six straight games and earn their postseason appearance. The winning streak is the longest by the Bulldogs as members of the NCAA and helped break a postseason draught of nearly 20 years. SWOSU's offense set records for scoring as they went undefeated at ASAP Energy Field and earned their best Great American Conference finish since the formation of the league.

SWOSU had seven players earn GAC postseason honors as well as Cocannouer being named the conference Coach of the Year. Leading the honors were First Team All-GAC cornerback Trevon Hartfield and return specialist D.J. Jones, who also become SWOSU's ninth All-American of the NCAA Division II era, earning First Team honors as a return specialist from the D2CCA and second team Associated Press Little All-America honors as an all-purpose player.

The resume for Cocannouer added another significant honor in the spring of 2015 as it was announced that he would be inducted into the Oklahoma Coaches Association (OCA) Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015. He is one of 13 inductees from across the state of Oklahoma to be selected for induction following his storied coaching career at the prep level.

Cocannouer has led the Bulldogs to a winning record in two of the past three seasons and he is alone in seventh-place for all-time wins at SWOSU, just two wins shy of moving into the top-five on the career wins list. He bettered the Bulldogs win-loss total in each of his first three seasons, improving his team from 1-10 in his inaugural season to 5-6 in 2011, their first season in the GAC.

Prior to coming back to SWOSU, Cocannouer had spent 25 seasons as a high school head coach in the state of Oklahoma, establishing a reputation as one of the most prominent and well-respected coaching leaders in the state. He came to SWOSU after eight years at Edmond Santa Fe High School where he compiled a 70-26 record (.729 winning percentage) and led the Wolves to the Class 6A finals in 2003.

His other high school stops included lead high school programs at John Marshall, Chandler, Alva, Pauls Valley and Walters High Schools. All total, he has coached more than 36 years, including the last 30 as a head coach. He led five different schools to the state playoffs and served on the Oklahoma Football Coaches Association (OFCA) Advisory Board for several years and he is a past President of the Oklahoma Coaches Association (OCA) and the OFCA. With his prep success came the opportunity to coach in numerous all-star games, including the Oklahoma All-State game (1988), Jim Thorpe Classic (2000, 2002), Oil Bowl (1997-98) and Enid Shriner All-Star Game (1992-96).

Cocannouer played at SWOSU from 1974-77 under legendary head coach Otis Delaporte, helping the Bulldogs to conference titles in 1974 and 1977. He was a senior leader on the Bulldog team that won a school-record 11 games and finished as the NAIA National Runner-up in 1997 after playing in the Apple Bowl at the Seattle Kingdome. By returning to lead his alma mater, he became the first SWOSU graduate to lead the Bulldogs since Joe Metcalf did the same from 1952-57.

Cocannouer holds two degrees from SWOSU. He earned a bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education in 1978 before serving as a graduate assistant for the Bulldog football team while until he earned a master's degree in Education in 1983. He also later obtained a secondary administrative certificate from Northwestern Oklahoma State in 1996.

Dan is a native of Tuttle, Oklahoma. The Cocannouer family lost their beloved wife and mother, Jeri Lyn, in early August 2015. She now has the best seat in all stadiums to cheer on the Bulldogs! They have two adult daughters and son-in-laws Cory and Janie Pence of Weatherford, and Colton and Josie Blackburn of Edmond.
