SETTING THE SCENE

- SWOSU Volleyball has claimed the No. 2-seed in the Great American Conference Tournament, earning a quarterfinal matchup with No. 7-seed Southern Nazarene
- That match will take place at 2:30 pm on Thursday afternoon at Bank OZK Arena in Hot Springs, Arkansas
- The Bulldogs have completed the winningest regular season in program history, finishing 20-6 overall and 13-3 in GAC play to earn the highest seed they've had in the eight-year history of the GAC Tournament
- SWOSU meets Southern Nazarene in the quarterfinals, marking the second postseason matchup between the schools, with the Bulldogs claiming a straight-set victory in the 2015 semifinals
- The Bulldogs and Crimson Storm split the season series, with SWOSU in four sets at SNU on September 11 before SNU returned the favor in five sets last Tuesday on Senior Night at the Pioneer Cellular Event Center

THE OPPONENT

(7) Southern Nazarene (17-15)

- The Crimson Storm won four of their final five matches of the regular season to earn the No. 7 seed in the GAC Tournament after tying with Oklahoma Baptist for sixth in the regular season standings
- SNU is led by Bailee Turang, who is the top hitting threat in the Great American Conference with 4.00 kills and 4.55 points per set
- Southern Nazarene ranks second in the GAC with 193 service aces (1.65 per set) and they have four different players with 30 or more aces for the season

SWOSU NOTES

- SWOSU is appearing in the Great American Conference Tournament for the eighth consecutive season, with a record of 5-6 in their previous trips
- The Bulldogs ended the regular season with a program-best 20 overall victories and 13 conference wins to finish tied for second in the standings with Henderson State
- Junior libero Kaitlyn Dillon was named the GAC Defensive Player of the Week a league-leading four times this season and finished the regular season as the conference leader in digs with 563 (5.69 per set) while ranking third with 43 service aces
- Both of SWOSU's starting middle hitters - Sofia Gruden and Elizabeth McVicker - rank in the top five in the GAC for hitting percentage
- Gruden is fourth on the team with 171 kills, but leads the Dawgs and ranks fourth in the league with a .343 attack percentage
- McVicker is second on the team with 236 kills (2.78 per set) while hitting .319 to rank fifth among players in the GAC
- Danusia Sipa Borgeaud is on the verge of recording 300 kills for the second straight season, entering the GAC Tournament with 298 (3.04 per set) on a .122 attack clip
- Allie Hoang has moved to fifth in the league in assists with 895 (9.04 per set) and she's tied with Borgeaud for the team lead having recorded 16 double-doubles this season

JOSH COLLINS

HEAD COACH / 7TH SEASON AT SWOSU / 103-115

Josh Collins is in his seventh season as the head coach of the SWOSU Volleyball team, while also serving as the Athletic Department's Director of Gameday Operations.

Collins — who became SWOSU Volleyball's winningest coach on November 10th, 2016 — enters the 2018 season with a career record of 83-109 (.432) and he has led the Bulldogs to a top-four finish in the Great American Conference three times in his five seasons leading the program. He also guided SWOSU to the 2015 GAC Tournament Championship, the program's first conference crown, and a berth in the NCAA Division II national tournament for the first time.

Since becoming the head coach at SWOSU, Collins has been an active member on NCAA committees. He has been as a member of the Regional Advisory Committee for the Central Region since 2014, including serving as the Regional Chair and NCAA Division II Women's Volleyball National Committee since 2016.

Collins has tutored 14 players who have earned All-Great American Conference honors, including First Team selections Alison Cole (2013) and Carly Zak (2015-16). Zak also became the program's first GAC Freshman of the Year in 2013 and the first All-Central Region selection, earning the honor in 2015 (Second Team) and 2016 (First Team). Additionally, Collins has coached five players named to the All-GAC Tournament Team, three who earned GAC Academic Scholar Honors and 31 selections to the GAC All-Academic Team. His teams have also earned the AVCA Team Academic Award on five occasions (2012, 2014-17) and they won the GAC Sportsmanship Award in 2014.

In addition to improved play on the court, fan support has continued to increase for the Bulldog Volleyball program since moving into the Pioneer Cellular Event Center prior to the 2014 season. SWOSU's attendance has ranked in the top three in Great American Conference in attendance in each of the past three seasons, leading the league in 2015 while ranking among the top 45 schools in NCAA Division II during each season.

Collins has guided the Bulldogs to at least 13 victories in five of six seasons coached, including a program-best 22 victories during the record-setting 2015 season. That year, the Bulldogs recorded the first winning season in program history and finished fourth in the GAC with a 10-6 mark. SWOSU entered the GAC Tournament as the No. 3-seed and defeated Northwestern Oklahoma State, Southern Nazarene and Southern Arkansas to claim the program's first-ever GAC Championship. The win also earned the Bulldogs their first-ever trip to the NCAA Division II Tournament, where they met the top-ranked team in the country, Concordia-St. Paul.

SWOSU was led by a trio of All-GAC performers in 2015. Carly Zak was named a First Team All-GAC selection and became the program's first All-Central Region performer when she earned a second team all-region selection by the Division II Conference Commissioners Association (D2CCA). Kayla Hebert was a Second Team All-GAC selection and was named the GAC Tournament's Most Valuable Player, while Kelsi Schmidtberger earned All-GAC honorable mention and was picked to the GAC All-Tournament Team.

While 2012 was his first season as the head volleyball coach, Collins is certainly no newcomer to Southwestern Oklahoma State University. He arrived in Weatherford in 2004 from Clarendon College and he served as an assistant men's basketball coach under Scott Reed in 2004-05 and later with current athletic director and former basketball coach Todd Thurman during the 2006-07 season.

Starting in 2005, Collins worked as a dual assistant for SWOSU, assisting with basketball while also helping Pagliasotti start the volleyball program. He served as an assistant volleyball coach for seven seasons before taking over prior to the 2012 season.

Collins, a native of Hedley, Texas, holds two degrees from Southwestern Oklahoma State University. He earned his bachelor's degree in 2006 before completing his master's degree in Sports Management in 2008. He and his wife, Jamie, were married in June 2012 and reside in Weatherford with their daughter, Indie Pearl, who was born in December 2017.
