GAME PREVIEW

- SWOSU makes its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2005 as head coach Terry Evans returns to the big dance for the eighth trip of his career, but first as a Bulldog
- The Bulldogs got hot at the right time, making a cinderella run in the GAC Tournament to clinch an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament as the No. 8 seed
- The appearance in the national tournament is historic, but SWOSU still has aspirations of continuing to win and keep its season alive -- and doing so will be no easy task with nationally ranked #6/8 and host school Augustana paired against the Dawgs
- Augustana clinched the regular season NSIC championship with a conference record of 17-2 (and overall 24-3) before being upset in the conference tournament semifinals by MSU Moorhead 69-53
- These two teams have only met once in program histories, back in 2016 when Augie defeated SWOSU in Weatherford 81-57 to start the season
- Damion Thornton, a First Team All-GAC selection & SWOSU's all-time leading D2 scorer, was most recently named GAC Tournament MVP alongside Kamden Gipson who also made the all-tournament team

SWOSU NOTES

- Junior Guard Kamden Gipson enters the Central Region Quarterfinal against Augustana needing two points to achieve 1,000 in his career. He averages a team second best 11.3 ppg
- Damion Thornton (18.5 ppg) is SWOSU's constant and has been all season. He plays nearly 34 minutes per game and ranked second in scoring, sixth in rebounding, and fifth in steals around the GAC this year
- Thornton is a two-time conference player of the week this season and a First Team All-GAC and All-GAC Tournament Team selection
- SWOSU played better away from their home court this year than on it, finishing 4-7 inside the Pioneer Cellular Event Center in Weatherford compared to 10-9 when combining neutral sites and road games.
- The Dawgs are currently on a three-game winning streak thanks to their postseason tournament run. It is their second longest win streak of the season behind a four-game stretch they pieced together back in January -- three of which wins came on the road
- SWOSU is 11-2 this season when shooting above 35% from beyond the arc and 3-14 when finishing under that mark
- The above stat starts and ends with team leaders Jaylan Williams (57 makes) and Kamden Gipson (56 makes) -- who account for 44% of SWOSU's three-point makes this season
- SWOSU became the first school in the Great American Conference to have its men and women's basketball team win the conference tournament in 2022
- In wins this season, SWOSU holds opponents to 67.5 points on average and during the GAC Tournament -- held opponents to 58.7 points

Terry Evans was named the Head Men's Basketball Coach at SWOSU in March 2018 and he enters his fourth season leading the Bulldogs in 2019-20.

Evans, a veteran of coaching in the state of Oklahoma, brings 25 years of coaching experience – including 22 years as a head coach – to SWOSU, most recently as the head coach at Edmond North High School for the last three seasons. He led Edmond North to the OSSAA Class 6A State Championship in 2017 with a 27-2 record after finishing 27-1 with a state final appearance in 2016.

Before returning to the high school level, Evans had a very successful tenure at Central Oklahoma that spanned 13 seasons (2002-15) and saw him leave as the winningest coach in school history with a record of 263-124. He averaged better than 20 wins per season at UCO with eight 20-win seasons and the winningest season in program history when he led the Bronchos to a 30-4 record during the 2010-11 season.

During his time at UCO, Evans led the Bronchos to seven NCAA Division II National Tournament Appearances – including the Elite Eight in 2007-08 – and five Lone Star Conference North Division Championships. For his efforts, he was rewarded with five LSC North Division Coach of the Year awards and he was named the South Central Region Coach of the Year in 2007-08.

Evans went to UCO after serving as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of Oklahoma in 2001-02 when the Sooners went 31-5, won the Big 12 Conference Tournament and made their first Final Four appearance since 1988. He started his coaching career as an assistant at TCU in 1994 before coaching stints at Edmond Santa Fe High School and Chickasha High School.

From 1997-01, Evans was highly successful as the head coach at Midwest City High School, leading the Bombers to a phenomenal 100-11 record and three Class 6A State Championships in just four years. His first team was 25-3 and won the state crown in 1997-98 before falling in the state semifinals with a 23-4 record the following year. Evans led Midwest City to back-to-back 26-2 seasons and consecutive state titles in his final two years before moving on to OU.

As a player, Evans also experienced great success, winning three State Championships at Millwood High School before moving on to play at the University of Oklahoma from 1988-93. A four-year starter for the Sooners and a three-time Academic All-Big Eight selection, Evans finished his career as OU's career leader in 3-pointers (259), 3-point attempts (698) and assists (658).
