Scott Libby enters his 10th year of coaching softball at Texas A&M International University after being hired as the third head coach in program history in 2009.

Since arriving in Laredo, Libby has led the Dustdevils to Heartland Conference tournament nine straight years as well as a tournament title and trip to the NCAA Division II South Central Regional in 2011.

Libby enters the 2018 season with an overall record of 210-293. The Covina, Calif. native registered his 100th career victory on April 20, 2012 in a 2-1 victory over UT Permian Basin. His 200th career win came on March 24 ,2017 in a 2-1 victory over Oklahoma Christian in Laredo.

The Dustdevils finished 2017 with a record of 19-35 overall and 12-9 in conference play qualifying for the Heartland tournament for the ninth-straight season. Junior pitcher Delainy Thompson earned 1st team all-conference accolades after breaking program records in ERA, shutouts and complete games.

2016 was another successful season for the Dustdevils made a deep run into the Heartland tournament including a win over nationally-ranked St. Mary's. Krystal De La Cruz earned 2nd team all-conference recognition as TAMIU finished 24-35 overall and 10-14 in conference.

Libby led the Dustdevils to a program-best 16 Heartland wins in 2015 finishing third in the regular season standings. They would finish 25-25 overall for their first season over .500 for the first time since 2011.

2011 was arguably one of the best seasons in TAMIU history as the Dustdevils won the Heartland tournament earning a spot in the NCAA Division II Regionals for the first time in program history. They finished the season with a program-best 32 wins as Victoria Beltran was named the conference player of the year after hitting .381 with 11 doubles, one triple and 12 home runs driving in 42 runs.

Libby earned Heartland Conference co-Coach of the Year honors in 2010 after leading the Dustdevils to a deep run in the Heartland tournament. TAMIU came within one game of playing for a league title, after finishing with a 14-7 conference record during the regular season. That mark was a three and a half game improvement from a 14-14 Heartland Conference record in 2009.

31 student-athletes have earned All-Heartland Conference honors under coach Libby's guidance. He has coached 11 1st team performers including Beltran who is the only two-time selection in program history. He also coached Brenda Parnin and Chelsea Capello to conference Freshman of the Year honors in back-to-back seasons.

The Dustdevils have also excelled in the classroom under Libby as Kristen LaBuhn and Alexis Gonzalez were both named NFCA Academic All-Americans during their playing careers. 15 other student-athletes have also earned Heartland President Honor Roll recognition as of the fall of 2017.

Before taking the helm of the Dustdevil program, Libby served as head softball coach at William H. Taft High School in San Antonio for 11 years. He compiled a 241-90 record during his tenure, leading the Lady Raiders to five district championships, four regional final appearances and two state semifinalist runs. Libby was named Greater San Antonio Area Coach of The Year in 1998 after leading the Lady Raiders to the first of the five District 28-5A titles.

A total of 15 student-athletes went on to play college softball during Libby's tenure at Taft, including one at the NCAA Division I level. Nicole Lozano earned Greater San Antonio Player of the Year honors playing for Libby in 1998. Four of his student-athletes earned Texas Girls Association 1st team All-State honors and three earned TGCA 1st team Academic All-State honors.

Prior to his strong run at Taft, Libby served as an assistant coach at Oliver Wendell Holmes High School during the 1996-97 season, helping lead the team to the state semifinals.

Libby got his start coaching girls' softball in the Northwest Softball League, where he would coach the Genesis team from 1996-99.

Libby played and coached softball while serving in the United States Air Force from 1976-83. He played for current University of Tennessee coach Ralph Weekly on the Air Force Hawaii team from 1979-82. During that stint, Libby concurrently served as coach of the Security Police Squadron men's team at Wheeler Air Base.

After separating from active duty, Libby would coach various men's travel teams while serving as an Air Force civilian employee at Beale Air Force Base in California. He would later play and co-coach on the Air Force Spain team in the early 1990s.

Libby holds a bachelor's in language arts from the University of Texas at San Antonio. He put that degree to good use as an English teacher at Holmes and Taft High Schools.

Libby has an adult daughter, Eryn and stepson, Joshua.

AREK ZAMBANINI

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

8TH SEASON

TEXAS A&M INTERNATIONAL, '08

Arek Zambanini enters his eighth season at Texas A&M International University and fifth as an associate head coach. He is in charge of the infielders and recruiting while assisting in hitting.

He has been instrumental in helping the Dustdevils make nine straight Heartland Conference tournament appearances. 10 student-athletes have earned 1st team all-conference recognition under his tutelage with an additional 14 earning 2nd team honors.

Prior to joining the softball program, Zambanini served for two years as an assistant coach with the TAMIU baseball program where he helped current baseball coach Ryan Flynn and Zeke Sosa earn all-conference honors. He was also instrumental in helping Ray Alvarez and Luis Bracero earn all-conference recognition the following year. He also gained valuable coaching experience in the summer of 2008, serving as an assistant coach in the AAABA summer baseball league.

Before he began his coaching career, he played in the outfield for two years at TAMIU starting with the Dustdevils inaugural team in 2007. His 20 stolen bases are the fifth-most in program history.

A native of Hollisople, Pennsylvania, Zambanini was a standout baseball and football player for Conemaugh Township High School. His performance on the diamond earned him a spot on the first team All-Conference and All-County teams his junior and senior years. As a senior he helped lead the Indians to an appearance in the state quarterfinals.

After high school, he attended Indiana University Pennsylvania where he redshirted for one season, before transferring to Allegany College of Maryland. During his two years with the Trojans, he compiled an impressive resume including a .352 batting average in 337 at-bats, 113 hits, 74 RBI and 28 stolen bases. In his sophomore year, he helped lead the team to an appearance in the Junior College World Series.

Zambanini received his bachelor's degree from TAMIU in fitness and sports in 2008. Zambanini currently resides in Laredo with his wife Mayra Zambanini and two children, Arian and Alahna.
