AGGIES, WILDCATS BATTLE IN HOUSTON

Texas A&M and Northwestern will meet for the first time in the 2011 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 31, 2011 in Reliant Stadium in Houston.

The Aggies have never faced Northwestern previously, but A&M does have a history against Big Ten schools in bowl games. A&M is 1-4 in previous Big Ten bowl matchups. A&M's lone win over a Big Ten school in a bowl was a 22-20 win over Michigan in the 1995 Alamo Bowl. A&M fell to Ohio State in the 1987 Cotton Bowl (28-12) and 1999 Sugar Bowl (24-14), and Penn State in the 1999 (24-0) and 2007 Alamo Bowls (24-17).

The bowl invitation is the 33rd all-time for Texas A&M, which has now made a bowl appearance in each of the last three seasons after going to the AT&T Cotton Bowl a year ago and the AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl following the 2009 campaign.

It also marks the third postseason trip for the Aggies to the city of Houston, where they also played in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl and the 2001 Galleryfurniture.com Bowl, both at the Astrodome.

Texas A&M (6-6, 4-5 Big 12) will be searching for its first bowl victory since its last visit to Houston when the Aggies defeated TCU 28-9 in the 2001 Galleryfurniture.com Bowl.

MILESTONES WATCH ...

- PK RANDY BULLOCK is one point from matching the second-oldest record in the Aggies' record book: JOEL HUNT's single season scoring record of 128 points in 1927. Bullock is already the career points leader with 350.
- BULLOCK is one FG from matching KYLE BRYANT's school record of 60 that he set from 1994-97. His current career FG percentage of 77.6 percent is on pace break TODD PEGRAM's school mark of 74.4 from 2002-05.
- WR RYAN SWOPE is one receiving TD away from JEFF FULLER's season record of 12 from 2010. Swope is already the single season record-holder for catches (81) and receiving yards (1,102).
- SWOPE is tied at No. 2 on career catches list (172) with TERRENCE MURPHY. Murphy entered 2011 as the school record holder but Jeff Fuller passed Murphy in game two of the season.
- Former Katy HS teammates TRENT HUNTER and TERRENCE FREDERICK are seeking milestones: Hunter needs five tackles to hit 300 for his career, while T-Fred needs a pass broken up to hit 30 career PBUs. Frederick's next PBU will be his 13th of 2011, which would put him in a tie for No. 3 on A&M's season list.
- DUSTIN HARRIS enters the bowl game averaging 20.1 yards per punt return, which is on pace to break AARON GLENN's school standard of 19.9 set in 1993.
- Already the school record holder, Jeff Fuller needs 27 yards to hit 3,000 career receiving yards.
- Gray needs to 77 yards to reach 6,500 career all-purpose yards, which has been done by just 22 NCAA FBS players in history. His 6,423 yards are already a school record.
- QB RYAN TANNEHILL has 491 pass attempts in 2011, which is just six away from JERROD JOHNSON's 2009 record of 497 and nine away from 500. He already owns the Aggies' completions record (300).
- Tannehill is 164 passing yards and two TDs from matching Johnson's season records of 3,579 and 30 from 2009.
- Tannehill will end his career as the most accurate passer in school history. He enters the bowl game with a career mark of 62.3 percent, which is on pace to break the record of 59.5 percent by STEPHEN MCGEE from 2005-08.
- Tannehill is 289 yards away from 4,000 total offense yards in 2011. He trails only Jerrod Johnson's school record of 4,085 from 2009.

RECORD-SETTING BULLOCK GOING OLD SCHOOL

Going into the bowl game, record-setting placekicker Randy Bullock is within range of the second-oldest record in the Aggies' record book. With 127 points in 2011, Bullock is just one point away from Joel Hunt's 128 points scored in 1927.

Other notable events from 1927:

- Charles Lindbergh flew the Spirit of St. Louis from New York City to Paris, as the first transatlantic flight.
- Work on the sculpture of the four U.S. Presidents on Mount Rushmore began.
- Calvin Coolidge was in his second term as the U.S. President.
- Al Jolson's The Jazz Singer was the top grossing film.
- The Harlem Globetrotters played their first game in Hinckley, Illinois.
- Babe Ruth hit his record-setting 60th home run of the 1927 season on Sept. 30.

BIG PLAY SPECIALIST HARRIS SEEKS RECORD

Junior Dustin Harris was named Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week on Monday after reeling off a 72-yard TD punt return and breaking the school record with 162 yards on three returns against Kansas. His 72-yard TD burst tied for the seventh longest in school history, and was his second career punt return score (he also had a 54-yarder vs. Louisiana Tech in 2010).

His current 20.5 punt return average would lead the nation if he had the requisite 1.2 returns per game (he has 1.16 per game), and is on pace to break Aaron Glenn's school standard of 19.9 from 1993.

PRO DADS

The 2011 Texas A&M football roster has a trio of players with fathers who were accomplished professionals in the NFL or NBA.

JEFF AND JEFF FULLER

Senior wide receiver Jeff Fuller's father, Jeff Sr., was a standout defensive back for the Aggies from 1980-83 and then the San Francisco 49ers from 1984-88.

BRUCE AND JAKE MATTHEWS

Sophomore offensive lineman Jake Matthews' father, Bruce, was a perennial All-Pro offensive lineman for the Houston Oilers and Tennessee Titans, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007. The elder Matthews currently coaches Jake's older brother, Kevin, with the Tennessee Titans. Kevin Matthews was the Aggies' starter at center in 2008 and 2009.

ED AND SPENCER NEALY

Junior defensive lineman Spencer Nealy's dad, Ed, was an All-Big Eight forward at Kansas State and played 10 seasons in the NBA, including with the 1992-93 Chicago Bulls that won the NBA title.

SIBLING RIVALRY

The 2011 Texas A&M football roster has several brother tandems:

DT Ben Bass / DB Justin Bass
Plano, Texas (West HS)

OG Evan Eike / QB Aaron Eike
Bryan, Texas (Bryan HS)

OT Luke Joeckel / QB Matt Joeckel
Arlington, Texas (Arlington HS)

WR Ryan Swope / DB Louie Swope
Austin, Texas (Westlake HS)

TRENDS AND NOTABLES

- The Texas A&M offensive front allowed just eight regular season QB sacks and hasn't had a holding penalty since game two of 2011.
- RB Cyrus Gray has surpassed 1,000 rushing yards for the second straight year. He is the third Aggie to post back-to-back 1,000 yard season, joining Greg Hill in 1991-92 and George Woodard in 1976-77. He is the fourth Aggies to have multiple 1,000-yard seasons in his career (Hill, Darren Lewis and Woodard).
- Gray has moved to No. 3 on A&M's career rushing chart with 3,298 yards. He passed Greg Hill (3,262 from 1992-94) and trails only Darren Lewis (5,012 from 1987-90) and Curtis Dickey (3,703 from 1976-79)
- Gray is one of four Aggie RBs with multiple 200-yard rushing games. The others are Darren Lewis (4), Bob Smith (2) and Curtis Dickey (2).
- WR Ryan Swope broke the season school records of 72 catches (by Swope and Jeff Fuller in 2010) and 1,066 receiving yards (by Fuller in 2010). He enters the bowl game with 81 catches for 1,102 yards and 11 TDs (No. 2 in school history behind Fuller's 12 in 2010).
- The Aggies didn't have to punt in two games in 2011 -- in blowouts of Baylor (55-28) and Kansas (61-7)
- The Aggies have scored 55-of-58 times in the red zone (inside 20) with 40 touchdowns/15 field goals. A&M's 95.0 percent success rate leads the Big 12 Conference and ranks No. 3 nationally.
- Opponents have 30 QB sacks/QB hurries vs. Aggies...Wrecking Crew has 77 QBS/QBH
- Texas A&M ranks No. 4 nationally in first downs per game with a 26.9 average.

BREAKING UP ISN'T HARD TO DO FOR T-FRED

Senior Terrence Frederick ranks among an elite group of Aggie cornerbacks in season and career pass breakups.

OFFENSE IN TOP 25 IN RUSH/PASS/TOTAL/SCORE

Texas A&M is one of a handful of teams in the NCAA FBS with an offense that ranks in the top 25 in rushing, passing, total and scoring offense.

Top 25 in NCAA Statistics

Rushing Offense	No. 21	209.1
Passing Offense	No. 18	287.9
Total Offense	No. 7	497.0
Scoring Offense	No. 11	39.6

OFFENSE ON A RECORD TOTAL/PASSING/SCORING PACE

Led by host of offensive weapons and a youthful but talented offensive line, the 2011 edition of Texas A&M offense is on pace to shatter the school records for total offense, passing yards and scoring.

Chasing History

Category	2011	Record, Year
Passing Offense	287.9	281.6, 2009
Total Offense	497.0	471.1, 1990
Scoring Offense	39.6	36.7, 1993

PROTECTING THE PASSER

The Texas A&M offensive front is one of the best in the nation at protecting the quarterback. The Aggie O-line has allowed just eight sacks while proving protection on 497 pass attempts. A&M's average of 0.67 QB sacks ranked No. 1 nationally.

They've done it without a senior in the starting lineup, and while commiting just two holding penalties all season.

Did you know?

Texas A&M is one of just seven teams without a senior starter on the offensive line. The others are Arizona, Georgia Tech, Stanford, Tennessee, UNLV and USC.

TEXAS A&M TO JOIN SEC

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. --- The Southeastern Conference Presidents and Chancellors, acting unanimously, announced Sept. 25th that Texas A&M will join the SEC effective July 1, 2012, with competition to begin in all sports for the 2012-13 academic year.

The addition of Texas A&M will increase the SEC membership to 13 institutions. It is the first expansion for the SEC since September of 1991 when the University of South Carolina joined the league. The University of Arkansas joined the SEC in August of 1991. With the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina, the SEC was the first conference to split into divisions and add a conference championship game in 1992.

"The Southeastern Conference Presidents and Chancellors are pleased to welcome Texas A&M University to the SEC family," said Dr. Bernie Machen, chair of the SEC Presidents and Chancellors and president of the University of Florida. "The addition of Texas A&M University as the SEC's 13th member gives our league a prestigious academic institution with a strong athletic tradition and a culture similar to our current institutions."

"The Southeastern Conference provides Texas A&M the national visibility that our great university and our student-athletes deserve," said Texas A&M University President R. Bowen Loftin. "We are excited to begin competition in the nation's premier athletic conference. This is a 100-year decision that we have addressed carefully and methodically, and I believe the Southeastern Conference gives the Aggies the best situation of any conference in the country."

Texas A&M , located in College Station, will also be the third institution in the Southeastern Conference to hold membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities, joining Florida and Vanderbilt. Texas A&M has an enrollment of 50,000 students, ranking as the sixth-largest university in the country, with 360,000 former students worldwide.

Texas A&M also adds to the athletic excellence of the SEC. Last season, the Aggies won three NCAA team titles (men's and women's outdoor track and field, and women's basketball) and finished eighth in the prestigious Learfield Sports Director's Cup all-sport rankings.

"On behalf of our presidents, chancellors, athletics directors, students and fans, I welcome Texas A&M University to the SEC family," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "Texas A&M is a nationally-prominent institution on and off the field and a great fit for the SEC tradition of excellence-athletically, academically and culturally."

The Aggies sponsor 20 varsity sports. Men's sports include baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and cross country. Women's sports include basketball, equestrian, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and cross country and volleyball. Texas A&M participates in every sport sponsored by the SEC except gymnastics and the SEC sponsors every sport the Aggies participate in except equestrian.

PORTER STEPS UP FOR WRECKING CREW

On a team seeking to replace the big-play capabilities of departed All-American Von Miller, junior SEAN PORTER has been impressive from the outside linebacker spot opposite of Miller's old "Joker" position. Porter leads the team with 8.5 sacks and 16 tackles for loss, and ranks second in total tackles. A first-team All-Big 12 pick by the AP, Porter leads the Big 12 in sacks and third in TFLs per game.

Being asked to get to the quarterback is new for Porter, who entered 2011 with just 1.5 QB sacks in his previous two seasons (15 starts in 26 games).

BULLOCK SHOWS OFF POWER BOOST

Senior placekicker RANDY BULLOCK's hard work last summer has resulted in more distance on his kickoffs. Currently the most accurate kicker in school history with a career success rate of 77.6 percent on field goal attempts, Bullock had registered only 27 touchbacks in 192 career kickoffs (14.1 percent) prior to this season. In 2011, Bullock has 32 touchbacks on 89 kickoffs (36.0 percent), and is averaging 65.7 yards per kickoff (nearly four-yard improvement from 2010). During fall camp, Bullock referenced the key to his improvement: "The biggest thing is I'm not having to play catch-up," Bullock said. "Last year I had been sick all summer. This year I came in healthy after working all summer and I'm ready to go."

CHART CHASER BULLOCK

2011 consensus All-America placekicker and Lou Groza Award winner RANDY BULLOCK has already set school records for season field goals, career scoring, season and career extra points, and he's on pace to break A&M records for season points and career percentage. VERSATILE RYAN TANNEHILL

No Football Bowl Subdivision player ever can match senior quarterback RYAN TANNEHILL's versatility résumé. Research has shown that Tannehill is the only player in NCAA FBS history with a 400-yard passing game and a 200-yard receiving game to his credit. Tannehill is also the only FBS player to surpass 4,000 passing yards and 1,500 receiving yards in his career. The Big Spring High School product had his 200-yard receiving day against Kansas State as a freshman, and posted his 400-yard passing game in his starting debut last season against Texas Tech (ironically, his father's alma mater). In addition, Tannehill remains the Aggies' holder on placekicks and has three career punts to his credit.

2011 Update: Tannehill is challenging a variety of school passing records while completing 300-of-491 passes for 3,415 yards and 28 TDs. Posted 300-yard passing games against Idaho, Oklahoma State, Missouri and Oklahoma, and a 400-yard game against Baylor. Named Walter Camp National Player of the Week and Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Week for his six-TD, 415-yard passing effort vs. Baylor. Named a finalist for the Unitas Award and a semifinalist for "The O'Brien" … received a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and was named a finalist for the 2011 William v. Campbell Trophy, which is given annually to the absolute best scholar-athlete in the nation.

Tannehill's Impressive Résumé

RECORD-SETTING FULLER

When JEFF FULLER announced that he would forgo the 2011 NFL Draft and stay at A&M for his senior season, it ensured that there would be a new name at the top of every career receiving at the school.

2011 Update: Has battled injuries this season, but has remained a high-level contributor with 63 catches for 6709 yards and five TDs in 2011 (No. 2 on team in all three categories) ... had first 100-yard receiving game of season vs. Texas in regular season finale (7-107)

Fuller's Résumé

- Named to "watch lists" for Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, the Maxwell Award, the Biletnikoff Award and the Pony Express Award.
- Has caught at least one pass in every game of his career (45 straight).
- School record holder with 33 career TD catches.
- School record holder with 226 career catches.
- School record holder with 2,973 career receiving yards.
- Became Texas A&M's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2010.
- Owns two of the top three single season receiving touchdowns efforts in school history.
- Set the season catches record (tie with Ryan Swope) with 72 catches in 2010 (since broken).

SUMLIN HIRED AT TEXAS A&M

One of the nation's brightest and most innovative coaches, Kevin Sumlin was named head football coach at Texas A&M on Dec. 10, 2011, and will lead the Aggies into the Southeastern Conference in 2012.

Sumlin comes to Texas A&M after a successful stint as head coach at the University of Houston, where he led the Cougars to a school-record 12 victories and the program's highest finish in the Bowl Championship Series standings in 2011. Sumlin was named the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association in 2011 and is one of five finalists for the AFCA's National Coach of the Year award.

During his time at UH, Sumlin posted a 35-17 overall record and led the Cougars to three bowl games. Sumlin led the Cougars to berths in the 2011 Ticket Center Bowl and the 2008 and 2009 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowls.

His final season in Houston was one of the finest in the history of the Cougar football program. Sumlin's Cougars raced through the regular season with a perfect 12-0 record before falling in the Conference-USA Championship to Southern Miss. Going into the bowl season, the Cougars lead the nation in passing, total and scoring offense and feature the nation's leader in passing and total offense, quarterback Case Keenum.

His lone UH squad to not reach a bowl game was in 2010. The Cougars entered the season with high expectations but injuries to their top two quarterbacks, including Keenum, contributed to a 5-7 campaign.

In 2009, Sumlin was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award after leading the Cougars to a 10-4 record, which included wins over No. 5-ranked Oklahoma State in Stillwater, Okla., and BCS conference teams Texas Tech and Mississippi State. Statistically, the University of Houston led the nation in passing offense (433.7), total offense (563.4) and scoring offense (42.2). Houston also became just the third team in NCAA history to post a 5,000-yard passer and three 1,000-yard receivers in one season, and the 1,000-yard receiving trio marked just the fourth time the feat had been accomplished in NCAA history.

Taking over the reins of the UH program in December 2007, Sumlin guided the Cougars to an 8-5 record in 2008 and became the first UH coach in 28 years to lead his team to a bowl victory, as Houston topped Air Force 34-28 in the Armed Forces Bowl. When hired at UH, he became the first African-American head football coach at a NCAA Division I school in the state of Texas. He was one of only 10 first-year Football Bowl Subdivision coaches to guide his team to a bowl game and one of only six to win the bowl contest.

Sumlin came to Houston after seven seasons as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator in the Big 12 conference. Sumlin spent five seasons at the University of Oklahoma under head coach Bob Stoops, where he served as both the co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (2006-07) and special teams coordinator/tight ends coach (2003-05).

Before his arrival in Norman, Sumlin spent two seasons at Texas A&M under head coach R.C. Slocum, where he served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Aggies (2001-2002).

During his previous stint in Aggieland, Sumlin coached several of the top receivers in school history, including Bethel Johnson, Terrence Murphy and Jamaar Taylor who still rank in the top 10 in career catches and receiving yards.

Early in the 2002 season, Slocum promoted Sumlin to offensive playcaller after the Aggie offense struggled in the first three games of the season. With Sumlin calling the plays, the Aggie offense flourished, averaging 33.0 points and 419 yards per game for the remainder of the season after posting just 16.0 points and 286 yards per game previously. A highlight of the season including a 30-26 win over top-ranked Oklahoma with the Aggies gaining 404 total yards to key the victory.

His coaching career has seen stops at his alma mater, Purdue (1998-2001), Minnesota (1993-97) and Wyoming (1991-92).

Purdue's 1998 receivers set school records with 377 receptions for 4,208 yards and 43 touchdowns. The Boilermakers' Chris Daniels set a Big Ten record with 121 catches and recorded another Big Ten record with 21 receptions in one game.

In addition to Stoops and Slocum, Sumlin served as an assistant coach under Joe Tiller at Purdue and Wyoming, Jim Wacker at Minnesota, Glen Mason at Minnesota and Mike Price at Washington State.

Sumlin has coached in 11 bowl games, including all four BCS games. In addition to his two bowl games at UH, Sumlin has participated in the 2008 Fiesta, 2007 Fiesta, 2005 Holiday, 2005 Orange, 2004 Sugar at Oklahoma, the 2002 GalleryFurniture.com at A&M, and the 2002 Rose, 2000 Outback, 1998 Alamo at Purdue.

A four-year letterman as a linebacker at Purdue from 1983-86 , Sumlin finished his career as one of the top tacklers in Boilermaker history. He was named to Sports Illustrated's All-America walk-on list as a freshman after leading Purdue with 91 tackles.

He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior while ranking fifth in the league with 114 tackles, and helped lead Purdue to the Peach Bowl.

The Indianapolis native graduated from Purdue in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in both criminology and criminal justice. Sumlin and his wife Charlene have four children: daughters Courtney and Shelby, and sons Jackson and Joey.

SWOPE'S SHORT GAME SETS TABLE FOR AGGIES

Lining up all over the field, slot receiver RYAN SWOPE is MR. INSIDE to JEFF FULLER'S MR. OUTSIDE. Swope keeps the Aggie offense humming with his repertoire of bubble screens, sweeps and over-the-middle catches, along with his defense-stretching speed (he's regarded as the fastest receiver on the team).

2011 Update: Broke the season record for catches and receiving yards in a season last week. Is one TD catch from matching season TD record. Named Big 12 Player of the Week by Rivals.com after posting his first career 200-yard game with 206 yards against Baylor. His four TD catches were a school record. Had 100-yard games vs. SMU (8-109), Oklahoma State (7-105), Oklahoma (8-149) and Kansas (9-137) … Second-team All-Big 12 honors in 2011.

Swope's Résumé

- Named to "watch list" for the Biletnikoff Award.
- Broke A&M's record for season catches and yards in 2011.
- Opened 2010 season with a 13-catch, 106-yard performance against Stephen F. Austin, which tied for the second-most in school history behind Albert Connell's record 18 catches from 1996 vs. Colorado.
- Has eight career 100 yard receiving games, and one 200-yard game.
- Set school record with four TD catches against Baylor in 2011.
- Had a pair of 68-yard TD catches against Baylor, and career-long 79-yarder against OU in 2011.

GRAY JOINS EXCLUSIVE 3,000, 6,000 YARDS CLUBS

Preseason first-team All-Big 12 RB CYRUS GRAY, a senior from DeSoto, Texas, is the leading returning rusher in the conference after rushing for 1,133 yards in 2010. Always a solid running back, Gray took his game to the next level in 2010. He earned the starting nod at RB over CHRISTINE MICHAEL in game seven, and then Michael suffered a season-ending broken leg in game 8 which forced Gray to shoulder the bulk of the carries for the first time in his career. The transformation was stunning as Gray averaged 134.0 yards in the final seven games of the season after gaining just an average of 32.5 yards in first six games of 2010.

2011 Update: All-purpose yards school record holder continues to churn out the yards and surpassed the 6,000-yard plateau against Missouri. Also passed 3,000-yard level in rushing vs. KSU. Left early in game 11 vs. Kansas with a stress fracture in his shoulder. Missed the Texas game, but will return for the bowl game. Second-team All-Big 12 running back.

Gray's Résumé

- Named to "watch lists" for Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award and the Pony Express Award
- One of five 1,000-yard rushers in the Big 12, and the only one to do it in back to back years. Just the third Aggie to post back to back 1,000-yard seasons.
- Has two 200-yard rushing games in his career.
- A&M's game, season and career leader in KOR yards.
- Gray is A&M's career all purpose yardage leader.

MORE TRENDS AND NOTABLES

- After seven home games, Kyle Field was FILLED TO 105.1 PERCENT CAPACITY, averaging 87,183 fans/game. Kyle Field was one of four stadiums nationally operating at higher than 105.0 percent capacity.
- A&M has EIGHT CONSECUTIVE SELLOUTS, which is a school record. A&M's current streak of sellouts dates back to the 2010 Nebraska game, which set the school record with an attendance of 90,079.
- A&M's home attendance AVERAGE OF 87,183, RANKED NO. 10 nationally and No. 2 in the Big 12 Conference.
- TEXAS A&M'S KYLE FIELD was rated the No. 20 "top venues in sport" by BusinessInsider.com, and was the highest rated college football stadium on the top 100 list. Coach Mike Sherman's old stomping grounds with the Green Bay Packers, Lambeau Field, topped the list.
- THE GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE AT KYLE FIELD was rated best in the country in the Sport Illustrated College Football Preview. Texas A&M's traditions were rated No. 3 by the publication.
- Jeff Fuller spent time last summer working with one of the NFL'S TOP RECEIVERS, LARRY FITZGERALD of the Arizona Cardinals. Aggies remember Fitzgerald's trip to Kyle Field as a Pitt Panther when he torched the A&M secondary for seven catches for 135 yards and two touchdowns in 2003. "I learned tons of things," Fuller said. "He's extremely competitive, tries to beat me into the ground running and conditions wise. A great role model, great person. One of the things he said is 'there is not substitute for work,' which I think is incredibly true. The way he goes out and works every single day and makes the people around him better as well."
- Aggies on the ballot for the College Football Hall of Fame are BARE-FOOT KICKING LEGEND TONY FRANKLIN and the WINNINGEST HEAD COACH IN TEXAS A&M HISTORY, R.C. SLOCUM.

2011 TEXAS A&M COACHING STAFF

KEVIN SUMLIN

HEAD COACH
HIRED ON DEC. 12, 2011
PURDUE, 1988

Kevin Sumlin, one of the brightest and most energetic coaches in the country, has been named the Texas A&M head football coach, Aggie Director of Athletics Bill Byrne announced Saturday, December 10, 2011.

"It is with great pride that we announce Kevin Sumlin has accepted an offer to become the next head football coach at Texas A&M University," Byrne stated. "We began this search process a little over a week ago and spoke to many worthy and qualified candidates, but my decision, which was made in consultation with (Texas A&M) President (R. Bowen) Loftin, kept leading me to Kevin. We met this morning to finalize the offer. I believe he is the right person to lead our football program into the Southeastern Conference. First of all, Kevin is a terrific person. He is also one heck of a recruiter and he will put together a great staff."

Sumlin led the Houston Cougars to a school-record 12 wins in 2011 and the program's highest finish in the Bowl Championship Series rankings. He was recently named the 2011 Region 5 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and is a finalist for the National Coach of the Years honors as well. The Cougars led the nation in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense this season, marking the second time in four years to accomplish that feat under Sumlin's direction.

"I am very excited about the opportunity to serve as the head football coach at Texas A&M University," Sumlin said. "Having coached there before, I understand the culture and embrace the commitment by the 12th Man regarding Aggie football. Aggieland is a special place and I look forward to working with the young men in the football program and recruiting the type of players we need to be successful in the SEC."

"With that being said," Sumlin continued. "I can't thank the University of Houston enough for giving me a chance to become a head football coach. It is tough to leave a group of players who have worked so hard and have done things the right way in taking Cougar football to greater heights."

Overall, Sumlin is 35-17 at UH and for the third time in four years has the Cougars headed to a bowl game. In 2008, Sumlin's first year as a collegiate head coach, he led UH to an 8-5 mark and a victory over Air Force in the Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth. It marked the school's first bowl victory since 1980.

He was a finalist for the 2009 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year when he led the Cougars to a Conference USA West Division crown and a final record of 10-4.

Despite losing his top two quarterbacks to injuries in the 2010 season, Sumlin led UH to a 5-7 mark just missing a bowl appearance.

Sumlin went to Houston from the University of Oklahoma where he served as co-offensive coordinator and special teams coordinator while working with tight ends and wide receivers during his five seasons in Norman. During his time at OU, the Sooners went to five straight bowl games with four of those being BCS appearances.

Sumlin is no stranger to Aggieland having served two seasons on the offensive staff with R.C. Slocum. Sumlin came to A&M in 2001 as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach working with receivers such as Terrence Murphy, Jamaar Taylor, Bethel Johnson, Greg Porter and Mickey Jones. After three games in 2002 with the Aggies averaging just 16 points per game, Sumlin was promoted to offensive coordinator and the Aggies averaged 33 points per game the rest of the season and knocked off the top-ranked Oklahoma Sooners, 30-26, at Kyle Field.

Sumlin was a four-year letterman at Purdue, and also made coaching stops at Purdue, Minnesota, Wyoming and Washington State.

Born in Brewton, Ala., he graduated from high school in Indianapolis, Ind., Sumlin and his wife, Charlene, have four children: daughters Courtney and Shelby, and sons Jackson and Joey.

SUMLIN QUOTEBOARD

"I am really excited that Kevin Sumlin is our next head coach. Kevin's energy and youth will give us a great lift as we enter a new era in the SEC. He already has great Texas ties, and once our Aggie fans get to know Kevin, they are really going to love him. He is a winner."

— Bucky Richardson, former A&M quarterback

"I am excited to hear that Kevin Sumlin is the next head coach at Texas A&M. I like the fact that he has served as an assistant at A&M and I am sure he will embrace our traditions and culture. I am also excited to see my university hire an African-American head coach, which I believe shows that the Aggies are committed to being trendsetters in diversity and equality. I wish Coach Sumlin the best as we move into an exciting new era."

— Jason Glenn, former A&M linebacker & current Houston Chavez High School football coach

"The thing I remember most about Coach Sumlin is the way he carried himself ... always confident, but not cocky. There's an energy and an aura when he walks into a room that says "winner". He's that rare guy who is a player's coach and still has the respect of every player on the roster. I'm really excited that he'll be the one leading the Aggies into the SEC."

— Mark Farris, former A&M quarterback

"Coach Sumlin was a guy who really understood relationships and is a player's coach. He adapted to different guys but knew what needed to be done to get the best out of each player, not just the receivers, but all the guys. He really cares about the players as individuals and that makes you as a player want to give everything you have for him. This is a great decision by Texas A&M."

— Terrence Murphy, former A&M wide receiver

"Change is good. The hiring of Kevin Sumlin is a great opportunity to build on the solid foundation left by Coach Sherman. Hiring the first African-American head football coach at A&M is a momentous occasion. I've watched Coach Sumlin's growth as a coach and witnessed his success throughout his career. I am confident that with his leadership, we will have great success in the SEC."

— Steve Solari, former A&M linebacker

"Kevin Sumlin is very respected in the coaching profession. He is an excellent recruiter, a solid coach with a lot of experience, and a great person. He will do well as head coach of the Aggies."

— R.C. Slocum, former Texas A&M head coach

"Kevin did a great job for us at Oklahoma and obviously did the same at Houston. He's still a close friend to many of us here and we all wish the best for Kevin, Char and the Sumlin family."

— Bob Stoops, Oklahoma head coach

2011 TEXAS A&M COACHING STAFF

TIM DeRUYTER

INTERIM HEAD COACH/DEF. COORDINATOR
SECOND SEASON
20 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
AIR FORCE, 1985

Tim DeRuyter (pronounced da-ROOT-er) enters his second season as the defensive coordinator for the Texas A&M football team. He will serve as the interim head coach for the 2011 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas.

DeRuyter made an immediate impact during his first season in Aggieland as the 2010 squad improved fifty spots in the national rankings for total defense, rising to No. 55 in the country as the resurrected Wrecking Crew helped lead A&M to the Cotton Bowl.

Highlighting a long list of player who excelled under DeRuyter's scheme was Von Miller, who in addition to earning All-American honors was awarded the 2010 Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding linebacker. Miller went on to become the second overall pick in the 2010 NFL draft.

"I like his aggressive, attacking style of defense," Sherman explained. "He has a great history of success and has shown great ability to teach and to lead young men."

DeRuyter served the previous three years as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at the Air Force Academy. DeRuyter added the title of associate head coach in 2008 and 2009 at the Colorado Springs campus. During the 2008 campaign, the Falcon defense finished 11th in the NCAA in total defense allowing 288.31 yards per game. The Air Force pass defense was ranked 5th in the country allowing only 154.31 yards per game while the scoring defense was 10th in the land. The air defense intercepted 20 passes to rank 7th in the country and the overall defense caused 34 total turnovers to ranked 5th in the country. The stingy defense also allowed only 14.62 first downs per game to rank 4th in the NCAA statistics. The Falcon defense was 13th in the NCAA in third-down efficiency allowing teams to convert only 30.86 percent of the time.

"This is a great opportunity for me," DeRuyter explained. "I tried hard to find a chink in the armor in something related to Texas A&M or Coach Sherman, but I could not find it. The football program and coaches, the academics, the community and everything is first class and we are excited to join Coach Sherman's staff."

"As a defensive player at Air Force and being a defensive coach," DeRuyter explained, "I have tried to emulate the 'Wrecking Crew' style that R.C. Slocum had in place at (Texas) A&M. As a defense, we like to dictate to the offense and put them back on their heels. I was fortunate to be coaching at (the University of) Ohio. My old position coach was Chan Gailey who was on the staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers and he introduced me to Dick LeBeau. He was gracious enough to meet with me and to open up his film. He gave a clinic on his attacking style of defense and I was able to go back to the Steelers' training camp on several occasions."

In his most recent bowl game with Air Force, the Falcons defeated Houston, 47-20, while the defense held the nation's top-ranked offensive attack of the Cougars to a season-low 222 yards passing and picked off six passes. Air Force held UH without a touchdown for the first half of the Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth, Texas.

Overall, DeRuyter has served 19 years as a collegiate coach and has worked with teams reaching bowl games six times. He has experience with both the 3-4 and 4-3 defensive schemes while relying on pressure, attack-style philosophies with multiple defensive looks.

DeRuyter's last three stops as defensive coordinator have seen quite an improvement by the respective defenses. The Ohio defense was ranked 99th in the country in 2001 before DeRuyter arrived, and his final season at Ohio (2004) the defensive unit was ranked 22nd in the land. At Nevada, the Wolf Pack defense was ranked 79th in 2004 and DeRuyter's final season (2006) the defense was ranked 48th in the NCAA. At the Air Force Academy, the defense was ranked 78th in the country in 2006 and this past season (2009) the Falcon defense was ranked 11th overall.

Born Jan. 3, 1963 in Long Beach, California, DeRuyter attended St. John Bosco High School in Bellflower and graduated in 1981. DeRuyter was appointed to the Air Force Academy and was a three-year letterman for the Falcon defense as an outside linebacker and helped the squad to three straight bowl victories. He earned a bachelor's degree in management from Air Force in 1985 and received an MBA in market strategy from Regis University in Denver in 1992.

After graduating from the Air Force Academy in 1985, DeRuyter served 7 ½ years of active duty in the Air Force. DeRuyter returned to Colorado Springs from 1991-94 serving as a full-time military coach assisting with the junior varsity squad as well as being a varsity assistant coach.

DeRuyter spent two tours with Ohio University serving as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1995-98 and then again from 2002-04. He served time at the Naval Academy from 1999-2001 as the secondary coach. After his last stop at Ohio, DeRuyter served as the co-defensive coordinator at Nevada from 2005-06. He worked with the safeties and directed the pass defense along with assistant coach Barry Sacks.

TOM ROSSLEY

SENIOR ASSISTANT/QUARTERBACKS · FOURTH SEASON
34 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
CINCINNATI, 1968

Tom Rossley, a longtime NFL assistant and former collegiate head coach, is in his fourth season as the senior assistant and quarterbacks coach at Texas A&M.

"Tom Rossley brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the position of senior assistant and quarterbacks coach," head coach Mike Sherman said upon Rossley's hire. "His experiences in the NFL having worked with two Hall of Fame quarterbacks in Brett Favre and Warren Moon, as well as the recruiting connections he has made in the state having coached at Rice as an assistant, and SMU as both an assistant and head coach, will serve him and us well."

"Tom was running a version of the college "spread offense" years ago as a head coach at SMU and will be relied on heavily to develop our quarterback position, as well as contributing in the creation of our offensive identity," Sherman added. "He is an extremely knowledgeable offensive coach and I welcome adding his experience on our staff."

Rossley most recently was the offensive coordinator with the Green Bay Packers from 2004-06 and served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2000-03.

During his time in Green Bay, Rossley's offenses set a Green Bay record with 2,558 yards on the ground in 2003 while leading the NFL in touchdown passes that same year. The Packer offense scored 442 points in 2003, the second-most in franchise history. In 2004, the Packers set a franchise record with 4,449 yards net passing.

Rossley brings a blend of collegiate and NFL experience. Prior to his tenure at Green Bay (2000-06), Rossley was the quarterbacks coach with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1999 and worked with the Chicago Bears tight ends in 1998 and the wide receivers in 1997.

Rossley's first NFL experience came as the quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons in 1990 and that came after he was the offensive coordinator at SMU for the 1988 and 1989 seasons.

SMU called him back in 1991 to head up the football program as the head coach on the Hilltop from 1991-96. He earned Co-SWC Coach of the Year honors in 1992.

Rossley served as the offensive coordinator at Holy Cross in 1986 and 1987 and followed with the inaugural Arena League as an offensive coach on the Denver Dynamite that won the first Arena Bowl in 1987.

Rossley worked in the USFL as the offensive coordinator for the San Antonio Gunslingers in 1985 and served in the CFL working with running backs and wide receivers for the Montreal Concorde from 1982-84.

From 1978 through the 1981 season, Rossley served as the passing game coordinator for the Rice Owls. He worked the 1977 season at his alma mater, the University of Cincinnati, as the wide receivers coach and prior to that he served as an offensive assistant at Rice in 1976.

Rossley and his wife Kristine have three children, Max, Mick and Kristi.

NORTH CAROLINA, 1993

Randy Jordan, a nine-year NFL running back, is in his fourth season as the running backs coach at Texas A&M.

Last season under Jordan's direction, Cyrus Gray became the first Aggie to surpass the 1,000 yard plateau since the 2003 campaign as he reeled off seven straight 100-yard contests to end the year with 1,133 yards on the ground.

"Randy has tremendous passion and enthusiasm for coaching football and developing relationships with players," head coach Mike Sherman said upon hiring Jordan. "In our conversations, he has demonstrated to me that he can relate well to our players and he is a terrific recruiter. He has experience recruiting the state of Texas."

Jordan, 38, comes to Aggieland from Lincoln where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers since 2004. He tutored the I-backs that played a large role in both rushing and catching the football out of the backfield. This past season he mentored a back who rushed for over 1,000 yards and led the team in receptions.

Jordan's first coaching experience came with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant in 2003.

Jordan played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995. After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons.

In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season. He finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns.

Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He was the special teams captain for the 2002 Oakland Raider squad that reached Super Bowl XXXVII. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. Jordan recorded 64 career tackles on special teams, including a career-best 14 in 1999. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina and head coach Mack Brown from 1989 to 1992. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, North Carolina. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven, and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

CHARLES McMILLIAN

ASST. COACH/DEFENSIVE BACKS · FOURTH SEASON
16 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
UTAH STATE, 1995

Bryan native Charles McMillian is in his fourth season as the defensive backs coach at Texas A&M.

"Charles McMillian is widely recognized as a quality coach and recruiter," head coach Mike Sherman said upon hiring McMillian. "He came to us from Coach Gary Patterson's successful program at TCU. Having spent two different stints at the United States Naval Academy excites me because of the discipline you acquire as a coach at the Academies."

McMillian, a Utah State Aggie, has served as a defensive backs coach for the past 15 seasons on the collegiate level, most recently before A&M on the TCU Horned Frog staff of Gary Patterson from 2004-07 as the cornerbacks coach. He helped the Frogs go to three straight bowl games.

"I am very excited about the chance to work with a great head coach in Mike Sherman," McMillian said. "When you add in the chance to come back home to Bryan-College Station and to work with this tradition-rich football program, I could not be more happy. This is a great school and a great community to raise a family."

McMillian worked with the cornerbacks at the University of Indiana in 2002 and 2003 before going to TCU. He served as the secondary coach at the University of Cincinnati in 2001 helping the Bearcats advance to the Motor City Bowl that season.

Before arriving at Cincinnati, McMillian served his second tour of duty with the United States Naval Academy as the secondary coach for Navy in 2000 helping safety Chris Lepore earn All-America honors. McMillian's first stop at Annapolis began in 1995 and lasted through the 1997 season as a secondary coach for the junior varsity team while assisting the varsity defense and special teams.

In between his time at Navy, McMillian worked two years at Boise State (1998-99) as the secondary coach helping the Broncos beat Louisville in the 1998 Humanitarian Bowl.

McMillian got his start in coaching during the spring of 1995 as a student assistant during spring drills at Utah State while finishing work on his degree in science and liberal arts.

McMillian was an Aggie captain at Utah State for two seasons (1993-94) helping the Aggies win the Big West title and play in the Las Vegas Bowl. He began his collegiate playing career at San Jose City College (1991-92).

McMillian was born in Bryan and played for head coach Merrill Green at Bryan High School. He is married to the former Cydryce Carter and the couple has two daughters, Cherrelle and Mykayla and a son, Isaiah.

DAT NGUYEN

ASST. COACH/INSIDE LINEBACKERS · SECOND SEASON
FOUR YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
TEXAS A&M, 1998

A name familiar to Aggie fans is Dat Nguyen (pronounced WIN), the former Texas A&M All-American linebacker and the 1998 Lombardi and Bednarik Award winner is in his second season as an assistant coach at Texas A&M.

"I am very excited to have Dat Nguyen as a part of our staff coaching the inside linebackers," head coach Mike Sherman said. "The fact that Dat was a great player for the Texas Aggies and the Dallas Cowboys had considerably less to do with his hiring. His intelligence, knowledge and passion for the game are what impressed me most. It was also evident to me while listening to him during the interview that he has played and coached with some of the finest defensive head coaches in the game of football-namely R.C. Slocum, Bill Parcells and Wade Phillips. He evidently has paid attention through the years."

"On a side note," Sherman explained, "I must admit his story on how he got to A&M as a not so highly recruited athlete is one worth repeating. For him to rise his senior year toward being one of the country's best linebackers is a credit to his discipline, focus and determination. To ultimately get drafted by the Dallas Cowboys is just another example of how this Texas high school football player realized his goals through hard work and commitment. He made the most out of his opportunity and should prove to be a valuable lesson to both recruits and players."

Nguyen served for three seasons as an assistant linebackers and defensive quality control coach for the Dallas Cowboys' organization.

"I could not be happier about returning to Aggieland to work on Coach Mike Sherman's staff," Nguyen said. "I am ecstatic about having this opportunity to work with Coach DeRuyter and I am very familiar with the 3-4 scheme. I look forward to working with all of the coaches and staff as well as the outstanding Aggie football players. I have a great passion for teaching and a great passion to help our team win championships."

After earning his degree from Texas A&M in 1998, Nguyen was drafted by the Cowboys in the third round of the 1999 NFL draft and made an immediate impact leading the club in special teams tackles as a rookie and becoming the starting middle linebacker in his second year. As he was at Texas A&M, Nguyen was one of the most popular players in the Cowboys' organization and he played seven years in Dallas before injuries forced him to retire in 2005.

During his time in Aggieland, Nguyen was a consensus All-America linebacker, the Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year and still holds the school career record for tackles (517). He started every game of his Aggie career (51 straight) and is the only Aggie defender to lead the team in tackles for four consecutive years.

NICK TOTH

ASST. COACH/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS · SECOND SEASON
NINE YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
OHIO, 1999

Nick Toth (pronounced TOETH) is entering his second season as Texas A&M's outside linebackers coach. Toth comes to Texas A&M from The Citadel, where he was the Bulldogs defensive backs and special teams coach in 2009.

During just his first season in Aggieland Toth oversaw the development of Von Miller, who captured the prestigious Butkus Award during an All-America campaign in 2010 before going on to become the No. 2 overall pick in the 2010 NFL draft.

"Nick has a history with Coach DeRuyter in the 3-4 scheme, both as a player and as a coach," Sherman said. "His understanding of all the nuances of the outside linebacker position, and how it is to be taught put him over the top and this should facilitate the players in the learning process."

"Nick is a very intelligent, high-energy coach who has benefitted from growing up in a football family as the son of a coach," Sherman explained. "He was most recently a part of Coach Kevin Higgins' staff at The Citadel and played a part in the resurgence of the Bulldog football program in the Southern Conference. Nick has worked his way up through the system and is recognized by many in football circles as a future star in this business."

Toth served as the defensive coordinator at Ashland University in Ohio in 2007 and 2008. He worked with the linebackers as well as with the defensive backfield. Ashland finished 2007 ranked 22nd nationally by the AFCA Coaches Poll and played in the post season for the third time in school history and for the first time in the previous 10 years.

"I am very excited about joining Coach Sherman and the Texas A&M football staff and players," Toth said. "I played for, as well as worked with, Tim DeRuyter at Ohio University and though we have gone in different directions on the coaching front, we have stayed in contact and have the same beliefs in the attacking and aggressive style of the 3-4 schemes. My family and I are looking forward to being a part of a tradition-rich program like the Aggie family."

Toth coached at Mercyhurst College in Erie, Pennsylvania, and Elon University in North Carolina after a stint at Ohio University, his alma mater.

After playing running back and defensive back at Ohio from 1994-99, Toth worked one

JIM TURNER

ASST. COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE · FOURTH SEASON
18 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
BOSTON COLLEGE, 1988

Jim Turner, who brings a diversified background to Texas A&M, is in his fourth season as the Aggies' offensive line coach.

"Jimmy and I share similar philosophies when it comes to the offensive line," head coach Mike Sherman said upon Turner's hire. "When I was at Green Bay, he would come and visit. When I watched tape of his line play, I observed a group of excellent technicians and that comes from coaching."

"As a former Marine Officer, Jimmy will be our conduit to the Corps of Cadets because the Corps is very important to me and our staff here at Texas A&M," Sherman stated. "I can see the discipline, leadership and mental toughness learned from being in the Marines Corps passed along to our football players. I think he is an excellent coach."

Turner worked with the Boston College staff as offensive line coach in 2007. Prior to his stop in Chestnut Hill, he served two years (2005-06) as the offensive line coach at the University of Delaware. In the 2006 season, Turner added the title of assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator for the Fightin' Blue Hens.

In the 2006 season, he helped tackle Mike Byrne earn All-Atlantic 10 honors as the Blue Hens were among the Division I-AA leaders in several offensive categories. The 2005 Delaware offensive line allowed only 13 sacks and Brian Sims earned second-team All-Atlantic 10 honors.

Turner's background includes stops at Temple in 2003-04 as the offensive line coach as well as three years (2000-02) at Cambridge, Massachusetts, as the offensive line and run game coordinator for Harvard. In 2001, the Crimson posted an undefeated 9-0 record and won the Ivy League crown. The 2000 Crimson offense broke 17 school offensive records.

Turner spent one season in Ruston, Louisiana, as the offensive line coach for Louisiana Tech in 1999. The offensive line allowed only 18 sacks in 566 pass attempts. The Bulldogs averaged 37 points a game and averaged 474 yards of total offense.

From 1994 through 1998, Turner coached at Northeastern University in Boston working with the offensive line and tight ends in 1994-95, before switching to running backs and special teams in 1996, and ending his tenure there as the defensive line and special teams coach in 1997 and 1998.

A native of Braintree, Massachusetts, Turner was a three-year letterman and two-year starter for Coach Jack Bicknell at Boston College as a fullback. He played in three bowl games, the Liberty, Cotton and Hall of Fame. His senior season he was named a team captain.

After earning his degree in sociology in 1988 from Boston College, Turner began his coaching career at his high school alma mater of Braintree in 1988. He spent the 1989 season in London, England, as the offensive coordinator of the Kent Rams before serving in the United States Marine Corps as an infantry officer in Europe, the Middle East and Japan from 1990-94.

Turner and his wife, Patricia, have one son, Michael.

TROY WALTERS

ASST. COACH/WIDE RECEIVERS · SECOND SEASON
TWO YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
STANFORD, 1999

Troy Walters is in his second seasons as the wide receivers coach at Texas A&M under head coach Mike Sherman.

During his first season in Aggieland, Walters saw a pair of his receivers capture a new school record as both Jeff Fuller and Ryan Swope pulled down 72 receptions apiece. Fuller, meanwhile, also became the school's first receiver to surpass the 1,000-yard mark with 1,066 yards.

"I coached against Troy when he played for both Minnesota and Indianapolis," Sherman said. "It was common knowledge in the NFL among coaches and personnel people that Troy was special. He was never the biggest or fastest, but he still found a way to contribute to a team's success as evident by his eight successful years of NFL service. His intelligence, character and work ethic were his foundation. Those are the same qualities he brings to the Aggie football program as a coach and recruiter."

An eight-year NFL veteran and the 1999 Biletnikoff Award winner as the country's top receiver, Walters comes to A&M after spending the 2009 season at Indiana State, where he was the offensive coordinator and coached wide receivers and quarterbacks.

"At Indiana State, Troy worked for Trent Miles who worked for me at Green Bay and for whom I have tremendous respect," Sherman explained. "Having spent time in the 'West Coast' offense in his career, Troy definitely will come in with some accrued knowledge of our system which will help him get off to a faster start as he learns our offense."

After setting the Stanford and Pac-10 career record for receptions with 244 receptions for 3,986 yards, Walters was drafted in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. In addition to being a receiver, Walters averaged 23.1 yards per kickoff return and 14.5 per punt return his rookie season and saw action in all 12 games for the Vikings. He took his talents to the Indianapolis Colts in 2002 through the 2005 season helping the Colts reach the playoffs every year. His top season catching the ball was 2003 when he caught 36 balls for 456 yards and three touchdowns. In 2005, he set his own personal best game with eight catches for 91 yards and a touchdown against Seattle on Christmas Eve.

In 2006 he played with the Arizona Cardinals and then finished his NFL career playing one season with the Detroit Lions in 2007. At each stop, his receiving and return skills were utilized. He spent the 2008 season trying to catch on with other NFL clubs.

As a senior at Stanford, Walters won the 1999 Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top wide receiver. He caught 74 balls for 1,456 yards and 10 touchdowns as he earned consensus All-America honors and was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year. He was also Academic All-Pac 10 as well as Academic All-America, earning his degree in communication in 1999 and a masters in sociology in 2000.

2011 TEXAS A&M COACHING STAFF

Walters was a second-team All-Greater Houston selection as a wide receiver for A&M Consolidated High School in College Station, earning third-team All-State honors for the Tigers as a senior.

Walters was born Dec. 15, 1976 in Bloomington, Ind. His father, Trent, was an assistant football coach at Indiana, Louisville, Washington, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame as well as serving as a defensive assistant coach at Texas A&M from 1991 through 1993. His father never lost a conference game while coaching with the Aggies and Texas A&M won three consecutive Southwest Conference Championships while compiling an overall mark of 32-5. Troy Walters served as a ball boy during those years. Trent Walters has also coached in the NFL with stops at Cincinnati, Minnesota and Philadelphia.

TERRELL WILLIAMS

ASST. COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE · SECOND SEASON
13 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
EAST CAROLINA, 1998

Terrell (pronounced ta-RELL) Williams is in his second season as the defensive line coach for the Aggie football team.

"Terrell is a bright, energetic coach with a track record of developing defensive linemen," Coach Sherman said. "In addition to being a terrific recruiter, Terrell is an excellent teacher and has great passion for the game of football. He has experience in multiple defensive fronts and will be a great addition to our coaching staff. He comes highly recommended from people, both in college and the NFL, who I trust and respect. We need our defensive line to play at a high level and I am confident that Terrell can get them there."

Williams served the past four years as the defensive line coach at Purdue. During his time with the Boilermakers, Williams coached the entire line each year with the exception of 2008 when he focused solely on the defensive end position. A native of Los Angeles, Williams is known for being an outstanding recruiter and teacher of the game. He served as Purdue's liaison to the NFL. In 2007, Williams worked with the Seattle Seahawks' defensive line during training camp. During the summer of 1999, Williams interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars, assisting with the defensive line.

"The traditions and the history at a place like Texas A&M are tremendous," Williams said. "In football, you have to bring an attitude and a toughness to the field. I know Texas A&M defenses have had that in the past, and that is what we want to bring to Kyle Field."

Williams was one of 26 coaches invited to participate in the 2008 NCAA Football Coaches Academy, designed to reinforce key aspects of securing, managing and excelling in a head football coaching position within intercollegiate athletics.

During his time at Purdue, Williams tutored the likes of Dallas Cowboy defensive lineman Anthony Spencer. Spencer led the NCAA in tackles for loss and was a first-team All-American before becoming a first-round pick of the Cowboys in 2007. Defensive end Cliff Avril was a third-round selection of the Detroit Lions in 2008 with Alex Magee being selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft.

Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Williams coached the defensive line at Akron in 2004 and 2005. The Zips won the Mid-American Conference championship game in 2005 and played in the Motor City Bowl. Both the league championship and post-season bowl appearance were firsts in the school's history. Williams' nose guard, Kiki Gonzalez, earned MAC All-Conference honors in 2005.

Williams spent two years (2002-03) as the defensive line coach at Youngstown State and helped Guy Mazzard earn All-Gateway Conference honors.

From 1999-2001, Williams served on the Aggie coaching staff at North Carolina A&T working with the defensive line. The Aggies ranked third in total defense among NCAA Division I-AA schools in 1999 allowing 259.4 yards per game and fifth in 2000 with 261.2 yards per game. North Carolina A&T finished 10th in the country in rushing defense in 2001 allowing only 96.7 yards per game. The Aggies were the Black Colleges national champion in 1999 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs while finishing 10th in the final poll.

Williams got his start in coaching working with the defensive line at Fort Scott Community College during the 1998 season.

Williams was born June 19, 1974, in Los Angeles and earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in history from East Carolina in 1998. He was an all-star nose guard for the Pirates and a member of the 1995 team which defeated Stanford in the Liberty Bowl and finished the year ranked #23 in the final USA Today/ESPN poll. The 1996 Pirate club defeated the University of Miami in the Orange Bowl on its way to an 8-3 record under head coach Steve Logan. Williams transferred to East Carolina from West Los Angeles College where he earned all-conference honors as a defensive lineman.

Williams and his wife, the former Tifini Preliou, have a son, Tyson.

DAVE KENNEDY

HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
FOURTH SEASON
29* YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE
NEBRASKA, 1985

Dave Kennedy, considered by many to be one of the top strength coaches in the country, was hired to head up the Texas A&M football strength program on January 3, 2008 by Aggie football coach Mike Sherman.

"Dave comes to A&M with a wealth of experience," Sherman said. "It has always amazed me while in the NFL, how many players who were coached by Dave in college wanted to go train with him no matter where he was. He is a very well respected coach."

"Over his tenure at Ohio State, I know he turned down numerous NFL jobs," Sherman added. "New England head coach Bill Belichick and Scott Pioli (vice president for player personnel for the Patriots) think Dave is the best at what he does, as do I."

"Dave is a great teacher and is passionate at what he does," Sherman stated. "He will challenge our players on a daily basis to be the best they can be."

Kennedy comes to Texas A&M from the University of Nebraska where he served as the head strength coach from 2004 through the 2007 season.

"There are several things that excite me about coming to Texas A&M," Kennedy said. "The opportunity to work with Coach Sherman, the ability to win at a high level, the traditions and a place I feel is great for raising my family."

Kennedy got his start in the strength and conditioning area in 1982 as a student assistant at Nebraska under the direction of strength coach Boyd Epley. Kennedy graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in strength coaching and served as an assistant on the Husker staff from 1986 through 1988.

He was hired as the head strength coach at Ohio State University prior to the 1989 season and stayed in that capacity through 2001. Working with the likes of Eddie George,

Orlando Pace, Joey Galloway, Dan Wilkinson, David Boston, Andy Katzenmoyer, Shawn Springs, Robert Smith and Mike Vrabel, the Buckeye players earned 21 All-America citations while also bringing home honors such as the Biletnikoff, Butkus, Lombardi, Outland, Thorpe and Heisman Trophies. On his watch, 17 Buckeyes went on to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft.

Kennedy spent 13 years at Ohio State and one of his biggest fans is current ESPN analyst Kirk Herbstreit.

"The strength coach position is crucial in this day and time," Herbstreit said. "They get to spend more time with the players than anyone else on the staff. The discipline and dedication needed on the playing field is established in the weight room. Dave is one of the very best and brightest strength coaches in the country."

Kennedy received Ohio State's Admiral's Trophy prior to the 1993 Holiday Bowl. The Admiral's Trophy is voted upon by the players and goes to the person whose dedication, hard work and spirit most inspired the team.

Prior to the 2002 season, Kennedy joined Walt Harris' staff at the University of Pittsburgh where he helped develop wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, a Heisman Trophy runnerup, and the 2003 Walter Camp and Biletnikoff Award.

The Omaha native and his wife Julie have three sons, Ben, Nick and Eric.

TIM CASSIDY

ASSOCIATE A.D./FOOTBALL · 23RD SEASON
30 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE
NEBRASKA-OMAHA, 1981

Tim Cassidy is in his fourth season as associate athletic director for football at Texas A&M under head coach Mike Sherman and his 23rd overall in Aggieland.

"Tim is widely respected across the country as one of the top football administrators," Sherman said upon hiring Cassidy. "He has excellent knowledge and experience in recruiting, and his organizational abilities make him a great addition to our staff. Tim over the years has developed a special relationship with the high school coaches in this state which is very important to me. He also has a great connection with a lot of former players which is equally important."

Cassidy served as the associate athletic director for football at the University of Nebraska from 2004-07. In addition to working with the football staff and assisting in recruiting efforts, Cassidy was a key member of the athletic administration with the Huskers. He coordinated travel, budget and staffing for the football office, assisted with scheduling and oversaw the compliance, strength and conditioning, equipment and academic support units regarding football and he supervised the football support staffs.

Cassidy has 21 years of experience at Texas A&M rising from graduate assistant to recruiting coordinator, to assistant athletic director, to associate athletic director. During his career at Texas A&M, Cassidy has been a part of several championship teams. He was part of the 1985 and 1986 Southwest Conference Champions, the 1991, 1992 and 1993 Southwest Conference Championship squads, as well as the 1997 and 1998 Big 12 South title teams and the 1998 overall Big 12 Champion unit.

With more than 25 years of experience working in collegiate football, Cassidy was instrumental in the planning of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex that houses the Husker football team, coaches' offices, training room, weight room and administrative offices. He also assisted with the planning for the Texas A&M Bright Football Complex and the Nye Academic Center. The Bright Complex houses all of the football areas while the Nye Academic Center is an academic area for all Aggie student-athletes.

This marks Cassidy's third tour of duty with the Aggies. He came to A&M from Morningside College where he was an assistant football coach from 1981-83. He joined Jackie Sherrill's Texas A&M staff as a graduate assistant in recruiting in 1983-84 and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 1985-86. He left A&M in 1987 to serve as the director of recruiting at the University of Florida in 1987 and 1988 before returning to serve on R.C. Slocum's first Aggie staff as recruiting coordinator from 1989-91. He was promoted to assistant athletic director for recruiting in the fall of 1991 and served in that capacity until Bill Byrne arrived at Texas A&M in December of 2002. Byrne and head football coach Dennis Franchione promoted Cassidy to associate athletic director for football for Texas A&M until Cassidy left for Nebraska in January of 2004.

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Cassidy received his bachelors of science degree in physical education and health from Nebraska-Omaha in 1981. He received his master's degree in education from Texas A&M University in 1984.

Cassidy and his wife, Nancy, have two sons Ryan and Austin, and a daughter Danielle. Ryan graduated from Texas A&M in 2008, and Austin is a defensive back for the Husker football team. Nancy has served as a lecturer in accounting both at Texas A&M and Nebraska.

GARY REYNOLDS

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/
RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT · FOURTH SEASON
20 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE
TEXAS A&M, 1988

Gary Reynolds, a longtime NFL veteran who holds two degrees from Texas A&M, is in his fourth season as the director of football operations and research and development under head football coach Mike Sherman.

Reynolds earned his bachelor's degree in industrial distribution in 1988 from Texas A&M and while he completed work on his master's degree in education administration in the spring of 1992, he worked with Tim Cassidy as a graduate assistant in the Aggie football recruiting office.

"It is fun and exciting to be able to come home to Aggieland," Reynolds said upon his hire. "I believe in this school, and I believe in Mike Sherman. Those two reasons are why I wanted to be back at Texas A&M."

Upon receiving his master's degree, Reynolds accepted the assistant recruiting coordinator position at the University of Tennessee in 1992.

In 1993, Reynolds joined the Green Bay Packers organization first as the administrative assistant for football operations from 1993-95. He spent the next three years as the offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Packers from 1996-98.

When Mike Holmgren moved to the Seattle Seahawks he took Reynolds with him. Reynolds served in all areas of the Seahawks' organization working closely with Holmgren as assistant to the general manager from 1999 and 2000 and then as director of football administration in 2001 and 2002 until he assumed the position of offensive assistant and quality control coach for Seattle from 2003-2007.

Gary and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Hannah and Olivia.

ATHLETIC TRAINING AND SPORTS MEDICINE

KARL KAPCHINSKI

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC TRAINING FOR TEXAS A&M
29TH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Karl Kapchinski serves Texas A&M as assistant athletic director in charge of athletic training for 20 sports teams. A former student, A&M class of '79, Kapchinski became the head athletic trainer in 1982. He leads one of the most reputable sports medicine staffs in the country and was selected by his peers to the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

Kapchinski supervises a staff of 10 athletic trainers, a physical therapist and a nutritionist. He represents his department as a member of the senior administrative staff reporting to Dr. John Thornton. Other administrative duties include directing the department's drug testing program, maintaining the operational budget, and managing medical payments, inventory and equipment for all the athletic training facilities. While active as an athletic trainer for all sports, Kapchinski's primary emphasis remains with football.

Kapchinski played an instrumental role in the planning and design of the world-class training rooms in the Bright Football Complex, Little Sports Complex and the Cox-McFerrin Center for Aggie Basketball. The training rooms, which Kapchinski oversees, are considered to be some of the top training rooms in the country—collegiate or professional. They feature a Hydroworx 2000 rehab pool, a Hydroworx 1200 rehab pool, a full compliment of treatment and taping tables, an X-ray room, a Fluoroscan machine and a doctor's office.

In 1999 and again in 2009, Kapchinski and his A&M associates received the Athletic Training Staff of the Year Award, the highest citation given by the Big 12 Conference to athletic trainers. Within the Big 12, Karl sits as sponsorship chairman of the Big 12 Medical Aspects of Sport Committee and as the exhibits chair for the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association (SWATA). His peers named him the NCAA Division I Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2005.

Kapchinski graduated magna cum laude from Texas A&M in 1979 with a degree in health and physical education. Upon graduation, he became head athletic trainer at Alief Elsik High School, and returned to Texas A&M three years later to work with Hall of Fame Athletic Trainer Billy Pickard. Kapchinski eventually succeeded him as the Head Athletic Trainer in 1982.

Born June 28, 1957, in Bryan, Texas, Kapchinski is a College Station native and graduate of A&M Consolidated High School, and is married to the former Anita Fredericksen. Their son Kristopher (A&M Class of '03) is the Head of Athletic Training outreach for the Physicians Centre in Bryan, and is married to the former Jessica Slataper (Class of '04), a former All-American pitcher for the Aggie softball team. The couple lives with their daughter, Jenny, in College Station.

Kapchinski's middle son, Kyle (Class of '06), is a former student football manager and currently works as a Design Engineer for DJ Ortho in San Diego. Their youngest son, Kevin, graduated from A&M Consolidated High School and is now a junior philosophy major at Texas A&M.

DAVID WEIR

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL
22ND SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

David Weir is in his 10th year as athletic trainer for Texas A&M football and his 22nd season as a full-time athletic trainer for the Aggies. A licensed athletic trainer by the state of Texas, he has assisted with football every season and spent six years as the baseball trainer before making football his primary focus in 1999.

Weir was named by Gov. Rick Perry as the Chairman of Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers in 2007. He served as a student trainer during his four years as an undergraduate at Texas A&M under the tutelage of Billy Pickard and Karl Kapchinski.

The Brenham, Texas, native began his training career as a high school trainer at Brenham High School. He graduated from Texas A&M in 1990 with a degree in kinesiology and health and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

From 1998-2002, Weir served on NATA's Public Relations Committee, College and University Committee, and chaired the SWATA College and University Committee as well as the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association (SWATA) Public Relations Committee. He also served as the liaison of NATA to the NCAA Baseball Rules Committee. Weir serves as the NATA's liasion to the American Football Coaches Association and is a past president of the Brazos Valley Athletic Trainers Society.

Weir assists in the day-to-day operations of one of the finest training rooms in the country including the medical database, which stores vital personal medical history on Aggie student-athletes. He has drafted the emergency medical plan for athletic facilities at Texas A&M in addition to the athletic department's lightning policy.

Weir is married to the former Judy Bigbie (A&M Class of '89), a school teacher at Pebble Creek Elementary in College Station. The couple has two daughters, Ashley and Heather. When possible, Weir loves boating and playing golf.

J.P. BRAMHALL, M.D.

DIRECTOR OF TEXAS A&M SPORTS MEDICINE
TEAM ORTHOPEDIC SURGEON
21ST SEASON WITH TEXAS A&M

J.P. Bramhall, M.D. is beginning his 10th year as the Director of Sports Medicine, and has served as Team Physician and Orthopedic Surgeon for the Department of Athletics since 1991.

Bramhall was a four-year baseball letterman for the Aggies from 1978-81 for Coach Tom Chandler. Bramhall hit .350 as a junior and .323 as a senior, and received the Wally Moon Most Improved Player Award as a junior. His school record for most walks in a season, set in 1981, still stands.

Dr. Bramhall is a graduate of the Texas A&M College of Medicine in 1985 and completed his Orthopedic Surgery residency in Fort Worth in 1990. He was then selected for the prestigious Orthopedic Sports Medicine Fellowship with James Andrews, MD, in Birmingham, Ala. before returning to Texas A&M in 1991.

As Director of Sports Medicine, Dr. Bramhall provides direct supervision for the medical care of the student athletes, and is the Medical Director of the Texas A&M Sports Medicine and Physical Therapy Clinic. Under his direction, he has been responsible for developing daily training room clinics providing a physician for the athletes to care for their medical and orthopedic needs, a physical therapy clinic for the student athletes, and xray availability in the training rooms. He is on the Advisory Board for the Huffines Institute of Sports Medicine and Human Performance, is an active member of the American Orthopedic Society of Sports Medicine, Big XII Team Physicians, and is an active Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

In addition to his work at Texas A&M, Dr. Bramhall is in private practice at Central Texas Sports Medicine and Orthopaedics, P.A. He has gained national recognition with his expertise in Sports Medicine and Orthopedic Surgery.

Dr. Bramhall and his wife, Belle '81, are very active in the Bryan/College Station community. They have two children, Bobby, who was an All-American pitcher at Rice in 2007 and is currently a professional baseball player, and Kaci, who is a senior nutrition major at Texas A&M and was a four-year member of the Diamond Darlings.

DR. MATTHEW KEE

REHABILITATION SPECIALIST
SIXTH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Dr. Matthew Kee is in his sixth year as a member of the Texas A&M Athletic Training Staff. A State Licensed physical therapist, and a Nationally Certified Athletic Trainer, Kee is responsible for the prevention, care and rehabilitation of injuries for the Aggie football team. In addition to the football team, Kee provides rehabilitation services to all Aggie athletes that need rehabilitation services.

Born in Plainview N.Y., Kee received his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from West Virginia University. Upon his graduation in 2002, Kee went to Physical Therapy School in Mesa, Ariz., at the Arizona school of Health sciences where he received a Doctorate degree in Physical Therapy. After graduating Physical Therapy school in 2005, Kee worked an internship with the Oakland Raiders of the National Football League.

In addition to his Physical Therapy licensure and national certification as an athletic trainer, Kee is First Aid, CPR, and AED certified. He worked the ESPN X Games in the summer of 2010 in Los Angeles.

Kee is married to the former Stephanie Weaver, who is an athletic trainer for the Texas A&M softball team. The couple has a daughter, Kayla Rose. In his spare time, Kee enjoys golfing, playing hockey, and playing with his dog.

EQUIPMENT

MATT WATSON

EQUIPMENT MANAGER
15TH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Matt Watson was named equipment manager in the spring of 2000 after serving as the assistant equipment manager since 1997.

Prior to returning to A&M, he worked for the Dallas Cowboys in a similar capacity in 1996-97. A 1995 sports management graduate from A&M, Watson works closely with representatives of Adidas, regarding the ordering and sizing of Adidas equipment for the entire athletic department. Last year he represented the athletic department on the proposal committee that recommended adidas as Texas A&M's new apparel sponsor to athletic director Bill Byrne. Watson currently serves as the primary liaison between the athletic department and Adidas.

Watson served as an A&M student football manager from 1990-95, before interning in the Media Relations Office in the Fall of '95. Watson was also a summer intern equipment assistant with the Houston Oilers from 1991-93 and with the Cowboys in '94 and '95.

Watson has been on the sidelines of 14 Aggie bowl games. Now in his 14th season, his duties include ordering, maintaining and performing inventory of all football equipment, the supervision of student managers, and the packaging of all football equipment for road games.

Watson, the son of Bronny and Ruth Ann Watson of Corsicana, Texas, is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association, and a member of the American Football Coaches Association, the Sons of Texas Genealogical Society, and the Texas A&M Lettermen's Association.

BRYAN GOSSETT

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER
12TH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Bryan Gossett begins his 12th year of contribution to Aggie football as assistant athletic equipment manager.

He oversees the day-to-day-operation of the equipment room as well as the fitting, maintenance and inventory of all Aggie football equipment.

Gossett also manages a staff of 10 student workers, who assist the Aggies during practices and games. Gossett was the liaison to the AEMA for the Big 12 Equipment Manager Association.

Prior to coming to Texas A&M in the fall of 2000, Gossett served as assistant athletic equipment manager at TCU for one year, overseeing the daily operation of the equipment room, purchasing, fitting and maintenance of all football equipment.

Gossett received his degree in general studies, while minoring in kinesiology, psychology and speech communication, from LSU in 1999. There, he gained much experience as a student equipment manager for the Tigers, eventually becoming the head student equipment manager from 1997-98.

While attending LSU, Gossett was a two-year member of the Chapel on the Campus Collegiate Leadership Team.

A native of Deer Park, Texas, Gossett is married to the former Marisa Arant of Monroe, La. The couple has two children, daughter Chelsea and son Austin.

He is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association.

COACHES' VIDEO

JAMES DUNCAN

VIDEO COORDINATOR
15TH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

James Duncan begins his 15th year with Texas A&M athletics and his sixth as video coordinator for the football coaching staff.

Duncan, who came to A&M from Arizona State where he was a video assistant, was honored as the 2011 Big 12 Conference Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Assocation.

At A&M, he assists the football coaching staff with game tape breakdown, opponent scouting, Aggie practice taping, and the development of motivational music videos.

Duncan served as an assistant in video operations for seven years before being named the video coordinator.

He supervises two full-time assistants and a student staff. The group works closely with the Aggie football staff in developing the team's game plan utilizing state-of-the-art technology from XOS Digital. This technology allows the coaches to view any play or sequence at the click of a button.

Duncan led A&M's efforts in purchasing the first of its kind XOS system for the Bright Football Complex. Schools and professional teams from around the country have used A&M's XOS facility model in their own designs back home. Duncan also assists other A&M coaches with game and match filming.

He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Arizona State with a bachelor's degree in broadcasting.

A native of Steilacoom, Wash., Duncan is the son of David and Elizabeth Duncan of Olympia, Wash.

JAE FADDE

ASSISTANT VIDEO COORDINATOR
FOURTH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Jae Fadde enters his fourth year as an assistant video coordinator for the Aggie football team.

Fadde came to A&M from Purdue University where he served in the similar capacity as a graduate assistant. While at Purdue, Fadde developed a new film training system designed for linebackers and defensive backs called GameSense. Fadde was awarded fifth place and a $1500 grant in the Burton Morgan National Business Plan contest for his work on GameSense, and earned his master's degree in sports administration and pedagogy from Purdue in 2008.

Before Purdue, Fadde was a starting pitcher and captain for the University of Southern Indiana baseball team where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications in 2006. Fadde was the pitching coach for the 2007 runner-up state champion Lafayette Post 11 American Legion baseball team.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Fadde is the son of Patricia Sullivan and Peter Fadde, who is a former Big Ten Video Coordinator of the Year. His sister, Elizabeth, played softball for the University of Kentucky.

DUSTIN SHIPPEY

ASSISTANT VIDEO COORDINATOR
FIRST SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Dustin Shippey is entering his first season as assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M.

He is a recent graduate of Texas A&M having received his bachelor's degree in telecommunication/media studies in 2011. While working on his degree, Shippey worked for two years as a student working with 12th Man Productions where he developed graphics, video features and highlight videos for Texas A&M athletics.

A native of Cleveland, Texas, Dustin is the son of Dwayne and Christine Shippey.

ALAN CANNON

ASSOCIATE A.D./MEDIA RELATIONS
32ND SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Alan Cannon is beginning his 32nd year of service with the Texas A&M athletic department and his 23rd as the school's sports information director.

Cannon served as the school's sports information director from March of 1989 until April of 1999 when he was promoted to assistant athletic director for media relations. In September of 2003 he was promoted to associate athletic director for media relations. He is responsible for all 20 men's and women's sports while focusing on football.

A 1984 marketing graduate of Texas A&M, Cannon began his career in sports information as a high school intern at SMU under the tutelage of Bob Condron and Maxey Parrish. Condron is currently the director of media services for the U.S. Olympic Committee and Parrish is currently a professor at Baylor University after serving as the SID at Baylor for many years.

Cannon was a walk-on baseball player at Texas A&M in 1981 under Head Coach Tom Chandler. He also served as a student assistant in the SID office for four years with his main responsibility as the baseball SID for Coach Chandler and Coach Mark Johnson, the two winningest baseball coaches in Aggie history. He was hired as an assistant SID in 1985 and served in that capacity until being named the sports information director at Texas A&M in March of 1989.

He served as basketball SID for legendary Aggie coach Shelby Metcalf from 1985-89 and had the pleasure of competing in the NIT and NCAA Championships.

The 49-year-old has served as the host of several conference and NCAA championships and has worked with several bowl games.

He is a past president of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and was the 1999 winner of the prestigious Wilbur Snypp Award presented by the organization. He is also a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), Texas Sports Writers Association and the Football Writers Association of America. He was honored by the All-American Football Foundation with the Scoop Hudgens Lifetime Sports Information Director Award in 1999.

Cannon was selected by his peers to serve in the officer rotation of CoSIDA. He served as the organization's president in 2002-03.

Cannon, the son of Bob and LaJoyce Cannon of Dallas, is married to the former Kaye Miller of Bryan. Kaye is a kindergarten teacher at College Hills Elementary in College Station. The couple has two beautiful daughters named Katie (16) and Macie (12).

BRAD MARQUARDT

ASSOCIATE MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR
22ND SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

One of the most versatile members of the Texas A&M athletic department, Brad Marquardt is in his 22nd year in Media Relations and also plays a key role with the football advance travel crew. He has attended every Aggie football game -- home and away -- since 1995 and his streak of consecutive Aggie games is at 194 heading into the 2011 season.

An award-winning journalist, Marquardt assists in all phases of the Texas A&M media relations operation, concentrating on football and men's and women's swimming and diving. Previously, he served as the editor of the 12th Man Foundation's alumni publication, the 12th Man Sports Hotline.

Six of his publications — the 1999 cross country media guide, the 1997, 1998 and 1999 track and field brochures, the 1996 men's and women's tennis media guide, and the 1995 Alamo Bowl media guide — have earned "Best in the Nation" honors by CoSIDA.

Marquardt has served as the media director for a variety of conference, regional and national events, and assisted with the media operation at 18 bowl games. Last spring, Marquardt was the media director at the 2011 NCAA Women's Golf Championships.

A 1988 graduate of Texas A&M with a bachelor's degree in journalism with a minor in marketing. Marquardt was the assistant editor of The Georgia Bulldog magazine from 1989-90 before returning to Texas A&M. Marquardt was an assistant in the A&M sports information office from 1987-89, learning the craft from sports information legends Ralph Carpenter and John "Ranger" Keith.

The son of Glenn and Barbara Marquardt of Boerne, Texas, Marquardt married the former Jenny Green in 2010 and the couple have five children: Cameron (age 16) and Daniel (11) Marquardt and Cody (16), Ashton (14) and Penny (13) Green.

ADAM QUISENBERRY

ASSISTANT MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR
2ND SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

No stranger to the Big 12 Conference, Adam Quisenberry is in his second year as Assistant Media Relations Director after joining the Texas A&M athletic department in August of 2010. He serves as the primary media contact for the Aggie baseball program and as a secondary contact for football.

Coming to Texas A&M after spending two years as Assistant Director of Athletics Communications at the University of Houston, Quisenberry served as UH's publications coordinator in addition to working with the Cougar women's basketball and women's tennis programs. He also assisted with the Houston Regional of the 2010 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which was hosted by UH and Rice University at Reliant Stadium.

Quisenberry has also spent time as the Director of Media Relations at West Texas A&M. During his time at WTAMU, he was in charge of the athletics communications for the school's 13-sport athletics program.

In addition to hosting numerous Lone Star Conference championship events, WTAMU was the host site for several NCAA Regional level competitions including the 2008 NCAA-II Women's Basketball South Central Regional Tournament, 2007 NCAA-II Men's Soccer Midwest Regional Tournament and 2006 NCAA-II Volleyball Southwest Regional Tournament, during all of which Quisenberry served as the tournament media coordinator. WTAMU's football team, which was consistently ranked in the Top 10 and claimed the LSC Championship in both 2006 and 2007, was selected as the host team for the opening round of the NCAA-II playoffs both seasons.

Before taking the position at WTAMU, Quisenberry spent one year as a Media Relations Assistant at Texas Tech, serving as the sport information contact for soccer and softball, while helping with game-day duties for Tech football and basketball.

The Quanah, Texas, native also served one year as a Media Relations Assistant at the University of Kansas where he worked with KU's baseball and soccer programs in addition to assisting with game day media relations efforts for Jayhawk football and men's and women's basketball. Quisenberry also helped to coordinate the media aspect of the 2004 NCAA Women's Soccer Lawrence Regional.

Quisenberry graduated from Texas Tech in 2004 with a bachelor's in public relations.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
THIRD YEAR AT TEXAS A&M

Dr. R. Bowen Loftin was named president of Texas A&M University in January 2010, after serving as interim president since June 2009. He previously served for four years as vice president of the university and as and chief executive officer of the institution's marine-oriented branch campus, Texas A&M University at Galveston, where he also held the position of professor of maritime systems engineering.

He graduated from Texas A&M in 1970 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physics, with highest honors, and continued his formal education at Rice University, where he earned an M.A. and Ph.D. in 1973 and 1975, respectively, both also in physics.

As president of his alma mater, Dr. Loftin oversees the nation's seventh-largest student body, with a record fall 2010 enrollment of 49,129, including more than 9,000 students studying at the graduate level, also a record. The number of faculty and staff now exceeds 9,000.

While serving as chief executive officer at the Galveston campus, Dr. Loftin managed an institution that serves a vital function in providing young men and women for leadership positions in the nation's maritime industry, as well as in other fields. Enrollment there also reached record levels, exceeding 1,600, during his tenure.

Dr. Loftin gained experience unique in all of higher education in the fall of 2008 when Hurricane Ike hit the Texas coast, with Texas A&M University at Galveston in virtually its direct path as it came ashore. He oversaw evacuation of the multi-site campus and relocation of almost all of the students, along with many of the faculty and staff, on the main Texas A&M campus, approximately 150 miles inland. The possibility of such a contingency had been planned under the leadership of Dr. Loftin and in cooperation with officials on the main campus. No one, however, anticipated that the evacuation and relocation would become a semester-long operation, which was successfully accomplished and is believed to be the first time that one entire institution of higher education was transposed on another for an extended period of time.

Prior to assuming leadership of Texas A&M University at Galveston, Dr. Loftin served at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, as professor of electrical and computer engineering and professor of computer science. Additionally, he was Old Dominion's director of simulation programs and had responsibility for the institution's graduate programs in modeling and simulation. He also served as executive director of the Virginia Modeling, Analysis and Simulation Center. Earlier in his career, he was professor and chair of the Department of Computer Science and director of the NASA Virtual Environments Research Institute at the University of Houston.

Dr. Loftin has frequently served as a consultant—to both industry and government—in the areas of modeling and simulation, advanced training technologies, and scientific/engineering data visualization. He is the author or co-author of more than 100 technical publications and has conducted more than 180 invited lectures and other presentations. Additionally, he has served as principal investigator or major participant in scores of grants and contracts totaling millions of dollars.

He serves on numerous advisory committees and panels sponsored by governmental and professional organizations. He has served since 2007 as a member of the National Academies' Panel on Arms and Armaments and previously served on the National Science Advisory Committee for the Desert Research Institute, which was assembled under the auspices of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Since 2006, he has served as associate editor of Computers in Science and Engineering. His citations and honors include the American Association of Artificial Intelligence Award for an innovative application of artificial intelligence, NASA's Space Act Award, the NASA Public Service Medal, and the 1995 NASA Invention of the Year Award and the University of Houston-Downtown Awards for Excellence in Teaching and Service (twice).

Dr. Loftin and his wife, Karin, have two adult children and three grandchildren.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

BILL BYRNE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
NINTH SEASON AT TEXAS A&M

Bill Byrne is in his ninth year of Building Champions as Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

With more than 25 years experience as a Division I athletic director, Byrne has impressive credentials and a track record for producing champions on and off the field.

Since Byrne was introduced to Aggieland in December of 2002, the Aggies have won 41 Big 12 Conference Championships in 11 different sports and captured seven team national championships in equestrian, six in outdoor track and field, one in women's basketball, and one in men's golf. The 40 championships won by the Aggies from January 2003 through the end of the 2011 season rank second in the league. The Aggies' 32 conference championships won during the last five seasons combined are the second most of any school.

The 2010-11 athletic season was a record setting campaign as A&M captured four national championships, and nine Big 12 Championships. Both marks were school-bests.

In the prestigious Director's Cup all-sport rankings, Byrne has guided A&M to its six highest finishes in school history, include back-to-back top eight finishes. The Aggies completed the 2009-10 season ranked 6th in the nation — its best finish ever. In 2010-11, the Aggies tallied their most points ever and finished 8th to lead the Big 12 Conference.

In the inaugural Capital One Cup which tracks team's final rankings, the Aggies were the top ranking team from the Big 12. The Aggie women finished second with five top 10 finishes, while the Aggie men finished tied for third with five top 10 finishes.

Under Byrne's leadership, the department has made significant upgrades in facilities and increased revenue opportunities, while remaining focused on winning on the playing field and in the classroom.

Byrne manages an annual athletic budget in excess of $75 million. During his tenure at A&M, he has overseen the construction or renovation of approximately $85 million in athletic facilities. Byrne teamed with the 12th Man Foundation, the institution's primary fundraising organization for athletics, to develop a comprehensive plan for A&M's athletic facilities. Together, they secured several major gifts for the second and third phases of A&M's Championship Vision Capital Campaign raising over $100 million.

The cornerstone of Phase Three of the campaign is the renovation and expansion of A&M's baseball stadium Olsen Field. The $26 million project is scheduled for completion in February of 2012 and will make the 31-year old facility a premier college baseball destination. Thanks to a $7 million lead gift by Ed and Howard Kruse, the stadium will be named Olsen Field at Blue Bell Park.

Citing the need for an indoor football facility and an indoor track and field stadium, Byrne ensured the multi-purpose $36 million McFerrin Athletic Center became a reality in 2007 and 2008, respectively as part of Phase Two. The complex boasts a full sized football field, a state-of-the-art hydraulic track capable of hosting national championships, and seating for 5,000 spectators.

At the same time, Byrne recognized the need for a basketball practice facility that would allow the basketball teams to each have their own practice courts, locker rooms, a weight room, an athletic training room, and offices under the same roof. In the fall of 2008, the $23 million Cox-McFerrin Center for Aggie Basketball opened its doors as part of an expansion to Reed Arena.

Known as one of the most innovative and influential leaders in terms of marketing, Byrne has made an impressive impact in marketing Aggie Athletics. In January of 2006, A&M awarded the school's athletic multimedia marketing rights for 10 years to a joint venture of Learfield Communications, ISP Sports, and FSN Southwest – known collectively as Texas A&M Sports Properties. The agreement is one of the top multimedia rights contracts in the country and provides significant income for A&M athletics throughout the length of the agreement.

The forward-thinking Byrne tabbed the guaranteed revenue from the Learfield agreement to finance the department's ambitious video screen and ribbon board expansion project which included Kyle Field, Reed Arena, and a portable video screen mounted on a 53-foot 18-wheeler. He also expanded the department's nationally recognized television production operation, 12th Man Productions.

Success on the field, coupled with a focus on the school's in-game marketing, helped boost attendance across the board resulting in increased season ticket revenue. Under Byrne's leadership, season ticket sales for men's and women's basketball have significantly increased since 2003 – men's basketball has grown by 86 percent and women's basketball by an impressive 302 percent.

Increased attendance at home contests has also been aided by the creation of a fan rewards program for frequent attendance. The 12th Man Team Rewards Program is a fan-loyalty program that allows A&M's Athletic Department to thank their most dedicated fans' continued support and attendance at the school's home athletic events. Upon its inception in 2003, attendance records at A&M were immediately shattered. To date, each sport offered at A&M has set at least one new school attendance record.

While at A&M, Byrne has hired 11 head coaches in nine sports. Each hire has achieved postseason competition within their first two seasons.

Student-athletes at A&M have continued to excel in the classroom during Byrne's tenure. In the Fall of 2010, 249 student-athletes were named to the Big 12 Commissioners Honor Roll. During the Spring of 2011, 269 student-athletes earned mention on the commissioner's honor roll.

Byrne came to A&M after serving as the Athletic Director at the University of Nebraska from 1992-2002. Under his watch, the Cornhuskers won an impressive 83 Big 12 and Big Eight Conference championships. Byrne's 48 Big 12 titles ranked second in the league during his tenure at Nebraska. The Huskers also won 10 national championships, including three in football and two in women's volleyball. Together, Byrne's teams compiled an extremely impressive string of nine straight top 25 finishes in the Director's Cup Division I-A standings.

Nine of the 15 head coaches hired by Byrne reached NCAA postseason play during their first three years.

At the same time, Byrne succeeded in putting the Huskers' finances in the black while increasing the annual athletic budget threefold. A noted fundraiser, he led a $36 million football improvement project for Nebraska's Memorial Stadium. He also completed an agreement to share a $30 million baseball and softball complex with the city of Lincoln. In total, he oversaw numerous facility upgrades valued at more than $100 million.

In 1993, the innovative Byrne added big screens to Memorial Stadium, the first college stadium to undertake such a project. HuskerVision quickly became the model for all collegiate programs for big screen and in-house television production. A primary tool to promote and market all of the Nebraska athletic programs, HuskerVision generated significant sponsorship revenue for the department as well as improving fan enjoyment and atmosphere at games.

Meanwhile, Husker student-athletes excelled in the classroom, and 109 were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

In 1996, the Big Eight and Southwest Conferences combined forces to form the Big 12. Byrne played a pivotal role in the formation of what has become one of the nation's powerhouse conferences.

Byrne's first role as athletic director was at the University of Oregon from 1984-1992. Byrne arrived in Eugene, Oregon in late 1982, where he served 18 months as an associate athletic director, before being appointed one of the youngest athletic directors in the country in May of 1984.

Under his watch, the Ducks captured 16 Pac 10 Conference championships and three national championships in track and field and cross country.

It was at Oregon where Byrne first earned the reputation for outstanding hiring practices. He also made major changes to the landscape of Oregon's athletic facilities and earned the nickname "Bill the Builder."

Byrne established a full-time marketing and promotions operation which formed the Oregon Sports Network for statewide, in-house production of Ducks games on television and radio. He also spearheaded the formation of Oregon's first Hall of Champions and Hall of Fame, which was later dedicated in his honor.

Byrne began his collegiate career as the director of alumni relations at his alma mater Idaho State and then served as executive director of the New Mexico Lobo Club from 1976-79. He was the assistant athletic director for external operations at San Diego State from 1980-82.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been recognized with the highest awards an athletics administrator can receive. Among his many accolades, honors include the U.S. Sports Academy 2007 Carl Maddox Sports Management Award; the 2002 winner of the National Football Foundation John L. Toner Award; the 1999 Central Region National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director of the Year; president of NACDA in 1991-92; and the National Athletic Fundraisers Association Fundraiser of the Year in 1985.

Byrne is a 1967 graduate of Idaho State University, where he also served as student body president. He earned an MBA in 1971.

Byrne's wife of more than 40 years is Dr. Marilyn Kent Byrne, who has expertise in leadership development, team building, and executive coaching. The Byrnes have two sons – Bill III and Greg. Bill is a vice president of Visa USA in San Francisco, and Greg is the director of athletics at the University of Arizona. Greg and his wife Regina live in Tucson, Ariz., with their sons Nicholas and Davis.

2011 RECAPS AND BOXSCORES

—/—	SMU (0-1)	14
8/9	TEXAS A&M (1-0)	46

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 4 · KYLE FIELD · COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 86,951 · TV: FSN

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael ran for two touchdowns apiece and Ryan Tannehill threw for two more scores to help No. 8 Texas A&M beat SMU 46-14.

They got things going early, intercepting quarterback Kyle Padron's passes on SMU's first two possessions to jump out to a 14-0 lead.

SMU coach June Jones replaced Padron with backup J.J. McDermott after the early miscues and he helped the Mustangs cut it to 20-14 in the second quarter.

But the Mustangs couldn't do much offensively after that and the Aggies scored 26 straight points the rest of the way to secure the win.

Gray finished with 132 yards rushing. Michael, in his first game since breaking his leg last October, added 85. Tannehill was 21 of 26 for 246 yards. Ryan Swope led Texas A&M's receivers with eight receptions for 109 yards and a score and Jeff Fuller added six catches for 52 yards.

Texas A&M had eight sacks, led by three by Tony Jerod-Eddie, the Aggies most since 2002.

McDermott finished with 254 yards passing and a touchdown, but was sacked seven times. Zach Line ran for 128 yards and a score and 6-foot-8 defensive end Margus Hunt blocked two extra points for the Mustangs. Line had 101 yards rushing with 10 minutes left in the second quarter, but managed just 27 the rest of the way.

The Aggies had built a 33-14 lead at halftime and tacked on a field goal on their first possession in the third quarter to make it 36-14.

Tannehill found tight end Hutson Prioleau on a 32-yard touchdown pass later in the third quarter to extend A&M's lead to 43-14.

The Mustangs trimmed the lead to 20-14 when McDermott found Keenan Holman on a 27-yard touchdown pass on his second drive.

The Aggies finally found an answer for the McDermott-led offense on his third possession and Mustangs had to punt. The Aggies went to Swope on their next drive, hitting him four times for 53 yards, including a 28-yard touchdown to leave it at 27-14 in the second quarter.

Texas A&M sacked McDermott twice on SMU's next drive and the Mustangs had to punt. Michael finished the drive with three consecutive runs, including a 1-yard TD run for the Aggies. Hunt blocked his second extra point attempt of the game, and the Aggies led 33-14 at halftime.

Steven Campbell intercepted a pass by Padron and returned it 51 yards to the to the SMU 6 on the Mustangs' first drive of the game. Michael scored on a 4-yard run two plays later to give Texas A&M a 7-0 lead.

Padron's pass was intercepted on the next drive, this time by Trent Hunter, who returned it 30 yards to give A&M another short field with the ball at the SMU 45. Gray got the Aggies in the end zone to finish that drive with a 5-yard run to make it 14-0.

That's when Jones had seen enough from Padron and replaced him with McDermott. The switch got SMU's offense going, with McDermott orchestrating a seven-play, 60-yard drive fueled by Line's running and capped by a 1-yard touchdown run by the back to cut it to 14-7.

The Mustangs tried an onside kick after that, but it traveled just one yard and sat on the ground for a few seconds before SMU jumped on top of it, giving Texas A&M the ball at the SMU 31.

The Aggies again took advantage of excellent field position when they converted that miscue into another touchdown by Gray, this one on a 2-yard run. Hunt blocked the extra point attempt to leave A&M's lead at 20-7.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Cyrus Gray had three touchdowns and 101 yards rushing, Ryan Tannehill threw for 337 yards and two scores in less than three quarters and No. 9 Texas A&M shook off a sloppy start for a 37-7 win over Idaho.

The Aggies had two turnovers in the first quarter, but Idaho didn't take advantage. Texas A&M had tacked on 27 points before halftime thanks to two touchdowns by Gray to take a comfortable lead and go on to the win.

Gray finished with 101 yards rushing for his ninth straight 100-yard game dating to last season. He had a 17-yard touchdown run and a 3-yard reception for a score in the second quarter. His 1-yard run midway through the third quarter pushed the lead to 37-0.

Idaho couldn't do anything offensively for most of the game and had to punt 10 times, converted two of 14 third downs and had nine penalties for 66 yards. The Vandals' only touchdown came on a 1-yard run on fourth down by Troy Vital on a drive against Texas A&M's second string defense late in the fourth quarter.

Idaho quarterback Brian Reader was 17 of 29 for 131 yards, and Mike Scott had eight receptions for 97 yards.

Ryan Swope had 74 yards receiving and a touchdown, Uzoma Nwachukwu added 80 yards and Jeff Fuller had 79. Fuller had five receptions to give him the A&M record for career receptions with 174.

Randy Bullock made field goals of 25, 42 and 46 yards, but his attempt from 44 yards in the fourth quarter was wide left.

Gray got A&M's offense going after a slow and sloppy start when he ran 17 yards for a touchdown that made it 17-0 in the second quarter. Bullock's 42-yard field goal later in the second quarter stretched the lead to 20-0.

A&M got the ball back after Reader threw three straight incompletions on Idaho's next drive, and Gray made it 27-0 when he scored on a 3-yard pass from Tannehill just before halftime.

The Aggies were on the Idaho 20 on their first drive when Tannehill's pass was tipped and intercepted by Andre Ferguson. The Vandals couldn't convert and had to punt it away.

Idaho's Tre'Shawn Robinson forced a fumble by Christine Michael late in the first quarter which was recovered by the Vandals. But Idaho couldn't take advantage of this miscue either and had to punt again.

Texas A&M's sloppy offensive play carried over into the second quarter when a 44-yard reception by Fuller was negated by an offensive pass interference call. The Aggies were able to keep the drive going after the penalty, but eventually settled for a 25-yard field goal after consecutive incomplete passes to make it 10-0.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Brandon Weeden threw for a school-record 438 yards and two scores and Justin Blackmon and Josh Cooper combined for 244 yards receiving as No. 7 Oklahoma State rallied for a 30-29 win over No. 8 Texas A&M.

The Aggies built a 20-3 halftime lead before the Cowboys(4-0, 1-0 Big 12) took advantage of three Texas A&M turnovers and numerous penalties to reel off 27 straight points to take a 30-20 lead.

Jeff Fuller caught a 4-yard touchdown pass with 2:20 remaining for A&M's first score since the second quarter to get A&M within 30-27.

A&M's defense forced a punt and the Aggies (2-1, 0-1) got the ball back with almost two minutes remaining, but Ryan Tannehill threw his third interception to seal the Cowboys' win.

Blackmon ran 39 yards into A&M's end zone for a safety as time expired to leave it at 30-29.

Jeremy Smith ran untouched into the end zone on a 13-yard run that cut the lead to 20-10 early in the third quarter. Blackmon's TD catch got the Cowboys within three and they took a 24-20 lead when Weeden found Tracy Moore on a 4-yard pass after an A&M fumble.

Quinn Sharp added two short field goals in the fourth quarter to extend the lead.

Tannehill threw for 309 yards and two scores and Ryan Swope had 105 yards receiving for A&M.

Cooper had 11 catches for 123 yards, Blackmon had 11 receptions for 121 yards, and Hubert Anyiam had 10 receptions for 92 yards. It was the first time in school history that three receivers had at least 10 catches in a game.

On Blackmon's score in the third quarter, Weeden found him in the corner of the end zone, but he dropped the ball well out of bounds and officials first said it was an incomplete pass. Blackmon yelled at an official that it was a touchdown as he walked away and after a review, the star receiver ended up being right. It was an 11-yard touchdown pass and Oklahoma was within 20-17.

The Cowboys were helped earlier in that drive when A&M's Jonathan Stewart hit Anyiam when he was out of bounds and the penalty tacked on 13 yards to the 9-yard reception.

Kenric McNeal caught a 33-yard pass from Tannehill on the second play of A&M's next drive, but fumbled, giving the Cowboys the ball right back.

They took advantage of the error and got their first lead of the game, 24-20, when Weeden hit Moore in the back of the end zone for the TD.

On a repeat of their last drive, Texas A&M just got one play in before turning the ball over on the second. This time Tannehill was intercepted by Brodrick Brown.

The Aggies caught a break, though when Blackmon caught an 8-yard pass and was heading toward the end zone when he fumbled at the 2-yard line and the ball rolled out of the back of the end zone for a touchback.

But Texas A&M didn't get anything out of it when Tannehill threw another interception on the next drive which Oklahoma State converted into a short field goal that pushed the lead to 27-20 early in the fourth quarter.

Tannehill got A&M going on the fourth play of the game when he faked a handoff to Cyrus Gray and dashed 65 yards up the middle for a touchdown to make it 7-0.

The Aggies put together a 10-play, 86-yard drive capped by a 17-yard touchdown pass to Fuller to go up 17-3 early in the second quarter.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1 · COWBOYS STADIUM · ARLINGTON, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 69,838 · TV: ESPN

ARLINGTON (AP) — Tyler Wilson, Jarius Wright and the No. 18 Arkansas Razorbacks gave No. 14 Texas A&M more than they could handle.

Wilson threw for a school-record 510 yards, Wright caught 13 passes for a school-record 281 yards and the Razorbacks turned an 18-point halftime deficit into a 42-38 victory.

Broderick Green ran 3 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with 1:41 left, putting Arkansas (4-1) ahead for the first time — and sending the Aggies (2-2) to a second straight agonizing defeat.

Just a week before, they gave up a 17-point halftime lead at home.

A&M's Christine Michael ran for 230 yards and three touchdowns, but was stuffed for no gain on a fourth-and-2 on what turned into the Aggies' final play.

Wilson was 30 of 51 with three touchdowns, and ran for a 2-point conversion that tied the game 35-35. The school passing record had been 409 by Ryan Mallett against Vanderbilt last season.

Wright broke the school receiving record of 204 yards by halftime. He wound up also tying the record for catches. And, get this — in a single game, he got more than a quarter of the yardage needed for the single-season record of 1,004. With at least seven games left, he's already at 478.

But his greatest play wasn't even a catch. It was a head's up recovery of a loose ball rolling into the end zone for the touchdown capped by Wilson's conversion.

A&M scored five touchdowns in the first half, all on the ground against a defense that had allowed only a single rushing touchdown over four previous games. The Razorbacks snapped back to form in the second half, yielding only a field goal — albeit one that put the Aggies up 38-35 with 4:22 left.

But that was all they could muster. A&M went from gaining 404 yards in the first half to 224 in the second half.

Cyrus Gray ran for 95 yards and two touchdowns for the Aggies, and quarterback Ryan Tannehill ran for 56 yards. Tannehill also was 25 of 35 for 247 yards and an interception.

LUBBOCK (AP) — Ryan Tannehill ran for two touchdowns and threw for another to lead No. 24 Texas A&M over Texas Tech 45-40.

After leading by double-digits at halftime and losing the last two weeks, Texas A&M finally put together four quarters, despite being outscored 20-14 in the second half.

The Aggies (3-2, 1-1) ran for 205 yards on 46 carries.

Seth Doege threw for three touchdowns and 391 yards to lead Texas Tech (4-1, 1-1). Eric Stephens injured his knee late in the third quarter and had 122 yards on 22 carries.

Texas A&M running backs Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael each ran for a score.

Tannehill found Michael Lamothe early in the fourth quarter for a 5-yard TD to put the Aggies up 45-30.

Tannehill's pass to Lamothe proved crucial. Doege came back and found Alex Torres on a 20-yard TD pass with 31 seconds remaining in the game to pull within 45-40.

The game's momentum turned on a blocked field goal by the Aggies in the third quarter. Terrence Frederick put A&M up 38-23 when he picked up the ball and ran 63 yards untouched along the near sideline for the touchdown. Dustin Harris was the Aggie who got his hand on the 50-yard attempt by Donnie Carona.

That score took the air out of the Red Raiders and their fans.

A roughing the kicker penalty on the Aggies earlier in the third quarter gave Texas Tech another shot at scoring. The Red Raiders got only a field goal, though, to pull within 31-23. Steven Terrell appeared to have be pushed into Red Raiders punter Ryan Erxleben on fourth-and-10 from Texas Tech's 35.

Doege found a wide open Torres for a 22-yard gain and then was sacked for a 7-yard loss. Donnie Carona finished the drive with a 49-yard field goal -- his second from that distance as the Red Raiders had to settle for 3-pointers throughout the game.

For a third straight week, Texas A&M carried a double-digit lead into halftime, up 31-20.

This time, though, the Aggies prevailed.

Both offenses played fast and the defenses struggled to get to the line in time.

Stephens scored on a 4-yard run to pull Tech within 24-20 late in the first half. Texas Tech got big help on the scoring drive from back-to-back pass interference penalties.

Tannehill did it all in the first half. He completed 12 of 16 passes for 156 yards. He also rushed for 55 yards and the two rushing touchdowns.

Texas Tech keep pace until settling for a 27-yard field goal to trail 17-13.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Ryan Tannehill threw for 415 yards and a career-high six touchdown passes and Ryan Swope caught four of them to lead No. 21 Texas A&M to a 55-28 win over No. 20 Baylor.

The Bears got within six points after a touchdown run by Terrance Ganaway in third quarter, but the Aggies scored 21 straight to take a 55-28 lead with about six minutes remaining in the game.

Swope's fourth touchdown -- his second 68-yard reception of the game -- was the first in that span. He finished with 206 yards receiving and also had a 68-yard TD reception in the second quarter. He also scored on receptions of 8 and 5 yards.

Baylor star quarterback Robert Griffin III threw for a school-record 430 yards and three touchdowns, but the Bears had trouble running the ball and were outgained 266-50 on the ground. Griffin is the third quarterback this season to set a school record against the Aggies' worst-in-the-nation pass defense.

Tannehill found a wide-open Uzoma Nwachukwu on a 47-yard TD reception after Swope's fourth touchdown and Christine Michael got his second on a 4-yard run later in the fourth quarter. He finished with 105 yards rushing.

Michael's score came after Griffin was intercepted for only the second time this season.

Trailing 41-28, the Bears got down to the Texas A&M 9 on a 50-yard reception by Tevin Reese on the last play of the third quarter. Baylor's offense stalled after that, though, and A&M got the ball back when Griffin threw an incomplete pass as he was being hit on fourth down.

Down 31-14 early in the third quarter, Baylor got a 49-yard kickoff return from Antwan Goodley and Griffin hit a wide open Tevin Reese for a 43-yard touchdown pass two plays later to cut A&M's lead to 31-21. Reese drew an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for mocking A&M's hand gesture by holding his thumb down to the crowd after the score.

Randy Bullock's 47-yard field goal stretched the A&M lead to 34-21 a couple of minutes later.

Baylor ran a 17-play drive that spanned through the first and second quarters, but came up empty when Griffin was sacked on third-down from A&M's 8-yard-line before a 30-yard field goal attempt by Aaron Jones sailed wide right.

The Aggies took their first lead of the game when Swope got in front of Sam Holl for a 68-yard touchdown catch to make it 10-7 in the second quarter.

Texas A&M wouldn't stay on top for long after Griffin hit Terrance Williams on a 77-yard touchdown pass on the first play of Baylor's next drive to make it 14-10. Williams wriggled out of an arm tackle by Coryell Judie with a spin move and dashed to the end zone.

Michael scored on a 7-yard reception from Tannehill to give A&M a 17-14 lead in the second quarter on a drive that was helped by 30 yards of penalties by Baylor.

The Aggies extended their lead to 24-14 when Swope caught his second touchdown pass, this one for 8 yards, less than a minute before halftime.

Tevin Elliott intercepted a pass by Tannehill that was deflected on Texas A&M's first drive. The Bears converted that turnover when Griffin found Wright on a 6-yard touchdown pass to give them a 7-0 lead.

Texas A&M cut the lead to 7-3 with a 35-yard field goal by Bullock later in the first quarter.

AMES (AP) — Ryan Tannehill threw for 263 yards and two touchdowns and 17th-ranked Texas A&M held off Iowa State 33-17 on for its third straight Big 12 win.

Christine Michael and Cyrus Gray each rushed for more than 100 yards for the Aggies (5-2, 3-1 Big 12), who used Tannehill's scoring passes late in the first half to jump ahead 20-7.

Michael's 9-yard TD run early in the third quarter gave Texas A&M a 30-7 lead.

Iowa State quickly cut it to 30-17, but the Aggies kept the Cyclones scoreless in the fourth quarter.

Michael had 142 yards on 18 carries, Gray added 125 yards and Jeff Fuller and Michael Lamothe each had TD receptions for Texas A&M.

Freshman Jared Barnett, who replaced a struggling Steele Jantz in the first quarter, was 16-of-36 passing for 180 yards for the Cyclones (3-4, 0-4), who have dropped four in a row.

The Cyclones answered Michael's touchdown run with a 1-yard TD run from Duran Hollis to get within 30-14. After the Aggies forced Iowa State to punt, the ball bounced off of Desmond Gardiner, giving the Cyclones the ball in Texas A&M territory late in the third quarter.

But Iowa State had to settle for Zach Guyer's 43-yard field goal, making it 30-17.

But Texas A&M's defense stiffened, and its offense answered with an 85-yard scoring drive. Though it ended in Randy Bullock's fourth field goal, from 20 yards, it ate up nearly four precious minutes and put the Aggies ahead 33-17 with just 7:30 left.

Iowa State's final gasp came with four minutes left, when the Aggies stopped them a yard short on 4th-down-and-18. Josh Lenz had a career-high eight catches for 117 yards for the Cyclones.

Iowa State's defense was flagged for offsides, and Tannehill chucked it downfield on what was essentially a free play late in the second quarter. The Cyclones then got called for pass interference, keeping the Aggies drive going, and Tannehill found Fuller for a 10-yard touchdown reception to put A&M ahead 13-7 with 4:08 left in the half.

Tannehill then took A&M 79 yards in less than two minutes, and his 18-yard TD toss to Lamothe made it 20-7 with just 42 seconds left in the half.

Bullock tacked on another 47-yarder to open the second half -- his seventh made field goal in eight tries from 40 yards or longer this season.

Jantz opened the game behind center -- and promptly threw his first pass into the arms of Texas A&M's Trent Hunter. Bullock's 25-yard field goal gave the Aggies a 3-0 lead just two minutes in.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — James Franklin's 11-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Lucas in overtime lifted Missouri to a 38-31 win over No. 16 Texas A&M.

Texas A&M got the ball after the score, but Ryan Tannehill's pass on fourth down was deflected.

The Tigers had a chance to win it in regulation, but a 46-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right as time expired.

Missouri got the ball when Jacquies Smith caused a fumble by Tannehill, which was recovered by Dominique Hamilton.

The Aggies led by 11 at halftime, but Missouri took a 31-28 lead on an 11-yard run by Henry Josey with about eight minutes left. Texas A&M tied it on a 35-yard field goal about four minutes later.

Franklin threw for 198 yards and two scores and ran for 97 yards and two more touchdowns. Josey, the Big 12's leading rusher, had 20 carries for 162 yards.

Missouri took its first lead of the second half on the 11-yard touchdown run by Josey. To get that drive going, Josey bounced to the outside and dashed down the sideline for 43 yards before being dragged down from behind.

The Tigers went for it on fourth-and-1 from the Texas A&M 43 early in the fourth quarter and Franklin's run was short. Missouri made up for it when Tannehill was hit as he threw a pass which was intercepted by Randy Ponder.

Ponder returned it 45 yards and Franklin cut A&M's lead to 28-24 when he scored on an 8-yard run three plays later.

Tannehill threw for three touchdowns in the first half, but the Aggies managed only a field goal after that to lose their third game this season after leading by double digits at halftime.

Both teams lost fumbles in the third quarter. Texas A&M's Ryan Swope fumbled after a catch, but Missouri gave it back three plays later when Josey coughed it up. The Aggies didn't capitalize on that error and neither team scored in the quarter.

Tannehill hit Cyrus Gray on a short pass and he ran into the corner of the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown to tie the game at 14 early in the second quarter. Missouri's offense stalled on the next drive and they had to punt. The punt was shanked and it went just 22 yards, giving A&M the ball at the Missouri 41.

The Aggies took advantage of the short field when Tannehill found Swope for a 6-yard touchdown pass take a 21-14 lead in the second quarter.

Texas A&M pushed its advantage to 28-14 when Tannehill scored on a 3-yard touchdown run with about three minutes left in the second quarter.

The Tigers had a first down from the Texas A&M 11 late in the second quarter, but the offense stalled and they settled for a 26-yard field goal to make it 28-17 at halftime.

Franklin broke four tackles on a nifty 20-yard run on third-and-1 to give Missouri a 7-0 lead on the team's second drive of the game.

Tannehill's first touchdown pass was a 2-yard strike to Michael Lamothe that tied it at 7-all later in the first quarter.

Eric Waters caught a pass from Franklin and two Texas A&M defenders missed tackles as he dashed 42 yards for a touchdown to put Missouri back on top 14-7 with two seconds left in the first quarter.

Texas A&M's Christine Michael had 21 carries for 104 yards and Gray added 58 yards rushing.

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Landry Jones threw two touchdown passes and Roy Finch and Blake Bell added short TD runs on consecutive possessions and Oklahoma pulled away from Texas A&M 41-25.

The Aggies, headed for the Southeastern Conference, won't miss coming to Norman. They're now 0-7 on Owen Field during the Bob Stoops era; the previous six losses had come by an average of 41 points.

Jones threw third-quarter touchdown passes of 31 yards to Jaz Reynolds, who made a nifty one-handed grab -- and 39 yards to Kenny Stills.

Broyles had two catches for 87 yards and both helped set up touchdowns before the injury.

Texas A&M's seven third-quarter possessions produced four punts, two turnovers and a missed field goal. One punt, into the 30-mph wind, netted just 14 yards and set Oklahoma up at the Aggies' 31-yard line. On the first play, Jones hit Reynolds down the right side.

A&M's next drive ended with an interception by defensive end Ronnell Lewis, who caught a tipped ball and returned it 11 yards to the Aggies' 28. Finch scored five plays later. The Sooners needed one play to score after an interception by Jamell Fleming -- Jones' long pass to Stills down the left sideline to make it 41-10.

Oklahoma was playing at home for the first time since its 39-game home winning streak ended with a loss to Texas Tech two weeks ago. The Sooners's potent offense struggled throughout the first half whether moving into or with the strong wind.

Going downwind in the second quarter, the Sooners needed 18 plays to cover only 58 yards on one drive. After three incompletions from the 21-yard line, they settled for a field goal and a 13-3 lead.

Texas A&M countered less than a minute later with the biggest gainer of the afternoon, a 79-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Ryan Swope.

Tannehill drifted left out of the pocket and bought time until finding Swope behind the defense about 35 yards downfield. Swope easily outran two defenders to the end zone.

In the first quarter, facing third-and-19 at the A&M 29 and moving into the wind, Oklahoma chose to punt. The ball was downed at the 1, and four plays later the Sooners forced a fumble at the 18. But they didn't fully capitalize and had to settle for a field goal.

Oklahoma's only first-half TD came on a 2-yard keeper by the 6-foot-6, 245-pound Bell, who ended the day with 11 carries, most in short-yardage situations, and two scores.

MANHATTAN (AP) — Collin Klein scored on a sneak in the fourth overtime Saturday night, his sixth touchdown of the game, giving No. 17 Kansas State a dramatic 53-50 victory over Texas A&M.

Klein threw for a career-high 281 yards and added 103 yards on the ground for the Wildcats who rallied from a 10-point deficit in the final 6 minutes of regulation to hand the Aggies their third consecutive loss.

The Aggies had the ball first in the fourth overtime and moved down to the Kansas State 3 before their drive stalled. Facing fourth-and-1, coach Mike Sherman played it safe and kicked the field goal, and that gave Kansas State the opening it needed.

Klein pounded forward for three yards on third-and-3 at the 18 for a first down, and a pass interference call on the Aggies' Toney Hurd Jr. in the end zone gave Kansas State the ball at the 2.

Klein went straight up the middle twice, getting across the goal line on his second try as the crowd erupted, and the Wildcats poured off the sideline to celebrate the victory.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Ryan Tannehill threw for three touchdowns, Cyrus Gray ran for three more and Texas A&M got an easy 61-7 win over mistake-prone Kansas.

The Aggies built a 23-0 lead in the first quarter behind two touchdown runs by Gray and a TD pass by Tannehill. Three second-quarter turnovers by Kansas (2-9, 0-8) helped Texas A&M (6-5, 4-4) extend the lead to 44-0 by halftime.

Kansas quarterback Jordan Webb threw for 133 yards and lost two fumbles, threw an interception and was sacked six times.

Defensive end/linebacker Damontre Moore led a smothering defensive effort by A&M, finishing with eight tackles, two sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

Tannehill, who was replaced by backup Jameill Showers with eight minutes left in the third quarter, was 21 of 26 for 280 yards. Gray had nine carries for 94 yards to surpass 1,000 yards rushing for the season. He's the third player in school history to post consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

Ryan Swope had nine receptions for 137 yards and two touchdowns for Texas A&M.

The Aggies have lost three games this season after leading by double figures at halftime. There was no such letdown in this one, with A&M adding a rushing TD by Ben Malena, a field goal and a 72-yard punt return for a score by Dustin Harris in the third quarter to make it 61-0.

James Sims ran for 88 yards and scored on a 15-yard run with less than a minute remaining to make it 61-7.

The Jayhawks couldn't get anything going on offense before that drive and came close to scoring only once, but a 39-yard field goal attempt early in the fourth quarter sailed wide left.

Turnovers doomed Kansas in the second quarter, with the first one coming on a fumble that was recovered by Moore. The Aggies took advantage three plays later when Tannehill found Swope on a 52-yard touchdown pass on which he shook off two defenders on his way to the end zone to push the lead to 30-0.

Steven Terrell intercepted Webb on the Jayhawks' next possession and Gray's third touchdown came a few plays later to leave the score at 37-0.

Another turnover by Webb, this one on a fumble when he was sacked by Moore, ended the next Kansas drive. The Aggies were unable to score after that mistake, and Kansas got the ball back after Tannehill's pass on fourth down fell incomplete.

Nate Askew grabbed a 27-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill a minute before halftime that left the Aggies up 44-0.

The Jayhawks got the ball back, but Moore sacked Webb and caused a fumble, which Kansas recovered to end the first half.

Gray put A&M up 7-0 when he scored on a 30-yard run on the Aggies' first drive.

Texas A&M got a safety in the first quarter when the snap on a Kansas punt attempt sailed over the punter's head and out of the end zone to make it 9-0.

Tannehill's first touchdown pass to Swope for 27 yards stretched Texas A&M's lead to 16-0 later in the first quarter.

Gray scored on a 36-yard run on which he tightroped the sideline and dashed into the end zone untouched to make it 23-0 with about two minutes left in the first quarter.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Justin Tucker kicked a 40-yard field goal as time expired to give the Longhorns a 27-25 victory over Texas A&M in the likely end of a more than century-old rivalry.

Texas A&M's last Big 12 game and the 118th meeting between these bitter rivals before the Aggies depart for the Southeastern Conference next season was a thriller befitting one of college football's oldest and most storied matchups.

The Aggies were down 24-19 before Ryan Tannehill found Jeff Fuller on a 16-yard touchdown pass with 1:48 remaining. But the 2-point conversion failed, leaving A&M ahead 25-24.

The Longhorns' winning drive was helped by a 15-yard personal foul penalty and a 25-yard run by quarterback Case McCoy.

McCoy started Thursday after being benched after a loss to Oklahoma in favor of David Ash.

McCoy struggled to move the offense for much of the game, but he was able to do just enough to get the Longhorns in position for Tucker's winner.

Texas players spilled onto the field as soon as the kick sailed through the uprights. At the same time, thousands of dejected Aggies fans streamed to the exits in the end of this holiday tradition in this football-crazy state.

Receiver Jaxon Shipley threw a touchdown pass on a trick play in the first half and the Longhorns took advantage of two interceptions in a 17-point third quarter to send the Aggies off with a loss.

Carrington Byndom's interception return for a touchdown early in the third quarter cut Texas A&M's lead to 16-14.

The Longhorns took a 17-14 lead on a 23-yard field goal later in the third.

Tannehill's third interception led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Cody Johnson to extend the Longhorns' lead to 24-16

At times the end of this bitter rivalry felt like a goodbye between longtime friends. The Longhorn band spelled out `Thanks A&M' while playing "Thanks for the Memories." Earl Campbell, who the Heisman Trophy at Texas in 1977, and Texas A&M's John David Crow, winner of the award in 1957, watched the game sitting side by side in golf cart in the corner of the stadium.

Ben Malena caught his first career pass for a 7-yard touchdown on A&M first drive to make it 7-0. He was filling in for A&M's 1,000-yard rusher Cyrus Gray, who missed the game with a stress fracture in his left shoulder.

Randy Bullock pushed A&M's lead to 10-0 later in the first quarter with a 49-yard field goal.

The Longhorns couldn't get anything going on offense early and didn't get a first down until the last play of the first quarter.

Texas A&M was up 13-0 after another field goal in the second quarter before Texas used a trick play where Shipley threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Blaine Irby to cut the lead to six.

Shipley returned after missing the last three games with a knee injury.

Another field goal by Bullock left A&M up 16-7 at halftime.

Tannehill was 20 of 49 for 224 yards and Fuller had a season-high seven receptions for 107 yards.

The Longhorns' normally potent running game didn't do much with Malcolm Brown leading the group with 17 carries for 39 yards.

1922 DIXIE CLASSIC

TEXAS A&M 22, CENTRE COLLEGE 14
MONDAY, JAN. 2, 1922 • DALLAS, TEXAS
FAIR PARK STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 20,000

DALLAS—In the game that gave birth to the 12th Man legend, Head Coach Dana X. Bible's Aggies upset the Praying Colonels of Centre College.

The victory over the "Champions of the South" put A&M football in the national spotlight as A&M scored 22 points against a team that had allowed only six points all season. The game capped a 7-1-2 season for the Aggies and was Centre's first loss.

(#1) TEXAS A&M 14, (#5) TULANE 13
MONDAY, JAN. 1, 1940 • NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA
TULANE STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 72,000

NEW ORLEANS—John Kimbrough rushed for 159 yards on 25 carries and scored two touchdowns as the Aggies erased a 13-7 deficit in the fourth quarter to end an 11-0 season and claim the national championship.

Homer Norton's Aggies entered the clash ranked No.1 in the polls and drove 69 yards in the final period to win the game on the strength of Kimbrough's rushing. Jim Thomason, Kimbrough's backfield mate, kicked the game-winning conversion.

(#6) TEXAS A&M 13, (#12) FORDHAM 12
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 1, 1941 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 45,507

DALLAS—Sixth-ranked A&M used trickery to pull out a close win over 12th-ranked Fordham.

The Aggies used the "hideout pass" to break the scoring ice. Trailing 6-0 at the start of the third quarter, A&M's Earl "Bama" Smith trotted toward the east sideline while his teammates rushed to their huddle. Smith then took off undetected with the start of the play and hauled in a 62-yard scoring aerial from quarterback Marion Pugh to tie the game.

John Kimbrough scored on a 1-yard run later in the period.

A&M blocked both of Fordham's extra-point kicks and Pugh converted after Kimbrough's score to provide the difference in the game.

(#20) ALABAMA 29, (#9) TEXAS A&M 21
THURSDAY, JAN. 1, 1942 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 33,000

DALLAS—If ever a game provided credence to the point that statistics can lie, this contest did.

Alabama made only one down (A&M had 13), gained just 59 yards rushing (to A&M's 115), 16 passing (to A&M's 194), and punted 16 times. But, the Crimson Tide scored 29 points and won the game.

Seven Aggie interceptions and five lost fumbles negated any statistical advantages A&M achieved.

Alabama's Jimmy Nelson was the star of the game with two interceptions, a 72-yard punt return for a score and a 21-yard scoring run.

SATURDAY, JAN. 1, 1944 • MIAMI, FLORIDA
ORANGE BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 27,000

MIAMI—Homer Norton's fourth and last bowl team for A&M, a freshman and sophomore-laden team known as the "Kiddie Corps", ended a 7-2-1 season with a close loss as Louisiana State edged the Aggies.

Tiger halfback Steve Van Buren rushed for 172 yards and scored two touchdowns and passed for another to lead the way for LSU. Van Buren's 63-yard scoring run in the third quarter clinched the decision.

A&M had defeated LSU, 28-13, earlier in the season at Baton Rouge.

TEXAS A&M 40, GEORGIA 20
FRIDAY, DEC. 8, 1950 • COLLEGE PARK, MARYLAND
BYRD STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 12,245

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—Bob Smith, who gained 1,320 yard rushing during the regular season, opened the game with a 100-yard kickoff return for a score and added an 81-yard scoring run as A&M jumped to a 33-0 halftime lead on the way to a big win over the Bulldogs.

Smith totalled 160 yards on 20 carries for the day along with 121 yards in punt returns, 22 yards receiving and five yards passing to accumulate 301 total yards.

In Harry Stiteler's final game as head coach, A&M halfback Billy Tidwell added three scores of his own as A&M led by as much as 40-0 before letting up. The win gave A&M a 7-4 record.

FRIDAY, DEC. 27, 1957 • JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
GATOR BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 43,709

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—In Paul "Bear" Bryant's last game as head coach at A&M, Tennessee used a fourth-quarter field goal by Sammy Burklow to take a 3-0 victory over the beleaguered Aggies and Heisman Trophy winner John David Crow before a Gator Bowl record crowd of 43,709.

The 17-yard kick came with 5:30 remaining in a game dominated by both defenses. Most of the battle was contested between the 35-yard lines.

The Aggies lost their third straight game after being ranked No. 1 in the nation earlier in the year.

TEXAS A&M 20, (#8) ALABAMA 16
MONDAY, JAN. 1, 1968 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 73,800

DALLAS—Student faced teacher as the Aggies capped a Cinderella season by appearing in the Cotton Bowl for the first time in 25 years and making its first post-season appearance in a decade.

A&M Head Coach Gene Stallings met his former college coach, Alabama's "Bear" Bryant, and his Aggies won their seventh straight game. Bryant, facing A&M for the first time since his departure following the 1957 season, gave Stallings a ride off the field on his shoulders after the game.

A&M converted an Alabama interception and fumble into a 13-10 halftime lead. Then, midway through the third quarter, the Aggies turned a short, 28-yard Tide punt into its final score of the game as fullback Wendell Housley bulled 20 yards for a clinching touchdown.

USC 20, (#6) TEXAS A&M 0
MONDAY, DEC. 22, 1975 • MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE
LIBERTY BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 52,129

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Emory Bellard's Aggies, seemingly shellshocked after a season-ending 31-6 loss to Arkansas cost them a possible national title shot, were punchless offensively as the Trojans gave Head Coach John McKay a win in his final game as USC grid boss.

USC shook off a four-game losing streak to drop the Aggies to 10-2.

A 65-yard bomb from quarterback Vince Evans to end Randy Simmrin set up a score by fullback Mosi Tatupu. Tailback Ricky Bell, the game's MVP, ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another score.

SUNDAY, JAN. 2, 1977 • EL PASO, TEXAS
SUN BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 33,252

EL PASO, Texas—A&M ended a 10-2 season by dominating virtually every phase of the game in knocking off the Gators.

Placekicker Tony Franklin kicked three field goals, including an NCAA bowl-record 62-yarder, and fullback George Woodard scored three times while rushing for 124 yards to key the Aggies offensively.

A&M raced to a 16-0 halftime lead as Franklin's three field goals sandwiched a nine-yard run by quarterback David Walker.

The Aggie defense forced five Gator turnovers and held them to minus-12 yards total offense in the decisive second quarter. Florida had only 27 net yards and two first downs at halftime and was contained by A&M until the game was out of reach.

(#20) USC 47, (#17) TEXAS A&M 28
SATURDAY, DEC. 31, 1977 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
ASTRODOME • ATTENDANCE: 52,842

HOUSTON—USC quarterback Rob Hertel threw a Bluebonnet Bowl-record four touchdown passes and Dwight Ford ran a school-record 94 yards for a score to stop a fourth-quarter rally by the Aggies as the Trojans whipped A&M in the Aggies' last Bluebonnet Bowl appearance.

Trojan tailbacks Charles White and Ford, along with Aggie quarterback Mike Mosley and fullback George Woodard, eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark. Woodard bulled for 185 yards and two scores while Mosley rushed for 184 yards and a tally.

Five lost fumbles by the Aggies helped USC gain control of the game after an early 14-0 lead by A&M, which finished 8-4.

TEXAS A&M 28, IOWA STATE 12
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 20, 1978 • BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA
LEGION FIELD • ATTENDANCE: 41,150

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Under the guidance of new Head Coach Tom Wilson, who took over at mid-season, the Aggies closed a controversial 8-4 campaign with a convincing win over the Cyclones as halfback Curtis Dickey ran for 276 yards and a touchdown on 34 carries.

Dickey had runs of 21, 24 and 34 yards and scored from 19 yards out in the fourth period while garnering the second-highest single-game rushing total in A&M history.

The Aggies staved off a rally by ISU that drew the Cyclones to within 14-12 midway through the third quarter.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 1, 1986 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 73,137

DALLAS—A&M stopped Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson on four tries at the Aggie end zone early in the fourth quarter to turn away Auburn's last shot at the lead before pulling away to a victory in the Aggies' first Cotton Bowl appearance in 18 years.

Quarterback Kevin Murray set a Cotton Bowl record with 292 yards through the air and Anthony Toney rushed for 122 yards and two scores on 17 carries.

Aggie strong safety Domingo Bryant copped honors as the game's Outstanding Player for A&M by intercepting two passes, one to set up A&M's last touchdown.

The victory capped a 10-2 year for Jackie Sherrill's first Southwest Conference championship team.

COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 73,137

DALLAS—The Aggies made their second consecutive trip to the Cotton Bowl one most A&M backers would like to forget by virtually giving Ohio State the victory by way of turnovers.

Quarterback Kevin Murray, in what would be his final game at A&M, tossed five interceptions while completing only 12 of 31 passes as the Aggies ended a 9-3 campaign with a frustrating defeat.

OSU, leading 7-6 at the half, got interception returns for scores by linebackers Chris Spielman and Michael Kee to take the victory.

Aggie fullback Roger Vick rushed for 113 yards on 24 carries and scored once to earn Outstanding Player honors for A&M.

FRIDAY, JAN. 1, 1988 • DALLAS, TEXAS

DALLAS—Once again, the Aggies traveled to Dallas to meet a Heisman Trophy winner. And, once again, the Aggies allowed an early moment of glory for him. And, once again, A&M ran off in the second half to a big victory as the Aggies dropped frustrated Tim Brown and Notre Dame in the first meeting ever between the two schools.

In what many call the most important victory in modern times for A&M, the Aggies handed the future national champs a setback behind a powerful rushing game spearheaded by freshman quarterback Bucky Richardson.

Richardson earned Most Valuable Player honors by rushing for 96 yards and two scores while directing a potent A&M offense in the crucial second half. A halfback pass from freshman Darren Lewis to split end Tony Thompson in the second quarter tied the game and turned momentum permanently in A&M's favor.

EL PASO, Texas—Pitt quarterback Alex Van Pelt connected with wide receiver Henry Tuten on a 44-yard touchdown pass with 2:19 remaining to lead Pittsburgh to a dramatic win over the Aggies.

The loss marked the third time the 8-4 Aggies lost a game in the closing minutes.

The Aggies erased a 24-10 third quarter deficit on touchdown runs of 31 and one yards by halfback Keith McAfee and a five-yard scoring trot by Randy Simmons to take a 28-24 lead midway through the final period.

Fullback Robert Wilson gained 145 yards on 16 carries to lead a 252-yard rushing day for Head Coach R.C. Slocum's first Aggie team.

SAN DIEGO—Aggie quarterback Bucky Richardson, who missed the 1989 season with a knee injury, accounted for 322 yards of total offense (203 pass, 119 rush), rushed for two touchdowns, passed for one score and caught a touchdown pass as A&M trounced the outmanned Cougars.

Darren Lewis ended his college career in fine fashion, running for 104 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The final statistics illustrated A&M's domination as the Aggies outgained the Cougars, 680-185 and limited them to minus-12 rushing yards.

BYU's Heisman Trophy winning quarterback, Ty Detmer, completed just 11-of-23 passes for 120 yards before leaving the game with a shoulder injury.

DALLAS—The Aggies drove through the Seminoles' defense with surprising ease in the early going and appeared poised to take the lead on their first possession when Greg Hill sprinted 39 yards toward the endzone.

But Hill fumbled the ball out of the endzone as he was hit at the two-yard line and the Seminoles were awarded possession on their own one-yard line. A&M's Quentin Coryatt sacked FSU quarterback Casey Weldon for a safety on the next play, but that's all the scoring the Aggies could muster.

Two possessions later, A&M dropped a sure scoring pass in the endzone.

In the second quarter, safety Chris Crooms returned an interception 42 yards for an apparent touchdown, but Crooms had stepped out of bounds at the 26-yard line.

FSU's potent offense could manage just 10 points and 280 yards against A&M's No. 1-ranked defense, but the Aggies could gain just 180 yards against the Seminoles.

Crooms intercepted Weldon twice and was named the game's top defensive player.

DALLAS—After a brutal defensive struggle for much of the first half, Notre Dame scored on a 40-yard pass from Rick Mirer to Lake Dawson with :36 left in the half for a 7-0 lead.

The Irish carried the momentum into the third quarter and took command with a pair of touchdowns, the first on a 26-yard pass from Mirer to Jerome Bettis and the second on a 1-yard run by Bettis.

A&M added a 41-yard field goal by Terry Venetoulias early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 21-3, but another touchdown run by Bettis put the game out of reach and handed the Irish a big 28-3 victory.

The Aggies gained just 165 yards of total offense and managed just 11 first downs, while Notre Dame compiled 439 yards of offense and 28 first downs.

COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 69,886

DALLAS—Both teams scored on their opening drives, with Notre Dame striking first on a 19-yard run by Kevin McDougal and A&M finding paydirt on an eight-yard run by Greg Hill.

The Aggies took a 14-7 halftime lead after a 15-yard pass from Corey Pullig to Detron Smith late in the second quarter. Notre Dame knotted the game, 14-14, early in the third period, but the Aggies came right back to regain the lead, 21-14, on a short plunge by Rodney Thomas.

The Fighting Irish returned the favor three minutes later with a scort scoring run of their own to tie the game, 21-21.

With less than four minutes to play, Notre Dame's Michael Miller returned an Aggie punt 38 yards to the A&M 22-yard line, the longest punt return allowed by A&M all season. The A&M defense held firm, but Notre Dame managed a 31-yard field goal by Kevin Pendergast to end the scoring.

With just :24 left, A&M narrowly missed a miracle comeback when, on fourth-and-17 from the Aggie 41, Corey Pullig completed a 14-yard pass to Tony Harrison, who attempted to lateral to trailing Leeland McElroy. However, the pitch sailed high and was recovered by Notre Dame, who took home an exciting 24-21 victory.

The Aggies outgained the Irish in total offense, 341-311, as Pullig passed for 238 yards.

(#18) TEXAS A&M 22, (#14) MICHIGAN 20
FRIDAY, DEC. 29, 1995 • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
ALAMODOME • ATTENDANCE: 64,597

SAN ANTONIO—Both defenses made the going tough for the opposing offenses in one of the closest and entertaining bowl games of the season.

A&M's Kyle Bryant was named the Offensive MVP, kicking five field goals to lead the Aggie attack. Linebacker Keith Mitchell was named the Defensive MVP for his constant harassment of the Michigan quarterback Brian Griese.

A trio of true freshman running backs—Eric Bernard, D'Andre Hardeman and Sirr Parker—subbed for the injured Leeland McElroy and gained 137 yards and scored one TD. Future NFL first-round pick Tim Biakabutuka gained 94 for the Wolverines.

With A&M holding a 19-13 lead and time running out, Aggie cornerback Andre Williams intercepted a pass to set up Bryant's final field goal to give A&M a 22-13 lead with 23 second left to play.

Michigan would complete a hail mary to narrow the score to the final, 22-20.

DALLAS—The game pitted Aggie head coach R.C. Slocum against UCLA head coach and former A&M assistant Bob Toledo as the Aggies were double-digit underdogs.

The Aggies led 16-0 before UCLA could muster any points. Led by two Wrecking Crew scores, the Aggies controlled early. A&M junior linebacker Dat Nguyen was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player as he recorded 20 tackles and a bowl record 15 solo stops.

UCLA took the momentum to the locker room at halftime with a late score to trail 16-7.

The No. 5 ranked Bruins outlasted the Aggies by the final of 29-23.

Dante Hall carried seven times for 93 yards and a touchdown.

The Aggies honored former A&M standout Reggie Brown,who sustained a career-ending neck injury in December, by wearing his number under their jerseys.

1999 SUGAR BOWL

(#3) OHIO STATE 24, (#8) TEXAS A&M 14
FRIDAY, JAN. 1, 1999 • NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA
SUPERDOME • ATTENDANCE: 76,503

NEW ORLEANS—Ohio State players, coaches and fans came to the Bayou State with one purpose in mind: To ring in 1999 with a Sugar Bowl victory befitting the Big Easy's nickname.

And in the end, the boisterous, cocksure Buckeyes did indeed get their win. But it wasn't by a big margin, and it certainly wasn't easy. The underdog and under-appreciated Texas Aggies gave their Big Ten-champion counterparts far more than they bargained for in front of 76,503 fans at the Louisiana Superdome.

In fact, for 53 minutes and 25 seconds of play, the Aggies did more than enough to make the Buckeye fans sweat out their New Year's Eve hangovers. Unfortunately for A&M, it was that other 6:35 of play that gave OSU fans a reason to revel throughout all corners of the French Quarter.

"We played a great team, and we played pretty well at times," Texas A&M freshman fullback Ja'Mar Toombs said following the Aggies' 24-14 loss. "They were ranked No. 1 for a long time, and there's a reason for that. They're very talented. But I think we proved we are, too. We just got too far behind."

Ohio State (11-1) used two impressive drives and a key blocked punt to score 21 points in a span of 6:35 in the first quarter. That proved to he enough for the Buckeyes to register a hard-fought win. But it wasn't what OSU had envisioned in the days in weeks leading up to the Sugar Bowl.

The Buckeyes, who spent nine weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation, wanted to destroy the Aggies (11-3) and stake their claim to the national title. That simply wasn't the case, as Texas A&M stood toe-to-toe with Ohio State and frequently had OSU on its heels.

A&M became only the second team this season to hold the Buckeyes to as few as 24 points (Michigan State also held OSU to that total in the Buckeyes' lone loss). And the Aggies became the first team to hold the high-powered Ohio State offense scoreless in the second half.

In other words, it was a struggle for the Buckeyes, not a stroll.

If it wouldn't have been for that little scoring outburst they had, it could have been a whole different ballgame," A&M junior running back Dante Hall said. "But we never panicked, and there in the second half, I kind of thought we might be on the verge of another Kansas State-type comeback."

Even with a convincing 24-7 lead at the intermission, Ohio State coach John Cooper spent plenty of time in the locker room reminding his players about A&M's heroic, late-season comebacks.

"At halftime, we were talking about the Kansas State game," Cooper said of the Big 12 title game in which the Aggies overcame a 15-point fourth-quarter deficit to win in double overtime. "(The Aggies) were getting the second-half kickoff, and we knew what they did in the second half against Kansas State."

Despite the warning, the Buckeyes appeared to be on the verge of buckling several times in the second half. First, A&M quarterback Branndon Stewart hit Leroy Hodge on a 7-yard scoring pass to cut the lead to 24-14 with 5:24 left in the third quarter.

Then, after stuffing OSU on its next series, A&M drove to as deep as the Ohio State 33, as the Superdome rocked and resembled - in appearance and volume level - Kyle Field with a roof on it.

"We had them on their heels, and this place was going nuts," A&M senior tight end Dan Campbell said. "That's the frustrating thing to me. If we make it 24-21, I really would have liked to have seen (the Superdome) crowd. And I would have liked to have seen how (Ohio State) responded to it."

To the Aggies' chagrin, the Buckeyes never had to deal with that kind of pressure late in the game. A&M's late third-quarter drive into Buckeye territory was halted by a penalty and a sack. Then with the Aggies marching early in the fourth quarter. Stewart's lateral pass to Toombs was recovered by OSU at the Aggies' 48.

That killed a promising A&M drive and effectively ended the Aggies' comeback momentum. Ohio State simply held on the rest of the way to send the Aggies to their fifth-straight New Years Day bowl loss.

"(Ohio State) knew they had been in a war," Campbell said. "That much, I know for sure."

The Buckeyes should have sensed that from the opening kickoff. A&M forced OSU to go three-and-out on its first offensive possession of the game, and then A&M went on an impressive touchdown march. A&M drove 59 yards in six plays, with Hall capping the drive with a 9-yard scoring run to give the Aggies an early 7-0 lead.

Then on OSU's next possession, the Buckeyes faced a third-and-l5 at their own 24. But OSU quarterback Joe Germaine completed a 28-yard pass to a wide-open Dee Miller to give the Buckeyes a big first down. Three plays later, Germaine hit Reggie Germany on an 18-yard scoring pass, and OSU's touchdown barrage had officially begun.

BOWL RECAPS

If that wasn't the key play of the game, then the blocked punt some six minutes later was. With OSU leading 14-7, Ohio State's Derek Ross blocked Shane Lechler's punt, and Kevin Griffin scooped it up and ran 16 yards for the score to put the Buckeyes up, 21-7. It was the first blocked punt against the Aggies since 1993, and it proved to be devastating.

"That was a significant play," A&M head coach R.C. Slocum said. "Being behind 21-7 is a whole lot different than being behind 14-7. Our team settled down and played a whole lot better in the second half, but it took us too long to get it going."

But unlike most games this year, the Aggies' magic ran out in the end, as a brilliant season met with a bitter end. Still, the Aggies proved all year long - and again in the Sugar Bowl - that they belong on the same center stage with the elite teams of college football.

"It's disappointing to end the season with a loss, but I can't say enough about my team," Slocum said. "We were Big 12 Champions, won 11 games and played eight bowl teams. A loss (in the Sugar Bowl) doesn't take away from a tremendous season."

1999 ALAMO BOWL

TUESDAY, DEC. 28, 1999 • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
ALAMODOME • ATTENDANCE: 65,380

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Rashard Casey passed for a touchdown and ran for one as No. 13 Penn State, ending a three-game losing streak that cost it a possible shot at the national title, defeated No. 18 Texas A&M 24-0 in the Alamo Bowl.

"It seemed like a Hollywood script," All-American linebacker LaVar Arrington said after Penn State's first shutout of the season. "It's too bad it's too late to show what we had—but better late than never."

Penn State (10-3) sent longtime defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky into retirement with a strong performance, holding Texas A&M to just 80 net yards rushing and 122 yards passing.

"We played like a Penn State defense," said Sandusky, the defensive coordinator since 1977. "We bent, but we didn't break, and people made plays in the clutch. That is what did it. And that's symbolic of the way we played so many, many times."

The defense had carried Penn State to a 9-0 start and a No. 2 national ranking, before the team's title hopes were dashed by losses to Minnesota, Michigan and Michigan State.

Penn State avoided what could have been the first four-game losing streak in Joe Paterno's 34-year career as coach.

As the Lions received their Alamo Bowl trophy, Paterno praised his players and the Penn State fans who traveled to Texas.

"It was a great effort by our team, and I'm very, very proud of them," he said. "Let's go get a shower and have fun tonight, guys!"

Penn State jumped to a 14-0 lead by halftime, then added another touchdown when Casey ran in for the score from the 4 on the first play of the fourth quarter.

A 39-yard field goal by Travis Forney pushed the Lions' lead to 24-0.

Casey had his first start of the season and played the whole game for Penn State, which had used Casey and Kevin Thompson at quarterback this year. Paterno said Monday that Thompson's arm was slightly sore.

"I knew I was going to get the start because coach had told me Kevin had messed up his shoulder," Casey said. "I went and practiced like I was going to be the starter."

Casey was 8-of-16 for 146 yards and Penn State added 175 yards rushing.

Randy McCown of Texas A&M was 13-for-22 for 105 passing yards but threw four interceptions, matching the career high he threw in a loss to Nebraska this season. McCown was sacked three times.

"It was tough to stay positive," McCown said. "We wanted to get a good start and we didn't. You're not going to win many football games playing like that."

Arrington, a junior who might make himself available for the NFL draft, had a big game for Penn State with 14 tackles, including one for an 8-yard loss.

"We had a lot of pressure on the quarterback," Arrington said.

Texas A&M coach R.C. Slocum knew going into the game that Arrington, not to mention his two fellow All-American defensive teammates, would pose problems for his offense.

"He's a great player," Slocum said. "He was up for every postseason award for a linebacker, so this is not the first time he's done it."

The Aggies had only one promising drive in the first half, and it failed when Shane Lechler—also the team's punter—saw his 44-yard field-goal attempt fall short.

Texas A&M looked as though it might get its running game together to start the second half, as Ja'Mar Toombs and D'Andre Hardeman combined for an impressive drive to begin the third.

But when the Aggies got near the end zone, Ron Graham of Penn State intercepted McCown's pass at the 7. Other Aggies mistakes followed, including Bethel Johnson's fumble of a kickoff return in the fourth quarter.

An ocean of Aggies fans packed the 65,000-seat Alamodome, but the loud maroon-clad crowd couldn't keep the Aggies afloat. Some fans started to head for the exits with 10 minutes left in the game.

The defeat ended a season of tragedy for Texas A&M (8-4), whose players wore a helmet decal honoring the students killed in the Nov. 18 bonfire log collapse on campus that killed 12 people and injured 27.

The Lions got on the scoreboard early when Derek Fox ran 34 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter after intercepting a pass by McCown.

Earlier in the first quarter, the Lions took points off the board when they opted to take a first down on a roughing-the-kicker call after Forney made a 38-yard field goal. Four plays later, Forney was wide right on a 30-yard field goal attempt.

Penn State drove 73 yards and scored on a 45-yard pass from Casey to Eddie Drummond and moved ahead 14-0 with 8:54 left before halftime.

This was Paterno's 30th bowl appearance, breaking the record of 29 he shared with Bear Bryant of Alabama. Paterno has won more bowl games than any other coach and now has a bowl record of 20-9-1.

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 36,974

SHREVEPORT, La.—Snow blanketed Independence Stadium prior to the 2000 Sanford Independence Bowl on New Year's Eve and provided one of the most unique experiences for Texas A&M and Mississippi State.

Barely able to make out the yard lines, the teams were forced to concentrate on the ground game. A&M junior running back Ja'Mar Toombs carried the ball 35 times (a school bowl record) for 193 yards and three touchdowns (a school bowl record), while MSU's Dontae Walker netted 143 rushing yards and three touchdowns.

The Aggies held an early 14-0 lead in the first quarter after touchdowns by Richard Whitaker and Toombs. MSU answered with two touchdowns in the second before A&M quarterback Mark Farris connected with receiver Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard TD pass.

The Aggies led 20-14 at the half, but would trail 21-20 entering the fourth. Farris opened the 4th with a 35-yard TD pass to Bethel Johnson and Toombs added another TD run and the Aggies led 35-21.

MSU rallied with two late TDs to force overtime. Toombs scored on the first possession, but the PAT by Terence Kitchens was blocked and returned for two points by Julius Griffith.

MSU's Wayne Madkin scored on the next possession to give the Bulldogs the overtime bowl win.

It set an A&M record for combined points in a bowl game and was the first overtime bowl game in school history.

2001 GALLERYFURNITURE.COM BOWL

TEXAS A&M 28, TCU 9
FRIDAY, DEC. 28, 2001 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
RELIANT ASTRODOME • ATTENDANCE: 53,480

HOUSTON (AP)—Not a bad way to begin a career.

Freshman Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start, and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU in the Galleryfurniture.com Bowl on Friday.

Jones, one of five freshmen in the lineup, helped the Aggies beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time. A&M won a bowl game for the first time since a 22-20 victory over Michigan in the 1995 Alamo Bowl.

"It was fun to finally win a bowl," Slocum said. "But I haven't beat myself up personally about it. Sometimes we were just playing one of the best teams in the nation and we just weren't good enough to win. Today, the better team won the game."

The Aggies ended the season 8-4 after losing their final three regular-season games. The Horned Frogs (6-6) haven't beaten the Aggies since 1972, and trail the series 56-29-7.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times, including the first three of Jones' career.

Aggies safety Wes Bautovich got A&M's fourth interception. On the next play, Mark Farris hit Mickey Jones for an 82-yard touchdown pass and a 28-7 lead with 14:40 left in the game.Weber broke straight up the middle on his second touchdown, knocking aside two tacklers and running into the end zone. He finished with 59 yards on nine carries.

Jones was the game's MVP and also was the defensive player of the game. He had three tackles and ran back his interceptions a total of 77 yards.

Starting in place of the injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frogs' 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance, but Jones had a 15-yard interception return to TCU's 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half, tying the game 7-7. It was the second-longest fumble return in school history.

Thomas returned the ensuing kickoff 43 yards, and Carriger, a converted defensive lineman, lumbered 19 yards with his second reception of the season to set up Weber's 2-yard touchdown run with 1:06 left in the half.

2005 COTTON BOWL

(#15) TENNESSEE 38, (#20) TEXAS A&M 7
SATURDAY, JAN. 1, 2005 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 75,704

DALLAS (AP)—Rick Clausen looked nothing like the third-stringer he was most of the season, leading No. 15 Tennessee to five touchdowns in just 2 1/2 quarters, and the defense had its way with No. 22 Texas A&M in a 38-7 victory in the Cotton Bowl.

The Volunteers (10-3) had lost four of their last five bowl games, the last two by a combined 40 points. After never leading in either of those games, they made things different just seven plays into this one when Clausen's short pass to C.J. Fayton turned into a 57-yard touchdown.

Tennessee wound up with the most lopsided victory in its 45-game bowl history. The Vols came within 5:13 of their first bowl shutout since the last time they played the Aggies, way back in the 1957 Gator Bowl.

The rout was as much a result of the Volunteers playing perfectly as it was the Aggies self-destructing. For instance, A&M lost only one fumble in its first seven games, but gave away four this time. Three came in the first half, helping Tennessee stretch its quick 7-0 lead to 21-0 early in the second quarter, forcing the Aggies out of their game plan.

The Vols' plan was excellent, especially on offense.

Instead of relying on the rushing of Gerald Riggs Jr. and Cedric Houston, Clausen came out firing from a variety of formations and showed the poise and patience of a seasoned leader, not a junior transfer who was beaten out by two freshmen and was playing only because they were both hurt.

Clausen was 18-of-27 for 222 yards with three touchdowns, no interceptions and no sacks. He also handled a hostile crowd of 75,704 -- the game's largest since 1978, the vast majority dressed in A&M maroon -- by scampering around the backfield to make sure everyone heard his audibles.

That was the case until he took the crowd out of it completely.

Tennessee gained 306 yards by halftime, even though two TD drives went just 28 and 8 yards thanks to fumble recoveries. The Vols set another school bowl record with 32 first downs.

Riggs followed his career-high 182 yards in the SEC championship with 102 and a touchdown on 18 carries. Houston ran 13 times for 62 yards, enough to make him and Riggs the first Tennessee teammates to have 1,000 yards in the same season. He also had a touchdown before leaving with a bruised thigh in the third quarter.

A&M trailed 28-0 at halftime, but had a chance to make it a game when Terrence Thomas ran 54 yards to the 15 on the opening drive of the third quarter. Then quarterback Reggie McNeal was tackled from behind on fourth-and-1 from the 6 and the Aggies hardly threatened again.

BOWL RECAPS

It was the eighth time in coach Phillip Fulmer's tenure Tennessee has won at least 10 games.

Tennessee wore a small decal on the back of its helmets in memory of former star Reggie White, who died last week. It featured an orange cross with his jersey number, 92, in black across the center.

2006 HOLIDAY BOWL

(#20) CALIFORNIA 45, (#21) TEXAS A&M 10
THURSDAY, DEC. 28, 2006 • SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA
QUALCOMM STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 62,395

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Marshawn Lynch ran for 111 yards and two touchdowns, and No. 20 California's defense played impressively in a 45-10 win over No. 21 Texas A&M in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Nate Longshore threw for a touchdown and ran for another, and Lynch's backup, Justin Forsett, ran for 124 yards and one score.

Cal (10-3) put an emphatic final touch to its second 10-win season in three years. The Golden Bears had lost to Arizona and Southern California in disheartening fashion before beating rival Stanford and then the Aggies (9-4).

In 2004, Cal was in position to end its long Rose Bowl drought but was leapfrogged in the final Bowl Championship Series standings by Texas. Although the fourth-ranked Golden Bears claimed not to be bothered by the snub, they couldn't even hang with No. 23 Texas Tech in the Holiday Bowl and were humiliated 45-31.

This trip to San Diego turned out a lot better.

Lynch, the Pac-10 offensive player of the year, scored on a 2-yard run in the second quarter to give Cal a 14-7 lead. While Longshore lined up at wide receiver, Lynch was in the shotgun formation, took the snap and bulled into the end zone.

Lynch scored on a 1-yard run in the third, leaping over the line and fumbling as he came down in the end zone. The Aggies recovered and referee John O'Neill signaled first down for Texas A&M, then said the play was being reviewed. Replay official Jim Augustyn ruled that Lynch had possession when he broke the plane of the end zone, making it 21-10 Cal.

While the Golden Bears moved up and down the field, their defense came up big, too.

Jorvorskie Lane, Texas A&M's 274-pound tailback, wasn't much of a factor after tying a 79-year-old school record with 19 rushing touchdowns this year. He was held to 36 yards and no touchdowns on seven carries.

Longshore scored on a 1-yard keeper to tie the game at 7 in the first quarter, eight plays after Texas A&M's Stephen McGee threw a 19-yard TD pass to Chad Schroeder.

Longshore also threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Lavelle Hawkins late in the third quarter. He finished 19-of-24 for 235 yards.

Texas A&M gambled a few times too many. After Bryce Reed gained 7 yards on a fake punt in the first quarter, the drive bogged down and the Aggies went for it on fourth-and-8 from the Cal 32. McGee was sacked by Nu'u Tafisi.

Lynch scored his first TD five plays later.

His second touchdown was set up when Texas A&M's Justin Brantly shanked a punt out of bounds for no gain at the Aggies' 41. Lynch scored four plays later.

The Aggies failed to convert on another fourth-down play in the fourth quarter.

PENN STATE 24, TEXAS A&M 17
SATURDAY, DEC. 29, 2007 • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
ALAMODOME • ATTENDANCE: 66,166

SAN ANTONIO—Under interim head coach Gary Darnell and in front of the largest crowd to ever see a sporting event in the Alamodome, the Aggies jumped out to a 14 point first quarter lead but couldn't hold off Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

The Aggies got on the board first as Mike Goodson culminated a nine-play, 70-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge late in the first quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, safety Kenny Brown forced and recovered a Penn State fumble, and Mike Goodson scored on the next play for his second touchdown run in as many plays.

The Nittany Lions would come roaring back however as they reeled off 17 straight points to take a 17-14 lead into the locker room for halftime.

Early in the third quarter after a Stephen Hodge interception, the Aggies put together an 18-play, 78-yard drive resulting in a 38-yard Matt Szymanski field goal to knot the game at 17.

Late in the third quarter Penn State pulled ahead for good with a 38-yard touchdown run from Evan Royster to make the score 24-17.

The teams traded punts to start the fourth quarter before the Aggies embarked on a 93-yard drive to set up fourth and one from the Penn State two-yard line. The Aggies elected to go for it on fourth down but a failed option play turned the ball over to the Nittany Lions on downs.

GEORGIA 44, TEXAS A&M 20
MONDAY, DEC. 28, 2009 • SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA
INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 66,166

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—Joe Cox threw two touchdown passes, Caleb King added two rushing scores and Georgia beat mistake-prone Texas A&M 44-20 on Monday in the Independence Bowl.

Cox hit Aron White on touchdown passes of 24 and 2 yards in the second half as the Bulldogs (8-5) pulled away for their fourth straight bowl victory. It was the fourth straight postseason loss for the Aggies (6-7), who have not won a bowl since 2001.

Georgia blocked two kicks, Brandon Boykin tied the Southeastern Conference record with his third kickoff return of the season and Cox threw his first touchdown pass after the snap sailed over the Texas A&M punter's head in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs sealed the win by intercepting Jerrod Johnson twice in the third quarter.

Special teams led directly to 24 points for the Bulldogs, who also blocked an early field goal attempt and got a 49-yard field goal from Blair Walsh.

Jerrod Johnson, who had a breakout game with four touchdown passes against Texas in the team's regular-season finale, completed 29 of 58 passes for 362 yards and one score. Cox was 15 of 28 for 158 yards. Georgia defensive tackle Geno Atkins was named defensive MVP and White was the offensive pick.

2011 COTTON BOWL

(#11) LSU 41, (#17) TEXAS A&M 24
FRIDAY, JAN. 7, 2011 • ARLINGTON, TEXAS
COWBOYS STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 83,514

ARILINGTON (AP) — Jordan Jefferson threw three touchdown passes to Terrence Toliver and ran for a score to help the 11th-ranked Tigers rally for a 41-24 victory over No. 18 Texas A&M in the 75th Cotton Bowl.

Texas A&M (9-4) led 10-0 in the first quarter, including a field goal after Jefferson threw an interception, but had its six-game winning streak snapped.

Jefferson was 10 of 19 for 158 yards with scoring passes of 42, 2 and 41 yards to Toliver, who had only two TD catches in the regular season.

LSU went ahead for good when Stevan Ridley had a a 17-yard TD run, jumping over a defender near the line and then sweeping right untouched into the end zone for a 21-17 lead with 4:43 left in the first half.

Ryan Tannehill, who had been 5-0 since taking over as the Aggies starting quarterback, then threw two interceptions in a span of three throws - after 127 consecutive attempts without a pick. The second interception was by Eric Reid, who returned it 34 yards to the 2 to set up Jefferson's short TD pass to Toliver for a 28-17 halftime lead.

Ridley had 24 carries for 105 yards. Spencer Ware ran for 102 yards on 10 carries as LSU got its first Cotton Bowl win since beating Arkansas 14-7 in the 1966 game.

Uzoma Nwachukwu had two TD catches for the Aggies to match his regular-season total. He caught a 6-yarder from Tannehill and a 14-yarder on a halfback pass by Cyrus Gray, who also had his seventh consecutive 100-yard rushing game - 100 yards on 20 carries.

Coryell Judie help set up A&M's two first-quarter scores.

Judie returned the opening kickoff 69 yards to the 31, setting up Nwachukwu's first TD. It was the first time all season that LSU's defense gave up a score on the opening drive.

After the Tigers' opening offensive drive was extended by a roughing the punter penalty, Judie had a one-handed interception near the end zone when he leaped and fully extended his right arm. That led to Randy Bullock's 39-yard field goal for a 10-0 lead.

When LSU got the ball back, Oliver had both arms stretched over his head when he caught a 42-yard touchdown pass. He had the 41-yarder on the opening drive of the second half.

The Tigers took their first lead on Jefferson's 1-yard TD run early in the second quarter after Bullock missed a 52-yarder. On that drive, Ware had a 24-yard run when he spun to avoid a tackler at the line and shed two different defenders before being driven out of bounds and Jefferson converted a third-and-11 with a 13-yard scramble.
