GAME 5 (RAYCOM) TEXAS TECH 27 – #19 TEXAS A&M 24

Texas A&M moved into the meat of its Southwest Conference schedule with a trip to Lubbock to play traditional rival Texas Tech. In a game typical of the series, the contest was not decided until the final moments before a crowd of 50,743 at Jones Stadium. The Red Raiders scored two touchdowns in the final six minutes of the game to take a 27-24 upset over the Aggies. The Aggies again got clutch running from Darren Lewis in the red zone as he scored three touchdowns while tallying a game-high 81 yards on 24 carries. Meanwhile, the Aggie defense held Tech running back James Gray to 70 yards on 23 carries. Lewis got A&M off to an early lead as he capped a 20-play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard TD run to start the game. With A&M leading 17-7, the Aggie defense forced Tech to punt, but Shane Garrett fumbled and the Red Raiders went on to score and keep the game close. A&M moved to a 24-14 lead after three quarters on runs of 3 and 9 yards by Lewis and a 44-yard field goal by Layne Talbot. Still holding a 24-20 lead late in the game, an apparent fumble by Tech quarterback Jamie Gill, caused by a sack by A&M's William Thomas, was reversed when Gill was ruled down. He connected for the winning touchdown pass two plays later, a 35-yard strike to Travis Price, to send the Aggies to their first SWC defeat.

GAME 6 TEXAS A&M 17 – #8 HOUSTON 13

Texas A&M stopped the nation's most prolific offense by blitzing on virtually every play while using six linebackers to upset the Houston Cougars 17-13 at Kyle Field before a crowd of 66,423. The victory, A&M's 18th straight against SWC opponents at home, was caused by a reckless defense that flustered Cougar quarterback Andre Ware into three interceptions and held the nation's top offense to just 369 net yards. Lance Pavlas hit Percy Waddle for a 19-yard scoring pass and Robert Wilson added a big 41-yard touchdown run to go with a 21-yard field goal by Layne Talbot. Darren Lewis led all rushers with 120 yards on 12 carries while Wilson added 115 yards on 22 attempts. The Aggies, led by William Thomas's 3.5 sacks, sacked Ware six times to overcome six turnovers by the Aggie offense. With Houston driving late in the fourth quarter, linebacker Aaron Wallace sacked the Heisman Trophy winner to squelch the Cougars' final scoring threat.

#23 Texas A&M 14 – Baylor 11

Quarterback Lance Pavlas scrambled for 34 yards on a key third-and-14 situation and scored on a one-yard plunge with one minute remaining to lift the Texas Aggies to a 14-11 win over the Baylor Bears before a crowd of 45,565 at Floyd Casey Stadium in Waco. The Aggie offense had been bottled up all day before their final drive to victory into the teeth of strong wind. A&M scored to move within 8-6 in the fourth quarter when Bear punter Pete Rutter fumbled a snap in his own end zone and Chris Crooms recovered it for a touchdown with under eight minutes to go. The Aggie defense contributed several gutsy stands against the Bear offense, keeping the Bears out of the end zone on six possessions that reached inside the Aggie 20. Cornerback Kevin Smith had two key interceptions (one in the Aggie end zone) to squelch Baylor scoring threats. While A&M gained only 174 yards total offense, the Aggies allowed only 201 yards net by the Bears, who held the ball for over 36 minutes of the game.

#21 Texas A&M 45 – Rice 7

Texas A&M's offensive line opened huge holes all day as the Aggies rushed for a season-high 348 yards in a 45-7 domination of Rice in Houston before a crowd of 30,900. Darren Lewis rushed for 201 yards on 28 carries and scored two touchdowns to lead the Aggie ground troops. Meanwhile, the Aggie defense held the Owls to only 94 yards rushing and 274 yards total offense to bolster its SWC lead in defense against the rush. Aaron Wallace picked up a quarterback sack on the first play of the game to set a new school record with 38 career quarterback sacks. Five of A&M's seven scoring marches were of 60 yards or more.

GAME 9

#19 Texas A&M 63–Southern Methodist 14

The Texas Aggies, ranked 19th in the national polls, returned to Kyle Field to begin their November homestand with a 63-14 pasting of the outmanned SMU Mustangs before 48,948. The Mustangs, who returned to competition after a two-year layoff because of NCAA death penalty measures, scored on a drive to open the game. But it was all Aggies after that as A&M built a 35-7 halftime lead. The starters would not play in the second half and the Aggies attempted only nine passes on the day. Darren Lewis scored on runs of five and 30 yards and threw a 25-yard pass on the halfback option to Percy Waddle. Waddle also scored on a 28-yard toss from Lance Pavlas. Pavlas, who completed three of only six attempts with two touchdowns, connected with flanker Shane Garrett for a 64-yard scoring toss. Sophomore tailback Randy Simmons, plagued by injuries after a stellar high school career, had a big day in a relief role as he rushed for 73 yards on 14 attempts and scored a touchdown. Garrett nabbed an 83-yard touchdown strike from reserve quarterback Chris Osgood in the third quarter to cap off a two-reception, 147-yard performance.

GAME 10 (CBS)

#9 Arkansas 23 – #14 Texas A&M 22

The game lived up to the advanced billing as the Texas A&M Aggies and the Arkansas Razorbacks battled for the driver's seat in the Southwest Conference. Arkansas opened the game with a nifty 80-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. A couple of key third-down conversions paved the way as Hog quarterback Quinn Grovey reversed his field and went 25 yards for a touchdown. A screen pass bounced off of Darren Lewis' shoulder pads and Mick Thomas returned the interception 23 yards to give Arkansas had a 14-0 lead with 11:05 remaining in the first quarter. The crowd of 57,876 and a national television audience (CBS-TV) watched as the Aggies battled back. A&M scored its first touchdown on a 26-yard scamper by Shane Garrett off of the "swinging gate". Lance Pavlas threaded the needle on a third-and-26 play by hitting Mike Jones for a 27-yard touchdown pass just before halftime. In the third stanza, A&M had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Layne Talbot when a drive stalled. Talbot connected once again on a 38-yard try to give A&M a 20-17 lead in the fourth quarter. The Hogs marched down to the A&M 19-yard line and on a fourth-and-three, Larry Horton was called for pass interference on a close play to keep the drive alive. Barry Foster bulled over from two yards out to give Arkansas the go-ahead touchdown. William Thomas blocked the extra point and the Razorbacks took a safety to make the final margin, 23-22. The Aggies held a 392 to 318 advantage in total offense in the closely fought contest.

GAME 11 (ESPN)

#16 Texas A&M 21 — Texas 10

The Aggies continued their winning streak against their arch-rivals with a 21-10 victory in front of 76,803 at Kyle Field, the third largest home crowd, and a national television audience (ESPN-TV). More than bragging rights were at stake, this became a sixty-minute war. Texas struck first with a 1-yard plunge by Chris Samuels. Keith McAfee came back for A&M with his own 1-yard dive. The Horns would add a 31-yard field goal by Wayne Clements to lead 10-7 at halftime. Lance Pavlas connected with Percy Waddle on a perfectly executed "hitch and go" route to give A&M a 14-10 lead entering the final quarter. Robert Wilson added a 1-yard run with twenty seconds remaining as the Aggie defense held the Horns scoreless in the second half. Linebacker Aaron Wallace recorded three sacks and threw Winfred Tubbs for a two-yard loss on a crucial third-and-two in the final frame. The linebacker was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Week in the Southwest Conference and quarterback Lance Pavlas was honored on the offensive side of the ball. A&M held Texas to 225 yard of total offense, 74 of those yards came on a run by Winfred Tubbs. The win extended the Aggies' streak to six years against Texas, the longest in A&M history.

GAME 12 (CBS)

#23 Pittsburgh 31 — #16 Texas A&M 28

Both the Texas A&M Aggies and the Pittsburgh Panthers were feared all season because of stingy defenses, but in the 56th John Hancock Bowl, offensive fireworks were the order of the day in the exciting 31-28 Panthers victory. The No. 23-ranked Panthers drew first blood on a 12-yard run by Curvin Richards ealy in the first quarter, but A&M came back to tie the game, 7-7, on a nine-yard run by Lance Pavlas as the period ended. However, Pavlas was injured on the play and would not return until the third quarter. Pitt's Ed Frazier booted a short field goal in the second period, and the Aggies' Layne Talbot followed with a 32-yarder of his own to keep the game in a deadlock. Pitt QB Alex Van Pelt found Ronald Redmond on an 8-yard scoring strike to give the Panthers a 17-10 halftime lead. With Pavlas absent, Pitt threated to open the game up in the third when Van Pelt scored on a 1-yard plunge for a 24-10 lead. But Pavlas returned and the Aggies stormed back as Keith McAfee scored on runs of 31 and one yards to tie the game after three periods. A&M took a 28-24 lead early in the fourth after Randy Simmons' 5-yard run. Then, with just two minutes remaining, Van Pelt found Henry Tuten on third-and-10 with a 44-yard scoring strike to post the win. The teams combined for 978 yards of total offense.
