GAME 1 (ESPN)

ATTENDANCE: 38,237

SEPTEMBER 1

Aloha Stadium – Honolulu, Hawaii

#13 TEXAS A&M 28 – HAWAII 13

Darren Lewis rushed for 117 yards and one touchdown to spark a 28-13 Aggie victory before an ESPN national television audience and a crowd of 38,237 at Aloha Stadium. A&M took a 14-0 lead on a Lewis one-yard run and a Robert Wilson 10-yard run. Lance Pavlas, who completed 10-of-20 passes for 122 yards, threw his only touchdown to Derek Ware in the second quarter, to give A&M a 21-3 lead. Robert Wilson scored one more time to give the Aggies a 28-10 halftime lead. The Aggie offense sputtered in the second half but the defense kept up the intense pressure on Hawaii. Defensive Player of the Game William Thomas had two sacks and harassed Hawaii quarterback Garrett Gabriel all day. Kevin Smith picked up where he had left off in 1989, with two interceptions, to move within one of the school career interception record of 14 that was held by Lester Hayes. All told the Aggie defense held the Rainbows to 264 yards total offense, with just four yards coming on the ground.

Tiger Stadium – Baton Rouge, Louisiana

LSU 17 – #11 TEXAS A&M 8

LSU wide receiver Todd Kinchen had 215 all-purpose yards including a 79-yard touchdown catch as the unranked Tigers upset the Aggies 17-8. The Aggie offense struggled most of the night, gaining only 286 yards of total offense. A&M also lost running back Darren Lewis in the second quarter when he was ejected in the second quarter because of an altercation with an LSU player. Randy Simmons did his best to take up the slack, rushing for 77 yards on 15 carries but the Aggie offense was not the same without Lewis. Quarterback Lance Pavlas was pulled in the third quarter in favor of Bucky Richardson after being ineffective and throwing two interceptions. Richardson was also ineffective and Pavlas returned in the fourth quarter to drive the Aggies to their only score.

Kyle Field – College Station, Texas

#19 TEXAS A&M 28 – TEXAS TECH 24

Darren Lewis rushed for a career-high 232 yards on 34 carries and Bucky Richardson came off the bench to throw for two touchdowns and run for two more as the Aggies fought off the upset-minded Texas Tech Red Raiders, 28-24, before a series record crowd of 68,593 at Kyle Field. The Aggies came away with the win despite throwing three interceptions and poor return coverage because of a nearly unstoppable ground game and the stifling play of the A&M defense. With Richardson triggering the Aggie rushing attack, Lewis averaged over 6.8 yards per rush without having a carry for more than 17 yards. Richardson also showed the form that made him one of the most feared running quarterbacks in college football two years ago, operating the option to perfection and rushing for 64 yards on 10 carries himself.

OCTOBER 13
Astrodome – Houston, Texas

#12 HOUSTON 36 – #20 TEXAS A&M 31

In one of the most exciting football games in the Southwest Conference in some time, the Houston Cougars rallied to beat Texas A&M, 36-31, before 45,141 in the Astrodome. The Aggies quickly built 17 point leads twice in the first half, but the Cougars' high-powered offense and eight Texas A&M turnovers enabled the Cougars to remain close. The Aggies held a 31-30 lead with slightly over six minutes left in the game, looked to be in control as they methodically drove down the field. But their seventh turnover of the game gave the Cougars the football at the UH 5, and Houston drove 95 yards and scored with 20 seconds left in the game. The Aggies outgained the Cougars 555 to 452, and Darren Lewis and Robert Wilson both rushed for over 100 yards. William Thomas led the Aggies with 10 tackles, including nine solos and a sack.

#25 TEXAS A&M 20 – BAYLOR 20

Darren Lewis ran for 179 yards on 34 carries but it wasn't enough to knock-off the improving Baylor Bears as the two teams battled to a 20-20 dead lock before 61,017 at Kyle Field. The Aggies forced a turnover late in the game, but Layne Talbot missed a 46-yard field goals that would have won the game for the Aggies. Talbot had already booted a career-high 59-yarder earlier in the game. The Bears led the Aggies in nearly every offensive category, but lost four fumbles. Larry Horton led the Aggies with 24 tackles and Anthony Williams added 15 tackles, including 13 solo stops.

TEXAS A&M 41 – RICE 15

Records fell for the Aggies as Darren Lewis and Kevin Smith both set SWC career records as Texas A&M defeated Rice 41-15 before 52,158 at Kyle Field. Lewis' four-yard plunge in the third quarter gave him 176 yards for the game and boosted him past Eric Dickerson of Southern Methodist into the top spot on the career rushing list. Smith intercepted two errant aerials on the day, giving him 17 for his career and tieing the SWC record. Smith returned both interceptions for touchdowns, which gave him three interception returns for touchdowns in his career and equalled the SWC mark. A 24-point second quarter gave the Aggies a 31-12 halftime lead and the Owls never seriously threatened in the second half. Anthony Williams led the team with 11 tackles, while William Thomas sacked the quarterback twice and added seven tackles.

Kyle Field – College Station, Texas

TEXAS A&M 56 – TCU 10

The Texas Aggies may have dazzled the 40,378 fans at Kyle Field by running up 537 yards of total offense and pounding Texas Christian 56-10, but the real excitement came in the Texas A&M locker-room after the game. The entire A&M team let out a collective roar of enthusiasm as they accepted the Holiday Bowl's offer to go to San Diego for a meeting with Brigham Young. The Aggies used their typically dominant offense and opportunistic defense to manhandle the Frogs. The offense was led by Darren Lewis, who had 113 yards and three touchdowns on 23 carries, but was boosted tremendously by the passing attack of Bucky Richardson and Lance Pavlas. The pair combined to complete 14-of-20 passes for 245 yards with no interceptions. Quentin Coryatt led the Aggies with nine tackles and William Thomas added eight solo stops.

DECEMBER 1

Memorial Stadium – Austin, Texas

#5 TEXAS 28 – TEXAS A&M 27

Before the second-largest crowd in Memorial Stadium history and a national television audience, the Aggies and Longhorns waged a classic battle with Texas coming out on top, 28-27. Late in the fourth quarter, the Aggies shunned kicking an extra point that would have tied the game to go for the win with the two-point converson, but Darren Lewis was stopped by the Horns' Mark Berry short of paydirt. The Aggies outgained Texas, 349-327, and Lewis became the first running back to rush for over 100 yards against the Horns' SWC leading defense. Lewis gained 150 yards on 25 carries, and gave him over 5,000 yards in his A&M career. Only four other running backs have accomplished the feat and all four won Heisman Trophies. Quentin Coryatt led the team with 13 stops, and Derrick Frazier made an interception and blocked a field goal.

DECEMBER 29
Jack Murphy Stadium – San Diego, California

TEXAS A&M 65 – #13 BYU 14

Junior quarterback Bucky Richardson compiled 322 yards of total offense (119 rush/203 pass) and accounted for four touchdowns as the Aggies posted the most lopsided bowl victory in history, upsetting No. 13-ranked BYU, 65-14, before a crowd of 61,441 at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium and an ESPN national television audience. Richardson was named the game's offensive most valuable player, the second time he's achieved that honor in a bowl game (he was also MVP of the 1988 Cotton Bowl). With the score tied, 7-7, late in the first quarter, All-America running back Darren Lewis scored from six yards out and the Aggies never looked back. Lewis ended his brilliant college career with 104 rushing yards and a pair of touchdowns and completed a 22-yard scoring pass to Richardson to give A&M a 30-7 lead in the second period. The Aggies defense battered BYU quarterback Ty Detmer, limiting the Heisman Trophy winner to a 11-of-23, 120-yard passing night before forcing him out of the game with a shoulder injury. When the final ledger was tallied, A&M had outgained the Cougars in total offense, 680-185, with a balanced offensive attack that produced 356 rushing yards and 324 yards passing. Junior linebacker Quentin Coryatt, with seven tackles and a pair of sacks, led a defensive effort which limited the Cougars to –12 yards rushing.
