WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- The Aggies and Wildcats meet for the first time Saturday as A&M will honor its senior class in its final home game of the season.
- Graduate WR Aini Smith has been a spark for the A&M offense, tallying 21 20-plus yard plays this season and has added at least 25 yards after the catch in six of A&M's seven SEC games, including a season-high 68 yards against South Carolina ... Smith ranks eighth in the SEC averaging 71.6 receiving yards per game and 16.7 yards per catch.
- Smith, the FBS active career leader in punt return yards, ranks sixth nationally and leads the SEC averaging 17.1 yards per return ... He also ranks seventh in the SEC averaging 105.4 all-purpose yards per game, eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark this season for the first time in his career.
- The A&M offense has tallied over 350 yards of total offense in eight of the team's 10 games this season, most recently tallying 396 yards against Mississippi State, while ranking 24th nationally and fourth in the league averaging 34.2 points per game.
- Junior LB Edgerrin Cooper has been a beast for the Aggies in SEC play, tallying 12.0 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks through six league games ... Cooper leads the SEC and is tied for eighth nationally with 16.0 TFLs and is tied for 24th in the country and third in the league with 7.0 sacks, while his 70 total tackles on the year are good for seventh in the SEC.
- A&M leads the Power 5 with 88.0 tackles for loss and 39.0 sacks on the year ... The Aggies have tallied 69.0 TFL and 33.0 sacks through seven league games this season.
- The Aggie defense has shut down opponents on third down this season, ranking 11th nationally with a 29.0 opponent conversion percentage ... The unit is also seventh in the country allowing just 15.2 first downs per game, while its 56 rushing first downs allowed rank ninth among Power 5 programs.

QUICK HITS

- Sophomore transfer QB Jaylen Henderson became the third Aggie QB to start a game this season as he helped the Aggies rank up 51 points, the most in an SEC game since the 2015 season ... Henderson accounted for four touchdowns, including a 22-yard sprint to the end zone on A&M's first drive, and 210 yards of total offense.
- Junior RB Amari Daniels has seen the bulk of the carries over the last few games and ranks 13th in the SEC averaging 53.8 yards per game ... Against Mississippi State he added 59 yards on nine attempts, scoring his fifth touchdown of the season late in the first quarter.
- Junior DL Shemar Turner has been a consistent disruptor on the line this season, recording at least 1.0 tackle for loss in eight of the team's 10 games ... Turner is tied for seventh in the SEC with 6.0 sacks and tied for ninth with 10.0 TFLs on the year ... Turner has also made impactful contributions on special teams, blocking a field goal attempt at Ole Miss that resulted in an Aggie touchdown and getting his hand on a 49-yard attempt against Mississippi State.
- The Aggies recorded 5.0 sacks in the win over Mississippi State, their fourth time registering five-or-more sacks in seven SEC games.
- Texas A&M picked off three passes and forced a season-high four turnovers in the win over Mississippi State ... The interception total marked the most in a league game since tallying three picks against Ole Miss in 2015.
- The Aggies have limited the opposition to less than 240 yards of total offense six times this season and have only allowed an opponent to tally over 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game twice this year.
- Junior PK Randy Bond ranks seventh in the nation and second in the SEC averaging 10.1 points per game, while his 101 total points on the year rank fifth across the country ... His 21 made field goals on the season are tied for the most nationally.

MILESTONES TO WATCH FOR

- Graduate WR Aini Smith continues his climb through the A&M record books and needs just one receiving touchdown to earn sole possession of fifth on the all-time list.
- Smith enters the week with 170 career receptions and is in pursuit of Terrence Murphy's (2001-04) 172 career mark to move into fourth on A&M's all-time list.
- After upping his career receiving yards total to 2,328 against Mississippi State, Smith is chasing Mike Evans' (2012-13) mark of 2,499, which is good for sixth all-time.
- On the verge of breaking into another top five, Smith is currently in sixth with 824 punt return yards and is in need of 100 yards to move up a spot ... He is also 329 yards away from passing Leland McElroy's (1993-95) 4,441 career yards to move into seventh on A&M's all-purpose yards list, entering the week with 3,858.
- Sophomore WR Evan Stewart made his way into A&M's career receptions list, currently tied with Mike Goodson (2006-08) in 26th with 90 career catches ... He is three receiving touchdowns away from breaking into the top 25 all-time at A&M, as well as 47 receiving yards away from cracking A&M's top 30.
- Junior WR Moose Muhammad III is on the cusp of moving into the top 20 of A&M's all-time career receiving touchdowns list with nine career scoring receptions, while he is also 107 receiving yards away from reaching the 1,000-yard mark for his career.
- Freshman LB Taurean York is 1.5 tackles for loss away from tying Dat Nguyen's (1995) No. 3 freshman TFL total of 7.0, not including sacks, and is three tackles away from passing teammate Edgerrin Cooper and Sammy O'Brient (1984) who are tied for 12th on the list with 58 takedowns in their debut seasons.
- Junior PLK Randy Bond is on the cusp of entering the top 10 on A&M's all-time field goals made list, just four away from passing Taylor Bertolet (2012-15) in 10th who tallied 37 made field goals in his career ... Bond's 21 made field goals this season are tied for fourth on A&M's single-season list and his next make with put him in a tie for second with Seth Small (2021) and Bertolet (2015) ... Bond's 101 points on the year are good for 17th on the Aggies' single-season list.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

- Graduate WR Aini Smith has been called a "Swiss Army Knife" because of his do-it-all ability on the field.
- A true quadruple threat, Smith has gained more than 250 yards as a rusher (405), receiver (2,328), punt returner (824) and kick returner (301) ... Among Aggies already in the 3,000-yard club, only six players even have stats in all four categories and just two -- Dante Hall and Larry Stegent -- had 250+ in all four.
- Smith is the only 2,000-yard receiver in SEC history to also rack up at least 250 rushing, punt return and kickoff return yards in their career ... The other 1,000-yard receiver to hit the 250-yard mark in rushing and returns was Kentucky's Randall Cobb, who posted 1,661 receiving yards along with 1,313 rushing yards, 619 punt return yards and 1,081 kickoff return yards from 2008-10.
- The active FBS leader in career punt return yards, Smith has etched his name into Aggie history, climbing into the top 10 on A&M's career receiving touchdowns (19), receiving yards (2,328), receptions (170), punt return (77-824) and all-purpose yards (3,858) lists.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION IS THE HOME OF TEXAS A&M ...

On August 20, 2020 the Texas A&M Board of Regents voted and approved the use of "Bryan-College Station" as the home of Texas A&M University. "Bryan-College Station" should be used to reference all sporting events, academic events, press releases, marketing collateral, letterhead, and other representations of Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System where a specific postal address is not required.

Aggieland has grown beyond the boundaries of any one municipality. College Station is known as the "Home of Texas A&M University", but the City of College Station and the City of Bryan have had an entwined history since the City of College Station was incorporated in 1938. Bryan and Texas A&M University's historical ties go back to 1871, when Bryan was incorporated and the Texas Legislature established the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

The former Bryan Air Force Base was operated as the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center for a quarter of a century before being designated as the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus in 1988, and the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus grew into the Texas A&M University Research Annex before transforming into the RELLIS Campus in 2016. The RELLIS Campus is home to Texas A&M University System entities including ten regional universities, the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), the Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI). In 2007, the City of Bryan gifted more than 200 acres to the Texas A&M University Health Science Center.

Recognizing that over the past decade, Texas A&M University and the Texas A&M University System have expanded into the City of Bryan with seven Texas A&M University System colleges, ten Texas A&M University System universities and multiple Texas A&M University System state agencies on more than 2,200 acres with more than $1 billion in investment, the Board of Regents voted to recognize the long history and partnership between the City of Bryan, the City of College Station and both Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System.

- Smith put his dependable versatility on display in the win over Arkansas, returning a punt 82 yards to the house in the fourth quarter to lengthen the Aggie lead and eventually total a career-high 131 punt return yards and 202 all-purpose yards ... This marked the second special teams touchdown of Smith's career after taking a punt 95 yards to the end zone in 2021 against South Carolina.
- Smith has sparked the Aggies this season with his play-making ability as he leads the team with 21 20-plus yard plays in his final season, including 17 catches of 20-plus yards ... At Ole Miss, Smith add 27- and 24-yard receptions in the second half to help set up Aggie touchdowns.
- Dating back to the 2019 LSU game, Smith has caught a pass in 37 straight games ... This streak is the seventh-longest active streak in the nation, fourth among Power 5 receivers, while it is also the longest streak by an Aggie since Christian Kirk (2015-17) had a string of 39 games.
- Smith recorded the sixth 100-yard game of his career when he led the offense with 118 yards on six catches in the win over South Carolina.
- Smith has registered seven multi-touchdown games in his career, catching multiple TD passes in a game five times ... In the 2021 season opener, he hauled in a 63-yard scoring pass to put the Aggies up 17 points at the half and extended the lead in the fourth quarter with a 43-yard TD grab.

QUARTERBACK ROOM

- The Aggies have seen three different starting quarterbacks lead the team to victory this season after the QB room has battled injuries throughout the team ... Sophomores Conner Weigman, Max Johnson and Jaylen Henderson have all started at least one game under center this season and each earned an SEC victory donning the Maroon & White.
- Henderson impressed in his first career start for the Aggies, leading A&M to its highest point total since the 2014 season and becoming the first Aggie QB to score multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since 2019 ... Henderson finished the win over Mississippi State with 210 yards of total offense and accounted for four touchdowns on the day.
- Henderson transferred to A&M after spending two seasons at Fresno State, seeing action in five games ... He was a 3-star prospect out of Chaminade High School and though his senior season was shorted in the spring of 2021, he threw for over 1,400 yards and 15 touchdowns while posting 345 rushing yards and a trip to the end zone.
- Johnson stood ready for the Aggies through camp and the early part of the 2023 season, returning to the starting lineup Week 5 against Arkansas before suffering an injury late at Ole Miss ... He was thrown into action in the second half of the Auburn game with A&M up 6-3 at the break following an injury to Weigman and immediately tossed a pair of scoring passes in the third quarter to distance the Aggies and position the team for victory.
- Johnson, who has played in 30 games as an SEC quarterback between A&M and LSU, registered his first 300-yard passing game as an Aggie and the sixth of his college career when he completed a career-best 31 passes for 305 yards at Ole Miss.
- In his first season in Aggieland after transferring from LSU, Johnson led the Aggies to back-to-back victories over AP top-15 teams, topping No. 13 Miami 17-9 at Kyle Field in his first start for the Maroon & White before knocking off No. 10 Arkansas, 23-21 at AT&T Stadium ... Johnson's stint as the A&M starter was cut short the following week after suffering a season-ending hand injury at Mississippi State.
- Weigman was named the starter at end of fall camp this year after closing out the 2022 season starting four of the final five games ... He made it back-to-back 300-yard passing games, three for his career, after tallying 336 at Miami and racking up 337 against ULM ... Weigman also finished the ULM game 25-of-29 passing for a school record 86.2 completion percentage.
- Weigman put on a show against New Mexico, connecting on five touchdown passes and finishing the opener going 18-of-23 for 236 yards through the air.
- Making his first career start against No. 15 Ole Miss in 2022, Weigman racked up 338 yards on 28-of-44 passing and four touchdowns ... His passing yards were the most in a game by a true freshman in program history and his four passing TDs were the most by any A&M freshman.

STEWART MAKES IMPACT

- Sophomore WR Evan Stewart has become a favorite target for Aggie quarterbacks after making an immediate impact in his debut season and continuing to shine this year.
- In just his 14th career game, Stewart eclipsed the 1,000 career receiving yard mark, which tied him with Ryan Tannehill (2008-11) as the third-fastest Aggie to reach the millennium mark ... Only Mike Evans (2012-13) and Christian Kirk (2015-17) did it faster with Evans reaching it in 12 games and Kirk in 13.
- Stewart made it back-to-back 100-yard games as he set career highs with 11 catches for 142 yards against Miami ... He became the first A&M receiver to catch 10-plus passes in a game since the 2017 season and the first to record back-to-back 100-yard games since the 2019 season.
- Stewart started his sophomore season in a big way, registering the third 100-yard game and first multi-touchdown game of his career, racking up 115 yards on eight catches and a pair of touchdown receptions against New Mexico.
- As a newcomer, Stewart registered two 100-yard games and ranked eighth among all SEC receivers, averaging 64.9 yards per game last season, which led all FBS freshmen nationally ... He was also tied for 10th overall and led all freshmen in the league with 53 receptions.
- A highly-touted recruit in A&M's top 2022 signing class, Stewart was an Under Armour All-American that was also a track standout ... He earned top-two finishes at the Texas 5A state championships in the long jump and triple jump, while also helping his 4x400m and 4x200m relay teams to medal finishes.

MAROON GOONS

- The Texas A&M offensive line returns great experience from last season ... Led by graduate Layden Robinson, who has been a staple at right guard over the last two seasons, the Aggies returned three of five starters from a year ago.
- The Aggies rank among the top five in the SEC, allowing 20.0 sacks and 49.0 TFL so far this season.
- Robinson is in his third year as a starter after helping clear the way for one of the top running back tandems in the nation in 2021 and a 1,000-yard rusher last season.
- The Aggies have seen Robinson, Trey Zuhn III, Mark Nabou Jr. and Chase Bisontis start all 10 games so far this season, while Bryce Foster, Kam Dewberry and Demetrious Crownover have had key roles on the line early on.

STEADY BACKERS

- The Aggie linebacker trio of junior Edgerrin Cooper, true freshman Taurean York and senior Chris Russell Jr. have come into their own and sparked an aggressive A&M attack in SEC play.
- Cooper has been a dominating force in SEC play, racking up 12.0 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks in A&M's seven league games as he paces the Aggies with 70 total tackles on the season ... His 16.0 TFLs on the year lead all SEC players and rank eighth nationally, while his 7.0 sack total is tied for 24th in the country and tied for third in the SEC.
- York has immediately stepped into a leadership role as a true freshman, quarterbacking the defense at mike linebacker ... His 56 tackles on the season are second on the team, while ranking second among Power 5 true freshman linebackers and sixth among all freshman defensive players ... York was named SEC Freshman of the Week after leading the A&M defense with 11 tackles, 2.0 for loss, in the win over Auburn.
- Russell has given the Aggies reliable production off the bench this season, tallying 22 tackles, including 2.0 TFL and 2.0 sacks ... In the win over Arkansas, Russell scored the first touchdown of his career when he got ahold of a tipped pass and returned it 16 yards to the end zone to lengthen A&M's lead in the third quarter.
- The defense as a whole ranks 12th in the nation and second in the SEC in total defense (290.9 y/g), while leading the Power 5 in the tackles for loss (88.0) and sacks (39.0).
- As a unit, the linebackers accounted for more than half of A&M's tackles for loss and sacks in the win over Auburn, as they tallied 6.5 of the team's 15.0 TFL and 4.0 of the team's 7.0 sacks.

NO FLY ZONE

- The A&M secondary has shut down the opposition's passing game, landing the Aggies among the nation's best in total defense and passing defense ... Veteran leader and fifth-year starter Demani Richardson helps lead the group with 50 total tackles on the season.
- Graduate transfer Josh DeBerry burst on the scene in the season opener, filling out the stat sheet and leading the way in his first game in the Maroon & White ... DeBerry matched his single-game career highs from Boston College with 10 tackles, a solo sack, a pick and a hurry.
- DeBerry leads the way ranking fourth among league players with nine passes defended ... Junior Tyreek Chappell is tied for 12th in the SEC with six breakups on the year and ranks 14th with seven passes defended after registering his first pick of the season against the Bulldogs.
- The Aggies currently rank second in the SEC and 12th among Power 5 schools allowing 187.6 yards per game through the air ... They have held six of their 10 opponents to less than 135 passing yards, most recently limiting Mississippi State to just 104 yards.
- Richardson leads all defensive players with two career touchdowns, recording 82- and 27-yard fumble returns to the end zone in the wins over No. 10 Arkansas and No. 6 LSU, respectively, last season.

DEPTH ON THE D-LINE

- A&M boasts one of the most talented and unpredictable defensive lines in the nation this season, led by the veteran experience of senior McKinnley Jackson on the inside and consistent production from junior Shemar Turner on the outside.
- Jackson and Turner have been joined in the starting lineup by junior Fadil Diggs and sophomore Walter Nolen in eight of the 10 games this season, while the Aggies have consistently used a full second rotation in every game this season that played in at least 11 games a season ago.
- The line plays a vital role in the Aggies ranking second in the SEC and 12th in the country in total defense (290.9 y/g) ... A&M leads all Power 5 teams with 88.0 tackles for loss and 39.0 sacks on the year, after beginning SEC play with 15.0 TFL and 7.0 sacks in back-to-back games.
- A&M ranks 18th in the nation in rushing defense (103.3 y/g) and leads the SEC allowing just five rushing scores all season ... The line recently held South Carolina to just 33 yards on the ground, marking the fourth time this season it has kept the opposition's run game in double figures, also limiting New Mexico (91), Miami (77), Arkansas (42) and Alabama (23).
- As a unit, the defensive line has been a key part of the Aggies' success in shutting down their opponents on third downs as they are second in the league and 11th nationally allowing just 38 conversions on 131 attempts this season, good for a 29.0 conversion percentage.

AGGIE GRADS

This season, a total of 18 Aggies will wear the SEC graduate patch on their jersey.

FAMILY TIES

- Sophomore QB Max Johnson and sophomore TE Jake Johnson arrived in Aggieland together in January of 2022 The duo connected on a 22-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter of the win over Auburn, Jake's first career TD, which marked the first time in program history brothers have connected on a scoring pass and catch ... Max transferred to A&M after two seasons at LSU, one as QB1, while Jake was a top-rated tight end in A&M's historic 2022 signing class ... They are the sons of Brad Johnson, a 17-year NFL veteran and two-time Pro Bowler that helped the Tampa Bay Buccaneers win Super Bowl XXXVII ... They are also the nephews of former Georgia and Miami head coach Mark Richt.
- Junior WR Moose Muhammad III is the son of two-time Pro Bowler and 14-year NFL veteran Muhsin Muhammad II, who was selected in the second round of the 1996 draft by the Carolina Panthers, where he spent the first nine years of his career.
- Sophomore DL LT Overton, who reclassified and graduated high school early to join the 2022 signing class, is joined on the team by his brother graduate DL Micaiah Overton, who transferred from Liberty ahead of the 2022 season ... Their father, Milton Overton, spent seven years at Texas A&M as an associate athletics director overseeing the Aggies' technology growth and services and currently serves as the AD at Kennesaw State.
- Graduate RB Jerry Johnson III transferred to A&M from Rice and was joined on the roster by his brother, freshman LB Chantz Johnson ... Their father, Jerry Johnson, is an assistant strength & conditioning coach with the A&M football team who had a brief NFL career after helping Florida State win a national championship in 1999.
- Graduate RB Earnest Crownover arrived in Aggieland ahead of the 2020 season from Kilgore Junior College and was joined on the roster by his brother, sophomore OL Dametrious Crownover in 2021.
- Freshman DL Cody Polk is the son of former Texas A&M linebacker Scott Polk (1980, 81, 82, 83, 84), who is best remembered for his dramatic scoop-and-(nearly) score in the Aggies' 37-12 win over Texas in 1984.
- Offensive line coach Steve Addazio is in his second year in Aggieland and is joined by his son and former player Louie Addazio, who spent the final three years of his playing career at Boston College before joining the coaching ranks.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

HOME OF THE 12TH MAN

THE 12TH MAN

- Graduate DB Sam Mathews was named the 12th Man on August 29, 2023.
- Mathews began his collegiate career at Division II Harding University, redshirting his only season at the Arkansas school before attending Blinn Junior College for the 2020-2021 academic year. After nearly two years away from the game of football due to COVID-19, he finally had his chance to earn a spot on the A&M team at walk-on tryouts in the spring of 2021.
- Mathews played in nine games during the 2021 season and went on to earn the Special Teams Most Improved Award at the annual team banquet.
- In 2022, Mathews continued to showcase his effort and toughness throughout fall workouts as he began to earn opportunities on defense. Eight games into the season the Aggies were hit with the flu-bug and Mathews was called on for his first career start at linebacker on Nov. 5 against Florida. Mathews finished the day with a career-high six tackles, including four solo takedowns. He finished the season playing in all 12 games and was named Special Teams MVP, while also earning the Strength & Conditioning Specialist Award at the team banquet.

ORIGINS OF THE 12TH MAN

- Texas A&M's famous 12th Man tradition dates back to Jan. 2, 1922 when student E. King Gill came out of the stands in the Dixie Classic in Dallas at the request of legendary head coach Dana X. Bible because of injuries to his football team ... Gill never entered the game but "stood ready" in the Aggies' 22-14 win over the powerhouse Centre College Praying Colonels.
- Texas A&M celebrated the 100-year anniversary of the birth of the hallowed 12th Man tradition throughout the 2021-22 school year.
- In honor of the tradition, the Texas A&M student body "stands ready" to show their support of their team on the field.

THE 12TH MAN KOT

- The 12th Man Kickoff Team tradition was started in 1983 by then-head coach Jackie Sherrill after being inspired by watching students build the famous Aggie Bonfire. "I knew that I could find, out of 40-some-odd thousand students, 11 guys that would cover kickoffs, but have no regard for their body and be tough as nails," Sherrill said. (Source: MyAggieNation.com) Beginning in 1991, a single 12th Man was chosen to represent the student body on the kickoff unit.

Elijah Robinson was named interim head coach prior to the final two games of the 2023 regular season. He was promoted to assistant head coach and run game coordinator in January of 2022 after serving as the defensive line coach in his first four seasons at Texas A&M. He arrived in Aggieland in January of 2018 following stints at Baylor, Temple and Penn State.

In 2021, the entire starting defensive line signed NFL contracts with DeMarvin Leal being selected in the third round, while Micheal Clemons was tabbed in the fourth round.

In 2020, Robison helped guide a veteran defensive line that led the SEC and was top-10 in the nation in total defense, also boasting a top-three ranking in the country in rushing defense. His guidance helped A&M post a program-best 8-1 regular season record all against SEC opponents and boast a top-five ranking through the end of the season.

In his first season at Texas A&M, Robinson's unit helped the Aggies finish second in the league in rushing defense as they allowed just 95.2 yards per game, a 75.6 yard improvement from the 2017 season. The Maroon & White tallied 2.8 sacks per game as defensive tackles Justin Madubuike and Daylon Mack finished in the top-15 in sacks in the SEC. Robinson is largely credited with sparking Mack's resurgence as a senior that saw him drafted in the fifth round by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2019 NFL Draft.

Robinson coached the defensive line for former Baylor and NFL head coach Matt Rhule for four seasons at Baylor (2017) and Temple (2014-16). During that span, Robinson mentored seven players that earned all-conference accolades.

He coached honorable mention All-Big 12 lineman Ira Lewis at Baylor in 2017 and he mentored six All-American Athletic Conference selections at Temple, including first-team picks Haason Reddick (2016), Matt Ionnidis (2015) and Nate D. Smith (2015).

The 2016 Owls' rush defense ranked No. 2 in the AAC and 25th nationally, allowing just 130.4 yards per game, and posted a conference-best 40.0 sacks. In 2015, Temple recorded 32.0 sacks, including a season-high 10.0 in the Owls' season-opening win over Penn State.

Robinson's 2014 defensive line crew racked up 27.0 sacks and 79.0 tackles for loss, as the Owls led the AAC in scoring defense (17.5 points/game) and passing defense (186.9 yards/game).

Prior to Temple, Robinson spent 10 seasons at Penn State as a student-athlete and staff member. The former Nittany Lion defensive tackle had his playing career cut short after suffering a neck injury during spring practice in 2006. He earned his bachelor's degree from PSU in 2008 and spent three years as a graduate assistant -- 2009 with academics and 2010-2011 as defensive graduate assistant -- before earning his master's degree in 2012.

During the final two months of the 2011 season, Robinson served as defensive line coach, assisting co-defensive coordinator Larry Johnson. He worked with eventual NFL players Devon Still, Jared Odrick, Aaron Maybin and Jordan Hill.

His final two seasons at Penn State he served as director of community relations and NFL liaison under then-head coach Bill O'Brien. In that role he organized scouting visits, orchestrated Pro Day, developed community service initiatives and served as the football team's liaison with admissions, compliance, housing and academics.

The Camden, N.J. native earned all-state and all-south Jersey honors at Woodrow Wilson High School, leading the team to a 15-0 record and a state championship in 2002.

Texas A&M ranked No. 8 nationally in home attendance in 2022 with an average of 97,213 and has drawn more than a half-million fans to Kyle Field every season since 2006, with the exception of the pandemic-limited 2020 campaign.

- KYLE FIELD
- Home of the Aggies since 1905. Stadium built in 1927 and the horseshoe enclosed in 1929.
 - Capacity: 102,733
 - Stadium record crowd is 110,633 (A&M vs. Ole Miss, 10/11/2014).
 - Kyle Field is named for former A&M Dean of Agriculture Edwin Jackson Kyle, who donated a 400 x 400-foot area of the southern edge of campus that had been assigned to him for horticultural experiments. It became the home of the Aggies.
 - Texas A&M finished a $485 million redevelopment of Kyle Field in time for the 2015 season that made the Home of the 12th Man the largest football stadium in the SEC and the state of Texas.
 - Texas A&M has led the SEC in home attendance five times since joining the league in 2012, including two of the last three seasons.
 - A&M was one of three teams nationally to average over 100,000 in home attendance in 2021. Kyle Field averaged 102,883 in home attendance that season with a total of 720,181 fans attending seven home games.
 - Two of the top four crowds in Kyle Field history were from the 2021 season with 109,835 for Auburn on Nov. 6 and 106,815 for Alabama on Oct. 9. Kyle Field's all-time record crowd was 110,633 for the Texas A&M-Ole Miss contest on Oct. 11, 2014 when capacity was expanded to over 107,000 during the stadium redevelopment.

AINIAS SMITH

WR • GR-4L • MISSOURI CITY, TEXAS [FORT BEND DULLES]

- Graduate WR Ainiias Smith has been a jack of all trades. He has been a standout for the Aggies on punt and kick return throughout his career, while also playing at receiver and running back through his career.
- A true quadruple threat, in his career he has gained more than 250 yards as a rusher (405), receiver (2,328), punt returner (824) and kick returner (301). Among Aggies in the 3,000-yard club, he is one of only seven players to even have stats in all four categories and just two others -- Dante Hall and Larry Stegent -- have 250+ in all four.
- Smith stands as the only 2,000-yard receiver in SEC history to rack up at least 250 career yards as a rusher, punt returner and kick returner.
- Smith caught four passes for 64 yards and a score in the win over South Carolina. It marked the 19th touchdown reception of his career tying him for No. 5 on the Aggies' all-time list with Uzoma Nwachukwu (2009-12) and Bob Long (1966-68).
- After becoming the 20th Aggie in program history to reach 3,000 career all-purpose yards, Smith recorded 98 all-purpose yards against Ole Miss to surpass Larry Stegent (3,780) for No. 8 on A&M's all-time list with 3,858 to-date. He is also on the verge of breaking into the all-time top five at A&M in receiving touchdowns, yards and receptions, as well as punt return yards.
- He has recorded a reception in 37 consecutive games, a streak that dates back to the 2019 LSU game. Over that span, he has registered 14 games with five-plus catches and 11 with at least 70 receiving yards. It is the longest streak of games with at least one catch for an Aggie since Christian Kirk (2015-17) had a string of 39 games from 2015-17.
- Smith is the nation's active career leader in punt return yards (824), while his 3,858 career all-purpose yards rank in the top 20 among active FBS players.
- He has 1,054 all-purpose yards this season, eclipsing the 1,000 all-purpose yard mark for the first time in a season in his career. Smith leads the Aggies averaging 105.4 all-purpose yards per game.
- Smith registered his first receiving touchdown of the season after catching a 20-yard pass before gashing the South Carolina defense to complete the 42-yard touchdown reception. The touchdown catch was the 18th of his career putting him in sole possession of the seventh-most career receiving touchdowns surpassing Mike Evans (2012-13).
- Throughout the season Smith has been the spark for the Aggies leading the way with 21 plays of 20-plus yards, including 17 catches of 20-plus yards. He is the only Aggie to have multiple games of at least three 20-plus yard catches after he registered three against South Carolina and four against ULM.
- He turned in a huge game in the win over Arkansas, finishing with a career-high 202 all-purpose yards, including an 82-yard punt return to the house, the second punt return touchdown of his career.
- Smith started the 2022 season with a statement, racking up a career-high 164 receiving yards and adding two 40-plus yard touchdown grabs. His pair of aerial scores marked the seventh multi-touchdown game of his career and his fifth multi-receiving TD game.
- Throughout his career he has handled the punt return duties where he has averaged 10.9 yards per return with two trips to the end zone. In 2021, he ranked third in the SEC and 11th nationally at 11.3 yards per return. As a freshman, he was the kickoff return specialist.
- Smith led the team in total touchdowns (10) in 2020, becoming the first Aggie to average a touchdown per game for an entire season since Trayveon Williams (2016-18) in 2018.
- Smith was not unfamiliar with the SEC prior to committing to Texas A&M, as his brother Maurice Smith was a cornerback at Alabama before transferring after graduation to Georgia. Maurice played four seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins, Washington Football Team, Cincinnati Bengals and Tennessee Titans.

MAX JOHNSON

QB • SO-1L • ATHENS, GA. [OCONEE COUNTY/LSU]

- Sophomore QB Max Johnson is in his second stint as QB1 for the Aggies, taking over the reins at halftime of the Auburn game and leading A&M to their first SEC win of the season. A poised pocket passer, Johnson hasn't hesitated to get mobile in his second season in Aggieland.
- Johnson registered his first Aggie 300-plus yard game throwing for 31-of-42 for 305 yards and one score, while adding one rushing touchdown against Ole Miss.
- He came off the bench to throw for 123 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Aggies' SEC-opening win over Auburn and led A&M to victory in his first start of the season, racking up 210 yards and connecting in a scoring pass.
- Johnson has thrown at least one touchdown pass in 24 of 30 collegiate games between his time at A&M and LSU.
- He completed 20-of-30 passes for 249 yards, including a 42-yard touchdown pass against South Carolina. It marked as an Aggie career long touchdown pass for Johnson.
- After transferring from LSU, he was joined in Aggieland by younger brother Jake, a 4-star tight end in the Aggies' historic 2022 signing class. The Johnson brothers have connected in a big way since with Max finding Jake for touchdown passes against Auburn, Alabama and Ole Miss.
- Johnson became the ninth player in SEC history to hit the 5,000-yard passing mark with his 239-yard effort against Alabama. He currently has 5,298 total yards passing between his time at LSU and Texas A&M.
- Johnson helped lead A&M to back-to-back wins over AP-top 15 opponents in his first two starts in Aggieland in 2022, making his debut as QB1 in Week 3 and guiding the Aggies to a 17-9 victory over then-No. 13 Miami before the team traveled to Arlington to knock off then-No. 10 Arkansas. He suffered a hand injury the next week at Mississippi State and missed the remainder of the season.
- In his two seasons at LSU, he saw action in 18 games, making 14 starts. As a starter for the Tigers, Johnson compiled an 8-6 record, which included a win over the Aggies in the Tigers' 2021 regular season finale.
- A lefthander, Johnson was the first southpaw to start at QB for the Aggies since dual-sport standout Jeff Granger started the first eight games of 1992.
- Johnson surpassed the 300-yard plateau in passing yards six times in his two seasons in Baton Rouge, including career bests of 435 yards against Ole Miss in 2020 and five touchdowns against Central Michigan in 2021.
- Johnson's father, Brad Johnson, played quarterback for four teams over 15 seasons in the NFL. He was QB1 in Tampa Bay's win over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, and he earned Pro Bowl trips with Washington in 1999 and Tampa Bay in 2002. Johnson's 29,054 career passing yards rank No. 58 in NFL history according to pro-football-reference.com. Johnson was a four-year letterman for Florida State from 1988-91 and was a senior on the 1991 squad that defeated Texas A&M 10-2 in the 1992 Cotton Bowl.

JAYLEN HENDERSON

QB • SO-TR • ENCINO, CALIF. [CHAMINADE/FRESNO STATE]

- Sophomore transfer QB Jaylen Henderson made his first career start against Mississippi State becoming the third quarterback to start under center for the Aggies this season.
- The dual-threat quarterback finished his A&M debut by accounting for four touchdowns. He completed 11-of-19 for 150 yards and two TDs while rushing 12 times for 60 yards and two TDs.
- Henderson is the first Aggie QB to score multiple rushing touchdowns in a game since Kellen Mond (2017-20) scored a pair of rushing TDs in the first quarter against Mississippi State in 2019.
- Henderson began his collegiate career at Fresno State where he saw action in five games throwing 5-of-8 for 49 yards.
- Rated a 3-star quarterback out of Chaminade High School. During a shortened five game 2021 spring season, he threw for 1,402 yards, 15 touchdowns and rushed for 345 yards with one touchdown.

EVAN STEWART

WR • SO-1L • MEMPHIS, TENN. [FRISCO LIBERTY (TX)]

- Sophomore WR Evan Stewart made an immediate impact in his debut season in Aggieland, ranking as one of the top receivers in the SEC and one of the best freshmen in the nation in 2022.
- Stewart started his sophomore season with back-to-back 100-yard games, tallying 115 yards on eight receptions in the season-opening win over New Mexico and racking up 142 yards on 11 catches at Miami. He became the first Aggie to post consecutive games with 100+ receiving yards since Jhamon Ausbon (2017-19) had 109 against Lamar and 111 versus Auburn in 2019.
- In just the 14th game of his career, Stewart reached the 1,000 receiving yards mark, tying him with Ryan Tannehill (2008-11) as the third-fastest Aggie to reach the millennium mark. Only Mike Evans (2012-13) and Christian Kirk (2015-17) did it faster with Evans reaching it in 12 games and Kirk in 13.
- Stewart leads the Aggies with three touchdowns of 20-plus yards and is second on the team with nine receptions of 20-plus yards.
- He ranked eighth among all SEC receivers, averaging 64.9 yards per game last season, which led all FBS freshmen nationally ... He was also tied for 10th overall and led all freshmen in the league with 53 receptions.
- Stewart's 649 receiving yards on the season marked the fifth-most by an Aggie in their freshman season, while his 53 receptions on the year ranked fourth on A&M's all-time freshman list.
- Stewart recorded two 100-yard games in his debut season, tallying 106 yards on eight catches at Alabama and added 120 yards on eight grabs against Florida.
- Following his impressive debut season, Stewart was named an All-American by The Athletic, ESPN and FWAA, while also earning SEC All-Freshman Team honors
- Was coached by former Dallas Cowboys start tight end Jason Witten at Frisco Liberty High School.

DEMANI RICHARDSON

DB • SR-4L • WAXAHACHIE, TEXAS [WAXAHACHIE]

- Senior DB Demani Richardson is in his fifth year as a starter for the Aggies and serves as a veteran and vocal leader in the defensive backfield that has started a team-best 35-straight games.
- Richardson has made at least five tackles in four of A&M's seven SEC games, posting a season-best eight takedowns at Tennessee.
- Richardson led the team with 73 tackles on the season in 2022, including 49 solo tackles which ranked 11th in the SEC and his two forced fumbles tied him for ninth in the SEC. He helped A&M boast the No. 1 passing defense in the nation (156.2 y/g) and top-25 scoring defense in the country (21.2 ppg).
- He closed out the 2022 season with a team-best 10 tackles and scored his second touchdown of the season on a 27-yard scoop-and-score to earn him SEC Defensive Player of the Week.
- In the Alabama game, Richardson led the defense and registered the third double-digit tackles game of his career with 12 takedowns.
- Against Arkansas, Richardson went 82 yards to the end zone for A&M's first defensive touchdown of the season. After senior LB Chris Russell Jr. punched the ball out near the goal line, sophomore DB Tyreek Chappell scooped it up and returned the ball 15 yards before getting wrapped up by the Arkansas defense and handing the ball off to Richardson for the sprint down field.
- Richardson helped lead the way for the Aggies in the season opener tallying five takedowns, including one for a 5-yard loss, as the A&M defense held the Bearkats scoreless and limited them to just 198 yards of offense.
- Richardson was third on the team with 65 tackles in 2021, finishing top-three on the team in the category for the second time in his career. He added an interception, 2.0 sacks, a forced fumble and three pass breakups on the season.
- He was a key cog for A&M's defense that boasted the No. 3 scoring defense in the country last season (15.9) and was third in the SEC in total yards allowed (327.5). Additionally, the defense ranked in the top 20 nationally in passing defense (192.7) and was tied for fifth in the league in passes defended (55).
- In the upset win over No. 1 Alabama in 2021, he recorded his third career interception as he picked off Bryce Young in the end zone.
- He was given the Defensive Production Award and Defensive Aggie Award for strength & conditioning at the team's annual banquet following the 2021 season.

MCKINNLEY JACKSON

DL • SR-3L • LUCEDALE, MISS. [GEORGE COUNTY]

- Defensive lineman McKinnley Jackson is a veteran leader on a young defensive line that boasts a lot of talent and depth this season.
- Jackson was named to the Lombardi Award Midseason Watch List.
- He had 2.0 sacks and 3.5 TFLs in the Aggies' first two conference games, both stellar showings by the defensive line which resulted in 7.0 total sacks apiece in the wins over Auburn and Arkansas.
- Jackson hit a stride midway through the 2022 season, tallying at least five tackles in five of the eight games he played in, including a 12-takedown performance against Ole Miss.
- Jackson filled out the stat sheet at Auburn, posting six tackles, 2.0 TFL, 1.0 sack and a fumble recovery.
- Jackson served as a season-long team captain in 2022 and helped lead the way for the No. 1 passing defense in the country (156.2 y/g) and top-25 scoring defense (21.2 ppg).
- By season's end, Jackson earned the Aggie Defense Leadership Award and Defense MVP Award, as well as the Strength & Conditioning Defensive Award.
- Jackson played in 10 games in 2021 and 2020, making a combined five starts through the two seasons. In 2020, he was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.
- A 4-star recruit out of high school, Jackson was the top-rated player out of Mississippi and was an Army All-American.

EDGERRIN COOPER

LB • JR-3L • COVINGTON, LA. [COVINGTON]

- Junior LB Edgerrin Cooper is in his third season as a starter at linebacker and has been unstoppable in SEC play, helping the Aggies rank as one of the best defenses in the nation.
- For his high-level play this season, Cooper was named a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award.
- Cooper leads the SEC and ranks eighth in the country with 16.0 total tackles for loss. He has put up six games with multiple TFLs, including 12.0 in SEC games.
- He registered the fourth double-digit tackles game of his career, second of the season, when he tallied 11 takedowns in the win over Mississippi State.
- Against South Carolina, Cooper led the defense with seven tackles, including 1.5 TFL and 0.5 sack, tallying four QB hurries and forcing a fumble to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career.
- In the first three games of SEC player, Cooper posted at least 2.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack in each game, totaling 8.0 TFL and 6.0 sacks through that span.
- Cooper recovered a fumble at Miami after landing on a muffed punt on the Miami 9-yard line to set up A&M's second touchdown of the first half.
- He led the Aggies with 8.0 tackles for loss a season ago and was fourth on the team with 61 tackles.
- Cooper started all 12 games in 2021 and was fourth on the team with 58 tackles, while earning 2021 SEC All-Freshman Team honors and earned Defensive Most Improved and the Defensive Aggie Award for strength & conditioning at the annual team banquet.
- He was a key contributor on an Aggie defense that ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense last season (15.9) and led the SEC in total yards allowed. Additionally, the defense ranked in the top 20 in passing defense (192.7) and top five in the league with 39.0 sacks.
- A standout at Covington High School, Cooper was a four-star recruit and a top-10 prospect out of the state of Louisiana.

Aggies Roll to 52-10 Win in Season Opener

Conner Weigman tossed five touchdown passes, while the receiving duo of Evan Stewart and Noah Thomas combined for 189 yards and five TDs as the No. 23 Texas A&M Aggies rolled to a 52-10 win over the New Mexico Lobos in Saturday's season opener at Kyle Field.

Weigman's scoring strike tally was the most for an A&M quarterback in a season opener and marked the most by an Aggie in a regulation game since Johnny Manziel in 2013. Playing in just the first three quarters, he finished the day 18-for-23 for 236 yards.

The Aggies took control early carrying a 35-7 lead into the half, including four scoring tosses by Weigman and one rushing score compliments of Le'Veon Moss. Weigman threw his fifth touchdown as the Aggies took a commanding 42-10 lead into the final quarter. The Maroon & White added on 10 more points with a 12 yard touchdown pass from Max Johnson to Moose Muhammad II before Randy Bond nailed a 39 yard field goal.

Stewart led the receiving core with 115 yards on eight catches and two scores, while Thomas tallied 74 yards receiving on six catches and three TDs.

Graduate transfer Josh DeBerry filled the stat sheet with a career-high 10 tackles while adding a pick, a solo sack and a QB hurry. As a unit, the Aggies held the Lobos to only 91 yards on the ground on 32 carries for a 2.8-yard average.

Aggies Fall on the Road at Miami, 48-33

The Texas A&M Aggies were unable to weather a Miami surge in a 48-33 loss to the Hurricanes at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Aggies led 17-7 two minutes into the second quarter, but Miami outscored the Maroon & White 41-16 the rest of the way.

A&M capitalized on great field position in the opening series with a blocked punt by Jahdae Walker before Conner Weigman punched it in from the 1-yard line for his first career rushing touchdown. Randy Bond extended the early lead to 10-0 with a 24-yard field goal.

After a Miami score, Edgerrin Cooper recovered a Miami muffed punt before Amari Danies scored with a 9-yard rush to make it 17-7. Texas A&M trailed, 21-17, heading into the break following 14 unanswered points by Miami.

Bond brought the game within one, before two second-half turnovers and a special teams miscue hindered the Aggies' comeback effort.

Weigman ended the game connecting on 31 of 53 passes for 336 yards and two touchdowns and two interceptions. Evan Stewart registered career highs with 11 catches for 142 yards, his second 100-yard game of the season and fourth of his career.

Aggies Dominate Warhawks, 47-3

Texas A&M Aggies scored on their first seven drives and outgained ULM in total offense yards for the day to the tune of 557-222. Ol' Sarge's charges owned a 399-95 advantage in passing yardage.

Conner Weigman registered his second consecutive 300-yard passing day, going 25-for-29 with 337 yards and one touchdown. He came up one yard shy of his career high. Max Johnson completed 7-of-11 passes for 62 yards and one touchdown off the bench.

Texas A&M's defense held ULM to just eight first downs in the game, including four through the first three quarters. The Aggies held the Warhawks to 1-of-12 on 3rd-down conversions with their first successful attempt coming on the final drive.

Ainias Smith led the receiving corps with seven catches for 127 yards, his first 100-yard game of the season and the fifth of his career. Jahdae Walker added five receptions for 110 yards and one TD. The duo racked up over 100 yards apiece before halftime.

Texas A&M rolled to 359 yards of total offense in the first half, spearheaded by Weigman's passing. The sophomore quarterback connected on 19-of-23 for 287 yards and one TD through the air. He also scampered for a 19-yard score midway through the second quarter as the Aggies staked claim to a 17-3 edge. The Aggies' two other first half touchdowns were a 12-yard Weigman-to-Walker aerial strike with 2:26 remaining in the first quarter and a 4-yard Amari Daniels run with :48 remaining in the first half. The Maroon & White led 27-3 at the intermission.

Rueben Owens added a touchdown on a 21-yard rush in the third quarter before Johnson tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Raymond Cottrell in the fourth quarter.

Randy Bond was 4-for-4 on field goals, including hitting a career-long 52-yarder with 7:11 left in the fourth quarter to cap the game's scoring.

Aggies Sack Auburn to Open SEC Play, 27-10

Spelling starter Conner Weigman due to injury with a precarious 6-3 lead coming out of halftime, Max Johnson completed his first five passes for 95 yards, including a pair of touchdown strikes, to lead Texas A&M in a dominant second half.

Meanwhile, the Texas A&M defense overwhelmed Auburn, holding the Tigers to 200 yards of total offense thanks in large part to a season-high seven sacks. The visitors were only able to scrounge up 56 passing yards on the day with three different quarterbacks taking snaps.

Auburn's first four drives of the second half resulted in three-and-outs and Texas A&M outgained the Tigers 146-2 in total offense in the pivotal third quarter. The Maroon & White held the Tigers to 3-of-15 on third-down conversions for the game, including just 1-of-10 through the first three quarters. After the Aggie defense held Auburn to a three-and-out on the first series of the second half, Johnson led Ol' Sarge's charges on a six-play, 46-yard drive, hitting his brother Jake Johnson for a 22-yard scoring toss, staking the Maroon & White to a 13-3 lead with 9:42 remaining in the quarter.

The Texas A&M defense stymied the Tigers again on the next drive after just three plays and the Aggies followed with another touchdown drive. This time they traveled 65 yards on six plays, capped by a precision 37-yard aerial to Evan Stewart in the end zone to stretch the margin 17 at the 6:22 mark of the third quarter.

Amari Daniels iced the game with 4:20 remaining when he weaved his way to a career-long 79-yard run, taking the ball down to the Auburn 4-yard line. Le'Veon Moss pounded his way into the end zone on the next play for the final score of the game.

Max Johnson ended the day hitting on 7-of-11 through the air for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

The Aggies mounted a 6-0 lead with a pair of first quarter field goals by Randy Bond. He closed out Texas A&M's game-opening 12-play, 41-yard drive with a 51-yarder. With 5:31 remaining in the period he hit a 32-yarder following a three-and-out by Auburn.

The backfield tandem of Moss and Daniels gobbled up career highs for rushing yardage. Moss ended the day with 97 yards on 15 carries. Daniels added 85 yards on five totes as the Aggies rolled up 209 yards in the ground game.

Linebackers Taurean York and Cooper played like mad dogs in a meat market to lead the A&M defense. York registered a career-high 11 tackles, including 2.0 TFL. Cooper logged eight tackles, including 3.0 TFL and a career-high 2.0 sacks. Walter Nolen and Chris Russell Jr. both checked in with 1.5 sacks.

Aggies Bring Home the Bacon at Southwest Classic, 34-22

Texas A&M had a 17-6 lead after the first 30 minutes of play, before Arkansas came within one score after returning an interception for a touchdown to begin the second half.

The Aggies distanced themselves following a Chris Russell Jr. pick six before Ainiias Smith put the nail in the coffin scoring on an 82-yard punt return to stake claim to a 34-16 lead with 7:40 left.

The Aggie defense limited Arkansas to 174 yards of total offense. KJ Jefferson was sacked seven times as Edgerrin Cooper led the Aggie sack attack, racking up six tackles, 3.0 for loss of yardage, and two quarterback takedowns.

Offensively, Max Johnson connected on 17-of-28 pass attempts for 210 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Le'Veon Moss rushed for 107 yards on 17 carries in his first career 100-yard game. Johnson added 57 yards on the ground on nine totes. Smith hauled in four catches for 71 yards, amassing 202 all-purpose yards – his first career 200-yard effort.

Aggies Drop a 26-20 Decision to No. 11 Alabama

Alabama scored the first 16 points coming out of the intermission to erase A&M's 17-10 halftime lead as the Aggies were unable to take advantage of two second-half Alabama turnovers.

Two plays after the Aggies' Bryce Anderson intercepted a Jalen Milroe pass and returned it 15 yards to the A&M 35-yard line, the Crimson Tide's Caleb Downs picked off a Max Johnson pass at the Aggies' 37-yard line.

Alabama followed with a six-play scoring drive capped off by a 15-yard aerial from Milroe to Jermaine Burton to tie the game 17-17 midway through the third quarter.

The Crimson Tide scored on its next possession with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Milroe to Burton, staking claim to a 24-17 advantage with 22 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

Texas A&M's Demani Richardson forced a fumble and Anderson recovered it at the Alabama 29-yard line with 11:09 remaining in the game. The Aggies were only able to cobble five yards on the drive and Randy Bond's 41-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Chris Braswell.

The Crimson Tide lead stretched to nine points when Johnson was called for intentional grounding in the end zone, resulting in a safety with 5:55 on the clock.

Texas A&M appeared to hit paydirt twice on its final drive of the game, but both were called back – one due to video review and one with a holding call. Johnson hit Ainiias Smith in the left flat and Smith broke through two tackles and outran a defender down the left sideline, but was deemed to have stepped out at the 2-yard line. Two plays later Le'Veon Moss rushed around the left end into the end zone from 2 yards out, but a holding call negated the score. The Aggies settled for a 20-yard field goal by Bond to trim the margin to 26-20 with 2:11 remaining.

Aggies Fall on the Road to No. 19 Tennessee, 20-13

Texas A&M held Tennessee to just one offensive touchdown, but a punt return score proved critical as the 19th-ranked Vols claimed a 20-13 win over the Aggies Saturday at Neyland Stadium.

Trailing by one to begin the fourth quarter, Texas A&M (4-3, 2-2) fended off another Tennessee (5-1, 2-1) attack as Josh DeBerry intercepted a pass in the end zone. Hopes of a late comeback diminished following a missed 50-yard field goal and two Volunteer interceptions, despite the Aggie defense holding the opposition to two field goals in the final 10 minutes.

The Aggie defense held Tennessee to 7-of-15 on 3rd down conversions and limited the Volunteers to 3-of-5 in red zone chances. Taurean York filled the stat line with nine tackles, including six solo takedowns and 2.5 tackles for loss, while adding one forced fumble. Jacoby Mathews and Demani Richardson added eight tackles each. Fadil Diggs and McKinley Jackson each recorded solo sacks, while D.J. Hicks and Isaiah Raikes added half sacks.

Max Johnson capped Texas A&M's opening drive with a 2-yard scramble as he dove towards the pylon for his first career rushing score as an Aggie. Tennessee evened the score with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Joe Milton III to Jacob Warren as the opening stanza ended.

Randy Bond nailed a 41-yard field to put the Aggies up 10-7 early in the second frame. A&M's defense continued to hold the Volunteer offense to one score in the first half following a missed field goal and forcing a punt to carry the lead into the half.

Tennessee took its first lead midway through the third quarter as Dee Williams returned a 39-yard punt for touchdown. The ensuing drive Johnson led the Aggies down the field completing 4-of-5 passes for 69 yards before the offense stalled as Bond split the uprights for a 21-yard field goal to bring the Aggies within one, 14-13.

Texas A&M Rolls Past South Carolina for 30-17 Victory

The Texas A&M football team overcame an early deficit to roll past the South Carolina Gamecocks for a comfortable 30-17 victory at Kyle Field on Saturday.

Ainias Smith led A&M (5-3, 3-2 SEC) with one receiving touchdown and a team-high 118 receiving yards on six catches. Max Johnson completed 20-of-30 passes for 249 yards and one aerial strike, while Amari Daniels led the ground effort with 68 yards on 13 carries and a rushing touchdown.

Bryce Anderson paced the defense with a season-high seven tackles, including 2.5 for loss and 2.0 sacks. Edgerrin Cooper added seven tackles, four quarterback hurries, 1.0 sack and a forced fumble.

Twenty-one unanswered points in the second quarter by Ol' Sarge's charges gave them a 21-7 at the half. After Texas A&M gave up a late first quarter score, Rueben Owens put the Aggies on the board with a 14-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter to tie the game with 9:00 remaining in the first half.

Texas A&M captured its first lead with less than two-minutes left in the opening half after Daniels punched it in with a 1-yard rush into the end zone. The Maroon & White made it a two-score game in the final minute after Johnson connected with Smith for a 20-yard pass before Smith dashed into the end zone to complete the 42-yard touchdown reception.

The Gamecocks (2-6, 1-5 SEC) opened the scoring in the second half with a 49-yard field goal, followed by a 26-yard field goal from Randy Bond to make it 24-10 heading into the fourth quarter.

South Carolina would score on the opening play of the final frame to make it 24-17 in favor of the Aggies, but the Maroon & White struck back with a 24-yard Bond field goal to extend the lead back to double-digits, 27-17, with 11:00 left in the fourth.

The A&M defense forced a turnover on downs that led to a career-long tying 52-yard field goal by Bond with 7:39 remaining to increase the margin to 30-17. Cooper forced a fumble with 2:45 left that was recovered by McKinley Jackson to seal the deal.

Texas A&M's Comeback Falls Short at Ole Miss, 38-35

Texas A&M's second-half comeback fell short in the final seconds as the Aggies dropped a nail-biter to No. 11 Ole Miss, 38-35, Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

A blocked 47-yard field goal in the final seconds proved to be the deciding factor as the tipped ball landed short of the uprights. Texas A&M (5-4, 3-3) tallied two fourth quarter scores courtesy of Amari Daniels lunging it in from 1-yard out with 12:04 left and Max Johnson diving over the line from 1-yard out to put the Aggies up 35-31 with 4:34 left. Ole Miss (8-1, 5-1) countered and scored the game-winning touchdown on a 1-yard rush with 1:40 left.

Johnson was 31-of-42 for 305 passing yards and one score, while Daniels led the ground attack rushing 12 times for 70 yards and a touchdown. Jahdae Walker led the receiving corps with eight catches for 100 yards. Bryce Anderson paced the Maroon & White with eight tackles, including five solo takedowns, while Demani Richardson and Edgerrin Cooper each tackled on seven tackles.

Trailing 14-0 midway through the second quarter, Ol' Sarge's charges came alive after Shemar Turner blocked a 41-yard field goal attempt that landed in the hands of Jacoby Mathews who returned it 75 yards to the house.

Ole Miss extended the lead to 20-7 on the ensuing drive before Le'Veon Moss answered back with a 13-yard rushing touchdown to bring the Aggies within one score heading into the half.

The Maroon & White threatened to take their first lead in the third quarter before Ole Miss capitalized with an interception in the end zone. Down 28-14, Max Johnson connected with Jake Johnson for a 28-yard touchdown reception to bring the Aggies within a score. Ole Miss extended its lead to 10, 31-21, heading into the final stanza.

Aggies Ring Mississippi State's Bell in 51-10 Rout

The Texas A&M defense stymied Mississippi State and Jaylen Henderson held up his end of the bargain in his Kyle Field debut, propelling the Aggies to a 51-10 takedown of the Bulldogs.

Henderson accounted for four touchdowns in his first game at Kyle Field. He completed 11-of-19 passes for 150 yards and two scores. He rushed 12 times for 60 yards and two more touchdowns.

The Aggies started behind the 8-ball when Mississippi State's Zavion Thomas returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown, but A&M's defense held the Bulldogs to just a second quarter field goal for the remainder of the game.

Texas A&M forced four turnovers, including the first three interception game in league action since 2015. The highlight was a scoop-and-score by Shemar Stewart after a forced fumble by Jarred Kerr. Tyreek Chappell, Deuce Harmon and Jacoby Mathews picked off passes.

Henderson marshaled Ol' Sarge's charges on a six-play, 80-yard drive to tie the game on the Aggies opening drive, after he scampered 22 yards to paydirt. Texas A&M dominated the rest of the half, with three more touchdowns and a pair of Randy Bond field goals to lead 34-10 at the intermission.

The Aggies kept their foot on the gas pedal the rest of the half. Henderson hit Ainiias Smith on a 19-yard slip screen for a score at the 4:58 mark and Henderson added his second rushing touchdown from 11 yards out in the waning moments of the first half.

Texas A&M closed out the scoring with an 11-yard touchdown strike from Henderson to Jahdae Walker late in the third quarter and a 45-yard field goal by Bond midway through the fourth.
