HOMESTAND FOR AGGIES

The No. 21 Texas A&M men's basketball team opens December with its first homestand of the season with games against DePaul and Memphis this week at the friendly confines of Reed Arena.

- It will be the first time the Aggies have played back-to-back home games since early February of 2023.
- The Blue Demons and Tigers are returning home games in 2023 after the Aggies visited Chicago and Memphis last fall. The Aggies split the roadies last year, beating DePaul, 82-69, and falling to Memphis, 83-79.

TRENDS AND NOTABLES

- The Aggies are returning to action after a one-week hiatus from games after falling at Virginia, 59-47, in ACC-SEC Challenge play on 11/29.
- The first NET rankings of the year were released by the NCAA on 12/4. As of 12/5, the Aggies were No. 14 nationally and tops in the SEC in NET with their strength of schedule rated at No. 6 nationally.

Prior to Texas A&M, Monaco spent 16 seasons with the San Antonio Spurs and was a part of the broadcast crew covering two NBA titles.
- A team captain on the Aggies' SWC Championship team in 1974-75, Dr. John Thornton has served as the color analyst for the men's basketball team for many years. Also the SEC Newcomer of the Year in 1973-74, Thornton was an assistant coach from 1981-90 and served as interim head coach in 1990 before embarking on a long career as an administrator for Texas A&M Athletics.

WHAT'S UNIQUE ABOUT AGGIE HOOPS?

GAMEDAY VIBES

- During gameday shoot-arounds, the Aggies traditionally vibe to The Commodores Pandora station on the team Turtlebox (founded by an Aggie) bluetooth speaker.

Buzz Williams @TeamCoachBuzz · Feb 16
Happy 65th Birthday 🎉 to 🇺🇸 of my favorites in the 🌎: @maccyyk

I 🇺🇸 this is ur best 🇺🇸 yet.

As the newest member of Team 🇺🇸, the impact you have had is tremendous! We are so grateful you are here! 🇺🇸

BIRTHDAY SHENANIGANS

- On player or staff member's birthdays, Williams honors the occasion with an emoji-filled tweet that always includes a wrong number of birthdays for the celebrator.

GETTING THE JUICE

- Prior to practices, the team draws into a huddle at midcourt and Buzz Williams distributes "The Juice" to the team, which is actually simply hand sanitizer. Williams has been distributing "The Juice" prior to practices since his days at Marquette to ward off the spread of germs in the winter months.

TURKEYS AND SOCKS

- In Aggie Basketball vernacular, a "turkey" is when an opponent is held scoreless on three straight possessions. When the team has posted consecutive stops, the Aggie bench calls out "turkey, turkey" to implore the five on the floor to get another stop.
- Taking charges on defense is valued by Aggie Basketball, and the team rewards a charge taken by presenting a pair of socks to the charge taker.

CULTURE WALL

- After road game shoot-arounds, everyone on the trip gets on the court for a fun photo. If the Aggies win, the photo is posted on @teamcoachbuzz and added to the "Culture Wall" in the locker room.

PROFESSOR BUZZ

- Always seeking to connect to young people, Williams has guest-lectured for the School of Military Science (SOMS) class at Texas A&M the past two fall semesters. His lectures, originating from Rudder Forum inside the Rudder Theatre Complex, have featured topics such as "Learning How You Learn," "Leading Through Change," "The Birthday Paradox," "The Principal-Agent Problem" and "Never Assume Anything." Williams also taught similar classes at Virginia Tech.

#GETBETTER EXPLAINED

- #getBETTER is the mantra for Buzz Williams and his teams. It refers to "the continual improvement in all facets of life. Always finding something to work on, to make progress on. Never being satisfied. Always looking for ways to grow."

READING IS FUN

- Buzz Williams is a voracious reader, generally completing 4-5 books every month. On Oct. 2, 2023, he tweeted from @TeamCoachBuzz his "3rd Quarter 2023 Reads" with a list of the 39 books he consumed in the first nine months of 2023. For the last 11 years, Williams has selected and gifted a book to every player, staff member and their family on the initial road trip of the season. Describing his commitment to reading, Williams said, "Who you are today and who you will be five years from today are the people you meet and the books that you read. Regardless of the genre of book that you read, they say it's worth five years of experience." (Source: @AggieMBK/Dec. 16, 2023)

QUOTE SHIRTS

During the course of a season, Williams distributes 12 "Quote Shirts" to his players and staff that carry a life lesson or story behind its design for which the people within the men's basketball family can relate. Here are 2023-24's Quote Shirts so far:

'ACTION Weighs More Than Inaction'

'If You See It, Say It'

'Time Either Promotes or Exposes Who You Are'

BEING THANKFUL

- A staple of every road trip are the Aggies' Thank You letters. Each coach/player/staff member on the trip writes a Thank You letter to someone in their life at the first team meal of the roadie.

BUZZ'S BUNCH

"Buzz's Bunch" connects young people with special needs to the game of basketball with an invitation to a game in the fall and a summer clinic. Originally founded during Williams' time in Milwaukee, Wisconsin at Marquette, Buzz's Bunch continued during his time in Blacksburg, Virginia at Virginia Tech and now at Texas A&M. Every player, coach and staff member has been lucky to develop a relationship, learn and grown from these children as Buzz's Bunch has grown to more than 500 members spanning all three cities.

SHOOTING WITH BUZZ

- "Shooting with Buzz" is a staple of the Aggies' practice regimen. As described by the Bryan-College Station Eagle: "Each player must move their way through 18 shooting spots – some straight catch and shoot and some off of movement – and make 7 of 10 shots. The clock starts after the player's first make and stops once the whole circuit is done. Managers rebound the shots and pass a ball to Williams, who stands near the player, handing the ball off for each shot. On the sideline, a manager stands in front of a giant white board, keeping tallies of the players score at each position. On the other side, a record book of times it took to complete the course are logged."

Williams told the Eagle the impetus for "Shooting with Buzz" was, "I wanted to try to figure out a way, coming off of COVID and all the protocols and having, in essence, a completely revamped roster – how could I find some time working, while at the same time not screaming, while, in an unspoken way, they know I'm trying to invest in their life and in their game."

BUZZ WILLIAMS AT A GLANCE

- Buzz Williams is in his fifth season as the head coach at Texas A&M and his 17th year as a collegiate head coach.
- Prior to being named head coach of the Aggies on April 3, 2019, Williams served as head coach at Virginia Tech (5 years, 2014-19), Marquette (6 years, 2008-14) and New Orleans (1 year, 2006-07).
- Last summer, the Texas A&M University System Board of Regents approved a contract extension for Williams through the 2028 season. Director of Athletics Ross Bjork said, "Buzz Williams is a tremendous leader and role model for our student-athletes, and he's a great example of Texas A&M's core values. He's taken our men's basketball team to new heights over the past two seasons with even brighter days ahead. It was an easy decision to ensure that Buzz is here in Aggieland for many years to come as we continue our mission of creating opportunities through championship athletics."
- With the Aggies' invitation to the 2023 NCAA Tournament, Williams has become one of a handful of Div. I head coaches to take three different programs to the "Big Dance." He's coached in 19 NCAA Tournament games and produced 10 victories, which rank No. 22 in both categories among active Div. I head coaches. For his age (51) and his number of years as a head coach (16), Williams is the active leader in total victories, NCAA Tournament games and NCAA Tournament victories.
- He received the nickname "Buzz" while working as an energetic student assistant for longtime Navarro Junior College coach and mentor Lewis Orr. Williams was inducted into the Navarro College Bulldog Hall of Fame in 2021 as the school honored Williams' climb from "floor maintenance manager" to head coach.
- Brent Langdon Williams or "Buzz" was born in Greenville, Texas and grew up in the small Texas town of Van Alstyne (population 4,369), which is located 50 miles north of the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas. Van Alstyne is pronounced Van ALL-steen.
- This is Williams' second stint at Texas A&M - he also served as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator on Billy Gillispie's first staff at Texas A&M from 2004-06.
- Williams is one of the few NCAA Div. I head coaches that did not play college basketball. Instead, he was a student/graduate assistant at Navarro JC, Oklahoma City University and TAMU-Kingsville.
- Perhaps the most impactful initiative by Williams was the founding of "Buzz's Bunch," which connects young people with special needs to the game of basketball with an annual Buzz's Bunch game in the fall and a summer clinic. Originally founded during William's time at Marquette, Buzz's Bunch continued at Virginia Tech and now at Texas A&M. Buzz's Bunch has grown to more than 500 members spanning all three cities.
- Williams was named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year in 2019-20 and again in 2022-23.
- He has nine NCAA Tournament appearances in 16 postseason opportunities as a head coach, including four career Sweet 16 appearances (3 at Marquette, 1 at Virginia Tech) and one Elite Eight appearance (2013 Marquette)
- He has won 20-or-more games in 11 of his 16 seasons as a head coach.
- His 52 wins over the past two seasons were a program record and he became the first Texas A&M head coach to win 25 or more games in back-to-back seasons in school history.
- He's coached, recruited or developed 16 NBA players over the course of his career, totaling over $400 million in total salaries and nearly 3,000 games played.

MOLDING YOUNG MINDS:

Buzz Williams has presented a series of lectures to the SOMS (School of Military Science) 380: Workshop in Leadership Education class for the past two fall semesters in a collaboration with Texas A&M's Corps of Cadets and the Hollingsworth Center for Ethical Leadership.

- Dr. Dave Keller, Director of the Hollingsworth Center, said, "The Hollingsworth Center works primarily with students who are not going into the military upon graduation, although we certainly have several that do. Our SOMS [School of Military Science] program of study begins during the spring semester of their sophomore year, where we focus on helping cadets find their strengths and lead from a perspective of authenticity."
- Keller added, "SOMS 380 is the second course for our students. It focuses heavily on finding their leadership constraints and blind spots, and then developing an action plan to intentionally improve in these critical areas. In later semesters, students learn more about the science of leadership, along with how to lead teams and organizations more effectively."
- Dr. Darin Paine, Associate Director for the Hollingsworth Center, said, "Whenever cadets can learn from a presenter such as Coach Buzz Williams, there are many opportunities for personal and professional gain. It could reinforce what they are already learning in SOMS, or present a new concept, or allow them to hear something that applies to their life right now. There are countless opportunities to benefit from an experience like this. Coach Williams is a high achiever, lifelong learner, and very enthusiastic about teaching. He has so much to offer and we are thrilled with this partnership."
- One of the class attendees, junior Luke White, told the Bryan-College Station Eagle: "I think it's really cool that he's doing this. He's going beyond being just a coach. He's really trying to connect with us as students."
- Among the featured topics for series have been: "Learning How You Learn," "Leading Through Change," "The Birthday Paradox," "The Principal-Agent Problem" and "Never Assume Anything." Williams also taught similar classes during his time as the head coach at Virginia Tech.
