- Lion alum Alex Shillow was selected on the 2021 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. He was one of the 11 student-athletes selected for the Combined Divisions (FCS, Division II, Division III and NAIA) team. He was selected from 42 student-athletes who were nominated by sports information directors around the nation earlier this year. Since its inception in 1992, the award shines a spotlight on selfless student-athletes and honors their dedication to volunteerism, community service and their commitment to enriching the lives of others. While players are often recognized for their accomplishments and achievements on game day, these student-athletes have made significant contributions to the greater good of society, inspiring future generations of young athletes and the larger college football community.

- Shillow was also a nominee for this award in 2019. As an active participant in multiple leadership roles for the Lions' Student-Athlete Advisory Council, Shillow led community service and fundraising efforts to raise awareness, and funds for the Make A Wish Foundation. Shillow's student-athlete group raised over $15,000 to grant two "Wish Kids" trips to Walt Disney World, as well as a trip to the NBA All-Star Game for the most recent "Wish Kid" at A&M-Commerce. Through fundraising initiatives and coordinated efforts, Shillow drove fundraisers and clothing donation collections to provide underprivileged families in the Commerce community with personalized gifts for Christmas.

George Floyd murder.

- He led in getting his team fully registered to vote, along with other sport teams in the department, and initiated a conference-wide voter registration challenge. He sat on the university's voter coalition committee to help make voter registration and voting more accessible for A&M-Commerce students. Shillow also led a virtual political open forum with two Texas state legislators – Sen. Royce West (D-Dallas) and former Rep. Dan Flynn (R-Canton) - in front of over 300 student-athletes and guests, moderating an insightful conversation and dialogue between Texas legislators and student-athletes. This initiative won 3rd place for the NCAA Division II Award of Excellence this past year.
- Shillow was also a leader and a part of Athletes In Action - a student-athlete faith based organization.
- Shillow served on the NCAA Division II National Student Athlete Advisory Committee from 2018-21 and was the national chair of the committee from 2019-21. He led discussion and change around the topics of mental health, professional development, name image and likeness, and many student-athlete well-being topics, all while being a student-athlete and involved heavily in the Commerce community.

LION FOOTBALL RANKED NO. 4 IN “TOP 20 PROGRAMS THAT INSPIRE”

- The Lion Football program was ranked No. 4 in College Athletic Advisor's Top 20 Programs That Inspire.
- The program rankings are open to all four-year, collegiate-level programs outside of NCAA Division I and are based on a subjective assessment of student experience in four areas:
 - Holistic development of student-athletes in the institution;
 - Academic achievement and support for the academic success of student-athletes;
 - Overall college experience for participants within the program;
 - Affordability/graduation rates/student satisfaction.
- Although College Athletic Advisor's list is subjective, the organization believes these rankings “present an informed starting point for a discussion about where student-athletes can excel as ‘triple-threat’ competitors (academics, athletics, and socially) in college and in their future lives.”

- A&M-Commerce's best finish in the NCAA Division II Learfield Director's Cup standings, placing No. 20 in 2021-22, its final year in the division.

HEAD COACH DAVID BAILIFF

Texas A&M University-Commerce introduced David Bailiff as its 20th head football coach, on December 12, 2018, and he enters his fourth year and third playing season as the Lions' head coach in 2022, he will be at the helm of the program for the Lions' first season in NCAA Division I FCS.

A&M-Commerce went 7-4 in 2022, securing a winning season for the eighth straight season, which is the longest streak in program history. The Lions had 18 all-conference honorees, including Kader Kohou, who named LSC Defensive Back of the Year. Dominique Ramsey and Amon Simon earned All-American honors.

The Lions did not compete in the 2020-21 academic year due to the COVID pandemic. The football program focused efforts on preparation for 2021, as well as community service.

The football program achieved 100% voter registration, were leaders in the the "Make It Important" social justice campaign which won third place nationally in the Division II Award of Excellence, coordinated water distribution during the February 2021 winter storms, and assisted on campus COVID sanitation effort.

In the 2019 season, Bailiff led the Lions to an 11-3 record, their fifth straight NCAA Division II Championship playoff appearance, and the Super Region Four final. The Lions were ranked No. 11 nationally in the final rankings of the season by the American Football Coaches' Association.

He became the fourth-ever coach to qualify for the Division II playoffs, Division

I-AA/FCS playoffs, and win a Division I-A/FBS bowl game. The 11 wins was the most ever by a Lion coach in their first season in the blue and gold. He was the head coach for five All-American selections in his first year in Commerce, as Dominique Ramsey earned three honors and Amon Simon earned two. Simon was the Lone Star Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year. Alex Shillow was named a CoSIDA Second Team Academic All-American, Lone Star Conference Fred Jacoby Male Academic Athlete of the Year, and LSC Football Academic Player of the Year. Shillow was also elected to a second term as the National Chair of the NCAA Division II Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. 23 Lions earned postseason honors from the Lone Star Conference in 2019, including six first team all-conference selections. Bailiff was the head coach at Texas State University from 2004-06 and at Rice University from 2007-17. The Lions' 2019 season will be Bailiff's 15th season as a collegiate head coach.

In his tenure as a collegiate head coach, Bailiff has led a team to the NCAA Division I National Semifinals and has made five total postseason appearances with a 5-2 postseason record. The 2005 Texas State Bobcats were Division I National Semifinalists, and Bailiff led the Rice Owls to four bowls with a 3-1 record in those games.

Bailiff has led teams to 10-win seasons in three seasons (one at Texas State, two at Rice). Under his watch, the Owls had the most wins in school history over a two (18), three (25), and four (30) year periods. Rice's 18-9 mark from 2013-14 was the second-best of any FBS program in Texas.

Bailiff was twice honored by his peers as Conference USA Coach of the Year (2008 & 2013) and led the Owls to their first outright conference championship in 56 years in 2013. His Southland Conference championship at Texas State in 2005 was the Bobcats' first conference title in their 21 years as a Division I school at the time.

While reaching new heights on the field, Bailiff's Rice teams excelled in the classroom while also making a profound impact on the Houston community. Twice in his tenure, the Owls were honored by the American Football Coaches Association with its Academic Achievement Award, having posted a 100 percent graduation rate. Rice led Conference USA football teams in GPA in seven of his first 10 seasons and annually dominated Texas on the conference in the NCAA's annual graduation rate studies.

He was honored with the Greater Houston Football Coaches Association's John Kelley Distinguished Service Award and by the Conference USA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) Coaches Choice Award winner for 2011-12. He was also cited by the Houston Press as "Houston's Best Sports Role Model" in its 2013 Best of Houston edition.

Rice had eight players taken in the NFL Draft during Bailiff's tenure, matching the output of the previous 22 years prior to his arrival.

In 2005 at Texas State, Bailiff was named the American Football Coaches Association's Region 5 Coach of the Year and finished third in the voting for the Eddie Robinson Award presented annually to the top coach in Division I-AA. Prior to being named Texas State head coach, Bailiff spent three seasons on the staff at TCU. He served as the Horned Frogs' defensive coordinator in both 2002 and 2003 while working with the team's defensive linemen.

He began his coaching career as the defensive line coach at New Braunfels High School (1982-84). He went into private business from 1984-88 before returning to the coaching ranks as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Texas State in 1988. He was elevated to the Bobcats' defensive line coach in 1989.

Bailiff left Texas State in 1992 for an assistant coaching position at New Mexico. He returned to Texas State in 1997 as defensive coordinator and added assistant head coach responsibilities to his role in 1999.

In 1999, Bailiff was selected the NCAA Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association. While at TCU, Bailiff was also honored as the Top Assistant Football Coach by the All-American Football Foundation following the Horned Frogs' 2002 season.

As a player, Bailiff was named All-Lone Star Conference as well as All-America honorable mention while playing at Southwest Texas State from 1977-80. He served as a team captain in 1980 and was named honorable mention to the Lone Star Team of the Decade.

Bailiff is married to the former Angie Daniels of Versailles, Mo. He has a daughter, Brooke and the couple has twin sons, Grayson and Gregory.
