SCOUTING REPORT

- The Lions have a .213 team batting average in conference games this season and have scored 28 runs across their 18 total games, both totals are the lowest in the conference.
- Freshman short stop and leadoff batter Kaydee Bennett leads the teams with a .324 batting average and is 14-for-15 in stolen bases. She was held hitless in seven at-bats in the series against UIW. Had a season-long 14-game hitting streak from March 17 to April 11.
- Sophomore Julia Sanchez threw two complete games last week against UIW allowing just six baserunners in a pair of wins. She has allowed just two earned runs in her last 20 innings of work.

THE ARM BARN

- NSU is the only team in the Southland Conference with four pitchers that have thrown 40 or more innings this season.
- Maggie Darr surpassed 100.0 innings pitched and 100 strikeouts for the first time in her career, giving NSU consecutive seasons with two different 100 inning-100 strikeout pitchers for the first time since 2017-18. Sage Hoover had 175 Ks in 134.0 innings last year. Mikayla Brown (2017) and Micaela Bouvier (2018) were the last two to do it.
- The Lady Demon staff has 228 strikeouts this season, second most overall in the Southland, and one of three teams, along with Southeastern (276) and McNeese (205) with more than 200 Ks this year.
- The versatile NSU staff with the ability to pitch at any point in the game is proven with the four primary pitchers this season each making five or more starts and each with one or more saves.

TRIPLE DIPPER

- Northwestern State recorded its second triple play in two seasons against Nicholls on March 24 with a 1-3-4 turn on a popped up bunt with runners at first and second.
- It was the fourth triple play in the NCAA this year: Texas Tech vs. UTEP (3rd inning, Feb. 19), Florida Gulf Coast vs. Troy (1st inning, Feb. 24), Central Arkansas vs. North Alabama (5th inning, March 24), NSU at Nicholls (1st inning, March 24).
- To this point, NSU is the only team to have a triple play in each of the past two seasons. It had one a season ago against McNeese on April 15, 2022.
- Kenzie Seely was in the circle for the triple play at Nicholls and against McNeese. She recorded the first of the three outs against the Colonels and the last of the three against the Cowgirls.

KEEP IT CLEAN AND MAKE IT ROUTINE

- After seeing a handful of players take on new defensive positions this season, the NSU defense went through some early growing pains and have seemingly settled into their new positions as a team.
- Tristin Court was NSU's primary catcher a season ago and has now found comfort at third base. Bailie Ragsdale moved from centerfield to second base and Taylor Williams went from second to left.
- Through the first eight games of the season the NSU defense made 13 total errors. Since that point they have committed 25 errors in 32 games and are second in the Southland in team fielding percentage at .967. They have committed the third fewest errors in the Southland this year.
- NSU has turned 10 double plays this year as well, three more than it turned all of last season.

#DUBOISDOUBLE

- In just 25 games, junior short stop Keely Dubois matched her double total of eight from a year ago. She did so in half as many games as last season.
- Dubois hit three doubles on one day in the final two games of the weekend in Memphis against Indiana and Memphis, with a career high two, two-baggers against the Tigers, part of her 3-for-4 day with three RBI. She hit three in the weekend series against HCU, driving in a run on each one.
- Dubois is second in the Southland with 13 doubles across all games.
- Dubois has driven in at least one run on eight of her 13 doubles this year for a total of 11 RBI.
- The eight she hit in 2022 was the most in a season in her career until this year's total.
- As a team NSU is second in the Southland with 61 doubles this year. First time with 60 doubles in a season since 2019

- Tristin Court, Makenzie Chaffin and Baillie Ragsdale all landed on the preseason second-team. It was their first preseason selections of their career as well.

THE ROOS LEGACY

- Twin sisters Laney and Lexie Roos are just the latest in a lineage of Roos girls to play softball for Northwestern State.
- They are the younger sisters of pitcher Kylie Roos who was a two-time all-conference pitcher for NSU from 2010-13.
- Kylie has the fourth best single-season win percentage in program history after going 17-5 (.773) in the circle in NSU's SLC Tournament Championship season of 2013.
- Kylie ranks fourth in career wins (50), shutouts (15) and strikeouts (465) in school history.
- Laney is the biggest offensive threat of the sisters after a .365 season in 2022 where she had 58 hits, 11 doubles and drove in 32. The 58 hits was tied for eighth most in a season by a player under head coach Donald Pickett.

NEARLY SEEN IT ALL

- This season NSU returns one of the more experienced squads in head coach Donald Pickett's 15 years. He has seven position players returning from a year ago with 46 or more starts and five of those started 50 or more games.
- Keely Dubois has started 125 total games in four seasons at NSU and had her team long streak of 82 consecutive starts snapped on opening weekend due to an injury.
- Kat Marshall has the most starts with 154 and has missed just one game in each of the past two seasons at first base.
- NSU has six players with 80 or more starts at the DI level in their careers.

PAGING DR. CHAFFIN

- Makenzie Chaffin is always willing to lend a helping hand, on and off the field.
- Even with one year of eligibility left, Chaffin plans to apply for and attend medical school following the 2023 season to pursue her career as a doctor.
- She has already been a huge help to her teammates on the field, leading NSU with four sacrifice hits as one of the best bunters on the team, and one sacrifice fly as well.
- With two home runs this season, the team leader, she has the ability to handle the bat with both finesse and power depending on what the team needs.
- Makenzie is also the older sister of LSU pitcher Raelin Chaffin. The two have never faced each other in college. If Mak were to hit a home run off of her sister she would not do a bat flip.

OFF THE FIELD RECOGNITION FOR RHODEN

- Senior Bronte Rhoden was awarded the Southland Conference's Steve McCarty Citizenship Award in 2022.
- The award recognizes one male and one female athlete in the SLC that exhibits outstanding qualities in citizenship, sportsmanship, leadership and community service. It is named for former Stephen F. Austin athletic director Steve McCarty who served SFA for 21 years, 15 as AD.
- Rhoden has been an active member of SAAC since her arrival at NSU, serving as president of the NSU chapter the past two years. She worked on numerous projects during her time like "Make a Child Smile" toy drive, hurricane relief drives for other conference schools, the adoption of local elementary school and NSU's annual Vic's Choice Award celebration.
- She has maintained a 4.0 GPA during her time at NSU as a biology and nursing double major.

REAL STREAKY

- NSU has two separate winning streaks of four or more games thus far this season. It also has two separate losing streaks of three games or more this season.
- NSU averaged 5.8 runs and 7.3 hits per game in their season-long six-game winning streak. It averaged 1.7 runs and 4.7 hits in the season-long four-game losing streak the weekend on Feb. 25-26 against Wichita State and North Texas.

PITCHING EXCELLENCE

Crista Miller (2001-04) threw a total of five no-hitters during her career at Northwestern State. Included in those five were four perfect games. Miller had a perfect game in each of her four seasons at NSU.

Micaela Bouvier (2015-18) threw Northwestern State's first no-hitter against a conference opponent in more than 10 years when she blanked Lamar on March 27, 2015. She was the first freshman to throw a no-hitter since Crista Miller in 2001.

E.C. Delafield (2018-21) was one error away from the sixth perfect game in program history in her no-hitter against UIW.

DONALD PICKETT

Donald Pickett is in his 15th season as head coach for Northwestern State in 2022 with nine winning seasons in the last 10 years and the NSU record holder with 365 career victories, seventh most in Southland Conference history.

He has five 30-win seasons and guided the Lady Demons to three Southland Conference titles (2013 and 2014 tournament championships and 2015 regular season title) and two NCAA Tournaments (2013 and 2014).

The Lady Demons posted their fifth straight winning season under Pickett in 2022, the longest such streak since Pickett took over the program and the second longest streak in program history.

The 2022 season primarily centered around a stellar pitching staff that including SLC Freshman of the Year Sage Hoover who totaled 175 strikeouts, the most by a pitcher during Pickett's tenure. The Lady Demons had the best overall staff throughout the season with all four pitchers finishing in the top 10 in ERA with two in the top three.

In 2019, NSU (30-27) won their most overall games, Southland Conference games (15) and league tournament games (two) since taking the regular season title in 2015. He had seven freshmen and sophomores start at least 20 games with three of his four pitchers being underclassmen or newcomers.

NSU has made nine postseason trips in 13 seasons (not including 2020 where there was no postseason due to COVID-19).

In 2018, freshman Cayla Jones was selected to the NFCA All-Region First Team, only the third player in school history to earn that honor. Jones followed that with the All-Louisiana Freshman of the Year.

Pickett became the Northwestern State softball's all-time winningest coach with a 6-5 victory against Stephen F. Austin early in the 2018 season.

Pickett is known for his offensive prowess, and his players own six career batting statistics and litter the top-five charts.

Kellye Kincannon captured three career hitting marks and shares another with Cassandra Barefield. Brittney Jones and Brittany Virgoe each own a category.

Eleven of Pickett's 14 totals teams have had winning or even records after starting 5-45 in his first season, inheriting a program that had 10 wins in the previous campaign.

Pickett rebuilt NSU softball into a perennial Southland Conference championship contender by winning three league titles between 2013-15.

The Lady Demons won an SLC regular season title in 2015 and conference tournament championships with corresponding NCAA Tournament appearances in 2013 and 2014. The regular season conference title was NSU's first since 2000.

From 2013-15, NSU posted a 106-55 record (.658), the second-best winning percentage in any three-year window in program history.

The 2015 team had the best conference season of any NSU softball squad, posting a 22-3 league record to finish 36-18. The top-seeded Lady Demons fell in the championship game of the conference tournament, preventing three straight NCAA appearances.

Freshman pitcher Mikayla Brown was named SLC Pitcher of the Year to headline six all-conference selections, including Kincannon (SLC Softball Student-Athlete of the Year). For his efforts, Pickett was named SLC Coach of the Year for the second time (also winning in

In 2013 and 2014, NSU stormed to SLC Conference tournament titles with records of 40-15 and 30-22, respectively.

In 2014, the Lady Demons appeared in a regional with No. 13 Baylor, Houston and Tulsa. NSU nearly knocked off Houston in a 7-6 loss. Nine Lady Demons were named to the All-Southland squads with six being selected for the All-Louisiana team.

Tara McKenney and Kincannon became the first NSU players in more than 10 years to earn All-South Region honors from the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

In 2013, Northwestern State found itself in similar circumstances. As they did in 2014, the Lady Demons took second place in the regular season after a hot finish to the season.

The squad made an NCAA Tournament appearance in the Baton Rouge Regional and Pickett was voted Coach of the Year honors on the 2013 All-Louisiana softball team and five Lady Demons were included on the All-Louisiana Team.

The 2013 haul of accomplishments included the best winning percentage in the program's history (.727), the longest winning streak (11) since 1998, the fewest losses (15) since 1983 and the best 20-game start (16-4) since 1990.

While restructuring the NSU softball program, he led the charge to provide a reconstructed Lady Demon Softball Complex. The stadium hosted the 2013, 2015 and 2019 SLC tournaments.

Before helping establish a new program at Memphis (2006-08) as an assistant, he worked at a pair of highly successful programs in Tennessee-Chattanooga (2001-05) and Chattanooga State Community College (1998-2000).

Pickett helped UT-Chattanooga to three NCAA Tournament appearances and the brink of a Women's College World Series berth.

At Chattanooga State, Pickett was part of a staff that led the team to three top-five finishes in the NJCAA along with three regional and conference championships.

Working for five seasons under coach Frank

Reed at Chattanooga, Pickett helped the Mocs advance within one win of the World Series. The Mocs had an overall 210-126 record while picking up three Southern Conference championships before Pickett joined coach Wendy Thees at Memphis following the first year of softball for the Tigers.

Also serving as assistant to Reed at Chattanooga State CC for three seasons, Pickett helped post a 151-27 record, including a 62-3 mark in 2001. A year earlier, Pickett was part of the National Fastpitch Coaching Staff of the Year, and in 2002, Pickett was part of the Chattanooga State team that was inducted into the Chattanooga Sports Hall of Fame.

A 2005 Chattanooga graduate, Pickett is regarded as an excellent recruiter whose expertise in coaching, hitting and defense is recognized nationally.

In Pickett's first season as assistant coach, the 2001 Lady Mocs opened the season with back-to-back no-hitters and knocked off top-25 teams in Ohio State and Baylor, rolling to a 44-15 record while never dropping more than two games in a row. The Lady Mocs posted two upset wins over top-seeded and No. 12 ranked Florida Atlantic in the NCAA Regionals. UTC then just missed capturing a berth in the World Series after narrow losses to Georgia Tech and Florida State.
