HOMECOMING KINGS

When visiting Memorial Stadium Saturday, Texas A&M-Kingsville looks to improve to 3-0 in homecoming contests. The Javelinas defeated West Texas A&M 51-34 two weeks ago and followed with a 56-7 win over UT Permian Basin in their homecoming contest.

LET'S GO BACK-TO-BACK

Texas A&M-Kingsville won back-to-back Lone Star Conference games for the first time since the 2012 season with the win over the Falcons last week.

They will look to earn consecutive victories over the Texans after upending Tarleton State in the opening round of the LSC Playoffs last season.

PUTTING UP POINTS

The Javelinas continue to pile up the points, scoring 50-plus in back-to-back games for the first time since the 1997 season.

SEEING RED

Sophomore running back Nick Pelrean continues to find the end zone, having rushed for seven touchdowns and adding one reception score. Over the last two games, Pelrean has found the end zone five times, while seeing the majority of the carries with an injury to Greg Pitre.

TOSS IT UP CARR

Senior quarterback Myles Carr ranks in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency, points responsible for and many other offensive categories. The Arcadia, Calif. native has thrown 18 touchdowns and just three interceptions. His 18 TD passes are tied for fifth most in single season school history, three behind his 21 from last season. His 39 career touchdowns rank seventh on the school's all-time list.

SOMETHING'S GOT TO GIVE

Proving that they can compete with the top teams nationally and in the Lone Star Conference, the Javelinas lost to the two preseason favorites - Midwestern State and A&M-Commerce - by a total of four points. The third LSC loss was even closer as the Javelinas suffered a 22-21 setback at the hands of Angelo State University Oct. 1.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME

In what was a bizarre play with less than a minute remaining at Memorial Stadium, the Lions fumbled on a QB kneel and the Javelinas recovered. However, an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty moved the drive start from the AMC-20 to the 35. Julio De la Garza came out to attempt a 55 yard field goal for the win but A&M-Commerce was able to preserve its slim lead.

CHIPPY CONTEST

One's got to wonder if all of those penalties called throughout the game could have cost the Javelinas. With 11 unsportsmanlike conducts called in the game, Texas A&M-Kingsville "made mistakes that we could not afford. We cannot beat ourselves" - coach Daren Wilkinson.

LONE STAR CONFERENCE PLAY

The Hogs defeated West Texas A&M University 51-34 last week for their first Lone Star Conference victory since Nov. 12, 2012 (vs. Eastern New Mexico).

CHENNAULT CUP

The Chennault Cup rivalry between Texas A&M-Kingsville and A&M-Commerce continued last week. The Javelinas, down by eight with less than two minutes remaining, drove the entire length of the field - 99 yards - on just two plays. Myles Carr found Jordan Thomas on an 89 yard touchdown to make it a two-point ballgame. However, the Lions were able to keep the Chennault Cup with the 38-36 win. However, the Javelinas lead the series 16-8 when the cup is up for grabs.

RECORD BREAKING WIN

Week two's 68-7 victory over Simon Fraser University was the most points scored in a game since 1976 when the Hogs defeated Stephen F. Austin State University. In fact, the 40 points scored in the first quarter was the most in a single quarter in school history (NOTE: unconfirmed since quarter stats were not kept since 2014 when new SID was hired).

QUICK START

Myles Carr picked up where he left off with a 23-of-28 performance in the 31-22 season opening victory at the University of the Incarnate Word. In fact, Carr started the game 8-of-8 and finished with three touchdowns, earning Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

RISING HOGS

Beginning the season with two preseason votes in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II Coaches Poll, Texas A&M University-Kingsville's 31-22 victory at UIW saw the Hogs rise to earning 12 votes in the latest poll, released Sept. 5. Two weeks ago, the Javelinas received 36 votes, rising to No. 27 nationally and this week, TAMUK picked up four votes.

ONE OF FOUR

The Javelinas were one of just four NCAA Division II teams to defeat an NCAA Division I team in the 2016 season opening weekend. The victory was featured on NCAA.com and in Sports Illustrated.

Daren Wilkinson was named the 11th head coach and 10th full-time head coach in Texas A&M University-Kingsville history on Dec. 15, 2014 and formally introduced on Dec. 22, 2014. Wilkinson takes over the historic Javelina football program after two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State University-Pueblo.

In his first season in Javelina Nation, Wilkinson led Texas A&M-Kingsville to two wins, including a 43-25 victory in the 2015 Lone Star Conference Playoffs at Tarleton State University (Nov. 7). Quoted as saying “this first season, we were teaching the team how to compete,” the Hogs did just that, with six games decided by 10 or fewer points. In his inaugural game as a head coach, the Javelinas nearly upset NCAA Division I program University of the Incarnate Word (Sept. 5), before falling 18-16 on a blocked extra-point that fell into the kicker’s hand and was converted for two points.

All in all, 13 Javelinas earned All-Lone Star Conference selections, including first team wideout Anthony Autry. Bo Villarreal and Daniel Ramirez also appeared on the Don Hansen All-Super Region Four squad as an offensive lineman and fullback/tight end, respectively.

The following week, he earned his first victory with a 38-20 win in his home debut over Missouri S&T University (Sept. 12). As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, he put an emphasis on running the football and playing a pro-style offense, and the win over the Miners featured just that and quarterback Myles Carr, wide receiver Autry and running back Shawn Vasquez combined for six touchdowns. Autry finished with 125 receiving yards and two touchdowns, the first two-touchdown performance for a receiver since Robert Armstrong’s game Nov. 16, 2013. Vasquez added 116 rushing yards and two scores.

In the conference opener, the Javelinas hosted No. 22/22 Texas A&M University-Commerce and Jordan Thomas caught eight passes for 173 yards and Braedon Robinson showed his athleticism, returning a 48-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown, the first of his career. Lamont Hills added a 14-yard tackle for a loss in the near upset.

Closing out the three-game home stand hosting the University of West Alabama and dangerous specialist Tyreek Hill – who ended up going to the Kansas City Chiefs in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft – Texas A&M-Kingsville nearly overcame a two-touchdown deficit with a furious comeback that was highlighted by the Javelina defense limiting the Tigers to 3-of-16 in third-down conversion. Carr threw for 342 yards and three touchdowns and the Hogs cut UWA’s lead to six with 7:34 remaining in the game.

The Javelinas scored 30-plus points in three consecutive conference bouts before putting up 40-plus in two of the final three games of the season, including a win over Tarleton State University that featured All-LSC honorable mention Greg Pitre run for 186 yards on 28 carries. In the season finale, the then junior running back rushed for a career-high 226 yards and added 52 receiving yards and two scores.

The Thunder Wolves finished the 2014 season 14-1 overall and No. 1 nationally after earning the school’s first ever NCAA Division II Football Championship, defeating previously unbeaten and top-ranked Minnesota State-Mankato. Three offensive players, including running back Cameron McDondle earned Daktronics All-Super Region 4 honors as Colorado State-Pueblo earned its fourth consecutive Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference crown and reached the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the fourth straight season.

In just their seventh season since reinstating football, CSU-Pueblo averaged nearly 35 points per game and 400 yards per game. Under his guidance, quarterback Chris Bonner was propelled to All-America honorable mention honors in 2013 and this season, ranks 18th in the nation with 30 passing touchdowns.

Three offensive players, including running back Cameron McDondle earned Daktronics All-Super Region 4 honors as Colorado State-Pueblo earned its fourth consecutive Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference crown and reached the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the fourth straight season. Four offensive players were named to the Don Hansen All-Super Region 4 team.

In his first season as offensive coordinator for the Pack, Wilkinson guided CSU-Pueblo to 509.3 yards of offensive per game and 42.7 points per contest, ranked sixth and seventh nationally, respectively. Bonner received all-region accolades, tallying 33 touchdowns, seventh most in the country.

Wilkinson joined CSU-Pueblo after nearly four seasons as the quarterbacks coach and assistant recruiting coordinator for NCAA Division I program and his alma mater, Colorado State University. Serving under Rams coach Steve Fairchild from 2008-12, he helped lead Colorado State to the New Mexico Bowl championship in 2008. That season, his offense ranked in the top 40 nationally and former CSU quarterback Billy Farris went on to play in the National Football League with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2009. While at CSU, his recruiting areas included San Diego, North Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, North Calif., Ariz., Nev., Utah and all quarterback prospects.

In 2004, he joined the South Dakota State University football coaching staff as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. While there, he helped SDSU have a smooth transition to Division I as the team had a winning record each season he led the offense, culminating in the 2007 Great West Conference championship. Spending four seasons as the offensive signal caller for SDSU, he coached the quarterback that set the school’s all-time passing record and defeated the No. 1 team in the nation in 2007. South Dakota State finished with a winning record in his four seasons.

Joining the NCAA Division II ranks as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at Fayetteville State University (N.C.) in 2001, Wilkinson coached two all-conference receivers and assisted the team in earning back-to-back CIAA Conference titles in 2002-03 and a NCAA Division II playoff berth in 2002.

Wilkinson has coached for 15 years at the collegiate level, beginning as an offensive graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1997 and 1998 after quarterbacking the Rams for two seasons, leading them to the 1995 Western Athletic Conference title. He then served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Eastern Arizona College from 1999-00.

While at Eastern Arizona, he recruited and coached six players that went on to play NCAA Division I football and led the squad to an upset win over the No. 1 team in the nation. As an offensive graduate assistant for the Rams, he helped lead the team to the 1997 Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Championship and Holliday Bowl Championship. In his three seasons as a GA, he worked with two quarterbacks that earned conference player of the year honors.

As a player, Wilkinson started seven games for Colorado State in 1995 as a junior, leading the Rams to a share of the WAC title. Joining the Rams after a sensational playing career at Ricks Junior College (now BYU-Idaho), he went 21-2 as a starter and was crowned the College Sports Magazine Junior College Player of the Year in 1994. That season, he earned first team All-American honors, leading the squad to an 11-0 mark and throwing for over 3,000 yards en route to the school’s all-time passing record.

Growing up in Valley Center, Calif., Wilkinson was a two-sport athlete at Orange Glen High School, lettering in both basketball and football. He earned second team all-conference honors on the gridiron.

Born Feb. 11, 1972, in Corona, Calif., he owns two degrees from Colorado State, a bachelors in psychology ('97) and a master’s in education ('99). He and his wife Ann have three children, Alexa, Macy and Jet.
