TEXAS A&M-KINGSVILLE

VOLUME XXII, NO. 47

KINGSVILLE, TEXAS 78363

JULY 13, 2022

1987 Football Team Celebrating 35th Anniversary

The 1987 Texas A&I football team will celebrate this fall the 35th anniversary of its winning the Lone Star Conference championship and compiling a 9-2 record.

The Javelinas had victories over Southwest Texas, 20-0; Idaho State, 52-51; Lamar, 43-14, and Cameron, 39-20, before going through the LSC schedule with victories over Central Oklahoma, East Texas State, West Texas A&M, Eastern New Mexico, and Abilene Christian.

The Javelinas were bypassed for the NCAA Division II postseason playoffs despite their outstanding record.

The 1987 roster included some of the most honored players in Javelina football history.

Sophomore running back Johnny Bailey, who went on to become the most honored player in college football history, was NCAA Division II Player of the Year (Harlon Hill Trophy), Associated Press Little All-America first team, Texas Male Amateur Athlete of the Year, South Texas Sportsman of the Year, American Football Coaches Association All-America first team, Football News All-America first team, LSC Back of the Year and All-LSC first team.

Offensive lineman Moses Horn was Associated Press Little All-America first team; Football News All-America first team, LSC Lineman of the Year and All-LSC first team.

Tight end Mike Dyal was Associated Press Little All-

America second team and All-LSC first team.

Other All-LSC first team honorees were defensive back Rickey Collins, center Ed Latouf, fullback Heath Sherman and wideout Kerry Simien.

Collins was LSC Defensive Back of the Year.

Defensive end Johnny Eaton was the LSC Freshman of the Year.

Defensive end Rodney

Williams was on the LSC All-Academic first team.

Bailey was the LSC rushing and scoring leader.

Horn and quarterback Darcy Davis were elected captains of the team.

Ron Harms was head coach and assistants were Jim Bridges, David Browning, Richard Cundiff, Neal LaHue, Don Pittman and Keith Walters.

Bill Carter served as the Javelina head men's basketball coach in 1991-1997 and his teams won Lone Star Conference championships in 1991-92 and 1995-96. The team reached the NCAA Division II playoffs twice. Carter is currently coaching at Medina High School.

Attendees at the Javelina Coaches Caravan Friday night at The Bar-B-Q Man in Corpus Christi included, left to right, standing, Autumn Wollenzien, head women's tennis coach; Greg Wollenzien; Lewis Bradshaw and Sherry Bradshaw, and seated, Harriet Williams and Gene Williams.

THE TEXAS A&M-Kingsville women's tennis program has been named an NCAA Division II All-Academic team by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

Squads receiving the honor exceeded expectations in the classroom and on the court during the 2022 season.

To be eligible, teams had to have at least a 3.2 grade point average and all letterwinners had to be included.

On the Javelina roster were Maya Donkor, senior from McLean, Va.; Viktoriia Grigoreva, junior from Tver, Russia; Jana Knaab, sophomore from Stuttgart, Germany; Alessa Maier, sophomore from Hechingen, Germany; Noemi Sante, sophomore from Dusseldorf, Germany; Milou Ter Morsche, sophomore from Goor, Netherlands; Manuela Turolo, freshman from Cividale Del Friuli, Italy, and Raina Zaffar, sophomore from Guwahati, India.

THE NCAA DIVISION II South Central Region will have 31 volleyball teams this fall. The region is composed of schools in the Lone Star Conference and Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

Seventeen of the teams are in the LSC and the remaining 14 in the RMAC.

Seventh seeded West Texas A&M won the regional title last season, defeating top-seeded Metro State in the championship match. The Buffs lost to Washburn (Kan.) in the first round of the Elite Eight.

FORMER JAVELINA FOOTBALL players Jim Hill and Randy Johnson are among the nominees for the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame.

Letters of support for the Javelinas can be sent to MySA.com/hofnominations.

Hill and Johnson were with the Javelinas in the 1960s and became NFL first-round draft choices.

It's surprising that as many outstanding athletes the Javelinas have had from San Antonio, only one is in the Hall. David Hill, tight end from San Antonio Highlands and brother of Jim, was inducted in 2012.

The next Hall of Fame banquet will be Saturday, May 13, in the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center in San Antonio.

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL Foundation and College Hall of Fame is continuing its campaign to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the organization.

Archie Manning is the NFF chairman. He said, "The game of football impacts so many people on and off the field and is truly a sport that unites people from different communities and all walks of life. There are many powerful facets to the game and we want to use our platform and this historic anniversary to generate an appreciation of the NFF and the role it plays in protecting the game for future generations."

The Javelinas have seven members in the College Football Hall of Fame. They are Gil Steinke, Ron Harms, Darrell Green, John Randle, Dwayne Nix, Richard Ritchie and Johnny Bailey.

LONE STAR CONFERENCE notes:

...Martin Pazanin is the new assistant women's basketball coach at Eastern New Mexico.

He has been director of basketball operations for Loyola Marymount (Calif.).

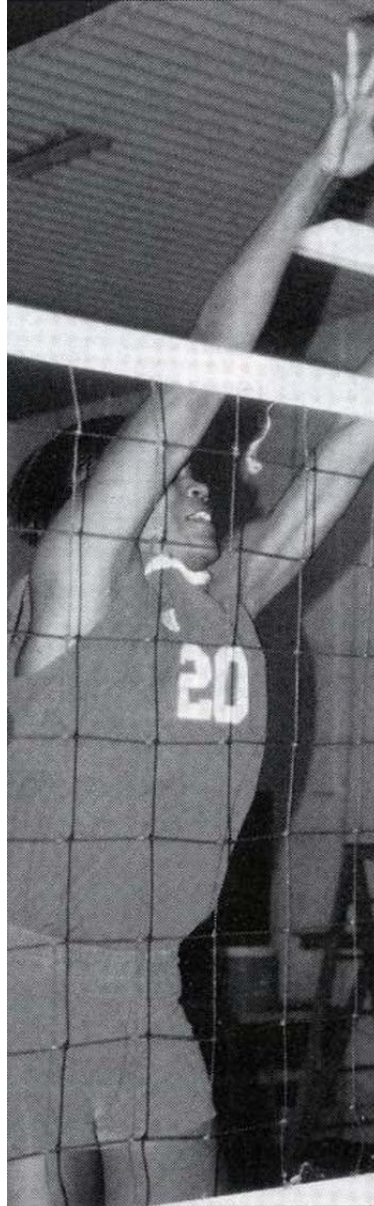

He spent one year as video coordinator at the University of Washington women's program.

Pazanin has coaching experience at Culver-Stockton (Mo.) and in Illinois high schools.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Bradley University.

...Alick Musukuma, who has been the Texas Permian-Basin head cross country coach for seven seasons, as resigned to become the head coach at Oral Roberts (Okla.).

He had been a cross country and track and field coach at Oral Roberts before going to UTPB.

Ada Ithemelu was an outstanding volleyball player for the Javelinas in 1997-99. She was All-Lone Star Conference and LSC all-tournament. She is the Javelina record holder for most kills in a season (551), most kills per set in a career (3.73), most block assists in a season (161) and in a match (12), most total blocks in a season (229), most total blocks in a match (14), most blocks per set in a career (1.62), most points per set in a season (5.56), most points in a season (705.5) and most points per set in a career (4.81).

...The 13th annual Midwestern State Women's Football Clinic will be held Aug. 3.

The event is hosted by the MSU football program and provides keys to the game, food and prizes to women who want to learn more about football.

A catered dinner will be provided and members of the MSU coaching staff will speak.

The football players will have a fashion show.

The first 1,000 registrants will receive a t-shirt and tailgating recipes.

The event raises money for the Bill Maskill Family Foundation that provides scholarships to at-risk kids who want to join sports teams in the Wichita Falls area.

Maskill is the Mustangs' head football coach.

...Will Bones is the new lead graphic designer for Dallas Baptist athletics.

A recent graduate of Liberty University, he has worked as the school's graphic design, photography and video department.

...Zak Snell is the new sports performance coach and fitness room coordinator at St. Mary's.

He has held a similar position at McMurry for the past two years.

He has spent time as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Arizona, a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Louisville and as a graduate assistant kinesiology instructor at Angelo State.

He has also worked at Wisconsin-Stout.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Stout and a master's from Angelo State.

...The 47th annual West Texas A&M Buffalo Club Golf Classic, sponsored by Pak-A-Sak, will be held Aug. 26.

Proceeds benefit the athletic scholarship fund.

Lunch will be provided by Feldman's Wrong Way Diner.

Individual entry fees are $100 and a foursome is $750.

WTAM athletes and coaches will be at each hole.

...Texas-Permian Basin has announced Freddyville, a gameday experience at the home football games.

Freddyville will include food, live entertainment, activities for all ages and a family friendly atmosphere.

It includes premium and general tailgating opportunities.

...David Chavlovich has been hired as an assistant men's basketball coach at West Texas A&M.

He played four seasons for the Buffaloes.

He has played professionally in Croatia and Australia.

...Shannon Klaus, former Texas-Tyler softball player, has been named assistant coach for the Patriots.

She finished her playing career this spring, helping the Patriots reach the NCAA Division II College World Series.

Klaus was a student assistant coach for Tyler in 2021 while recovering from an injury.

She played her first three seasons at Lamar. She was at Trinity Valley Community College her freshman year.

She has a bachelor's degree from Lamar and a bachelor's degree in nursing from Tyler.

...Jonathan Perez has been promoted to assistant athletic director for facilities and operations at St. Mary's.

He has been a graduate assistant for the past year and has been the interim director since March.

He is a 2021 graduate of the University of Houston and is working on his master's degree at St. Mary's.

...Eastern New Mexico has the only NCAA men's soccer team in New Mexico.

Eastern is one of nine Lone Star Conference schools with men's soccer. The others are Dallas Baptist, Lubbock Christian, Midwestern State, Oklahoma Christian, Texas A&M International, Texas-Permian Basin, Texas-Tyler and West Texas A&M.

NCAA DIVISION II notes:

...Central Oklahoma, former member of the Lone Star Conference, has a new Mammoth Turf surface in its Chad Richison Stadium.

...South Carolina-Beaufort is planning a move to NCAA Division II. It is currently NAIA.

The school is also considering a $50 million stadium which would be the home for not only athletic teams but also concerts, clinics, camps and other events.

...Rockhurst (Ill.) has a six-month athletic facility study underway that will identify improvement opportunities for all on-campus athletic facilities.

...Colorado Mines has a new turf in its football stadium and it is ready for the upcoming football season.

...Emporia (Kan.) State will add competitive disc golf to its athletic program beginning this fall.

...Wisconsin-Parkside will add women's golf to its intercollegiate program beginning in 2023-24.

The team will compete in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

...Colorado Mines has announced that it has received a $250,000 gift to help with improvements to its football stadium.

The school bills the stadium as the oldest stadium.

The first game in the renovated stadium will be Sept. 10 when Angelo State of the Lone Star Conference visits Golden.

SPORTS NEWS AT other Texas colleges:

...Richie Bruister, who has been the head softball coach at Texas A&M-Commerce, has been named the head softball coach at S.F. Austin State.

He was at Commerce for seven seasons and before that was the head coach at Texas Woman's.

LETTERMAN'S ASSOCIATION

The Javelina Football Letterman's Association mission is to promote closer relationships and encourage social and professional enrichment of its membership across all generations. Through a strong and active membership, it is our calling to preserve, maintain and nurture our legacy and to inspire a culture of participation and philanthropy. The rewarding experience doesn't stop at graduation. The Javelina Football Letterman's Association makes sure that the winning continues. As a former Javelina student-athlete you have an incredible opportunity of becoming a member and staying connected with your former teammates by attending reunions and special events.
