THE GAME

In search of its eighth win in row, No. 6 Tarleton State will host Paul Quinn Monday night in Wisdom Gym at 7 p.m.

THE BROADCAST

The game will have a live radio broadcast presented by the Tarleton Sports Network presented by North Texas Ford Dealers. The Voice of the Texans, Casey Hogan, will be back calling the play-by-play for Tarleton basketball this season. The radio broadcast can be heard on KTRL 90.5 FM in Stephenville and surrounding areas or online at TarletonSports.com/ListenLive. The pregame show will begin 15 minutes prior to tip-off.

THE OPPONENT

Paul Quinn enters the game with a record of 3-8. The Tigers won their first two games and then won 75-59 in their last game against Huston-Tillotson. In between, however, the Tigers dropped eight straight.

THE SERIES

Since Lon Reisman took over the program in 1988, Tarleton and Paul Quinn have met seven times with the Texans winning five. The first meeting came just six games in to Reisman's storied career at Tarleton when the rookie head coach won 78-68. After the Tigers won the next two games, Tarleton has since won four straight including the last meeting in 2011.

SOME KIND OF RUN

Since the beginning of last season, Tarleton State has amassed an overall record of 35-3 for a winning percentage of .921. There are only two other Division II teams in the country with three losses since the start of last season - Metro State (38-3; .927) and Lincoln Memorial (37-3; .925).

UNDEFEATED START TO THE SEASON

Tarleton State has started a season 7-0 twice under head coach Lon Reisman - last year in the midst of a senior-college era record winning streak of 18-straight victories to open the season and this season. As long as Tarleton remains undefeated, it will continue to match only last season's season-opening streak.

UP NEXT FOR TARLETON

This is Tarleton's final home game before making its first road trip of the season. The Texans will hit the road later this week when they travel to Las Vegas for the South Point Holiday Hoops Tournament. They will play Western Washington Thursday and wrap up the trip with a national top-25 matchup when the Texans square off with No. 13 Drury Friday.
