TEXANS BY THE NUMBERS

17

Basil Jackson's 17 tackles against Angelo State last Saturday were the second most in NCAA Division II for the week behind only Drew Seers of Lindenwood (18). Jackson is the third-leading tackler in NCAA Division II with 15.0 stops per game. He boasts the second-most total tackles (45) in NCAA Division II behind Augustana's Kirby Hora (50).

16.3

Creating big plays down the field has been a specialty of Zed Woerner this season as the senior signal caller is averaging 16.32 yards per completion this year, which ranks him No. 4 in the nation in that category.

Tarleton is tied for the national lead in defensive touchdowns with three. All three have been fumble return for scores and have each come in the last two weeks. Tyrell Thompson has forced two of the three fumbles.

43.6

Ron Reid has developed into arguably the league's top punter as the junior from Burlison leads the LSC and is No. 10 in the nation averaging 43.6 yards per punt. He has seven punts of over 50 yards and pinned four inside the 20.

500

A 35-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Thomas with 11:51 left in the fourth quarter against Oklahoma Panhandle was the 500th completion of Zed Woerner's career. He is one of four (4) quarterbacks in program history to complete at least 500 passes.

THE LAST TIME WT CAME TO STEPHENVILLE

Saturday marks the first time in four years West Texas A&M has made the visit to Memorial Stadium. The last time the Buffs came to town, WT took a 27-3 lead into halftime but the Texans answered with a 28-0 surge in the second half to defeat the Buffs 31-27 on Family Weekend in 2013. Le'Nard Meyers (178) and Clifton Rhodes III (130) combined for 308 receiving yards on 15 total catches with three touchdowns.

QUARTERBACK CAROUSEL

Tarleton has used at least three quarterbacks in a season in every year since 2013. The last time Tarleton used fewer than three quarterbacks in a single year was when Aaron Doyle and Jake Fenske took every snap of the 2012 season.

HIGH TOPS 1,000 YARDS

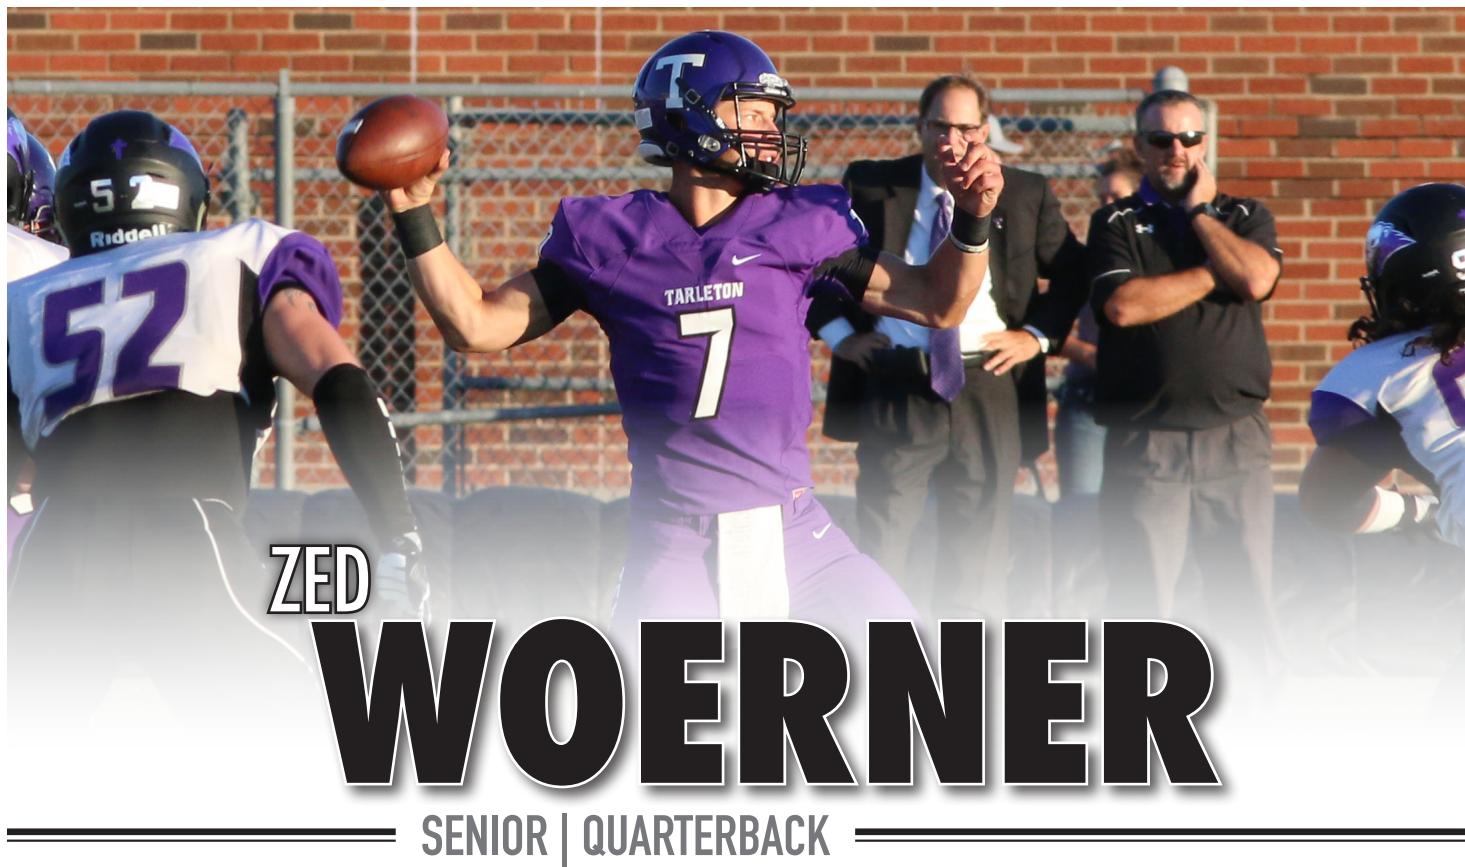

Del'Michael High topped 1,000 career yards against Angelo State. The senior from Mesquite has 1,012 receiving yards on 66 receptions in his two-year career at Tarleton. High also had his first 100-yard receiving game of the season at Angelo State last week, which is the fourth such game of his career.

CONTROLLING THE CLOCK

Tarleton put together a dominant, game-clinching drive over the final 6:58 of last Saturday's game at Angelo State. The Texans converted on third down three times in that final drive to close out the win. It was the longest fourth-quarter drive for Tarleton since August 25, 2007 against East Central (7:07). Tarleton had not had a fourth-quarter drive of longer than 4:52 since 2014.

TURNER, TEXANS CLOSE OUT THE WIN

Xavier Turner established himself as a closer last weekend at Angelo State as the junior RB ran for 56 yards in the game's final drive. He also caught a pass for 18 yards in that drive.

HEAD COACH TODD WHITTEN

HEAD COACH

A familiar face made his return to Stephenville as the winningest coach of Tarleton State University's NCAA era, Todd Whitten, joined the Texan sidelines prior to the 2016 season.

He made an immediate impact in his return by resurrecting a 3-7 season from the year before and led Tarleton into the final two games of the season with a chance to win the Lone Star Conference championship.

In a news conference on December 3, 2015, at 9:30 a.m. Athletic Director Lonn Reisman announced the selection of Whitten as head football coach. Whitten joined Reisman and President Dr. F. Dominic Dottavio at the announcement in the lobby of Wisdom Gym.

This marked the 28th head coaching change in the history of Tarleton football, as Whitten is one of 24 different men to lead the Texans. He now joins legendary coach W.J. Wisdom as one of two coaches with three different tenures as Tarleton's head football coach.

"I feel like I'm coming home," said Whitten. "I'm very excited to be back at Tarleton. This is a very special place and it's an incredible job. I'm very thankful to be chosen."

Whitten, a 28-year veteran at the collegiate coaching level, has been a head coach for 12 years, including seven years at Tarleton (1996, 2000-04, 2016) and five seasons at Division I Sam Houston State.

He currently boasts an NCAA coaching record of 75-57, including a record at Tarleton of 50-29, which gives him the second-most total wins in school history behind Wisdom (71). He also has a career record of 29-11 at Memorial Stadium in Stephenville.

"I am very confident in Todd Whitten's ability to win football games and reestablish our program into a contender – not just in the Lone Star Conference, but on the national level," said Reisman. "In his career, Whitten has shown the ability to rebuild programs and make them very competitive."

"He brings a wealth of experience as a head coach at the Division I and Division II levels," continued Reisman. "He is an innovator, he is creative, and he has one of the most tremendous offensive minds in the country. I have all the confidence in the world that Todd will bring enthusiasm and energy to our football program."

During his first two stints at Tarleton, Whitten was no stranger to awards and championships.

Before taking over the program in 1996 for one season, Tarleton had a record of 4-16-1 since joining the NCAA in 1994. Whitten turned things around following a 1-10 season in 1995 by leading the Texans to a 5-5 record in his first season, which was enough to garner him the LSC Coach of the Year award for that season.

After a three-year hiatus as the offense coordinator for Wyoming and Sam Houston State, Whitten made his return to Stephenville to build Tarleton into a national powerhouse.

Whitten came back in 2000 and turned Tarleton around once again with a 6-5 record to open the new century.

In his second season, Whitten's Texans entered uncharted territory with a 10-3 mark to claim the school's first Lone Star Conference championship and division championship en route to their first trip to the NCAA playoffs. He would go on to boast a record of 17-6 over the next two seasons, each of which garnered his third and fourth LSC Coach of the Year awards, and Tarleton returned to the NCAA playoffs in 2003.

Whitten is a four-time Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year after winning the award in 1996, 2001, 2002, and 2003. He was also named the D2Football.com West Region Coach of the Year in 2001 after guiding Tarleton to the playoffs for the first time.

Before becoming a coach, Whitten was a star athlete at Dallas Kimball High School and Stephen F. Austin University – where he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2001. He was a three-year starter at quarterback and a three-year starter in the outfield during baseball season.

He was drafted in the 17th round of the 1983 Major League Baseball Draft by Philadelphia out of Kimball High School, but declined to make his way to Stephen F. Austin. After his dual-sport career with the Lumberjacks, Whitten signed a free agent contract to play quarterback for the New England Patriots in 1987.

After playing for the Patriots in 1987, Whitten traded the helmet for the headset as he went back to school as a graduate assistant coach at Texas Tech to begin his coaching career. He earned his first full-time coaching job at New Mexico State in 1990, where he spent four seasons before heading to El Paso, where he spent two seasons at UTEP.

Whitten left UTEP for his first head coaching position at Tarleton in 1996 before leaving for Wyoming the following year.

After his second stint at Tarleton from 2000-04, Whitten returned to Sam Houston State for his first Division I head coaching opportunity. He spent five seasons with the Bearkats. From there, he spent two seasons at Lamar, one year at Arlington Heights High School, and the last three years at UTEP before coming back to Tarleton in December 2015.

Whitten earned a bachelor's degree in education from Stephen F. Austin in 1987 and a master's degree in sports administration from Texas Tech in 1990.

He resides in Stephenville with his wife, Dana. The couple has three sons – Brady, Blaze, and Tate – and a daughter, Maddie.
