WAC

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

NEXT LEVEL READY

/TARLETONSPORTS @TARLETONSPORTS @TARLETONSPORTS WWW.TARLETONSPORTS.COM

On September 30, 2019, Tarleton State University President Dr. James Hurley, Texas A&M University System Chancellor John Sharp, Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Lonn Reisman and Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations Ryan Cox met with the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) today in Denver, Colorado where an official invitation to join the conference was extended. The WAC is an NCAA Division I Athletic Conference with 10 member institutions spanning eight states.

"This is an exciting time for Tarleton as we look to enhance our institutional profile as an NCAA Division I university," said Tarleton State University President Dr. James Hurley. "I would like to thank Commissioner Jeff Hurd, the WAC Presidents and everyone involved at today's meeting for their hospitality. Today was an important milestone in our quest to show the country that Tarleton is next level ready."

Tarleton is set to join the Western Athletic Conference with a full NCAA Division I schedule beginning in 2020-21.

4-TIME NCAA REGIONAL QUALIFIERS

Since the program was reinstated in 1988, the Texan Baseball team has developed into a perennial regional contender.

Led by the late Hall of Fame coach Jack Allen, Tarleton was a dominant force as an NAIA school. The Texans qualified for the District 8 playoffs in their first seven seasons back on the diamond, in addition to an NAIA national tournament in 1992. Allen led the Texans into the NCAA era and the top of the conference with the school's first NCAA regional tournament appearance in 1998 and the first Lone Star Conference division championship the following season.

After Allen retired in 2002, Tarleton went on to win 145 games over the next six seasons before a familiar face came back to the dugout as the new skipper – Bryan Conger. The former Texan right-hander and graduate assistant pitching coach was named the head coach at his alma mater in 2009 and led the Texans to the LSC championship tournament in each of his first seven seasons at the helm. Conger led the Texans to their first regular season league championship in 2013 and LSC Tournament titles in 2014 and 2018. He was also the only head coach in school history to lead Tarleton to multiple national tournament appearances.

COLOR SONG

Oh! Our hearts with joy are thrilling
when the Tarleton Colors wave,
And our spirits rise with rapture
when the Tarleton sons are brave;
Fight for Victory, Fight for Honor,
And success will crown the fight;
ALL HAIL the proud defenders of the Purple and the White!

WORLD SERIES CHAMPION
CHAD FOX

Chad Fox made it to Major League Baseball after playing for the Texans. Fox was drafted in the 23rd round of the 1992 MLB Draft. Fox played for the Atlanta Braves, Milwaukee Brewers, Boston Red Sox, Florida Marlins, and the Chicago Cubs. He won the 2003 World Series championship as a member of the Marlins.

NATIONAL LEADER IN ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

"We needed to create a facility that maximizes every square foot of our space and this new renovation gives us an edge in the training of our student-athletes," said Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Performance Rod Cole. "Any recruit that comes to our facility or sees it online will definitely see that we have a great setup featuring some aspects, such as the Perform-X Band System, that you don't see in very many places.

"The new layout of our facility will allow us to train more student-athletes in a more efficient manner with an entire weight-room session taking place at one rack," he continued. "No longer will we have to rotate around the room to complete a workout. It is a blessing that Tarleton State University's administration values college athletics enough to provide the best for our young people in terms of a fine facility, such as this, in which they can train."

The renovation provides 16 Power Lift Racks with in-laid platforms on the floor of the facility that features the Perform-X Band System for band-resisted jump and quickness training, as well as added variable resistance to conventional weight training exercises. Each of the new racks are fully loaded with a complete maple wood center in-laid platforms with the band system, Uesaka Bumper Plates, and Iron Grip Plates, a step-up/squat box, land-mine rotational device, medicine ball, and Dyna-Disc for ankle strengthening.

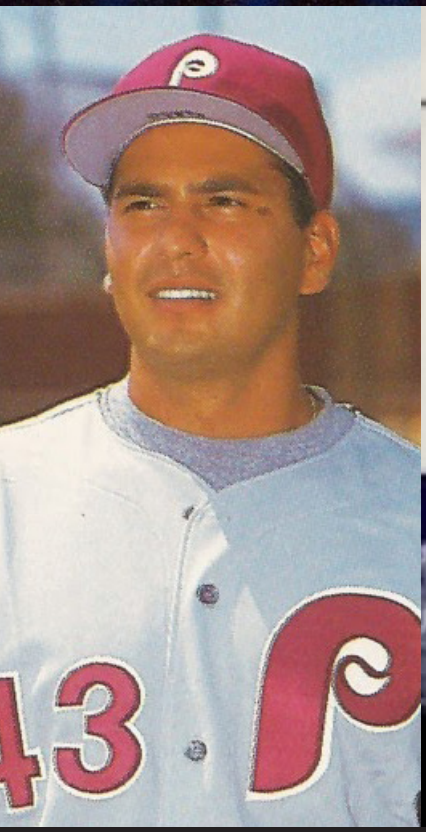
The facility was also fitted with Regupol rubber flooring throughout the room, with the Tarleton "T" logo at each entrance, as well as dense "crash pads" at each platform, and two in-laid quick foot ladders.

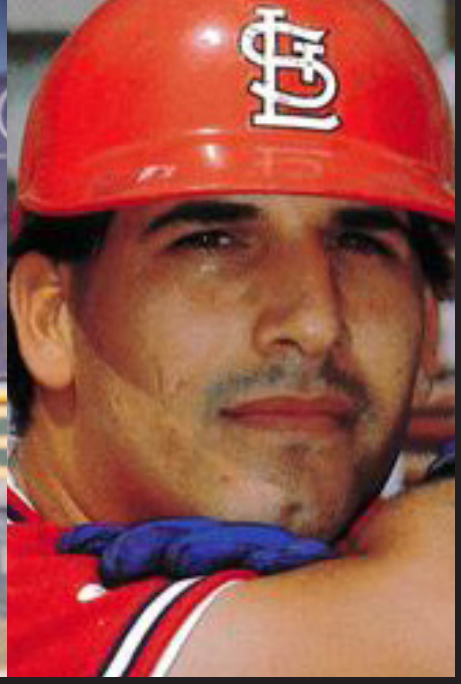
Rod Cole, who is in his 29th year as a collegiate strength and conditioning coach, is in his 11th season with Tarleton Athletics. Visit tarletonsports.com/texaniron for a video tour of the facility.

Rod Cole (far left) came to Tarleton in 2009 after he spent 15 years in the Big XII Conference. He served the as the director of football strength and performance at Texas A&M in 2007 after spending the previous 14 seasons as the director of strength and conditioning at Kansas State. Prior to being named the director at KSU, he served four months as the assistant strength coach under longtime New York Giants Strength and Conditioning Coach Jerry Palmieri.

Cole received his Master Strength Coach certification in 2004 and was named the National Strength Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Strength Coaches Society in 1998. He is also a two-time recipient of the Big XII Conference Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year Award.

LEAVING THEIR MARK





The men's baseball program is well represented in Tarleton's Athletic Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame, which was debuted in 1980, currently consists of 169 former Tarleton athletic greats, including 18 members of the Texan Baseball program. Here's a closer look at the inductees with ties to Texan baseball:

Elmer Finley (1935-1936)

Played forward in basketball during two undefeated seasons and was high-point in track. Inducted 1980.

Roy Hudspeth (1921-22)

Great catcher in baseball who played on six state championship teams. Inducted 1980.

Mickey Lee (1959-60)

Catcher who was junior college All-American in 1960 and National Tournament Most Valuable Player. Inducted 1980.

Roy Menge (1954-55)

Outstanding outfielder and relief pitcher who played professional baseball. Inducted 1980.

Jesse "T-Bone" Winters (1914-15)

Outstanding pitcher while at Tarleton who pitched in the major leagues from 1918-23. Inducted in 1980.

Vernon "Bunt" Adams (1917-1921)

Three-sport letterman played on five state championship teams. Inducted 1981.

Carl Colwick (1921-22)

Monty Montgomery (1920-21)

Three-sport letterman who played halfback in football, guard in basketball, and catcher and relief pitcher in baseball. Inducted 1982.

Zelna Compton (1922-23)

Four-sport letterman played on state championship teams in football, basketball, and baseball, and ran track and field. Inducted 1983.

Cecil Ballow (1951-60)

Legendary baseball coach who led Tarleton to runners-up title in 1960 Junior College National Tournament, with many of his athletes earning All-America status at senior colleges. Inducted 1984.

Clyde Noonkester (1957-58)

Star pitcher with a 9-2 record over two years and also All-State in football, catching 40 passes for 622 yards. Inducted 1984.

Roy Enderlin (1958-59)

Played shortstop and pitched on two winning teams and was among the best junior college ball players at Tarleton. Inducted 1986.

Ken Floyd (1960-61)

Pitcher who was named the Junior College All-America in 1960 and to the All-Tournament team at the National Playoffs. Inducted 1986.

Mike Cantu (1988-91)

Cantu played in 223 of 226 possible games at Tarleton. He helped the Texans to two TIAA titles and four consecutive NAIA District 8 playoff appearances. Cantu had a career batting average of .410, averaged over 60 RBI's per season, and hit 58 career homeruns. He was 4-time All-TIAA, three-time All-NAIA All-District 8, and was first team All-American in 1991. Inducted 2000.

David Agado (1988-89)

Outstanding pitcher for the Texans in the first two years after restarting the program. He threw a no-hitter at Tarleton's first home game in 1988 and repeated the first with another no-hitter in 1989. Agado struck out 75 in 72 innings in 1988 and holds the team record for 11 strikeouts in a game. In 1989 he was 6-2 with a 2.98 ERA. When not pitching, Agado was an outstanding outfielder and hitter, hitting .333 in 1988 and in 1989 hit .402 with 21 doubles and 44 RBI's. Agado was TIAA All-Conference in 1988 and player of the year in the TIAA in 1989. Inducted 2005.

Jack Allen (1990-02)

Allen became the school's second head baseball coach in 1990 and led a successful program for 13 years before retiring in 2002. The Texans went 565-309-3 - a .573 winning percentage - and won two Lone Star Conference South Division tiles and two outright conference championships under his tutelage. His teams also won Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association champions and one NAIA District 8 crown, in addition to earning one NCAA regional berth. Inducted 2009.

Tommy Keeling (1994-97)

Tommy Keeling was a four-year standout outfielder for the Texans from 1994-97. He was a two-time team MVP and a three-time All-Lone Star Conference First Team selection. Keeling was Tarleton's Newcomer of the Year in 1994 and was also awarded the team's Big Stick Award in 1994, 1996 and 1997. In his final season with the Texans, Keeling was tabbed a Second Team All-American selection after hitting .417 with 25 doubles, 12 home runs 53 runs batted in. Keeling still owns career school records in at bats (750, hits (283) and doubles (72). His 25 doubles in 1997 still rank first all-time in a single season in school history, as do his 157 total bases he tallied in 1996. Inducted 2014.

Victor Sauceda (1998-99)

A native of Chihuahua, Mexico, Sauceda came to Tarleton as a standout shortstop in 1998. In his first season with the Texans, Sauceda led Tarleton to uncharted territory as the Texans qualified for their first-ever NCAA regional tournament with a record of 35-21. Sauceda's Texans topped the 30-win mark in both of his seasons for an overall record of 69-42 and a win percentage of .622 over that two-year period. He followed up his debut season with the purple and white by leading the Texans to their first Lone Star Conference championship in 1999, after which he was named the Lone Star Conference Player of the Year. Inducted in 2017.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

As a fan of Tarleton Athletics, it is important to become familiar with NCAA, WAC and Tarleton Athletics Compliance rules. Please review the following information as a brief guide to NCAA compliance and feel free to contact our office at any time. We appreciate your support and cooperation.

BOOSTER DEFINED

A booster is any individual, independent agency, corporate entity (e.g., apparel or equipment manufacturer), or other organization that is known to:

- Hold, or have ever held, season tickets for any sport with Tarleton Athletics;
- Have participated in, or to be a member of, an agency or organization promoting any Tarleton Athletics program (e.g., Tarleton State University Alumni Association, Texan Club, etc.);
- Have made financial contributions to the athletics department or to an athletics booster organization of that institution;
- Be assisting, or to have assisted in, providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families, which would trigger booster status under NCAA rules. These benefits include, but are not limited to, financial assistance, use of a car, use of a cell phone, etc.;
- Provide allowable benefits (e.g., summer jobs) to enrolled student-athletes; or
- Promote Tarleton Athletics in any way

This list is not exhaustive. Please contact the Tarleton Athletics Compliance Office if you have any questions about your possible status as a booster. Once an individual or entity is deemed to be a booster it carries that status forever.*

EXTRA BENEFITS

An extra benefit is any special gift or arrangement provided to a student-athlete, or student-athlete's friends or family members which is not available to the general Tarleton student-body or general public. Should a prospective student-athlete or current student-athlete receive an extra benefit, they will be ineligible for competition.

IMPERMISSIBLE EXTRA BENEFITS EXAMPLES (NOT AN EXHAUSTIVE LIST)

For prospective and current student-athletes:

- Cash, loans or the co-signing of loans;
- Assistance with paying bills, rent or mortgages;
- Use of an automobile or any other transportation;
- Entertainment of admission to an event (e.g.; movies, athletic events, banquets, clubs, special events/parties, concerts, etc.);
- Gifts of any kind, including those on special occasions such as birthdays, religious holidays, graduation, etc.);
- Free or reduced cost services, rentals or purchases of any type (e.g., meals, drinks, clothing, laundry, haircuts, legal fees, tattoos, golf, car services, etc.);
- Free or reduced cost housing for any length of time;
- Use of your telephone or credit card;
- Providing a meal or paying for a meal at a public location;
- Academic assistance of any kind (e.g., tutoring, editing papers/projects, assistance in completing class work, use of computers, etc.)

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES

A prospective student-athlete is anyone who has entered the ninth grade. Impermissible activities with a prospective student-athlete include:

- Having any type of recruiting communication including conversations, social media messages and letters;
- Conducting any evaluation of their ability on behalf of the Tarleton coaching staff or providing evaluations to the Tarleton coaching staffs;
- Contacting the prospective student-athlete. Getting involved in recruiting activities without consent from the Compliance Office could jeopardize the eiligibity of the prospective student-athlete

RECRUITING INDUCEMENT

A recruiting inducement under NCAA rules is any special gift or arrangement provided to a prospective student-athlete that is not available to the general population. The arrangement of such a benefit would be considered an improper inducement to encourage the eventual enrollment of a prospective student-athlete.

Tarleton Athletics is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans and is always available to answer any questions regarding permissible recruiting activities.

EMPLOYMENT OF A STUDENT-ATHLETE

Employment of a student-athlete is permissible, provided all six of the following conditions are met:

1. Student-athlete is only paid for work actually performed;
2. Student-athlete is paid at the rate commensurate with the going rate in that locale for similar services;
3. Student-athlete may not be compensated in any manner for any value or utility that he or she may have for an employer because of any publicity, reputation, fame or personal following that he/she may have because of his or her athletics ability;
4. Student-athletes must register all jobs during the academic year and summer by completing the Student-Athlete Employment Form and returning it to the Tarleton Athletics Compliance Office prior to beginning work;
5. Proof of earnings is required and all student-athletes must submit a pay stub at the end of their employment. All paperwork must be submitted along with verification of earnings; and
6. Employers MUST confirm their employment of Tarleton Athletics student-athletes prior to the student-athletes' employment.

PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES – STUDENT-ATHLETES

For prospective and current student-athletes:

- Student-athletes are not eligible for participation in intercollegiate athletics if he/she accepts compensation, or permits the use of his/her name or pictures to promote a commercial enterprise;
- A student-athlete's name or picture may not be used to advertise, recommend or promote directly the sale or use of a commercial product or service of any kind;
- If a student-athlete's name or picture appears on commercial items (e.g., t-shirts, playing cards, posters, photographs, etc.) or is used to promote a commercial product without the student-athlete and the institution are required to take steps to stop such an activity in order to maintain the student-athlete's eligibility.

GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes and athletic department staff members from participating in any sports gambling activity or providing information concerning competitions to individuals involved in organized gambling activities. Additionally, it is a violation of federal law for boosters, student-athletes or staff members to tamper with the outcome of a collegiate contest. Please do not ask any student-athletes or staff members for information regarding student-athlete performance/injuries.

NCAA RULES

Top 10 Things Fans & Friends of Tarleton Athletics Should Know About NCAA Rules:

1. You should always report any suspected or known violations to the Compliance Office immediately.
2. The NCAA holds Tarleton Athletics accountable for the actions of its fans and supporters. If you are involved with NCAA violations (known or unknown), Tarleton may have to forfeit games, entire seasons, scholarships, recruiting opportunities or may be prohibited from participating in the postseason.
3. You may send information about prospects to Tarleton Athletics coaching staff members.
4. You may continue established relationships with friends and neighbors who children are prospects or student-athletes. The relationship must pre-date high school and is not based on his/her status as an athlete (this must be registered in advance with the compliance department).
5. You may not be involved in recruiting prospective student-athletes on behalf of Tarleton Athletics. A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade.
6. You may not become involved in arranging for a prospect, a Tarleton student-athlete or a Tarleton student-athlete's friends or family to receive money or financial assistance of any kind.

HEAD COACH

When the 2021 baseball season begins, Aaron Meade will begin his second season as the head baseball coach for Tarleton State University.

His debut season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but his career was certainly off to a stellar start. Meade led the Texans to 14 wins in the first 24 games of the season for a .583 win percentage, which is the highest by a rookie head coach in Tarleton's NCAA era. Meade's first career coaching win was a 10-0 shutout of UT Permian Basin in his home debut. Justin Waltmon threw a complete-game shutout on the bump for Meade's milestone victory.

Meade was announced as the eighth head coach in Tarleton's modern era of baseball on July 23 and introduced at a press conference on July 24.

Meade came to Tarleton after a four-year career as the top assistant and pitching coach for Pittsburg State University (MIAA) in Pittsburg, Kansas. In his last two seasons, Meade helped the Gorillas to back-to-back 30-win seasons, their first since 2004, and led the pitching staff to its lowest team ERA since 2002 (3.91) in his final year. In 2018, Meade helped lead the Gorillas to their first NCAA regional tournament since 2002.

Prior to his four seasons at Pitt State, Meade spent one year at William Jewell College and helped the Cardinals to their first NCAA regional tournament berth in school history. He also spent a season as the volunteer assistant at his alma mater, Missouri State, where he helped his team reach the semifinals of the Missouri Valley Conference Championship Tournament.

In his coaching career, Meade has coached seven Major League Baseball draft picks including 2015 Toronto Blue Jays first-round RHP John Harris (29th overall). Meade's other draft picks include Matt Hall (2015 Detroit Tigers 6th round RHP), Colton Pogue (2018 Washington Nationals 28th round SS), and Alex Achtermann (2019 Colorado Rockies 30th round RHP). Hall reached the Major Leagues in 2018 with the Tigers. He also coached RHP Cal Quantrill during summer ball in 2014 prior to his selection as the eighth overall pick by the San Diego Padres in the 2016 MLB Draft.

Meade shined on the field for Missouri State from 2008-10 where he was a two-time All-MVC selection before being selected in the 10th round (324th overall) by the Los Angeles Angels. Meade pitched in the minor leagues for four seasons, winning nine games and striking out 165 batters in over 200 innings of work. He was named the Angels' Instructional League Pitcher of the Year in 2010.

He resides in Stephenville with his wife, Katherine.

JON UBBENGA

ASSISTANT COACH

When the 2021 baseball season begins, Jon Ubbenga will begin his second season as the top assistant coach for the Texan Baseball program.

His debut season as the coach in charge of offense was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Tarleton finished that shortened season with a 14-10 record and were ranked No. 3 in the Lone Star Conference with a .313 team batting average. Blake Burns was the team and conference's leading hitter with a .452 batting average.

Ubbenga, pronounced uh-beng-ay, came to Tarleton after spending the previous two seasons as the head coach of Bishop McGuinness Catholic High School in Oklahoma City. During his time at the high school ranks, Ubbenga quickly turned around a program that went 8-27 prior to his arrival to one game shy of the state tournament in 2019.

Ubbenga's collegiate baseball history dates back to 2005 as a shortstop for William Jewell College. He was an NAIA Honorable Mention All-America selection and a four-year starter for the Cardinals before graduating in 2009. During his time at William Jewell, the Cardinals went 168-70 with Ubbenga in the lineup.

After playing one summer of professional baseball for the River City Rascals in the Frontier League, he moved on to Missouri State University as a volunteer assistant coach for Meade's alma mater. He spent two seasons with MSU before one year at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M where he recruited and coached OF Ramon Laureano, currently of the Oakland A's. Over the next five seasons, Ubbenga spent time as an assistant and recruiting coordinator at five different stops – his longest tenure at Arkansas-Fort Smith from 2014-16. His final coaching position was at Central Arkansas for the 2017 season before taking the head job at McGuinness.

During his time at UAFS, Ubbenga recruited Dion Williams and Logan Allen. Williams would go on to earn Newcomer of the Year honors in the Heartland Conference while Allen developed into the first Major League Baseball draft pick in UAFS' NCAA era. He was a 14th round selection of the Tampa Bay Rays in June.

He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Stephenville with their son, Jaxon. and daughter, Jayden.

RUBEN RODRIGUEZ

ASSISTANT COACH

When the 2021 baseball season begins, Ruben Rodriguez will begin his third season as an assistant coach.

The 2020 season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Tarleton finished that shortened season with a 14-10 record and were ranked No. 3 in the Lone Star Conference with a .313 team batting average. Rodriguez was the team's first-base coach in 2019.

Rodriguez joined the coaching staff in 2018 as a graduate assistant and slipped into the top assistant role under interim head coach Brennan Rogers. This came after playing his final season of eligibility for the purple and white last year. As the starting second baseman of the 2018 LSC Tournament Champion Texans, Rodriguez enjoyed an All-LSC Second Team season after hitting .325 in 50 games with 10 doubles, three triples, and three home runs with 37 RBI.

The biggest hit of his Tarleton career came in the final inning of the Lone Star Conference Tournament semifinals against Texas A&M-Kingsville in Canyon. Rodriguez walked Tarleton right into the tournament championship game with an RBI single in the bottom of the ninth to deliver a 21-20 victory for the Texans.

Prior to his time at Tarleton, Rodriguez spent one season at Southwestern Oklahoma State and two years at Paris Junior College.

Rodriguez graduated from Tarleton with an undergraduate degree in kinesiology and is currently pursuing a master's degree in the same field. He is a native of El Paso, Texas and graduated from Eastlake High School.

CHASE CLELAND

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT

When the 2021 baseball season begins, Chase Cleland will begin his second season with the Tarleton Texan Baseball program as a volunteer assistant coach.

His debut season at Tarleton was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Tarleton finished that shortened season with a 14-10 record and were ranked No. 3 in the Lone Star Conference with a .313 team batting average.

Cleland came to Tarleton after spending two seasons as an assistant coach with Northeast High School and Pittsburg State. His time as a coach followed a five-year playing career at Pittsburg State, where he played for current Texan head coach Aaron Meade.

Cleland was a two-time academic honor roll selection and hit .313 as a junior and .273 as a senior first baseman.

He graduated in 2017 from Pittsburg State with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in educational administration. He is married to Taylor Cleland.

CONNOR FLANAGAN

GRADUATE MANAGER

When the 2021 baseball season begins, Connor Flanagan will begin his second season as a graduate manager for the Texans.

His debut season at Tarleton was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Tarleton finished that shortened season with a 14-10 record. Flanagan primarily assisted with the pitching staff and served as the team's bullpen coach.

Flanagan was a two-year letterman for the Texans from 2018-19. He appeared in 37 games over two seasons. As a reliever in 2018, he was a pivotal bullpen piece for Tarleton's run to the LSC Tournament Championship and NCAA Regional Tournament appearance. He was 2-0 with a 2.08 ERA in 26.0 innings out of the bullpen with 26 strikeouts. In 2019, Flanagan pitched in 17 games with five starts and struck out 41.

Flanagan is currently pursuing a master's degree in kinesiology.

COVID-19 PANDEMIC ENDS 2020 SEASON IN EARLY MARCH

The 2020 season was one of the most disappointing springs in the history of college athletics – not just for the Tarleton Texans, but for student-athletes around the nation.

The spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19) brought the season to a screeching halt on March 15. Conferences around the country began by suspending play, which ultimately led to game cancellations for the remainder of the season while the Center for Disease Control (CDC) issued quarantine and social distancing guidelines for the nation.

Tarleton Baseball was in fifth place in the Lone Star Conference standings at the time of the cancellations. The Texans were a 14-10 in leage play.

Ç SEASON CANCELLED DUE TO COVID-19

Tarleton has a rich history on the diamond that dates to the junior college days. When Tarleton made the move to a senior college in 1961, the Texan Baseball program made the transition as well for a brief stint before the program was discontinued following the 1969 season. Tarleton President Barry B. Thompson decided to revive the program in 1987 and the Texans made their triumphant return to the field in the spring of 1988. This record book contains only records of the modern era of Tarleton Baseball, which began in that 1988 season.

Texan Baseball is one of the school's oldest pastimes, dating back to its inception in 1899 and its first intercollegiate season in 1904.

In its earliest days as a junior college competitor, Tarleton State earned a reputation as one of the most talented teams in the state of Texas. The Texans boasted numerous state junior college championships in the 1920's and continued to be a solid program over the next two decades until a legendary figure stepped in and took the program to the next level.

Cecil Ballow was named the head coach in 1951 and turned Tarleton State from a perennial state power into a national powerhouse at the junior college level. Ballow's squad boasted a record of 51-25 from 1956-60, including a 16-4 mark in the 1960 season where the Texans finished as Junior College National Tournament finalists in Tarleton's final season as a junior college.

In the 1961 campaign, Tarleton Baseball had a new identity as a senior college and a new leader in Donnie Campbell. Campbell's Texans battled through a rocky first season but still battled to a 10-11 mark in its first year as a four-year institution. Campbell coached the team from 1961-64 before turning the program over to Hobart Lytle for the next four years. Lytle coached the Texans to a 44-27 record from 1965-68, which included the school's first two TIAA District 8 Championships in 1966 and 1968.

In 1969, George Malkaugh took over the program and coached Tarleton to a 7-7 record in regular season action and a spot in the TIAA District 8 playoffs before the program was dropped for financial considerations. At the time Tarleton dropped the program, Bill Scherfel and Kim Jacobs were at the top of the record books for hitting and pitching. Despite minimal verified records, it was known that Scherfel held the single-season records in batting average (.420; 1969), lowest earned run average (1.73; 1967), and home runs (5; 1967) while Jacobs held the single-season pitching records of most pitching wins (5; 1966) and most strikeouts (82; 1966).

After an 18-year hiatus, Tarleton's 13th President Barry B. Thompson decided to revive the baseball program and hired one of the state's best high school coaches to lead the Texans into the modern era. Thompson hired Lee Driggers in April 1987 after his tenure at Brenham High School, where he won district titles in 1984 and 1985 and 4A State Championships in 1986 and 1987 with a total record of 102-22 at Brenham. Driggers used the rest of the 1987 calendar year and put the Texans on the field for the first time in Georgetown on February 13, 1988 against Southwestern. Driggers and Tarleton won its first game of the modern era with a 13-7 win.

Tarleton christened its new home – the Cecil Ballow Baseball Complex – with a doubleheader against Texas Christian University on February 19, 1988. The Texans notched their first home win of the modern era on February 20 with a 6-0 victory over Mary Hardin-Baylor on the strength of a complete-game no-hitter by future Tarleton Hall of Famer, David Agado.

Driggers wasted no time getting Tarleton back to its winning ways as the Texans posted a 37-22 record in its inaugural season of the modern era and qualified for the TIAA Playoffs in its first season back in action. Driggers resigned after one season with the Texans to take over the Single-A affiliate of the Pittburgh Pirates and the team was turned over to Bill Clay, making him the sixth coach for Tarleton since 1951.

Clay, who also managed just one season at Tarleton, led Tarleton to the playoffs once again and a TIAA Championship with a record of 31-23 before turning things over to Tarleton Hall of Fame coach Jack Allen for the 1990 season.

Under Allen's leadership, the Texans went 418-309-3, won two Lone Star Conference South Division titles, and two outright conference championships. His teams also won Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association champions, one NAIA District 8 crown, and qualified for the school's first NCAA South Central Regional Tournament in 1998.

During his time at Tarleton, Allen coached 29 first team All-LSC players and seven All-Americans. He earned his 300th win at Tarleton with a 3-2 decision over Texas A&M-Kingsville that put Tarleton in the 1998 LSC Championship game and his 1,200th overall coaching victory came against Eastern New Mexico. Allen retired from coaching in 2002 and was inducted into the Tarleton Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following Allen's tenure, Tarleton fell under the instruction of Trey Felan beginning in 2003. Felan led the team to its second LSC South Division Championship in school history with a record of 31-26 and a 17-7 mark in conference play. Tarleton would go on to finish below .500 over the next five seasons, leading to another change in leadership.

In the summer of 2008, former Tarleton pitcher Bryan Conger was named the ninth head coach since 1951 and fifth head coach of the modern era of Texan Baseball. The former Texan hurler led Tarleton to the LSC Championship Tournament in his first season at the helm and has since turned Tarleton into an NCAA national power.

Conger led Tarleton back to the NCAA playoffs in 2011 and then guided the Texans to back-to-back championship seasons. Tarleton won its first LSC regular season championship in 2013 and its first LSC Tournament championship in 2014, earning the first automatic bid into the NCAA postseason in school history. In the elimination game of the NCAA region tournament, Tarleton staved off early elimination when Kevin Meredith drove an RBI single up the middle to score Chris Patton from second base to force extra innings. Tarleton went on to defeat New Mexico Highlands for Conger's first NCAA playoff win.

Tarleton made its debut in the national poll for the first time under Conger with a No. 15 ranking by the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper on March 7, 2011. The 2017 Texans matched that record high ranking by moving back to No. 15 in March of their season.

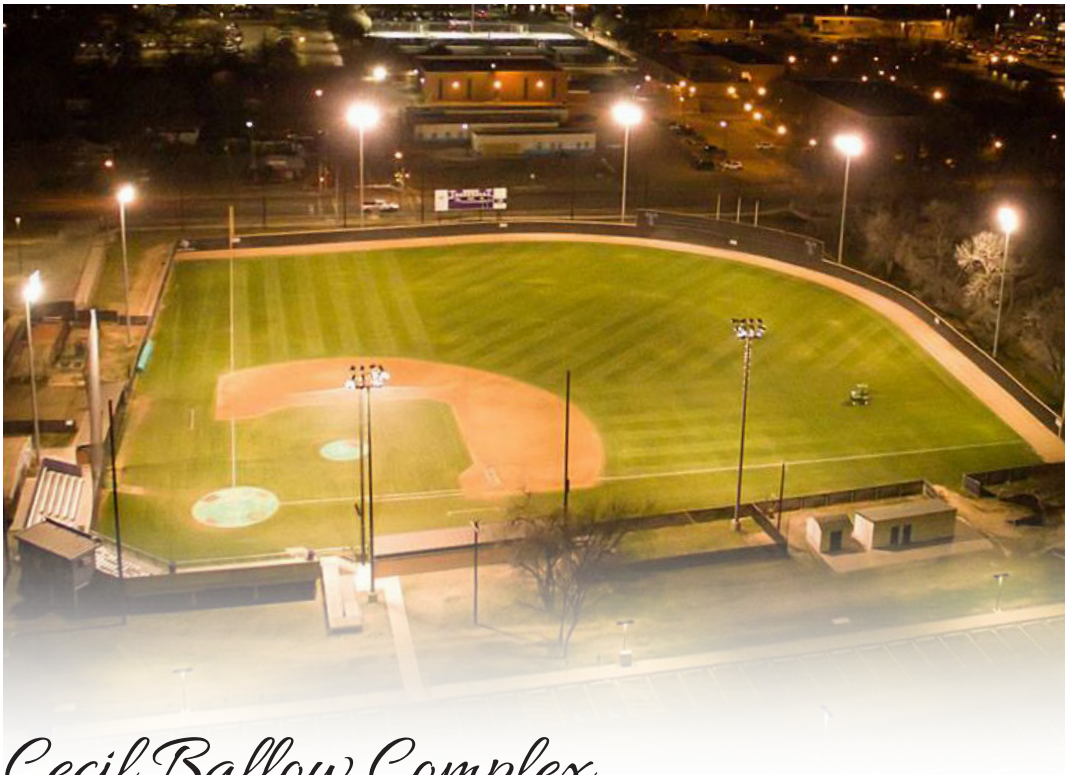
Under Conger's leadership, Tarleton made its way back to the NCAA playoffs in 2018 after winning the second LSC Tournament Championship in school history to earn the automatic bid. It was the fourth NCAA regional tournament appearance in school history and the third under Conger's leadership.

In January of 2019, the big leagues came calling for Conger's services and the longtime Texan left to pursue a career in Major League Baseball. His departure created a whirlwind within the head coach position for the Texans over the next six months.

After stumbling through the 2019 season under a student head coach, Tarleton hired Mike Sirianni from Regis University in May. Sirianni stayed at Tarleton two months before leaving for Wichita State, which reopened the position and led Tarleton to find an up-and-coming young coach in search of his shot – Aaron Meade.

Meade was named the head coach of the Texans in July and brought stability back to the program. He led the Texans back to the winning side of things with a 14-10 record early in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic cancelled all spring sports in early March and brought his rookie season to a screeching halt.

Despite its twist and turns over the last two seasons, the future of Texan Baseball appears strong and the 2021 season is expected to be no different.



Cecil Ballow Complex

THE HOME OF TEXAN BASEBALL

Tarleton has had one place to call home since the program resumed in 1988 - the Cecil Ballow Baseball Complex.

The complex was given its name in honor of the late Tarleton Athletics Hall of Fame coach, Cecil Ballow.

Nicknamed Ol' Cecil, the complex went into construction in January of 1987 and was completed prior to the inaugural season of baseball in 1988 under head coach Lee Driggers.

The field is located beside the Tarleton Horticulture building and behind the Tarleton Softball Complex - which was a later addition to the property when the university added women's fastpitch softball in 1996 - on the south side of Washington Street. The field is natural grass and is framed in center and right field by pecan trees with the university behind Washington Street in the distance. The field measures out to 320 feet down each foul line, 365 feet to the gaps, and 400 feet to straight-away centerfield.

A new scoreboard was added prior to the 2014 season with inning-by-inning score-tracking capabilities as well as columns for runs, hits, and errors. The new LED scoreboard allows for customizable names to be placed in the home and visitor title screens.

The dugouts in the complex are covered with red brick and seats 750 spectators in metal bleachers that wrap around the fence behind home plate. A new nylon backstop was installed prior to the 2015 season that wraps from dugout to dugout and extend 50 feet high - replacing the 30-foot high chain-link fence that was originally placed behind the plate in 1988. The press box is located at the top of the center seating section and has space for a scoreboard operator, official statistician, and media.

ABOUT THE CECIL BALLOW COMPLEX

Tarleton's baseball complex was named in honor of the university's former Dean of Students and Hall of Fame baseball coach, Cecil Ballow.

Ballow, a Stephenville resident, served as the Dean of Students at Tarleton for 31 years and served as the school's baseball coach for a decade - which included a trip to the 1960 Junior College National Championship game where the Texans finished as the national runners-up. He coached Tarleton's baseball team from 1951 to 1960 before retiring from the coaching ranks after the farthest postseason run in program history. Many of his junior college athletes went on to earn All-America honors at senior colleges. He retired from the university in 1979.

"Cecil Ballow served Tarleton for many years and is, indeed, a legend at our institution," said former President of Tarleton Dr. Barry B. Thompson in recommending to the Texas A&M University System Board of Regents that the baseball complex bear Ballow's name. "He is a Tarleton legend, beloved by three generations of Tarleton students. His contributions are truly incalculable."

Ballow graduated from Stephenville High School and Texas A&M University, where he was an all-conference shortstop and a member of the Southwest Conference championship baseball team in 1942. He went on to serve in the United States Army from 1942-46 before returning to Stephenville. Upon his return to the City of Champions, he helped organize the American Legion Junior Baseball league where he coached a team for 13 years and won 12 district titles. He was married to his wife, Marie, and the couple had three children - all of whom are Tarleton graduates.

TOTAL	7 HEAD COACHES	948	803	6	.541	355	328	2	.520

Individual coaching history dates back to 1951 when Cecil Ballow was named the head coach. From 1951 to 1969 (when the program was dropped), the Tarleton coaches included Ballow (1951-60), Donnie Campbell (1961-64), Hobart Lytle (1965-68), and George Malkaugh (1969). Individual records for that era of coaching history are not available.

Tarleton joined the NCAA in 1994; first baseball season in LSC as NCAA school was 1995; LSC had divisional play from 1999-2007*

LSC did NOT have a postseason championship tournament from 1995-97*

1998 TEXAN BASEBALL

Head Coach: Jack Allen | Record: 35-21, LSC 14-6 | Host: West Georgia

NCAA Gm. 1: L (0-5) vs West Georgia | NCAA Gm. 2: W (10-8) vs Texas A&M-Kingsville | NCAA Gm. 3: L (6-14) vs Alabama-Huntsville

Tarleton made its debut in the NCAA Regional Tournament in just its fourth year as an NCAA institution. Led by legendary head coach Jack Allen, Tarleton was the final team selected into the regional bracket and were forced to open play against top-seeded West Georgia. After falling in game one, Tarleton rebounded to earn its first-ever NCAA tournament win with a 10-8 victory over LSC rival Texas A&M-Kingsville.

2011 TEXAN BASEBALL

Head Coach: Bryan Conger | Record: 35-15, LSC 23-10 | Host: St. Mary's

NCAA Gm. 1: L (2-3) vs Central Missouri | NCAA Gm. 2: L (4-8) vs Incarnate Word

The second NCAA regional appearance came as a slight surprise to the 2011 Texans. Tarleton, who had not qualified for the tournament since 1998 and were in the third year under head coach Bryan Conger, believed the season was over following the LSC Championship Tournament and dispersed across the nation. When the selection show announced the championship field, Tarleton claimed the No. 5 seed and returned to Stephenville to compete in the postseason.

2013 TEXAN BASEBALL

Lone Star Conference Champions

Head Coach: Bryan Conger | Record: 34-16-1, LSC 21-7

Tarleton captured its first Lone Star Conference championship in 2013 after boasting a record of 34-16-1 overall and 21-7 in LSC action. Despite claiming the title, Conger's team was not selected to the NCAA Regional Tournament. The Texans celebrated their championship on their home field after sweeping Cameron in a doubleheader on April 27, 2013. Miguel Ramirez, Matt Buckmaster, and Britt Robertshaw combined to shut down the Aggies from the mound.

2014 TEXAN BASEBALL

Head Coach: Bryan Conger | Record: 30-24, LSC 16-18 | Host: Colorado Mesa

NCAA Gm. 1: L (10-13) vs West Texas A&M | NCAA Gm. 2: W (13-9) vs N.M. Highlands | NCAA Gm. 3: L (6-8) vs Texas A&M-Kingsville

Led by LSC Tournament MVP Garrett Kelly, Tarleton claimed its first-ever Lone Star Conference Tournament championship in 2014 to earn an automatic berth into the NCAA national playoffs. Tarleton earned the No. 5 seed in the NCAA regional and played two of the three playoff games against LSC opponents. Tarleton earned a win against NM Highlands when Chris Patton scored on a single with two outs in the ninth to tie the game and eventually win in 10 innings.

2018 TEXAN BASEBALL

Head Coach: Bryan Conger | Record: 35-17, LSC 18-6 | Host: West Texas A&M

NCAA Gm. 1: L (2-7) vs #6 West Texas A&M | NCAA Gm. 2: L [11] (2-3) vs #7 Colorado Mesa

Despite finishing as the second-place team in the Lone Star Conference regular season standings, Tarleton found itself on the outside of the NCAA regional rankings. So the Texans took their postseason fate into their own hands by slugging their way to a LSC Tournament Championship and an automatic berth. Tarleton walked off a 21-20 win against Kingsville in the LSC semifinals before beating host West Texas A&M 15-7 in the championship to earn the league tournament title.

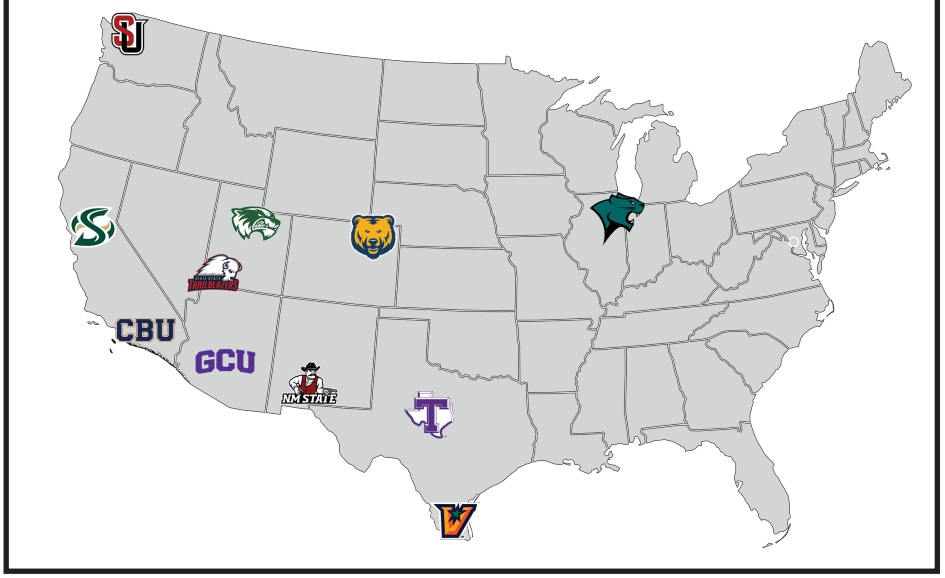
WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

After completing its 57th year of intercollegiate competition, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets and largest metropolitan cities. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 28 of the past 44 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women's basketball, the conference has had at least two teams qualify for the NCAA Tournament 10 times in 27 seasons, with a record five teams in 1998. The WAC also sent teams to three BCS football bowl games from 2007-10.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE BASEBALL MAP



In 2014, the conference launched the WAC Digital Network giving fans access to watch hundreds of games live on the internet. This past year nearly 800 live events were streamed on the WDN including soccer, volleyball, basketball, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, softball and baseball. In addition, the WDN produces championship events from soccer, volleyball, basketball, softball, outdoor track and field and baseball for ESPN, airing on ESPN+. The WDN also produces the franchise features, "#WACtopPlay," "WAC60," "WAC in the Day," "WAC All-Access" and "The Road to #WACvegas." The Learn-Compete-Inspire series is also featured on the WDN, telling stories of triumph and inspiration from around the conference.

The WAC's history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. In 2005, Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew. Boise State withdrew prior to the 2011-12 season. In 2012, the WAC added Denver, Seattle U, UT Arlington, UTSA and Texas State. In 2013, the WAC added CSU Bakersfield, Chicago State, Grand Canyon, Kansas City, Texas-Pan American and Utah Valley to join Idaho, New Mexico State and Seattle U. The new institutions replaced withdrawing members, Denver, Louisiana Tech, San Jose State, Utah State, UT Arlington, UTSA and Texas State. Idaho withdrew from the conference prior to the 2014-15 season. In 2015, Texas-Pan American merged with UT Brownsville to form The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley. California Baptist University became the ninth member of the conference on July 1, 2018. In January of 2019 Dixie State University accepted an invitation to join the conference effective July 1, 2020, replacing exiting member CSU Bakersfield. In November of 2019 Tarleton State University accepted an invitation for membership in the conference effective July 1, 2020, replacing exiting member Kansas City.

The WAC has had just six commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94), Karl Benson (1994-2012) and current commissioner Jeff Hurd (2012-present).

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – nine men's and 10 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

ABOUT TARLETON STATE UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Tarleton State University offers the value of a Texas A&M University System degree with its own brand of personal attention, individual opportunities, history, traditions and real community.

Located in the heart of Stephenville and encompassing a 173-acre main campus just an hour southwest of Fort Worth, Tarleton is one of the best university values in Texas and the perfect place for students to begin a future.

Tarleton offers the resources of a major public university, including more than 65 undergraduate programs, more than 20 graduate programs and a doctor of education degree, as well as cutting edge academic facilities and faculty experts with extensive university and industry experience — all with the personal attention, warmth and faculty interaction expected from a smaller college.

Tarleton has extended its reach beyond Stephenville and is rapidly expanding undergraduate and graduate programs online and in Waco, Midlothian and the Southwest Metroplex, including Johnson, Parker and Tarrant counties, and the RELLIS Academic Alliance in Bryan.

STEPHENVILLE, TEXAS

If you want the comfort and casualness of a small town and an intimate campus life, Tarleton has it! We're in the heart of Stephenville, a town of about 17,000 that is the hub of an area circled by Fort Worth, Dallas, Waco and Abilene. You'll live and learn in a warm, friendly, caring community ranked as one of the 100 best small towns in America. Stephenville was part of a tract of land located on the upper Bosque River Valley in Central Texas in 1854 and became the county seat of Erath County in 1856. The first land patent was secured by John M. Stephen on Feb. 24, 1853.

EDUCATION

The first permanent school in Stephenville was erected by John Tarleton. There are now seven public school districts in Erath County. Stephenville Independent School District has a total enrollment of more than 3,350 students. The one college in the area, Tarleton, has an enrollment of over 13,000 students at the Stephenville campus.

RECREATION

Stephenville offers a variety of recreational areas, including two public parks, two public swimming pools, two golf courses, 14 tennis courts, a movie theater, six football stadiums, two rodeo arenas, an 18-hole disc golf course, a youth center and a historical museum. There are also two major lakes within a 40-mile radius and many excellent areas for hunting and fishing. Annual events include livestock shows, arts and crafts festivals, rodeos, basketball tournaments and the Tarleton Homecoming.

MAJOR EMPLOYERS

Major manufacturers and employers in Stephenville include AMPI, Saint-Gobain, FMC, Harris Methodist Hospital, HEB Grocers, Medical & Surgical Clinic, Norton Company, Pecan Valley MHMR, Rayloc Industries, Stephenville ISD, Tarleton State University and Wal-Mart.

TTS AND TTP

Formed when Tarleton was a junior college, the Ten Tarleton Peppers (TTP) and Ten Tarleton Sisters (TTS) are the two oldest organizations on campus. These spirit organizations for men and women were formed in 1921 and 1923, respectively.

New members of these secret organizations are selected by current members. When first organized, the two groups met late at night and prepared signs for upcoming athletic events. The basic signs at this time were made of canvas and were stretched between trees on campus. The clubs met in the attic of the old recreation hall, which is now the Administration Annex.

The identities of the senior members were disclosed in group photos when the yearbooks were distributed. Senior members stood facing the camera while others faced away from the camera with various and sundry items placed over their heads. The groups are sponsored by faculty and staff members.

PURPLE POO

The TTS and TTP were precursors of the modern Purple Poo. The still-secret organization makes Poo signs each Monday night, which appear on campus every Tuesday morning. The signs occasionally comment on campus political life and student life, but most promote school spirit. These signs are nailed to trees on campus. Members appear in public dressed in costumes and identity is closely guarded.

The Purple Poo is one of the oldest secret spirit organizations in the State of Texas.

THE TEXAN MASCOT

Upon joining The Texas A&M University System in 1917, the Tarleton athletic teams became known as the "Junior Aggies."

In 1924, Coach W.J. Wisdom became disenchanted with the name and held a contest to select a new mascot. The winner would receive $5 and Wisdom would be the sole judge. One day, Wisdom was walking across campus and contemplating the fact that Tarleton was primarily an agricultural school when the name "Plowboys" popped into his head. He immediately adopted the new mascot and kept the $5. The symbol of the Plowboys was a muscular young man in overalls pushing a hand plow.

In 1950, the mascot withstood a challenge when four additional names were suggested for a student vote. Plowboys won by a 2-1 margin. With the University's changing image, however, another election was held in 1961 and students approved the name "Texans." The horse and rider became the new athletic mascot of the university.

THE PLOWBOYS

In 1984, a group of interested students established a spirit organization on campus and re-adopted the name "Plowboys," which was the former mascot of the athletic teams. The Plowboys attend athletic events and other campus activities and are familiar to students because of their white shirts, hats and purple chaps.

OSCAR P

Legend has it that John Tarleton, founder of the university, had a pet duck named Oscar P who went everywhere with him. The two were so close that Oscar P is said to be buried with Tarleton.

At various student activities, the Purple Poo rally Tarleton students by raising the spirit of Oscar P. This is done by kneeling and pounding the ground while calling out "Hey, Oscar P." Although this has become one of the favorite traditions, there is no evidence to verify the story.

THE AIRPLANE INCIDENT

At the height of the Tarleton-North Texas Agriculture College rivalry, frequent raids by opposing students were common. Bonfires were the primary objectives, and as described in the J-TAC newspaper (Tarleton's school paper), the students were driven by "the desire to cause premature conflagration of the accumulated rubbish."

On Nov. 29, 1939, two days before the traditional football game, and in retaliation for the burning of the NTAC bonfire by Tarleton students the night before, an NTAC student and accomplice flew over the Tarleton campus and attempted to bomb the bonfire. In their efforts to repel the air attack, Tarleton students on guard threw various objects at the plane. L.V. Risinger hurled a 2x4 into the air which struck the propeller and disabled the aircraft. The pilot glided over what is now the Hall of Presidents and crash-landed in a clump of trees.

While the NTAC student and his buddy were launching the air attack, three truck loads of NTAC students were attempting to invade campus by land. Both the land and air attacks were repulsed. The NTAC students were captured, given a block-T haircut and sent on their way. The Homecoming bonfire has been dedicated to L.V. Risinger, defender of the bonfire, who died in 1994.

7 LUXURY RESIDENCE HALLS

Tarleton has already provided a few things in every room:

1. MICROFRIDGE
One (1) per room. This appliance combines a mini- fridge with a microwave. Please do not bring additional units as they are not allowed.

2. TWIN BED AND EXTRA LONG MATTRESS
One (1) per resident. Beds can be bunked or lofted using hardware in the room. Mattresses are 80" long, 36" wide and 6" deep. You will want to bring Twin XL sheets. Please note that Integrity, Traditions North and South, and the newer addition of Honors Hall is equipped with full sized mattresses.

3. DESK AND CHAIR
One (1) desk and one (1) chair per resident.

4. DRAWER AND DRESSER
One (1) per resident. Exception in rooms where dresser drawers are built into casework.

5. CLOSET OR WARDROBE
One (1) per resident. Please note that in Bender, Ferguson, Hunewell and Hunewell Annex the closets are part of built-in casework.

The Athletic Performance Weight Room is where the Texans work out, following a year-round plan to maximize their athletic potential through sound strength and conditioning training. The Mission Statement for Athletic Performance states, "Tarleton State University Athletic Performance strives to provide Tarleton Athletics the best organized and best supervised athletic performance enhancement, injury prevention, and character development program possible within NCAA guidelines." From the layout of the weight room to the writing of the workout programs and the execution of the workouts, the Tarleton Athletic Performance Staff, led by the Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Performance (Master Strength and Conditioning Coach Rod Cole), creates an environment for maximizing the athletic abilities of TSU student-athletes.

Operating with a philosophy of POWER, LOVE, AND SELF-DISCIPLINE, the Athletic Performance staff motivates the Tarleton student athletes to approach life with a spirit of aggressiveness and assertiveness, to commit whole-heartedly, and to consistently discipline themselves to "do the hard things" necessary to be successful in athletics and in life. In his career, Coach Cole has trained some 150 athletes who have gone on to perform in the NFL, NBA, WNBA, MLB, CFL, international professional basketball leagues, or the Olympics. Some of the most notable athletes trained by Coach Cole are NFL players Darren Sproles, Jordy Nelson, Vonn Miller, Ryan Tannehill, and Terence Newman. Whatever your goals are as an athlete, Coach Cole and his staff can help you reach them.

"Tarleton State is committed to having a high-level Athletic Performance program," states Coach Cole. "Few universities at any level do strength and conditioning the way we do it here. With full-time assistant coach Stephanie Sharpe, graduate assistant coaches, and a host of interns that have finished their master's degrees, are grad students, or are undergraduates, we customarily have a staff of about twenty each year- you are not going to find that size of staff many places. We will be able to provide the best organization, supervision and coaching possible because of our staff size and staff quality." Each year Coach Cole will mentor a number of young coaches who will fulfill the requirements to sit for the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches association certification test to earn the GOLD STANDARD of strength and conditioning certifications.

At Tarleton State, we strive to coach the whole person. Required strength and conditioning activities are limited to eight hours or less a week by NCAA legislation, but the Athletic Performance strives to coach the TSU student athletes on what to do in "the other 22 hours a day" and "the other 160 hours a week" to maximize the effect of the training and practice time. Taking proper care of the body - nutrition, sleep and restoration, and the mental approach to one's sport, as well as character development, are all points of emphasis.

Many student athletes stay and work out on campus during the summer to allow for the best opportunity for success in the school year. Those who are not on campus in the summer are provided a workout plan for the time that they are away to encourage that they return in the best condition possible to start the year each August. The accomplishments of TSU athletic teams have fostered more and more involvement in the summer program as time goes on, showing a continued commitment to athletic success.

The spacious two level Athletic Performance Weight Room underwent a major renovation in December 2015. The facility now boasts 16 Power Lift Racks with in-laid maple wood platforms, featuring the Perform-X Band System for jump and quickness training. Uesaka bumper plates, Iron Grip plates, and all the accessories to complete a workout all at one rack. The facility also houses Iron Grip dumbbells ranging from 5-130 pounds, 60 kettlebells of various sizes, two Vertimax jump trainers, as well as 11 other machines and over 70 medicine balls. The upper-level cardio area has a Cybex Arc Trainer, two treadmills, two steppers, and an elliptical trainer, upper-body ergometer, and recumbent bicycle for cardiovascular training.

Each sport and each athlete is different, but the same philosophy of POWER, LOVE, AND SELF-DISCIPLINE will help each Tarleton student athlete maximize their potential as a student, as an athlete, and as a person.

WISDOM GYM

Wisdom Gym has seen some history.

Built in 1970 for a cost of $1.3 million, Wisdom Gym has been the home of Tarleton Basketball for nearly 50 years. Over that time, the gym has played home to All-Americans, Conference Champions, Conference Tournament Champions, NCAA Regional Tournaments, and NCAA Sweet 16 games. The gym has also been the home of the winningest basketball coach in school history since 1988.

The facility is located on the northwest corner of the campus, adjacent to Memorial Stadium, and is one of a kind on the campus of Tarleton State University as the only white brick building on the campus.

After the initial $1.3 million cost to build the facility, the gym underwent another $1.7 million renovation in 1977. The entire building, which also houses the Kinesiology department, women's volleyball gym, and child development center encompasses nearly 115,000 square feet of space.

The Texan basketball teams play on the hardwood of Wisdom Gym, which seats 2,400 spectators in a raucous environment that allows fans to stand within six feet of the sideline on the floor. Reserved seats with chair-backs were installed in 1999 and were renovated with brand-new cushion seating in 2017. A new hardwood floor was installed in the summer of the 2010, replacing the original floor, and new student seating was also installed in 2010 to replace wooden bleachers with the current purple seats.

A new scoreboard and video board was added prior to the 2013 season and the locker rooms have received several upgrades over the last few years, including new carpet, new lockers, and new technology for watching film.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

For more than six decades the fortunes of the Tarleton Texans have played out on the gridiron at Memorial Stadium.

Guided by the likes of former coaches W. J. Wisdom, Earl Rudder, Buddy Fornes and current head coach Todd Whitten, the Texans built a legacy of excellence, much in the confines of their home arena.

Playing host to opponents from the Pioneer Conference, the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, the Lone Star Conference and now NCAA Division I FCS, the venerable facility has witnessed championship seasons, postseason bowl invitations, and players who have excelled and advanced into the professional ranks.

In addition, legendary track coach Oscar Frazier fielded teams that dominated university-hosted competitions at Memorial Stadium, winning 19 conference or state titles, while training athletes who achieved state, national and even Olympic honors.

The stadium owes its very existence, as well as upgrades and additions over its 65-year life, to the generosity of local supporters of Tarleton's athletic programs.

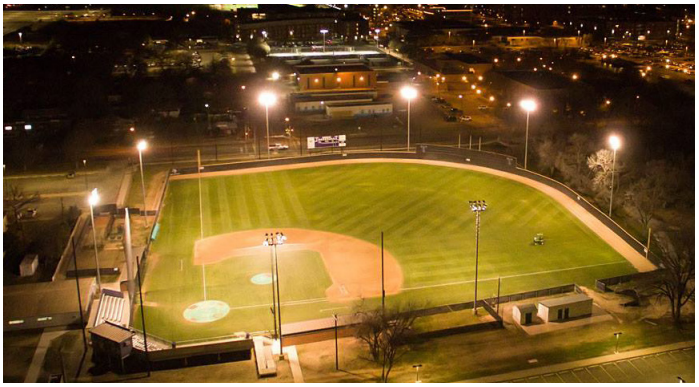
In the late 1940s, during the administration of President E.J. Howell, local leaders and influential alumni forged a committee to collect the $100,000 necessary to build the stadium. While early efforts proved fruitful, gathering $55,000 within the first year, the drive stalled before being brought back to life by Mary Hope Westbrook, head of the English Department. Westbrook assumed leadership of the group, which then met its funding goal.

By October 1948, crews began construction, bulldozing eight acres to make way for the stadium. The initial structure, made of reinforced concrete, seated 6,000 fans in 32 rows of steel bleachers. In 1950, a regulation cinder track was installed around the football field and, in 1951, the building opened.

Several rounds of upgrades, most funded by university benefactors, have occurred over time. A major renovations in 1977, financed by a then-ambitious $475,000 local fund-raising drive, added the now-iconic berm on the east side, replaced the old steel seats, extended the bleachers on the west side and built the press box. A $2 million project, which began in 1988, expanded seating to 7,600, added concession areas and built the current field house. In addition, track and field facilities were renovated and named for legendary track coach Oscar Frazier.

In 2019, a brand-new grandstand was built on the west side of Memorial Stadium to increase the seating to nearly 10,000 and provide a first-class experience for the Texan faithful. A new state-of-the-art video board was added on the south side of the stadium as a part of the renovation. The complete project was a $26 million renovation.

CECIL BALLOW BASEBALL COMPLEX



Tarleton State has had one place to call home since the program resumed in 1988 - the Cecil Ballow Baseball Complex.

The complex was given its name in honor of the late Tarleton State Athletics Hall of Fame coach, Cecil Ballow. A Stephenville resident, Ballow served as the Dean of Students at Tarleton State for 31 years and served as the school's baseball coach for a decade - which included a trip to the 1960 Junior College National Championship game where the Texans finished as the national runners-up. He coached Tarleton's baseball team from 1951 to 1960 before retiring from the coaching ranks after the farthest postseason run in program history. Many of his junior college athletes went on to earn All-America honors at senior colleges. He retired from the university in 1979.

Nicknamed Ol' Cecil, the complex went into construction in January of 1987 and was completed prior to the inaugural season of baseball in 1988 under head coach Lee Driggers.

The field is located beside the Tarleton Horticulture building and behind the Tarleton State Softball Complex - which was a later addition to the property when the university added women's fastpitch softball in 1996 - on the south side of Washington Street.
The field is natural grass and is framed in center and right field by pecan trees with the university behind Washington Street in the distance. The field measures out to 320 feet down each foul line, 365 feet to the gaps, and 400 feet to straight-away centerfield.

A new scoreboard was added prior to the 2014 season with inning-by-inning score-tracking capabilities as well as columns for runs, hits, and errors. The new LED scoreboard allows for customizable names to be placed in the home and visitor title screens.

The dugouts in the complex are covered with red brick and seats 750 spectators in metal bleachers that wrap around the fence behind home plate. A new nylon backstop was installed prior to the 2015 season that wraps from dugout to dugout and extend 50 feet high - replacing the 30-foot high chain-link fence that was originally placed behind the plate in 1988. The press box is located at the top of the center seating section and has space for a scoreboard operator, official statistician, and media.

TARLETON SOFTBALL COMPLEX

Home to the youngest program of Tarleton Athletics, the Tarleton Softball Complex has seen its share of success since the inaugural season in 1996. The Tarleton Softball Complex has served as the home field for the Texans since the first season, after initial construction began in the spring of 1995.

Tarleton played its first game on the field on February 19, 1996 and won the second game of a doubleheader against Schreiner College in extra innings.

The field dimensions are 190-feet down the lines and 220-feet to straight-away centerfield. The field itself is laid out in the same direction as the adjacent Cecil Ballow Field, Tarleton's home for baseball games.

A new scoreboard was installed in left-centerfield prior to the 2015 season, features customizable name plates and inning-by-inning scores, and is surrounded by nylon netting. Permanent bleachers were also added after the initial construction, which holds 500 fans. A press box rises above the bleachers and seats the primary game administration.

In addition to a hitting tunnel, locker rooms, and storage facilties located just beyond right field, the Tarleton Softball Complex features a unique painting, courtesy of former player Jalayne Rinewalt, of 'Tarleton Softball' on the third base dugout.

POTISHMAN-LARD TENNIS COURTS

The Potishman-Lard Tennis Courts at Tarleton State University underwent a significant upgrade prior to the 2014 season when the complex expanded from four courts to eight with the original four courts also getting a facelift.

The project included renovations to the existing four tennis courts, the addition to four brand new courts on the backside of the original courts and new lighting for the entire complex. All courts were painted purple and outdoor bleachers were placed on the west end of the complex with a courtside view of the No. 1 doubles court.

The original tennis complex was opened on November 3, 1979 after being constructed under a grant from the Mary Potishman Lard Trust. Leo Potishman and Clyde H. Wells, a chairman of the Texas A&M Board of Regents, volleyed a gold tennis ball that Saturday to christen the courts. The speakers also unveiled a plaque dedicated to the memory of Robert S. Lard.

The original four courts, constructed under the Lard Trust Grant, was constructed for a total cost of $115,000.

TARLETON VOLLEYBALL GYM

Tarleton is one of few schools in the Western Athletic Conference with a true 'Volleyball Gym' that doesn't share time with basketball teams.

The Wisdom Volleyball Gym is located inside Wisdom Gym on the northwest corner of the campus, adjacent to Memorial Stadium. The gymnasium, named for longtime Tarleton athletics director and basketball coach W.J. Wisdom, was built in 1970 at a cost of $1.3 million dollars. The entire building, which also houses the Kinesiology department, women's volleyball gym, and child development center encompasses nearly 115,000 square feet of space.

The main floor of the volleyball gym was refinished in 2017 to include the 'Block T' logo at center court. The volleyball gym was added to Wisdom Gym in 1977 as a part of a $1.7 million expansion project.

As the volleyball team's success grew following the first-ever LSC Tournament Championship and regular season championship in 2014 and 2015, so did the crowds. While the stands hold as many as 650 fans in the lower and upper bleachers on the north wall of the gym, portable bleachers are also added on the east and west ends to add seats for 100 more people.

The retractable bleachers on the floor were installed in the summer of 1999 and the south wall received a paint touch up and new photo banners prior to the 2014 season.

COVERING TEXAN BASEBALL

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Tarleton State University Athletics Communications staff welcomes all media members to attend Tarleton baseball games. The following information is intended to assist you in covering the Tarleton Baseball program:

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media credentials must be made through the Tarleton Athletics Communications office. Requests must be submitted on official news outlet letterhead and received at least 24 hours in advance of the game to be covered. Please fill out the form at TarletonSports.com/MediaRequest.

All press box seating is first come, first serve due to limited seating. Radio broadcasts will receive priority seating in the press box. Credentials are available at the beginning of every season to be used for the entire academic year by local media. Any other media personnel in need of credentials should contact the Athletic Communications office 24 hours before game time.

Visit TarletonSports.com/Media for Media Information.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers covering a game must display appropriate credentials at all times and are expected to comply with any instructions given by game officials or Tarleton sports information employees. NCAA rules prohibit photographers from being in the team areas and the use of tripods is prohibited.

Photographers can stand inside the fence, but become subject to the authority of game officials. You are also responsible for your own safety. Be alert for moving people and baseballs at all times. Do NOT enter the dugouts.

PRESS SERVICES

There are phone lines available in the press box. For those media members not in attendance, live stats and an occasional live video feed of the game can be found at TarletonSports.com.

NCAA Box Scores are available after the game. Other stats, including a scoring summary, situational, and all other statistical breakdowns are available only upon request. In addition, live stats are available to view on laptop computers and various tablets. Laptops and tablets will not be provided.

INTERNET ACCESS

Internet access is available in the press box. Access to wireless internet requires a proper authorization code which will be provided before first pitch.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Members of the media wishing to interview players or coaches must work through the Tarleton Baseball Contact to set up a convenient time for both parties. Postgame interviews are available on the field following a 10-minute "cooling off" period. If assistance is needed, contact a member of the Tarleton athletics communications department.

BROADCAST SERVICES

One courtesy line is provided for use by the visiting team's radio station. There is no fee for using the line, but all line charges are the responsibility of the visiting station. The visiting radio courtesy number will be given upon request.

OFFICIAL STATISTICS

Statistics will be provided throughout the course of the game upon request. Please inform the Tarleton Baseball Contact of your preference prior to the start of the game to receive printed copies of the official stats. You are also welcome to follow live stats at TarletonSports.com.

QUESTIONS

Any questions regarding the Tarleton Baseball program should be directed to Katy Gilmore, the Tarleton Baseball Media Contact.
