ABOUT THE MATCHUP

- This is the third all-time meeting, with the previous two happening last season. Tarleton won both, 57-54 in Stephenville and 79-60 in Chicago. Billy Gillispie is 3-0 all-time against CSU.
- This is Chicago State's first season not in the WAC since originally joining in 2013.
- The Cougars are 0-14 on the road (19 straight road L's), but they've had close games recently. They lost by seven at Ball State after losing by just three at Minnesota in late December.
- A bright spot for CSU is offensive rebounding -- they average 11.8 per game, No. 76 in D1.

QUICK HITS

- Tarleton is a perfect 6-0 at home, their best start at home to a season since 2014-15, a year they began 11-0 in Stephenville. They also have eight straight home wins dating back to last season, their longest such stretch since Nov. 26, 2016, through Jan. 19, 2017. They haven't won nine straight in Stephenville since Nov. 28, 2015, through Jan. 27, 2016.
- This is Tarleton's final regular season non-conference game. The Texans can finish with a winning record in non-conference play (7-6) for the first time since becoming a Division I program.
- The injury bug hasn't been kind to Tarleton, who missed three of their top four scorers Saturday. TAR still almost had a 27-point comeback at the Bearkats, now 40th in the NCAA Net Rankings.
- Shamir Bogues had a career day in Tarleton's last game, scoring a career-high 24 points on 9-of-15 shooting (5-5 FT), adding a season-high nine rebounds, four assists and two steals. It was Bogues' second career 20+ point game, the other coming at No. 3 Kansas last season.
- Javontae Hopkins had his best game of the season Saturday, going for a season-high 16 points (6-13 FG, 2-3 3PT) and a career-high nine rebounds. It was his third 10+ point game of the year and his most points since pouring in 18 on Dec. 30, 2021 at Dixie State (now Utah Tech).
- The last four games for Tarleton have been decided by seven points or fewer (all WAC games).
- Tarleton outscored Sam Houston 44-31 in the second half. The Texans are averaging 38.9 points in second halves this season, 4.3 points more than they average in first halves (34.6).

WHO'S HOT

3 SHAMIR BOGUES

In addition to his efficient scoring day on Saturday, Bogues added two more steals to his season total, now at 31 on the year. He's averaging 1.9 steals per game, second most in the WAC, and an even higher average than his 1.8 SPG last year that got him All-WAC Defense.

14 JAVONTAE HOPKINS

In his 94th career game with Tarleton, Hopkins had his fourth highest scoring outing (16) on Saturday and set a new career-high with nine rebounds. He made 2-of-3 from distance, the third time over the past three seasons he's made multiple long balls.

15 KIANDRE GADDY

Gaddy tied his career-high with eight rebounds on Saturday, adding six points, a steal and a block. Over his past four games he's averaged 6.0 rebounds per game, and is now third on the team for season average (3.7 RPG). He leads Tarleton with 10 blocks and 1.0 BPG.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

3

At the top of the WAC LEADERBOARD IN STEALS PER GAME, Tarleton has two of the first three, with Shamir Bogues second at 1.9 SPG and Jakorie Smith third at 1.8 SPG. As a team, the Texans rank tied-fifth in the nation in steals per game at 10.6. Missouri leads at 11.8 SPG.

42

Tarleton just pulled down 42 rebounds on Saturday, their SECOND MOST IN A GAME THIS YEAR as they outrebounded the Bearkats by 13. It was the first time this year that Tarleton has lost when outrebounding their opponent, now 6-1 in such games.

17

Sam Houston WENT TO THE FREE THROW LINE 17 more times than Tarleton did, despite the Texans entering Saturday's game fourth in the nation in free throw attempts per game. The Bearkats made 20-of-30, while Tarleton shot 10-of-13.

8

Tarleton is one of eight teams in the WAC at .500 OR BETTER TO START CONFERENCE PLAY entering Wednesday. Three teams are winless thus far; UTRGV, New Mexico State and UT Arlington.

When the 2022-23 season begins, four-time NCAA Tournament and 12-time Coach of the Year head coach Billy Gillispie will begin his third year as the head coach of the Tarleton Men's Basketball program.

Gillispie started his second season by emitting Tarleton in full across the national radar. The Texans began the 2021-22 campaign by playing six of their first seven games away from home in a series of high-profile matchups. Tarleton's November slate included a trip to Allen Fieldhouse to face eventual National Champion Kansas, a showdown in Spokane with No. 1 overall seed Gonzaga and visits to Sweet 16 participant Michigan, Stanford and Wichita State. The Texans firmly held serve in each matchup and captured the imaginations of the college basketball world with near-upsets of the Wolverines and Bulldogs.

Perhaps no team in the country played as challenging a schedule as Tarleton. The Texans were one of only four teams to face two No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament (Kansas, Gonzaga). Following the Texans' game at Gonzaga on Nov. 29, the program ranked No. 1 in strength of schedule according to the Pomeroy College Basketball Ratings. The Texans finished the season ranked 15th nationally and tops among all mid-major programs in the category. Additionally, Tarleton had 11 combined NCAA victories on their 2021-22 schedule, by far the most in the WAC.

The robust start to nonconference play carried over into December and the start of WAC play. Tarleton won seven of its next nine games following its trip to Spokane. The Texans went on to finish .500 in conference play at 9-9. The team's conference victories came via a memorable home sweep of east Texas rivals Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin, season sweeps of Chicago State, Lamar and UTRGV and a road win at Dixie State.

Individually, Gillispie coached Shamir Bogues to the All-WAC Defensive Team and mentored Montre Gipson to All-WAC second team recognition. Bogues became the first player in Tarleton basketball history to be selected to the All-Defensive Team and was one of five players to receive the honor. Gipson's accolade signified the third postseason All-WAC honor of his two-year Texan career. Tarleton also cleaned up a trio of weekly WAC accolades under Gillispie's leadership. He coached Noah McDavid to two sets of WAC Freshman of the Week credentials (Jan. 10, Jan. 29) and saw Tahj Small receive WAC Player of the Week recognition on Jan. 10 following the Texans' home sweep of SHSU and SFA.

Gillispie's defensive mettle was on full display once again. The Texans finished the season fifth among all D1 programs in turnover percent differential (+6.4), ninth in turnover margin (+4.1), 11th in turnovers forced (505) and 14th in turnovers forced per game (16.3). Tarleton ranked second in the WAC in all four categories.

In Gillispie's first season with the Texans to a .500 record (10-10) in the inaugural Division I season while going 5-7 in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The five conference wins ranked fifth in the WAC.

In an unprecedented season trying to navigate coaching during COVID-19, Gillispie and the Texans won seven of their last nine games, including three straight conference wins to end the season. Tarleton had nine games canceled due to COVID-19 on the season, including games against eventual national champion Baylor and road games at then-No. 1 Gonzaga and then-No. 1 Kansas. The nine cancellations were top 10 in the country for a program.

Tarleton's first Division I victory came on Nov. 25 with a 103-48 victory over Dallas Christian. The first Division I and WAC victory came on Jan. 29 in a 70-62 road win at Utah Valley. Tarleton also downed three-time defending WAC champion New Mexico State, 64-55, on Feb. 27 inside Wisdom Gym and followed the victory up with a road sweep at UTRGV to close out the regular season.

Due to NCAA Division I transition rules, Tarleton does not qualify for NCAA statistical rankings. Had they been eligible, the Texans would have ranked first in the nation in steals per game (10.5), second in the nation in turnovers forced per game (19.5), and 15th in the nation in points allowed (62.3).

Individually, Gillispie recruited and coached four all-WAC selections, including the Freshman of the Year in Freddy Hicks. Montre' Gipson was selected to the All-WAC Newcomer Team while Gipson, Shakur Daniel and Tahj Small were named Honorable Mention All-WAC.

Gillispie became Tarleton's 15th head coach on March 30, 2020 as the Texans began their transition to NCAA Division I and joined the WAC. Gillispie has served in the same capacity at Kentucky, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Texas-El Paso (UTEP). The veteran head coach has 13 years of experience as a collegiate head coach with eight of the years coming at the NCAA Division I level. Gillispie has a career Division I record of 148-108 while taking three different teams to the NCAA Tournament (Kentucky, Texas A&M, UTEP). Gillispie is a two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year (2005, 2007), co-SEC Coach of the Year (2008), WAC Coach of the Year (2004), a finalist for the NABC National Coach of the Year (2004), and the National JUCO Coach of the Year (2019). He's also a three-time NJCACC and five-time TABC Coach of the Year.

"Coach Gillispie has shown to truly be genuine in the way he cares about helping student-athletes achieve great success both on and off the court," said Dr. Hurley. "After a national search and an extensive interview process, we are confident that Coach Gillispie's experience and commitment to Tarleton and our community make him the right person to build on the storied success of Texan basketball."

"I would like to welcome Billy Gillispie to Tarleton and back to The Texas A&M System family," said Chancellor Sharp. "Coach Gillispie had tremendous success at Texas A&M and I am confident we will see that same level of success at Tarleton."

Known as an elite recruiter, Gillispie once managed to put together four straight national top-25 recruiting classes from 2005-09. He also had the sixth-ranked recruiting class at Baylor as an assistant in 1996. In Gillispie's career, he has helped recruit over 30 players that advanced to the NBA and NFL and 102 players that played professionally.

With 20 years of experience as a high school head coach in Texas and a Division I assistant, including under legendary head coach Bill Self at Tulsa and Illinois, Gillispie got his first collegiate head coaching job at UTEP from 2002-04. In just his second year leading the Miners, Gillispie lifted the team to an 18-win improvement – the best in the NCAA – and claimed the WAC regular season title, the WAC Coach of the Year award, and advanced to his first NCAA Tournament. It was UTEP's first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1992.

After two seasons at UTEP, Gillispie was hired by Texas A&M where he once again had one of the biggest turnarounds in the country. In his first season with the Aggies, Gillispie led his new team to a 21-10 record – a 14-win increase from the season before – and advanced to the NIT Quarterfinals. The turnaround garnered his first career Big 12 Coach of the Year award. In year two (2005-06), Texas A&M finished 22-9 and fourth in the Big 12 while claiming a No. 12 seed in the first NCAA Tournament appearance for the Aggies since 1987. Gillispie picked up his first tournament win in an opening-round upset over Jim Boeheim's No. 5-seed Syracuse Orangemen.

Gillispie's best season came in 2006-07 when he won a career-high 27 games with the Aggies, finished second in the Big 12, and won his second Big 12 Coach of the Year award in three seasons. Gillispie led the Aggies into storied Allen Fieldhouse to take on the defending Big 12 Champion No. 6 Kansas Jayhawks and became the first visiting team from the Big 12 South Division to leave with a victory. Less than 48 hours later, Gillispie topped the Kevin Durant-led No. 25 Texas Longhorns for his second straight ranked victory. The Aggies finished the season ranked No. 6 by ESPN/USA Today, which was a then-Texas A&M record.

Texas A&M advanced to its second straight NCAA Tournament, this time as a No. 3 seed. The Aggies topped Penn in the opening round and followed with a second-round win over Rick Pitino's No. 6-seed Louisville Cardinals to advance to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1980.

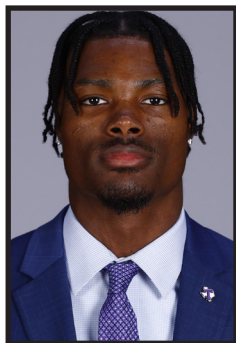

In his three seasons at Texas A&M, Gillispie coached three future NBA players, including a pair of first-round picks in Acie Law IV (11th pick) and Antoine Wright (15th pick). He also coached a future NFL second-round draft pick in dual-sport athlete Martellus Bennett.

After three seasons at Texas A&M, Gillispie was hired to lead the Kentucky Wildcats where he racked up a 40-27 record over two seasons and reached his fourth NCAA Tournament, including his third straight appearance. In his first season, Gillispie led the Wildcats to a 12-4 mark in the SEC and was named the Co-SEC Coach of the Year. Gillispie coached six future NBA draft picks, including first-round selection and current Los Angeles Clipper Patrick Patterson (14th pick).

After Kentucky, Gillispie signed on at Texas Tech but resigned after one season due to health reasons. In 2018, Gillispie underwent a successful kidney transplant.

A rejuvenated Gillispie made a triumphant return to the sidelines at his alma mater Ranger Junior College. Over the last four seasons at Ranger College, Gillispie went 103-24 and took the Rangers to the NJCAA national title game in 2019, where he was named the JUCO National Coach of the Year.

"I cannot wait to get started," Gillispie said. "At Tarleton, we will be inheriting an ultra-successful program that Lonn and Chris Reisman established as well as countless others that have poured their hearts and souls into Texan Basketball for more than 30 years. No program has been more successful during that time. We will try our hardest every day to honor the efforts that have been made as we move into a new era of Division I basketball and make every one of the Tarleton faithful proud."
