GAME 6

TEXAS (3-2, 2-0 Big 12)

vs.

#12/10 Oklahoma (5-0, 2-0 Big 12)

Cotton Bowl (92,100)

Sat., Oct. 12 (Time: 11:06 a.m. CT/TV: ABC)

THE SERIES: Texas and Oklahoma first met in 1900 in Austin with the Horns registering a 28-2 victory. The two teams have met 107 times. Texas holds a 59-43-5 advantage.

TELEVISION: ESPN will air the game with Brent Musburger (play-by-play), Todd Blackledge (color) and Heather Cox (sidelines) calling the action.

RADIO: All games are broadcast on the Longhorn IMG Radio Network on its 32-station network which includes flagship KVET (1300 AM/98.1 FM) in Austin. Pregame begins one hour before kickoff. The game is also available online at TexasSports.com. Craig Way (play-by-play), Roger Wallace (color) and Quan Cosby (sidelines) will call the action. A live radio broadcast for each game also can be heard on SiriusXM Satellite: XM 117; Sirius 202; Internet 969; Spanish 970. Dr. Rubén Pizarro (play-by-play) and Jesus Mendoza (color) have the call for the Spanish Language Radio Broadcasts. Westwood One is broadcasting the game nationally. John Tautges (play-by-play) and Tim Brown (color) have the call.

UT & OU TO WEAR SPECIAL UNIFORMS: Both teams will wear specially designed uniforms for the game. Nike designed the uniforms to honor the heritage of the annual matchup (see page 21 for details).

TEXAS WINS ON ROAD, GETS READY FOR OKLAHOMA:

Texas improved to 2-0 in the Big 12 on Thursday with a come-from-behind 31-30 road win over Iowa State. Case McCoy scored on a 1-yard QB sneak with 51 seconds left and the defense forced a turnover on the Cyclones' final possession to seal the win. The Longhorns now gear up for their annual showdown with Oklahoma, which held off TCU, 20-17, Saturday in Norman. UT and OU, along with Texas Tech, are tied for first in the league standings.

108TH AT&T RED RIVER RIVALRY

GAME: A classic matchup is once again in place as one of the nation's oldest and most-unique rivalries — the Texas/Oklahoma series — is set for its 108th renewal on Saturday at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas. The rivalry, which pits the two Big 12 Conference foes on a neutral field with the crowd split evenly, is in its eighth year of sponsorship with AT&T and is officially tagged the AT&T Red River Rivalry. The two teams alternate as hosts of the game and the Longhorns are the home team this year. Texas will wear burnt orange jerseys and be seated on the home bench (west/press box side).

BIG-TIME RIVALRY:

There is no rivalry quite like the Texas/Oklahoma series, which is being played for the 108th time. The series, which began in 1900, has been played in Dallas since 1912 and at the Cotton Bowl since 1929. Dallas' Cotton Bowl is located an equal distance from Austin and Norman, Okla. The stadium is split evenly among Longhorn and Sooner fans at the 50-yard line. It is the second-oldest UT series and tied for the 19th most-played rivalry in NCAA history. Only Texas A&M has met Texas on more occasions (117 times). Since 1900, the only years Texas and Oklahoma have not met were 1918, '20, '21 and 1924-28. The series resumed in 1929 at the State Fair of Texas and has remained a fixture since. This is the 91st meeting in Dallas between the teams.

THE TEXAS-OU SERIES:

Texas and Oklahoma first met in 1900 in Austin with the Longhorns registering a 28-2 victory. Texas holds a 59-43-5 series lead, including a 47-39-4 edge in Dallas. The teams have split the last eight meetings, though the Sooners have won the last three. UT is the only Big 12 Conference team that holds an all-time series lead against the Sooners. As for records by decade, Oklahoma led 6-4 in the 2000s, while the Horns led 7-2-1 in the 1990s. That comes after the Sooners held a 5-4-1 advantage in the 1980s. The rest of the series records by decade saw UT lead 9-2-1 in the 1900s; OU lead 6-3 in the 1910s; UT lead 3-0 in the 1920s; UT lead 6-3-1 in the 1930s; UT lead 8-2 in the 1940s; OU lead 7-3 in the 1950s; UT lead 9-1 in the 1960s; and OU lead 6-3-1 in the 1970s.

S - Denotes Big 12 South Division

FIRST-AND-GOAL:

- Case McCoy will make his second-career start against Oklahoma after QB David Ash was ruled out for the game. McCoy started the 2011 game and started twice this season in place of Ash. On the season, he has completed 61 percent of his passes with two touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Texas lost its second defensive player for the season in the last two games when CB Sheroid Evans suffered a torn ACL vs. Iowa State. LB Jordan Hicks ruptured his Achilles tendon vs. Kansas State.
- With the 31-30 win over Iowa State, the Longhorns have now won 19 of their last 21 (.905) games decided by three points or less.
- UT is averaging 459.0 yards of total offense which ranks No. 39 in the nation. The Horns are averaging 192.2 yards on the ground (No. 48) and 266.8 in the air (42nd).
- Ash was ranked 28th nationally in passing efficiency (156.3 rating) and tied for 21st in total offense (304.0 yards per game) heading into last week's game, but dropped out since he's now played in less than 75 percent of the games. Ash missed the Ole Miss contest with head and shoulder injuries, but returned vs. Kansas State only to leave at halftime when symptoms of his head injury re-emerged and not played since then.
- Johnathan Gray leads the team (439) and ranks third in the Big 12 and 41st nationally in rushing (87.8 per game). He is averaging 102.8 rushing yards over the last four games. Gray has three rushing touchdowns in the last two games after posting four in the first 16 contests of his career.

- Jaxon Shipley leads the team with 27 receptions and ranks fourth in the league at 5.4 per game. Sixteen of his receptions have gone for first downs, including two on fourth down plays. Mike Davis, who missed the K-State game with an ankle injury, has 26 receptions and ranks second in the Big 12 (31st nationally) with 6.5 per game. Davis has a team-high four TD receptions which is tied for 31st in the nation.
- Kendall Sanders has emerged as a receiving threat. The sophomore has started the last four games and posted a career-high 80 receiving yards, including a 63-yard TD, vs. Kansas State. He is averaging a team-best 102.0 all-purpose ypg (No. 10 in the Big 12).
- Six players have at least one catch of 45 yards or more this season.
- After surrendering an average of 7.0 yards per carry to BYU and Ole Miss, the UT defense has held its last two opponents (K-State - 3.0; Iowa State - 4.0) to a combined 3.6 ypc.
- Despite being out for the season (ruptured Achilles), LB Jordan Hicks has a team-best 41 tackles. LB Steve Edmond is second with 35 and DE Cedric Reed third with 34. Edmond missed the first half of the Iowa State game due to a targeting penalty incurred in the second half of the K-State game, but still had seven tackles vs. the Cyclones.
- Reed leads the team with four pass break-ups and is tied for the lead in tackles for loss (6).
- DE Jackson Jeffcoat has a team-high 3.0 sacks and ranks tied for third in the Big 12

MACK BROWN (Florida State '74): Texas' 16th-year head coach is 153-45 (.773), including 92-31 in the Big 12. He led UT to the 2005 National Championship, and has a 239-119-1 (.667) mark over his 29-year career. Brown is the Big 12's winningest active coach (FBS/ Division I-A games only) and has three BCS bowl wins in four appearances.

BOB STOOPS (Iowa '83): Head coach Bob Stoops holds a 154-37 record in his 15th season at Oklahoma. Stoops led the Sooners to the 2000 National Championship along with eight Big 12 titles. Stoops has also coached at Florida (1996-98), Kansas State (1989-95), Kent State (1988-89) and Iowa (1983-87).

at 0.60 per game. He is tied for the team lead in TFLs (6).

- DT Malcom Brown had perhaps his best game as a Longhorn against Iowa State. The sophomore had a career-high 10 tackles, including one sack and one TFL, as well as one PBU. He shared the team's defensive player of the game award with Jeffcoat whose interception on the Cyclones' final drive helped seal the win. It was the first interception by a UT defensive lineman since Nov. 14, 2009 when Eddie Jones picked off a pass vs. Baylor and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown.
- Texas ranks tied for 12th nationally in turnover margin at +1.2 per game. Texas has lost the ball just five times this year which is tied for 13th in the FBS. UT was plus-3 in turnovers vs. K-State after going minus-13 in the previous five meetings. The Horns were plus-1 vs. Iowa State.
- Anthony Fera ranks 26th nationally in punting average (43.6). Fourteen of his 28 punts (50 percent) have gone inside the 20 and 15 have been fair caught. Three of his eight punts vs. Iowa landed inside the 10-yard line. He has also gone 5-for-6 on field-goal attempts.

TRADITIONAL POWERS: Texas and Oklahoma are two of the six winningest programs in NCAA history based on total wins and winning percentage. UT and OU have combined to produce a record of 1,706-646-86 (.717) over 240 years of football. The Longhorns rank sixth in all-time winning percentage (.715), while Oklahoma is just ahead in fourth (.719). Texas currently ranks second in all-time wins (see chart below) and Oklahoma stands sixth. Texas has played in 51 bowl games and Oklahoma has made 46 bowl appearances.

SOLD OUT: This year's game is expected to be the 68th consecutive sellout at the Cotton Bowl, which has a current capacity of 92,200.

CONFERENCE FOES: Texas and Oklahoma met as conference opponents in 1996 for the first time in 77 years. The Longhorns and Sooners first met as league foes when the Sooners were a member of the Southwest Conference from 1915-19 and now have conference bragging rights on the line for the 17th year as members of the Big 12. Oklahoma leads 10-7 in Big 12 games and holds a 13-8 lead in all-time conference games against the Longhorns.

OFF TO THE FAIR: The Texas/Oklahoma game is once again a part of a state festival with the State Fair of Texas surrounding the event. That continues a tradition which began in 1929. That year, the game was played in an old wooden structure called Fair Park Stadium, which was located on what is now a parking lot at Fair Park. A new stadium, also named Fair Park Stadium, was built in 1930 and renamed in 1936 as the Cotton Bowl. The name change came about because, at the time, Dallas was the largest interior spot cotton market in the world.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION: ABC is broadcasting this year's game, which marks the 61st time the Texas/Oklahoma matchup will be televised. ABC will be carrying the game for the 22nd time in the past 23 years. FOX Sports Southwest's telecast of the 1998 game snapped a string of seven consecutive contests carried by ABC. Forty-two UT/OU games have been network telecasts. The first-ever television appearance came in 1948 when a Fort Worth station carried the game live. Excluding OU television probation years (1974-75 and '89), the game is being televised for the 37th year in a row.

THE BATTLE LINE: One of the unique characteristics of the Texas/OU rivalry is the colors. With the tickets divided equally, burnt orange and crimson split down the middle. OU claims the south horseshoe from the 50-yard line and UT the horseshoe north of midfield. As the home team, the Longhorns will wear orange jerseys and occupy the west bench area (the press box side) with that role reversing next season.

THE GOLDEN HAT: To the victor goes the Golden Hat, a rotating trophy representing the winner of the Texas/Oklahoma contest. It's a gold cowboy hat mounted on a large block of wood and it has been a part of the series since the State Fair of Texas donated it in 1941. The only change has been the actual color. When it first arrived, it was known as the "Bronze Hat" and actually was bronze. When that hat was reworked in the 1970s, it came out gold, hence it is now officially known as the Golden Hat.

GOVERNOR'S CUP: The Governor's Cup is exchanged by the Governors of Texas and Oklahoma following the AT&T Red River Rivalry. The tradition started when Texas Governor Dolph Briscoe donated the trophy, and each year it is transported from the office of the previous year's winning Governor to Dallas. It is displayed in the Hall of State on game day and then transported to the office of that year's winning Governor after it has received its engraving.

UT/OU TORCHLIGHT PARADE: The annual Torchlight Parade is set for Wednesday night at 8 p.m. at the Main Mall on the UT campus. Head coach Mack Brown and the team will be on hand at approximately 8:30 p.m.

STREAKS, TRENDS AND MILESTONES:

- After the win at Iowa State, UT has won five of its last seven on the road.
- Texas registered its 30th second-half comeback, including 19 in the fourth quarter, in the win over Iowa State. It is the sixth second-half comeback win since the beginning of the 2011 season (vs. Oregon State, at Kansas and at Oklahoma State in 2012; at Texas A&M and vs. BYU in 2011). Case McCoy engineered four of the last six. He came off the bench in the fourth quarter at Kansas last season, was under center when the Horns came back at Texas A&M, and led the game-winning drive vs. BYU.
- After posting 2.0 sacks over the first three games of the season, the Horns have racked up 9.0 over the last two games, including 5.0 vs. Iowa State.
- McCoy has not thrown an interception in his last 106 pass attempts (dating back to the 2012 Kansas State game). That total ranks tied for fifth (with Chance Mock) on the UT all-time list and sixth on the FBS active list (see charts on page 16). McCoy already owns the third-best streak in school history (124 in 2010-11). Major Applewhite had a school-record 156 in 1999.
- Mike Davis posted six receptions for 64 receiving yards vs. Iowa State. He moved from sixth to fifth on the UT career receptions list and from seventh to sixth on the receiving yards list. Davis now has 175 career catches and 2,313 receiving yards. He passed Kwame Cavil (1997-99), who had 174 career catches and 2,279 yards, on both lists.

- Jaxon Shipley had his string of eight straight games with at least five receptions snapped vs. Iowa State. He posted three receptions for 29 yards.
- WR/TE John Harris has just five catches on the season, but has made them count. He posted his second touchdown catch of the season at the end of the first half of the Iowa State game. He pulled in the 44-yard 'Hail Mary' from Case McCoy as time expired. Harris is averaging 28.2 yards per reception this season.
- DE Jackson Jeffcoat has 44 career tackles for loss. He needs 3.0 more to reach the UT career top 10. Tony DeGrate (1981-84) with 47 is 10th.
- OG Mason Walters leads the team with 43 straight starts, which is tied for the second-longest streak in the nation among offensive linemen (44, Gabe Jackson, OG, Mississippi St.). CB Carrington Byndom leads the defense with 31 consecutive starts. Quandre Diggs had his streak of 26 straight starts snapped vs. Kansas State when the Horns started three linebackers. OT Josh Cochran (shoulder injury) had his streak of his 19 consecutive starts snapped vs. Kansas State and has missed the last two games.

BIG PLAY TOUCHDOWNS: With Johnathan Gray's 45-yard TD run vs. Iowa State, Texas has scored seven touchdowns this season on plays of 45 yards or longer and they have been spread around among seven players (also David Ash – 55-yard run vs. New Mexico State; Malcolm Brown – 74-yard TD reception vs. NMSU; Mike Davis – 57-yard TD catch, John Harris – 54-yard TD reception vs. NMSU, Daje Johnson – 66-yard TD catch vs. NMSU; Kendall Sanders 63-yard TD catch).

INJURY BUG: Injuries have begun to mount for the Longhorns who played without four offensive starters vs. Kansas State and three starters (two offense and one defense) vs. Iowa State. Along with QB David Ash missing 10 of the last 12 quarters of action (Ole Miss game, second half of K-State and ISU game) and WR Mike Davis sitting out the K-State game with an ankle injury, the Horns were dealt a severe blow when it was announced on Sunday, Sept. 22 that junior LB Jordan Hicks, the team's leading tackler (41), will miss the rest of the season after rupturing his Achilles tendon against Kansas State. Hicks appeared to be back to his old form after missing the final 10 games of 2012 with a hip ailment. He had at least seven tackles in each of the first four games and his 32 career games played lead the linebacking corps. WR/RB Daje Johnson (ankle) missed nearly all of the BYU game and each of the next two contests, but returned vs. ISU. RT Josh Cochran (shoulder) has missed the last two games and TE

ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM/JAMAIL FIELD RENOVATIONS

As Texas football proceeds through the 21st century, Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium continues to evolve as a state-of-the-art facility at the forefront of college football.

Following the 2008 season, Texas installed FieldTurf as its playing surface and permanent bleachers were added to the south end of the stadium.

Combined with the previous year's north end zone project, DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium now has a stadium capacity of 100,119, which is the fifth-largest college stadium in the country and the largest college stadium in the southwest.

Prior to the 2013 season, the field surface was replaced and seats throughout the lower bowl were replaced.

The north end zone expansion project that was completed prior to the 2008 season featured an upper deck, club seating, an academic center and a war memorial plaza. The expansion added approximately 2,108 club seats and 47 suites.

The lower deck of the north end zone was completed for the 2007 season. Another major upgrade was made prior to 2007, when a new video board was installed at the south end of the stadium. At the time, the scoreboard was the nation's largest high-definition video display board thanks to Daktronics. The $8-million Prostar Video Board is 56 feet high by 134 feet wide. Then after the 2012 season, UT worked with Daktronics to provide an upgrade to the video and audio capabilities in the stadium.

In addition, the interior of the Moncrief Athletics Complex, most notably the players' lounge, is consistently being upgraded. Prior to 2009, a new academic center was constructed. It is approximately three times the size of the previous center. It features writing, math and computer labs, numerous tutoring areas, a multimedia classroom and academic staff office space.

In the summer of 2011, the Longhorns locker room was renovated. It was all part of a $176.5 million renovation project at the stadium.

Greg Daniels (foot) was injured against Ole Miss and missed the K-State contest. Reserve CB Sheroid Evans tore an ACL in the Iowa State game and is lost for the season, while Ash has already been ruled out for the Red River Rivalry game with Oklahoma as a result of lingering effects of his head injury. Texas has a chance to get healthy as it has another off week after the OU game. The Horns are in a stretch of just two games (Iowa State - Oct. 3; Oklahoma - Oct. 12) in a 34-day span.

LONGHORNS LOSE ONE OF ALL-TIME GREATS: For the second-straight season, the Longhorns lost a legend leading up to the Iowa State game. Former head coach Darrell K Royal passed away on Nov. 7, 2012, and on Monday, the Longhorns lost James Street. A gentleman both on and off the field, Street's loss has reverberated throughout The University of Texas community. A two-sport star, Street was a perfect 20-0 as a starting quarterback from 1968-69 and helped lead UT to the 1969 National Championship. The Longhorns posted a perfect 11-0 record (7-0, SWC) and capped off their second national title with a 21-17 victory against No. 9 Notre Dame in the 1970 Cotton Bowl. Street earned consensus All-SWC honors that season. On the baseball field, Street helped lead UT to three consecutive College World Series appearances and posted a career record of 29-8. Street ranks sixth in UT history with 21 complete games and ninth with a career 1.86 ERA and 302 strikeouts. He threw a perfect game in 1970 (vs. Texas Tech) and a no-hitter in 1969 (vs. SMU). Street was a two-time second-team All-America selection and a three-time All-SWC choice. Street, 65, went on to run his own business, The James Street Group, a financial firm which aided plaintiffs in legal disputes. He was also active in the Austin community, working on a number of charitable endeavors, including the annual Rise School of Austin Golf Shootout, which he co-hosted with Texas Football co-offensive coordinator Major Applewhite. Street, who was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1982, is survived by his wife, Janie, and five sons:

Ryan, Huston, Juston, Jordon and Hanson. Huston helped the Longhorns to the 2002 College World Series title and pitches for the San Diego Padres. Jordon lettered for the Longhorns baseball team in 2005, and Juston lettered in 2007 and 2008. For the Iowa State game, the Longhorns wore a "JS" sticker on the back of their helmets in honor of James Street.

FIRST NATIONAL TITLE TO BE RECOGNIZED: Throughout the 2013 season, the Longhorns will recognize the 1963 National Championship team which went a perfect 11-0 under head coach Darrell K Royal. The Horns ascended to No. 1 in the polls after knocking off top-ranked Oklahoma, 28-7, in their annual showdown on Oct. 12. UT went on to down No. 2 Navy, 28-6, in the Cotton Bowl. Several former players were present during a ceremony during the first quarter of the New Mexico State game. In addition, player numbers were placed above the Longhorn on the game helmets, as they were during the 1963 season. Following the New Mexico State game, the players voted to keep them on the helmets for the remainder of the 2013 season.

16TH YEAR UNDER MACK BROWN: Mack Brown, who is in his 16th season at Texas, is just the fourth coach in the 121 years of Texas football to lead the team for at least a decade and just the second coach to win 100 games while at the school. Darrell Royal, who won 167 games (1957-76), has the longest tenure at 20 years. Brown is the first coach in UT history to post more than 200 victories during a career (153 at Texas). Brown moved ahead of Fred Akers, who posted 86 wins from 1977-86, during the 2006 season.

NO. 2 ALL-TIME: In 2008, Texas moved ahead of Notre Dame for second place on the NCAA all-time victory list. At 870 victories, Texas trails only Michigan (908) in all-time wins. With the Longhorns in second place on that list, it marked the first time since 1932 that Michigan and Notre Dame did not occupy the one-two spots in all-time wins. Since Mack Brown arrived in 1998, Texas has posted a 153-45 (.773) record and moved ahead of Alabama, Notre Dame and Nebraska on the all-time victory chart.

BROWN ON NATIONAL SCENE: With a 153-45 (.773) record at UT, Mack Brown has led Texas to the nation's four-most victories over the last 16 years. In addition, Brown has guided the Horns to a 126-34 (.788) mark over the last 11-plus seasons, which is the nation's third-best winning percentage over that time span, and includes six 11-win seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '08 and '09). The 11-win seasons are fourth-best to UT's 13-win campaigns in 2005 and '09, and its 12-win season in '08.

State (9/21), Brown tied Woody Hayes for 10th. Brown became just the 19th coach who has spent at least 10 years at a NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) school, to win 200 games and the seventh-youngest coach to do so. He also is one of only four active coaches who have reached the 200-victory mark while spending at least 10 years at an FBS school. In addition, Brown is one of only seven active coaches at FBS schools who have won 100 games at their current school (153-45/.773). Of the coaches who have won 100 games at the same FBS school, Brown is the 12th-fastest to reach the century mark (124 games) and the fourth-quickest among active coaches.

10-WIN SEASONS: Texas is one of just two teams in college football history to win at least 10 games in nine straight seasons (2001-09). The Horns' streak trailed only Florida State's streak of 14 consecutive seasons in NCAA history. In addition, Texas posted 12-win seasons in back-to-back years for the first time in school history. Prior to Brown's arrival, the Horns had never before posted consecutive 11-win campaigns let alone consecutive 12-win seasons. Brown has led the Horns to six seasons with 11 or more wins. That compares to the four 11-win seasons (1963, '69, '77 and '83) in Texas history before Brown's arrival.

NCAA • Consecutive 10-Win Seasons

|----|---------------|--------------------|
| 1. | Florida State | 14 (1987-2000) |
| 2. | Texas | 9 (2001-09) |
| 3. | Virginia Tech | 8 (2004-11) |
| | Miami | 8 (1985-92) |

MACK BROWN SUCCESS: Under Brown, the Horns have posted Top 10 finishes seven times in the last 10 years (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09). Prior to his arrival, the last time UT finished in the Top 10 was 1983. In addition, Texas played in a bowl game for a school-record 12 consecutive seasons from 1998-2009, bettering the previous streak of nine straight from 1977-85. Brown's personal strings, including time at North Carolina, go back even further. He has posted winning seasons in 22 out of the last 23 years and taken his teams to 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons. His 22 winning seasons in the last 23 years is the best active streak in the nation and his 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons is tied for the best active streak in the nation with Frank Beamer.

STRING OF SUCCESS: Texas has finished the year ranked among the nation's top 15 in 10 of the last 13 seasons, which includes a string of 10 straight, a Longhorn record. In addition, UT has finished in the top 10 in seven of the last 12 seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09) and in the top Five in four of the last nine ('04, '05, '08 and '09). You have to go back to Darrell Royal's string of success in the late 1960s, when the Horns finished among the top five in four out of five years (1968-72), to equal that consistency in UT history.

BOWL SUCCESS: Texas has played in a bowl game 14 times in Mack Brown's 15 years. That stretch included a UT-record stretch of 12 straight from 1998-2009, which bettered the previous mark of nine consecutive from 1977-85. The Horns have won nine of their last 11 bowls and have an 10-4 record under Brown. In the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to eight bowls and was 2-6. Brown is the first UT coach since Darrell Royal, who was 8-7-1 in bowl games, to post a .500 or better bowl record. With a 24-21 victory over No. 10 Ohio State in the 2009 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Texas won bowl games in five consecutive years for the first time in school history (2004-08). The Horns did win five straight previously (1963-64, '66, '68-69), but the streak was interrupted by seasons that did not result in a bowl. Brown's personal string, including time at North Carolina, goes back even further. He has directed his teams to 20 bowls in the last 21 seasons, which is tied for the longest active streak in the nation with Frank Beamer of Virginia Tech.

UT'S BIG 12 SUCCESS AT HOME: Texas is 44-11 (.800) at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field vs. league opponents during the Mack Brown era. The 44 home victories are the second-most by any team in the league over the last 15 years. In addition, the Horns set the league record with a 26-game home winning streak over Big 12 opponents, which was snapped in 2006. Prior to 2006, the last time UT had lost a home game against a league foe was 1999 (35-17 to No. 13 K-State).

BIG 12 ROAD SUCCESS: Texas has won 39 of its last 47 (.829) true Big 12 road games (excluding neutral-site games), including a league-record 13 consecutive conference road wins from 2002-06. The Horns are 43-10 (.811) in league road contests under Mack Brown. Highlighting the Horns' road record under Brown are victories at Nebraska (1998) to end the Huskers' nation-best 47-game home winning streak, another win that snapped a Nebraska 26-game home winning streak (2002), and a victory to break Oklahoma State's 10-game winning streak (2003).

CONFERENCE COMPETITION:

Mack Brown, who has guided the Horns to the 2005 and 2009 Big 12 Championships and has won or shared the Big 12 South Division title six times, is 93-31 (.75) in the last 15-plus seasons of Big 12 play. That is the second-best league record over that span behind Oklahoma (97-27/.782) and betters Kansas State (70-54) and Texas Tech (67-56). At 101-39 (.721), Texas has the second-best intraconference record since the Big 12 formed in 1996.

BIG 12 WINNING STREAKS: The Horns tied the school record by winning 21 straight conference games from 2004-06 before the streak was snapped at Kansas State in 2006. The record of 21 straight conference victories was set from 1968-71 when Texas was competing in the Southwest Conference. The 21 straight Big 12 victories also marked the longest streak in league history. Texas also has the second-longest home winning streak in Big 12 history with 26 straight victories from 1999-2006 and the longest road winning streak in conference play with 13 straight wins from 2002-06.

“FAN”-TASTIC: Texas home games have been among the best-attended in the nation over the past 10 years. The Horns, who have played in front of a sellout crowd in 74 of their last 81 home games, have attracted the top 40 crowds, and 58 of the top 59, in UT history since Mack Brown took over in 1998. In addition, the top 31 home crowds at Texas have come since '08. Texas' school-record season-ticket sales of 84,071 in 2010 are more than double the 39,743 sold in 1997, the UT record when Brown arrived. Texas set the single-game attendance record against West Virginia in 2012 with a crowd of 101,851 and have drawn 100,000 or more 23 times in school history. The West Virginia game had the largest crowd to see a college sporting event in the Southwest. The single-season record for home attendance is 704,580 set in 2010.

JAMAIL FIELD STREAKS: The Horns have posted three of the six-longest home winning streaks in school history during the Mack Brown era. The Horns won 20 in a row at home from 1999-2003 (third-longest in school history). Then, from 2003-06, Texas won 16 straight home games, which is tied for the fourth-best string. UT had another 16-game string from 2007-10. The longest streak in school history is a 42-game stretch from 1968-76. Texas' 26-game home intraconference winning streak from 1999-2006 is the second-longest in Big 12 history.

DRAWING FANS ON THE ROAD:

UT has attracted record crowds in 12 of its road games over the past seven seasons: at Oklahoma State (58,516, 2009), vs. Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl (96,009, 2009-11 and 92,182, 2008), at Texas Tech (60,879, 2012; 60,454, 2010; 56,333, 2008 and 56,158, 2006), at UTEP (53,415, 2008), at Texas A&M (88,253, 2007) and at Nebraska (85,187, 2006). The attendance at the Ole Miss game (9/15/12) was 61,797, the fourth largest in school history and most since a school-record 62,657 fans at the 2009 Alabama game. It was also the largest crowd ever for a non-conference game in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The Horns were part of another record vs. Texas Tech. The Red Raiders had Jones AT&T Stadium-record crowd of 60,879 on Nov. 3.

ROAD WARRIORS: Texas is 75-29 (.721) away from home (road and neutral sites) over the last 16 years compared to a 53-46-2 (.535) record in the 16 years prior to Mack Brown's arrival in 1998. The Horns' 72-26 (.735) mark in road and neutral-site games since 1999 is the nation's second-best record over that span. Texas is 57-14 (.803) on the road (excluding neutral-site games) and 48-8 (.857) vs. unranked road foes during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Brown's arrival, UT posted just six winning road records in the 15 seasons leading up to 1998. During that time, UT was just 38-35 (.521) in true road games. The Longhorns have won 52 of their last 60 true road games (.867). UT had its school record streak of 13 consecutive nonconference road wins snapped with the loss at BYU (9/7).

TOP 25 TEXAS: Under Mack Brown, Texas has been one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 years with the other being Virginia Tech. It is one of only three schools to do so in the Associated Press poll, with the third being Georgia, and is also one of only three to do so in the coaches poll, including Florida.

AP TOP 25 FINISHES: UT has finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 completed years in Austin, making the Horns one of three teams to accomplish that with Virginia Tech and Georgia. The run also includes a string of 12 straight, marking the first time in school history Texas had finished in the AP Top 25 for 12 straight years, bettering the previous record of eight straight (1968-75). Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

COACHES POLL FINISHES: Texas has been ranked in the first and last coaches poll in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 seasons in Austin. The Longhorns are one of only three teams in the nation to finish in the Top 25 in 13 of the last 15 years, including Virginia Tech and Florida. Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the coaches' Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

UT AND THE AP TOP 10: As a result of its loss at Kansas State in 2006, Texas had its string of 46 straight weeks in the AP Top 10 snapped. Prior to that, the last time the Horns were not among the AP Top 10 was in the final poll of the 2003 season. The 46 straight weeks was the longest for the Horns in the Mack Brown era. The longest Texas streak in the AP Top 10 is 60 weeks from 1961-65. With its loss to UCLA in 2010, Texas had a streak of 33 consecutive weeks ranked in the Top 10 broken. In addition, prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and is the longest streak in the Mack Brown era, bettering a 19-week streak from 2005-06.

BROWN'S TOP 10 HORNS: Mack Brown revived the Horns as a Top 10 regular beginning with a No. 5 preseason ranking in 2001. Since then, the Horns have earned a Top 10 standing in 125 of the last 180 AP polls. All totaled, UT has spent 132 weeks ranked among the AP Top 10, and 137 weeks ranked in the Coaches Top 10 since Brown arrived in 1998. That Coaches poll streak resumed in the Oct. 2, 2011 poll when the Longhorns returned with a No. 10 ranking and they spent three weeks in the top 10 in 2012. In the previous 15-year stretch prior to his arrival, UT spent just 38 weeks rated among the Top 10. Brown has led the Horns to a final Top 10 ranking in seven of the last 12 seasons. In 2008, Brown led Texas to its first regular-season No. 1 ranking since 1984. In 2005, he led UT to its first No. 1 ranking to end the season since 1969. Before Brown took over the program, the last time UT earned a Top 10 finish was 1983. From the start of the 1984 season to Brown's arrival in 1998, UT was in the Top 10 just 28 times in 14 seasons.

TACKLING THE TOP 25: Texas is 30-19 (.612) in its last 49 games vs. Top 25 opponents. Nine of those losses have come to Top-10 ranked teams. That's a continuation of the success the Longhorns have had against ranked foes during the Mack Brown era. In Brown's 16 years in Austin, UT is 37-30 (.552) vs. Top 25 opponents. That compares to a 22-35-3 (.392) mark in the 15 years before Brown arrived. In fact, the Longhorns have posted a winning record against ranked opponents in nine of the last 12 seasons as compared to only four times in the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMERS

UNDER BROWN: Colt McCoy is one of just five QBs in NCAA history to post four seasons with at least 2,500 yards passing. Cedric Benson became the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for over 1,000 yards in four straight seasons and finished his career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time rushing list (5,540 yards). Vince Young became the first player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards and pass for 3,000 yards in one season.

TEN STRAIGHT TOP 15 FINISHES:

Texas' No. 2 ranking in 2009 marked the 10th straight year the Horns finished ranked among the nation's Top 15. That is the first time UT had ever accomplished that feat. The 2009 standing followed a No. 3 ranking in 2008, a No. 10 ranking in 2007, a No. 13 ranking in 2006, a No. 1 ranking in 2005, a No. 5 ranking in 2004, a No. 12 ranking in 2003, a No. 6 ranking in 2002, a No. 5 ranking in 2001 and a No. 12 ranking in 2000.

UT IN THE AP TOP 25 POLL:

Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 19 in the Associated Press Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as No. 11 in the AP Top 25 both last season and in 2011. Texas returned to the poll in 2011 after its nation-leading and UT-record streak of 162 straight weeks in the poll was snapped following the loss to Oklahoma in 2010. The streak bettered a 114-week stretch from 1968-76. It was the sixth-longest streak in the history of the poll. Prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and the longest streak in the Mack Brown era.

UT IN THE COACHES POLL:

Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 18th in the Coaches Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as ninth during the season, which gave them 137 weeks total in the Top 10 during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Texas' loss to Oklahoma in 2010, UT had been ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 straight weeks was the longest UT streak in any poll and the nation's longest active streak in the poll at that time. The Horns' previous longest streak in the coaches poll was 54 weeks from 1977-80.

HORNS' FINISHING TOUCH:

One of the mantras of the program under Mack Brown is "finish," which the Horns have done since Brown arrived. Over Brown's 16-year tenure, UT has gone 31-8 (.795) in games decided by four points or less and 22-5 (.815) in games decided by three points or less. The Longhorns have won 19 of their last 21 (.905) games decided by three points or less. The only losses came in shootouts against West Virginia in 2012, 48-45, and at Kansas State in 2006, 45-42, when Colt McCoy was sidelined by injury after the opening drive. The success under Brown is an improvement from the 15 years prior to his arrival when UT went 20-16-3 (.513) in games decided by four points or less and 17-12-3 (.531) in games decided by three points or less. The 45 points scored versus West Virginia were the most ever by a Texas team in a loss. The previous record was the 42 vs. Kansas State in 2006.

OFFENSIVE OUTBURST VS. NEW MEXICO STATE:

- The Longhorns set a school record with 715 yards of total offense vs. the Aggies in the season opener, eclipsing the mark of 692 set in 1998 vs. Rice (list on pg. 8).
- Texas posted more than 300 rushing (359) and 300 passing yards (356) for the fourth time in school history. The most recent 300-yard rushing and 300-yard passing effort was at Ole Miss on Sept. 15, 2012.
- David Ash had 343 passing yards and 91 rushing yards, marking only the second time in UT history that a player passed for 300-plus yards and rushed for 90 or more in the same game. Colt McCoy had 304 passing yards and 175 rushing vs. Texas A&M in 2009.
- With a 74-yard touchdown pass and a 55-yard TD run, Ash became the first player in UT history to post a run and pass of 50-plus yards in the same game.
- Ash's 55-yard TD run is tied for 10th longest rush by a QB in UT history.
- With 109 receiving yards, Malcolm Brown became the fourth running back in UT history to have 100-plus receiving yards. In addition, his 74-yd TD catch was the third-longest by a running back in UT history and the longest since Victor Ike's 80-yarder vs. NC State in 1999.
- RB Jalen Overstreet's 92 rushing yards were the fourth-most by a freshman during his debut in school history. Jamaal Charles had a school-record 135 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette in 2005.

QUICK STRIKE: The Texas offense showed its quick strike ability midway through the New Mexico State game. After the Aggies took a 7-0 lead with 2:28 to go in the second quarter, the Longhorns scored the next 35 points in a span of 8:37. The Longhorns managed to gain just 136 yards on their first 27 plays of the game, but then posted 342 yards in their next 15 plays, scoring five touchdowns. The Horns averaged 54.6 yards per play on those touchdowns. It had been nearly 10 years since Texas scored that many offensive touchdowns in just 15 plays. The last time it happened was at Rice on Sept. 20, 2003, when UT scored five TDs in the second quarter, all in a span of just 14 plays.

- John Harris 54-yard TD pass from David Ash
- Daje Johnson 66-yard TD pass from Ash
- Johnson 24-yard TD run
- Ash 55-yard TD run
- Malcolm Brown 74-yard pass from Ash

GOING DEEP: The Longhorns scored four touchdowns of 50 yards or longer in the New Mexico State game, a first in school history. Texas had 10 offensive plays of 50 or more yards last season and has six after five games this season. Texas had six other games in its history with three scores of 50 yards or longer, including three times with offensive scores:

- 1973 vs. Arkansas: (2 offense/1 special teams) - 73-yard punt return by Jim Moore; 59-yard run by Roosevelt Leaks; 85-yard run by Raymond Clayborn.
- 1985 vs. Stanford: (3 on offense) - 74-yard run by Bret Stafford; Ward Pitts 55-yard pass from Todd Dodge; 62-yard run by Darron Norris.
- 1987 against Rice: (3 on offense) - 58 yard run by Darron Norris, 57-yard run by Samuels, 59-yard run by Eric Metcalf.
- 1999 vs. Stanford: 3 (all offense) - Montrell Flowers 54-yard pass from Major Applewhite; Kwame Cavil 78-yard pass from Applewhite; 68-yard run by Chris Robertson.
- 2003 vs. New Mexico State: (1 offense/1 defense/1 special teams) - 97-yard kickoff return by Selvin Young; Roy Williams 53-yard pass from Chance Mock; 55-yard interception return by Michael Huff.
- 2005 vs. Oklahoma: (2 offense/1 special teams) - 80-yard run by Jamaal Charles; Billy Pittman 64-yard pass from Vince Young; 67-yard fumble recovery by Rodrique Wright.

SCORING OFFENSE LAST 13 YEARS: Since 2000, Texas is averaging 36.33 points per game to rank seventh nationally during that time frame. Since the 2002 season Texas has scored 788 touchdowns which is fifth most in the NCAA. Boise State leads the way with 930 touchdowns scored during that period.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION: In the first 15 seasons under Mack Brown, UT's offense produced 12 of the top 13 passing seasons, 13 of the top 15 total yardage campaigns, and the top 10 scoring years in school history. The Horns have also averaged at least 200 yards both rushing and passing in four of the 15 completed seasons. During his tenure, the Horns have registered forty-four 50-point games and five of the top seven total offense games in UT history.

SCORING SPREE: In the last four-plus seasons, the Longhorns have scored 50 or more points in eight games, including this year's opening game 56 against

DID YOU KNOW?

There were 18 different Longhorns who scored touchdowns in 2012. That mark was tied for third most in the FBS led by Joe Bergeron's team-high 16. In all, 22 players scored in 2012. So far this season, nine Longhorns have scored TDs.

New Mexico State, as well as 66 against Ole Miss and 56 against Baylor in 2012. Texas averaged 39.0 points per game in the previous decade (2000-09), which ranked third nationally and second among BCS conference schools. The Horns averaged at least 35 ppg in nine of the 10 seasons, including three seasons of at least 40 ppg. In 2005, UT set a then-NCAA record with 652 total points and a school record by averaging 50.2 ppg.

MORE OFFENSE: In addition, UT has produced 500-yard total offense performances 54 times under Brown (there are only 77 of them in the 120-plus years of Texas football) and has recorded 13 of 23 games of 600-plus total offense yards. The Horns' balanced attack has produced at least 400 yards of offense in 97 of its last 156 games (62.2%) and has registered 200 yards both passing and rushing 45 times. Texas has scored at least 25 points in 83 of its last 113 games (73.5%). That includes a streak of at least 28 points in a UT-best 19 consecutive games from 2007-08, bettering the previous mark of 12 (2005-06). Texas also posted an 11-game streak from 2000-01. Prior to Brown's arrival, the longest streak of scoring at least 28 points was seven games.

LEADING THE BIG 12 ON DEFENSE

LEADING THE BIG 12: Texas led the Big 12 in total defense and rushing defense in 2011. The Longhorns led the conference in total defense for four straight years (2008-11) and seven times in conference history. UT has led the league in rushing defense in five of the last seven years and seven times since 1996. Texas has led the conference in pass efficiency defense in 2000, 2005 and 2011 and in scoring defense for the 2001, 2005 and 2008 seasons.

400 RUSHING YARDS: Since 1980, UT has six games in which it has rushed for 400 or more yards, with five of those under Mack Brown. Two came in back-to-back in 2011 games with 439 yards against Texas Tech and 441 vs. Kansas.

500 YARDS OF OFFENSE: There have been 54 games of 500 or more yards during Mack Brown's tenure. Texas recorded over 500 yards four times in 2011 with a season-high 595 yards of total offense against Texas Tech and 590 yards against Kansas. The Longhorns notched three 500-plus yard games in 2012, including 676 against Ole Miss (No. 3 in school history) and 609 yards against Iowa State, which is tied for the 16th-most offensive yards on UT record.

BIG PLAY OFFENSE: The Longhorns ranked 40th nationally in total offense (434.6 ypg) and 23rd in scoring (35.7 ppg) in 2012 not only because of their balance, but also big-play ability. On the season, Texas had 22 offensive plays of 40 yards or more, with 11 (50.0 percent) resulting in touchdowns. During the 2011 season, the Horns had 17 plays over 40 yards with six resulting in a TD. Eight different Horns had a 40-plus-yard offensive play in 2012 and six of them returned in 2013. This season, Texas has eight plays of 40 or more yards.

SCORING DEFENSE: Texas' defense has been a scoring machine since 1999. During that time, the defense has accounted for 320 points and scored in 45-of-185 games (24.3%). The Texas defense notched its first defensive points of the 2012 season with a Steve Edmond's 22-yard interception return for a touchdown against Ole Miss. In the West Virginia game, Alex Okafor caused QB Geno Smith to fumble on the 1-yard line, and Jackson Jeffcoat recovered the ball in the end zone, to tie the game 21-all in the second quarter. Against Oklahoma, Quandre Diggs returned a blocked PAT for two points and Carrington Byndom intercepted a Landry Jones pass for a 28-yard return. The defense accounted for one touchdown on an interception return and three safeties in 2011 for 12 total points. The three safeties came in a span of four games as UT posted two points against Oklahoma State, Kansas and Missouri. UT posted four TDs and a safety in 2009 for 30 points. The Horns' defense has scored at least three TDs in 11 of the last 14 seasons, led by seven TDs scored in 2000. That defense tallied 46 points, which is the most over the 14-year stretch. The 2003 unit scored six TDs, while the 2006 unit scored five TDs.

STINGY SCORING D: During the last five seasons at Texas, the Longhorn defense has held 53-of-68 opponents (77.9%) under their season scoring averages. The Longhorns have limited 26 teams to 14 points or less in the last four-plus years. The Longhorns held Iowa State to seven points in 2012, 17 points lower than the Cyclone's scoring average entering the game. The Horns held teams to 14 points or less in three games in 2011 on the way to leading the conference in scoring defense. That matched the total from 2010 of three opponents scoring 14 points or less. In 2009, the Horns held 12-of-14 opponents under their scoring averages and didn't allow an offensive TD in four of 14 games. Texas also led the Big 12 in scoring defense in 2008 allowing just 18.8 points per game.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE: After inheriting a program that ranked among the NCAA's bottom half in total defense for the five seasons prior to his arrival, Mack Brown and his staff reversed that trend. Texas has ranked among the nation's top 25 in total defense in 11 of the last 15 seasons and was 11th in 2011.

SHUTDOWN QUARTERS: The Longhorns have held an opponent to zero or fewer yards in a quarter nine times in the last five seasons. In the 2012 Alamo Bowl, Oregon State was held to minus-4 yards in the fourth quarter and in 2011, UT held Kansas to minus-2 yards in the second quarter and minus-1 yard in the third quarter. In the first quarters of Texas' games against UCLA (minus-6) and Texas Tech (minus-4) in 2010, the defense held the opposition to a combined minus-10 yards. Texas also held Rice to zero yards in the third quarter that season. In 2009, it held UTEP to minus-7 in the first quarter and minus-1 in the third. It then held Baylor to minus-20 in the second quarter.

GROUND PATROL: Mack Brown and his staff inherited a ground defense that had ranked no better than 64th nationally in the five seasons prior to their arrival. During Brown's first 16 seasons, they have turned that around. The Horns have limited 73 of their last 156 opponents (46.8%) to fewer than 100 yards rushing and allowed just 49 individual 100-yard rushers in the last 183 games (26.78%). The Horns have been ranked in the top six in rush defense in five of the last seven seasons, including a No. 1 national ranking in 2009 (72.4 ypg). During the span of 2007-2011 (78 games), UT held opponents to just 90.0 yards per game (7,022 yards on 2,291 carries) and just 3.1 yards per carry. In addition, at home over the last seven-plus seasons (53 games), Texas has only allowed 22 teams to break the 100-yard plateau and has only allowed 12 individual 100-yard rushers. In true road games over the last six-plus seasons (32 games), Texas has allowed only 21 teams to reach 100 yards rushing and just 12 individual 100-yard rushers. Texas has held its opponents under 50 yards rushing 46 times during the Mack Brown era.

SHORT DRIVES: The Texas defense has prevented its opponents from moving the chains on 35.8 percent of their drives over the last 12 years (158 games). During that time, UT forced 752 three-and-outs or better in 2,101 possessions. In 2011, that number stood at 67-of-175 (.383), which included 8-of-11 against Kansas, 9-of-13 vs. Kansas State, 9-of-17 against Oklahoma St. and 7-of-18 at Texas A&M. In 2010, Texas posted 41.2 percent (63-of-153) and was one of only five teams nationally to average at least five three-and-outs per game (5.25). Last season, Texas forced three-and-outs on 50 percent of an opponent's drives two times -- against Kansas and against TCU. In their attempt to mount a Thanksgiving comeback, the Longhorns' defense forced three-and-outs on all of TCU's fourth quarter drives prior to the last one in which TCU ran out the clock.

PRESSURE AT A PREMIUM: Texas is third in the nation in sacks with 523 since 1999, trailing only USC (541) and Virginia Tech (534). Since 2008, the pressure statistics have continued to increase. During that span, Texas' 541.5 TFL and 196 sacks both rank first nationally. In 2012, Texas posted 35 sacks and 99.5 tackles for loss in 13 games, capped by a 10-sack performance in the Alamo Bowl. The 99.5 TFLs ranked sixth nationally and first in the Big 12. In 2011, the Longhorns had 29 sacks and 116 tackles for loss in 13 games. Texas amassed 31 sacks and 93 TFL in 2010.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Texas' defense has forced 418 turnovers during the Mack Brown era (199 games/2.10 per game), while only giving up 344 turnovers for a plus-74 turnover margin. Overall, the Horns have averaged nearly a plus-five turnover margin per season during Brown's tenure.

WINNING THE TURNOVER

BATTLE: When Texas holds onto the ball and forces turnovers it generally wins. The Longhorns, who ranked tied for 39th in the FBS in 2012 in turnover margin (+0.38 per game) and are tied for 12th this year (+1.2 pg), are 93-6 during Mack Brown's 15-year tenure when winning the turnover battle. With its 40-21 loss to BYU on Sept. 7, 2013, Texas lost its second game when winning the turnover battle since midway through the 2002 season. The other occurrence was last season vs. West Virginia. Turnovers were a key reason Texas had lost five straight to Kansas State since winning 31-21 on Sept. 21. The Wildcats held a plus-13 advantage in those five games. Texas is plus-four in the turnover department this year.

NON-OFFENSIVE SCORES: Since 1999, UT has scored 84 TDs via returns, turnovers and blocked kicks. The 84 scores during that stretch rank third nationally behind Kansas State (90) and Virginia Tech (86). Texas had four non-offensive scores during the 2011 season with an interception return, a blocked punt return and two kickoff returns for touchdowns. They had four more last season (two interception returns for TDs, one fumble return and one kickoff return). There have been 17 kickoff returns for touchdowns in school history with 10 coming during the Mack Brown era.

RETURN GAME: Texas has improved its kick return game, as well as defending on kickoffs and punts since Mack Brown arrived. Since 1998, the Horns have produced 11 of UT's 28 all-time punt returns for TDs and 10 of the 17 kickoff returns for scores. In contrast, UT has only given up five punt return TDs during the Mack Brown era. It had been 101 games (Kansas State, 1999) since Texas had given up a punt return for a TD before Kansas State returned one in 2007. During that time, Texas scored on four punt returns, while its opponents scored on seven. When Brown arrived in 1998, Texas hadn't returned a kickoff for a score since 1978. Then, in the 2000 Holiday Bowl, Victor Ike returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD, snapping the 265-game streak. That return was the first of eight under Mack Brown. Fozzy Whittaker matched a school record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Oklahoma and then in the next game had another 100-yard return for a TD vs. Oklahoma State. Last season, D.J. Monroe snapped Whitaker's UT record with the third of his career. He had a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD at Oklahoma State.

BLOCK THAT KICK: The Texas special teams have been just that since Mack Brown took over in 1998. Since then, Texas has blocked 83 kicks (49 punts/18 FGs/16 PATs), an average of 5.5 per season (1998-12). That is 58 more than the 25 recorded in the 13-year span prior to Brown's arrival. UT has blocked the most kicks in the nation since 2001 with 71, one more than Rutgers (69). The Horns tied for third in the FBS in 2012 with seven blocked kicks and their three blocked punts led the Big 12. Texas blocked its first kick of the season (a PAT) vs. Ole Miss. Since Brown arrived, the Horns have had players set or equal UT records for career blocked kicks, single-season blocked kicks, career blocked punts and single-season blocked punts.

YOUNGSTERS HIT THE FIELD:

Texas had a young roster the last two years and many of them also saw the field. In 2011, an FBS-high 18 true freshmen played. During 2012, 16 true freshmen saw action, a number that was tied for first in the FBS with TCU.

GROWING UP: Last season, Texas had just nine scholarship seniors on its roster which was the fewest in the Big 12 and tied for the fourth-lowest total in the FBS. While the Longhorns are a more veteran group in 2013, they still have a relatively small senior class squad. The Horns entered the season with 14 scholarship seniors on the roster which includes six offensive players, six defenders and two special teamers.

HOLDING ON TO THE BALL: Texas lost only five fumbles in 2012, a mark which ranked tied for sixth in the FBS. The Longhorns lost just two fumbles in the final seven games. Despite seven turnovers over the final two regular-season games, Texas still tied for 20th nationally in fewest turnovers committed (16). That mark was just two off the school record in that category (14 in 2008).

DID YOU KNOW?

From 1978-2000 the Longhorns did not register a kickoff return for a TD, but they have posted at least a kickoff or punt return for a score in 11 of the last 13 seasons. There have been nine kickoff returns for touchdowns since 2000.

BROWN, GRAY WERE AMONG TOP FRESHMAN RUSHERS IN UT HISTORY: Malcolm Brown tallied 742 rushing yards in 2011. He became just the 13th freshman in school history to rush for at least 500 yards in a season and his total is seventh all-time among freshmen. In 2012, Johnathan Gray became the 14th freshman to reach the 500-yard plateau with 106 rushing yards vs. Texas Tech. He ended the year with 701 rushing yards which ranks ninth on the Texas single-season freshman chart. Gray ended up earning honorable mention honors as the Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

LEADING THE COMEBACK: During the Mack Brown era, Texas has registered 30 second-half comebacks, including 19 in the fourth quarter. Senior quarterback Case McCoy has had a hand in leading the Longhorns to four of their past six comebacks over the last three seasons (vs. BYU, 9/10/11; at Texas A&M, 11/24/11; at Kansas, 10/27/12; at Iowa State, 10/3/13). Most recently, McCoy led Texas on a 12 play, 75-yard touchdown drive for a 31-30 win at Iowa State. The Longhorns trailed 30-24 with 3:40 left in the game and McCoy went 3 of 4 for 24 yards on the game-winning drive, which he capped off with a 1-yard touchdown run. Last season at Kansas, Texas trailed twice in the fourth quarter, and McCoy came off the bench early in the fourth quarter to lead the Horns on two scoring drives, completing 6 of 8 passes for 109 yards. Texas tied the game at 14-all with 9:41 remaining on an 11-yard TD run by WR Marquise Goodwin, but the Jayhawks retook the lead with a field goal with 2:28 remaining. McCoy then hit tight end D.J. Grant for the 1-yard game-winning touchdown with 12 seconds left, lifting No. 24 Texas to a 21-17 win. In 2011, McCoy was involved in two second-half comebacks. Against BYU, McCoy came off the bench and went 7 of 8 for 57 yards to help rally Texas from a 13-3 halftime deficit to win 17-16. The Longhorns trailed 16-7 at halftime at Texas A&M, but used a 17-point third quarter to take the lead and held on in the fourth to win 27-25. In those four comeback wins, McCoy is a combined 55 of 88 (62.5%) for 520 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions.

PLENTY OF DEPTH: Texas' running backs corps features depth and versatility, with four backs who each rushed for at least 200 yards last season. In addition to Gray (701) and Brown (324), Joe Bergeron had 567 in 2012 and Daje Johnson had 203. Johnson was the leading receiver among the group with 287 yards on 19 receptions. Gray has been the top back this season, leading the team and ranking third in the Big 12 with 87.8 rushing yards per game. He was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 23 after a career-best performance in the 31-21 win over Kansas State. In that game, Gray set career highs with 141 rushing yards and 28 attempts, while matching a career best with a pair of touchdowns. His TD runs came from 21 yards out in the second quarter and 15 yards in the third quarter. Of his rushing yards, 102 came in the second and third quarters as the Horns dealt with losing starting quarterback David Ash and maintained their double-digit lead in the game. Gray also became the 49th player in UT history to reach the 1,000 career rushing yard mark against the Wildcats (currently 1,140). Gray became the third running back on the roster to eclipse 1,000 career rushing yards, joining Bergeron (1,172) and Brown (1,129). Last week at Iowa State, Brown had 89 yards on the ground including a 45-yard touchdown run that was the second longest rush of his career. The quartet was on full display in the opener vs. New Mexico State, combining for 172 yards on the ground and 183 through the air. Brown had his first 100-yard receiving game with 109 yards on three catches. Johnson had 62 rushing yards and 67 receiving yards. Sophomore Jalen Overstreet also made an impact despite not entering until midway through the fourth quarter, finishing with 92 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

RUN-PASS OPTION: David Ash had 19 touchdown passes and eight interceptions in 2012. He averaged 26.5 yards per TD pass, including a career long 75-yarder to Mike Davis vs. Texas Tech. If you include his 49-yard TD run against New Mexico and 11-yarder vs. Oregon State, he averaged 26.8 yards per score in 2012. Ash was one of only seven QBs in the FBS in 2012 to have a touchdown run of at least 45 yards and a TD pass of 75 yards or more. In the 2013 opener vs. New Mexico State, Ash became the first player in Texas history to post a run and pass of 50-plus yards in the same game (74-yard TD pass, 55-yard TD run). His total yardage output (434) vs. New Mexico State was the most ever in a UT season opener and No. 6 on the UT all-time single-game list. Ash is second on the team in rushing (152 yards) despite missing the Ole Miss game, half of the Kansas State game and all of the Iowa State game. His average of 304.0 total yards of offense per game would rank 23rd nationally but he hasn't played in enough games to qualify.

ASH TAKES OFF: Dating back to the 2011 Holiday Bowl, David Ash has been on a roll. Over his last 16 starts (12-4 record), Ash has completed 281 of 428 passes (65.7 percent) for 3,601 yards (225.1 per game) with 27 TDs and 10 interceptions. Last season, Ash ranked 15th in the FBS in completion percentage (67.3) and 21st in passing efficiency (153.3 rating). His effectiveness was even more apparent at the end of games as he ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency (203.40) during the fourth quarter, according to cfbstats.com. He completed 36 of 48 passes (75 percent) for 498 yards with six TD passes and no interceptions in the final quarter. He led the Longhorns to game-winning drives in the final 3:00 against a pair of ranked opponents – Oklahoma State and Oregon State. Ash is a preseason All-Big 12 pick and member of the watch lists for the 2013 Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Manning and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose awards.

ASH IN UT CAREER TOP 10: David Ash moved into the Texas career top 10 passing yards list with 364 yards vs. Iowa State last season and currently ranks No. 8, just 197 yards behind Bret Stafford for seventh place. Ash threw for 2,699 yards in 2012 which ranks No. 8 on the all-time UT single-season list.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND: In the season-opening win over New Mexico State, Texas was able to get a number of players involved. Four players had at least 50 yards rushing (Jalen Overstreet, 92; David Ash, 91; Joe Bergeron, 79; Daje Johnson, 62) and four had at least 50 yards receiving (Malcolm Brown, 109; Johnson, 67; Mike Davis, 63; John Harris, 59). Additionally, eight players caught at least one pass. The Longhorns also had eight players record a reception in the wins vs. Kansas State and Iowa State. In Texas' two losses, just six players had a reception vs. BYU and just four vs. Ole Miss.

MCCOY ON TARGET: Case McCoy has thrown 106 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, which is tied for the fifth-longest streak in school history and ranks No. 6 on the current FBS list. McCoy already has the third-longest streak in school history, 124 to start his career. His last pick came in the fourth quarter of the 2012 Kansas State game

AMONG THE CAREER TOP 10 IN RECEIVING: Texas has two of the top receivers in school history on the current roster. Mike Davis ranks fifth in career receptions, sixth in receiving yards and tied for ninth in TDs, while Jaxon Shipley cracked the top 10 in career receptions in the Ole Miss game. The Biletnikoff Award committee took notice heading into 2013 as both were placed on the preseason watch list.

BIG-PLAY ABILITY: Mike Davis came up with quite a few big plays for the Longhorns in 2012 and has continued that trend this season. He led the team in receiving yards (939) and touchdown receptions (seven), and was second in receptions (57). He averaged 41.1 yards on his seven touchdown catches, including a career-long 75-yarder vs. Texas Tech and a 61-yarder vs. Iowa State. Davis averaged 16.5 yards per catch in 2012 which ranked third in the Big 12 and 21st in the FBS among players with at least 40 receptions. He has continued that trend in 2013 - the senior has four touchdown receptions on plays of 25, 57, 23 and 13 yards, an average of 29.5. Davis' four touchdown catches rank second in the Big 12 and tied for 31st in the FBS despite missing the Kansas State game. Davis is the 10th player in school history to record at least three straight games with a TD reception. He had one in the season opener vs. New Mexico State, two vs. BYU and one vs. Ole Miss.

TWO 100-YARD RECEIVERS: Against BYU (9/7), the Longhorns had two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the 14th time in school history and fourth time in the last three years. Mike Davis (8-114) and Jaxon Shipley (8-105) did it for the second time (also vs. Iowa State, 2012). Davis (124) and Marquise Goodwin (102) went over 100 vs. Ole Miss last season. Goodwin (5-129) and Shipley (4-121) each went over 100 receiving yards in 2011 at Baylor.

SOPHOMORES STEPPING UP: A pair of sophomore wide receivers have stepped up big for Texas recently. Kendall Sanders ranks third on the team in both receptions (21) and receiving yards (211), while Marcus Johnson saw his first significant action in place of an injured Mike Davis vs. Kansas State and responded with five catches for 70 yards after entering the game with one career reception. Sanders has also been returning kicks and is averaging 24.6 yards per return; he leads the team with 102.0 all-purpose yards per game. Against Kansas State, Sanders registered career highs in receiving yards (80) and all-purpose yards (152) and also recorded a career long 63-yard TD reception. He set a career high with seven receptions against Ole Miss and matched it at Iowa State. Johnson, meanwhile, made two of his five catches on third down that resulted in first downs against Kansas State. On the two drives that Johnson helped prolong, the Longhorns went on to score 10 points.

PULLING THEIR WEIGHT: The Longhorns are fortunate to have all five of their starting offensive lineman back from last season. Against New Mexico State, the unit was instrumental in helping the Longhorns post 300 rushing yards and 300 passing yards in a single game for just the fourth time in school history. Last year, the o-line helped the Longhorns post the 23rd-best scoring offense (35.7 ppg) in the nation, and allowed just 4.1 tackles for loss per game (No. 3 in the FBS) and 1.23 sacks pg (22nd in FBS). The returners were headlined by a pair of awards candidates in seniors Trey Hopkins and Mason Walters. That durable duo has combined to start 77 career games. Walters, who is on the pre-season watch list for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy for the second-straight year, has started each of the last 43 games at right guard. That total is tied for third-most on the FBS active list and tied for second among offensive linemen. Hopkins had his 29-game starting streak (16 at LG/13 at RT) snapped in last season's Valero Alamo Bowl. He is also on the pre-season watch list for the Outland Trophy.

TIGHT ENDS: Texas lost its top receiving tight end from each of the last two seasons in D.J. Grant, however, junior Greg Daniels returns after starting eight games in 2012, along with sophomore M.J. McFarland, who started four times last season. McFarland had fewer receptions than Grant, but tied him for the team lead in TE receiving yards with 125 to go along with one TD. The Longhorns also received a boost at the position in the offseason with the addition of junior-college transfer Geoff Swaim, the fourth-ranked JUCO tight end by ESPN.com in 2012. Swaim has started three games and Daniels one. However, Daniels was injured vs. Ole Miss and was not active for the Kansas State contest.

JEFFCOAT BOUNCES BACK, REED EMERGES: After missing the final seven games in 2012, senior defensive end Jackson Jeffcoat has returned to his 2011 form when he led the team in tackles for loss (21) and sacks (8.0). This season, Jeffcoat has 30 tackles, 6.0 for a loss, three sacks, a pass breakup, two fumble recoveries and an interception. Jeffcoat, a national honors candidate, started the first six games of 2012 and posted 31 tackles, including a team-high 11 tackles for loss before sustaining a right pectoral muscle rupture in the Oklahoma game. He was also second on the team in sacks (4.0) and tied for first in forced fumbles at the time of the injury. He was named to the watch lists for the 2013 Bednarik Trophy, Nagurski Trophy, Lott Trophy and CFPA Defensive Awards. He is also a preseason second team All-America choice by Lindy's and fourth team selection by Athlon. Jeffcoat earned Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors for his play in Texas' win over Kansas State. In that game, Jeffcoat recorded five tackles, two QB pressures and a pair of sacks for 11 yards. His two sacks came on K-State's final two drives, helping to prevent a comeback and maintain a 31-21 win. He followed that up with another strong performance at Iowa State, where he had seven tackles, a sack, a fumble recovery and a game-sealing interception with 8 seconds left in the game. Opposite of Jeffcoat, Cedric Reed has been a force. He has started the last 11 games. Reed tallied a career-high 10 tackles, along with a sack, in the season opener vs. New Mexico State, only to set a new career high with 14 tackles at BYU. Reed also had a sack, forced a fumble and a pass breakup in the win over Kansas State; then five tackles, two for a loss, a pass breakup and a forced fumble vs. Iowa State. Reed ranks third on the team in tackles (34).

SHUFFLING LINEBACKERS: The Longhorns were dealt a blow to their defense when they learned that leading tackler Jordan Hicks suffered a ruptured left Achilles tendon during the Kansas State game that will cause him to miss the remainder of the season. It's the second year in a row the linebacking corps has lost Hicks to a season-ending injury early in the year; after losing two of its most experienced players to the NFL entering 2012, the linebacking corps quickly lost a third with an injury to Hicks three games into the season. That injury did allow a number of players to see their snaps increase. The Horns have seven linebackers on the roster with 10 or more career games played. Junior Steve Edmond started 12 games last year, while junior Kendall Thompson started seven and senior Demarco Cobbs started six. Peter Jinkens also emerged during his true freshman season to start three contests in addition to junior Tevin Jackson (two starts) and sophomore Dalton Santos (one start). Edmond finished second on the team with 103 tackles, followed by Thompson with 60. This season, Edmond has 35 tackles (second on the team behind the injured Hicks). Santos made his first start of the season at Iowa State and recorded a team-and career-high 12 tackles.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY: Three starters in seniors Carrington Byndom and Adrian Phillips, along with junior Quandre Diggs, return to positions in the secondary, in addition to junior Mykkele Thompson. That group has combined to play in 144 career games, including 89 starts. Diggs, a preseason All-American and candidate for the Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award, led the team with four INTs and seven PBUs last year, while Byndom, a preseason All-Big 12 pick and Thorpe Award candidate, added three INTs and six PBUs.

Byndom has gone head-to-head with some of the top receivers in college football the last three seasons and has answered the challenge. He had 15 pass breakups and two interceptions in 2011, and six PBUs and three picks in 2012. He ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass breakups in 2011 despite starting for the first time and facing some of the top passing offenses in the nation. He has returned two of his five interceptions for touchdowns and is one of just eight players in school history with two or more. Phillips also had two INTs and finished third on the team in tackles with 72 last year, and had an interception in the opener vs. New Mexico State. Sophomore Duke Thomas has also moved into the starting lineup and against BYU recorded his first career interception.

DIGGS FOLLOWS IN FOOTSTEPS: Much like his older brother, Quentin Jammer, Quandre Diggs has excelled as a defensive back at Texas. He ranks No. 20 among active players on the FBS career interception per game list (0.26). In 2011, Diggs posted one of the top freshman seasons in school history for a defensive back. He was named the 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and was a FWAA Freshman All-American. He tied the school record for interceptions by a freshman, matching Chris Carter's mark of four in 1993. Diggs also had 15 pass breakups to rank second most on the UT freshman list behind Earl Thomas' 17 in 2008. Last season, Diggs led the team in both interceptions (four) and pass breakups (seven). His last interception of the season was his most important one. His third-quarter pick of Oregon State's Cody Vaz set up a touchdown which helped turn the momentum in the Longhorns as they posted a 31-27 win. Diggs ended 2012 tied for 39th in the FBS in interceptions (0.31 per game).

DEFENSIVE TACKLE: On the interior of the defensive line, the Longhorns returned two players who started games in 2012, led by junior Desmond Jackson (11 starts) and senior Chris Whaley (nine starts). That duo, combined with sophomore Malcom Brown, tallied 13 TFL, seven by Jackson, four by Whaley and two by Brown. A trio of redshirt freshmen - Paul Boyette Jr., Alex Norman and Hassan Ridgeway - have also had an impact this season. Brown and Whaley have started all five games, with Jackson the primary reserve of the bench. Brown is tied for the team lead with 6.0 tackles for loss this season, while Whaley has three. All three have recovered a fumble this season as well.

SPECIALISTS: The Longhorns returned a number of specialists in 2013, many of whom played key roles as freshmen in 2012. Senior Anthony Fera is back and is handling the place-kicking and punting duties. Fera has excelled in double duty, averaging 43.6 yards on 28 punts, and he has made 5-of-6 field goal attempts. Holding for the kickers is senior Cade McCrary, who has handled those duties for the last three seasons. Junior Nate Boyer is handling the short and deep snapping duties. Sophomore Nick Rose is back after kicking off on 82 of Texas' 85 attempts last season.

BACK ON TRACK: After an injury-filled season, Anthony Fera appears to be back on track. The senior, in his second season with the Longhorns, has handled both place-kicking and punting chores this season. He's averaging 43.6 yards per punt on 28 attempts this season, with 15 having been fair caught and 14 landing inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He also has nine punts of 50 yards or more. He's made 5-of-6 field goal attempts with a long of 47 (career best), and is perfect on his extra-point attempts. An All-Big Ten selection, Fera injured his groin shortly after transferring from Penn State in the summer of 2012. He missed the first four games of last season and went on to connect on 2 of 4 field goal attempts during his six games of action. Now finally healthy, he won both kicking jobs prior in the 2013 preseason. Fera was 14-for-17 on FGA during the 2011 season. He was named first-team All-Big Ten by ESPN.com as a punter and a Lou Groza Award semifinalist in 2011.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF FOR THREE LONGHORNS: The final day of preseason camp turned out to be a special one for three Texas Longhorns. Walk-ons Nate Boyer, Cade McCrary and Nick Rose, three key members of the special teams unit, were informed by head coach Mack Brown during a team meeting on Aug. 23 they were placed on scholarship for the 2013 season. For Boyer and McCrary, this is their second-straight season on scholarship. Rose, who handled kickoff chores last season as a true freshman, is on for the first time. Boyer is entering his second season as the snapper on field goals and extra points. McCrary is serving as the holder for the fourth-straight season.

BREAKING DOWN THE 2013 SCHEDULE: UT plays nine of its 12 games this season against teams that made a bowl appearance in 2012. Nine of the opponents registered at least seven wins and six had eight or more victories. Last season, Texas played eight teams that were in bowl games in 2011. The Horns ended up playing six ranked teams in 2012, the most since 2004 (also six). It was the sixth time in school history UT played as many as six ranked teams in a season. The Longhorns played a school-record seven in 1990. UT opens 2013 with some home-cooking, playing three of its first four games in Austin. The Horns close the season with two of their final three at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium. Texas visited BYU for just the second time ever on Sept. 7 and West Virginia for the first time on Nov. 9. Ole Miss traveled to Austin for the first time since 1925.

CANCER AWARENESS GAME: The Kansas State contest served as UT's annual Cancer Awareness Game. Each team member dedicate the game to a friend, family member or someone close affected by cancer. Players wore pink (breast), yellow (prostate) or purple (all other forms) ribbons on their helmets to signify the type of cancer. The coaching staff wore black and pink shoes, and lapel pins with the ribbon of their choice. The team also served as host to Kenyon Degeyter and Davari Ford, two young cancer patients, and their families during the game. In addition to players carrying out the U.S. Flag and Longhorn Flag during introductions, junior tight end Chris Terry carried a yellow flag, junior tight end/wide receiver John Harris carried the pink flag and senior wide receiver Michael Wheeler carried the purple one. Terry showed tribute to many friends, old coaches, and his grandfather, by wearing a yellow ribbon, while Wheeler wore a pink ribbon for his mother and his girlfriend's grandmother. Harris' mother recently overcame her second bout with breast cancer. Additionally, Assistant AD/Football Operations Marcus Tubbs wore a pink ribbon in honor of his mother Janet, who had breast cancer, went into remission, then had it come back in the form of breast cancer and bone cancer and ultimately lost her battle with the disease.

GRAY, JEFFCOAT EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS: Johnathan Gray and defensive end Jackson Jeffcoat were named as Big 12 Football Players of the Week on Monday, Sept. 23. Gray was named offensive player of the week while Jeffcoat shared defensive player of the week honors with safety Terrell Burt of Baylor. Gray had career highs in carries (28), rushing yards (141), all-purpose yards (151) and rushing TDs vs. Kansas State. Jeffcoat was disruptive throughout the game while recording five tackles, two quarterback pressures and a pair of sacks, matching a career high. The senior helped hold Kansas State to 115 rushing yards on 38 attempts (3.0 ypc). His two sacks, totaling 11 yards, came on Kansas State's final two drives and prevented the Wildcats from a comeback.

BOYER, A KEY CONTRIBUTOR ON AND OFF THE FIELD: Nate Boyer has been an inspiration since arriving on campus in 2010. The junior long snapper earned a Bronze Star for his service with the U.S. Army Special Forces Unit and has provided assistance to autistic children and Darfur refugees. That helped lead to his selection as the 2012 recipient of the Disney Spirit Award as college football's most inspirational figure. Boyer, who first considered enlisting in the military in high school, joined the military at age 20 partly inspired by the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Before that, he spent a great deal of time coaching autistic children through therapy sessions and later provided aid to refugee camps in the Darfur region in Sudan. Boyer was presented with the award during The Home Depot College Football Awards at Walt Disney World Resort on Dec. 6, 2012. Boyer was the first Texas recipient of an award which was first bestowed in 1996. Boyer went on to earn 2012-13 Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year, an award which annually recognizes student-athletes who displayed an extraordinary degree of sportsmanship and/or community service. Along with his studies and football commitment, he also returns to active military duty each summer.

BOYER NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR CAMPBELL TROPHY: Nate Boyer was named a semifinalist for the 2013 William V. Campbell Trophy, which recognizes the best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Boyer, who was the recipient of the 2012 Disney Spirit Award and named the 2012-13 Big 12 Sportsman of the Year, was among the candidates announced Wednesday, Oct. 2 by The National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame. Boyer is a fourth-year player who has served as the No. 1 long snapper for the Longhorns. He earned a scholarship before both the 2012 and 2013 seasons after joining the team as a walk-on in 2010. The Campbell Trophy semifinalists are selected each year by the NFF Awards Committee, which is comprised of a nationally recognized group of media, College Football Hall of Famers and athletics administrators. Those candidates are also eligible for the 2013 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards. The NFF Awards Committee will select up to 16 recipients who each receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship with only one to be named the winner of the William V. Campbell Trophy.

LONGHORN NEWCOMERS: As The University of Texas enters 2013, it looks to build on a 2012 season that culminated with a win over Oregon State in the Valero Alamo Bowl. With that, the Longhorns welcome a strong class of 15 newcomers on National Signing Day. Of the 15, six were selected to play in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl, one was chosen to participate in the Under Armour All-America Game, one in the International Bowl, and two in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl. Five of the players are listed among ESPN's Top 150 national prospects, and eight are in the Top 300. The class also features several prospects who were honor roll students and most of the 2013 signees have been involved in community service efforts. The success Brown and his staff have had in assembling and developing a series of highly regarded recruiting classes goes hand-in-hand with the success of the Texas Football program in the last 15 years.

TEXAS RECOGNIZED FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT BY AFCA: The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) recognized The University of Texas in 2012 for its academic excellence in graduating its freshman class of 2005. Three other Big 12 universities - Baylor, Kansas, and TCU - were also among the 47 schools honored for having a graduation rate of 75 percent or higher. Northwestern and Stanford shared the AFCA's 2012 Academic Achievement Award, which is presented by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. Northwestern and Stanford recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for members of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2005. The AFCA uses the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) formula to determine the award winner, as well as the other institutions honored. The GSR is based on a six-year graduation window for student-athletes, and was developed by the NCAA as part of its academic reform initiative to better assess the level of academic success in FBS universities nationwide. The Academic Achievement Award was established in 1981 by the College Football Association. The AFCA took over presenting the award in 1997.

LONGHORNS IN 2013 NFL DRAFT: Mack Brown continued his streak of sending top talent to the NFL. In the 2013 draft, S Kenny Vaccaro was selected 15th overall by the New Orleans Saints and became the Longhorns' 10th top 20 pick in the last 10 years. Vaccaro marks Mack Brown's 16th first-round pick while at Texas. WR Marquise Goodwin was the 78th overall pick by Buffalo in the third round, making him the eighth Longhorn drafted by the Bills since 1976. Goodwin is the sixth wide receiver to be drafted in the Mack Brown era and the third in the last six years. DE Alex Okafor was the 103rd overall by the Arizona Cardinals and is the 12th Longhorn defensive lineman selected in the last eight years. The selection of Okafor continued the eight-year streak of a Texas defensive lineman being selected.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFL: Texas is not only one of the best at the collegiate level, but since Mack Brown's arrival, it has become one of the premier sources of talent for the NFL as well. As of Oct. 6, Texas had 35 players on NFL rosters, which is fifth-most nationally. Of that group, 26 have started games during their NFL careers, including 22 who started as rookies. Among that group of 35, five have earned a spot in a Pro Bowl and six have participated in a Super Bowl with three coming away as Super Bowl Champions. The defensive backs (10), defensive line (6), linebackers (6) and kickers (2) lead the way and all rank first in the Big 12. In addition, Texas leads the Big 12 in Top 10 picks, Top 30 picks, Top 100 picks and Top 150 picks in the NFL Draft over the last 10 years. UT also has the most Top Five and third-most Top 10 picks in the NFL Draft since 1999. The Horns' eight Top 10 picks are two behind USC and one behind Alabama while their six Top Five picks lead LSU, Oklahoma, and USC, each of which has four.

HORNS PLACE 11 ON 2012 ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 TEAM: Texas had 11 players on the 2012 Academic All-Big 12 team, including seven on the first team. The first-team selections included sophomore DS Nate Boyer, sophomore OT Josh Cochran, senior DE Michael Cruciani, senior WR Marquise Goodwin, senior RB Heath Hohmann, junior QB Case McCoy and junior OG/C Garrett Porter. It marks the third straight year Goodwin and Porter have earned first-team honors, while McCoy did so for the second-straight year. The second team included senior TE Jackson Crawley, senior WR Jaren Nickleson, sophomore WR/TE Miles Onyegbule and sophomore S Josh Turner. Texas has led the conference in both total selections and first-team selections in five of the last seven years. In that span, the Longhorns have had 144 total honorees with 97 of those on the first team, both of which lead the Big 12. The next closest in both categories is Kansas with 105 total and 67 on the first team.

HORNS TO WEAR SPECIAL UNIFORMS FOR AT&T RED RIVER RIVALRY

The Texas Longhorns will wear specially designed uniforms for Saturday's AT&T Red River Rivalry.

Nike Football designed the uniforms to honor the heritage of the annual matchup with the Oklahoma Sooners, who will wear similarly designed uniforms.

The 2013 Nike Pro Combat Red River Rivalry uniforms feature gold and chrome accents in reference to the Golden Hat trophy, a golden replica of a 10-gallon cowboy hat that has been kept in possession by the winning school's athletic department since 1929. Both team jerseys feature a gold Red River Rivalry patch and the numbers are outlined by "kiss-cut" gold twill.

The inside of the neckline of each team's jerseys features custom embroidery – "Longhorns" for Texas and "Boomer Sooner" for Oklahoma. Custom tags reading "Texas Longhorns Red River Rivalry" and "Oklahoma Sooners Red River Rivalry" give each school a commemorative take on the traditional sizing label.

The Nike Pro Hypercool Baselayer Top features a directional chevron pattern which signals the travel each team takes to Dallas. In an additional twist, the chevron mirrors the hand gestures of the fans — Texas' upward "hook 'em horns" is one of the true icons of college athletics. The chevron is also featured on the insole of the Nike Alpha Pro Cleats each team will wear. School mascot imagery appears on the cleat tongues, and both school cleats showcase metallic gold plates to tie in the overall aesthetic of the uniform.

Both teams will wear a special gold edition of the Nike Vapor Jet II gloves. Texas' glove features a white team logo over the gold palm and embroidered "Longhorns" on the inside. Oklahoma's glove reads "Boomer Sooner" and features a crimson team logo atop the gold palm.

The AT&T Red River Rivalry has been waged for over 100 years. Passions escalated in 1931, when the two states became embroiled in conflict over the erection of a new bridge spanning Red River. Since then, bragging rights between the Longhorns and the Sooners have been won on the gridiron. Every year, both teams travel to Dallas to settle a score and play for control of the coveted Golden Hat trophy.

COMEBACKS UNDER MACK BROWN

During Mack Brown's 16 seasons at Texas, the Horns have registered 30 second-half comebacks, including 19 in the fourth quarter. UT has recorded the six largest comebacks in school history during the Mack Brown era.

at IOWA STATE (2013): Case McCoy's 1-yard TD run on a quarterback sneak with 51 seconds left lifted Texas over Iowa State, 31-30. McCoy, subbing for injured starter David Ash, led Texas on the game-winning 75-yard drive in a contest that featured six lead changes.

vs. OREGON STATE (2012): Texas erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit and emerged with a thrilling 31-27 victory over No. 15/14 Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl. OSU took a 27-17 lead into the fourth quarter, but Texas scored a pair of touchdowns over the final 8:18 to secure the win. David Ash hit Johnathan Gray for a 15-yard touchdown to cut the margin to three. The sophomore QB then connected with Marquise Goodwin on a 36-yard TD with 2:24 left in the game.

at KANSAS (2012): Texas trailed twice in the fourth quarter. Case McCoy came off the bench early in the fourth quarter and led the Horns to two scoring drives. Texas tied the game at 14-all with 9:41 remaining on an 11-yard TD run by WR Marquise Goodwin. After the Jayhawks hit a field goal with 2:28 left in the game, McCoy hit tight end D.J. Grant for the 1-yard game-winning touchdown with 12 seconds left lifting No. 24 Texas to a 21-17 victory.

at RV/22 OKLAHOMA STATE (2012): UT trailed twice in the fourth quarter (33-28 & 36-34) before rallying. David Ash directed a 75-yard, eight-play drive that started with 2:34 left in the game. He was 4-for-5 for 70 yards and Joe Bergeron scored a 2-yard game-winning TD with 29 seconds left.

at TEXAS A&M (2011): Justin Tucker booted a 40-yard field goal as time expired to give Texas a 27-25 victory over Texas A&M on Thanksgiving Night. The Aggies took a 25-24 lead inside the game's final two minutes on a 16-yard TD pass from Ryan Tannehill to Jeff Fuller, but the Longhorns, behind QB Case McCoy, drove 48 yards in seven plays. A&M led 16-7 early in the third quarter before UT scored 17 straight points.

vs. BYU (2011): The Longhorns trailed 13-3 at the half and 16-10 entering the fourth quarter but two rushing TDs in the second half gave Texas a 17-16 win. The game-winning score by Cody Johnson came with 8:46 remaining in the game on a four-yard TD run that capped an eight-play, 52-yard drive.

vs. NO. 21/20 NEBRASKA (2009): Texas held the lead against Nebraska for much of the second-half, but a Nebraska field goal with 1:44 left gave the Cornhuskers a 12-10 lead. The Horns quickly moved down the field on the ensuing possession, setting up a Hunter Lawrence 46-yard field goal as time expired, giving UT a 13-12 victory and the 2009 Big 12 Championship.

vs. NO. 20/18 OKLAHOMA (2009): The Horns trailed 6-3 at halftime but scored 10 points on their first two drives of the second half to take a 13-6 lead. The Sooners came back with a TD to make it 13-13, but UT answered with a field goal early in the fourth quarter to take a 16-13 lead, which would end up being the final score. After giving up the TD to OU with 4:39 left in the third quarter, the Horns' defense didn't allow the Sooners into Texas territory for the rest of the game, allowing just 35 yards on 17 plays (2.1 ypp) and intercepting two passes.

vs. NO. 10 OHIO STATE (2008): Texas trailed 6-3 at the half before taking a 17-6 lead entering the fourth quarter. But, the Buckeyes ran off 15 straight points to take a 21-17 lead with just 2:05 remaining. From there, Colt McCoy led an 11-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard TD pass to Quan Cosby with 16 seconds left to give UT the 24-21 victory.

vs. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA (2008): The Horns erased two 11-point deficits in the first half and trailed by one, 21-20, at halftime. OU went up 28-20 before Texas scored 10 straight to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter. OU answered with a TD early in the fourth to make it 35-30, but UT scored the game's final 15 points over the last 7:37 to win, 45-35. In total, Texas went on a 25-7 run to seal the victory.

at OKLAHOMA STATE (2007): Texas erased two fourth-quarter deficits and a second-half one, including the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history against Oklahoma State. The Horns trailed 35-14 before scoring 24 unanswered points to win, 38-35.

vs. NEBRASKA (2007): Texas trailed Nebraska, 17-9, entering the fourth quarter before running off 19 straight points to win, 28-25. After falling behind 17-3 early in the third quarter, Texas produced 336 total yards and 25 points in the second half to help seal the victory.

at TEXAS TECH (2006): After trailing Texas Tech, 21-0, in the first quarter, the Horns closed the gap to 31-21 at halftime and 31-28 entering the fourth quarter, before going on to win 35-31.

at NO. 4 OHIO STATE (2005): The Horns trailed the Buckeyes, 22-16, entering the final quarter, but Vince Young connected with Limas Sweed for a 24-yard TD with 2:37 remaining to give Texas a 23-22 lead. A late safety gave the Horns a 25-22 victory.

vs. NO. 1 USC (2005): The Longhorns trailed 38-26 with 6:42 remaining in the game before Vince Young led two TD drives, including his game-winning eight-yard TD run with just 19 seconds left, to secure the win and the National Championship.

Prior to 2005: The Horns notched four second-half comebacks and a fourth-quarter comeback in 2004, including a 28-point comeback against Oklahoma State, the largest in school history. UT also registered a halftime comeback in '02, a fourth-quarter comeback in '01, two halftime comebacks in 1999 and two fourth-quarter comebacks in '98.

TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS

3: The Longhorns have had three defensive backs chosen in the same draft twice in the last seven years.

3: The Longhorns have three BCS Bowl victories in four appearances, including winning the 2005 National Championship.

3: The Longhorns have three running backs on the roster with more than 1,000 career rushing yards: Joe Bergeron (1,172), Johnathan Gray (1,140) and Malcolm Brown (1,129).

4: Quandre Diggs tied the school freshman record with a team-high four interceptions in 2011. He then added four more as a sophomore.

5: Mike Davis ranks sixth in UT history in career receptions (175) and sixth in receiving yards (2,313).

6: David Ash's 434 yards of total offense against New Mexico State was the most ever in a UT season opener and the sixth-highest single game mark in school history.

6: Texas leads the nation with six Top Five NFL Draft picks over the last 10 years.

7: Texas blocked seven kicks in 2012, which tied for third in the FBS.

8: Eight Longhorns have been drafted in the Top 10 of the NFL Draft in the last 10 years, the third-most of any school in the nation.

9: Texas has produced the top nine scoring seasons in UT history during the Mack Brown era, including a school record 652 points in 2005.

10: Texas has posted a UT record 10 bowl wins in 14 appearances during the Mack Brown era.

10: Mack Brown ranks 10th all-time in FBS history with 239 career wins.

11: Since Duane Akina arrived in 2001, 11 of his 12 starting cornerbacks have gone on to play in the NFL.

13: Texas has only lost back-to-back games 13 times in 15 years in the Mack Brown era.

13: Texas is one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 seasons (Virginia Tech).

14: Texas finished 14th in the FBS in offensive third-down efficiency in 2012, converting 48.6 percent (87 of 179).

16: Sixteen true freshmen played in 2012, which was tied for most in the nation (TCU - 16; LSU - 15; Ohio State - 15).

19: Texas has won 19 of its last 21 games (.905) that were decided by three points or less.

21: David Ash finished 2012 ranked 21st in the nation in passing efficiency with a 153.28 rating.

23: The Longhorns have played in front of 100,000-plus people 23 times at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

35: As of Oct. 6, there were 35 Longhorns on NFL rosters, the most in the Big 12 and fifth-most nationally.

39: Texas averaged 39 points per game in the last decade (2000-09), which was the second-most in the nation behind Boise State.

51: Texas' appearance in the 2012 Valero Alamo Bowl marked the 51st bowl appearance in UT history, second all-time in the NCAA.

54: In 16 seasons under Mack Brown, Texas' offense has produced 54 games with 500 or more total yards of offense. UT had accomplished that only 23 times in the 105 years prior to his arrival.

55: Of Mack Brown's 71 NFL draft picks over the last 15 years, 55 have been selected in the first four rounds.

55: The Longhorns have won 55 of 65 games against teams from the state of Texas under Mack Brown.

71: Texas leads the nation with 71 total blocked kicks since 2001, including a nation-leading 41 blocked punts.

72: Texas has won 72 road and neutral site games since 1999, which is the second most in the nation.

74: Texas has registered 74 sellouts in the last 81 games.

78: Texas has won 78 of 94 home games (83.0%) under Mack Brown

84: UT has scored 84 non-offensive TDs since 1999, which is tied for second nationally.

102: Texas' 102 appearances in the BCS standings are the most of any team in the country.

106: Texas has won 106 of 120 games when scoring first during the Mack Brown era.

125: Texas is 125-7 in the Mack Brown era when outrushing an opponent.

132: The Longhorns have spent 132 weeks in The AP Top 10 and have finished the year ranked in the Top 10 seven times during the Mack Brown era. Texas, which had not finished a year ranked among the Top 10 since 1983 prior to Brown's arrival, spent just 16 weeks rated among the nation's Top 10 in the 12 years before Brown took over.

144: Over the last seven years, Texas has the most Academic All-Big 12 selections of any team in the conference with 144.

151: Mack Brown has played 151 true freshmen in his 16 years at Texas.

153: Mack Brown's 153 wins at Texas are the second-most in school history, trailing only Darrell Royal's 167.

162: Texas was ranked in The AP Top 25 for a Longhorn record 162 straight weeks until the streak was snapped Oct. 3, 2010. It had been the longest active streak in the nation.

190: Until Oct. 3, 2010, the Longhorns were ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll Top 25 for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 consecutive weeks led the nation and was the longest UT streak in any poll.

200: Mack Brown became the 19th coach, who has spent at least 10 years at an FBS program, to win 200 games. He has 239 career victories.

400: There have been six games in which Texas has rushed for over 400 yards in a game, including two in 2011.

715: Texas set a school record with 715 yards of total offense in its 56-7 season-opening win over New Mexico State.

870: With 870 victories in program history, Texas ranks second on the NCAA all-time victories list behind only Michigan.

SATELLITE RADIO

A live radio broadcast for each UT game can be heard on SiriusXM Satellite: XM 202; Sirius 117; Internet 969; Spanish 970.

SPANISH LANGUAGE BROADCAST

The Longhorns Sports Network will also offer a Spanish Language Radio broadcast of all Texas Football games.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO IN COVERAGE

Any media entity collecting "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/post-game interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, Web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Its usage also must be used only as supporting video/audio for a reported story and not simply as rebroadcasted/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape-delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance, written permission of The University of Texas Athletics Department.

POSTGAME

The Longhorns locker room is closed. Postgame interviews at home will be conducted in the Moncrief Athletics Complex. Interviews on the road will be conducted at a designated area. NO INTERVIEWS ARE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. After a NCAA required and team-enforced 10-minute cooling off period, players and coaches will be escorted to the interview area. Failure to abide by this rule will result in termination of credential.

POST-PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Practices are closed to the public and media. There will be post-practice media availability on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Moncrief Athletics Complex, though the best time for interviews is during the Monday news conference which begins at 11 a.m. (CT) on the ninth floor of Bellmont Hall (west side of Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium). Interview inquiries should be sent to associate AD for media relations John Bianco (john.bianco@athletics.utexas.edu).

GAME 1: #15/15 TEXAS (56), NEW MEXICO STATE (7)
AUGUST 31 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 99,623 • LHN
WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLEAR SKIES (100 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas -- David Ash threw for 343 yards and four touchdowns and No. 15 Texas set a school record with 715 total offensive yards in a season-opening 56-7 win over New Mexico State.

Led by Ash, the Longhorns (1-0) scored on five straight possessions after falling behind 7-0, averaging 54.6 yards per play on the five touchdowns. Ash hit John Harris for a 54-yard touchdown for the first of the five successive scores, and plays of 66 yards (Ash to Daje Johnson), 24 yards (Johnson run), 55 yards (Ash run) and 74 yards (Ash to Malcolm Brown) followed.

Texas reached the 700-yard mark in total offense for the first time in school history with a balanced attack, racking up 359 yards on the ground and 356 through the air. Ash had 91 yards on the ground, including the 55-yard TD run in the third quarter, while Joe Bergeron finished with 79 yards and Johnson had 62. Brown recorded the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, turning three catches into 109 yards.

Jalen Overstreet, who didn't enter the game until midway through the fourth quarter, led the Longhorns with 92 rushing yards on nine carries. His two touchdowns – one coming from a yard out and the other coming on a 38-yard dash – were the first of his Texas career.

"We rushed for over 300 yards, and David ran the ball well, so that really helped us," said head coach Mack Brown. "That's something we need to do is have our quarterback be an extra runner in key situations. I thought he looked for the run tonight. That's something he didn't do very much last year."

While Ash and the offense produced, the Texas defense forced three turnovers and shut down the Aggies (0-1) after allowing their lone touchdown in the second quarter - an 11-yard touchdown pass from Joshua Bowen to Andrew McDonald. Texas defensive ends Cedric Reed and Jackson Jeffcoat led the way with seven tackles apiece, including a sack for Reed.

Leading 35-7 following the third quarter, Texas kept its foot on the gas, scoring on all three of its possessions in the fourth quarter.

Mike Davis made an acrobatic, 25-yard catch in the corner of the end zone, just getting one foot in bounds to increase the lead to 42-7. Overstreet rushed six times for 43 yards in his first drive as a Longhorn and capped it off with a one-yard touchdown run. The sophomore scored his second touchdown of the game on a 38-yard run, completing the scoring for the Longhorns.

"It goes to show, if we really execute 60 minutes, we can be good," said co-offensive coordinator Major Applewhite. "It's okay to say that. It's out there. Let's go get it."

Texas ran its winning streak in season openers to 14 and is now 15-1 in openers under Brown.

GAME 2: BYU (40), #15/15 TEXAS (21)

SEPTEMBER 7 • LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM • PROVO, UTAH

ATTENDANCE: 63,197 • ESPN 2

WEATHER CONDITIONS: WIND AND CLOUDY: RAIN DELAY PRIOR TO GAME (63 DEGREES)

PROVO, Utah - Brigham Young quarterback Taysom Hill ran for 259 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cougars past No. 15 Texas, 40-21, at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Texas quarterback David Ash went 19-of-34 for 251 yards and running back Jonathan Gray had 90 yards on 13 carries, but the Longhorns surrendered 550 rushing yards to BYU.

The Longhorns held an early 14-10 lead, but BYU scored 24 unanswered points – behind a pair of touchdown runs from Hill – to assume control.

Joe Bergeron's 2-yard rushing touchdown early in the second quarter gave Texas a 14-10 lead, but BYU answered less than three minutes later to take a lead it wouldn't surrender. On the ensuing drive after Texas' go-ahead score, the Cougars had their drive prolonged by a roughing the kicker penalty and scored four plays later on a 20-yard run by Hill.

A touchdown run of 10 yards by Paul Lasike and a 32-yard field goal by Justin Sorensen just before halftime gave BYU a 27-14 lead going into the break. Hill's 26-yard touchdown run with 10:02 left in the third quarter stretched the lead to 34-14.

Ash connected with Mike Davis for a touchdown for the second time in the game on a 23-yard pass midway through the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 34-21, but Texas would get no closer.

Sorensen kicked a pair of field goals – one from 36 yards and the last from 24 – to complete the scoring.

Ash's first scoring play came on a 57-yard touchdown to Davis that gave Texas a 7-3 lead with 3:21 left in the first quarter. But just 64 seconds later, Hill answered with a 68-yard touchdown run to give BYU the lead.

Ash was injured midway through the fourth quarter and Case McCoy entered the game. Despite a 45-yard pass to Jaxon Shipley, the Longhorns couldn't get on the board in the final stanza.

Duke Thomas made his first career interception and Malcom Brown recovered a fumble as the Longhorns won the turnover battle 2-0. Jordan Hicks (16) and Cedric Reed (14) both had career highs in tackles. The game was delayed nearly two hours due to rain and lightning.

GAME 3: #25/25 OLE MISS (44), TEXAS (23)
SEPTEMBER 14 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 101,474 • LHN
WEATHER CONDITIONS: PARTLY CLOUDY (94 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas - Texas quarterback Case McCoy went 24 of 36 for 196 yards and a touchdown and running back Jonathan Gray ran for 97 yards, but No. 25/25 Ole Miss rallied to win 44-23 in sold out Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

The Longhorns (1-2), playing without starting quarterback David Ash, built a 23-17 halftime lead behind McCoy, Gray and place-kicker Anthony Fera's three field goals. McCoy went 11 of 13 for 104 yards and a TD, while Gray ran for 88 yards in the first half.

Ole Miss quarterback Bo Wallace went 17 of 25 for 177 yards and two touchdowns while running back Jeff Scott ran for 164 yards on 19 carries.

A 5-yard touchdown run from Scott and an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wallace to Donte Moncrief put the Longhorns in a 14-point hole early in the first quarter.

But the UT defense held the Rebels (3-0) to 38 total yards on their next four possessions and McCoy got the offense on track with five straight scoring drives. He connected with Mike Davis on a 13-yard touchdown pass and Fera hit a 28-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 14-10 with 13:12 left in the second quarter.

Gray had an 8-yard TD run on the following possession and Fera hit two more field goals, including a career-long 47-yarder, to increase the lead to 23-14. His second field goal of the game was set up by an Ole Miss fumble.

After Texas' offensive surge, the Rebels (3-0) responded with 30 unanswered points. The Rebels finished the half with a 52-yard field goal by Andrew Ritter that was setup by a 15-yard targeting penalty.

"You've got to go back and take your momentum back in the second half," head coach Mack Brown said. "We let them have the momentum going in. We didn't take the momentum going out in the second half, and we never got it back."

Ole Miss scored three touchdowns in the third quarter when the Texas offense was only able to muster 48 yards of offense. Wallace ran for a 15-yard score and found Evan Engram on a 17-yard touchdown pass, then Scott had a 73-yard punt return for a TD, increasing the Rebels' lead to 37-23 with 0:09 left in the third.

Rebels running back Jaylen Walton provided the game's final points with an 8-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter, putting the Rebels up 44-23.

Scott had 243 all-purpose yards for Ole Miss.

Ash suffered head and shoulder injuries against BYU and was ruled out of the game Friday. McCoy made his seventh-career start and first since last season's Kansas State contest.

With the loss, Texas had its three-game winning streak in the series snapped. The crowd of 101,474 was the third largest in stadium history.

GAME 4: TEXAS (31), K-STATE (21)

SEPTEMBER 21 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 95,248 • ABC
WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLEAR SKIES (78 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas - Behind a career-high 141 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Johnathan Gray and a defense which forced three turnovers, Texas defeated Kansas State, 31-21, at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

The victory was the Longhorns' first over the Wildcats since 2003 and snapped a five-game losing streak.

Texas quarterback David Ash went 14 of 25 with 166 yards and a touchdown in the first half to help the Longhorns take a 17-7 halftime lead. Ash had concussion symptoms and didn't play after the halftime break, giving way to senior Case McCoy who played last week vs. Ole Miss.

Texas (2-2, 1-0 Big 12) finished nine of 18 on third-down conversions, including four on its first scoring drive of the game, which was capped by a 27-yard field goal from Anthony Fera.

Three plays after the defense forced Kansas State's second punt of the game, Ash fired downfield and hit Kendall Sanders for a 63-yard touchdown. The play marked the sixth different Texas player to score a touchdown of 50 yards or longer this season.

Ash completed a 10-yard pass to Jaxon Shipley on fourth-and-2 and two plays later Gray ran the ball in for a 21-yard touchdown, putting the Wildcats (2-2, 0-1) into a 17-0 hole in the second quarter.

"Last week we were more conservative in fourth-down situations, didn't go for things," said head coach Mack Brown, who tied Woody Hayes for 10th on the NCAA all-time coaches victories list with the win. "We said we're going to have to score some points in this league to win. So let's go for it."

The Wildcats crossed into UT territory for the first time with two minutes left in the first half and John Hubert got them on the board with a 15-yard touchdown run.

Ash drove the Horns into Kansas State territory with less one minute left in the half, but the Horns were unable to convert a fourth-and-3 from the 40.

The junior missed last week's Ole Miss game with head and shoulder injuries, but was cleared to play Friday against Kansas State.

"With the new concussion rules, if they have symptoms pop back up, they take you out, period," said Mack Brown. "He had symptoms at half-time. (The medical staff) said he couldn't play the second half."

McCoy led the Longhorns to touchdowns on two of his first three drives. A fumble by Hubert and some trickery set up the first touchdown.

Three straight rushes by Gray netted just 8 yards and the Horns set up to punt from the K-State 48, but Alex De La Torre took the direct snap and weaved 19 yards for a first down. Four plays later, Gray scampered 15 yards for his second touchdown of the night.

The Wildcats cut the deficit to 24-14 on Hubert's 4-yard touchdown run with 13:22 left in the game, but the Longhorns answered on the ensuing possession.

Malcolm Brown capped off an 11-play, 66-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run with 9:11 remaining.

Texas finished with 227 rushing yards and 225 passing yards in the game. Texas' 452 total yards were the most in the 14 all-time meetings with Kansas State.

After being aided by a targeting penalty and ejection to Texas linebacker Steve Edmond, the Wildcats cut the lead to 31-21 on a 1-yard sneak from quarterback Jake Waters who was 19 of 30 for 275 yards.

The Longhorns sealed the win with two fumble recoveries in the final three minutes, one from Dalton Santos and the other by Chris Whaley.

"We told them in the dressing room, this is a start, this isn't the end," Brown said. "We had to get this game tonight. We had to get back on the right track. We had to get 1-0 against the Big 12 champs from last year that we have not been successful against in a very physical ballgame."

Steve Edmond led Texas with 11 tackles and the Longhorns had four sacks.

Tyler Lockett led K-State with 237 receiving yards on 13 catches.

GAME 5: TEXAS (31), IOWA STATE (30)

OCTOBER 3 • JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA

ATTENDANCE: 52,762 • ESPN

WEATHER CONDITIONS: MOSTLY CLOUDY (79 DEGREES)

AMES, Iowa - Case McCoy's 1-yard touchdown run on a quarterback sneak with 51 seconds left lifted Texas over Iowa State, 31-30.

McCoy, who went 26 of 45 for 244 passing yards and a touchdown subbing for injured starter David Ash, led Texas (3-2, 2-0) on the game-winning 75-yard drive in a Big 12 Conference contest that featured six lead changes.

Jonathan Gray ran 16 times for 89 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown run. Iowa State's Sam Richardson passed for 262 yards and rushed for another 83, though he was sacked five times. Running back Aaron Wimberly had 117 rushing yards and a touchdown for the Cyclones (1-3, 0-1) who lost for the 10th time in 11 all-time meetings with Texas.

Trailing 30-24 after the defense forced an ISU field goal, Texas got the ball back with less than four minutes left in the game. With the help of a face mask penalty and two pass interference calls, including one in the end zone, the Longhorns had a first-and-goal with less than 1:30 left.

Gray had two cracks at punching the ball in the end zone from the 2-yard line. He gained 1 yard on the first attempt and appeared to fumble, but he was ruled down and there was no video evidence to change the call. Gray did fumble on the next play, but made the recovery after Jake Knott jarred the ball loose. Then on third-and-goal, McCoy plunged in from 1 yard out.

Iowa State was unable to get in field-goal range on its final possession. The Cyclones moved the ball to the Texas 42, but Cedric Reed deflected a Richardson pass attempt with 13 seconds left and Jackson Jeffcoat picked it off to seal the win.

The teams traded leads throughout the game, but Gray's 45-yard touchdown on the Longhorns' fifth offensive play gave them an early 7-0 lead. The rush was the second longest of his career.

Reed caused James White to fumble on Iowa State's third offensive series, but the Horns were unable to convert that into a touchdown despite taking over at the Cyclones' 16. Anthony Fera's 29-yard field goal gave the Horns a 10-0 lead with 2:27 left in the first quarter.

However, the Cyclones responded in the second quarter with 13 consecutive points. On its fifth drive of the game, Iowa State went 5-for-5 on third downs, including Richardson's 11-yard touchdown pass to Wimberly on third-and-9. Cole Netten hit two field goals in the quarter, one from 37 yards and the other from 41.

Texas took a 17-13 lead on its final drive of the first half. The Longhorns got the ball back on their 25 with only 33 seconds on the clock, but completions to Joe Bergeron (12 yards) and Jaxon Shipley (19 yards) moved the ball to the ISU 44 with four seconds left. On the final play of the first half, McCoy eluded the rush and found John Harris for a 44-yard touchdown on the 'Hail Mary' toss.

Richardson found Quenton Bundrage for a 97-yard touchdown in the middle of the third quarter that gave Iowa State a 20-17 lead.

But Texas responded on the ensuing possession. McCoy and Mike Davis connected on three completions to move the ball to the UT 40. Davis then drew pass interference penalties on the next two plays. Three plays later, Bergeron scored on a 6-yard touchdown run to put the Longhorns ahead 24-20.

But a Bergeron fumble with 12:54 left in the game gave the Cyclones the ball on the Texas 37. Three plays later, Wimberly ran it in from 20 yards to make it 27-24.

The Cyclones had a chance to put the game away late in the fourth, but the UT defense answered the call. The Cyclones had a second-and-1 from the UT 4-yard line, but Wimberly lost 2 yards on a run and then Richardson was rushed and threw incomplete.

Iowa State settled for a Netten 29-yard field goal with 3:40 left to set up the game-winning drive.

Ash missed his second game of the season. He was ruled out of the Iowa State game Friday due to a head injury. The Longhorns were also without starting right tackle Josh Cochran.
