TEXAS PLAYS AT BAYLOR SATURDAY IN REGULAR-SEASON FINALE:

Coming off a convincing Thanksgiving Day home win over Texas Tech, No. 23/24 Texas will close out the regular season Saturday at No. 9/7 Baylor, which will be playing for the final time in Floyd Casey Stadium. The Horns are in a three-way tie for first in the Big 12 standings with Oklahoma State and Baylor (all 7-1). However, the Cowboys are in control of their destiny. A win by OSU Saturday at home vs. Oklahoma clinches the league title. If the Cowboys lose to the Sooners, then the winner of the Texas-Baylor contest claims the Big 12 crown and an automatic BCS berth. Regardless of the OSU-OU outcome, UT wins a share of the league title with a win over Baylor.

HORNS KNOCK OFF TEXAS TECH ON SENIOR DAY:

Malcolm Brown (27-128) and Joe Bergeron (17-102) both topped 100 rushing yards and the Texas defense had a season-high nine sacks in a 41-16 win over Texas Tech on Senior Night. After falling behind early when Texas Tech turned a fake punt into a 51-yard touchdown, the Longhorns controlled much of the game. Aside from the 51-yard run on the fake punt, Texas Tech had just 8 yards rushing on 17 attempts in the first half. The defensive line provided constant pressure. Jackson Jeffcoat (career-high three) and Cedric Reed (two) combined for five of the team's sacks. QB Case McCoy went 10 of 19 for 139 yards and accounted for three touchdowns – two passing to Mike Davis and a 1-yard run. Davis, who had four catches for 165 yards and two touchdowns at Texas Tech last season, again burned the Red Raiders by finishing with 112 yards on four receptions, including the two TDs. Texas led 20-10 at halftime and turned both of Tech's second-half fumbles into TDs.

BAYLOR SERIES TRENDS:

Texas leads the all-time series with Baylor 74-24-2 and has won 17 of the last 20 meetings, including 13 of the past 15. The Horns have produced at least 400 yards of total offense 19 times in the last 20 meetings, including 525 in last season's victory. The only year in that stretch UT did not manage 400 total yards was 1995. The Horns have averaged 487.5 yards per game and allowed only 279.0 yards per contest against the Bears under Mack Brown (7,313 - 4,185). Texas has limited Baylor to just 1,274 rushing yards (on 459 attempts) (84.9 ypg) during the Mack Brown era, including just six rushing yards in 2009. Texas has held Baylor to 14 points or fewer in nine of the 15 matchups during the Mack Brown era, including four shutouts. However, last season's contest (56-50 UT win) produced the most combined points (106) in a Texas game. This year's game will mark the first with both teams ranked since 1990.

LONG-TIME OPPONENTS:

Saturday's game will mark the 103rd meeting between Texas and Baylor in a series that dates back to 1901. The 102 previous meetings rank as the third-longest series (by number of games) in school history. Texas A&M (118 games) and Oklahoma (108 games) are the only other opponents the Longhorns have played more than the Bears.

FIRST-AND-GOAL:

- Texas moved back into the national rankings this week (No. 23 - AP poll, No. 24 - USA Today Coaches, No. 25 BCS).
- UT is averaging 441.8 yards of total offense which ranks No. 4 in the Big 12. The Horns are averaging 200.7 yards on the ground (No. 3 Big 12) and 241.1 in the air (No. 5 in the Big 12). Baylor is second in the Big 12 in total defense (355.5 ypg) and fourth in rushing defense (133.8 ypg). The Bears are averaging 2.8 sacks per game which is tied 21st in the nation, while UT is 20th in the FBS in sacks allowed (1.2 pg).
- Senior QB Case McCoy, who has replaced an injured David Ash, made his 14th career start in the Texas Tech game. He is 6-2 as a starter this season. Ash has missed the last seven games and was ruled out for the remainder of the season on Nov. 25. He played in three games this year completing 53 of 87 passes (61 percent) for 760 yards. Ash ranks eighth on the UT career passing yards list (4,538).
- Already without Ash and RT Josh Cochran (missed the seven games due to a shoulder injury), the UT offense was dealt another blow when Johnathan Gray, the team's leading rusher (780), suffered a season-ending Achilles injury vs. West Virginia. Malcolm Brown, who had averaged 20 carries in the previous three games before WVU, is taking on even more of the load at tailback. He has averaged 26.7 carries the last three games and 96.7 on the ground in the last six. He has nine rushing TDs this season (eight in the last five games) which ranks tied for fifth in the Big 12.

- Jaxon Shipley leads the team with 52 catches and ranks sixth in the league at 4.7 per game. Thirty-three of his receptions have gone for first downs, including three on fourth down. Mike Davis has 46 catches and ranks fifth in the Big 12 with 70.1 receiving ypg. Davis has eight TD receptions (tied for third in the Big 12).
- Eight players have scored a receiving touchdown and eight via the ground.
- Seven players have at least one reception of 45 yards or more this season.
- After surrendering an average of 7.0 yards per carry to BYU and Ole Miss, the UT defense has held its last eight opponents (K-State - 3.0; Iowa State - 4.0; Oklahoma - 3.9; TCU - 1.9; Kansas - 3.8; West Virginia - 2.3; OSU - 4.6; TTU - 3.4) to a combined 3.4 ypc (296 rushes, 1017 yards).
- In Big 12 games, UT is ranked third in total defense (355.4 ypg), but just more than two yards from first (353.1 - Oklahoma). The Horns are first in rushing defense (127.1 ypg) and fourth in passing defense (228.2 ypg). Baylor enters Saturday's game averaging 635.1 total yards (No. 1 in the FBS) overall, including 591.5 ypg in league games (No. 1 in the Big 12). The Bears have scored more than 40 points in all but two games this season.
- Senior Jackson Jeffcoat and junior Cedric Reed are two of the most productive defensive ends in the nation. Jeffcoat ranks second in the Big 12 and tied for 10th in the FBS in sacks (0.91 pg/10.0) and Reed

MACK BROWN (Florida State '74): Texas' 16th-year head coach is 158-46 (.775), including 96-32 in the Big 12. He led UT to the 2005 National Championship, and has a 244-120-1 (.670) mark over his 29-year career. Brown is the Big 12's winningest active coach (FBS/ Division I-A games only) and has three BCS bowl wins in four appearances.

NOTE: Rankings listed as The AP Poll/Coaches Poll

ART BRILES (Texas Tech '79): Head coach Art Briles is 42-31 in his sixth season with the Bears. In 2012, the Bears finished second nationally in total offense (572.3 ypg) and finished the season with four straight victories, including three over ranked opponents. Over the last three years, his squads have won 25 games, the most in any three-year span in program history.

is third in the league and 19th nationally (0.82 pg/9.0). They are one of only two duos in the nation to have 9.0 sacks apiece (Marcus Smith and Lorenzo Mauldin of Louisville). Reed, who has six sacks in the last four games, is tied for eighth in the FBS in fumbles forced (0.36 pg/four) and Jeffcoat is tied for 18th nationally in fumbles recovered (0.27 pg/three). Reed has tallied 71 tackles (second on the team) and Jeffcoat has 67 (tied for third). They have also combined for 36 tackles for loss and 33 QB pressures. Jeffcoat and Reed were among 18 players on the midseason watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award. Jeffcoat was a Bednarik Award semifinalist and a Hendricks Award finalist.

- Having already suffered two big losses to their defensive unit this season, the Longhorns will now be without their leading tackler for the last two games of the season. They have been without junior linebacker Jordan Hicks, who ruptured his Achilles, since the Kansas State game (missed last seven contests). He was leading the team with 41 tackles at the time. In the West Virginia game, senior DT Chris Whaley suffered a season-ending knee injury on the first series of the game. He had started the first nine contests. Steve Edmond and Dalton Santos have picked up the slack at linebacker for Hicks. Edmond has 73 tackles (first on the team) and is tied for second on the team lead in pass breakups with five. He also recorded his second career interception vs. TCU. With Hicks' injury, Santos has seen his snaps increase and he has responded with 52 tackles over the last seven games (7.4 pg). Edmond suffered a lacerated liver in the Texas Tech game and will be sidelined for the Baylor contest and bowl game.

- DT Malcom Brown has been a key cog along the line. He had perhaps his best game as a Longhorn against Iowa State. The sophomore had a career-high 10 tackles, including one sack and one TFL, as well as one PBU. He shared the team's defensive player of the game award with Jeffcoat whose interception on the Cyclones' final drive helped seal the win. Brown had seven tackles and two tackles for loss vs. Oklahoma State. DT Desmond Jackson saw his role increase vs. West Virginia with the injury to Whaley and responded with career highs in tackles (8), tackles for loss (3) and sacks (2.0).

- Texas ranks 19th nationally in turnover margin at +0.73 per game after going plus-1 in the Texas Tech game. The Horns have hovered around the top 10 most of the season. The Longhorns have lost the turnover battle just twice this season (minus-1 vs. Kansas; minus-2 vs. Oklahoma State). Baylor enters the game ranked No. 15 nationally in turnover margin (+0.80 per game).

- Senior Anthony Fera has been solid both place-kicking and punting. He has gone 19-for-20 (.950) on field-goal attempts, including a career-best 4 of 4 vs. West Virginia and connecting all three times vs. both Oklahoma and TCU. Fera, who is a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, ranks tied for third in the FBS in accuracy (minimum 10 attempts) and eighth among place-kickers in scoring (9.1 ppg). He has posted a career-long field goal twice this season. He had a 47-yarder vs. Ole Miss and nailed a 50-yarder vs. OU. Fera ranks 58th nationally in punting average (40.9). Twenty-six of his 59 punts (44.1 percent - 10th in the FBS) have gone inside the 20, and 30 have been fair caught (50.8 percent).

HOLDING THE TECH OFFENSE IN CHECK: Texas Tech entered last week's game ranked No. 9 nationally in total offense (523.9 yards per game) and No. 22 in scoring offense (37.5 ppg). The Red Raiders managed just one offensive touchdown and scored a season-low 16 points. In addition, the 396 total yards of offense was the second-lowest output of the year (336 vs. TCU). The Longhorns will be facing another top-10 offense this season, as

DID YOU KNOW?

DE Cedric Reed is among select company nationally. The junior is one of only four defensive players in the FBS with at least 6.0 sacks, four pass breakups and four forced fumbles this season. Reed has 9.0 sacks, four PBUs and four forced fumbles. Khalil Mack (Buffalo) has 9.0 sacks, six pass breakups and five forced fumbles, Vic Beasley (Clemson) has 12 sacks, six pass breakups and four forced fumbles and Ryan Mueller (Kansas State) has 11 sacks, six pass breakups and four forced fumbles.

Baylor is ranked No. 1 nationally in scoring (55.4 points per game) and first in total offense (635.1 ypg).

TWO 100-YARD RUSHERS: Texas has had two players rush for 100 yards in a game twice this season. Against Oklahoma, Johnathan Gray had 123 and Malcolm Brown had 120, and against Texas Tech Brown posted 128 and Joe Bergeron had 102. It's just the fourth time in school history that Texas has achieved the feat multiple times in one season, and just the second time it's been achieved with three or more different players. The Longhorns had two 100-yard rushers in three games in 2004 (Cedric Benson and Vince Young on each occasion), two games in 1996 (Ricky Williams and Shon Mitchell both times), and four games in 1970 (Eddie Phillips and Billy Dale once, Steve Worster and Jim Bertelsen three times). Overall, Texas has had two 100-yard rushers in a game 32 times in school history.

HORNS HONOR THEIR SENIOR CLASS: A group of 20 seniors took the field at home for the final time in the Texas Tech game. This class will make its third-straight bowl appearance at the end of the season and is in the running for its first Big 12 title. Thirteen members of the class have combined to play in 546 games and start 275 times. That group includes CB Carrington Byndom (49 games/37 starts), WR Mike Davis (47 games/36 starts), PK/P Anthony Fera (17 games), OT Donald Hawkins (23 games/22 starts), OG Trey Hopkins (48 games/39 games), DE Jackson Jeffcoat (38 games/31 starts), QB Case McCoy (32 games/14 starts), H Cade McCrary (49 games), S Adrian Phillips (48 games/26 starts), OG/C Garrett Porter (49 games), OG Mason Walters (50 games /49 starts), DT Chris Whaley (47 games/19 starts) and Reggie Wilson (49 games/two starts). WR Lane Fife, LB Shawn Izadi, DS Tom Newman, OL Drew Russo, PK Grant Sirgo, WR Michael Wheeler and WR Michael Zaring, all valuable reserves, also made their final appearance at home. In addition to the players, senior managers Michael Buro, Chad Butler, Blake Herring, Ian Madden, Sanjay Shah and Steven Zientek, as well as senior trainers Reagan Atkinson, Rebecca Burnett and Cole Gradeless, made their final appearance at home. All the seniors were recognized during pregame. Mack Brown-coached teams improved to 13-3 on Senior Day.

SUDDEN CHANGE: Overall, the Longhorns have been able to hold on to the ball and force turnovers which has led to them holding a 102-49 advantage in points off miscues. In addition to ranking 19th in the FBS in turnover margins (+0.73 per game), Texas has gained 26 turnovers this season, which is tied for the 18th-best total in the nation. The Horns, who have induced at least one turnover in 26 of the last 27 games, forced three turnovers vs. TCU and all led to scores. The Horns only forced one turnover vs. Kansas, though it led directly to a score as Chris Whaley picked up a fumble and raced 40 yards for a touchdown. Texas had its streak of six straight turnovers without allowing points snapped vs. Oklahoma State which scored touchdowns on two of three UT turnovers. Texas forced three Texas Tech turnovers and two led to touchdowns.

DEFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT: Under coordinator Greg Robinson, who was hired after the BYU game, the defense has shown marked improvement. Robinson is in his second stint with Texas, having served as defensive coordinator in 2004 when Texas ranked No. 18 nationally in points allowed (17.9 per game), No. 16 in rushing defense (107.4 ypg), and No. 23 in total defense (320.1 ypg). Over the last eight games, UT is allowing just 3.4 yards per rush after surrendering 6.0 in the first three. The defense has cut the opposing

MAKING A MOVE IN THE NCAA DEFENSIVE RANKINGS

Texas has made major strides defensively over the course of the season. The Longhorns have surrendered an average of 331.7 total yards over the last six games (Oklahoma - 263, TCU - 246, Kansas - 306; WVU - 399; OSU - 380; TTU - 396). That included holding the Sooners to a then season-low 130 yards on the ground, and TCU to its second-lowest rushing output with just 45 yards (the Horned Frogs had 44 at Oklahoma) and Texas Tech to 128 yards below its season average (523.9 ypg) entering the game. Texas' improved performance has caused it to make a move up in several key defensive rankings. Since Oct. 5, Texas has moved up 54 spots in the national total defense rankings, 40 places in rushing defense, 27 in pass efficiency defense and 24 in scoring defense.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL: Texas has been one of the best teams in the nation in sacks by and against this year. UT has 35 sacks on the year while they have surrendered just 13. The plus-22 differential ranks tied for sixth in the FBS and third among BCS teams. In eight Big 12 games, UT has 33.0 sacks and surrendered just 8.0. The plus-25 sack differential is the best in the Big 12. Baylor is second at plus-13. In the last three games, UT has a plus-12 sack differential (15 to 3).

POST-OU SUCCESS: Regardless of the outcome of the AT&T Red River Rivalry, Texas has had great success in the second half of the year during Mack Brown's tenure. Since 1998, the Horns are 76-19 (.800) in regular season games following the OU game. In the Brown era, UT is 7-0 the week after beating OU and has won 22 of its last 26 games, including 18 of 21, after downing OU. Overall in the Brown era, the Horns are 39-9 (.813) in games after beating the Sooners. UT has won at least four consecutive games following the Red River Rivalry in 11 of the last 15 seasons. That had only been done four times in 25 seasons prior to 1999. Six times in Brown's previous 15 years, Texas has won all of its regular season games after the Oklahoma game. In addition, since 2004, including Big 12 Championship games in 2005 and '09 and a 7-1 record in bowl games, Texas is 54-18 (.750) post-OU with two of those losses coming after Colt McCoy was injured in 2006.

STREAKS, TRENDS AND MILESTONES:

- UT has won six of its last seven Big 12 road games, including two of three against ranked teams.
- Texas improved to 7-1 in Big 12 play with the 41-16 win over Texas Tech, marking the Horns' best league record this late in the season since going 8-0 in 2009. It is the eighth time under Mack Brown that UT has had a 7-1 or better league record.
- Texas has scored 30 or more points in seven of the last eight games (exception: 13 vs. Oklahoma State). The streak of six straight games with 30 or more points prior to the OSU game had been Texas' longest since 2009 (also six games - Oct. 24 through Nov. 26).
- The Longhorns' six-game winning streak was snapped in the Oklahoma State loss which was the longest since capturing 17 in a row from 2008-09. It was also tied for the fifth-longest current winning streak among BCS teams.
- Texas has outrushed five of its last six opponents (exception - Oklahoma State, 151 to 183) and won the battle for time of possession in five of the last six games (exception - Kansas, -1:08). During that span, the Horns have possessed the ball on average 5:10 more than the opponent.

- The Horns became bowl eligible for the 15th time in Mack Brown's 16 seasons with the win over Kansas.
- PK/P Anthony Fera has connected on his last 15 field-goal attempts, a streak which ranks No. 4 in the nation and tied for first in school history. Phil Dawson also hit a UT record 15 straight field goals in 1996-97. Jeff Ward had 13 in a row during the 1985 season. Fera's current field goal percentage of .950 (19 of 20) also ranks first in school history.
- The offensive line has recently done a tremendous job of keeping QB Case McCoy upright. The Horns entered the Kansas game having not allowed a sack in 61 pass attempts (last nine quarters). The streak was snapped at 84 when McCoy was sacked on what would have been his 24th pass attempt of the game. Texas is tied for first in the Big 12 by allowing just one sack per game in league play (also Oklahoma State). The Horns allowed one vs. the Red Raiders and have surrendered four in the last 205 pass attempts.
- Case McCoy ranks 10th on the UT career passing yards chart (3,587). McCoy moved from 11th to 10th with 221 passing yards vs. Oklahoma State, eclipsing Garrett Gilbert (3,301/2009-11). McCoy needs 187 to reach Shea Morenz (3,774/1993-94) in ninth.
- Mike Davis moved up in a pair of career statistical categories in the last two games. The senior posted nine receptions for 112 yards vs. Oklahoma State to move from fifth to fourth on UT career receiving yards list, passing Quan Cosby (2,598/2005-08). After another 112 yards vs. Texas Tech, Davis now has 195 career receptions for 2,727 career yards. He also registered his 10th career 100-yard receiving game against Texas Tech which ranks tied for second in school history with Jordan Shipley (2006-09).
- Jaxon Shipley had six catches for 43 yards vs. Oklahoma State. He moved from eighth to seventh on the UT career receptions list, passing B.J. Johnson (152/2000-03). With 1,914 career receiving yards, Shipley ended the game one yard shy of eighth place on the Texas career receiving yards chart - Limas Sweed (1,915/2004-07).
- Shipley caught a pass in each of his first 33 career games, a streak that was snapped vs. Texas Tech. In the West Virginia game, he surpassed his brother, Jordan (31/2007-08), for third longest in school history. Shipley has posted at least five receptions in 13 of the last 16 games (three vs. Iowa State, 2013; one vs. TCU, 2013).

LW: Last week's ranking

- DE Jackson Jeffcoat posted three tackles for loss vs. Texas Tech. He moved into a tie for third on the UT career list with Cory Redding (1999-2002). Jeffcoat is averaging 0.64 sacks in his 38 career games which ranks No. 5 on the FBS active list. His 24.5 career sacks rank fifth on the FBS active list (see charts on page 19).

- OG Mason Walters leads the team with 49 straight starts, which is tied for the second-longest streak in the nation among offensive linemen (50, Gabe Jackson, OG, Mississippi St.). CB Carrington Byndom leads the defense with 37 consecutive starts. C Dominic Espinosa is second on the offense with 37 straight starts. DE Cedric Reed is second on defense (17).

BIG PLAY TOUCHDOWNS: Texas has scored 12 touchdowns this season on plays of 45 yards or longer and those have been spread among eight players (also David Ash – 55-yard run vs. New Mexico State; Malcolm Brown – 74-yard TD reception vs. NMSU; Mike Davis – 57-yard TD catch vs. BYU, 49-yard TD reception vs. West Virginia, 47-yard TD catch vs. Texas Tech; Johnathan Gray – 45-yard TD run vs. Iowa State; John Harris – 54-yard TD reception vs. NMSU, Daje Johnson – 66-yard TD catch vs. NMSU, 85-yard punt return for TD vs. Oklahoma; Marcus Johnson – 59-yard TD catch vs. Oklahoma, 65-yard TD reception vs. TCU; Kendall Sanders 63-yard TD catch vs. K-State).

INJURY BUG: The injury bug has hit some of the Longhorns' most important players this season. In the regular season finale at Baylor, Texas will play without at least five starters who have suffered season-ending injuries: QB David Ash (head), LB Steve Edmond (lacerated liver), LB Jordan Hicks (Achilles), RB Johnathan Gray (Achilles) and DT Chris Whaley (knee). In addition to those five that have been ruled out, RT Josh Cochran has missed seven of the last eight games with a shoulder injury (played sparingly vs. Texas Tech as a reserve blocking tight end).

- Ash averaged 304.0 yards of total offense in the three games he played, throwing for seven TDs and running for another.

- Edmond has a team-high 73 tackles, five pass breakups and two interceptions. He had started 10 of the first 11 games.

- Hicks was the leading tackler at the time of his injury, with 41 tackles in four games.

- Gray, despite playing in just nine games, still leads the team in rushing with 780 yards. His 86.7 yards per game ranked third in the Big 12 at the time of his injury.
- Whaley started the first nine games and became the first defensive lineman in school history to score two TDs in a season. The Longhorns played without four offensive starters vs. Kansas State and three starters (two offense and one defense) vs. Iowa State, Oklahoma, TCU, Kansas and West Virginia, and five vs. Oklahoma State and Texas Tech. In addition, WR/RB Daje Johnson (ankle) missed nearly all of the BYU game and each of the next two contests, but returned vs. ISU. TE Greg Daniels (foot) was injured against Ole Miss and missed the K-State contest. Two reserves are also out for the season. CB Sheroid Evans tore an ACL in the Iowa State game and LB Tevin Jackson did the same vs. Kansas. Gray (Achilles) and Whaley (knee) suffered season-ending injuries vs. West Virginia.

FIRST NATIONAL TITLE RECOGNIZED: Throughout the 2013 season, the Longhorns have recognized the 1963 National Championship team which went a perfect 11-0 under head coach Darrell K Royal. The Horns ascended to No. 1 in the polls after knocking off top-ranked Oklahoma, 28-7, in their annual showdown on Oct. 12. UT went on to down No. 2 Navy, 28-6, in the Cotton Bowl. Several former players were present during a ceremony during the first quarter of the New Mexico State game. In addition, player numbers were placed above the Longhorn on the game helmets, as they were during the 1963 season. Following the New Mexico State game, the players

16TH YEAR UNDER MACK BROWN:

Mack Brown, who is in his 16th season at Texas, is just the fourth coach in the 121 years of Texas football to lead the team for at least a decade and just the second coach to win 100 games while at the school. Darrell Royal, who won 167 games (1957-76), has the longest tenure at 20 years. Brown is the first coach in UT history to post more than 200 victories during a career (158 at Texas). Brown moved ahead of Fred Akers, who posted 86 wins from 1977-86, during the 2006 season.

BROWN ON NATIONAL SCENE: With a 158-46 (.775) record at UT, Mack Brown has led Texas to the nation's fourth-most victories over the last 16 years. In addition, Brown has guided the Horns to a 131-35 (.789) mark over the last 11-plus seasons, which is the nation's third-best winning percentage over that time span, and includes six 11-win seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '08 and '09). The 11-win seasons are fourth-best to UT's 13-win campaigns in 2005 and '09, and its 12-win season in '08.

BROWN AMONG TOP 10 IN ALL-TIME VICTORIES: With a victory against Texas A&M in 2008, Mack Brown became the first head coach in UT history to reach the 200-victory plateau during a career, and he currently has a career record of 244-120-1 (.670). In 2012, Brown moved from 14th to 11th on the NCAA all-time victories list, passing Bo Schembechler, Hayden Fry and Jim Tressel. In this season's win vs. Iowa State (10/3), Brown passed Woody Hayes for 10th. Brown became just the 19th coach who has spent at least 10 years at a NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) school, to win 200 games and the seventh-youngest coach to do so. He also is one of only four active coaches who have reached the 200-victory mark while spending at least 10 years at an FBS school. In addition, Brown is one of only seven active coaches at FBS schools who have won 100 games at their current school (158-46/.775). Of the coaches who have won 100 games at the same FBS school, Brown is the 12th-fastest to reach the century mark (124 games) and the fourth-quickest among active coaches.

NO. 2 ALL-TIME: In 2008, Texas moved ahead of Notre Dame for second place on the NCAA all-time victory list. At 875 victories, Texas trails only Michigan (910) in all-time wins. With the Longhorns in second place on that list, it marked the first time since 1932 that Michigan and Notre Dame did not occupy the one-two spots in all-time wins. Since Mack Brown arrived in 1998, Texas has posted a 158-46 (.775)

10-WIN SEASONS: Texas is one of just two teams in college football history to win at least 10 games in nine straight seasons (2001-09). The Horns' streak trailed only Florida State's streak of 14 consecutive seasons in NCAA history. In addition, Texas posted 12-win seasons in back-to-back years for the first time in school history. Prior to Brown's arrival, the Horns had never before posted consecutive 11-win campaigns let alone consecutive 12-win seasons. Brown has led the Horns to six seasons with 11 or more wins. That compares to the four 11-win seasons (1963, '69, '77 and '83) in Texas history before Brown's arrival.

NCAA • Consecutive 10-Win Seasons

1. Florida State	14 (1987-2000)

MACK BROWN SUCCESS: Under Brown, the Horns have posted Top 10 finishes seven times in the last 10 years (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09). Prior to his arrival, the last time UT finished in the Top 10 was 1983. In addition, Texas played in a bowl game for a school-record 12 consecutive seasons from 1998-2009, bettering the previous streak of nine straight from 1977-85. Brown's personal strings, including time at North Carolina, go back even further. He has posted winning seasons in 22 out of the last 23 years and taken his teams to 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons. His 22 winning seasons in the last 23 years are the most in the nation over that span, and his 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons are tied for the in the nation with Frank Beamer over that stretch.

STRING OF SUCCESS: Texas has finished the year ranked among the nation's top 15 in 10 of the last 13 seasons, which includes a string of 10 straight, a Longhorn record. In addition, UT has finished in the top 10 in seven of the last 12 seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09) and in the top Five in four of the last nine ('04, '05, '08 and '09). You have to go back to Darrell Royal's string of success in the late 1960s, when the Horns finished among the top five in four out of five years (1968-72), to equal that consistency in UT history.

BOWL SUCCESS: Texas has played in a bowl game 14 times in Mack Brown's 15 completed years. That stretch included a UT-record stretch of 12 straight from 1998-2009, which bettered the previous mark of nine consecutive from 1977-85. The Horns have won nine of their last 11 bowls and have a 10-4 record under Brown. In the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to eight bowls and was 2-6. Brown is the first UT coach since Darrell Royal, who was 8-7-1 in bowl games, to post a .500 or better bowl record. With a 24-21 victory over No. 10 Ohio State in the 2009 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Texas won bowl games in five consecutive years for the first time in school history (2004-08). The Horns did win five straight previously (1963-64, '66, '68-69), but the streak was interrupted by seasons that did not result in a bowl. Brown's personal string, including time at North Carolina, goes back even further. He

UT'S BIG 12 SUCCESS AT HOME:

Texas is 46-12 (.793) at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field vs. league opponents during the Mack Brown era. The 46 home victories are the second-most by any team in the league over the last 15 years. In addition, the Horns set the league record with a 26-game home winning streak over Big 12 opponents, which was snapped in 2006. Prior to 2006, the last time UT had lost a home game against a league foe was 1999 (35-17 to No. 13 KSU).

BIG 12 ROAD SUCCESS: Texas has won 41 of its last 49 (.837) true Big 12 road games (excluding neutral-site games), including a league-record 13 consecutive conference road wins from 2002-06. The Horns are 45-10 (.818) in league road contests under Mack Brown. Highlighting the Horns' road record under Brown are victories at Nebraska (1998) to end the Huskers' nation-best 47-game home winning streak, another win that snapped a Nebraska 26-game home winning streak (2002), and a victory to break Oklahoma State's 10-game winning streak (2003).

CONFERENCE COMPETITION: Mack Brown, who has guided the Horns to the 2005 and 2009 Big 12 Championships and has won or shared the Big 12 South Division title six times, is 98-32 (.754) in the last 15-plus seasons of Big 12 play. That is the second-best league record over that span behind Oklahoma (100-29/.775) and betters Kansas State (75-55) and Texas Tech (67-61). At 106-40 (.726) Texas is tied with Oklahoma for the best intraconference record since the Big 12 formed in 1996.

BIG 12 WINNING STREAKS: The Horns tied the school record by winning 21 straight conference games from 2004-06 before the streak was snapped at Kansas State in 2006. The record of 21 straight conference victories was set from 1968-71 when Texas was competing in the Southwest Conference. The 21 straight Big 12 victories also marked the longest streak in league history. Texas also has the second-longest home winning streak in Big 12 history with 26 straight victories from 1999-2006 and the longest road winning streak in conference play with 13 straight wins from 2002-06.

"FAN"-TASTIC: Texas home games have been among the best-attended in the nation over the past 10 years. The Horns, who have played in front of a sellout crowd in 74 of their last 84 home games, have attracted the top 40 crowds, and 58 of the top 59, in UT history since Mack Brown took over in 1998. In addition, the top 31 home crowds at Texas have come since '08. Texas' school-record season-ticket sales of 84,071 in 2010 are more than double the 39,743 sold in 1997, the UT record when Brown arrived. Texas set the single-game attendance record against West Virginia in 2012 with a crowd of 101,851 and have drawn 100,000 or more 24 times in school history. The West Virginia game had the largest crowd to see a college sporting event in the Southwest. The single-season record for home attendance is 704,580 set in 2010.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMERS

UNDER BROWN: Colt McCoy is one of just five QBs in NCAA history to post four seasons with at least 2,500 yards passing. Cedric Benson became the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for over 1,000 yards in four straight seasons and finished his career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time rushing list (5,540 yards). Vince Young became the first player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards and pass for 3,000 yards in one season.

JAMAIL FIELD STREAKS: The Horns have posted three of the six-longest home winning streaks in school history during the Mack Brown era. The Horns won 20 in a row at home from 1999-2003 (third-longest in school history). Then, from 2003-06, Texas won 16 straight home games, which is tied for the fourth-best string. UT had another 16-game string from 2007-10. The longest streak in school history is a 42-game stretch from 1968-76. Texas' 26-game home intraconference winning streak from 1999-2006 is the second-longest in Big 12 history.

DRAWING FANS ON THE ROAD:

UT has attracted record crowds in 13 of its road games over the past eight seasons: at Oklahoma State (58,516, 2009), vs. Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl (96,009, 2009-11 and 92,182, 2008), at Texas Tech (60,879, 2012; 60,454, 2010; 56,333, 2008 and 56,158, 2006), at UTEP (53,415, 2008), at Texas A&M (88,253, 2007) and at Nebraska (85,187, 2006). The attendance at the Ole Miss game (9/15/12) was 61,797, the fourth largest in school history and most since a school-record 62,657 fans at the 2009 Alabama game. It was also the largest crowd ever for a non-conference game in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The Horns were part of another record vs. Texas Tech. The Red Raiders had Jones AT&T Stadium-record crowd of 60,879 on Nov. 3. The attendance of 48,212 vs. TCU in 2013 marked the second-largest home crowd in school history.

ROAD WARRIORS: Texas is 78-29 (.729) away from home (road and neutral sites) over the last 16 years compared to a 53-46-2 (.535) record in the 16 years prior to Mack Brown's arrival in 1998. The Horns' 75-26 (.743) mark in road and neutral-site games since 1999 is the nation's second-best record over that span. Texas is 59-14 (.808) on the road (excluding neutral-site games) and 50-8 (.862) vs. unranked road foes during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Brown's arrival, UT posted just six winning road records in the 15 seasons leading up to 1998. During that time, UT was just 38-35 (.521) in true road games. The Longhorns have won 54 of their last 61 true road games (.885). UT had its school record streak of 13 consecutive nonconference road wins snapped with the loss at BYU (9/7).

TOP 25 TEXAS: Under Mack Brown, Texas has been one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 years with the other being Virginia Tech. It is one of only three schools to do so in the Associated Press poll, with the third being Georgia, and is also one of only three to do so in the coaches poll, including Florida.

AP TOP 25 FINISHES: UT has finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 completed years in Austin, making the Horns one of three teams to accomplish that with Virginia Tech and Georgia. The run also includes a string of 12 straight, marking the first time in school history Texas had finished in the AP Top 25 for 12 straight years, bettering the previous record of eight straight (1968-75). Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

COACHES POLL FINISHES: Texas has been ranked in the first and last coaches poll in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 seasons in Austin. The Longhorns are one of only three teams in the nation to finish in the Top 25 in 13 of the last 15 years, including Virginia Tech and Florida. Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the coaches' Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

UT AND THE AP TOP 10: As a result of its loss at Kansas State in 2006, Texas had its string of 46 straight weeks in the AP Top 10 snapped. Prior to that, the last time the Horns were not among the AP Top 10 was in the final poll of the 2003 season. The 46 straight weeks was the longest for the Horns in the Mack Brown era. In Brown's 16 years in Austin, UT is 38-31 (.551) vs. Top 25 opponents. That compares to a 28-37-3 (.434) mark in the 16 years before Brown arrived. In fact, the Longhorns have posted a winning record against ranked opponents in nine of the last 12 seasons as compared to only five times in the 16 years prior to Brown's arrival.

BROWN'S TOP 10 HORNS: Mack Brown revived the Horns as a Top 10 regular beginning with a No. 5 preseason ranking in 2001. Since then, the Horns have earned a Top 10 standing in 125 of the last 187 AP polls. All totaled, UT has spent 132 weeks ranked among the AP Top 10, and 137 weeks ranked in the Coaches Top 10 since Brown arrived in 1998. That Coaches poll streak resumed in the Oct. 2, 2011 poll when the Longhorns returned with a No. 10 ranking and they spent three weeks in the top 10 in 2012. In the previous 15-year stretch prior to his arrival, UT spent just 38 weeks rated among the Top 10. Brown has led the Horns to a final Top 10 ranking in seven of the last 12 seasons. In 2008, Brown led Texas to its first regular-season No. 1 ranking since 1984. In 2005, he led UT to its first No. 1 ranking to end the season since 1969. Before Brown took over the program, the last time UT earned a Top 10 finish was 1983. From the start of the 1984 season to Brown's arrival in 1998, UT was in the Top 10 just 28 times in 14 seasons.

TACKLING THE TOP 25: Texas is 29-21 (.580) in its last 50 games vs. Top 25 opponents. Nine of those losses have come to Top 10 teams. That's a continuation of the success the Longhorns have had against ranked foes during the Mack Brown era. In Brown's 16 years in Austin, UT is 38-31 (.551) vs. Top 25 opponents. That compares to a 28-37-3 (.434) mark in the 16 years before Brown arrived. In fact, the Longhorns have posted a winning record against ranked opponents in nine of the last 12 seasons as compared to only five times in the 16 years prior to Brown's arrival.

TEN STRAIGHT TOP 15 FINISHES: Texas' No. 2 ranking in 2009 marked the 10th straight year the Horns finished ranked among the nation's Top 15. That is the first time UT had ever accomplished that feat. The 2009 standing followed a No. 3 ranking in 2008, a No. 10 ranking in 2007, a No. 13 ranking in 2006, a No. 1 ranking in 2005, a No. 5 ranking in 2004, a No. 12 ranking in 2003, a No. 6 ranking in 2002, a No. 5 ranking in 2001 and a No. 12 ranking in 2000.

UT IN THE AP TOP 25 POLL: Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 19 in the Associated Press Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as No. 11 in the AP Top 25 both last season and in 2011. Texas returned to the poll in 2011 after its nation-leading and UT-record streak of 162 straight weeks in the poll was snapped following the loss to Oklahoma in 2010. The streak bettered a 114-week stretch from 1968-76. It was the sixth-longest streak in the history of the poll. Prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and the longest streak in the Mack Brown era.

UT IN THE COACHES POLL: Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 18th in the

DID YOU KNOW?

There were 18 different Longhorns who scored touchdowns in 2012. That mark was tied for third most in the FBS led by Joe Bergeron's team-high 16. In all, 22 players scored in 2012. So far this season, 15 Longhorns have scored TDs.

Coaches Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as ninth during the season, which gave them 137 weeks total in the Top 10 during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Texas' loss to Oklahoma in 2010, UT had been ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 straight weeks was the longest UT streak in any poll and the nation's longest active streak in the poll at that time. The Horns' previous longest streak in the coaches poll was 54 weeks from 1977-80.

HORNS' FINISHING TOUCH: One of the mantras of the program under Mack Brown is "finish," which the Horns have done since Brown arrived. Over Brown's 16-year tenure, UT has gone 31-8 (.795) in games decided by four points or less and 22-5 (.815) in games decided by three points or less. The Longhorns have won 19 of their last 21 (.905) games decided by three points or less. The only losses came in shootouts against West Virginia in 2012, 48-45, and at Kansas State in 2006, 45-42, when Colt McCoy was sidelined by injury after the opening drive. The success under Brown is an improvement from the 15 years prior to his arrival when UT went 20-16-3 (.513) in games decided by four points or less and 17-12-3 (.531) in games decided by three points or less. The 45 points scored versus West Virginia were the most ever by a Texas team in a loss. The previous record was the 42 vs. Kansas State in 2006.

LEADING THE BIG 12 ON DEFENSE

LEADING THE BIG 12: Texas led the Big 12 in total defense and rushing defense in 2011. The Longhorns led the conference in total defense for four straight years (2008-11) and seven times in conference history. UT has led the league in rushing defense in five of the last seven years and seven times since 1996. Texas has led the conference in pass efficiency defense in 2000, 2005 and 2011 and in scoring defense for the 2001, 2005 and 2008 seasons.

OFFENSIVE OUTBURST VS. NEW MEXICO STATE:

- The Longhorns set a school record with 715 yards of total offense vs. the Aggies in the season opener, eclipsing the mark of 692 set in 1998 vs. Rice (list on pg. 8).
- Texas posted more than 300 rushing (359) and 300 passing yards (356) for the fourth time in school history. The most recent 300-yard rushing and 300-yard passing effort was at Ole Miss on Sept. 15, 2012.
- David Ash had 343 passing yards and 91 rushing yards, marking only the second time in UT history that a player passed for 300-plus yards and rushed for 90 or more in the same game. Colt McCoy had 304 passing yards and 175 rushing vs. Texas A&M in 2009.

- With a 74-yard touchdown pass and a 55-yard TD run, Ash became the first player in UT history to post a run and pass of 50-plus yards in the same game.

• Ash's 55-yard TD run is tied for 10th longest rush by a QB in UT history.

- With 109 receiving yards, Malcolm Brown became the fourth running back in UT history to have 100-plus receiving yards. In addition, his 74-yd TD catch was the third-longest by a running back in UT history and the longest since Victor Ike's 80-yarder vs. NC State in 1999.

- RB Jalen Overstreet's 92 rushing yards were the fourth-most by a freshman during his debut in school history. Jamaal Charles had a school-record 135 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette in 2005.

QUICK STRIKE: The Texas offense showed its quick strike ability midway through the New Mexico State game. After the Aggies took a 7-0 lead with 2:28 to go in the second quarter, the Longhorns scored the next 35 points in a span of 8:37. The Longhorns managed to gain just 136 yards on their first 27 plays of the game, but then posted 342 yards in their next 15 plays, scoring five touchdowns. The Horns averaged 54.6 yards per play on those touchdowns. It had been nearly 10 years since Texas scored that many offensive touchdowns in just 15 plays. The last time it happened was at Rice on Sept. 20, 2003, when UT scored five TDs in the second quarter, all in a span of just 14 plays.

- John Harris 54-yard TD pass from David Ash

- Daje Johnson 66-yard TD pass from Ash
- Johnson 24-yard TD run
- Ash 55-yard TD run
- Malcolm Brown 74-yard pass from Ash

GOING DEEP: The Longhorns scored four touchdowns of 50 yards or longer in the New Mexico State game, a first in school history. Texas had 10 offensive plays of 50 or more yards last season and has eight after seven games this season. Texas had six other games in its history with three scores of 50 yards or longer, including three times with offensive scores:

- 1973 vs. Arkansas: (2 offense/1 special teams) - 73-yard punt return by Jim Moore; 59-yard run by Roosevelt Leaks; 85-yard run by Raymond Clayborn.
- 1985 vs. Stanford: (3 on offense) - 74-yard run by Bret Stafford; Ward Pitts 55-yard pass from Todd Dodge; 62-yard run by Darron Norris.
- 1987 against Rice: (3 on offense) - 58 yard run by Darron Norris, 57-yard run by Samuels, 59-yard run by Eric Metcalf.
- 1999 vs. Stanford: 3 (all offense) - Montrell Flowers 54-yard pass from Major Applewhite; Kwame Cavil 78-yard pass from Applewhite; 68-yard run by Chris Robertson.
- 2003 vs. New Mexico State: (1 offense/1 defense/1 special teams) - 97-yard kickoff

STRONG EFFORT SNAPS STREAK VS. OKLAHOMA:

Texas snapped its three-game losing streak to No. 12/10 Oklahoma on Oct. 12 with a thrilling 36-20 victory in the annual AT&T Red River Rivalry at the Cotton Bowl. Four different players scored touchdowns and QB Case McCoy, a senior playing in his last game against OU, engineered six scoring drives, Johnathan Gray (123) and Malcolm Brown (123) each topped 100 rushing yards, and the Longhorns scored a pair of non-offensive touchdowns. UT totaled 445 yards of offense, including 255 on the ground, and held on to the ball for 35:15, while limiting Oklahoma to 263 total yards, its lowest output in the series since 2005.

SCORING OFFENSE LAST 13 YEARS:

Since 2000, Texas is averaging 36.31 points per game to rank seventh nationally during that time frame. Since the 2002 season Texas has scored 811 touchdowns which is fifth most in the NCAA. Boise State leads the way with 962 touchdowns scored during that period.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION: In the first 15 seasons under Mack Brown, UT's offense produced 12 of the top 13 passing seasons, 13 of the top 15 total yardage campaigns, and the top 10 scoring years in school history. The Horns have also averaged at least 200 yards both rushing and passing in four of the 15 completed seasons. During his tenure, the Horns have registered forty-four 50-point games and five of the top seven total offense games in UT history.

SCORING SPREE: In the last four-plus seasons, the Longhorns have scored 50 or more points in eight games, including this year's opening game 56 against New Mexico State, as well as 66 against Ole Miss and 56 against Baylor in 2012. Texas averaged 39.0 points per game in the previous decade (2000-09), which ranked third nationally and second among BCS conference schools. The Horns averaged at least 35 ppg in nine of the 10 seasons, including three seasons of at least 40 ppg. In 2005, UT set a then-NCAA record with 652 total points and a school record by averaging 50.2 ppg.

MORE OFFENSE: In addition, UT has produced 500-yard total offense performances 54 times under Brown (there are only 77 of them in the 120-plus years of Texas football) and has recorded 13 of 23 games of 600-plus total offense yards. The Horns' balanced attack has produced at least 400 yards of offense in 102 of its last 162 games (63.0%) and has registered 200 yards both passing and rushing 45 times. Texas has scored at least 25 points in 88 of its last 119 games (73.9%). That includes a streak of at least 28 points in a UT-best 19 consecutive games from 2007-08, bettering the previous mark of 12 (2005-06). Texas also posted an 11-game streak from 2000-01. Prior to Brown's arrival, the longest streak of scoring at least 28 points was seven games.

400 RUSHING YARDS: Since 1980, UT has six games in which it has rushed for 400 or more yards, with five of those under Mack Brown. Two came in back-to-back in 2011 games with 439 yards against Texas Tech and 441 vs. Kansas.

500 YARDS OF OFFENSE: There have been 54 games of 500 or more yards during Mack Brown's tenure. Texas recorded over 500 yards four times in 2011 with a season-high 595 yards of total offense against Texas Tech and 590 yards against Kansas. The Longhorns notched three 500-plus yard games in 2012, including 676 against Ole Miss (No. 3 in school history) and 609 yards against Iowa State, which is tied for the 16th-most offensive yards on UT record.

SCORING DEFENSE: Texas' defense has been a scoring machine since 1999. During that time, the defense has accounted for 333 points and scored in 47-of-191 games (24.6%). UT's defense scored their first defensive points of the 2013 season against Oklahoma on Chris Whaley's 31-yard interception. Whaley scored again against Kansas, this time on a 40-yard fumble return, which is the fifth-longest fumble return in school history. In 2012, the Texas defense notched its first defensive points of the season with a Steve Edmond's 22-yard interception return for a touchdown against Ole Miss. In the West Virginia game, Alex Okafor caused QB Geno Smith to fumble on the 1-yard line, and Jackson Jeffcoat recovered the ball in the end zone, to tie the game 21-all in the second quarter. Against Oklahoma, Quandre Diggs returned a blocked PAT for two points and Carrington Byndom intercepted a Landry Jones pass for a 28-yard return. The defense accounted for one touchdown on an interception return and three safeties in 2011 for 12 total points. The three safeties came in a span of four games as UT posted two points against Oklahoma State, Kansas and Missouri. UT posted four TDs and a safety in 2009 for 30 points. The Horns' defense has scored at least three TDs in 11 of the last 14 seasons, led by seven TDs scored in 2000. That defense tallied 46 points, which is the most over the 14-year stretch. The 2003 unit scored six TDs, while the 2006 unit scored five TDs.

STINGY SCORING D: During the last five seasons at Texas, the Longhorn defense has held 58-of-74 opponents (78.4%) under their season scoring averages. The Longhorns have limited 28 teams to 14 points or less in the last four-plus years. The Longhorns held Iowa State to seven points in 2012, 17 points lower than the Cyclone's scoring average entering the game. The Horns held teams to 14 points or less in three games in 2011 on the way to leading the conference in scoring defense. That matched the total from 2010 of three opponents scoring 14 points or less. In 2009, the Horns held 12-of-14 opponents under their scoring averages and didn't allow an offensive TD in four of 14 games. Texas also led the Big 12 in scoring defense in 2008 allowing just 18.8 points per game.

GROUND PATROL: Mack Brown and his staff inherited a ground defense that had ranked no better than 64th nationally in the five seasons prior to their arrival. During Brown's first 16 seasons, they have turned that around. The Horns have limited 75 of their last 162 opponents (46.3%) to fewer than 100 yards rushing and allowed just 49 individual 100-yard rushers in the last 189 games (25.9%). The Horns have been ranked in the top six in rush defense in five of the last seven seasons, including a No. 1 national ranking in 2009 (72.4 ypg). During the span of 2007-2011 (78 games), UT held opponents to just 90.0 yards per game (7,022 yards on 2,291 carries) and just 3.1 yards per carry. In addition, at home over the last seven-plus seasons (55 games), Texas has only allowed 24 teams to break the 100-yard plateau and has only allowed 12 individual 100-yard rushers. In true road games over the last six-plus seasons (34 games), Texas has allowed only 23 teams to reach 100 yards rushing and just 12 individual 100-yard rushers. Texas has held its opponents under 50 yards rushing 47 times during the Mack Brown era.

SHORT DRIVES: The Texas defense has prevented its opponents from moving the chains on 35.9 percent of their drives over the last 12 years (162 games). During that time, UT forced 786 three-and-outs or better in 2,185 possessions. In 2011, that number stood at 67-of-175 (.383), which included 8-of-11 against Kansas, 9-of-13 vs. Kansas State, 9-of-17 against Oklahoma St. and 7-of-18 at Texas A&M. In 2010, Texas posted 41.2 percent (63-of-153) and was one of only five teams nationally to average at least five three-and-outs per game (5.25). Last season, Texas forced three-and-outs on 50 percent of an opponent's drives two times -- against Kansas and against TCU. In their attempt to mount a Thanksgiving comeback, the Longhorns' defense forced three-and-outs on all of TCU's fourth quarter drives prior to the last one in which TCU ran out the clock.

PRESSURE AT A PREMIUM: Texas is third in the nation in sacks with 547 since 1999, trailing only USC (559) and Virginia Tech (552). Since 2008, the pressure statistics have continued to increase. During that span, Texas' 586.5 TFL and 217 sacks both rank first nationally. In 2012, Texas posted 35 sacks and 99.5 tackles for loss in 13 games, capped by a 10-sack performance in the Alamo Bowl. The 99.5 TFLs ranked sixth nationally and first in the Big 12. In 2011, the Longhorns had 29 sacks and 116 tackles for loss in 13 games. Texas amassed 31 sacks and 93 TFL in 2010.

EARLY DEFENSIVE PRESSURE: In two of the last five games, UT received a big defensive play in the opening quarter. With the score tied 3-all vs. Oklahoma (10/12), DT Chris Whaley dropped back on a zone blitz on a third-and-4 play and intercepted quarterback Blake Bell, then raced down field for a 31-yard touchdown. Against TCU (10/26), Quandre Diggs set the tone when he strip-sacked QB Trevone Boykin on the Horned Frogs' second possession of the game. Adrian Phillips recovered the fumble at the TCU 3 and one play later, Malcolm Brown ran it in to give the Longhorns a 7-0 lead.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Texas' defense has forced 431 turnovers during the Mack Brown era (204 games/2.113 per game), while only giving up 355 turnovers for a plus-76 turnover margin. Overall, the Horns

DID YOU KNOW?

From 1978-2000 the Longhorns did not register a kickoff return for a TD, but they have posted at least a kickoff or punt return for a score in 11 of the last 13 seasons. There have been nine kickoff returns for touchdowns since 2000.

have averaged nearly a plus-five turnover margin per season during Brown's tenure.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE:

When Texas holds onto the ball and forces turnovers it generally wins. The Longhorns, who ranked tied for 39th in the FBS in 2012 in turnover margin (+0.38 per game) and are ranked 19th this year (+0.7 pg), are 96-6 during Mack Brown's 16-year tenure when winning the turnover battle. With its 40-21 loss to BYU on Sept. 7, 2013, Texas lost its second game when winning the turnover battle since midway through the 2002 season. The other occurrence was last season vs. West Virginia. Turnovers were a key reason Texas had lost five straight to Kansas State since winning 31-21 on Sept. 21. The Wildcats held a plus-13 advantage in those five games. Texas is plus-seven in the turnover department this year. The Horns were even in turnovers (two each) vs. Oklahoma after being minus-9 in the previous three meetings (all losses).

NON-OFFENSIVE SCORES: Since 1999, UT has scored 87 TDs via returns, turnovers and blocked kicks. The 87 scores during that stretch rank second nationally. Kansas State has 91 in that stretch. Texas posted their first two non-offensive scores of the season vs. Oklahoma on a 31-yard interception return by Chris Whaley and an 85-yard punt return by Daje Johnson. The third came vs. Kansas on a 40-yard fumble recovery by Whaley. Texas had four non-offensive scores during the 2011 season with an interception return, a blocked punt return and two kickoff returns for touchdowns. They had four more last season (two interception returns for TDs, one fumble return and one kickoff return). There have been 17 kickoff returns for touchdowns in school history with 10 coming during the Mack Brown era.

RETURN GAME: Texas has improved its kick return game, as well as defending on kickoffs and punts since Mack Brown arrived. Since 1998, the Horns have produced 12 of UT's 27 all-time punt returns for TDs and 10 of the 17 kickoff returns for scores. In contrast, UT has only given up five punt return TDs during the Mack Brown era. It had been 101 games (Kansas State, 1999) since Texas had given up a punt return for a TD before Kansas State returned one in 2007. During that time, Texas scored on four punt returns, while its opponents scored on seven. When Brown arrived in 1998, Texas hadn't returned a kickoff for a score since 1978. Then, in the 2000 Holiday Bowl, Victor Ike returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD, snapping the 265-game streak. That return was the first of eight under Mack Brown. Fozzy Whittaker matched a school record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Oklahoma and then in the next game had another 100-yard return for a TD vs. Oklahoma State. Last season, D.J. Monroe snapped Whitaker's UT record with the third of his career. He had a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD at Oklahoma State.

BLOCK THAT KICK: The Texas special teams have been just that since Mack Brown took over in 1998. Since then, Texas has blocked 83 kicks (49 punts/18 FGs/16 PATs), an average of 5.5 per season (1998-12). That is 58 more than the 25 recorded in the 13-year span prior to Brown's arrival. UT has 72 blocked kicks since 2001 which is the most in the nation. Rutgers is second with 71. The Horns tied for third in the FBS in 2012 with seven blocked kicks and their three blocked punts led the Big 12. Texas blocked its first kick of the season (a PAT) vs. Ole Miss. Since Brown arrived, the Horns have had players set or equal UT records for career blocked kicks, single-season blocked kicks, career blocked punts and single-season blocked punts.

GROWING UP: Last season, Texas had just nine scholarship seniors on its roster which was the fewest in the Big 12 and tied for the fourth-lowest total in the FBS. While the Longhorns are a more veteran group in 2013, they still have a relatively small senior class squad. The Horns have 14 scholarship seniors on the roster which includes six offensive players, six defenders and two special teamers.

HOLDING ON TO THE BALL: Texas lost only five fumbles in 2012, a mark which ranked tied for sixth in the FBS. The Longhorns lost just two fumbles in the final seven games. Despite seven turnovers over the final two regular-season games, Texas still tied for 20th nationally in fewest turnovers committed (16). That mark was just two off the school record in that category (14 in 2008). The Longhorns have lost seven fumbles this season which is tied for 31st in the FBS.

LEADING THE COMEBACK: During the Mack Brown era, Texas has registered 31 second-half comebacks, including 20 in the fourth quarter. Senior quarterback Case McCoy has had a hand in leading the Longhorns to five of their past seven comebacks over the last three seasons (vs. BYU, 9/10/11; at Texas A&M, 11/24/11; at Kansas, 10/27/12; at Iowa State, 10/3/13; at West Virginia, 11/9/13). Most recently, McCoy led Texas back from two separate fourth quarter deficits at West Virginia to send the game into overtime, where UT won. The Longhorns trailed 33-30 before McCoy led UT 66 yards down the field on 11 plays, capped by a 10-yard TD to Jaxon Shipley to make it 37-33. Later, trailing 40-37, McCoy led Texas to a game-tying field goal with 13 seconds left. Then, in overtime, he went 2 of 2 for 16 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown pass to Alex De La Torre on third-and-goal that proved to be the game winner. Earlier this season, McCoy led UT on a 12 play, 75-yard touchdown drive for a 31-30 win at Iowa State. The Longhorns trailed 30-24 with 3:40 left in the game and McCoy went 3 of 4 for 24 yards on the game-winning drive, which he capped off with a 1-yard touchdown run. Last season at Kansas, Texas trailed twice in the fourth quarter, and McCoy came off the bench early in the fourth quarter to lead the Horns on two scoring drives, completing 6 of 8 passes for 109 yards. Texas tied the game at 14-all with 9:41 remaining on an 11-yard TD run by WR Marquise Goodwin, but the Jayhawks retook the lead with a field goal with 2:28 remaining. McCoy then hit tight end D.J. Grant for the 1-yard game-winning touchdown with 12 seconds left, lifting No. 24 Texas to a 21-17 win. In 2011, McCoy was involved in two second-half comebacks. Against BYU, McCoy came off the bench and went 7 of 8 for 57 yards to help rally Texas from a 13-3 halftime deficit to win 17-16. The Longhorns trailed 16-7 at halftime at Texas A&M, but used a 17-point third quarter to take the lead and held on in the fourth to win 27-25. In those five comeback wins, McCoy is a combined 82 of 137 (59.9%) for 803 yards, five touchdowns and one interception.

PLENTY OF DEPTH: Texas opened this season with plenty of depth and versatility among the running backs corps, with four backs who each rushed for at least 200 yards last season [Johnathan Gray (701), Malcolm Brown (324), Joe Bergeron (567), and Daje Johnson (203)]. This year, three of those have reached the 200-yard mark (Gray - 780, Brown - 643, Bergeron - 342), though the depth was dealt a blow when Gray suffered a season-ending Achilles injury at West Virginia.

- Gray had been the top back this season, ranking third in the Big 12 and 47th nationally with 86.7 rushing yards per game at the time of his injury. Gray was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 23 after a career-best performance in the 31-21 win over Kansas State. In that game, Gray set career highs with 141 rushing yards and 28 attempts, while matching a career best with a pair of touchdowns. His TD runs came from 21 yards out in the second quarter and 15 yards in the third quarter. Of his rushing yards, 102 came in the second and third quarters as the Horns dealt with losing starting quarterback David Ash and maintained their double-digit lead in the game. Gray also became the 49th player in UT history to reach the 1,000 career rushing yard mark against the Wildcats (currently 1,481). Gray became the third running back on the roster to eclipse 1,000 career rushing yards, joining Bergeron (1,372) and Brown (1,709).

- Brown has come on strong after battling an ankle injury early in the season. The last six games, Brown is averaging 23.3 carries and 96.7 yards per game, having hit the 100-yard mark three times. He also ran for two TDs at TCU and a career-high four vs.

Kansas. Brown led the Horns in rushing against Kansas (119 yards), West Virginia (89 yards), Oklahoma State (73 yards) and Texas Tech (128 yards).

- Bergeron, who excelled on special teams much of the season while Gray and Brown got most of the carries, has seen an expanded role the last three games. He had an 8-yard touchdown run at West Virginia and 49 yards on 10 carries vs. Oklahoma State. He had his best game of the year against Texas Tech, rushing 17 times for 102 yards (6.0 ypc) and a touchdown. Now with 25 career TDs, Bergeron is just two shy of reaching Texas' career top 10 in that category.

- The running game was instrumental in Texas' win over Oklahoma as the Longhorns piled up 255 yards on 60 rushes. Gray had 123 yards on a career-high 29 attempts while Brown had 120 yards on 23 attempts. They became the first Longhorn duo to rush for 100-plus yards in the same game in the 108-year history of the Texas-Oklahoma series.

- Texas had its second instance of two 100-yard rushers in the same game when Brown had 128 and Bergeron had 102 against Texas Tech. It's just the fourth time in school history that Texas has achieved the feat multiple times in one season (three times in 2004, twice in 1996 and four times in 1970). Overall, Texas has had two 100-yard rushers in a game 32 times in school history.

- Gray and Brown combined for 145 of the Longhorns' 187 rushing yards against TCU, which had come into the game ranked first in the Big 12 and 17th nationally by allowing just 115.3 rushing yards per game.

RUN-PASS OPTION: David Ash had 19 touchdown passes and eight interceptions in 2012. He averaged 26.5 yards per TD pass, including a career long 75-yarder to Mike Davis vs. Texas Tech. If you include his 49-yard TD run against New Mexico and 11-yarder vs. Oregon State, he averaged 26.8 yards per score in 2012. Ash was one of only seven QBs in the FBS in 2012 to have a touchdown run of at least 45 yards and a TD pass of 75 yards or more. In the 2013 opener vs. New Mexico State, Ash became the first player in Texas history to post a run and pass of 50-plus yards in the same game (74-yard TD pass, 55-yard TD run). His total yardage output (434) vs. New Mexico State was the most ever in a UT season opener and No. 6 on the UT all-time single-game list. Ash averaged 304.0 total yards of offense in his three games this season, which would rank 17th nationally had he played in enough games to qualify.

ASH SHOWS ABILITY: Dating back to the 2011 Holiday Bowl, David Ash continued to show improvement until his head injury which ultimately ended his season. Over his last 16 starts (12-4 record), Ash completed 281 of 428 passes (65.7 percent) for 3,601 yards (225.1 per game) with 27 TDs and 10 interceptions. Last season, Ash ranked 15th in the FBS in completion percentage (67.3) and 21st in passing efficiency (153.3 rating). His effectiveness was even more apparent at the end of games as he ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency (203.40) during the fourth quarter, according to cfbstats.com. He completed 36 of 48 passes (75 percent) for 498 yards with six TD passes and no interceptions in the final quarter. He led the Longhorns to game-winning drives in the final 3:00 against a pair of ranked opponents – Oklahoma State and Oregon State. Ash was a preseason All-Big 12 pick and member of the watch lists for the 2013 Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Manning and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose awards.

ASH, MCCOY IN UT CAREER TOP 10: David Ash moved into the Texas career top 10 passing yards list last season with 364 yards vs. Iowa State and currently ranks No. 8, just 197 yards behind Bret Stafford for seventh place. Ash threw for 2,699 yards in 2012 which ranks No. 8 on the all-time UT single-season list. Case McCoy moved into the top 10 when he passed for 221 yards vs. Oklahoma State this year. He needs 187 passing yards to reach No. 9 on the UT career list.

BIG-PLAY ABILITY: Mike Davis came up with quite a few big plays for the Longhorns throughout his career and especially the last two seasons.

• In 2012, he led the team in receiving yards (939) and touchdown receptions (seven), and was second in receptions (57). He averaged 41.1 yards on his seven touchdown catches, including a career-long 75-yarder vs. Texas Tech and a 61-yarder vs. Iowa State. Davis averaged 16.5 yards per catch in 2012 which ranked third in the Big 12 and 21st in the FBS among players with at least 40 receptions.

• Davis has continued that trend in 2013 - the senior has a team-high eight touchdown receptions on plays of 25, 57, 23, 13, 38, 49, 47 and 7 yards, an average of 32.4. Davis' eight touchdown catches rank tied for third in the Big 12 despite missing the Kansas State game. His 70.1 receiving yards per game lead the team and rank fifth in the Big 12, while his 4.6 receptions per game rank eighth. Davis is averaging 15.2 yards per catch which ranks 12th.

• Davis is the 10th player in school history to record at least three straight games with a TD reception. He had one in the season opener vs. New Mexico State, two vs. BYU and one vs. Ole Miss.

MODEL OF CONSISTENCY: Junior Jaxon Shipley has been one of the most consistent performers since he arrived on campus for the 2011 season. Shipley caught at least one pass in each of his first 33 games played, a streak that was snapped against Texas Tech. He also has three or more catches in 27 games and at least five in 12 of the last 15 games. His streak of 33 straight games with a reception was the third longest in school history, just ahead of his older brother Jordan.

TWO 100-YARD RECEIVERS: Against BYU (9/7), the Longhorns had two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the 14th time in school history and fourth time in the last three years. Mike Davis (8-114) and Jaxon Shipley (8-105) did it for the second time (also vs. Iowa State, 2012). Davis (124) and Marquise Goodwin (102) went over 100 vs. Ole Miss last season. Goodwin (5-129) and Shipley (4-121) each went over 100 receiving yards in 2011 at Baylor.

SOPHOMORES STEPPING UP: A pair of sophomore wide receivers have stepped up big for Texas this season. Kendall Sanders ranks third on the team in receptions (35) and receiving yards (351), while Marcus Johnson is fourth on the team in receiving yards (350) and tied for fourth in receptions (22). Johnson saw his first significant action in place of an injured Mike Davis vs. Kansas State and responded with five catches for 70 yards after entering the game with one career reception. Sanders saw action returning kicks early in the year and is averaging 22.6 yards per return. Against Kansas State, Sanders registered career highs in receiving yards (80) and all-purpose yards (152) and also recorded a career long 63-yard TD reception. He set a career high with seven receptions against Ole Miss and matched it at Iowa State. Johnson, meanwhile, made two of his five catches on third down that resulted in first downs against Kansas State. On the two drives that Johnson helped prolong, the Longhorns went on to score 10 points. Johnson only had one reception vs. Oklahoma, but it was huge as it came on third-and-11 and he went 59 yards for a touchdown that handed the Horns a 17-3 second-quarter lead. Johnson, who is averaging a team-best 15.9 yards per catch (minimum: one catch/game), had his best career game with 120 receiving yards on receptions of 65, 43 and 12 yards at TCU. His 65-yard catch went for a TD, marking the second straight game he had a 50-plus yard TD catch.

BIG PLAY DAJE: Sophomore Daje Johnson has come up with a number of big plays for the Longhorns over the last two years. He has six plays of 45 yards or more with four going for touchdowns. Johnson had a 66-yard touchdown catch in the season opener vs. New Mexico State and an 85-yard punt return for a touchdown against Oklahoma. Last season, he scored on a 45-yard TD catch vs. New Mexico and on a career-long 84-yard rushing TD on the opening play of the Baylor game. He also had a 46-yard reception vs. West Virginia and a 70-yarder vs. Kansas State. He is averaging 9.8 yards each time he touches the ball.

PULLING THEIR WEIGHT: The Longhorns are fortunate to have all five of their starting offensive lineman back from last season, though they have been without tackle Josh Cochran the last eight games. The returners were headlined by a pair of awards candidates in seniors Trey Hopkins and Mason Walters. That durable duo has combined to start 89 career games. Walters, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy for the second-straight year, has started each of the last 49 games at right guard. That total is tied for second-most on the FBS active list among offensive linemen. Hopkins had his 29-game starting streak (16 at LG/13 at RT) snapped in last season's Valero Alamo Bowl, but has started all 11 games this season and earned the Bevo Beast Award, which honors the top offensive lineman, in four contests. He is also on the preseason watch list for the Outland Trophy. The line has helped Texas rank third in the Big 12 and 36th nationally in rushing with 200.7 yards per game. The Horns have allowed just 1.0 sack per game in eight conference contests which is tied for first with Oklahoma State. On the season, Texas is allowing just 1.18 sacks per game which ranks 20th nationally. Texas went a stretch of 84 pass attempts without allowing a sack between the Iowa State and Kansas games. That included a game vs. TCU, which entered the game with a league-high 24 sacks. The UT line had one of its best performance of the season against Oklahoma as it paved the way for both Johnathan Gray and Malcolm Brown to top 100 yards rushing. Against New Mexico State, the unit was instrumental in helping the Longhorns post 300 rushing yards and 300 passing yards in a single game for just the fourth time in school history. Last year, the o-line helped the Longhorns post the 23rd-best scoring offense (35.7 ppg) in the nation, and allowed just 4.1 tackles for loss per game (No. 3 in the FBS) and 1.23 sacks pg (22nd in FBS).

TIGHT ENDS: Texas lost its top receiving tight end from each of the last two seasons in D.J. Grant, however, junior Greg Daniels returned after starting eight games in 2012, along with sophomore M.J. McFarland, who started four times last season. McFarland had fewer receptions than Grant, but tied him for the team lead in TE receiving yards with 125 to go along with one TD. The Longhorns also received a boost at the position in the offseason with the addition of junior-college transfer Geoff Swaim, the fourth-ranked JUCO tight end by ESPN.com in 2012. Swaim has started seven games and Daniels five.

JEFFCOAT BOUNCES BACK, REED EMERGES: After missing the final seven games in 2012 when he sustained a right pectoral muscle rupture, senior defensive end Jackson Jeffcoat has returned to his 2011 form when he led the team in tackles for loss (21) and sacks (8.0). This season, Jeffcoat has 63 tackles, 19 for a loss, 10 sacks, three pass breakups, three fumble recoveries, an interception and 16 QB pressures. He ranks tied for second in the Big 12 and tied for 10th in the FBS in sacks (0.90 per game). Jeffcoat ranks fifth on the FBS active career sacks list (24.5) and fifth in career sacks per game (0.644). He ranks tied for third on Texas' career TFL list with 57 and tied for eighth in sacks with 24.5. He was named to the watch lists for the 2013 Nagurski Trophy, Lott Trophy and CFPA Defensive Awards, and earned a spot as a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award on Oct. 29. He was also a preseason second team All-America choice by Lindy's and fourth team selection by Athlon. Jeffcoat earned co-Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors for his play in Texas' win over Kansas State. In that game, Jeffcoat recorded five tackles, two QB pressures and a pair of sacks for 11 yards. His two sacks came on K-State's final two drives, helping to prevent a comeback and maintain a 31-21 win. He followed that up with another strong performance at Iowa State, where he had seven tackles, a sack, a fumble recovery and a game-sealing interception with 8 seconds left in the game. Jeffcoat had seven tackles and recorded his career high with 3.0 sacks against Texas Tech.

• Opposite of Jeffcoat at defensive end, Cedric Reed has been a force. Reed is tied for second on the team with 69 total tackles, and second with 17 TFLs. He is second on the team behind Jeffcoat and third in the Big 12 with 9.0 sacks. Reed tallied a career-high 10 tackles, along with a sack, in the season opener vs. New Mexico State, only to set a new career high with 14 tackles at BYU. Reed also had a sack, forced a fumble and a pass breakup in the win over Kansas State; then five tackles, two for a loss, a pass breakup and a forced fumble vs. Iowa State; and eight tackles, including a sack, vs. Oklahoma. He had one of his best games of the season vs. Kansas, recording five tackles, three for a loss, and two sacks. His strip-sack in the third quarter caused a fumble that Chris Whaley scooped up and returned 40 yards for a touchdown. Reed also had seven tackles, two sacks, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble at West Virginia. He had a strong game against Texas Tech also with five tackles, four for a loss, two sacks, and three QB pressures.

SACK ATTACK: Defensive ends Jackson Jeffcoat (10.0) and Cedric Reed (9.0) rank first and second on the team and second and third in the Big 12 in sacks. They form a duo which makes UT is the only team in the Big 12 and one of two in the nation to have two players with 9.0 or more sacks. Louisville is the other team with Marcus Smith having 12.5 sacks and Lorenzo Mauldin with 9.5. This is the 12th time in school history the Horns have at least two players with 8.0 or more sacks and eighth time with two players having 9.0 or more. Here is the list:

WHALEY IN RARE COMPANY:

Chris Whaley is the first defensive tackle in school history to have two defensive touchdowns in the same season. He scored vs. Kansas on a 40-yard fumble return and via a 31-yard interception return vs. Oklahoma. Here are the other milestones:

- Whaley became the second player in school history to score on a pick and fumble in the same season. Brandon Foster had two interception returns for TDs and one fumble return in 2007. He is also just the sixth UT player to accomplish the feat in a career (also Dakarai Pearson, Matt Melton, Michael Huff and Norman Watkins).
- His fumble return for a score was the fifth longest in school history.
- Whaley is the first defensive lineman in UT history to have two defensive TDs in the same season. He also is the first defensive lineman in UT history to return both an interception and fumble for a TD in the same season. He joined DE Norman Watkins as the only defensive linemen in UT history to return both an interception and a fumble for a TD in their careers, but Watkins came in different years.
- Whaley is one of three players in the Big 12 this season to have scored a TD via interception and fumble (Kip Daily, Kansas State; Gabe Lynn, Oklahoma) and the only d-lineman.

SHUFFLING LINEBACKERS: The Longhorns were dealt a blow to their defense when they learned that leading tackler Jordan Hicks suffered a ruptured left Achilles tendon during the Kansas State game that will cause him to miss the remainder of the season. It's the second year in a row the linebacking corps has lost Hicks to a season-ending injury early in the year; after losing two of its most experienced players to the NFL entering 2012, the linebacking corps quickly lost a third with an injury to Hicks three games into the season. That injury did allow a number of players to see their snaps increase. The Horns have seven linebackers on the roster with 10 or more career games played. Junior Steve Edmond started 12 games last year, while junior Kendall Thompson started seven and senior Demarco Cobbs started six. Peter Jinkens also emerged during his true freshman season to start three contests in addition to junior Tevin Jackson (two starts) and sophomore Dalton Santos (one start). Edmond finished second on the team with 103 tackles, followed by Thompson with 60. This season, Edmond moved into the lead linebacker role and has a team-high 73 tackles. He had perhaps the best game of his career in the win over West Virginia, tallying a career-high 12 tackles, and making a pass break up and interception on West Virginia's final two plays in overtime to seal the win. However, Edmond sustained a lacerated liver when taking a hit early in the Texas Tech game and will miss the Baylor game. Santos has 61 tackles and eight for a loss this season.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY: The secondary is full of experience with seniors Carrington Byndom and Adrian Phillips, along with juniors Quandre Diggs and Mykkele Thompson. That group has combined to play in 168 career games, including 113 starts. Diggs, a preseason All-American and candidate for the Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award, led the team with four INTs and seven PBUs last year, while Byndom, a preseason All-Big 12 pick and Thorpe Award candidate, added three INTs and six PBUs. Byndom has gone head-to-head with some of the top receivers in college football the last three seasons and has answered the challenge. He has 26 PBUs and five interceptions in the past three seasons. He ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass breakups in 2011 despite starting for the first time and facing some of the top passing offenses in the nation. He has returned two of his five interceptions for touchdowns and is one of just eight players in school history with two or more. Phillips also had two INTs and finished third on the team in tackles with 72 last year. This season, he ranks third on the team with 69 tackles and has two interceptions. Diggs has a team-high eight PBUs, 2.5 sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Sophomore Duke Thomas has also received playing time and leads the team with three interceptions. As a group, Texas ranks second in the Big 12 and 37th nationally in pass defense, allowing just 215.8 yards per game. The unit held Texas Tech's No. 1 ranked passing offense to 302 yards (came in averaging 400.2) and a season-low 16 points.

DIGGS FOLLOWS IN FOOTSTEPS:

Much like his older brother, Quentin Jammer, Quandre Diggs has excelled as a defensive back at Texas. In 2011, Diggs posted one of the top freshman seasons in school history for a defensive back. He was named the 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and was a FWAA Freshman All-American. He tied the school record for interceptions by a freshman, matching Chris Carter's mark of four in 1993. Diggs also had 15 pass breakups to rank second most on the UT freshman list behind Earl Thomas' 17 in 2008. Last season, Diggs led the team in both interceptions (four) and pass breakups (seven). His last interception of the season was his most important one. His third-quarter pick of Oregon State's Cody Vaz set up a touchdown which helped turn the momentum in the Longhorns as they posted a 31-27 win. Diggs ended 2012 tied for 39th in the FBS in interceptions (0.31 per game). He has 50 tackles, 3.0 TFLs, a team-high eight pass break ups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery this season. His 2.5 sacks in Big 12 play rank second among defensive backs.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE: On the interior of the defensive line, the Longhorns returned two players who started games in 2012, led by junior Desmond Jackson (11 starts) and senior Chris Whaley (nine starts). That duo, combined with sophomore Malcom Brown, tallied 13 TFL, seven by Jackson, four by Whaley and two by Brown. Brown and Whaley started each of the first nine games this season, with Jackson coming off the bench. Whaley, though, suffered a knee injury against West Virginia and will miss the remainder of the season. Jackson has moved back into a starting role the last two games. Brown is third on the team with 10.0 tackles for loss this season, while Whaley had five and Jackson has four. All three have recovered a fumble this season as well. Whaley showed his athleticism in the Oklahoma game, dropping back on a zone blitz and intercepting a pass, then returning it 31 yards for a touchdown. He was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 14 for his play against the Sooners. Two weeks later, Whaley scooped up a fumble and returned it 40 yards for a score against Kansas to become the only defensive lineman in Texas history to score two TDs in the same season. Against West Virginia, Jackson had his best game of the year, recording two sacks, 2.5 TFLs, a forced fumble and eight total tackles after replacing an injured Whaley. The group has been instrumental in a Texas run defense which ranks first in conference games only (127.1 yards per game).

SPECIALISTS: The Longhorns returned a number of specialists in 2013, many of whom played key roles as freshmen in 2012. Senior Anthony Fera is back and is handling the place-kicking and punting duties. Fera has excelled in double duty, averaging 40.9 yards on 59 punts, and he has made 19-of-20 field goal attempts. Holding for the kickers is senior Cade McCrary, who has handled those duties for the last three seasons. Junior Nate Boyer is handling the short and deep snapping duties. Sophomore Nick Rose is back after kicking off on 82 of Texas' 85 attempts last season. He has 32 touchbacks on 70 kickoffs this season.

BACK ON TRACK: After an injury-filled season in 2012, Anthony Fera is back on track. The senior, in his second season with the Longhorns, has handled both place-kicking and punting chores this season. He's averaging 40.9 yards per punt on 59 attempts this season, with 30 having been fair caught and 26 landing inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He also has 13 punts of 50 yards or more. Fera has made 19-of-20 field goal attempts with a long of 50 (career best). He ranks third nationally in field-goal percentage (minimum 10 attempts) and fourth in consecutive field goals made. He has also connected on 13 of 13 attempts when the score is within seven points and 5 of 5 in three-point games. An All-Big Ten selection, Fera injured his groin shortly after transferring from Penn State in the summer of 2012. He missed the first four games of last season and went on to connect on 2 of 4 field goal attempts during his six games of action. Now finally healthy, he won both kicking jobs prior in the 2013 pre-season. Fera was 14-for-17 on FGA during the 2011 season. He was named first-team All-Big Ten by ESPN.com as a punter and a Lou Groza Award semifinalist in 2011. He was named a finalist for the 2013 Lou Groza on Nov. 25.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF FOR THREE LONGHORNS: The final day of preseason camp turned out to be a special one for three Texas Longhorns. Walk-ons Nate Boyer, Cade McCrary and Nick Rose, three key members of the special teams unit, were informed by head coach Mack Brown during a team meeting on Aug. 23 they were placed on scholarship for the 2013 season. For Boyer and McCrary, this is their second-straight season on scholarship. Rose, who handled kickoff chores last season as a true freshman, is on for the first time. Boyer is entering his second season as the snapper on field goals and extra points. McCrary is serving as the holder for the fourth-straight year.

BOYER, A KEY CONTRIBUTOR ON AND OFF THE FIELD: Nate Boyer has been an inspiration since arriving on campus in 2010. The junior long snapper earned a Bronze Star for his service with the U.S. Army Special Forces Unit and has provided assistance to autistic children and Darfur refugees. That helped lead to his selection as the 2012 recipient of the Disney Spirit Award as college football's most inspirational figure. Boyer, who first considered enlisting in the military in high school, joined the military at age 20 partly inspired by the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Before that, he spent a great deal of time coaching autistic children through therapy sessions and later provided aid to refugee camps in the Darfur region in Sudan. Boyer was presented with the award during The Home Depot College Football Awards at Walt Disney World Resort on Dec. 6, 2012. Boyer was the first Texas recipient of an award which was first bestowed in 1996. Boyer went on to earn 2012-13 Big 12 Sportsman of the Year, an award which annually recognizes student-athletes who displayed an extraordinary degree of sportsmanship and/or community service. Along with his studies and football commitment, he also returns to active military duty each summer.

CANCER AWARENESS GAME: The Kansas State contest served as UT's annual Cancer Awareness Game. Each team member dedicated the game to a friend, family member or someone close affected by cancer. Players wore pink (breast), yellow (prostate) or purple (all other forms) ribbons on their helmets to signify the type of cancer. The coaching staff wore black and pink shoes, and lapel pins with the ribbon of their choice. The team also served as host to Kenyon Degeyter and Davari Ford, two young cancer patients, and their families during the game. In addition to players carrying out the U.S. Flag and Longhorn Flag during introductions, junior tight end Chris Terry carried a yellow flag, junior tight end/wide receiver John Harris carried the pink flag and senior wide receiver Michael Wheeler carried the purple one. Terry showed tribute to many friends, old coaches, and his grandfather, by wearing a yellow ribbon, while Wheeler wore a pink ribbon for his mother and his girlfriend's grandmother. Harris' mother recently overcame her second bout with breast cancer. Additionally, Assistant AD/Football Operations Marcus Tubbs wore a pink ribbon in honor of his mother Janet, who had breast cancer, went into remission, then had it come back in the form of breast cancer and bone cancer and ultimately lost her battle with the disease.

GRAY, JEFFCOAT EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS (K-STATE):

Johnathan Gray and defensive end Jackson Jeffcoat were named as Big 12 Football Players of the Week on Monday, Sept. 23. Gray was named offensive player of the week while Jeffcoat shared defensive player of the week honors with safety Terrell Burt of Baylor. Gray had career highs in carries (28), rushing yards (141), all-purpose yards (151) and rushing TDs vs. Kansas State. Jeffcoat was disruptive throughout the game while recording five tackles, two quarterback pressures and a pair of sacks, matching a career high. The senior helped hold Kansas State to 115 rushing yards on 38 attempts (3.0 ypc). His two sacks, totaling 11 yards, came on Kansas State's final two drives and prevented the Wildcats from a comeback.

BOYER NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR CAMPBELL TROPHY: Nate Boyer was named a semifinalist for the 2013 William V. Campbell Trophy, which recognizes the best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Boyer, who was the recipient of the 2012 Disney Spirit Award and named the 2012-13 Big 12 Sportsman of the Year, was among the candidates announced Wednesday, Oct. 2 by The National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame. Boyer is a fourth-year player who has served as the No. 1 long snapper for the Longhorns. He earned a scholarship before both the 2012 and 2013 seasons after joining the team as a walk-on in 2010. The Campbell Trophy semifinalists are selected each year by the NFF Awards Committee, which is comprised of a nationally recognized group of media, College Football Hall of Famers and athletics administrators. Those candidates were eligible for the 2013 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards, though Boyer was not named a finalist.

WHALEY EARNS BIG 12 WEEKLY HONOR (OKLAHOMA):

DT Chris Whaley was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 14. The senior provided one of the most important plays in the 36-20 win over Oklahoma in the AT&T Red River Rivalry. With the game tied 3-3 late in the first quarter, Whaley dropped back on a zone blitz during a third-and-4 play and intercepted a pass from Sooners quarterback Blake Bell, then returned it 31 yards for a touchdown. It was one of a number of key third down stops during the game as Oklahoma converted just twice on 14 third and fourth down attempts.

Whaley also had four tackles in earning his first career Big 12 Player of the Week honor.

TEXAS NAMED TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL TEAM OF THE WEEK:

The Longhorns were named the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week on Monday, Oct. 14 for their victory over No. 12/10 Oklahoma. The choice was made by the board of the Football Writers Association of America. Texas did not trail in the game and held a double-digit lead for most of the matchup. The other nominees were Missouri and Utah. The Tigers remained undefeated by defeating Georgia, 41-26. Utah upset No. 5 Stanford, 27-21, to snap the Cardinal's 13-game winning streak. The last time Texas received this honor was in 2008 after defeating top-ranked Oklahoma, 45-35. Members of the FWAA All-America Committee determine the weekly honor and it is announced every Monday.

JEFFCOAT, FERA EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONOR (TCU):

DE Jackson Jeffcoat and PK/P Anthony Fera were named Big 12 Conference Players of the Week on Oct. 28. Jeffcoat was honored as the defensive player of the week for the second time this season (also K-State game), while Fera was honored as special teams player of the week for the first time in his Texas career. Jeffcoat registered one sack, three tackles for loss, two pass break-ups, two QB pressures and five tackles (three solo) in Texas' 30-7 win at TCU. The Longhorns held TCU to 45 yards on 24 rushes and 246 yards of total offense. TCU's seven points were the fewest by the Frogs since October, 2006. Fera connected on all three field goals attempts and punted seven times for a 40-yard average. The Frogs returned just one of his seven punts and that went for minus-3 yards.

JEFFCOAT NAMED A BEDNARIK AWARD SEMIFINALIST:

DE Jackson Jeffcoat was named one of 16 semifinalists for the Chuck Bednarik Award (Outstanding Defensive Player of the Year) by the Maxwell Football Club on Tuesday, Oct. 29). Three finalists will be announced on Nov. 25 and winner as part of the Home Depot College Football Awards Show Dec. 12 on ESPN. A Texas player has never won the award in its 19 years of existence. Sam Acho was a semifinalist in 2010 and Derrick Johnson a finalist in 2004.

ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM/JAMAIL FIELD RENOVATIONS

As Texas football proceeds through the 21st century, Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium continues to evolve as a state-of-the-art facility at the forefront of college football.

Following the 2008 season, Texas installed FieldTurf as its playing surface and permanent bleachers were added to the south end of the stadium.

Combined with the previous year's north end zone project, DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium now has a stadium capacity of 100,119, which is the fifth-largest college stadium in the country and the largest college stadium in the south-west.

Prior to the 2013 season, the field surface was replaced and seats throughout the lower bowl were replaced.

The north end zone expansion project that was completed prior to the 2008 season featured an upper deck, club seating, an academic center and a war memorial plaza. The expansion added approximately 2,108 club seats and 47 suites.

The lower deck of the north end zone was completed for the 2007 season. Another major upgrade was made prior to 2007, when a new video board was installed at the south end of the stadium. At the time, the scoreboard was the nation's largest high-definition video display board thanks to Daktronics. The $8-million Prostar Video Board is 56 feet high by 134 feet wide. Then after the 2012 season, UT worked with Daktronics to provide an upgrade to the video and audio capabilities in the stadium.

In addition, the interior of the Moncrief Athletics Complex, most notably the players' lounge, is consistently being upgraded. Prior to 2009, a new academic center was constructed. It is approximately three times the size of the previous center. It features writing, math and computer labs, numerous tutoring areas, a multimedia classroom and academic staff office space.

In the summer of 2011, the Longhorns locker room was renovated. It was all part of a $176.5 million renovation project at the stadium.

FERA NAMED A GROZA AWARD

SEMIFINALIST: Anthony Fera was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission on Monday, Nov. 4. Fera is one of 20 semifinalists for the award. A Cypress, Texas, native, Fera has handled both place-kicking and punting duties for the Longhorns this season. This marks the second time Fera has been named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award. He was also a semifinalist in 2011 when he went 14 of 17 on field goal attempts as a sophomore at Penn State. Semifinalists will be voted on by FBS head coaches and SIDs, past Lou Groza finalists, and national and regional football writers to select three finalists, which will be announced on Nov. 25. The winner will be announced live on ESPN at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show on Thursday, Dec. 12.

FERA EARNS BIG 12 WEEKLY HONOR (WEST VIRGINIA):

PK/P Anthony Fera was named Big 12 Conference Special Teams Co-Special Teams Player of the Week on Nov. 11 for his effort vs. West Virginia. Fera hit all four of his field goal attempts, including a 24-yarder with 13 seconds left in regulation to send the game into overtime in a 47-40 win. He also connected on field goals of 37, 25, and 29 yards, and made all five of his PAT attempts to register a career-high 17 points. The senior also averaged 42.8 yards on six punts, placing three of those inside West Virginia's 20-yard line.

JEFFCOAT, REED NAMED TO MIDSEASON WATCH LIST FOR HENDRICKS AWARD:

Jackson Jeffcoat and Cedric Reed were two of 18 players named to the midseason watch list for the 2013 Ted Hendricks Award, which is named in honor of college football's first three-time All-American, on Nov. 11. The award is presented annually to a defensive end and is based on the criteria of on-field performance, exceptional winning attitude, leadership abilities, contributions to school and community and academic preparedness. The Ted Hendricks Award selection committee will complete its first vote on Nov. 25 to narrow the list of candidates for four to six finalists. The winner will be announced on Dec. 11. Former Longhorn Brian Orakpo won the award in 2008.

BOYER EARNS NFF LEGACY

AWARD: The National Football Foundation (NFF) announced Nov. 12 that Nate Boyer, the UT starting long-snapper, a Green Beret Bronze Star recipient and a First Team Academic All-Big 12 Selection with a 3.84 GPA, will be recognized with an NFF Legacy Award during the 56th NFF Annual Awards Dinner, which will take place Dec. 10 in New York City. The NFF Legacy Award, established in 2007, honors individuals and organizations who have made extraordinary contributions to the NFF and/or embody its mission.

MCOY NOMINATED FOR DISCOVER ORANGE BOWL-FWAA COURAGE

AWARD: Case McCoy was named the weekly nominee on Nov. 13 for the 2013 Discover Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award that will be announced at the end of the season. The senior from Graham, Texas fought a skin condition known as scleroderma for eight years starting at age four. The disease McCoy endured causes the hardening of the skin and the tightening of connective tissues. Treatments included a shot every week on Wednesday's that caused McCoy to become nauseous and violently sick. Once a month the family would make a trip from Graham in West Texas to Scottish Rite Hospital for Children in Dallas where McCoy was observed. Finally, in 2004 his scleroderma was no longer active.

GRAY NAMED EARL CAMPBELL TYLER ROSE AWARD SEMIFINALIST:

RB Johnathan Gray was named a semifinalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, which recognizes the top offensive player in the FBS, on Nov. 19. Gray, who suffered a season-ending Achilles injury during the West Virginia game, leads the team in total rushing yards (780) and ranks fourth in the Big 12 with 86.7 rushing yards per game. He is one of 16 semifinalists for the award, which is given to a player with ties to the state of Texas. Finalists will be announced on Dec. 9, and the winner will be announced on Jan. 10, 2014.

FERA A LOU GROZA FINALIST:

RB Senior Anthony Fera was named a finalist for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission on Nov. 26. Fera is the first Texas Longhorn ever to be named a finalist for the award and is one of three finalists for the award presented to the nation's top place-kicker. A Cypress, Texas, native, Fera was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2011 when he went 14 of 17 on field goal attempts as a sophomore at Penn State, before being named a semifinalist this season. For his career, he has connected on 33-of-37 field goals (89.2 percent). Fera will earn degrees from both Penn State (Kinesiology/Dec. 2013) and Texas (Physical Culture and Sport/May 2014) after transferring from Penn State in 2012. The winner of the Groza Award will be announced live on ESPN at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show on Dec. 12.

JEFFCOAT, FERA EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONOR (TEXAS TECH):

DE Jackson Jeffcoat and PK/P Anthony Fera were named Big 12 Players of the Week on Dec. 2. Jeffcoat was honored as the defensive player of the week for the third time this season (also K-State and TCU games), while Fera was honored as special teams player of the week for the third time (also TCU and West Virginia. Jeffcoat posted a career-high tying 10 tackles, including three tackles for loss and a career-best three sacks, in the win over Texas Tech. Fera hit on both of his field goal attempts and all five PATs to tally 11 points. Fera's two field goals extended his streak to a school-record 15 straight, tying a mark set Phil Dawson. He also dropped three of his five punts inside the 20-yard line.

BOYER VOTED TO CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA FIRST TEAM:

Nate Boyer was voted to the Capital One Academic All-America First Team on Dec. 5. Boyer, the team's No. 1 deep snapper, is the 24th Longhorn football player to be named to the Academic All-America first or second team and it marks the 33rd honor in school history. Sam Acho (2010) was the last Longhorn to be voted an Academic All-American. Acho was one of nine Longhorns to earn multiple Academic All-America honors. Boyer is the sixth Longhorn to earn All-America honors in the last eight years. To be eligible for nomination, a student-athlete must maintain a grade point average of 3.30 or better and have completed at least one year of school.

JEFFCOAT NAMED A FINALIST FOR THE TED HENDRICKS AWARD:

Jackson Jeffcoat was named a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award, which is given annually to the top defensive end in college football, on Dec. 5. Jeffcoat is one of six finalists, joining Vic Beasley of Clemson, Shilique Calhoun of Michigan State, Brad Daly of Montana State, Michael Sam of Missouri and Marcus Smith of Louisville. On-field performance, leadership ability and contributions to school and community are some of the criteria used to determine the award winner. The candidates may represent any class (freshman through senior) as well as any recognized four-year NCAA member school (Division I through Division III). The award is named in honor of University of Miami three-time Collegiate All-American and NFL Hall of Famer Ted Hendricks. Jeffcoat is the fifth UT finalist, joining Cory Redding (2002), Tim Crowder (2006) and Sergio Kindle (2009). Brian Orakpo won the award in 2008.

TEN LONGHORNS EARN DEGREES IN DECEMBER:

Ten current or former Longhorns are earning their degrees in ceremonies on campus over the weekend of Dec. 6-7. The list includes:

- Carrington Byndom (Corporate Communications)
- Derrick Curry (Applied Learning and Development/Youth and Community Studies)
- Donald Hawkins (Applied Learning and Development/Youth and Community Studies)

In addition, there are three members of the team who have already graduated:

- Nate Boyer: spring of 2013 in sport management, enrolled in graduate school

- Case McCoy: spring of 2013 in physical culture and sport, enrolled in real estate program

- Mason Walters: summer of 2013, enrolled in education classes

HORNS LEAD THE WAY

ACADEMICALLY: Texas placed 14 players on the 2013 Academic All-Big 12 team, including seven on the first team. The first-team selections included junior DS Nate Boyer, senior WR Lane Fife, senior DB Devin Huffines, senior LB Shawn Izadi, senior QB Case McCoy, sophomore TE M.J. McFarland and senior OG/C Garrett Porter. It marks the fourth-straight year Porter has earned first-team honors. McCoy did so for the third-straight year, while Boyer did it for the second time in a row. The second team included redshirt-freshman S Adrian Colbert, sophomore OG Taylor Doyle, redshirt-freshman DT Alex Norman, junior WR Jaxon Shipley, senior PK Grant Sirgo, junior TE Chris Terry and senior WR Michael Wheeler. Texas has led the conference in both total selections and first-team members in five of the last eight years.

HORNS WORE SPECIAL UNIFORMS FOR AT&T RED RIVER RIVALRY

The Texas Longhorns wore specially designed uniforms for the 2013 AT&T Red River Rivalry.

Nike Football designed the uniforms to honor the heritage of the annual matchup with the Oklahoma Sooners, who wore similarly designed uniforms.

The 2013 Nike Pro Combat Red River Rivalry uniforms featured gold and chrome accents in reference to the Golden Hat trophy, a golden replica of a 10-gallon cowboy hat that has been kept in possession by the winning school's athletic department since 1929. Both team jerseys featured a gold Red River Rivalry patch and the numbers are outlined by "kiss-cut" gold twill.

The inside of the neckline of each team's jerseys featured custom embroidery – "Longhorns" for Texas and "Boomer Sooner" for Oklahoma. Custom tags reading "Texas Longhorns Red River Rivalry" and "Oklahoma Sooners Red River Rivalry" gave each school a commemorative take on the traditional sizing label.

The Nike Pro Hypercool Baselayer Top featured a directional chevron pattern which signals the travel each team takes to Dallas. In an additional twist, the chevron mirrored the hand gestures of the fans — Texas' upward "hook 'em horns" is one of the true icons of college athletics. The chevron was also featured on the insole of the Nike Alpha Pro Cleats each team will wear. School mascot imagery appeared on the cleat tongues, and both school cleats showcased metallic gold plates to tie in the overall aesthetic of the uniform.

Both teams wore a special gold edition of the Nike Vapor Jet II gloves. Texas' glove featured a white team logo over the gold palm and embroidered "Longhorns" on the inside. Oklahoma's glove read "Boomer Sooner" and featured a crimson team logo atop the gold palm.

The AT&T Red River Rivalry has been waged for over 100 years. Passions escalated in 1931, when the two states became embroiled in conflict over the erection of a new bridge spanning Red River. Since then, bragging rights between the Longhorns and the Sooners have been won on the gridiron. Every year, both teams travel to Dallas to settle a score and play for control of the coveted Golden Hat trophy.

LONGHORNS IN 2013 NFL DRAFT:

Mack Brown continued his streak of sending top talent to the NFL. In the 2013 draft, S Kenny Vaccaro was selected 15th overall by the New Orleans Saints and became the Longhorns' 10th top 20 pick in the last 10 years. Vaccaro marks Mack Brown's 16th first-round pick while at Texas. WR Marquise Goodwin was the 78th overall pick by Buffalo in the third round, making him the eighth Longhorn drafted by the Bills since 1976. Goodwin is the sixth wide receiver to be drafted in the Mack Brown era and the third in the last six years. DE Alex Okafor was the 103rd overall by the Arizona Cardinals and is the 12th Longhorn defensive lineman selected in the last eight years. The selection of Okafor continued the eight-year streak of a Texas defensive line-men being selected.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFL: Texas is not only one of the best at the collegiate level, but since Mack Brown's arrival, it has become one of the premier sources of talent for the NFL as well. As of Dec. 1, Texas had 35 players on NFL rosters, which is tied for sixth-most nationally. Of that group, 25 have started games during their NFL careers, including 21 who started as rookies. Among that group of 35, five have earned a spot in a Pro Bowl and six have participated in a Super Bowl with three coming away as Super Bowl Champions. The defensive backs (10), defensive line (7), linebackers (6) and kickers (2) lead the way and all rank first in the Big 12. In addition, Texas leads the Big 12 in Top 10 picks, Top 30 picks, Top 100 picks and Top 150 picks in the NFL Draft over the last 10 years. UT also has the most Top Five and third-most Top 10 picks in the NFL Draft since 1999. The Horns' eight Top 10 picks are two behind USC and one behind Alabama while their six Top Five picks lead LSU, Oklahoma, and USC, each of which has four.

COMEBACKS UNDER MACK BROWN

During Mack Brown's 16 seasons at Texas, the Horns have registered 31 second-half comebacks, including 20 in the fourth quarter. UT has recorded the six largest comebacks in school history during the Mack Brown era.

at WEST VIRGINIA (2013): Case McCoy hit Alex De La Torre for a 2-yard touchdown pass in overtime and Texas knocked off West Virginia, 47-40, on the road. Steve Edmond twice prevented WVU from the equalizing score in overtime -- first tipping a pass in the end zone on third down, and then intercepting Mountaineer QB Paul Millard in the end zone on fourth down to seal the win. McCoy, who was 27 of 49 for 283 yards, engineered a 57-yard drive to send the game to OT. Anthony Fera hit a 24-yard FG with 13 seconds on the clock.

at IOWA STATE (2013): Case McCoy's 1-yard TD run on a quarterback sneak with 51 seconds left lifted Texas over Iowa State, 31-30. McCoy, subbing for injured starter David Ash, led Texas on the game-winning 75-yard drive in a contest that featured six lead changes.

vs. OREGON STATE (2012): Texas erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit and emerged with a thrilling 31-27 victory over No. 15/14 Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl. OSU took a 27-17 lead into the fourth quarter, but Texas scored a pair of touchdowns over the final 8:18 to secure the win. David Ash hit Johnathan Gray for a 15-yard touchdown to cut the margin to three. The sophomore QB then connected with Marquise Goodwin on a 36-yard TD with 2:24 left in the game.

at KANSAS (2012): Texas trailed twice in the fourth quarter. Case McCoy came off the bench early in the fourth quarter and led the Horns to two scoring drives. Texas tied the game at 14-all with 9:41 remaining on an 11-yard TD run by WR Marquise Goodwin. After the Jayhawks hit a field goal with 2:28 left in the game, McCoy hit tight end D.J. Grant for the 1-yard game-winning touchdown with 12 seconds left lifting No. 24 Texas to a 21-17 victory.

at RV/22 OKLAHOMA STATE (2012): UT trailed twice in the fourth quarter (33-28 & 36-34) before rallying. David Ash directed a 75-yard, eight-play drive that started with 2:34 left in the game. He was 4-for-5 for 70 yards and Joe Bergeron scored a 2-yard game-winning TD with 29 seconds left.

at TEXAS A&M (2011): Justin Tucker booted a 40-yard field goal as time expired to give Texas a 27-25 victory over Texas A&M on Thanksgiving Night. The Aggies took a 25-24 lead inside the game's final two minutes on a 16-yard TD pass from Ryan Tannehill to Jeff Fuller, but the Longhorns, behind QB Case McCoy, drove 48 yards in seven plays. A&M led 16-7 early in the third quarter before UT scored 17 straight points.

vs. BYU (2011): The Longhorns trailed 13-3 at the half and 16-10 entering the fourth quarter but two rushing TDs in the second half gave Texas a 17-16 win. The game-winning score by Cody Johnson came with 8:46 remaining in the game on a four-yard TD run that capped an eight-play, 52-yard drive.

vs. NO. 21/20 NEBRASKA (2009): Texas held the lead against Nebraska for much of the second-half, but a Nebraska field goal with 1:44 left gave the Cornhuskers a 12-10 lead. The Horns quickly moved down the field on the ensuing possession, setting up a Hunter Lawrence 46-yard field goal as time expired, giving UT a 13-12 victory and the 2009 Big 12 Championship.

vs. NO. 20/18 OKLAHOMA (2009): The Horns trailed 6-3 at halftime but scored 10 points on their first two drives of the second half to take a 13-6 lead. The Sooners came back with a TD to make it 13-13, but UT answered with a field goal early in the fourth quarter to take a 16-13 lead, which would end up being the final score. After giving up the TD to OU with 4:39 left in the third quarter, the Horns' defense didn't allow the Sooners into Texas territory for the rest of the game, allowing just 35 yards on 17 plays (2.1 ypp) and intercepting two passes.

vs. NO. 10 OHIO STATE (2008): Texas trailed 6-3 at the half before taking a 17-6 lead entering the fourth quarter. But, the Buckeyes ran off 15 straight points to take a 21-17 lead with just 2:05 remaining. From there, Colt McCoy led an 11-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard TD pass to Quan Cosby with 16 seconds left to give UT the 24-21 victory.

vs. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA (2008): The Horns erased two 11-point deficits in the first half and trailed by one, 21-20, at halftime. OU went up 28-20 before Texas scored 10 straight to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter. OU answered with a TD early in the fourth to make it 35-30, but UT scored the game's final 15 points over the last 7:37 to win, 45-35. In total, Texas went on a 25-7 run to seal the victory.

at OKLAHOMA STATE (2007): Texas erased two fourth-quarter deficits and a second-half one, including the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history against Oklahoma State. The Horns trailed 35-14 before scoring 24 unanswered points to win, 38-35.

vs. NEBRASKA (2007): Texas trailed Nebraska, 17-9, entering the fourth quarter before running off 19 straight points to win, 28-25. After falling behind 17-3 early in the third quarter, Texas produced 336 total yards and 25 points in the second half to help seal the victory.

at TEXAS TECH (2006): After trailing Texas Tech, 21-0, in the first quarter, the Horns closed the gap to 31-21 at halftime and 31-28 entering the fourth quarter, before going on to win 35-31.

at NO. 4 OHIO STATE (2005): The Horns trailed the Buckeyes, 22-16, entering the final quarter, but Vince Young connected with Limas Sweed for a 24-yard TD with 2:37 remaining to give Texas a 23-22 lead. A late safety gave the Horns a 25-22 victory.

vs. NO. 1 USC (2005): The Longhorns trailed 38-26 with 6:42 remaining in the game before Vince Young led two TD drives, including his game-winning eight-yard TD run with just 19 seconds left, to secure the win and the National Championship.

Prior to 2005: The Horns notched four second-half comebacks and a fourth-quarter comeback in 2004, including a 28-point comeback against Oklahoma State, the largest in school history. UT also registered a halftime comeback in '02, a fourth-quarter comeback in '01, two halftime comebacks in 1999 and two fourth-quarter comebacks in '98.

TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS

2: For the first time in series history, two Longhorns topped 100 rushing yards in the same game against Oklahoma when Johnathan Gray had 123 and Malcolm Brown had 120 on Oct. 12.

3: The Longhorns have had three defensive backs chosen in the same draft twice in the last seven years.

3: The Longhorns have three BCS Bowl victories in four appearances, including winning the 2005 National Championship.

3: The Longhorns have three running backs on the roster with more than 1,000 career rushing yards: Joe Bergeron (1,372), Johnathan Gray (1,481) and Malcolm Brown (1,709).

4: Quandre Diggs tied the school freshman record with a team-high four interceptions in 2011. He then added four more as a sophomore.

4: Mike Davis ranks fourth in UT history in career receptions (195), fourth in receiving yards (2,727), and fifth in TDs (18).

6: David Ash's 434 yards of total offense against New Mexico State was the most ever in a UT season opener and the sixth-highest single game mark in school history.

6: Texas leads the nation with six Top Five NFL Draft picks over the last 10 years.

7: Texas blocked seven kicks in 2012, which tied for third in the FBS.

8: Eight Longhorns have been drafted in the Top 10 of the NFL Draft in the last 10 years, the third-most of any school in the nation.

9: Texas has produced the top nine scoring seasons in UT history during the Mack Brown era, including a school record 652 points in 2005.

10: Texas has posted a UT record 10 bowl wins in 14 appearances during the Mack Brown era.

10: Mack Brown ranks 10th all-time in FBS history with 244 career wins.

11: Since Duane Akina arrived in 2001, 11 of his 12 starting cornerbacks have gone on to play in the NFL.

13: Texas has only lost back-to-back games 13 times in 15 years in the Mack Brown era.

13: Texas is one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 seasons (Virginia Tech).

14: Texas finished 14th in the FBS in offensive third-down efficiency in 2012, converting 48.6 percent (87 of 179).

16: Sixteen true freshmen played in 2012, which was tied for most in the nation (TCU - 16; LSU - 15; Ohio State - 15).

19: Texas has won 19 of its last 21 games (.905) that were decided by three points or less.

21: David Ash finished 2012 ranked 21st in the nation in passing efficiency with a 153.28 rating.

23: The Longhorns have played in front of 100,000-plus people 23 times at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

35: As of Dec. 1, there were 35 Longhorns on NFL rosters, the most in the Big 12 and tied for sixth-most nationally.

39: Texas averaged 39 points per game in the last decade (2000-09), which was the second-most in the nation behind Boise State.

51: Texas' appearance in the 2012 Valero Alamo Bowl marked the 51st bowl appearance in UT history, second all-time in the NCAA.

54: In 16 seasons under Mack Brown, Texas' offense has produced 54 games with 500 or more total yards of offense. UT had accomplished that only 23 times in the 105 years prior to his arrival.

55: Of Mack Brown's 71 NFL draft picks over the last 15 years, 55 have been selected in the first four rounds.

57: The Longhorns have won 57 of 67 games against teams from the state of Texas under Mack Brown.

71: Texas leads the nation with 71 total blocked kicks since 2001, including a nation-leading 41 blocked punts.

74: Texas has registered 74 sellouts in the last 82 games.

75: Texas has won 75 road and neutral site games since 1999, which is the most in the nation.

80: Texas has won 80 of 96 home games (83.3%) under Mack Brown

87: UT has scored 87 non-offensive TDs since 1999, which ranks second nationally.

102: Texas' 102 appearances in the BCS standings are the most of any team in the country.

108: Texas has won 108 of 122 games when scoring first during the Mack Brown era.

130: Texas is 130-7 in the Mack Brown era when outrushing an opponent.

132: The Longhorns have spent 132 weeks in The AP Top 10 and have finished the year ranked in the Top 10 seven times during the Mack Brown era. Texas, which had not finished a year ranked among the Top 10 since 1983 prior to Brown's arrival, spent just 16 weeks rated among the nation's Top 10 in the 12 years before Brown took over.

151: Mack Brown has played 151 true freshmen in his 16 years at Texas.

158: Over the last eight years, Texas has the most Academic All-Big 12 selections of any team in the conference with 158.

157: Mack Brown's 158 wins at Texas are the second-most in school history, trailing only Darrell Royal's 167.

162: Texas was ranked in The AP Top 25 for a Longhorn record 162 straight weeks until the streak was snapped Oct. 3, 2010. It had been the longest active streak in the nation.

190: Until Oct. 3, 2010, the Longhorns were ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll Top 25 for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 consecutive weeks led the nation and was the longest UT streak in any poll.

200: Mack Brown became the 19th coach, who has spent at least 10 years at an FBS program, to win 200 games. He has 244 career victories.

715: Texas set a school record with 715 yards of total offense in its 56-7 season-opening win over New Mexico State.

875: With 875 victories in program history, Texas ranks second on the NCAA all-time victories list behind only Michigan.

SATELLITE RADIO

A live radio broadcast for each UT game can be heard on SiriusXM Satellite: XM 202; Sirius 117; Internet 969; Spanish 970.

SPANISH LANGUAGE BROADCAST

The Longhorns Sports Network will also offer a Spanish Language Radio broadcast of all Texas Football games.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO IN COVERAGE

Any media entity collecting "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/post-game interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, Web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Its usage also must be used only as supporting video/audio for a reported story and not simply as rebroadcasted/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape-delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance, written permission of The University of Texas Athletics Department.

POSTGAME

The Longhorns locker room is closed. Postgame interviews at home will be conducted in the Moncrief Athletics Complex. Interviews on the road will be conducted at a designated area. NO INTERVIEWS ARE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. After a NCAA required and team-enforced 10-minute cooling off period, players and coaches will be escorted to the interview area. Failure to abide by this rule will result in termination of credential.

POST-PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Practices are closed to the public and media. There will be post-practice media availability on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Moncrief Athletics Complex, though the best time for interviews is during the Monday news conference which begins at 11 a.m. (CT) on the ninth floor of Bellmont Hall (west side of Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium). Interview inquiries should be sent to associate AD for media relations John Bianco (john.bianco@athletics.utexas.edu).

GAME 1: #15/15 TEXAS (56), NEW MEXICO STATE (7)
AUGUST 31 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 99,623 • LHN
WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLEAR SKIES (100 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas -- David Ash threw for 343 yards and four touchdowns and No. 15 Texas set a school record with 715 total offensive yards in a season-opening 56-7 win over New Mexico State.

Led by Ash, the Longhorns (1-0) scored on five straight possessions after falling behind 7-0, averaging 54.6 yards per play on the five touchdowns. Ash hit John Harris for a 54-yard touchdown for the first of the five successive scores, and plays of 66 yards (Ash to Daje Johnson), 24 yards (Johnson run), 55 yards (Ash run) and 74 yards (Ash to Malcolm Brown) followed.

Texas reached the 700-yard mark in total offense for the first time in school history with a balanced attack, racking up 359 yards on the ground and 356 through the air. Ash had 91 yards on the ground, including the 55-yard TD run in the third quarter, while Joe Bergeron finished with 79 yards and Johnson had 62. Brown recorded the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, turning three catches into 109 yards.

Jalen Overstreet, who didn't enter the game until midway through the fourth quarter, led the Longhorns with 92 rushing yards on nine carries. His two touchdowns – one coming from a yard out and the other coming on a 38-yard dash – were the first of his Texas career.

"We rushed for over 300 yards, and David ran the ball well, so that really helped us," said head coach Mack Brown. "That's something we need to do is have our quarterback be an extra runner in key situations. I thought he looked for the run tonight. That's something he didn't do very much last year."

While Ash and the offense produced, the Texas defense forced three turnovers and shut down the Aggies (0-1) after allowing their lone touchdown in the second quarter - an 11-yard touchdown pass from Joshua Bowen to Andrew McDonald. Texas defensive ends Cedric Reed and Jackson Jeffcoat led the way with seven tackles apiece, including a sack for Reed.

Leading 35-7 following the third quarter, Texas kept its foot on the gas, scoring on all three of its possessions in the fourth quarter.

Mike Davis made an acrobatic, 25-yard catch in the corner of the end zone, just getting one foot in bounds to increase the lead to 42-7. Overstreet rushed six times for 43 yards in his first drive as a Longhorn and capped it off with a one-yard touchdown run. The sophomore scored his second touchdown of the game on a 38-yard run, completing the scoring for the Longhorns.

"It goes to show, if we really execute 60 minutes, we can be good," said co-offensive coordinator Major Applewhite. "It's okay to say that. It's out there. Let's go get it."

Texas ran its winning streak in season openers to 14 and is now 15-1 in openers under Brown.

GAME 2: BYU (40), #15/15 TEXAS (21)

SEPTEMBER 7 • LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM • PROVO, UTAH

ATTENDANCE: 63,197 • ESPN 2

WEATHER CONDITIONS: WIND AND CLOUDY: RAIN DELAY PRIOR TO GAME (63 DEGREES)

PROVO, Utah - Brigham Young quarterback Taysom Hill ran for 259 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cougars past No. 15 Texas, 40-21, at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

Texas quarterback David Ash went 19-of-34 for 251 yards and running back Jonathan Gray had 90 yards on 13 carries, but the Longhorns surrendered 550 rushing yards to BYU.

The Longhorns held an early 14-10 lead, but BYU scored 24 unanswered points – behind a pair of touchdown runs from Hill – to assume control.

Joe Bergeron's 2-yard rushing touchdown early in the second quarter gave Texas a 14-10 lead, but BYU answered less than three minutes later to take a lead it wouldn't surrender. On the ensuing drive after Texas' go-ahead score, the Cougars had their drive prolonged by a roughing the kicker penalty and scored four plays later on a 20-yard run by Hill.

A touchdown run of 10 yards by Paul Lasike and a 32-yard field goal by Justin Sorensen just before halftime gave BYU a 27-14 lead going into the break. Hill's 26-yard touchdown run with 10:02 left in the third quarter stretched the lead to 34-14.

Ash connected with Mike Davis for a touchdown for the second time in the game on a 23-yard pass midway through the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 34-21, but Texas would get no closer.

Sorensen kicked a pair of field goals – one from 36 yards and the last from 24 – to complete the scoring.

Ash's first scoring play came on a 57-yard touchdown to Davis that gave Texas a 7-3 lead with 3:21 left in the first quarter. But just 64 seconds later, Hill answered with a 68-yard touchdown run to give BYU the lead.

Ash was injured midway through the fourth quarter and Case McCoy entered the game. Despite a 45-yard pass to Jaxon Shipley, the Longhorns couldn't get on the board in the final stanza.

Duke Thomas made his first career interception and Malcom Brown recovered a fumble as the Longhorns won the turnover battle 2-0. Jordan Hicks (16) and Cedric Reed (14) both had career highs in tackles. The game was delayed nearly two hours due to rain and lightning.

GAME 3: #25/25 OLE MISS (44), TEXAS (23)
SEPTEMBER 14 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 101,474 • LHN
WEATHER CONDITIONS: PARTLY CLOUDY (94 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas - Texas quarterback Case McCoy went 24 of 36 for 196 yards and a touchdown and running back Jonathan Gray ran for 97 yards, but No. 25/25 Ole Miss rallied to win 44-23 in sold out Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

The Longhorns (1-2), playing without starting quarterback David Ash, built a 23-17 halftime lead behind McCoy, Gray and place-kicker Anthony Fera's three field goals. McCoy went 11 of 13 for 104 yards and a TD, while Gray ran for 88 yards in the first half.

Ole Miss quarterback Bo Wallace went 17 of 25 for 177 yards and two touchdowns while running back Jeff Scott ran for 164 yards on 19 carries.

A 5-yard touchdown run from Scott and an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wallace to Donte Moncrief put the Longhorns in a 14-point hole early in the first quarter.

But the UT defense held the Rebels (3-0) to 38 total yards on their next four possessions and McCoy got the offense on track with five straight scoring drives. He connected with Mike Davis on a 13-yard touchdown pass and Fera hit a 28-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 14-10 with 13:12 left in the second quarter.

Gray had an 8-yard TD run on the following possession and Fera hit two more field goals, including a career-long 47-yarder, to increase the lead to 23-14. His second field goal of the game was set up by an Ole Miss fumble.

After Texas' offensive surge, the Rebels (3-0) responded with 30 unanswered points. The Rebels finished the half with a 52-yard field goal by Andrew Ritter that was setup by a 15-yard targeting penalty.

"You've got to go back and take your momentum back in the second half," head coach Mack Brown said. "We let them have the momentum going in. We didn't take the momentum going out in the second half, and we never got it back."

Ole Miss scored three touchdowns in the third quarter when the Texas offense was only able to muster 48 yards of offense. Wallace ran for a 15-yard score and found Evan Engram on a 17-yard touchdown pass, then Scott had a 73-yard punt return for a TD, increasing the Rebels' lead to 37-23 with 0:09 left in the third.

Rebels running back Jaylen Walton provided the game's final points with an 8-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter, putting the Rebels up 44-23.

Scott had 243 all-purpose yards for Ole Miss.

Ash suffered head and shoulder injuries against BYU and was ruled out of the game Friday. McCoy made his seventh-career start and first since last season's Kansas State contest.

With the loss, Texas had its three-game winning streak in the series snapped. The crowd of 101,474 was the third largest in stadium history.

GAME 4: TEXAS (31), K-STATE (21)

WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLEAR SKIES (78 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas - Behind a career-high 141 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Johnathan Gray and a defense which forced three turnovers, Texas defeated Kansas State, 31-21, at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

The victory was the Longhorns' first over the Wildcats since 2003 and snapped a five-game losing streak.

Texas quarterback David Ash went 14 of 25 with 166 yards and a touchdown in the first half to help the Longhorns take a 17-7 halftime lead. Ash had concussion symptoms and didn't play after the halftime break, giving way to senior Case McCoy who played last week vs. Ole Miss.

Texas (2-2, 1-0 Big 12) finished nine of 18 on third-down conversions, including four on its first scoring drive of the game, which was capped by a 27-yard field goal from Anthony Fera.

Three plays after the defense forced Kansas State's second punt of the game, Ash fired downfield and hit Kendall Sanders for a 63-yard touchdown. The play marked the sixth different Texas player to score a touchdown of 50 yards or longer this season.

Ash completed a 10-yard pass to Jaxon Shipley on fourth-and-2 and two plays later Gray ran the ball in for a 21-yard touchdown, putting the Wildcats (2-2, 0-1) into a 17-0 hole in the second quarter.

"Last week we were more conservative in fourth-down situations, didn't go for things," said head coach Mack Brown, who tied Woody Hayes for 10th on the NCAA all-time coaches victories list with the win. "We said we're going to have to score some points in this league to win. So let's go for it."

The Wildcats crossed into UT territory for the first time with two minutes left in the first half and John Hubert got them on the board with a 15-yard touchdown run.

Ash drove the Horns into Kansas State territory with less one minute left in the half, but the Horns were unable to convert a fourth-and-3 from the 40.

The junior missed last week's Ole Miss game with head and shoulder injuries, but was cleared to play Friday against Kansas State.

"With the new concussion rules, if they have symptoms pop back up, they take you out, period," said Mack Brown. "He had symptoms at half-time. (The medical staff) said he couldn't play the second half."

McCoy led the Longhorns to touchdowns on two of his first three drives. A fumble by Hubert and some trickery set up the first touchdown.

Three straight rushes by Gray netted just 8 yards and the Horns set up to punt from the K-State 48, but Alex De La Torre took the direct snap and weaved 19 yards for a first down. Four plays later, Gray scampered 15 yards for his second touchdown of the night.

The Wildcats cut the deficit to 24-14 on Hubert's 4-yard touchdown run with 13:22 left in the game, but the Longhorns answered on the ensuing possession.

Malcolm Brown capped off an 11-play, 66-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run with 9:11 remaining.

Texas finished with 227 rushing yards and 225 passing yards in the game. Texas' 452 total yards were the most in the 14 all-time meetings with Kansas State.

After being aided by a targeting penalty and ejection to Texas linebacker Steve Edmond, the Wildcats cut the lead to 31-21 on a 1-yard sneak from quarterback Jake Waters who was 19 of 30 for 275 yards.

The Longhorns sealed the win with two fumble recoveries in the final three minutes, one from Dalton Santos and the other by Chris Whaley.

"We told them in the dressing room, this is a start, this isn't the end," Brown said. "We had to get this game tonight. We had to get back on the right track. We had to get 1-0 against the Big 12 champs from last year that we have not been successful against in a very physical ballgame."

Steve Edmond led Texas with 11 tackles and the Longhorns had four sacks.

Tyler Lockett led K-State with 237 receiving yards on 13 catches.

GAME 5: TEXAS (31), IOWA STATE (30)

OCTOBER 3 • JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA

ATTENDANCE: 52,762 • ESPN

WEATHER CONDITIONS: MOSTLY CLOUDY (79 DEGREES)

AMES, Iowa - Case McCoy's 1-yard touchdown run on a quarterback sneak with 51 seconds left lifted Texas over Iowa State, 31-30.

McCoy, who went 26 of 45 for 244 passing yards and a touchdown subbing for injured starter David Ash, led Texas (3-2, 2-0) on the game-winning 75-yard drive in a Big 12 Conference contest that featured six lead changes.

Jonathan Gray ran 16 times for 89 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown run. Iowa State's Sam Richardson passed for 262 yards and rushed for another 83, though he was sacked five times. Running back Aaron Wimberly had 117 rushing yards and a touchdown for the Cyclones (1-3, 0-1) who lost for the 10th time in 11 all-time meetings with Texas.

Trailing 30-24 after the defense forced an ISU field goal, Texas got the ball back with less than four minutes left in the game. With the help of a face mask penalty and two pass interference calls, including one in the end zone, the Longhorns had a first-and-goal with less than 1:30 left.

Gray had two cracks at punching the ball in the end zone from the 2-yard line. He gained 1 yard on the first attempt and appeared to fumble, but he was ruled down and there was no video evidence to change the call. Gray did fumble on the next play, but made the recovery after Jake Knott jarred the ball loose. Then on third-and-goal, McCoy plunged in from 1 yard out.

Iowa State was unable to get in field-goal range on its final possession. The Cyclones moved the ball to the Texas 42, but Cedric Reed deflected a Richardson pass attempt with 13 seconds left and Jackson Jeffcoat picked it off to seal the win.

The teams traded leads throughout the game, but Gray's 45-yard touchdown on the Longhorns' fifth offensive play gave them an early 7-0 lead. The rush was the second longest of his career.

Reed caused James White to fumble on Iowa State's third offensive series, but the Horns were unable to convert that into a touchdown despite taking over at the Cyclones' 16. Anthony Fera's 29-yard field goal gave the Horns a 10-0 lead with 2:27 left in the first quarter.

However, the Cyclones responded in the second quarter with 13 consecutive points. On its fifth drive of the game, Iowa State went 5-for-5 on third downs, including Richardson's 11-yard touchdown pass to Wimberly on third-and-9. Cole Netten hit two field goals in the quarter, one from 37 yards and the other from 41.

Texas took a 17-13 lead on its final drive of the first half. The Longhorns got the ball back on their 25 with only 33 seconds on the clock, but completions to Joe Bergeron (12 yards) and Jaxon Shipley (19 yards) moved the ball to the ISU 44 with four seconds left. On the final play of the first half, McCoy eluded the rush and found John Harris for a 44-yard touchdown on the 'Hail Mary' toss.

Richardson found Quenton Bundrage for a 97-yard touchdown in the middle of the third quarter that gave Iowa State a 20-17 lead.

But Texas responded on the ensuing possession. McCoy and Mike Davis connected on three completions to move the ball to the UT 40. Davis then drew pass interference penalties on the next two plays. Three plays later, Bergeron scored on a 6-yard touchdown run to put the Longhorns ahead 24-20.

But a Bergeron fumble with 12:54 left in the game gave the Cyclones the ball on the Texas 37. Three plays later, Wimberly ran it in from 20 yards to make it 27-24.

The Cyclones had a chance to put the game away late in the fourth, but the UT defense answered the call. The Cyclones had a second-and-1 from the UT 4-yard line, but Wimberly lost 2 yards on a run and then Richardson was rushed and threw incomplete.

Iowa State settled for a Netten 29-yard field goal with 3:40 left to set up the game-winning drive.

Ash missed his second game of the season. He was ruled out of the Iowa State game Friday due to a head injury. The Longhorns were also without starting right tackle Josh Cochran.

GAME 6: TEXAS (36), #12/10 OKLAHOMA (20)

OCTOBER 12 • COTTON BOWL STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS

ATTENDANCE: 92,500 • ABC

WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLOUDY (80 DEGREES)

DALLAS -- Case McCoy threw for 190 yards and two touchdowns, Johnathan Gray and Malcolm Brown both topped 100 rushing yards, and Texas never trailed in a 36-20 victory over No. 12/10 Oklahoma in the annual AT&T Red River Rivalry.

Four different Longhorns scored touchdowns as Texas (4-2, 3-0) defeated the Sooners (5-1, 2-1) for the first time since 2009. Texas also scored two non-offensive touchdowns in one game for the first time since 2009 - one on a 31-yard interception return from Chris Whaley and another on an 85-yard punt return from Daje Johnson.

McCoy, a senior playing in his last game against OU, engineered six scoring drives, Gray ran a career-high 29 times for 123 yards and Brown added 120 yards on 23 carries. The Longhorns totaled 445 yards of offense, including 255 on the ground, and held on to the ball for 35:15, while limiting Oklahoma to 263 total yards, its lowest output in the series since 2005.

"I'm proud of our guys," said Texas head coach Mack Brown. "The difference in this game was we ran the ball much better than we have in the last two years, we stopped the run better than we did the last two years, we forced more turnovers than we did turn the ball over, and we had a big play in the kicking game even though we gave them one."

Texas took control early and held a double-digit lead for much of the game. With the score tied 3-3 late in the first quarter, Whaley intercepted Oklahoma quarterback Blake Bell when the defensive lineman dropped into coverage on a zone blitz and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown.

On a third-and-11 midway through the second quarter, McCoy connected with Marcus Johnson for a 59-yard touchdown on a beautifully thrown ball down the right sideline. The Longhorns extended the lead to 17-3 on that play and went on to pile up 304 yards of offense and convert 9 of 12 third downs in the first half.

Anthony Fera hit a career-long 50-yard field goal to put Texas on top 20-3 with 3:22 left in the first half.

Oklahoma's Ray Finch set up Oklahoma's first touchdown of the game with a 73-yard return of the ensuing kickoff. Running back Damien Williams capped a five-play, 27-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 20-10.

But the Sooners never got closer as Texas countered by driving 41 yards on six plays in 58 seconds to set up Fera for a 43-yard field goal that gave the Longhorns a 23-10 halftime lead.

Oklahoma opened the second half scoring with a 37-yard field goal by Michael Hunnicutt. Texas' defense forced a punt on the Sooners' next possession and the Longhorns got their second non-offensive touchdown of the game when Johnson returned it 85 yards for a touchdown. It marked Texas' longest punt return for a touchdown since 2005, when Aaron Ross had an 88-yarder. The return was also the first of Johnson's career after taking over as the No. 1 returner for this game.

On the following drive, Bell was intercepted by Duke Thomas at the Texas 31-yard line. The Longhorns took advantage of the possession and Mike Davis capped off the drive with his first catch of the game, a 38-yard touchdown reception on another beautifully thrown ball from McCoy.

Oklahoma's Geneo Grissom picked off McCoy - his first interception thrown this season to snap a string of 126 straight passes - and returned it for a 54-yard touchdown, cutting Texas' lead to 36-20 early in the fourth quarter. But the Longhorns held on from there, stopping the Sooners on their final drive and using the running game to bleed out the clock.

Adrian Phillips led Texas with nine tackles, while Jackson Jeffcoat had two sacks. Cedric Reed and Quandre Diggs had one sack apiece. The Longhorn offensive line didn't surrender a sack all game.

Oklahoma finished 2 of 13 on third down while Texas was 13 of 20. Most importantly, the Longhorns were even in the turnover battle after being plagued by those miscues in the three-game losing streak to the Sooners (a combined minus-9).

GAME 7: TEXAS (30), TCU (7)

OCTOBER 26 • AMON G. CARTER STADIUM • FORT WORTH, TEXAS

ATTENDANCE: 48,212 • FOX SPORTS 1

WEATHER CONDITIONS: PARTLY CLOUDY (77 DEGREES)

FORT WORTH, Texas - Malcolm Brown ran for two touchdowns, Case McCoy threw for 228 yards and Texas' defense stifled TCU throughout in a 30-7 win that featured a 3-hour, 6-minute lightning delay and ended Sunday morning.

The Longhorns improved to 5-2 overall and remain in a first-place tie with Baylor atop the Big 12 standings at 4-0.

Texas used a balanced offensive attack – McCoy had four pass plays of more than 30 yards – and Brown and Johnathan Gray accounted for 145 of the Longhorns' 187 rushing yards. Marcus Johnson had a career-high 120 receiving yards, hauling in receptions of 65, 43 and 12 yards.

Gray led Texas with 94 yards on 22 carries, while Brown had 51 yards on 17 carries. TCU (3-5, 1-4) came into the game ranked first in the Big 12 and 17th nationally by allowing just 115.3 rushing yards per game. Anthony Fera kicked three field goals to help the Longhorns hand TCU its first home loss of the season.

Texas' defense controlled the game throughout. The Longhorns gave up just 246 yards and forced TCU to punt on nine of its final 11 possessions (the other two ended with a fumble on a punt return and the clock expiring at the end of the game) while also forcing three turnovers. UT entered the game with 13 sacks over the last three contests, which was tied for the fourth most in the FBS over that span. The Horns had two in the first seven defensive snaps of the game and three overall.

The weather delay occurred with 6:08 left in the second quarter (7:51 p.m. CT) with Texas leading 17-7. There was a steady rain throughout the delay and consistent lightning around sold-out Amon G. Carter Stadium. The game could not resume until there was no lightning for a 30-minute period.

Prior to the delay, Quandre Diggs set the tone when he strip-sacked quarterback Trevone Boykin on TCU's second possession of the game. Adrian Phillips recovered the fumble at the TCU 3-yard line and one play later, Brown ran it in to give the Longhorns a 7-0 lead.

After a 43-yard field goal from Fera, TCU answered with a five-play, 70-yard drive near the end of the first quarter to get within 10-7. The Horned Frogs struck on a double pass, with quarterback Casey Pachall throwing a backwards screen to wide receiver Cameron Echols-Luper, who then threw to LaDarius Brown for a 38-yard touchdown.

Texas, though, countered two drives later when McCoy dropped back on a third-and-10 and hit Johnson in stride down the sideline for a 65-yard touchdown. It marked the second-straight game McCoy and Johnson connected on a long touchdown, as the duo previously hooked up for a 59-yarder vs. Oklahoma.

McCoy's second long strike of the game occurred shortly after the game resumed at 10:57 p.m. CT. The senior, making his fourth start of the season in place of injured David Ash, hit Mike Davis on a 44-yard pass with six seconds left in the first half. That set up a 37-yard field goal by Fera, giving the Longhorns a 20-7 lead at the half, which was abbreviated to 3:00 due to the long weather delay.

On their first possession of the second half, the Longhorns went 89 yards on eight plays – seven of them runs – to go ahead 27-7. The lone pass play on the drive was a 43-yard connection from McCoy to Johnson.

The Longhorns let their defense take it from there. Texas held TCU quarterback Casey Pachall, who replaced Boykin in the first quarter, to 13-of-34 passing for 139 yards and an interception. Aaron Green led the Horned Frogs with 34 rushing yards.

Texas improved to 62-21-1 all-time against TCU, including a 30-9 advantage in Fort Worth. The Horns made their first trip to Fort Worth since 1994.

GAME 8: TEXAS (35), KANSAS (13)

NOVEMBER 2 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 97,105 • LHN
WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLEAR SKIES (72 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas -- Malcolm Brown rushed for a career-high four touchdowns, Chris Whaley returned a fumble 40 yards for a touchdown, and Texas' defense kept Kansas in check throughout a 35-13 win that put Texas atop the Big 12 standings at 5-0.

Brown rushed 20 times for 119 yards while scoring multiple touchdowns for the second straight game – he had two last weekend at TCU – and Johnathan Gray added 68 yards on the ground. Case McCoy went 20 of 29 for 196 yards, and Jaxon Shipley posted 77 yards on six receptions. The victory moved Texas (6-2, 5-0) a half-game ahead of idle Baylor in the conference standings.

The Texas defense limited Kansas (2-6, 0-5) to nine first downs on its first 12 possessions, while forcing the Jayhawks into five three-and-outs. Kansas was held to 140 rushing yards and 306 total yards, and didn't score a touchdown until putting together a nine-play, 75-yard drive late in the fourth quarter with the game out of reach.

Cedric Reed provided constant pressure for Texas' defensive front, recording three tackles for a loss and two sacks. The junior defensive end also forced the fumble that Whaley scored on. Dalton Santos led the defense with eight tackles, while Steve Edmond and Jackson Jeffcoat had six apiece.

Brown scored on runs of 2, 3, 1 and 30 yards, and averaged 5.9 yards per carry in recording his second 100-yard effort in the last three games. Daje Johnson had a career-high seven catches for 46 yards, and finished with 152 all-purpose yards. Four of Shipley's six catches came on third down and resulted in first downs.

Leading 14-6 in the second quarter, the defense provided a scoring punch. Whaley scored his second defensive touchdown in the last three games when he scooped up a fumble forced by Reed and returned it 40 yards for the score with 6:25 left in the third quarter. Against Oklahoma, Whaley had a 31-yard interception return for a TD.

After Texas forced Kansas' offense into a three-and-out, the Longhorns put the game away. UT marched 57 yards on nine plays – spurred by a 31-yard pass from McCoy to Marcus Johnson on third down – and Brown capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run to make it 28-6 with 45 seconds left in the third quarter. Brown scored his fourth touchdown on a 30-yard scamper with 9:07 left in the game.

The drive was emblematic of much of the game for Texas, which was balanced once again with 221 rushing yards and 197 passing yards.

Early in the game, Texas struck first on its longest drive of the season, going 92 yards on eight plays while taking 6:29 off the clock. Shipley had three catches for 47 yards on the drive, including two on third down that extended the drive, and Brown punched it in from 2 yards out to make it 7-0.

A series after turning it over on downs when attempting to convert on fourth-and-1, the Longhorns went ahead 14-0 with a seven-play, 56-yard drive. Brown setup his second touchdown with a 21-yard run that got Texas to the 3-yard line, and the junior punched it in one play later.

Kansas got on the board with a 21-yard field goal from Ron Doherty as time expired in the first half. The field goal was set up with a 43-yard catch by Rodriguez Coleman. The Jayhawks added another field goal, this time from 27 yards, on their first drive of the second half to make it 14-6.

But KU didn't score again until Montell Cozart had a 20-yard touchdown run with 5:28 to play, making it 35-13.

Texas improved to 12-2 all-time against Kansas, including a perfect 7-0 in Austin. The Longhorns have outscored KU by an average of 47.7 to 13.0 at home.

GAME 9: TEXAS (47), WEST VIRGINIA (40) OT NOVEMBER 9 • MILAN PUSKAR STADIUM • MORGANTOWN, W.VA. ATTENDANCE: 58,570 • FOX WEATHER CONDITIONS: MOSTLY CLEAR (54 DEGREES)

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. -- Case McCoy hit Alex De La Torre for a 2-yard touch-down pass in overtime and Texas knocked off West Virginia, 47-40, in a back-and-forth affair.

Linebacker Steve Edmond twice prevented West Virginia from the equalizing score in overtime -- first tipping a pass in the end zone on third down, and then intercepting quarterback Paul Millard in the end zone on fourth down to seal the win.

McCoy went 27 of 49 for 283 yards and three touchdowns and the Texas defense forced five turnovers in a game that featured seven lead changes. Jaxon Shipley caught seven passes for 82 yards and a touchdown, and Malcolm Brown ran 28 times for 89 yards and a score.

Edmond, who had a career- and team-high 12 tackles on the night, was part of a defensive effort that recorded six sacks and 10 tackles for loss. The Longhorns also forced four fumbles -- recovering three -- and had two interceptions.

Texas sent the game into overtime when Anthony Fera booted his fourth field goal of the game, a 24-yarder with 13 seconds left in regulation.

The two sides traded scores throughout the second half, turning what was a 19-13 West Virginia lead at halftime into a seesaw affair.

After Adrian Phillips intercepted Millard to setup a 29-yard field goal from Fera to make it 19-16, West Virginia went on a 91-yard touchdown drive to go back ahead by 10.

Texas responded with an eight-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to get within 26-23. McCoy hit Mike Davis for a 49-yard touchdown pass to cap off the drive.

The McCoy and Davis pairing were instrumental in Texas' next possession which led to a go-ahead touchdown. Davis drew a pass interference penalty and had a 29-yard reception to put Texas in scoring position. Joe Bergeron gave Texas the lead with an 8-yard run, making it 30-26 Texas, with 16 seconds left in the third quarter.

But West Virginia again retook the lead on the ensuing possession. A short kickoff and a face-mask penalty gave the Mountaineers good field possession at their own 48-yard line, and six plays later Dreamius Smith scampered in from 8 yards out to make it 33-30.

Yet again, Texas answered. The Longhorns went on an 11-play, 66-yard drive to retake the lead. McCoy went 5 of 8 for 54 yards on the drive, including two crucial completions to Shipley. McCoy hit Shipley for a 36-yard gain on third-and-14, and three plays later again connected with McCoy on an 8-yard pass in the end zone.

On the Mountaineers' ensuing possession, Millard hit Mario Alford for a 72-yard strike to give West Virginia a 40-37 lead.

Texas drove down again to tie it. McCoy connected with Shipley for 9 yards on a fourth-and-7 to prolong the drive, and Brown had a 27-yard run to setup the game-tying field goal by Fera.

In the first half, West Virginia got a big play on special teams -- blocking a punt for a safety and turning the ensuing drive into a touchdown for an early 9-0 lead.

Texas' next two drives ended in a fumble and interception, but the Longhorns' defense prevented West Virginia from scoring on both of the resulting possessions.

Texas' defensive front provided constant pressure. The Longhorns had sacks on three straight plays in one span in the first quarter -- with Desmond Jackson forcing a fumble on the third of those that Jackson Jeffcoat recovered, setting up a 37-yard field goal from Fera.

Texas forced another fumble on the Mountaineers' next drive, when Quandre Diggs applied initial pressure, and Cedric Reed forced and recovered a fumble. Taking over at the WVU 27-yard line, Texas took the lead five plays later when Malcolm Brown scored on a 2-yard touchdown run, Texas held West Virginia just 19 yards of total offense in the first quarter, and forced three-and-outs or a turnover on five of its first six possessions.

West Virginia retook the lead midway through the second half with a five-play, 51-yard drive capped off by a 6-yard rushing touchdown by Charles Sims to make it 16-10 Mountaineers.

Texas got another field goal from Fera with 4:56 left in the second quarter after Carrington Byndom forced West Virginia's third fumble of the half and Cedric Reed recovered at the 7-yard line. Fera's 25-yard kick made it 16-13, but the Mountaineers stretched their lead to 19-13 with a 30-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

AUSTIN, Texas -- Quarterback Clint Chelf went 16 of 22 for 197 yards through the air and ran for another 95 yards with two scores to lead the No. 12/10 Oklahoma State past No. 23/24 Texas.

Case McCoy went 26 of 39 for 221 yards for the Longhorns, but threw three interceptions that led to 14 points for the Cowboys, as Texas had its six-game winning streak snapped despite holding a 389-380 advantage in total yards of offense. The Longhorns (7-3, 6-1) fell into a second-place tie in the Big 12 standings with Oklahoma State (9-1, 6-1).

Though Texas fell behind early, the Longhorns used a heavy dose of Malcolm Brown and Joe Bergeron to stay close much of the first half. That duo combined to rush 22 times for 92 yards in the first half and Texas trailed just 14-10 after Brown's 7-yard touchdown run with 3:39 left, but OSU scored twice in the last 1:15 of the second quarter to take a commanding 28-10 lead going into the locker room.

Brown finished the game with 73 yards on 25 carries, while Bergeron had 49 yards on 10 carries. Mike Davis caught nine passes for 112 yards and moved past Quan Cosby for fourth place on Texas' career receiving yards list (2,615).

Trailing 14-3 after Chelf's second rushing touchdown of the game, Texas put together a 10-play, 75-yard drive to make it 14-10. The Longhorns rushed seven times on the drive and Brown capped it with the 7-yard touchdown run. Bergeron had 36 yards on four rushes, including a 21-yard run, on the drive.

Oklahoma State answered, however, when wide receiver Tracy Moore caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from Chelf that deflected off safety Adrian Phillips' hand with 1:15 left in the first half. Then with 18 seconds left, McCoy was intercepted by Justin Gilbert who returned it 43 yards down the sideline for a touchdown to make it 28-10.

On the opening drive of the second half, McCoy went 5 of 6 for 64 yards -- including a 41-yard strike to Davis - and Texas marched down to the OSU 10-yard line. But the drive stalled and the Longhorns had to settle for a 27-yard field goal from Anthony Fera.

Oklahoma State responded with a field goal of its own on the ensuing drive, and Texas was unable to move the ball on offense its next five drives.

Oklahoma State picked off McCoy for the second time late in the third quarter -- this time with linebacker Caleb Lavey intercepting a short pass over the middle and returning it 23 yards. One play later, Chelf hit Moore for a 21-yard score to make it 38-13.

Field position played a major role. The Longhorns started inside their own 20-yard line on seven possessions and inside their 35 on all 14 possessions.

Oklahoma State marched 72 yards in seven plays on its second drive of the game to take an early 7-0 lead. Chelf accounted for all 72 yards on the drive -- 54 rushing and 18 passing -- and capped it off with an 18-yard TD run.

Texas responded by driving 60 yards down the field, but the drive stalled and Fera kicked a 39-yard field goal to make it 7-3.

Freshman quarterback Tyrone Swoopes made a late cameo and went 3 of 4 for 17 yards while rushing five times for 22 yards. Jaxon Shipley caught six passes for 43 yards and moved into seventh place on Texas' career receptions list (155).

Moore led the OSU receiving corps, finishing with 83 yards on six catches. Desmond Roland had 59 yards on 19 carries for the Cowboys.

AUSTIN, Texas -- Malcolm Brown and Joe Bergeron both topped 100 rushing yards, Texas' defense had a season-high nine sacks, and the Longhorns ran past Texas Tech 41-16.

Brown ran for 128 yards on 27 carries and Bergeron had 102 yards on 17 as Texas improved to 8-3 overall and 7-1 in the Big 12 on Senior Day. Heading into the regular-season finale at Baylor, the Longhorns are tied for first place in the league standings with Oklahoma State.

After falling behind early when Texas Tech turned a fake punt into a 51-yard touchdown, the Longhorns controlled much of the game. Aside from the scamper on the fake punt, Texas Tech had just 8 yards rushing on 17 attempts in the first half.

The defensive line provided constant pressure. Jackson Jeffcoat tallied a career-high three sacks, vaulting himself into the school's career top 10 in that category. Cedric Reed had two, while Caleb Bluiett, Bryce Cottrell, Duke Thomas and Reggie Wilson had one each, giving Texas its most sacks since recording 10 in the Alamo Bowl last season.

Quarterback Case McCoy went 10 of 19 for 139 yards and accounted for three touchdowns -- two passing to Mike Davis and a 1-yard run. Davis, who had four catches for 165 yards and two touchdowns at Texas Tech last season, again burned the Red Raiders by finishing with 112 yards on four receptions, including the two TDs.

Leading 20-10 at halftime, the Longhorns put the game away in the third quarter. McCoy ran it in from a yard out with 10:04 left in the third quarter, and the defense forced Texas Tech into two punts and a turnover on downs in its next three drives. Texas increased its lead to 34-10 when Davis caught a 7-yard touchdown pass with 14:56 left in the fourth quarter.

Texas Tech cut the lead to 34-16 when Jace Amaro caught an 11-yard touchdown pass with 11:04 left, but Texas padded the lead when backup quarterback Tyrone Swoopes scored on a 1-yard touchdown with 4:22 remaining.

The Longhorns built a 20-10 halftime lead behind touchdowns from Bergeron and Davis and two field goals from Anthony Fera, one of 20 seniors making their final appearance at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

After Texas Tech's fake-punt touchdown, the Longhorns answered on their next drive. Texas went 49 yards on 11 plays -- six of them runs by Brown -- to setup a 37-yard field goal by Fera.

Duke Thomas, who earlier sacked Tech quarterback Baker Mayfield, came up with his second big play of the game when he intercepted Baker on Tech's following possession. After Tech missed a 40-yard field goal attempt, Texas took its first lead when McCoy hit Davis on a deep pass down the middle of the field for a 47-yard touchdown to make it 10-7.

Fera increased the lead midway through the second quarter. After a seven-play, 27-yard drive stalled, Fera connected from 49 yards to give Texas a 13-7 lead.

On Texas' next drive, Jaxon Shipley took a reverse from Brown, then threw downfield and hit Davis in stride for a 43-yard gain. Five plays later, Bergeron ran for a 12-yard touchdown and a 20-7 Texas lead.

Texas Tech place-kicker Ryan Bustin hit a 32-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter to cut the Texas lead to 20-10 at halftime.
