BIG 12 CONFERENCE

TEXAS WELCOMES NEW MEXICO STATE FOR SEASON OPENER: Texas will open its 16th season under Mack Brown by playing host to New Mexico State on Saturday, Aug. 31. The Longhorns won all four of the previous meetings with the Aggies. The teams last met 10 years ago with UT rolling to a 66-7 win in Austin. Texas posted a 9-4 record in 2012 which ended with a thrilling 31-27 victory over No. 15/14 Oregon State in the Valero Alamo Bowl. The Longhorns ended the year ranked No. 19 in the Associated Press poll and No. 18 in the USA Today Coaches poll. They are ranked No. 15 in both preseason polls. The Aggies were 1-11 last season and are in their first season playing as an Independent since the WAC is not sponsoring football in 2013.

UT IN OPENERS: In its previous 120 years of football, UT is 100-17-3 (.846) in season-opening games. The Longhorns are 78-7-2 (.908) when opening the year at home. Head Coach Mack Brown is 14-1 in openers at Texas, including 13 wins in a row, victories in 16 of his last 17, and 22 of his last 25 season-opening games. Brown was 8-2 in season openers at North Carolina. In Brown's 15 openers at Texas, the Horns have outscored their opponents by an average of 46.0-11.9 (Total: 690-179).

FIRST NATIONAL TITLE TO BE RECOGNIZED: Throughout the 2013 season, the Longhorns will recognize the 1963 National Championship team which went a perfect 11-0 under head coach Darrell K Royal. The Horns ascended to No. 1 in the polls after knocking off top-ranked Oklahoma, 28-7, in their annual showdown on Oct. 12. UT went on to down No. 2 Navy, 28-6, in the Cotton Bowl. Several former players will be present during a ceremony before the New Mexico State game. In addition, player numbers will be placed above the steerhead on the game helmets.

STARTERS RETURNING: Texas has 19 positional starters back from 2012, including 10 on offense and nine on defense. There are 16 offensive players on the roster who have started at least one game while the defense includes 18 players with one or more starts in their career.

STARTERS LOST: Texas will have to replace one primary starter on offense and two on defense as WR Marquise Goodwin, S Kenny Vaccaro and DE Alex Okafor departed for the NFL. Several other players who made at least one start last season also finished their UT careers, including OT/TE Luke Poehlmann, TE D.J. Grant, FB Ryan Roberson and RB D.J. Monroe, along with DT Brandon Moore, who elected to turn pro as a junior. On special teams, P Alex King completed his one season of eligibility after transferring from Duke as graduate student.

LETTERWINNERS RETURNING: The Longhorns return a total of 52 letterwinners from last season with 23 on offense, 23 on defense and six specialists. Meanwhile, Texas lost only 13 letterwinners, including nine on offense, three on defense and one specialist.

2003	Texas 66, New Mexico State 7	10-3 (7-1/2nd in Big 12)	3-9 (2-5/7th in Sun Belt)

LAST TIME VS. NEW MEXICO STATE: There were a number of milestones when the Longhorns downed New Mexico State, 66-7, on Aug. 31, 2003. Head coach Mack Brown notched his 50th win at Texas, Longhorn legend Vince Young made his college debut, Selvin Young set a school record with a pair of special teams scores, and the defense forced five turnovers, including two interception returns for TDs. Vince Young played just the fourth quarter, but ended up leading the team with 61 rushing yards. Selvin Young became the first player in UT history to return both a kickoff (97 yards) and a punt (39 yards) for a touchdown in the same season, and the only one to ever do it in the same game. During the 2008 season, Jordan Shipley had kickoff return (vs. Oklahoma) and punt return (at Texas Tech) for touchdowns.

BREAKING DOWN THE 2013 SCHEDULE: UT will play nine of its 12 games this season against teams that made a bowl appearance in 2012. Nine of the opponents registered at least seven wins and six had eight or more victories. Last season, Texas played eight teams that were in bowl games in 2011. The Horns ended up playing six ranked teams in 2012, the most since 2004 (also six). It was sixth time in school history UT played as many as six ranked teams in a season. The Longhorns played a school-record seven in 1990. UT opens 2013 with some home-cooking, playing three of its first four games in Austin. The Horns close the season with two of their final three at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium. Texas will visit BYU for just the second time ever on Sept. 7 and West Virginia for the first time on Nov. 9. Ole Miss will travel to Austin for the first time since 1925.

QUARTERBACKS: Texas returns two quarterbacks with starting experience headlined by junior David Ash, a preseason All-Big 12 pick and member of the watch lists for the 2013 Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Manning and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose awards. Last year, Ash started 12 games of 13 games, completing 214 of 318 pass attempts with 19 TDs and eight interceptions. He ranked 15th in the FBS in completion percentage (67.3) and 21st in passing efficiency (153.28 rating). For his career, Ash has now made 18 starts with a 12-6 record, including wins in 10 of his last 13. He ranks eighth on the UT career passing yards list (3,778), and is ninth in TD passes (23). Senior Case McCoy served as the backup in 2012, starting one game (vs. Kansas State), and opens 2013 as the No. 2 signal-caller. Last year, he completed 54 of 76 passes (71.1 percent) for 722 yards with six TDs and three INTs. He also led a game-winning drive at Kansas. He has six career starts in 21 appearances and has thrown for 1,756 and 13 TDs. Along with Ash and McCoy, true freshman Tyrone Swoopes enrolled in January and began practicing with the team in the spring. He is listed as the No. 3 quarterback. Jalen Overstreet moved from QB to tailback in the offseason.

MACK BROWN (Florida State '74): Texas' 16th-year head coach is 150-43 (.777), including 91-31 in the Big 12. He led UT to the 2005 National Championship, and has a 236-117-1 (.668) mark over his 29-year career. Brown is the Big 12's winningest active coach (FBS/Division I-A games only) and has three BCS bowl wins in four appearances.

DOUG MARTIN (Kentucky '85): Martin is in his first season with the Aggies. He was named the 34th head coach on Feb. 1, 2013. He previously served as the head coach at Kent State University for seven seasons (2004-10). This is his second stint with the Aggies. He was their offensive coordinator during the 2011 season. That season, the Aggies ranked 47th nationally in total offense and 26th in passing offense.

WIDE RECEIVERS: Texas returns its two leaders in receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs from 2012. Junior Jaxon Shipley led in receptions with 59 (No. 10 on UT single-season list), just two ahead of senior Mike Davis, who led with 939 receiving yards and seven TDs, just ahead of Shipley's 737 yards and six TDs. Davis and Shipley are both on the preseason watch list for the 2013 Biletnikoff Award. Davis' 16.5 yards per catch ranked third in the Big 12 and 21st in the FBS. For his career, Davis ranks seventh on both the UT receptions list (149) and career receiving yards chart (2,026). Juniors Bryant Jackson and John Harris, along with sophomores Kendall Sanders and Marcus Johnson all contributed to the receiving corps in 2012. In addition, sophomore Daje Johnson could see time at wideout. Chevoski Collins, Montrel Meander, Jake Oliver and Jacorey Warrick are true freshmen who could see action.

RUNNING BACKS: Texas' running backs corps features depth and versatility, returning four backs who each rushed for at least 200 yards last season. Sophomore Johnathan Gray led the group in his true freshman year with 701 yards and three TDs on 149 carries (4.7 ypc), while junior Joe Bergeron racked up 16 rushing TDs (No. 15 in FBS) to give him 21 for his career. He also has 1,030 career rushing yards after netting 567 in 2012. Junior Malcolm Brown enters 2013 with the most career starts (eight), despite starting only one game in 2012 due to injury. Brown rushed for 324 yards and four TDs on just 61 carries (5.3 ypc), while contributing in eight games. He also returns as the leading rusher with 1,066 career yards to go along with nine TDs. Gray and Brown both led Texas in rushing as true freshmen and were the first to do so since Cedric Benson in 2001. Sophomore Daje Johnson is the fourth player in the group to surpass 200 rushing yards with 203 on 27 carries (7.5 ypc). He was also the leading receiver of the group with 287 yards on 19 receptions. Brown, Gray and Bergeron combined for 35 receptions for 347 yards. Jalen Overstreet is a new addition to the tailback corps, having been moved from QB over the summer. The redshirt freshman gives the Horns an additional threat. Texas also returns two of its three primary contributors at fullback in Alex De La Torre and Chet Moss. Both have been contributors on special teams as well.

TIGHT ENDS: Texas lost its top receiving tight end from each of the last two seasons in D.J. Grant, however, junior Greg Daniels returns after starting eight games in 2012, along with sophomore M.J. McFarland, who started four times last season. McFarland had fewer receptions than Grant, but tied him for the team lead in TE receiving yards with 125 to go along with one TD. The Longhorns also received a boost at the position in the offseason with the addition of junior-college transfer Geoff Swaim. He enrolled in January and participated in spring practice. Swaim played the last two seasons at Butte Community College. He was the fourth-ranked JUCO tight end by ESPN.com in 2012.

OFFENSIVE LINE: All five primary starters return to an offensive line that helped the Horns post the 23rd-best scoring offense in the country (35.7 ppg) and rank 40th in total yards (434.6 pg), as well as allowing just 4.1 tackles for loss per game (No. 3 in the FBS) and 1.23 sacks (22nd in FBS) in 2012. Those five (junior OT Josh Cochran, senior OG Mason Walters, junior C Dominic Espinosa, senior OG Trey Hopkins and senior OT Donald Hawkins) combined for 62 of a possible 65 starts at those positions. They have also played in a combined 139 career games, led by Walters, who has started 38 of 39 career games, and Hopkins, who has started 29 of 37 career games. Hopkins and Walters were both placed on the preseason watch list for the Outland Trophy. The Longhorns also return several players who could contribute this season, including senior Garrett Porter, sophomores Sedrick Flowers, Taylor Doyle, and Kennedy Estelle, and redshirt freshmen Camrhon Hughes and Curtis Riser. There are also five newcomers, including Desmond Harrison, a junior-college transfer, and true freshmen Rami Hammad, Darius James, Jake Raulerson and Kent Perkins.

DEFENSIVE END: Along the defensive line, Jackson Jeffcoat and Cedric Reed return at the defensive end spot following the loss of Alex Okafor, who led the Big 12 and tied for ninth in the FBS in sacks (0.96 pg) last season. Reed started the last six games of 2012 for an injured Jeffcoat, contributing 2.5 sacks, eight TFL and 13 pressures to go along with Jeffcoat's four sacks and 11 TFL, both of which were still second on the team despite his shortened season. For his career, Jeffcoat has played in 27 games with 20 starts and should be in the running for postseason awards. He is on the preseason watch lists for the 2013 Bednarik Award, Nagurski Trophy, Lott Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award. Senior Reggie Wilson and sophomore Shiro Davis also made significant contributions in 2012. Redshirt freshmen Caleb Bluiett and Bryce Cottrell give the Horns two more athletic choices at end.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE: On the interior of the defensive line, the Longhorns return three players who started games in 2012, led by junior Desmond Jackson (11 starts) and senior Chris Whaley (nine starts). Senior Ashton Dorsey also started two games. That group, combined with sophomore Malcom Brown, tallied 23 TFL with 10 by Dorsey, seven by Jackson, four by Whaley and two by Brown. A trio of redshirt freshmen - Paul Boyette Jr., Alex Norman and Hassan Ridgeway - will also look to have an impact this season.

LINEBACKERS: After losing two of its most experienced players to the NFL entering 2012, the linebacking corps quickly lost a third with an injury to Jordan Hicks three games into the season. But that injury allowed a number of players to see their snaps increase. The Horns have seven linebackers on the roster with 10 or more career games played. Junior Steve Edmond started 12 games last year, while junior Kendall Thompson started seven and senior Demarco Cobbs started six. Peter Jinkens also emerged during his true freshman season to start three contests in addition to junior Tevin Jackson (two starts) and sophomore Dalton Santos (one start). Edmond finished second on the team with 103 tackles, followed by Thompson with 60. The group also lost Cobbs to injury late in the year, however as a unit, the LBs combined for 30 TFLs. Junior Aaron Benson also returns, while freshman Timothy Cole will look to contribute following his redshirt year. True freshmen Deoundrei Davis and Naashon Hughes are newcomers who could figure into the rotation. Davis enrolled in January, though he was limited due to a knee injury suffered last fall.

SECONDARY: Three starters in seniors Carrington Byndom and Adrian Phillips, along with junior Quandre Diggs, return to positions in the secondary, in addition to junior Mykkele Thompson who saw significant starts when the Longhorns opened in the nickel. That group has combined to play in 127 career games, including 71 starts. Junior S Josh Turner also started one game in 2012 while adding 49 tackles and two INTs. Diggs, a preseason All-American and candidate for the Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award, led the team with four INTs and seven PBUs, while Byndom, a preseason All-Big 12 pick and Thorpe Award candidate, added three INTs and six PBUs. Phillips also had two INTs and finished third on the team in tackles with 72. The secondary also saw contributions from juniors Leroy Scott and Sheroid Evans, along with sophomore Duke Thomas, while redshirt freshmen Adrian Colbert and Bryson Echols will contend for snaps. True freshmen Antwuan Davis and Eric Huhn could vie for time.

SPECIALISTS: The Longhorns return a number of specialists in 2013, many of whom played key roles as freshmen in 2012. Both sophomore Nick Jordan and senior Anthony Fera are back after handling the place-kicking duties. Fera worked at punter in the spring after the loss of Alex King to graduation. Holding for the kickers is senior Cade McCrary, who has handled those duties for the last three seasons. Both primary snappers also return in junior short snapper Nate Boyer and sophomore long snapper Kyle Ashby. Sophomore Nick Rose is back after kicking off on 82 of Texas' 85 attempts last season. Sophomore K Ben Pruitt and junior P Will Russ are also back this season.

PRESEASON NATIONAL AWARD WATCH LISTS: Texas is well represented on the preseason watch lists for national awards. The Horns have 11 players represented a total of 26 times on 15 award lists.

ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM/JAMAIL FIELD RENOVATIONS

As Texas football proceeds through the 21st century, Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium continues to evolve as a state of the-art facility at the forefront of college football.

Following the 2008 season, Texas installed FieldTurf as its playing surface and permanent bleachers were added to the south end of the stadium.

Combined with the previous year's north end zone project, DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium now has a stadium capacity of 100,119, which is the fifth-largest college stadium in the country and the largest college stadium in the southwest.

Prior to the 2013 season, the field surface was replaced and seats throughout the lower bowl were replaced.

The north end zone expansion project that was completed prior to the 2008 season featured an upper deck, club seating, an academic center and a war memorial plaza. The expansion added approximately 2,108 club seats and 47 suites.

The lower deck of the north end zone was completed for the 2007 season. Another major upgrade was made prior to 2007, when a new video board was installed at the south end of the stadium. At the time, the scoreboard was the nation's largest high-definition video display board thanks to Daktronics. The $8-million Prostar Video Board is 56 feet high by 134 feet wide. Then after the 2012 season, UT worked with Daktronics to provide an upgrade to the video and audio capabilities in the stadium.

In addition, the interior of the Moncrief Athletics Complex, most notably the players' lounge, is consistently being upgraded. Prior to 2009, a new academic center was constructed. It is approximately three times the size of the previous center. It features writing, math and computer labs, numerous tutoring areas, a multimedia classroom and academic staff office space.

In the summer of 2011, the Longhorns locker room was renovated. It was all part of a $176.5 million renovation project at the stadium.

2012 REWIND:

• The Horns ended the year ranked No. 23 in the nation in scoring (35.7 ppg) and 40th in total offense (434.6 ypg). Texas scored more than 40 points in five games and posted 400 or more total yards nine times.

• The Longhorns ranked 10th in the nation in passing efficiency (154.4 rating), led by David Ash who was 21st (153.3).

• Texas was 14th in the FBS in offensive third-down efficiency, converting 48.6 percent (87 off 179) of its attempts.

• Johnathan Gray was the top freshman rusher in the Big 12, averaging 53.9 yards per game, a mark that was 11th overall. Gray ranked 18th nationally among freshman rushers. Joe Bergeron ranked second in the league in rushing TDs (16).

• Junior Mike Davis ranked third in the Big 12 and 21st in the FBS in yards per reception at 16.5 (minimum 40 catches).

• Senior DE Alex Okafor led the Big 12 and tied for ninth in the FBS in sacks (0.96 pg). He was also second in the league and tied for 27th nationally in tackles for loss (1.27 pg). He had a TFL in all but three games and 11.5 sacks in the last 11 games.

• Safety Kenny Vaccaro (107) and LB Steve Edmond (103) ranked first and second on the team in tackles. Vaccaro's tackle total was the most by a Texas DB since Michael Griffin had 126 in 2006.

• The Longhorns ended the year ranked sixth in the FBS in tackles for loss (7.69 per game) and No. 19 in sacks (2.69 pg). The team's 10 sacks in the Alamo Bowl were tied for second most nationally on the 2012 single-game list.

• Texas was tied for third in the FBS with seven blocked kicks.

• The Horns ranked No. 37 in the nation in kickoff returns (23.2 ypr), led by D.J. Monroe who was No. 36 (24.5 ypr).

DEFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT: While the offense was consistent throughout the 2012 season with nine games of more than 400 total yards, the defense, with just two seniors on the two-deep and three starters out with season-ending injuries took time to come together as the season progressed. Over the final six contests, the defense showed quite a bit of improvement:

	First 7 Games	Last 6 Games
Points Allowed	35.0 pg	22.5 pg
Rushing Yards	215.7 pg	164.6 pg
Passing Yards	256.4 pg	160.2 pg
Total Yards	472.1 pg	324.8 pg
Yards per Play	6.6	5.1
Opp. Comp. %	62.0	54.8
Red-Zone TDs	61% (19/31)	56% (15/25)

Since halftime of the Kansas game (final 22 quarters of the season), the Longhorns allowed just 121 points. In the 22 previous quarters, opponents scored 242 points.

16TH YEAR UNDER MACK BROWN: Mack Brown, who is in his 16th season at Texas, is just the fourth coach in the 120 years of Texas football to lead the team for at least a decade and just the second coach to win 100 games while at the school. Darrell Royal, who won 167 games (1957-76), has the longest tenure at 20 years. Brown is the first coach in UT history to post more than 200 victories during a career (150 at Texas). Brown moved ahead of Fred Akers, who posted 86 wins from 1977-86, during the 2006 season.

NO. 2 ALL-TIME: In 2008, Texas moved ahead of Notre Dame for second place on the NCAA all-time victory list. At 867 victories, Texas trails only Michigan in all-time wins. With the Longhorns in second place on that list, it marked the first time since 1932 that Michigan and Notre Dame did not occupy the one-two spots in all-time wins. Since Mack Brown arrived in 1998, Texas has posted a 150-43 (.777) record and moved ahead of Alabama, Notre Dame and Nebraska on the all-time victory chart.

BROWN ON NATIONAL SCENE: With a 150-43 (.777) record at UT, Mack Brown has led Texas to the nation's third-most victories over the last 15 years. In addition, Brown has guided the Horns to a 123-32 (.794) mark over the last 11-plus seasons, which is the nation's third-best winning percentage over that time span, and includes six 11-win seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '08 and '09). The 11-win seasons are fourth-best to UT's 13-win campaigns in 2005 and '09, and its 12-win season in '08.

13 OF 14 IN THE BCS

200 CAREER VICTORIES: With a victory against Texas A&M in 2008, Mack Brown became the first head coach in UT history to reach the 200-victory plateau during a career, and he currently has a career record of 236-117-1 (.668). In 2012, Brown moved from 14th to 11th on the NCAA all-time victories list, passing Bo Schembechler, Hayden Fry and Jim Tressel, and sitting only two wins behind Woody Hayes. Brown became just the 19th coach who has spent at least 10 years at a NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) school, to win 200 games and the seventh-youngest coach to do so. He also is one of only three active coaches who have reached the 200-victory mark while coaching at an FBS school. In addition, Brown is one of only seven active coaches at FBS schools who have won 100 games at their current school (150-43/.777). Of the coaches who have won 100 games at the same FBS school, Brown is the 12th-fastest to reach the century mark (124 games) and the fourth-quickest among active coaches.

10-WIN SEASONS: Texas is one of just two teams in college football history to win at least 10 games in nine straight seasons (2001-09). The Horns' streak trailed only Florida State's streak of 14 consecutive seasons in NCAA history. In addition, Texas posted 12-win seasons in back-to-back years for the first time in school history. Prior to Brown's arrival, the Horns had never before posted consecutive 11-win campaigns let alone consecutive 12-win seasons. Brown has led the Horns to six seasons with 11 or more wins. That compares to the four 11-win seasons (1963, '69, '77 and '83) in Texas history before Brown's arrival.

MACK BROWN SUCCESS: Under Brown, the Horns have posted Top 10 finishes seven times in the last 10 years (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09). Prior to his arrival, the last time UT finished in the Top 10 was 1983. In addition, Texas played in a bowl game for a school-record 12 consecutive seasons from 1998-2009, bettering the previous streak of nine straight from 1977-85. Brown's personal strings, including time at North Carolina, go back even further. He has posted winning seasons in 22 out of the last 23 years and taken his teams to 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons. His 22 winning seasons in the last 23 years is the best active streak in the nation and his 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons is tied for the best active streak in the nation with Frank Beamer.

STRING OF SUCCESS: Texas has finished the year ranked among the nation's top 15 in 10 of the last 13 seasons, which includes a string of 10 straight, a Longhorn record. In addition, UT has finished in the top 10 in seven of the last 12 seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09) and in the top Five in four of the last nine ('04, '05, '08 and '09). You have to go back to Darrell Royal's string of success in the late 1960s, when the Horns finished among the top five in four out of five years (1968-72), to equal that consistency in UT history.

BOWL SUCCESS: Texas has played in bowl game 14 times in Mack Brown's 15 years. That stretch included a UT-record stretch of 12 straight from 1998-2009, which bettered the previous mark of nine consecutive from 1977-85. The Horns have won nine of their last 11 bowls and have an 10-4 record under Brown. In the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to eight bowls and was 2-6. Brown is the first UT coach since Darrell Royal, who was 8-7-1 in bowl games, to post a .500 or better bowl record. With a 24-21 victory over No. 10 Ohio State in the 2009 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Texas won bowl games in five consecutive years for the first time in school history (2004-08). The Horns did win five straight previously (1963-64, '66, '68-69), but the streak was interrupted by seasons that did not result in a bowl. Brown's personal string, including time at North Carolina, goes back even further. He has directed his teams to 20 bowls in the last 21 seasons, which is tied for the longest active streak in the nation with Frank Beamer of Virginia Tech.

UT'S BIG 12 SUCCESS AT HOME: Texas is 43-11 (.796) at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field vs. league opponents during the Mack Brown era. The 43 home victories are the second-most by any team in the league over the last 15 years. In addition, the Horns set the league record with a 26-game home winning streak over Big 12 opponents, which was snapped in 2006. Prior to 2006, the last time UT had lost a home game against a league foe was 1999 (35-17 to No. 13 K-State).

BIG 12 ROAD SUCCESS: Texas has won 38 of its last 46 (.826) true Big 12 road games (excluding neutral-site games), including a league-record 13 consecutive conference road wins from 2002-06. The Horns are 42-10 (.808) in league road contests under Mack Brown. Highlighting the Horns' road record under Brown are victories at Nebraska (1998) to end the Huskers' nation-best 47-game home winning streak, another win that snapped a Nebraska 26-game home winning streak (2002), and a victory to break Oklahoma State's 10-game winning streak (2003).

CONFERENCE COMPETITION: Mack Brown, who has guided the Horns to the 2005 and 2009 Big 12 Championships and has won or shared the Big 12 South Division title six times, is 91-31 (.746) in 15 seasons of Big 12 play. That is the second-best league record over that span behind Oklahoma (95-27/.779) and betters Nebraska (65-39), Kansas State (70-52) and Texas Tech (66-56). At 99-39 (.717), Texas has the second-best intraconference record since the Big 12 formed in 1996.

BIG 12 WINNING STREAKS: The Horns tied the school record by winning 21 straight conference games from 2004-06 before the streak was snapped at Kansas State in 2006. The record of 21 straight conference victories was set from 1968-71 when Texas was competing in the Southwest Conference. The 21 straight Big 12 victories also marked the longest streak in league history. Texas also has the second-longest home winning streak in Big 12 history with 26 straight victories from 1999-2006 and the longest road winning streak in conference play with 13 straight wins from 2002-06.

"FAN"-TASTIC: Texas home games have been among the best-attended in the nation over the past 10 years. The Horns, who have played in front of a sellout crowd in 73 of their last 78 home games, have attracted the top 40 crowds, and 58 of the top 59, in UT history since Mack Brown took over in 1998. In addition, the top 30 home crowds at Texas have come since '08. Texas' school-record season-ticket sales of 84,071 in 2010 are more than double the 39,743 sold in 1997, the UT record when Brown arrived. Texas set the single-game attendance record against West Virginia in 2012 with a crowd of 101,851 and have drawn 100,000 or more 22 times in school history. The West Virginia game had the largest crowd to see a college sporting event in the Southwest. The single-season record for home attendance is 704,580 set in 2010.

longest in school history). Then, from 2003-06, Texas won 16 straight home games, which is tied for the fourth-best string. UT had another 16-game string from 2007-10. The longest streak in school history is a 42-game stretch from 1968-76. Texas' 26-game home intraconference winning streak from 1999-2006 is the second-longest in Big 12 history.

DRAWING FANS ON THE ROAD: UT has attracted record crowds in 12 of its road games over the past seven seasons: at Oklahoma State (58,516, 2009), vs. Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl (96,009, 2009-11 and 92,182, 2008), at Texas Tech (60,879, 2012; 60,454, 2010; 56,333, 2008 and 56,158, 2006), at UTEP (53,415, 2008), at Texas A&M (88,253, 2007) and at Nebraska (85,187, 2006). The attendance at the Ole Miss game (9/15) was 61,797, the fourth largest in school history and most since a school-record 62,657 fans at the 2009 Alabama game. It was also the largest crowd ever for a non-conference game in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The Horns were part of another record vs. Texas Tech. The Red Raiders had Jones AT&T Stadium-record crowd of 60,879 on Nov. 3.

ROAD WARRIORS: Texas is 74-28 (.725) away from home (road and neutral sites) over the last 15 years compared to a 49-44-2 (.526) record in the 15 years prior to Mack Brown's arrival in 1998. The Horns' 71-25 (.740) mark in road and neutral-site games since 1999 is the nation's second-best record over that span. Texas is 56-13 (.812) on the road (excluding neutral-site games) and 47-7 (.870) vs. unranked road foes during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Brown's arrival, UT posted just six winning road records in the 15 seasons leading up to 1998. During that time, UT was just 38-35 (.521) in true road games. The Longhorns have won 51 of their last 59 true road games (.864). In addition, UT is currently on a streak of 13 consecutive non-conference road wins, which is a school record, bettering the previous streak of seven from 1956-63.

TOP 25 TEXAS: Under Mack Brown, Texas has been one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 years with the other being Virginia Tech. It is one of only three schools to do so in the Associated Press poll, with the third being Georgia, and is also one of only three to do so in the coaches poll, including Florida.

AP TOP 25 FINISHES: Texas has finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 completed years in Austin, making the Horns one of three team to accomplish that with Virginia Tech and Georgia. The run also includes a string of 12 straight, marking the first time in school history Texas had finished in the AP Top 25 for 12 straight years, bettering the previous record of eight straight (1968-75). Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

COACHES POLL FINISHES: Texas has been ranked in the first and last coaches poll in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 seasons in Austin. The Longhorns are one of only three teams in the nation to finish in the Top 25 in 13 of the last 15 years, including Virginia Tech and Florida. Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the coaches' Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

UT AND THE AP TOP 10: As a result of its loss at Kansas State in 2006, Texas had its string of 46 straight weeks in the AP Top 10 snapped. Prior to that, the last time the Horns were not among the AP Top 10 was in the final poll of the 2003 season. The 46 straight weeks was the longest for the Horns in the Mack Brown era. The longest Texas streak in the AP Top 10 is 60 weeks from 1961-65. With its loss to UCLA in 2010, Texas had a streak of 33 consecutive weeks ranked in the Top 10 broken. In addition, prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and is the longest streak in the Mack Brown era, bettering a 19-week streak from 2005-06.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMERS UNDER BROWN: Colt McCoy is one of just five QBs in NCAA history to post four seasons with at least 2,500 yards passing. Cedric Benson became the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for over 1,000 yards in four straight seasons and finished his career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time rushing list (5,540 yards). Vince Young became the first player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards and pass for 3,000 yards in one season.

BROWN'S TOP 10 HORNS: Mack Brown revived the Horns as a Top 10 regular beginning with a No. 5 preseason ranking in 2001. Since then, the Horns have earned a Top 10 standing in 125 of the last 177 AP polls. All totaled, UT has spent 132 weeks ranked among the AP Top 10, and 137 weeks ranked in the Coaches Top 10 since Brown arrived in 1998. That Coaches poll streak resumed in the Oct. 2, 2011 poll when the Longhorns returned with a No. 10 ranking and they spent three weeks in the top 10 in 2012. In the previous 15-year stretch prior to his arrival, UT spent just 38 weeks rated among the Top 10. Brown has led the Horns to a final Top 10 ranking in seven of the last 12 seasons. In 2008, Brown led Texas to its first regular-season No. 1 ranking since 1984. In 2005, he led UT to its first No. 1 ranking to end the season since 1969. Before Brown took over the program, the last time UT earned a Top 10 finish was 1983. From the start of the 1984 season to Brown's arrival in 1998, UT was in the Top 10 just 28 times in 14 seasons.

TACKLING THE TOP 25: Texas is 30-18 (.625) in its last 48 games vs. Top 25 opponents. Nine of those losses have come to Top-10 ranked teams. That's a continuation of the success the Longhorns have had against ranked foes during the Mack Brown era. In Brown's 15 years in Austin, UT is 37-29 (.561) vs. Top 25 opponents. That compares to a 22-35-3 (.392) mark in the 15 years before Brown arrived. In fact, the Longhorns have posted a winning record against ranked opponents in nine of the last 12 seasons as compared to only four times in the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival.

TEN STRAIGHT TOP 15 FINISHES: Texas' No. 2 ranking in 2009 marked the 10th straight year the Horns finished ranked among the nation's Top 15. That is the first time UT had ever accomplished that feat. The 2009 standing followed a No. 3 ranking in 2008, a No. 10 ranking in 2007, a No. 13 ranking in 2006, a No. 1 ranking in 2005, a No. 5 ranking in 2004, a No. 12 ranking in 2003, a No. 6 ranking in 2002, a No. 5 ranking in 2001 and a No. 12 ranking in 2000.

UT IN THE AP TOP 25 POLL: Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 19 in the Associated Press Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as No. 11 in the AP Top 25 both this season and in 2011. Texas returned to the poll in 2011 after its nation-leading and UT-record streak of 162 straight weeks in the poll was snapped following the loss to Oklahoma in 2010. The streak bettered a 114-week stretch from 1968-76. It was the sixth-longest streak in the history of the poll. Prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and the longest streak in the Mack Brown era.

UT IN THE COACHES POLL: Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 18th in the Coaches Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as ninth during the season, which gave them 137 weeks total in the Top 10 during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Texas' loss to Oklahoma in 2010, UT had been ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 straight weeks was the longest UT streak in any poll and the nation's longest active streak in the poll at that time. The Horns' previous longest streak in the coaches poll was 54 weeks from 1977-80.

HORNS' FINISHING TOUCH: One of the mantras of the program under Mack Brown is "finish," which the Horns have done since Brown arrived. Over Brown's 15-year tenure, UT has gone 31-7 (.816) in games decided by four points or less and 21-5 (.808) in games decided by three points or less. The Longhorns' have won 18 of their last 20 (.900) games decided by three points or less. The only losses came in shootouts against West Virginia in 2012, 48-45, and at Kansas State in 2006, 45-42, when Colt McCoy was sidelined by injury after the opening drive. The success under Brown is an improvement from the 15 years prior to his arrival when UT went 20-16-3 (.513) in games decided by four points or less and 17-12-3 (.531) in games decided by three points or less. The 45 points scored versus West Virginia were the most ever by a Texas team in a loss. The previous record was the 42 vs. Kansas State in 2006.

SCORING OFFENSE LAST 13 YEARS: Since 2000, Texas is averaging 36.45 points per game to rank sixth nationally during that time frame. Since the 2002 season Texas has scored 771 touchdowns to rank fourth most in the NCAA. Boise State leads the way with 899 touchdowns scored during that period.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION: In the first 15 seasons under Mack Brown, UT's offense produced 12 of the top 13 passing seasons, 13 of the top 15 total yardage campaigns, and the top 10 scoring years in school history. The Horns have also averaged at least 200 yards both rushing and passing in four of the 15 completed seasons. During his tenure, the Horns have registered forty-three 50-point games and five of the top seven total offense games in UT history.

SCORING SPREE: In the last four seasons, the Longhorns have scored 50 or more points in seven games, including 66 against Ole Miss and 56 against Baylor in 2012. Texas averaged 39.0 points per game in the last decade (2000-09), which ranked third nationally and second among BCS conference schools. The Horns averaged at least 35 ppg in nine of the 10 seasons, including three seasons of at least 40 ppg. In 2005, UT set a then-NCAA record with 652 total points and a school record by averaging 50.2 ppg.

MORE OFFENSE: In addition, UT has produced 500-yard total offense performances 53 times under Brown (there are only 76 of them in the 120 years of Texas football) and has recorded 12 of 22 games of 600-plus total offense yards. The Horns' balanced attack has produced at least 400 yards of offense in 96 of its last 153 games (62.7%) and has registered 200 yards both passing and rushing 44 times. Texas has scored at least 25 points in 81 of its last 110 games (73.6%). That includes a streak of at least 28 points in a UT-best 19 consecutive games from 2007-08, bettering the previous mark of 12 (2005-06). Texas also posted an 11-game streak from 2000-01. Prior to Brown's arrival, the longest streak of scoring at least 28 points was seven games.

400 RUSHING YARDS: Since 1980, UT has six games in which it has rushed for 400 or more yards, with five of those under Mack Brown. Two came in back-to-back in 2011 games with 439 yards against Texas Tech and 441 vs. Kansas.

DID YOU KNOW?

There were 18 different Longhorns who scored touchdowns in 2012. That mark was tied for third most in the FBS led by Joe Bergeron's team-high 16. In all, 22 players scored in 2012.

500 YARDS OF OFFENSE: There have been 53 games of 500 or more yards during Mack Brown's tenure. Texas recorded over 500 yards four times in 2011 with a season-high 595 yards of total offense against Texas Tech and 590 yards against Kansas. The Longhorns notched their first 500-plus yard game of the 2012 season when they put up 676 yards against Ole Miss. Texas posted 525 yards against Baylor in its 56-50 shootout victory. The Longhorns put up 609 yards against Iowa State, which is tied for the 15th-most offensive yards in a single game in UT history.

BIG PLAY OFFENSE: The Longhorns ranked 40th nationally in total offense (434.6 ypg) and 23rd in scoring (35.7 ppg) in 2012 not only because of their balance, but also big-play ability. On the season, Texas had 22 offensive plays of 40 yards or more, with 11 (50.0 percent) resulting in touchdowns. During the 2011 season, the Horns had 17 plays over 40 yards with six resulting in a TD. Eight different Horns had a 40-plus-yard offensive play in 2012 and six of them return in 2013.

LEADING THE BIG 12 ON DEFENSE

LEADING THE BIG 12: Texas led the Big 12 in total defense and rushing defense in 2011. The Longhorns led the conference in total defense for four straight years (2008-11) and seven times in conference history. UT has led the league in rushing defense in five of the last seven years and seven times since 1996. Texas has led the conference in pass efficiency defense in 2000, 2005 and 2011 and in scoring defense for the 2001, 2005 and 2008 seasons.

( ) - National Ranking

SCORING DEFENSE: Texas' defense has been a scoring machine since 1999. During that time, the defense has accounted for 320 points and scored in 45-of-181 games (24.9%). The Texas defense notched its first defensive points of the 2012 season with a Steve Edmond 22-yard interception return for a touchdown against Ole Miss. In the West Virginia game, Alex Okafor caused QB Geno Smith to fumble on the 1-yard line, and Jackson Jeffcoat recovered the ball in the end zone, to tie the game 21-all in the second quarter. Against Oklahoma, Quandre Diggs returned a blocked PAT for two points and Carrington Byndom intercepted a Landry Jones pass for a 28-yard return. The defense accounted for one touchdown on an interception return and three safeties in 2011 for 12 total points. The three safeties came in a span of four games as UT posted two points against Oklahoma State, Kansas and Missouri. UT posted four TDs and a safety in 2009 for 30 points. The Horns' defense has scored at least three TDs in 11 of the last 14 seasons, led by seven TDs scored in 2000. That defense tallied 46 points, which is the most over the 14-year stretch. The 2003 unit scored six TDs, while the 2006 unit scored five TDs.

STINGY SCORING D: During the last five seasons at Texas, the Longhorn defense has held 52-of-64 opponents (81.3%) under their season scoring averages. The Longhorns have limited 25 teams to 14 points or less in the last four-plus years. The Longhorns held Iowa State to seven points in 2012, 17 points lower than the Cyclone's scoring average entering the game. The Horns held teams to 14 points or less in three games in 2011 on the way to leading the conference in scoring defense. That matched the total from 2010 of three opponents scoring 14 points or less. In 2009, the Horns held 12-of-14 opponents under their scoring averages and didn't allow an offensive TD in four of 14 games. Texas also led the Big 12 in scoring defense in 2008 allowing just 18.8 points per game.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE: After inheriting a program that ranked among the NCAA's bottom half in total defense for the five seasons prior to his arrival, Mack Brown and his staff have reversed that trend. Texas has ranked among the nation's top 25 in total defense in 11 of the last 15 seasons and was 11th in 2011.

GUARDING THE END ZONE: Texas' defense has made it difficult for opponents to reach the end zone over the last 13 seasons. Since 2000, the Horns have allowed only 371 TDs in 166 games (2.2 TDs per game), which ranks fifth nationally. Miami has allowed the fewest, only giving up 330. In 13 games in 2011, the Horns' defense surrendered 28 TDs, including the first shutout since 2005 against Kansas. In 2010, Texas held Texas Tech to 14 points, the fewest they had scored in Lubbock in the series since 1984 (10) and the fewest overall in the series since 2001 (7). The defense held No. 5/4 Nebraska out of the end zone with the only score coming on a punt return. In 2009, the Horns' defense allowed just 23 TDs on 185 possessions (12.4%).

SHUTDOWN QUARTERS: The Longhorns have held an opponent to zero or fewer yards in a quarter nine times in the last five seasons. In the 2012 Alamo Bowl, Oregon State was held to minus-4 yards in the fourth quarter and in 2011, UT held Kansas to minus-2 yards in the second quarter and minus-1 yard in the third quarter. In the first quarters of Texas' games against UCLA (minus-6) and Texas Tech (minus-4) in 2010, the defense held the opposition to a combined minus-10 yards. Texas also held Rice to zero yards in the third quarter that season. In 2009, it held UTEP to minus-7 in the first quarter and minus-1 in the third. It then held Baylor to minus-20 in the second quarter.

GROUND PATROL: Mack Brown and his staff inherited a ground defense that had ranked no better than 64th nationally in the five seasons prior to their arrival. During Brown's 15 seasons, they have turned that around. The Horns have limited 73 of their last 152 opponents (48.0%) to fewer than 100 yards rushing and allowed just 45 individual 100-yard rushers in the last 179 games (25.1%). The Horns have been ranked in the top six in rush defense in five of the last seven seasons, including a No. 1 national ranking in 2009 (72.4 ypg). During the span of 2007-2011 (78 games), UT held opponents to just 90.0 yards per game (7,022 yards on 2,291 carries) and just 3.1 yards per carry. In addition, at home over the last seven-plus seasons (51 games), Texas has only allowed 20 teams to break the 100-yard plateau and has only allowed 11 individual 100-yard rushers. In true road games over the last six-plus season (30 games), Texas has allowed only 19 teams to reach 100 yards rushing and just nine individual 100-yard rushers. Texas has held its opponents under 50 yards rushing 46 times during the Mack Brown era.

SHORT DRIVES: The Texas defense has prevented its opponents from moving the chains on 35.9 percent of their drives over the last 11 years (154 games). During that time, UT forced 733 three-and-outs or better in 2,042 possessions. In 2011, that number stood at 67-of-175 (.383), which included 8-of-11 against Kansas, 9-of-13 vs. Kansas State, 9-of-17 against Oklahoma St. and 7-of-18 at Texas A&M. In 2010, Texas posted 41.2 percent (63-of-153) and was one of only five teams nationally to average at least five three-and-outs per game (5.25). Last season, Texas forced three-and-outs on 50 percent of an opponent's drives two times -- against Kansas and against TCU. In their attempt to mount a Thanksgiving comeback, the Longhorns' defense forced three-and-outs on all of TCU's fourth quarter drives prior to the last one in which TCU ran out the clock.

PRESSURE AT A PREMIUM: Texas is third in the nation in sacks with 515 since 1999, trailing only USC (528) and Virginia Tech (519). Since 2008, the pressure statistics have continued to increase. During that span, Texas' 523.5 TFL and 189 sacks both rank first nationally. In 2012, Texas posted 35 sacks and 99.5 tackles for loss in 13 games, capped by a 10-sack performance in the Alamo Bowl. The 99.5 TFLs ranked sixth nationally and first in the Big 12. In 2011, the Longhorns had 29 sacks and 116 tackles for loss in 13 games. Texas amassed 31 sacks and 93 TFL in 2010.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Texas' defense has forced 407 turnovers during the Mack Brown era (193 games/2.11 per game), while only giving up 335 turnovers for a plus-72 turnover margin. Overall, the Horns have averaged nearly a plus-five turnover margin per season during Brown's tenure.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE: When Texas holds onto the ball and forces turnovers it generally wins. The Longhorns, who ranked tied for 39th in the FBS in 2012 in turnover margin (+0.38 per game), are 91-5 during Mack Brown's 15-year tenure when winning the turnover battle. With its 48-45 loss to West Virginia on Oct. 6, 2012, Texas lost its first game when winning the turnover battle since midway through the 2002 season. The Longhorns lost the turnover battle to Kansas, but did not allow a TD on their two interceptions. Texas was minus-5 in turnovers (lost seven, gained two) in the final two regular-season games vs. TCU and Kansas State.

TOUGH IN THE RED ZONE: Texas had a habit of not breaking defensively in 2012. Texas Tech scored five of six times in the red zone vs. Texas, but four of those were field-goal attempts. The Red Raiders hit three of those FG attempts and one was blocked by Carrington Byndom with the Red Raiders attempting to cut into a 31-22 deficit with less than 10 minutes left in the game. Seth Doege came into the game with a 288.9 passer rating in the red zone which was No. 1 in country, according to ESPN.com. Doege was 5-for-9 for 46 yards and one TD with a passer rating of 135.2 in the red zone vs. Texas. On the season, Texas forced the opposition into 19 field goals which was the most in the nation. The Longhorns were tied for 115th in the FBS in red-zone defense (91 percent), but they allowed the opposition to score a TD on just 58.6 percent (34 of 58) of their red-zone trips which ranked 55th in the nation. Kansas, Texas Tech, Iowa State and TCU combined to score just 10 TDs on 21 trips (47.6 percent) inside the UT 20.

NON-OFFENSIVE SCORES: Since 1999, UT has scored 84 TDs via returns, turnovers and blocked kicks. The 84 scores during that stretch rank tied for second nationally with Virginia Tech (84), just trailing Kansas State (86). Texas had four non-offensive scores during the 2011 season with an interception return, a blocked punt return and two kickoff returns for touchdowns. There have been 17 kickoff returns for touchdowns in school history with 10 coming during the Mack Brown era. The lone defensive score of the year came at Texas A&M when Carrington Byndom intercepted a pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown. Texas notched its first non-offensive score of the 2012 season when Steve Edmond posted a 22-yard interception return for a TD vs. Ole Miss (9/15). D.J. Monroe added a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Oklahoma State (9/29), to set the Texas record for most career kickoff returns for a TD. Against West Virginia (10/6), Alex Okafor caused WVU QB Geno Smith to fumble on the 1-yard line, and Jackson Jeffcoat recovered the ball in the end zone, Carrington Byndom picked off Landry Jones for a 28-yard interception return for a touchdown against Oklahoma.

BLOCK THAT KICK: The Texas special teams have been just that since Mack Brown took over in 1998. Since then, Texas has blocked 82 kicks (49 punts/18 FGs/15 PATs), an average of 5.4 per season (1998-11). That is 57 more than the 25 recorded in the 13-year span prior to Brown's arrival. UT has blocked the most kicks in the nation since 2001 with 70, two more than Fresno State and Rutgers (68). The Horns tied for third in the FBS in 2012 with seven blocked kicks and their three blocked punts led the Big 12. Since Brown arrived, the Horns have had players set or equal UT records for career blocked kicks, single-season blocked kicks, career blocked punts and single-season blocked punts.

RETURN GAME: Texas has improved its kick return game, as well as defending on kickoffs and punts since Mack Brown arrived. Since 1998, the Horns have produced 11 of UT's 28 all-time punt returns for TDs and 10 of the 17 kickoff returns for scores. In contrast, UT has only given up four punt return TDs during the Mack Brown era. It had been 101 games (Kansas State, 1999) since Texas had given up a punt return for a TD before Kansas State returned one in 2007. During that time, Texas scored on four punt returns, while its opponents scored on seven. When Brown arrived in 1998, Texas hadn't returned a kickoff for a score since 1978. Then, in the 2000 Holiday Bowl, Victor Ike returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD, snapping the 265-game streak. That return was the first of eight under Mack Brown. Fozzy Whittaker matched a school record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Oklahoma and then in the next game had another 100-yard return for a TD vs. Oklahoma State. Last season, D.J. Monroe snapped Whitaker's UT record with the third of his career. He had a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD at Oklahoma State.

DID YOU KNOW?

From 1978-2000 the Longhorns did not register a kickoff return for a TD, but they have posted at least a kickoff or punt return for a score in 11 of the last 13 seasons. There have been nine kickoff returns for touchdowns since 2000.

STAFF CONTINUITY: Head coach Mack Brown had to make just one on-field staff adjustment in the offseason with co-offensive coordinator Bryan Harsin taking over as head coach of Arkansas State. Larry Porter was added to fill the void. Porter has a long history as a proven running backs coach. Major Applewhite, who coached the running backs the last two years, remained as co-offensive coordinator and takes over for Harsin tutoring the QBs. Darrell Wyatt, the wide receivers coach the last two seasons, was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. Other adjustments included Stacey Searels being promoted to assistant head coach and Bruce Chambers taking over as recruiting coordinator after splitting the duties with Wyatt. Other non-coaching staff additions for 2013 include Patrick Suddes (director of player personnel), Bob Shipley (football analyst) and Greg Robinson (football analyst).

YOUNGSTERS HIT THE FIELD: Texas had a young roster the last two years and many of them also saw the field. In 2011, an FBS-high 18 true freshmen played. During 2012, 16 true freshmen saw action, a number that was tied for first in the FBS with TCU.

GROWING UP: Last season, Texas had just nine scholarship seniors on its roster which was the fewest in the Big 12 and tied for the fourth-lowest total in the FBS. While the Longhorns are a more veteran group in 2013, they still have a relatively small senior class squad. The Horns enter the season with 15 scholarship seniors on the roster which includes six offensive players, seven defenders and two special teamers.

HOLDING ON TO THE BALL: Texas lost only five fumbles in 2012, a mark which ranked tied for sixth in the FBS. The Longhorns lost just two fumbles in the final seven games. Despite seven turnovers over the final two regular-season games, Texas still tied for 20th nationally in fewest turnovers committed (16). That mark is just two off the school record in that category (14 in 2008).

BROWN, GRAY AMONG TOP FRESHMAN RUSHERS IN UT HISTORY: Malcolm Brown tallied 742 rushing yards in 2011. He became just the 13th freshman in school history to rush for at least 500 yards in a season and his total is seventh all-time among freshmen. In 2012, Johnathan Gray became the 14th freshman to reach the 500-yard plateau with 106 rushing yards vs. Texas Tech. He ended the year with 701 rushing yards which ranks ninth on the Texas single-season freshman chart. Gray ended up earning honorable mention honors as the Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

RUN-PASS OPTION: David Ash had 19 touchdown passes and eight interceptions in 2012. He averaged 26.5 yards per TD pass, including a career long 75-yarder to Mike Davis vs. Texas Tech. If you include his 49-yard TD run against New Mexico and 11-yarder vs. Oregon State, he averaged 26.8 yards per score in 2012. Ash was one of only seven QBs in the FBS in 2012 to have a touchdown run of at least 45 yards and a TD pass of 75 yards or more. That list included Terrance Broadway (Louisiana-Lafayette), Jeff Driskel (Florida), Chuckie Keeton (Utah State), Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M), Logan Thomas (Virginia Tech) and Bo Wallace (Ole Miss).

ASH TAKES OFF: Dating back to the 2011 Holiday Bowl, David Ash has been on a roll. Over his last 13 starts (10-3 record), Ash has completed 228 of 341 passes (66.8 percent) for 2,841 yards (218.5 per game) with 20 TDs and eight interceptions. Last season, Ash ranked 15th in the FBS in completion percentage (67.3) and 21st in passing efficiency (153.3 rating). His effectiveness was even more apparent at the end of games as he ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency (203.40) during the fourth quarter, according to cfbstats.com. He completed 36 of 48 passes (75 percent) for 498 yards with six TD passes and no interceptions in the final quarter. He led the Longhorns to game-winning drives in the final 3:00 against a pair of ranked opponents – Oklahoma State and Oregon State.

ASH 15TH IN NATION IN COMPLETION PERCENTAGE: David Ash completed at least 70 percent of his passes in six games in 2012 and more than 80 on three occasions. He connected on a career-high 82.6 percent of his passes (19 of 23) vs. Ole Miss and 80.6 vs. Iowa State ranks. Ash ranked 15th in the FBS (67.3) in that category.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND: During 2012, there were 12 Longhorns who rushed the ball and 18 who caught a pass. Five players had more than 25 rushes, led by Johnathan Gray's team-high 149 carries, and eight Longhorns had more than 10 receptions, led by Jaxon Shipley's team-best 59 catches. Mike Davis chipped in 57 receptions and Marquise Goodwin had 26. Texas had six games this season where eight or more players caught passes. In addition, Davis led the team with 72.2 all-purpose yards per game and was one of seven players posting more than 50.0 yards per contest.

AMONG THE CAREER TOP 10 IN RECEIVING: Texas has two of the top receivers in school history on the current roster. Mike Davis ranks seventh in both career receptions and receiving yards after posting 57 catches for 939 yards in 2012. Jaxon Shipley is also closing in on the top 10 in both career categories after just two seasons. The Biletnikoff Award committee took notice heading into 2013 as both were placed on the preseason watch list.

BIG-PLAY ABILITY: Mike Davis came up with quite a few big plays for the Longhorns in 2012. He led the team in receiving yards (939) and touchdown receptions (seven), and was second in receptions (57). He averaged 41.1 yards on his seven touchdown catches, including a career-long 75-yarder vs. Texas Tech and a 61-yarder vs. Iowa State. Davis averaged 16.5 yards per catch in 2012 which ranked third in the Big 12 and 21st in the FBS among players with at least 40 receptions.

PULLING THEIR WEIGHT: The Longhorns are fortunate to have all five of their starting offensive lineman back from last season. In 2012, the o-line was instrumental in the Longhorns posting the 23rd-best scoring offense (35.7 ppg) in the nation, as well as allowing just 4.1 tackles for loss per game (No. 3 in the FBS) and 1.23 sacks pg (22nd in FBS). The returners are headlined by a pair of awards candidates in seniors Trey Hopkins and Mason Walters. That durable duo has combined to start 67 career games. Walters, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy for the second-straight year, has started each of the last 38 games at right guard. That total is tied for third-most on the FBS active list and tied for second among offensive linemen. Hopkins had his 29-game starting streak (16 at LG/13 at RT) snapped in last season's Valero Alamo Bowl. He is also on the preseason watch list for the Outland Trophy.

JEFFCOAT LOOKS TO BOUNCE BACK: After missing the final seven games in 2012, senior defensive end Jackson Jeffcoat will look to return to his 2011 form when he led the team in tackles for loss (21) and sacks (8.0). Jeffcoat sustained a right pectoral muscle rupture in the 2012 Oklahoma game. Jeffcoat, a national honors candidate, started the first six games of 2012 and posted 31 tackles, including a team-high 11 tackles for loss. He was also second on the team in sacks (4.0) and tied for first in forced fumbles at the time of the injury. Jeffcoat was limited in spring drills, but will be full go in the preseason. He was named to the watch lists for the 2013 Bednarik Trophy, Nagurski Trophy, Lott Trophy and CFPA Defensive Awards. He is also a preseason second team All-America choice by Lindy's and fourth team selection by Athlon.

HICKS BACK FROM INJURY: After playing just three games in 2012 due to a hip injury, junior Jordan Hicks hopes to return to form this season. Hicks started in eight games as a sophomore in 2011 and had 65 tackles, including four TFLs and one sack, and one fumble recovery. He had 23 stops in his three starts last season. Hicks entered last season as the only UT linebacker who had started a game. Now, he is one of six linebackers on the roster who has started. Steve Edmond led the way last season with 12 starts. Kendall Thompson started seven games and Demarco Cobbs six.

BYNDOM UP TO CHALLENGE: Senior Carrington Byndom has gone head-to-head with some of the top receivers in college football the last two seasons and has answered the challenge. He had 15 pass breakups and two interceptions in 2011, and six PBUs and three picks in 2012. He ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass breakups in 2011 despite starting for the first time and facing some of the top passing offenses in the nation. He has returned two of his five interceptions for touchdowns and is one of just eight players in school history with two or more. Byndom was named to the watch list for the 2013 Thorpe Award and CFPA Defensive Awards. He has started each of the last 26 games at cornerback and appeared in all 38 games the last three seasons.

DIGGS FOLLOWS IN FOOTSTEPS: Much like his older brother, Quentin Jammer, Quandre Diggs has excelled as a defensive back at Texas. In 2011, Diggs posted one of the top freshman seasons in school history for a defensive back. He was named the 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and was a FWAA Freshman All-American. He tied the school record for interceptions by a freshman, matching Chris Carter's mark of four in 1993. Diggs also had 15 pass breakups to rank second most on the UT freshman list behind Earl Thomas' 17 in 2008. Last season, Diggs led the team in both interceptions (four) and pass breakups (seven). His last interception of the season was his most important one. His third-quarter pick of Oregon State's Cody Vaz set up a touchdown which helped turn the momentum in the Longhorns as they posted a 31-27 win. Diggs ended 2012 tied for 39th in the FBS in interceptions (0.31 per game) and enters 2013 fourth on the FBS active career interceptions per game list (0.31 pg).

HARD WORK PAYS OFF FOR THREE LONGHORNS: The final day of preseason camp turned out to be a special one for three Texas Longhorns. Walk-ons Nate Boyer, Cade McCrary and Nick Rose, three key members of the special teams unit, were informed by head coach Mack Brown during a team meeting on Aug. 23 they were placed on scholarship for the 2013 season. For Boyer and McCrary, this is their second-straight season on scholarship. Rose, who handled kickoff chores last season as a true freshman, is on for the first time. Boyer is entering his second season as the snapper on field goals and extra points. McCrary is serving as the holder for the fourth-straight season.

BOYER, A KEY CONTRIBUTOR ON AND OFF THE FIELD: Nate Boyer has been an inspiration since arriving on campus in 2010. The junior long snapper earned a Bronze Star for his service with the U.S. Army Special Forces Unit and has provided assistance to autistic children and Darfur refugees. That helped lead to his selection as the 2012 recipient of the Disney Spirit Award as college football's most inspirational figure. Boyer, who first considered enlisting in the military in high school, joined the military at age 20 partly inspired by the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Before that, he spent a great deal of time coaching autistic children through therapy sessions and later provided aid to refugee camps in the Darfur region in Sudan. Boyer was presented with the award during The Home Depot College Football Awards at Walt Disney World Resort on Dec. 6, 2012. Boyer was the first Texas recipient of an award which was first bestowed in 1996. Boyer went on to earn 2012-13 Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year, an award which annually recognizes student-athletes who displayed an extraordinary degree of sportsmanship and/or community service. Along with his studies and football commitment, he also returns to active military duty each summer.

LONGHORN NEWCOMERS: As The University of Texas enters 2013, it looks to build on a 2012 season that culminated with a win over Oregon State in the Valero Alamo Bowl. With that, the Longhorns welcome a strong class of 15 newcomers on National Signing Day. Of the 15, six were selected to play in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl, one was chosen to participate in the Under Armour All-America Game, one in the International Bowl, and two in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl. Five of the players are listed among ESPN's Top 150 national prospects, and eight are in the Top 300. The class also features several prospects who were honor roll students and most of the 2013 signees have been involved in community service efforts. The success Brown and his staff have had in assembling and developing a series of highly regarded recruiting classes goes hand-in-hand with the success of the Texas Football program in the last 15 years.

TEXAS RECOGNIZED FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT BY AFCA: The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) recognized The University of Texas in 2012 for its academic excellence in graduating its freshman class of 2005. Three other Big 12 universities - Baylor, Kansas, and TCU - were also among the 47 schools honored for having a graduation rate of 75 percent or higher. Northwestern and Stanford shared the AFCA's 2012 Academic Achievement Award, which is presented by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. Northwestern and Stanford recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for members of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2005. The AFCA uses the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) formula to determine the award winner, as well as the other institutions honored. The GSR is based on a six-year graduation window for student-athletes, and was developed by the NCAA as part of its academic reform initiative to better assess the level of academic success in FBS universities nationwide. The Academic Achievement Award was established in 1981 by the College Football Association. The AFCA took over presenting the award in 1997.

LONGHORNS IN 2013 NFL DRAFT: Mack Brown continued his streak of sending top talent to the NFL. In the 2013 draft, S Kenny Vaccaro was selected 15th overall by the New Orleans Saints and became the Longhorns' tenth top 20 pick in the last 10 years. Vaccaro marks Mack Brown's 16th first-round pick while at Texas. WR Marquise Goodwin was the 78th overall pick by Buffalo in the third round, making him the eighth Longhorn drafted by the Bills since 1976. Goodwin is the sixth wide receiver to be drafted in the Mack Brown era and the third in the last six years. DE Alex Okafor was the 103rd overall by the Arizona Cardinals and is the 12th Longhorn defensive lineman selected in the last eight years. The selection of Okafor continued the eight-year streak of a Texas defensive linemen being selected.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFL: Texas is not only one of the best at the collegiate level, but since Mack Brown's arrival, it has become one of the premier sources of talent for the NFL as well. As of Aug. 22, Texas had 43 players on NFL rosters, which is sixth-most nationally. Of that group, 28 have started games during their NFL careers, including 22 who started as rookies. Among that group of 43, six have earned a spot in a Pro Bowl and six have participated in a Super Bowl with three coming away as Super Bowl Champions. The defensive backs (10), defensive line (9) and linebackers (6) lead the way and all rank first in the Big 12. In addition, Texas leads the Big 12 in Top 10 picks, Top 30 picks, Top 100 picks and Top 150 picks in the NFL Draft over the last 10 years. UT also has the most Top Five and third-most Top 10 picks in the NFL Draft since 1999. The Horns' eight Top 10 picks are two behind USC and one behind Alabama while their six Top Five picks lead LSU, Oklahoma, and USC, each of which has four.

HORNS PLACE 11 ON 2012 ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 TEAM: Texas had 11 players on the 2012 Academic All-Big 12 team, including seven on the first team. The first-team selections included sophomore DS Nate Boyer, sophomore OT Josh Cochran, senior DE Michael Cruciani, senior WR Marquise Goodwin, senior RB Heath Hohmann, junior QB Case McCoy and junior OG/C Garrett Porter. It marks the third straight year Goodwin and Porter have earned first-team honors, while McCoy did so for the second-straight year. The second team included senior TE Jackson Crawley, senior WR Jaren Nickleson, sophomore WR/TE Miles Onyegbule and sophomore S Josh Turner. Texas has led the conference in both total selections and first-team selections in five of the last seven years. In that span, the Longhorns have had 144 total honorees with 97 of those on the first team, both of which lead the Big 12. The next closest in both categories is Kansas with 105 total and 67 on the first team.

COMEBACKS UNDER MACK BROWN

During Mack Brown's 15 seasons at Texas, the Horns have registered 28 second-half comebacks, including 17 in the fourth quarter. UT has recorded the six largest comebacks in school history during the Mack Brown era.

vs. OREGON STATE (2012): Texas erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit and emerged with a thrilling 31-27 victory over No. 15/14 Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl. OSU took a 27-17 lead into the fourth quarter, but Texas scored a pair of touchdowns over the final 8:18 to secure the win. David Ash hit Johnathan Gray for a 15-yard touchdown to cut the margin to three. The sophomore QB then connected with Marquise Goodwin on a 36-yard TD with 2:24 left in the game.

at KANSAS (2012): Texas trailed twice in the fourth quarter. Case McCoy came off the bench early in the fourth quarter and led the Horns to two scoring drives. Texas tied the game at 14-all with 9:41 remaining on an 11-yard TD run by WR Marquise Goodwin. After the Jayhawks hit a field goal with 2:28 left in the game, McCoy hit tight end D.J. Grant for the 1-yard game-winning touchdown with 12 seconds left lifting No. 24 Texas to a 21-17 victory.

at RV/22 OKLAHOMA STATE (2012): UT trailed twice in the fourth quarter (33-28 & 36-34) before rallying. David Ash directed a 75-yard, eight-play drive that started with 2:34 left in the game. He was 4-for-5 for 70 yards and Joe Bergeron scored a 2-yard game-winning TD with 29 seconds left.

vs. BYU (2011): The Longhorns trailed 13-3 at the half and 16-10 entering the fourth quarter but two rushing TDs in the second half gave Texas a 17-16 win. The game-winning score by Cody Johnson came with 8:46 remaining in the game on a four-yard TD run that capped an eight-play, 52-yard drive.

vs. NO. 21/20 NEBRASKA (2009): Texas held the lead against Nebraska for much of the second-half, but a Nebraska field goal with 1:44 left gave the Cornhuskers a 12-10 lead. The Horns quickly moved down the field on the ensuing possession, setting up a Hunter Lawrence 46-yard field goal as time expired, giving UT a 13-12 victory and the 2009 Big 12 Championship.

vs. NO. 20/18 OKLAHOMA (2009): The Horns trailed 6-3 at halftime but scored 10 points on their first two drives of the second half to take a 13-6 lead. The Sooners came back with a TD to make it 13-13, but UT answered with a field goal early in the fourth quarter to take a 16-13 lead, which would end up being the final score. After giving up the TD to OU with 4:39 left in the third quarter, the Horns' defense didn't allow the Sooners into Texas territory for the rest of the game, allowing just 35 yards on 17 plays (2.1 ypp) and intercepting two passes.

vs. NO. 10 OHIO STATE (2008): Texas trailed 6-3 at the half before taking a 17-6 lead entering the fourth quarter. But, the Buckeyes ran off 15 straight points to take a 21-17 lead with just 2:05 remaining. From there, Colt McCoy led an 11-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard TD pass to Quan Cosby with 16 seconds left to give UT the 24-21 victory.

vs. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA (2008): The Horns erased two 11-point deficits in the first half and trailed by one, 21-20, at halftime. OU went up 28-20 before Texas scored 10 straight to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter. OU answered with a TD early in the fourth to make it 35-30, but UT scored the game's final 15 points over the last 7:37 to win, 45-35. In total, Texas went on a 25-7 run to seal the victory.

at OKLAHOMA STATE (2007): Texas erased two fourth-quarter deficits and a second-half one, including the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history against Oklahoma State. The Horns trailed 35-14 before scoring 24 unanswered points to win, 38-35.

NEBRASKA (2007): Texas trailed Nebraska, 17-9, entering the fourth quarter before running off 19 straight points to win, 28-25. After falling behind 17-3 early in the third quarter, Texas produced 336 total yards and 25 points in the second half to help seal the victory.

at TEXAS TECH (2006): After trailing Texas Tech, 21-0, in the first quarter, the Horns closed the gap to 31-21 at halftime and 31-28 entering the fourth quarter, before going on to win 35-31.

at NO. 4 OHIO STATE (2005): The Horns trailed the Buckeyes, 22-16, entering the final quarter, but Vince Young connected with Limas Sweed for a 24-yard TD with 2:37 remaining to give Texas a 23-22 lead. A late safety gave the Horns a 25-22 victory.

vs. NO. 1 USC (2005): The Longhorns trailed 38-26 with 6:42 remaining in the game before Vince Young led two TD drives, including his game-winning eight-yard TD run with just 19 seconds left, to secure the win and the National Championship.

Prior to 2005: The Horns notched four second-half comebacks and a fourth-quarter comeback in 2004, including a 28-point comeback against Oklahoma State, the largest in school history. UT also registered a halftime comeback in '02, a fourth-quarter comeback in '01, two halftime comebacks in 1999 and two fourth-quarter comebacks in '98.

TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS

3: The Longhorns have had three defensive backs chosen in the same draft twice in the last seven years.

3: The Longhorns have three BCS Bowl victories in four appearances, including winning the 2005 National Championship.

4: Quandre Diggs tied the school freshman record with a team-high four interceptions in 2011. He then added four more as a sophomore.

5: Against Baylor Joe Bergeron became the third player in UT history to rush for at least five TDs in a game (Ricky Williams, 4; Cedric Benson, 1).

6: Texas leads the nation with six Top Five NFL Draft picks over the last 10 years.

7: Mike Davis ranks seventh in UT history in both career receptions (149) and receiving yards (2,026) entering his senior season.

7: Texas blocked seven kicks in 2012, which tied for third in the FBS.

8: Eight Longhorns have been drafted in the Top 10 of the NFL Draft in the last 10 years, the third-most of any school in the nation.

9: Texas has produced the top nine scoring seasons in UT history during the Mack Brown era, including a school record 652 points in 2005.

10: Texas has posted a UT record 10 bowl wins in 14 appearances during the Mack Brown era.

11: Mack Brown ranks 11th all-time in FBS history with 236 career wins, which is two more than Bo Schembechler and two fewer than Woody Hayes.

11: Since Duane Akina arrived in 2001, 11 of his 12 starting cornerbacks have gone on to play in the NFL.

12: Texas has only lost back-to-back games 12 times in 15 years in the Mack Brown era.

13: Texas is the one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 seasons (Virginia Tech).

14: Texas finished 14th in the FBS in offensive third-down efficiency in 2012, converting 48.6 percent (87 of 179).

16: Sixteen true freshmen played in 2012, which was tied for most in the nation (TCU - 16; LSU - 15; Ohio State - 15).

18: Texas has won 18 of its last 20 games (.900) that were decided by three points or less.

18: Texas played 18 true freshmen, the most in the nation in 2011.

21: David Ash finished 2012 ranked 21st in the nation in passing efficiency with a 153.28 rating.

SATELLITE RADIO

A live radio broadcast for each UT game can be heard on SiriusXM Satellite: XM 202; Sirius 117; Internet 969; Spanish 970.

SPANISH LANGUAGE BROADCAST

The Longhorns Sports Network will also offer a Spanish Language Radio broadcast of all Texas Football games.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO IN COVERAGE

Any media entity collecting "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/post-game interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, Web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Its usage also must be used only as supporting video/audio for a reported story and not simply as rebroadcasted/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape-delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance, written permission of The University of Texas Athletics Department.

POSTGAME

The Longhorns locker room is closed. Postgame interviews at home will be conducted in the Moncrief Athletics Complex. Interviews on the road will be conducted at a designated area. NO INTERVIEWS ARE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. After a NCAA required and team-enforced 10-minute cooling off period, players and coaches will be escorted to the interview area. Failure to abide by this rule will result in termination of credential.

POST-PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Practices are closed to the public and media. There will be post-practice media availability on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Moncrief Athletics Complex, though the best time for interviews is during the Monday news conference which begins at 11 a.m. (CT) on the ninth floor of Bellmont Hall (west side of Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium). Interview inquiries should be sent to associate AD for media relations John Bianco (john.bianco@athletics.utexas.edu).
