Media Information & Policies

The Texas Media Relations Department welcomes your interest in Longhorns athletics. We make every effort to facilitate your coverage of our programs. For information on student-athletes or coaches, to set up interviews or photo shoots, or if you are in need of file photos, please call us, stop by our office (RMRZ 7.850), or e-mail us a request.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be issued this season for postseason meets. Please e-mail Travis Feldhaus at Feldhaus@utexas.edu at least 48 hours in advance if you wish to be considered for credentials.

FACILITIES/PARKING

The Lee and Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center is located on the UT Campus at Trinity St. and W. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Parking for all home meets is available in the Trinity Parking Garage, located on the southeast corner of Trinity St. and W. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

WEB/SOCIAL MEDIA

All of the latest news concerning the Longhorns swimming and diving team, including notes, features, updated statistics and results, is available on The University of Texas' official athletics web site, TexasSports.com. Follow the Horns on Twitter at @TexasMSD and on Instagram at TexasMSD

INTERVIEWS

All athlete and coach interviews must be coordinated with the media relations department. We ask that all interview requests be made at least 24 hours in advance. The team practices from 3 to 5pm, Monday through Friday. Coach Reese is available before and after practice. All media interviews must be coordinated through swimming & diving contact Travis Feldhaus.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Lee and Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center

The Lee and Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center opened its doors to spectators in 1979. The facility was modeled after the pool used at the 1972 Summer Olympics in Munich, Germany. The Texas Swimming Center will welcome the NCAA Men's Swimming and Diving Championships for a seventh time next March.

Before the 2001-02 season, the University of Texas completed construction on a $3 million-dollar renovation to the Lee and Joe Jamail Texas Swimming Center. Already regarded as one of the finest and fastest collegiate swimming centers in the country, the Jamail Texas Swim Center has now been upgraded into a category among the elite facilities in the nation. The 50-meter pool, which holds 880,000 gallons of water, added a newly remodeled moveable bulkhead and new underwater windows.

The bulkhead was constructed out of 25,000 pounds of aluminum and engineered to run on a track; they also can be raised to the ceiling in order to alter lane lengths for different events. The underwater windows were constructed out of four-layered heat-strengthened glass, enabling light to enter the pool and allowing for an interesting spectator view.

The swim center also reconstructed its patio entrance, as well as adding a new handicap seating area, which are both ADA (American Disabilities Act) certified. Additionally, a high-tech sound booth overlooking the entire complex has been constructed with new theatre-quality speakers which have been installed throughout the facility.

THE POOL:

Moveable bulkheads, lowered from the ceiling, can change the 50m pool into either a 25m or 25 yd short course. The pool is nine feet deep and 75' 1" wide, providing eight-foot lanes with generous side protective lanes. The pool has "rim-flow" gutters, which drastically reduce turbulence. The pool depth and bulkhead position also help reduce turbulence, making the JTSC one of the fastest pools in the world.

THE BROWNING DIVING POOL:

The Browning Diving Pool measures 75' 1" wide, and 15 to 18 feet deep. It has four 1m and six 3m springboards and a diving tower with 1m, 3m, 5m, 7.5m, and 10m platforms. The diving pool is designed to maximize both performance and judges' views.

LIGHTING:

Both the swimming and diving pools are lighted by overhead and underwater lights, and both are equipped with underwater speakers and diving windows.

TIMING/JUDGING/SCOREBOARD:

An electronic timing system determines elapsed time, order of finish and lap splits for each lane to .001 second, which are transmitted to a large display scoreboard. Judges' stations at the diving pool also compute and transmit scoring to the display. A pair of video boards were installed at the facility in November of 2007. Manufactured by Daktronics, the video board hanging over the north end of the pool measures 10 feet high and 24 feet wide. The video board installed in place of the tote board at the diving well measures 10 feet high and 18 feet wide.

COMPETITORS' FACILITIES:

Facilities include a separate entrance and lobby, dressing rooms, shower rooms, saunas, restrooms, coaches' and officials' office, and a training room. In addition to varsity locker rooms for the Texas men's and women's teams, two general locker rooms can accommodate 320 athletes and may be divided into several team areas.

Texas Men's Swimming and Diving Notes

- Texas has won 10 NCAA men's swimming and diving team championships, all under the tutelage of 35th-year head coach Eddie Reese. Texas ranks behind only Michigan (12) and Ohio State (11) in NCAA team titles.
- The Longhorns have 10 NCAA runner-up finishes to go along with their 10 NCAA team titles.
- Since Reese took over the Longhorns' program in 1978, Texas has finished in the top-three at the NCAA Championships in 27 of 35 seasons.
- Reese is the only college swimming coach to win NCAA team titles in four separate decades.
- No school has won more NCAA team titles than The University of Texas since Reese's arrival in Austin in 1978. Texas leads that 35-year span with 10 NCAA team titles.
- The Texas men's swimming and diving program has produced 39 Olympians who have gone on to win 42 gold medals, 16 silver medals and nine bronze medals at the Olympics.
- No Longhorn has appeared in more Olympic Games than former UT diver Troy Dumais, who represented the USA at the 2000 Sydney Games, the 2004 Athens Games, the 2008 Beijing Games and the 2012 London Games.
- Texas has won 34 consecutive conference championships (17 SWC and all 17 Big 12 Conference titles).
- Only Ohio State's Mike Peppe (11) has won more NCAA team titles than Texas' Eddie Reese.
- Texas ranks fifth nationally with 103 individual NCAA titles.
- Reese's swimmers at Texas have won 47 NCAA individual titles and 33 NCAA relay titles.
- Texas leads the NCAA with 12 national titles in the 800 freestyle relay. UT won the event at the 2012 NCAA Championship.
- Texas boasts three NCAA champions in the 50 freestyle. The most recent was Jimmy Feigen in 2012.
- Texas has won five NCAA titles in the 100 freestyle. Jimmy Feigen won the national title in 2012.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its five NCAA titles in the 200 freestyle. UT senior Dax Hill claimed the NCAA title in this event in 2012.
- Michael McBroom won the Longhorns' lone NCAA title in the 1,650 freestyle in 2011.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its eight NCAA titles in the 100 backstroke. Matt Ulrickson most recently won this event for Texas in 2000.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its seven NCAA titles in the 200 backstroke. Aarol Peirsol won back-to-back NCAA titles for Texas in 2003 and 2004.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its six NCAA titles in the 100 breaststroke. Former Longhorn Brendan Hansen is one of only two swimmers to win four consecutive NCAA titles in this event.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its six NCAA titles in the 200 breaststroke. Eric Friedland most recently won this event for UT in 2011.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its six NCAA titles in the 100 butterfly. Former Longhorn Ian Crocker is one of only three swimmers to win four consecutive NCAA titles in this event.
- Rainer Kendrick won UT's lone NCAA title in the 200 butterfly in 2004.
- Texas has won two NCAA titles in the 200 individual medley (IM). UT senior Austin Surhoff won Texas' last NCAA title in this event in 2010.
- Texas has won four NCAA titles in the 200 freestyle relay, with the most recent title coming in 1996.
- The Longhorns rank fourth all-time with eight NCAA titles in the 400 freestyle relay, which includes a victory at the 2012 NCAA Championship.
- UT is tied for second all-time with four NCAA titles in the 200 medley relay. Texas most recently won the NCAA title in this event in 2003.
- Texas ranks second all-time with 11 NCAA titles in the 400 medley relay. The Longhorns most recently won this event in 2004 with a relay that featured four current or future Olympic gold medalists (A. Peirsol, B. Hansen, I. Crocker, G. Weber-Gale)
- Texas is tied for third all-time with nine NCAA titles in the one-meter diving event. Former Longhorn Troy Dumais won consecutive NCAA titles from 2000 through 2002. More recently, Drew Livingston won NCAA titles in this event as a freshman and as a senior (2009 and 2012).
- Texas ranks third all-time with eight NCAA titles in the three-meter diving event. Troy Dumais is the only diver ever to win four NCAA titles in this event.
- Four former Longhorns – Aaron Peirsol, Garrett Weber-Gale, Ricky Berens and Dave Walters – currently hold individual and/or relay world records.
- Peirsol and Walters teamed up with Eric Shanteau and Michael Phelps to set the world record in the 400m medley relay (3:27.28) at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.
- Berens and Walters joined Michael Phelps to set the world record in the 4x200m freestyle relay (6:58.55) at the 2009 FINA World Championships.
- In one of the most thrilling relay finishes in the sport's history, Weber-Gale joined Michael Phelps, Cullen Jones and Jason Lezak to win the gold medal and set a world record in the 4x100m freestyle relay at the 2008 Beijing Olympics. France held a sizable lead in the relay's anchor leg before Lezak chased down Alain Bernard and out-touched him at the wall to secure gold for the Americans.
- Even in retirement, Peirsol continues to hold world records in the 100m and 200m backstroke events. Peirsol broke his own 100m backstroke world record at the 2009 USA Swimming National Championships with a time of 51.94. He remains the only swimmer to break 52 seconds in the event.
- Peirsol set the world record in the 200m backstroke (1:51.92) at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.
- Former Longhorn Dave Walters currently holds the American record in the 100m freestyle. Walters finished in 47.33 at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.

Head Coach Eddie Reese

36th season at Texas

Hometown _____ Daytona Beach, Fla.

College _____ Florida '65

- 10 NCAA team titles (1981, '88, '89, '90, '91, '96, 2000, '01, '02, '10)
- 27 top-three finishes at the NCAA Championships in 35 seasons at The University of Texas
- 34 consecutive conference titles
- three-time head coach of the U.S. Olympic men's swimming team (1992 Barcelona, 2004 Athens, 2008 Beijing)
- 49 NCAA individual champions and 39 NCAA champion relays
- 29 Olympians who have collected 39 gold medals, 16 silver medals and eight bronze medals

Eddie Reese, the only college swimming coach to win NCAA team titles in four separate decades, has established a tradition of excellence in Austin and set the standard in collegiate swimming. The 2005, 2006 and 2009 ASCA Coach of the Year, an eight-time NCAA Coach of the Year and three-time United States Men's Olympic Team head coach, Reese has led Texas to 10 NCAA team titles in his 35 seasons in Austin.

After placing 21st at the NCAA Championships in his first season (1979) at Texas, Reese's teams have never finished lower than seventh at the national meet. His Texas team will enter the 2013-14 season with two incredible streaks to its credit: 34 consecutive top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championship and 34 consecutive conference titles. Along the way, Reese has developed 49 NCAA individual champions, 39 national champion relays, 215 All-Americans and 29 Olympians who have won 39 gold medals, 16 silver medals and eight bronze medals.

During the 1980s, the Longhorns claimed three NCAA team titles (1981, 1988, 1989) and all 10 Southwest Conference crowns. In 1981, just three years after taking over the Texas program, Reese captured his first national team championship. From 1981 to 1986, Texas turned in two NCAA runner-up performances (1982, 1984) and placed third in the national meet three times (1983, 1985, 1986).

After Reese's initial fifth-place showing at the NAAs with Texas in 1987, the Longhorns closed the decade strong, reeling off back-to-back titles in 1988 and 1989. His squads in the 1990s continued on that torrid pace, winning NCAA team titles in 1990, 1991 and 1996. The Longhorns finished second at Nationals in 1992 and 1994, placed third in 1993 and 1999 and took fourth in 1995. Texas also won each of the last seven SWC crowns (1990-96).

Reese began the new millennium in the same fashion, winning three consecutive NCAA Championships (2000, 2001 and 2002). Texas placed second at Nationals in 2003, finished third in 2004, seventh in 2005, fourth in 2006 and fifth in 2007. Two more NCAA runner-up finishes in 2008 and 2009 preceded Reese's 10th NCAA team title in 2010.

Under Reese, Texas has placed second 10 times at the NCAA Championships, and Reese's teams have finished in the top three at the NCAA Championships in 27 of his 34 seasons at Texas. The Longhorns have maintained their dominance at the conference level, winning all 16 Big 12 crowns and 33 consecutive conference titles.

The list of individuals that Reese has developed while at Texas reads like a "Who's Who" in collegiate and international swimming. The trio of Ian Crocker, Brendan Hansen and 2005 USA Swimming Athlete of the Year Aaron Peirsol have left their marks throughout the Texas and NCAA record books.

The 2004 NCAA Swimmer of the Year, Crocker (2001-04) concluded his collegiate career as a 10-time NCAA Champion and 22-time All-American. He joined legends Pablo Morales (Stanford) and Mark Spitz (Indiana) as the only swimmers to win four straight NCAA titles in the 100 butterfly. Hansen (2001-04), a 13-time NCAA Champion and 16-time All-American, became the first person in NCAA history to win both the 100 and 200 breaststroke in each of his four years.

Hansen, who never lost a breaststroke race at the conference or national meet, was only the third person in NCAA history to win two different events in every year of his eligibility. Peirsol, the 2003 NCAA Swimmer of the Year, won the 200 backstroke at the national championships in each of his two seasons before turning professional at the end of the 2004 campaign. In just two collegiate seasons, the Californian collected six NCAA championships and 11 All-America certificates.

Nate Dusing (1998-2001), a 27-time All-American, was another recent success story on the national scene. In 2001, Dusing won the 200 IM (1:42.85), breaking the American and NCAA record set by Florida's Greg Burgess in 1993, while also claiming the 200 backstroke title. He also swam on four NCAA Championship relay squads, setting American and NCAA records in each relay to push his career collegiate titles to two individual and nine relay crowns. Dusing was named 2001 NCAA Swimmer of the Year.

Josh Davis (1990-94) left Texas as a 23-time NCAA All-American and four-time NCAA champion. He earned NCAA titles as a member of the championship 400 and 800 free relays, helping the Longhorns capture the 1990 NCAA team title. After winning the 200 free in 1993 for his first individual title, Davis finished his career in style, swimming the second leg of the American, U.S. Open and NCAA record-setting 400 free relay in 1994.

Shaun Jordan (1988-91) won four NCAA team titles in four years as a Longhorn. In 1991, Jordan won NCAA individual titles in the 50 and 100 free and also swam on three winning relay squads (200 and 400 free and the 200 medley). In 1989, he won four titles, capturing the 100 free while also swimming three victorious relay units (200, 400 and 800 free). In 1990,

Jordan swam on four NCAA champion relay squads (200, 400 and 800 free as well as the 400 medley) and turned in runner-up finishes in the 50 and 100 free as well as the 100 fly.

Kirk Stackle (1987-90) won an individual title at the NAAs for three straight years. In 1988, he won the 200 breaststroke and was the runner-up in the 100 breaststroke. In 1989, he finished just the opposite with a win in the 100 breaststroke and a second-place finish in the 200 breaststroke. In 1990, Stackle won his second consecutive title in the 100 breaststroke, while also swimming a leg on the winning 400 medley relay.

Clay Britt (1980-83), a backstroke specialist, was also a member of the national champion 400-medley relay squad in each of his three years under Reese. Britt won his first 100 backstroke title in 1980 and went on to dominate that event and claim the next two NCAA titles in 1981 and 1982.

One of Reese's prize UT pupils, Rick Carey (1981-84) continued the tradition of national champion backstrokers started by Britt. Carey claimed three straight NCAA titles in the 200 backstroke and a pair of NCAA individual crowns in the 100 backstroke. He was the fourth Longhorn inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame and is a member of the Longhorn Hall of Honor.

Reese's Honor Roll at Texas

Reese was the American Swim Coaches' Association (ASCA) Coach of the Year in 1991, 2005, 2006 and 2009. In 1991, he earned the National Collegiate Scholar and Swimming Trophy from the College Swimming Coaches Association (CSCA). The trophy, which is the highest honor bestowed by the CSCA, recognizes a coach's overall contribution to the sport over an extended period of time and is reserved for an individual who has represented both collegiate athletics and swimming with honor and pride throughout his career. In November 1996, Reese was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor, which recognizes former athletes, coaches and staff members "who have brought honor and renown to The University of Texas." Reese was voted directly into the Hall of Honor as a special exception to the rule, which stipulates that a coach or staff member must be retired five years before consideration.

He was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in Waco on Feb. 12, 2002. Just the third member of the Hall of Fame to be voted in based on swimming credentials, Reese joined an impressive list of UT alumni who have been honored, including Darrell K Royal, Roger Clemens, Earl Campbell and Tom Kite.

The Reese honor roll culminated in May 2002, when he was elected as an honor coach and inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame (ISHOF) in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Reese was inducted along with eight other honorees in the Class of 2002.

Prior to Texas

Reese came to Texas after a remarkable six-year rebuilding job at Auburn University. When he took the job at Auburn in 1972, he inherited a team that had not qualified a single swimmer for the finals or consolation finals of the Southeastern Conference Championships during the previous season. Six years later, the Tigers had produced four consecutive Top 10 showings at the NAAs, culminating in a second-place finish in 1978.

After posting a 4-3 dual-meet record and qualifying for the SEC Championships in his first season, Reese led the Tigers to a 3-3 dual-meet mark and a third-place performance at SECs, earning Auburn its first trip to NCAA Championships in 1974. Over the next three years, the Tigers earned three Top 10 team finishes at the NAAs, placed third in the SEC three times and boasted a combined record of 15-4. However, Reese's finest season at Auburn was yet to come. In 1978, the Tigers posted a dual-meet record of 8-1, placed second in the SEC and turned in a runner-up team finish at the NCAA Championships, the highest in program history.

As a swimmer in his native Florida, Reese won two state championships in the 200 individual medley for Daytona Beach Mainland High School. He then became a standout swimmer at the University of Florida, where he led the Gators to three SEC titles (1961, '62, and '63). As the team's co-captain in his senior season (1963), Reese became the first Florida swimmer to win five SEC titles in a single year. He claimed first place in the 200 breaststroke, the 200 and 400 individual medleys, the 400 free relay and the 400 medley relay. In fact, his seven career SEC individual titles still ranks in a tie for third on the school's career chart.

After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida in 1963, Reese remained with the Gators as a graduate assistant coach while earning his master's degree in 1965. Reese then coached and taught at Roswell (N.M.) High School for two years (1965-66) before returning to Florida as an assistant coach. He worked with the Gators as an assistant for six seasons (1967-72) prior to accepting the head coaching position at Auburn.

Reese at the Olympics

Three swimmers from UT traveled to London in 2012 with Reese, who served as an assistant coach for the U.S. men. Making the Olympics team in 2012 were Ricky Berens (200 freestyle, 400 freestyle relay and 800 freestyle relay), Jimmy Feigen (400 freestyle relay) and Brendan Hansen (100 breaststroke). Also, Christian Schurr qualified in the 200 breaststroke for Mexico.

Individually, Hansen won the bronze medal in the 100m breaststroke and added gold in the 400m medley relay. Berens won gold in the 800m freestyle relay at a second consecutive Olympic Games, and Feigen joined Berens to win silver in the 400m freestyle relay.

Due to his wealth of international experience and the respect the swimming community has for him, Reese was named head men's swimming coach for the 2008 U.S. Olympic men's swimming team in September of 2006, marking his third selection as the head coach. He served in the same capacity during the 1992 Barcelona Games and the 2004 Athens Games. In addition to his head coaching duties, Reese worked as an assistant coach for the U.S. in four other Olympiads: 1988 (Seoul), 1996 (Atlanta) and 2000 (Sydney) and 2012 (London).

Seven of Reese's current and former swimmers - including then first-time Olympians Ricky Berens, Scott Spann, Dave Walters and Garrett Weber-Gale - joined Reese in Beijing and accounted for about one-third of the 22-member USA team while capturing eight gold medals and one silver medal. Weber-Gale joined Michael Phelps, Cullen Jones and Jason Lezak to win his first gold medal and set a new world record in a thrilling 400m freestyle relay in Beijing, and Berens teamed up with Phelps, Ryan Lochte and Peter Vanderkaay to win Olympic gold and become the first 800m freestyle relay quartet to eclipse the seven-minute barrier in the event. Walters joined Berens in the 800m freestyle relay preliminary and also earned his first Olympic gold medal.

Weber-Gale added his second relay gold when he anchored Team USA's 400m medley relay in the preliminary round. He was joined by Ian Crocker, who swam the butterfly leg in the preliminary round to earn a gold medal. Aaron Peirsol and Brendan Hansen swam the event's backstroke and breaststroke legs in the finals, where Team USA won gold and set a new world record.

Peirsol, a three-time Olympian, collected his third career individual Olympic gold medal by setting a new world mark in the 100m backstroke and added a silver medal in the 200m backstroke. Hansen reached the 100m breaststroke finals, where he placed fourth, and Crocker took fourth in the 100m butterfly finals.

At the 2004 Athens Games, senior Nathan O'Brien qualified for Team Canada while a total of seven former Longhorns (Crocker, Nate Dusing, Scott Goldblatt, Gary Hall Jr., Hansen, Peirsol and Neil Walker) - equivalent to one-third of the entire men's squad - earned a spot on the United States' Olympic Team. Leading the Texas swimmers at the 2004 Athens Games was Peirsol, who duplicated American teammate Lenny Krayzelburg's sweep of the backstroke in Sydney, Australia, and became only the fifth swimmer in Olympic history and second Texas swimmer to win both backstroke events (Rick Carey, 1984); Crocker, who won gold in the 400 medley relay, silver in the 100 butterfly and bronze in the 400 freestyle relay, and Hansen, who captured gold in the 400 medley relay, silver in the 100 breaststroke and bronze in the 200 breaststroke.

Gary Hall, Jr., who was competing in his third-straight Olympiad, won the 50-meter freestyle for the second year in succession. Hall Jr., Dusing and Walker each earned bronze medals swimming the 400 freestyle relay, while Walker also captured his second-straight gold medal in the 400 medley relay. Meanwhile, Goldblatt captured his first career gold medal as a member of the 800 freestyle relay team. All said, Texas swimmers had medaled in six individual events and swam at least one leg on all three medal-winning relay squads.

At the 2000 Olympics, Crocker and Peirsol joined with seven former Longhorns (Josh Davis, Dusing, Scott Goldblatt, Gary Hall Jr., Tommy Hannan, Jamie Rauch and Neil Walker) - on the United States team. Overall, Longhorn swimmers accounted for one-third of the entire U.S. men's team in Sydney. UT made up three-fourths of the 400-meter medley relay team that captured a gold medal with Walker, Hannan and Crocker. The 800-meter freestyle relay team, which was made up entirely of former Longhorns, won the silver medal with Davis, Dusing, Goldblatt and Rauch. Walker and Davis won silver medals with the 400-meter freestyle relay team, while Peirsol earned a silver medal in the 200-meter backstroke before even stepping foot on the UT campus.

As head coach of the 1992 U.S. team in Barcelona, Reese's swimmers captured 13 medals, including six gold. Former Longhorns Hans Dersch earned a gold in the 400-meter medley relay (prelims). Doug Gjertsen captured gold in the 400-meter free relay (prelims) and bronze as a member of the American 800-meter free relay, and Shaun Jordan won gold swimming a prelim leg on USA's 400-meter relay team.

All totaled, Reese has coached a total of 26 Olympians who have gone on to win a combined 29 gold medals. His list of individual event gold medalists include: Brad Bridgewater, Rick Carey, Josh Davis, Hans Dersch, Gary Hall Jr., Chris Jacobs, Shaun Jordan and Aaron Peirsol.

Rick Carey won three gold medals, in the 100 and 200 backstroke, as well as the 400 medley relay - at the 1984 Los Angeles Games. Josh Davis matched this feat at the 1996 Atlanta Games, capturing gold in the 400 medley relay, the 400 free relay and 800 free relay.

The Reese Philosophy

Reese's ability to train his athletes technically has been a big part of his success, but his unique approach to swimming and training may be his best attribute. That combination is what makes Reese one of the world's finest coaches, regardless of sport. He possesses a thorough knowledge of swimming fundamentals, an eye for talent, a genuine care for his athletes and the ability to communicate and motivate.

Reese's style is the staple of the Longhorns program. Always calm, unflappable, amiable and quick with a joke, he is a man who likes to work hard but doesn't see why hard work must be dull. The Texas team reflects the coach's personality. It is a loose bunch, but the team knows when to buckle down. In fact, Reese contends that his championship teams have excelled because they outwork everybody else. At Texas, team success derives from individual accomplishments. For Reese, the individual swimmers have priority.

"I've always worried about the individual first," Reese said. "We don't talk about winning the NCAA Championship. We talk about what it takes for each individual to get better. What satisfies me as a coach is seeing people go faster than they ever have before. With that focus, we are in a battle for the championship every year. I like that, too."

UT assistant coach Kris Kubik, an All-American swimmer at North Carolina State and graduate assistant under Reese at Auburn in the mid-1970s, sees Reese as a teacher in the best sense of the word.

"Eddie is constantly teaching," Kubik said. "He does a lot of talking about life, as much as he talks about swimming. He talks about how to apply what you learn in swimming to life. It's very important to him that his swimmers enjoy what they are doing. Eddie has designed a program that is totally unpredictable. I don't think there is a harder working team in the country, but we spread our workout over the entire week and it's never the same on any given day, so we have the ability to be stay loose."

The idea of finding enjoyment in the pursuit of one's maximum potential is the heart of Reese's coaching philosophy.

"A lot of people look for the easy way to do anything," Reese said. "In swimming, there is no easy way. To succeed in any sport there are two keys - after the obvious needs of a certain amount of ability and hard work - and these keys are self-image and enjoyment. It's something you have to work on every day, day-in and day-out. Everybody knows how to work people hard. The key is to work them hard and protect the mind."

Reese and his wife, Elinor, have two daughters, Holly and Heather. Holly and her husband, David Bowman, have two sons: Reese and Luke. Heather and her husband, Travis Ormond, have one daughter, Evan, and one son, Beck.

An avid fisher and hunter, Reese also has a soft spot for the family dog, Belle.

The Personal Side

Assistant Coach

KRIS KUBIK

31st season at Texas

Hometown _____ Memphis, Tenn.
College _____ Auburn '78

The 2013-14 season will see assistant coach Kris Kubik continue a 31-year coaching association with Eddie Reese. Kubik, an All-American swimmer at North Carolina State, began his coaching career under Reese in the late 1970s.

After starting out as Reese's student assistant in 1978 at Auburn, Kubik is set to begin his 31st season with Reese at Texas in 2013-14. Of note, Kubik has had two stints at UT, from 1978-81 and 1986 until the present.

Kubik served as an assistant coach with USA Swimming at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy. He served as a special assistant to Eddie Reese as a member of the USA Swimming coaching staff at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, which marked his first coaching appearance at an Olympic Games. Kubik served as an assistant coach for Team USA for the 2007 Pan American Games, where the Americans secured six gold medals, 10 silver medals and two bronze medals.

An All-American in the 100-yard backstroke and 400-yard medley relay at North Carolina State in 1974, Kubik competed in the 1972 United States Olympic Trials. He also was ranked in the Top 25 in the world in the 100-meter backstroke in 1973. Kubik then graduated from Auburn in 1978 after transferring from N.C. State.

When Reese took over the head coaching job in the spring of 1978, Kubik followed as his chief assistant and served in that role through the 1981 NCAA Championship season. Kubik departed UT for four years, first serving as age group coach of the Nashville Aquatics Club and later for the Longhorn Aquatics Club, a highly successful age-group program in Austin. In 1986, Kubik returned to Texas. He has been at Reese's side for all 10 NCAA titles.

In September 2011, The University of Texas announced Kubik as an inductee into its Men's Athletics Hall of Honor. Kubik was inducted on Nov. 18, 2011.

Kubik is married to the former April Russell. April is the daughter of David Russell, a standout defensive back on two Southwest Conference Champion Longhorn football squads from 1959-61.

MATT SCOGGIN

20th season at Texas

Hometown _____ Great Falls, Va.
College _____ Texas '87

- 2010 USOC National Diving coach of the Year
- 2012 USA Diving Olympics Additional and Personal Coach

Now in his 20th season as Texas head diving coach, Matt Scoggin has clearly established Texas as one of the nation's premier diving programs. A former U.S. Olympic diver and USA Olympic diving coach (2000, 2008 and 2012), Scoggin has been recognized nationally for his outstanding efforts. In 2009 and 2010, Scoggin was selected as the United States Olympic Committee's National Diving Coach of the Year.

As director of the Longhorns' men's and women's diving program, Scoggin's divers have claimed 16 individual NCAA championships, 35 individual Big 12 titles, while also producing a four-time Big 12 Conference Women's Diver of the Year, three SWC champions and a two-time SWC Diver of the Year.

In 2009, USA Diving bestowed upon Scoggin the Benjamin Foundation Coaches Performance Award and The Ted Keller Award. In the summer of 2010, Scoggin won USA Diving's Coach of Excellence Award at the USA Diving National Championships. Later in 2010, he was selected as a coach for Team USA at the FINA World Cup. Scoggin has been selected as a men's or women's NCAA Coach of the Year five times and is an 12-time Big 12 Conference Diving Coach of the Year.

The Longhorns' diving program has set the standard of diving excellence for national and international competitions alike. Former Longhorn Laura Wilkinson, a three-time Olympian, earned a gold medal on the 10-meter platform at the 2000 Sydney Olympics and placed fifth at the Athens Games in 2004. She also claimed a gold medal on the 10-meter platform at the 2005 World Championships. She captured gold medals in the 10-meter platform and the women's synchronized platform at the 2005 Speedo National Diving Championships.

Texas-Ex Varya Ilyina (who competed for Russia) has also excelled on the international level, winning the gold medal on the three-meter synchronized springboard at the 2000 Sydney Olympics and capturing the silver in that event at the Athens Games in 2004. Additionally, Troy and Justin Dumais won bronze in the 3-meter synchro at the 2005 World Championships. Troy won silver and bronze medals at the 2006 FINA World Diving Cup in China and has represented the United States at the last three Olympiads.

The tradition of excellence is a mainstay as Texas Diving continues to surpass all expectations. During the 2011-12 campaign, Scoggin coached senior Drew Livingston to a NCAA Championship on the 1-meter board as well as All-American performances in the 3-meter and platform and an All-American performance by Matt Cooper in the platform as well. Scoggin was chosen as the CSCAA Diving Coach of the Year after Livingston was chosen as the NCAA Diver of the Meet. On the women's side both Shelby Cullinan and Diana Wilcox competed at the NCAA Championships. Livingston also won Big 12 titles in the 1-meter and platform competitions to earn Big 12 Diver of the Year while Scoggin was selected Big 12 Diving Coach of the Year.

Maren Taylor scored points on all three boards for the UT women at the 2010 NCAA Championships. On the men's side, Drew Livingston and Matt Cooper played vital roles in UT's run to the 2010 NCAA team title. Cooper and Livingston placed third and seventh, respectively, in the platform event to help Texas pull away from California in the team standings. Livingston opened the 2010 NCAA Championships with a third-place finish in the one-meter event, while Cooper won the event's consolation final. Cooper added one point to the Texas tally with a 16th-place showing in the three-meter event. Cooper and Livingston each won one title at the 2010 Big 12 Championships.

Scoggin's men's and women's diving corps accumulated a bundle of points at the 2009 NCAA Championships. Jessica Livingston and Shelby Cullinan placed second and third, respectively, in the platform event. Livingston added a fourth-place finish in the three-meter event, and Cullinan went on to place sixth. Kathryn Kelly placed sixth overall in the one-meter event. Drew Livingston captured the NCAA men's one-meter title before taking second on the platform and 14th in the three-meter event. Jonathan Wilcox added a fifth-place finish in the one-meter event.

Scoggin's men's and women's diving corps excelled at the 2008 NCAA Championships. Kathryn Kelly placed third in the three-meter event and fourth in the one-meter, and Mary Yarrison took second in the one-meter event and ninth in the three-meter event with a score that would have won the competition had she reached the finals. Matt Cooper placed sixth on the platform, while Jonathan Wilcox took seventh and earned All-America honors in the three-meter event and added an honorable mention All-America showing in the one-meter event.

At the 2007 NCAA Championship, one male diver and four female divers earned All-America honors under Scoggin's tutelage. Mike Wong garnered honorable mention All-America honors on the platform, while Jessica Livingston claimed the NCAA platform title and added a third-place finish in the three-meter event. Mary Yarrison earned All-America honors by placing seventh on the three-meter. Kathryn Kelly placed eighth in the one-meter event to earn All-America honors, while Kara-Jayne Salamone tallied honorable mention All-America honors on the platform.

At the NCAA Championship in 2004, Scoggin steered Nicole Pohorenc to the platform title, earning the first national championship of her career. Pohorenc, who earned All-America and All-America Honorable Mention accolades as a freshman and sophomore, respectively, became the fourth diver under Scoggin's tutelage to capture an NCAA individual championship.

In 2004 alone, the Longhorns men and women's teams combined to win three of the six events at the Big 12 Conference Championships. The women's squad was victorious on the platform, while the men's team posted first-place finishes on the three-meter and the platform. In addition, Jonathan Linette was the Big 12 Male Diver of the Year for the second-straight year.

Ilyina was a two-time NCAA Diver of the Year, who was named the 1997-98 Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year as well as the 1998 NCAA Woman of the Year for the state of Texas. Ilyina also was selected as a recipient of the prestigious 1998 NCAA Today's Top Eight Award, which honors eight distinguished student-athletes from the preceding calendar year for achievement in athletics, academics and leadership. In addition to coaching such Longhorn greats, Scoggin was named Head Coach of the 2001 U.S. World Championships Team.

Scoggin, a veteran Longhorn who competed for Texas from 1981-85, has succeeded at every level of the sport. His world-class diving career came to a close at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics. There, he reached the finals of his specialty event, the platform. Perhaps even more telling of his world-class success was his selection as team captain at those Olympic Games and the recognition he received by the U.S. Olympic Committee, when they voted him 1992 Athlete of the Year for diving.

Two of the key traits that helped Scoggin reach the world-level ranks of success are his intense dedication to the sport and a keen technical eye. As a coach, he continues where he left off as an athlete. Scoggin, a native of Great Falls, Va., began his coaching career in 1986 as an assistant coach for the Longhorn Diving Club. In 1993 Scoggin became head coach for the Texas Diving Club and in less than a year, two of his junior divers claimed state diving titles. In 1994, Scoggin returned to The University of Texas, taking over the program he helped establish as a national power.

Scoggin is married to former Texas diver Becca Culver. They have one daughter, Grace (14).

Longhorn Olympians

OLYMPIC HIGHLIGHTS

2012 - LONDON

Diver Troy Dumais became the first Longhorn men's swimmer or diver to compete in four Olympic Games, and he made his fourth Olympic berth count when he picked up his first ever Olympic medal. Dumais teamed up with Stanford diver Kristian Ipsen to win bronze in the three-meter synchronized diving event for the USA. Brendan Hansen won a gold medal in the 4x100m medley relay and bronze in the 100m breaststroke, just 18 months after resuming competitive swimming. Hansen swam the breaststroke leg on the USA's 4x100m medley relay that featured Matt Grevers on backstroke, Michael Phelps on butterfly and Nathan Adrian on the freestyle anchor. Hansen took bronze in the 100m breaststroke in 59.49 and claimed his third career Olympic medal in an individual event. Ricky Berens made a second consecutive U.S. Olympic team, and as he did in Beijing, he helped the USA's 4x200m freestyle relay to the gold medal. Berens joined Conor Dwyer, Ryan Lochte and Michael Phelps on the gold medal-winning relay. Berens teamed up with first-time Olympian Jimmy Feigen to win silver in the 4x100m freestyle relay after the pair swam in the event's preliminary round. First-time Olympian Christian Schurr represented Mexico in the 200m breaststroke but did not advance out of the preliminary round.

2008 - BEIJING

Then-current Texas swimmers Ricky Berens, Scott Spann and Dave Walters joined former Longhorns greats Ian Crocker, Brendan Hansen, Aaron Peirsol, Garrett Weber-Gale and Troy Dumais in representing the United States at the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics. The group accounted for nine total medals - eight golds and one silver. Berens collected his first Olympic gold medal by helping Team USA to a new world record in the 800m freestyle relay. Berens joined teammate Dave Walters in the event's preliminary round before joining Michael Phelps, Ryan Lochte and Peter Vanderkaay in the finals. Peirsol, competing in his third Olympiad, re-wrote his world record on his way to gold in the 100m backstroke. Peirsol, who also took silver in the 200m backstroke, swam the backstroke leg on the world record-setting 400m medley relay that also featured Brendan Hansen, who placed fifth in the 100m breaststroke in Beijing. Ian Crocker and Garrett Weber-Gale swam in the butterfly and freestyle legs, respectively, in the 400m medley relay preliminary round to also earn gold in the event. Weber-Gale joined Michael Phelps, Cullen Jones and Jason Lezak to win a thrilling 400m freestyle relay in which Lezak rallied the Americans from behind in the final 50 meters to seize the gold. Scott Spann added a fifth-place finish in the 200m breaststroke, and Troy Dumais, competing in his third Olympiad, took sixth in the three-meter springboard diving event.

2004 — ATHENS

Former Longhorns swimmers Ian Crocker, Nate Dusing, Scott Goldblatt, Gary Hall, Jr., Brendan Hansen, Aaron Peirsol, Neil Walker as well as former UT divers Justin Dumais and Troy Dumais competed for the United States while current UT rising senior Nathan O'Brien competed for Canada. Crocker, Hansen and Peirsol teamed with Jason Lezak to smash the world record at the 2004 Athens Olympics' final swimming event, the 4x100m medley relay. Peirsol led all Texas swimmers at the Athens Games, duplicating American teammate Lenny Krayzelburg's Sydney sweep of the 100 and 200m backstrokes as well as the 4x100m medley relay. Peirsol, who broke the 100m backstroke world record swimming the first leg of the medley relay, became only the fifth swimmer in Olympic history and second former Longhorn to sweep both backstroke events (Rick Carey, Los Angeles - 1984). Crocker and Hansen each earned Olympic gold, silver and bronze at the 2004 Games. Crocker earned gold in the 4 x 100m medley relay, silver in 100m fly and bronze in the 4x100m free relay. Hansen, competing in his first Olympics, captured gold in the 4x100m medley relay, silver in the 100m breaststroke and bronze in the 200m breaststroke. Three-time Olympian Hall, Jr. won the 50m free capturing his 10th career Olympic medal and second straight in the 50m free. Hall, Jr., Dusing and Walker each earned bronze medals swimming the 4x100m freestyle relay, while Walker also captured his second-straight gold medal in the 4x100 medley relay as he had swum the preliminaries. Scott Goldblatt captured his first career gold as a member of the 4x200m free relay team. Texas swimmers medaled in six individual events and swam at least one leg on all three medal-winning relay squads. U.S. Head Coach Eddie Reese and the American squad earned 18 medals - nine gold, five silver, four bronze.

2000 — SYDNEY

Ian Crocker and Aaron Peirsol, current UT swimmers at the time, as well as former Longhorns Josh Davis, Nate Dusing, diver Troy Dumais, Tommy Hannan, Scott Goldblatt, Gary Hall Jr., Jamie Rauch and Neil Walker competed for the United States at the 2000 Sydney Olympics - accounting for one-third of the entire USA Swimming and Diving Teams. Davis carried the youthful squad, capturing two silver medals as a member of the 400 and 800 freestyle relay teams. In his first Olympics, Walker claimed a gold medal as a member of the winning 400 medley relay and a silver medal in the 400 freestyle relay, while Rauch, Goldblatt and Dusing all earned Olympic silver in the 800 freestyle relay event. Former Longhorn Gary Hall boasted a successful Olympic run, winning gold medals in the 50 freestyle and as a member of the victorious 400 medley relay. He also claimed silver as the anchor of the 400 freestyle relay and a bronze in the 100 freestyle. In addition, Crocker and Hannan teamed up to claim gold in the 400 medley relay, while Dumais narrowly missed a bronze medal by placing fourth in the synchronized three-meter springboard event, and was the United States' top finisher in the three-meter springboard after placing sixth. Peirsol, while still in high school, captured a silver medal in the 200-meter backstroke.

1996 — ATLANTA

Josh Davis earned three gold medals for his contributions to the USA relays. He swam the leadoff leg in finals of the 800m free relay, and took part in the 400m free relay, and swam the freestyle leg of the 400m medley relay in the preliminaries. Former Longhorn Gary Hall, Jr. struck gold swimming the anchor legs in the finals of the 400m free relay and the 400m medley relay. He also raced to two silver medals in the 50m and 100m freestyles. Former Longhorn Brad Bridgewater* swam to gold in the 200m backstroke. Carlos Arena was a member of the Mexican swimming team.

1992 — BARCELONA

Hans Dersch earned a gold in the 400m medley relay by swimming on USA's foursome in the prelims at the 1992 Games, while Doug Gjertsen captured gold in '92 swimming in the prelims of the 400m free relay and a bronze as a member of the American 800m free relay.

1988 — SEOUL

Chris Jacobs earned a silver in the 100m freestyle (49.08) and two golds as a member of USA's 400m and 800m relays. Doug Gjertsen also swam the third leg of the USA's winning 800m free relay, while Shaun Jordan won gold in the prelim leg on USA's winning 400m relay team. Kirk Stackle also joined the US squad after finishing second in the 200m breaststroke at trials. In addition, Bill Stapleton finished second in the 200m IM at the trials and joined the US team, and Daniel Watters made the US squad in the 100m breaststroke.

1984 — LOS ANGELES

Rick Carey captured three golds, the most ever by a Longhorn, winning the 100m (55.79) and 200m (2:00.23) backstroke and helping the U.S. win the 400m medley relay. Jon Vegard, meanwhile, joined Norway's Olympic Diving Team for the second time.

1980 — MOSCOW

Ken Armstrong was a member of the Canadian Diving Team for the second time. Longhorns Rick Carey, William Paulus and Kris Kirchner earned spots on the US Olympic Team, but missed the action due to the boycott. Kirchner was a member of the 100m and 400m free relays, while Paulus won the USA Trials and set a world record in the 100m fly. Jon Vegard also joined Norway's Diving Team.

1968 — MEXICO CITY

Felipe Munoz won gold in the 200m breaststroke (2:28.7) in Mexico City.

1952 — HELSINKI

David "Skippy" Browning became Texas' first diving Olympian and gold medalist, capturing the 3-meter springboard title for the USA at the 1952 Helsinki Games.

1948 — LONDON

Ed Gilbert was a part of the USA's 500m free relay in London.

1936 — BERLIN

Adolph Kiefer became the first Longhorn swimming & diving Olympic gold medalist, winning the 100m backstroke for the USA in Berlin. His time of 1:05.90 was a new world record.

* - Brad Bridgewater was a Longhorn from 1992-94.

 - Gary Hall, Jr. attended Texas for the 1993-94 season.
