TEXAS HITS THE ROAD TO FACE BYU: Coming off a convincing season-opening home victory over New Mexico State, No. 15/16 Texas now hits the road to face BYU, which is trying to rebound from a tough 19-16 loss at Virginia. The Longhorns rolled up a school-record 715 yards of total offense in the 56-7 win over the Aggies. David Ash posted a career-high 434 yards of total offense (343 passing/91 rushing) leading a balanced offensive attack. Four players rushed for more than 60 yards and four pass-catchers had at least 50 receiving yards. The defense held the Aggies to 2.7 yards per rush and forced three turnovers, two of which led to touchdowns.

FIRST-AND-GOAL:
• David Ash had 343 passing yards and 91 rushing yards vs New Mexico State, marking only the second time in UT history that a player passed for 300-plus yards and rushed for 90 or more in the same game. Colt McCoy had 304 passing yards and 175 rushing vs. Texas A&M in 2009.
• With a 74-yard touchdown pass and a 55-yard TD run vs New Mexico State, David Ash became the first player in UT history to post a run and pass of 50-plus yards in the same game.
• Ash's 55-yard TD run is tied for 10th longest rush by a QB in UT history.
• With 109 receiving yards vs. New Mexico State, Malcolm Brown is the fourth running back in UT history to have 100-plus receiving yards. In addition, his 74-yd TD catch was the third-longest by a running back in UT history and the longest since Victor Ike's 80-yarder vs. NC State in 1999.
• RB Jalen Overstreet's 92 rushing yards were the fourth-most by a freshman during his debut in school history. Jamaal Charles had a school-record 135 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette in 2005.
• Daje Johnson posted a career-high 139 all-purpose yards vs. New Mexico State. He had a pair of scores, one on a 66-yard reception from Ash and another on a 24-yard rush. He now has four career touchdowns and has averaged 61 yards on those scores. Johnson earned the team's offensive player of the game award.
• Three defensive linemen registered seven or more tackles vs. New Mexico, led by a career-high 10 from DE Cedric Reed, who earned the team's defensive player of the game award. DT Malcom Brown had a career-best seven stops in his first-ever start and DE Jackson Jeffcoat chipped in seven tackles.
• The Texas defense was able to get off the field consistently vs. New Mexico State. The Aggies converted just 5 of 18 third-down attempts and punted nine times. The longest rush from scrimmage was 15 yards.
• Texas has 19 positional starters back from 2012, including 10 on offense and nine on defense. There are 16 offensive players on the roster who have started at least one game while the defense includes 18 players with one or more starts in their career.
• The Longhorns return a total of 51 letterwinners from last season with 23 on offense, 22 on defense and six specialists. Meanwhile, Texas lost only 14 letterwinners, including nine on offense, four on defense and one specialist.

TEXAS-BYU ALL-TIME SERIES AT-A-GLANCE

OVERALL SERIES: BYU leads, 2-1
SERIES RECORD IN AUSTIN: Tied, 1-1
SERIES RECORD IN PROVO: BYU leads, 1-0

SERIES HISTORY

Year	Score	UT's final record	BYU's final record
1987	BYU 22, Texas 17	7-5 (5-2/T-2nd in SWC)	9-4 (7-1/2nd in WAC)
1988	BYU 47, Texas 6	4-7 (2-5/T-4th in SWC)	9-4 (5-3/T-3rd in WAC)
2011	Texas 17, BYU 16	11-2 (7-1/2nd in Big 12)	10-3 (Independent)

SEPTEMBERS TO REMEMBER: Texas has won 42 of its last 46 games in the season's first month (August/September) under Mack Brown. The only losses in that stretch were to UCLA in 2010, Kansas State in 2007, when the Horns gave up two special teams TDs and committed four turnovers, No. 1 Ohio State in 2006 and when the Horns gave up three turnovers versus Arkansas in 2003. Overall, the Horns have won 49 of their last 55 outings in Aug./Sept.

STREAKS, TRENDS AND MILESTONES:
• Texas won its 14th straight season-opening game by defeating New Mexico State.
• The Longhorns 715 yards of total offense was the most against an FBS opponent during the opening weekend of the season (Oregon - 772 vs. Nicholls State). The 715 total yards was a school record, ecplising the mark of 692 set in 1998 vs. Rice (list on pg. 8).
• With a win vs. BYU, head coach Mack Brown would tie Woody Hayes for 10th on the NCAA all-time coaches victories list. Brown has 237 career victories.
• Texas has won its last 13 nonconference road games. The Longhorns haven't lost to a non-Big 12 foe away from home since falling at Stanford, 27-24, in 2000.
• In the New Mexico State game, Texas posted more than 300 rushing (359) and 300 passing yards (356) for the fourth time in school history. The most recent 300-yard rushing and 300-yard passing effort was at Ole Miss on Sept. 15, 2012.
• Mike Davis had five catches for 63 yards vs. New Mexico State to move from seventh to sixth (154) on the UT career receptions list. He passed B.J. Johnson (152/2000-03).
• OG Mason Walters leads the team with 39 straight straight starts, which is tied for the second-longest streak in the nation among offensive linemen (40, Gabe Jackson, OG, Mississippi St.). CB Carrington Byndom leads the defense with 27 consecutive starts.
• David Ash's rating of 207.19 vs. NM State ranked No. 9 among quarterbacks nationally during the first weekend of the season.
• Ash's total yardage output (434) vs. New Mexico State was the most ever in a UT season opener and No. 6 on the all-time single-game list.
• Ash had the fourth 300-yard passing game of his career (343), which ties Chris Simms for fourth on the UT all-time list. Colt McCoy (2006-09) had 15, Major Applewhite (1998-01) nine and James Brown (1994-97) seven. Ash's 343 passing yards ranks 20th on UT's all-time single-game list.
• Texas was the only school in the nation to have two receptions of more than 60 yards during the opening week of the season - 74-yard TD from Ash to Malcolm Brown, 66-yard TD from Ash to Daje Johnson.

QUICK STRIKE: The Texas offense showed its quick strike ability midway through the New Mexico State. After the Aggies took a 7-0 lead with 2:28 to go in the second quarter, the Longhorns scored the next 35 points in a span of 8:37. The Longhorns managed to gain just 136 yards on their first 27 plays of the game, but then posted 342 yards in their next 15 plays, scoring five touchdowns. The Horns averaged 54.6 yards per play on those touchdowns. It had been nearly 10 years since Texas scored that many offensive touchdowns in just 15 plays. The last time it happened was at Rice on Sept. 20, 2003, when UT scored five TDs in the second quarter, all in a span of just 14 plays.
• John Harris 54-yard TD pass from David Ash
• Daje Johnson 66-yard TD pass from Ash
• Johnson 24-yard TD run
• Ash 55-yard TD run
• Malcolm Brown 74-yard pass from Ash

BRONCO MENDENALL (Oregon State '88): Mendenhall is in his 11th season overall, ninth as the head coach for the Cougars. He has guided BYU to eight straight bowl game, including four consecutive wins (2009-12). He previously served as the defensive coordinator for New Meixco(1998-2002). He led the Cougars to two outright conference championships before BYU became independent.

GOING DEEP: The Longhorns scored four touchdowns of 50 yards or longer in the New Mexico State game, a first in school history. Texas had 10 offensive plays of 50 or more yards last season. Six other times, Texas had three scores of 50 yards or longer, including three times with offensive scores:

• 1973 vs. Arkansas: (2 offense/1 special teams) - 73-yard punt return by Jim Moore; 59-yard run by Roosevelt Leaks; 85-yard run by Raymond Clayborn.

• 1985 vs. Stanford: (3 on offense) - 74-yard run by Bret Stafford; Ward Pitts 55-yard pass from Todd Dodge; 62-yard run by Darron Norris.

• 1987 against Rice: (3 on offense) - 58 yard run by Darron Norris, 57-yard run by Samuels, 59-yard run by Eric Metcalf.

• 1999 vs. Stanford: 3 (all offense) - Montrell Flowers 54-yard pass from Major Applewhite; Kwame Cavil 78-yard pass from Applewhite; 68-yard run by Chris Robertson.

• 2003 vs. New Mexico State: (1 offense/1 defense/1 special teams) - 97-yard kickoff return by Selvin Young; Roy Williams 53-yard pass from Chance Mock; 55-yard interception return by Michael Huff.

• 2005 vs. Oklahoma: (2 offense/1 special teams) - 80-yard run by Jamaal Charles; Billy Pittman 64-yard pass from Vince Young; 67-yard fumble recovery by Rodrique Wright.

BREAKING DOWN THE 2013 SCHEDULE: UT plays nine of its 12 games this season against teams that made a bowl appearance in 2012. Nine of the opponents registered at least seven wins and six had eight or more victories. Last season, Texas played eight teams that were in bowl games in 2011. The Horns ended up playing six ranked teams in 2012, the most since 2004 (also six). It was sixth time in school history UT played as many as six ranked teams in a season. The Longhorns played a school-record seven in 1990. UT opens 2013 with some home-cooking, playing three of its first four games in Austin. The Horns close the season with two of their final three at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium. Texas will visit BYU for just the second time ever on Sept. 7 and West Virginia for the first time on Nov. 9. Ole Miss will travel to Austin for the first time since 1925.

FIRST NATIONAL TITLE TO BE RECOGNIZED: Throughout the 2013 season, the Longhorns will recognize the 1963 National Championship team which went a perfect 11-0 under head coach Darrell K Royal. The Horns ascended to No. 1 in the polls after knocking off top-ranked Oklahoma, 28-7, in their annual showdown on Oct. 12. UT went on to down No. 2 Navy, 28-6, in the Cotton Bowl. Several former players were present during a ceremony during the first quarter of the New Mexico State game. In addition, player numbers were placed above the steerhead on the game helmets, as they were during the 1963 season. Following the New Mexico State game, the players voted to keep them on the helmets for the remainder of the 2013 season.

16TH YEAR UNDER MACK BROWN: Mack Brown, who is in his 16th season at Texas, is just the fourth coach in the 120 years of Texas football to lead the team for at least a decade and just the second coach to win 100 games while at the school. Darrell Royal, who won 167 games (1957-76), has the longest tenure at 20 years. Brown is the first coach in UT history to post more than 200 victories during a career (151 at Texas). Brown moved ahead of Fred Akers, who posted 86 wins from 1977-86, during the 2006 season.

NO. 2 ALL-TIME: In 2008, Texas moved ahead of Notre Dame for second place on the NCAA all-time victory list. At 868 victories, Texas trails only Michigan in all-time wins. With the Longhorns in second place on that list, it marked the first time since 1932 that Michigan and Notre Dame did not occupy the one-two spots in all-time wins. Since Mack Brown arrived in 1998, Texas has posted a 151-43 (.778) record and moved ahead of Alabama, Notre Dame and Nebraska on the all-time victory chart.

BROWN ON NATIONAL SCENE: With a 151-43 (.778) record at UT, Mack Brown has led Texas to the nation's third-most victories over the last 15 years. In addition, Brown has guided the Horns to a 124-32 (.795) mark over the last 11-plus seasons, which is the nation's third-best winning percentage over that time span, and includes six 11-win seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '08 and '09). The 11-win seasons are fourth-best to UT's 13-win campaigns in 2005 and '09, and its 12-win season in '08.

10-WIN SEASONS: Texas is one of just two teams in college football history to win at least 10 games in nine straight seasons (2001-09). The Horns' streak trailed only Florida State's streak of 14 consecutive seasons in NCAA history. In addition, Texas posted 12-win seasons in back-to-back years for the first time in school history. Prior to Brown's arrival, the Horns had never before posted consecutive 11-win campaigns let alone consecutive 12-win seasons. Brown has led the Horns to six seasons with 11 or more wins. That compares to the four 11-win seasons (1963, '69, '77 and '83) in Texas history before Brown's arrival.

ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM/JAMAIL FIELD RENOVATIONS

As Texas football proceeds through the 21st century, Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium continues to evolve as a state of the-art facility at the forefront of college football.

Following the 2008 season, Texas installed FieldTurf as its playing surface and permanent bleachers were added to the south end of the stadium.

Combined with the previous year's north end zone project, DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium now has a stadium capacity of 100,119, which is the fifth-largest college stadium in the country and the largest college stadium in the southwest.

Prior to the 2013 season, the field surface was replaced and seats throughout the lower bowl were replaced.

The north end zone expansion project that was completed prior to the 2008 season featured an upper deck, club seating, an academic center and a war memorial plaza. The expansion added approximately 2,108 club seats and 47 suites.

The lower deck of the north end zone was completed for the 2007 season. Another major upgrade was made prior to 2007, when a new video board was installed at the south end of the stadium. At the time, the scoreboard was the nation's largest high-definition video display board thanks to Daktronics. The $8-million Prostar Video Board is 56 feet high by 134 feet wide. Then after the 2012 season, UT worked with Daktronics to provide an upgrade to the video and audio capabilities in the stadium.

In addition, the interior of the Moncrief Athletics Complex, most notably the players' lounge, is consistently being upgraded. Prior to 2009, a new academic center was constructed. It is approximately three times the size of the previous center. It features writing, math and computer labs, numerous tutoring areas, a multimedia classroom and academic staff office space.

In the summer of 2011, the Longhorns locker room was renovated. It was all part of a $176.5 million renovation project at the stadium.

MACK BROWN SUCCESS: Under Brown, the Horns have posted Top 10 finishes seven times in the last 10 years (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09). Prior to his arrival, the last time UT finished in the Top 10 was 1983. In addition, Texas played in a bowl game for a school-record 12 consecutive seasons from 1998-2009, bettering the previous streak of nine straight from 1977-85. Brown's personal strings, including time at North Carolina, go back even further. He has posted winning seasons in 22 out of the last 23 years and taken his teams to 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons. His 22 winning seasons in the last 23 years is the best active streak in the nation and his 20 bowl games in the last 21 seasons is tied for the best active streak in the nation with Frank Beamer.

STRING OF SUCCESS: Texas has finished the year ranked among the nation's top 15 in 10 of the last 13 seasons, which includes a string of 10 straight, a Longhorn record. In addition, UT has finished in the top 10 in seven of the last 12 seasons (2001, '02, '04, '05, '07, '08 and '09) and in the top Five in four of the last nine ('04, '05, '08 and '09). You have to go back to Darrell Royal's string of success in the late 1960s, when the Horns finished among the top five in four out of five years (1968-72), to equal that consistency in UT history.

BOWL SUCCESS: Texas has played in a bowl game 14 times in Mack Brown's 15 years. That stretch included a UT-record stretch of 12 straight from 1998-2009, which bettered the previous mark of nine consecutive from 1977-85. The Horns have won nine of their last 11 bowls and have an 10-4 record under Brown. In the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to eight bowls and was 2-6. Brown is the first UT coach since Darrell Royal, who was 8-7-1 in bowl games, to post a .500 or better bowl record. With a 24-21 victory over No. 10 Ohio State in the 2009 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Texas won bowl games in five consecutive years for the first time in school history (2004-08). The Horns did win five straight previously (1963-64, '66, '68-69), but the streak was interrupted by seasons that did not result in a bowl. Brown's personal string, including time at North Carolina, goes back even further. He has directed his teams to 20 bowls in the last 21 seasons, which is tied for the longest active streak in the nation with Frank Beamer of Virginia Tech.

UT'S BIG 12 SUCCESS AT HOME: Texas is 43-11 (.796) at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field vs. league opponents during the Mack Brown era. The 43 home victories are the second-most by any team in the league over the last 15 years. In addition, the Horns set the league record with a 26-game home winning streak over Big 12 opponents, which was snapped in 2006. Prior to 2006, the last time UT had lost a home game against a league foe was 1999 (35-17 to No. 13 K-State).

BIG 12 ROAD SUCCESS: Texas has won 38 of its last 46 (.826) true Big 12 road games (excluding neutral-site games), including a league-record 13 consecutive conference road wins from 2002-06. The Horns are 42-10 (.808) in league road contests under Mack Brown. Highlighting the Horns' road record under Brown are victories at Nebraska (1998) to end the Huskers' nation-best 47-game home winning streak, another win that snapped a Nebraska 26-game home winning streak (2002), and a victory to break Oklahoma State's 10-game winning streak (2003).

CONFERENCE COMPETITION: Mack Brown, who has guided the Horns to the 2005 and 2009 Big 12 Championships and has won or shared the Big 12 South Division title six times, is 91-31 (.746) in 15 seasons of Big 12 play. That is the second-best league record over that span behind Oklahoma (95-27/.779) and betters Nebraska (65-39), Kansas State (70-52) and Texas Tech (66-56). At 99-39 (.717), Texas has the second-best intraconference record since the Big 12 formed in 1996.

BIG 12 WINNING STREAKS: The Horns tied the school record by winning 21 straight conference games from 2004-06 before the streak was snapped at Kansas State in 2006. The record of 21 straight conference victories was set from 1968-71 when Texas was competing in the Southwest Conference. The 21 straight Big 12 victories also marked the longest streak in league history. Texas also has the second-longest home winning streak in Big 12 history with 26 straight victories from 1999-2006 and the longest road winning streak in conference play with 13 straight wins from 2002-06.

LW: Last week's ranking

"FAN"-TASTIC: Texas home games have been among the best-attended in the nation over the past 10 years. The Horns, who have played in front of a sellout crowd in 73 of their last 79 home games, have attracted the top 40 crowds, and 58 of the top 59, in UT history since Mack Brown took over in 1998. In addition, the top 30 home crowds at Texas have come since '08. Texas' school-record season-ticket sales of 84,071 in 2010 are more than double the 39,743 sold in 1997, the UT record when Brown arrived. Texas set the single-game attendance record against West Virginia in 2012 with a crowd of 101,851 and have drawn 100,000 or more 22 times in school history. The West Virginia game had the largest crowd to see a college sporting event in the Southwest. The single-season record for home attendance is 704,580 set in 2010.

JAMAIL FIELD STREAKS: The Horns have posted three of the six-longest home winning streaks in school history during the Mack Brown era. The Horns won 20 in a row at home from 1999-2003 (third-longest in school history). Then, from 2003-06, Texas won 16 straight home games, which is tied for the fourth-best string. UT had another 16-game string from 2007-10. The longest streak in school history is a 42-game stretch from 1968-76. Texas' 26-game home intraconference winning streak from 1999-2006 is the second-longest in Big 12 history.

DRAWING FANS ON THE ROAD: UT has attracted record crowds in 12 of its road games over the past seven seasons: at Oklahoma State (58,516, 2009), vs. Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl (96,009, 2009-11 and 92,182, 2008), at Texas Tech (60,879, 2012; 60,454, 2010; 56,333, 2008 and 56,158, 2006), at UTEP (53,415, 2008), at Texas A&M (88,253, 2007) and at Nebraska (85,187, 2006). The attendance at the Ole Miss game (9/15) was 61,797, the fourth largest in school history and most since a school-record 62,657 fans at the 2009 Alabama game. It was also the largest crowd ever for a non-conference game in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The Horns were part of another record vs. Texas Tech. The Red Raiders had Jones AT&T Stadium-record crowd of 60,879 on Nov. 3.

ROAD WARRIORS: Texas is 74-28 (.725) away from home (road and neutral sites) over the last 15 years compared to a 49-44-2 (.526) record in the 15 years prior to Mack Brown's arrival in 1998. The Horns' 71-25 (.740) mark in road and neutral-site games since 1999 is the nation's second-best record over that span. Texas is 56-13 (.812) on the road (excluding neutral-site games) and 47-7 (.870) vs. unranked road foes during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Brown's arrival, UT posted just six winning road records in the 15 seasons leading up to 1998. During that time, UT was just 38-35 (.521) in true road games. The Longhorns have won 51 of their last 59 true road games (.864). In addition, UT is currently on a streak of 13 consecutive nonconference road wins, which is a school record, bettering the previous streak of seven from 1956-63.

BCS RANKINGS: Following the loss to Iowa State in 2010, Texas had its streak of 56 consecutive weeks in the BCS rankings snapped, which had been the longest active streak in the nation. The Horns, No. 23 in the final rankings of the season, still lead the nation with 102 all-time appearances.

TOP 25 TEXAS: Under Mack Brown, Texas has been one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 years with the other being Virginia Tech. It is one of only three schools to do so in the Associated Press poll, with the third being Georgia, and is also one of only three to do so in the coaches poll, including Florida.

AP TOP 25 FINISHES: Texas has finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 completed years in Austin, making the Horns one of three team to accomplish that with Virginia Tech and Georgia. The run also includes a string of 12 straight, marking the first time in school history Texas had finished in the AP Top 25 for 12 straight years, bettering the previous record of eight straight (1968-75). Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the AP Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

COACHES POLL FINISHES: Texas has been ranked in the first and last coaches poll in 13 of Mack Brown's 15 seasons in Austin. The Longhorns are one of only three teams in the nation to finish in the Top 25 in 13 of the last 15 years, including Virginia Tech and Florida. Dating back to his days at UNC, Brown's teams have finished the year ranked among the coaches' Top 25 in 15 of the last 17 seasons, including nine Top 10 finishes.

UT AND THE AP TOP 10: As a result of its loss at Kansas State in 2006, Texas had its string of 46 straight weeks in the AP Top 10 snapped. Prior to that, the last time the Horns were not among the AP Top 10 was in the final poll of the 2003 season. The 46 straight weeks was the longest for the Horns in the Mack Brown era. The longest Texas streak in the AP Top 10 is 60 weeks from 1961-65. With its loss to UCLA in 2010, Texas had a streak of 33 consecutive weeks ranked in the Top 10 broken. In addition, prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and is the longest streak in the Mack Brown era, bettering a 19-week streak from 2005-06.

BROWN'S TOP 10 HORNS: Mack Brown revived the Horns as a Top 10 regular beginning with a No. 5 preseason ranking in 2001. Since then, the Horns have earned a Top 10 standing in 125 of the last 178 AP polls. All totaled, UT has spent 132 weeks ranked among the AP Top 10, and 137 weeks ranked in the Coaches Top 10 since Brown arrived in 1998. That Coaches poll streak resumed in the Oct. 2, 2011 poll when the Longhorns returned with a No. 10 ranking and they spent three weeks in the top 10 in 2012. In the previous 15-year stretch prior to his arrival, UT spent just 38 weeks rated among the Top 10. Brown has led the Horns to a final Top 10 ranking in seven of the last 12 seasons. In 2008, Brown led Texas to its first regular-season No. 1 ranking since 1984. In 2005, he led UT to its first No. 1 ranking to end the season since 1969. Before Brown took over the program, the last time UT earned a Top 10 finish was 1983. From the start of the 1984 season to Brown's arrival in 1998, UT was in the Top 10 just 28 times in 14 seasons.

TACKLING THE TOP 25: Texas is 30-18 (.625) in its last 48 games vs. Top 25 opponents. Nine of those losses have come to Top-10 ranked teams. That's a continuation of the success the Longhorns have had against ranked foes during the Mack Brown era. In Brown's 15 years in Austin, UT is 37-29 (.561) vs. Top 25 opponents. That compares to a 22-35-3 (.392) mark in the 15 years before Brown arrived. In fact, the Longhorns have posted a winning record against ranked opponents in nine of the last 12 seasons as compared to only four times in the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival.

*Mack Brown era in bold // * bowl game*

TEN STRAIGHT TOP 15 FINISHES: Texas' No. 2 ranking in 2009 marked the 10th straight year the Horns finished ranked among the nation's Top 15. That is the first time UT had ever accomplished that feat. The 2009 standing followed a No. 3 ranking in 2008, a No. 10 ranking in 2007, a No. 13 ranking in 2006, a No. 1 ranking in 2005, a No. 5 ranking in 2004, a No. 12 ranking in 2003, a No. 6 ranking in 2002, a No. 5 ranking in 2001 and a No. 12 ranking in 2000.

UT IN THE AP TOP 25 POLL: Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 19 in the Associated Press Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as No. 11 in the AP Top 25 both last season and in 2011. Texas returned to the poll in 2011 after its nation-leading and UT-record streak of 162 straight weeks in the poll was snapped following the loss to Oklahoma in 2010. The streak bettered a 114-week stretch from 1968-76. It was the sixth-longest streak in the history of the poll. Prior to the poll on Sept. 12, 2010, the Horns had been ranked in the AP Top 5 for 30 consecutive weeks, which was the longest active streak in the nation and the longest streak in the Mack Brown era.

UT IN THE COACHES POLL: Texas finished the 2012 season ranked 18th in the Coaches Poll. The Longhorns were ranked as high as ninth during the season, which gave them 137 weeks total in the Top 10 during the Mack Brown era. Prior to Texas' loss to Oklahoma in 2010, UT had been ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 straight weeks was the longest UT streak in any poll and the nation's longest active streak in the poll at that time. The Horns' previous longest streak in the coaches poll was 54 weeks from 1977-80.

HORNS' FINISHING TOUCH: One of the mantras of the program under Mack Brown is "finish," which the Horns have done since Brown arrived. Over Brown's 15-year tenure, UT has gone 31-7 (.816) in games decided by four points or less and 21-5 (.808) in games decided by three points or less. The Longhorns' have won 18 of their last 20 (.900) games decided by three points or less. The only losses came in shootouts against West Virginia in 2012, 48-45, and at Kansas State in 2006, 45-42, when Colt McCoy was sidelined by injury after the opening drive. The success under Brown is an improvement from the 15 years prior to his arrival when UT went 20-16-3 (.513) in games decided by four points or less and 17-12-3 (.531) in games decided by three points or less. The 45 points scored versus West Virginia were the most ever by a Texas team in a loss. The previous record was the 42 vs. Kansas State in 2006.

SCORING OFFENSE LAST 13 YEARS: Since 2000, Texas is averaging 36.57 points per game to rank fifth nationally during that time frame. Since the 2002 season Texas has scored 779 touchdowns which is fourth most in the NCAA. Boise State leads the way with 899 touchdowns scored during that period.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION: In the first 15 seasons under Mack Brown, UT's offense produced 12 of the top 13 passing seasons, 13 of the top 15 total yardage campaigns, and the top 10 scoring years in school history. The Horns have also averaged at least 200 yards both rushing and passing in four of the 15 completed seasons. During his tenure, the Horns have registered forty-four 50-point games and five of the top seven total offense games in UT history.

SCORING SPREE: In the last four-plus seasons, the Longhorns have scored 50 or more points in eight games, including last week's 56 against New Mexico State, as well as 66 against Ole Miss and 56 against Baylor in 2012. Texas averaged 39.0 points per game in the last decade (2000-09), which ranked third nationally and second among BCS conference schools. The Horns averaged at least 35 ppg in nine of the 10 seasons, including three seasons of at least 40 ppg. In 2005, UT set a then-NCAA record with 652 total points and a school record by averaging 50.2 ppg.

MORE OFFENSE: In addition, UT has produced 500-yard total offense performances 54 times under Brown (there are only 77 of them in the 120-plus years of Texas football) and has recorded 13 of 23 games of 600-plus total offense yards. The Horns' balanced attack has produced at least 400 yards of offense in 97 of its last 154 games (62.9%) and has registered 200 yards both passing and rushing 45 times. Texas has scored at least 25 points in 82 of its last 111 games (73.8%). That includes a streak of at least 28 points in a UT-best 19 consecutive games from 2007-08, bettering the previous mark of 12 (2005-06). Texas also posted an 11-game streak from 2000-01. Prior to Brown's arrival, the longest streak of scoring at least 28 points was seven games.

400 RUSHING YARDS: Since 1980, UT has six games in which it has rushed for 400 or more yards, with five of those under Mack Brown. Two came in back-to-back in 2011 games with 439 yards against Texas Tech and 441 vs. Kansas.

500 YARDS OF OFFENSE: There have been 54 games of 500 or more yards during Mack Brown's tenure. Texas recorded over 500 yards four times in 2011 with a season-high 595 yards of total offense against Texas Tech and 590 yards against Kansas. The Longhorns notched three 500-plus yard games in 2012, including 676 against Ole Miss (No. 3 in school history) and 609 yards against Iowa State, which is tied for the 16th-most offensive yards on UT record.

BIG PLAY OFFENSE: The Longhorns ranked 40th nationally in total offense (434.6 ypg) and 23rd in scoring (35.7 ppg) in 2012 not only because of their balance, but also big-play ability. On the season, Texas had 22 offensive plays of 40 yards or more, with 11 (50.0 percent) resulting in touchdowns. During the 2011 season, the Horns had 17 plays over 40 yards with six resulting in a TD. Eight different Horns had a 40-plus-yard offensive play in 2012 and six of them return in 2013.

DEFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT LAST SEASON: While the offense was consistent throughout the 2012 season with nine games of more than 400 total yards, the defense, with just two seniors on the two-deep and three starters out with season-ending injuries took time to come together as the season progressed. Over the final six contests, the defense showed quite a bit of improvement:

	First 7 Games	Last 6 Games
Points Allowed	35.0 pg	22.5 pg

Opp. Comp. %	62.0	54.8
Red-Zone TDs	61% (19/31)	56% (15/25)

From halftime of the Kansas game (final 22 quarters of the season), the Longhorns allowed just 121 points. In the 22 previous quarters, opponents scored 242 points.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMERS UNDER BROWN: Colt McCoy is one of just five QBs in NCAA history to post four seasons with at least 2,500 yards passing. Cedric Benson became the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for over 1,000 yards in four straight seasons and finished his career ranked sixth on the NCAA all-time rushing list (5,540 yards). Vince Young became the first player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards and pass for 3,000 yards in one season.

SCORING DEFENSE: Texas' defense has been a scoring machine since 1999. During that time, the defense has accounted for 320 points and scored in 45-of-181 games (24.9%). The Texas defense notched its first defensive points of the 2012 season with a Steve Edmond's 22-yard interception return for a touchdown against Ole Miss. In the West Virginia game, Alex Okafor caused QB Geno Smith to fumble on the 1-yard line, and Jackson Jeffcoat recovered the ball in the end zone, to tie the game 21-all in the second quarter. Against Oklahoma, Quandre Diggs returned a blocked PAT for two points and Carrington Byndom intercepted a Landry Jones pass for a 28-yard return. The defense accounted for one touchdown on an interception return and three safeties in 2011 for 12 total points. The three safeties came in a span of four games as UT posted two points against Oklahoma State, Kansas and Missouri. UT posted four TDs and a safety in 2009 for 30 points. The Horns' defense has scored at least three TDs in 11 of the last 14 seasons, led by seven TDs scored in 2000. That defense tallied 46 points, which is the most over the 14-year stretch. The 2003 unit scored six TDs, while the 2006 unit scored five TDs.

STINGY SCORING D: During the last five seasons at Texas, the Longhorn defense has held 53-of-65 opponents (81.5%) under their season scoring averages. The Longhorns have limited 26 teams to 14 points or less in the last four-plus years. The Longhorns held Iowa State to seven points in 2012, 17 points lower than the Cyclone's scoring average entering the game. The Horns held teams to 14 points or less in three games in 2011 on the way to leading the conference in scoring defense. That matched the total from 2010 of three opponents scoring 14 points or less. In 2009, the Horns held 12-of-14 opponents under their scoring averages and didn't allow an offensive TD in four of 14 games. Texas also led the Big 12 in scoring defense in 2008 allowing just 18.8 points per game.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE: After inheriting a program that ranked among the NCAA's bottom half in total defense for the five seasons prior to his arrival, Mack Brown and his staff have reversed that trend. Texas has ranked among the nation's top 25 in total defense in 11 of the last 15 seasons and was 11th in 2011.

GUARDING THE END ZONE: Texas' defense has made it difficult for opponents to reach the end zone over the last 13 seasons. Since 2000, the Horns have allowed only 372 TDs in 167 games (2.2 TDs per game), which ranks fifth nationally. Miami has allowed the fewest, only giving up 330. In 13 games in 2011, the Horns' defense surrendered 28 TDs, including the first shutout since 2005 against Kansas. In 2010, Texas held Texas Tech to 14 points, the fewest they had scored in Lubbock in the series since 1984 (10) and the fewest overall in the series since 2001 (7). The defense held No. 5/4 Nebraska out of the end zone with the only score coming on a punt return. In 2009, the Horns' defense allowed just 23 TDs on 185 possessions (12.4%).

SHUTDOWN QUARTERS: The Longhorns have held an opponent to zero or fewer yards in a quarter nine times in the last five seasons. In the 2012 Alamo Bowl, Oregon State was held to minus-4 yards in the fourth quarter and in 2011, UT held Kansas to minus-2 yards in the second quarter and minus-1 yard in the third quarter. In the first quarters of Texas' games against UCLA (minus-6) and Texas Tech (minus-4) in 2010, the defense held the opposition to a combined minus-10 yards. Texas also held Rice to zero yards in the third quarter that season. In 2009, it held UTEP to minus-7 in the first quarter and minus-1 in the third. It then held Baylor to minus-20 in the second quarter.

GROUND PATROL: Mack Brown and his staff inherited a ground defense that had ranked no better than 64th nationally in the five seasons prior to their arrival. During Brown's 15 seasons, they have turned that around. The Horns have limited 73 of their last 152 opponents (48.0%) to fewer than 100 yards rushing and allowed just 45 individual 100-yard rushers in the last 179 games (25.1%). The Horns have been ranked in the top six in rush defense in five of the last seven seasons, including a No. 1 national ranking in 2009 (72.4 ypg). During the span of 2007-2011 (78 games), UT held opponents to just 90.0 yards per game (7,022 yards on 2,291 carries) and just 3.1 yards per carry. In addition, at home over the last seven-plus seasons (51 games), Texas has only allowed 21 teams to break the 100-yard plateau and has only allowed 11 individual 100-yard rushers. In true road games over the last six-plus season (30 games), Texas has allowed only 19 teams to reach 100 yards rushing and just nine individual 100-yard rushers. Texas has held its opponents under 50 yards rushing 46 times during the Mack Brown era.

SHORT DRIVES: The Texas defense has prevented its opponents from moving the chains on 35.9 percent of their drives over the last 11 years (154 games). During that time, UT forced 740 three-and-outs or better in 2,058 possessions. In 2011, that number stood at 67-of-175 (.383), which included 8-of-11 against Kansas, 9-of-13 vs. Kansas State, 9-of-17 against Oklahoma St. and 7-of-18 at Texas A&M. In 2010, Texas posted 41.2 percent (63-of-153) and was one of only five teams nationally to average at least five three-and-outs per game (5.25). Last season, Texas forced three-and-outs on 50 percent of an opponent's drives two times -- against Kansas and against TCU. In their attempt to mount a Thanksgiving comeback, the Longhorns' defense forced three-and-outs on all of TCU's fourth quarter drives prior to the last one in which TCU ran out the clock.

PRESSURE AT A PREMIUM: Texas is third in the nation in sacks with 517 since 1999, trailing only USC (535) and Virginia Tech (523). Since 2008, the pressure statistics have continued to increase. During that span, Texas' 530.5 TFL and 191 sacks both rank first nationally. In 2012, Texas posted 35 sacks and 99.5 tackles for loss in 13 games, capped by a 10-sack performance in the Alamo Bowl. The 99.5 TFLs ranked sixth nationally and first in the Big 12. In 2011, the Longhorns had 29 sacks and 116 tackles for loss in 13 games. Texas amassed 31 sacks and 93 TFL in 2010.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Texas' defense has forced 410 turnovers during the Mack Brown era (194 games/2.11 per game), while only giving up 338 turnovers for a plus-72 turnover margin. Overall, the Horns have averaged nearly a plus-five turnover margin per season during Brown's tenure.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE: When Texas holds onto the ball and forces turnovers it generally wins. The Longhorns, who ranked tied for 39th in the FBS in 2012 in turnover margin (+0.38 per game), are 91-5 during Mack Brown's 15-year tenure when winning the turnover battle. With its 48-45 loss to West Virginia on Oct. 6, 2012, Texas lost its first game when winning the turnover battle since midway through the 2002 season. The Longhorns lost the turnover battle to Kansas, but did not allow a TD on their two interceptions. Texas was minus-5 in turnovers (lost seven, gained two) in the final two regular-season games vs. TCU and Kansas State.

DID YOU KNOW?

There were 18 different Longhorns who scored touchdowns in 2012. That mark was tied for third most in the FBS led by Joe Bergeron's team-high 16. In all, 22 players scored in 2012.

TOUGH IN THE RED ZONE: Texas had a habit of not breaking defensively in 2012. Texas Tech scored five of six times in the red zone vs. Texas, but four of those were field-goal attempts. The Red Raiders hit three of those FG attempts and one was blocked by Carrington Byndom with the Red Raiders attempting to cut into a 31-22 deficit with less than 10 minutes left in the game. Seth Doege came into the game with a 288.9 passer rating in the red zone which was No. 1 in country, according to ESPN.com. Doege was 5-for-9 for 46 yards and one TD with a passer rating of 135.2 in the red zone vs. Texas. On the season, Texas forced the opposition into 19 field goals which was the most in the nation. The Longhorns were tied for 115th in the FBS in red-zone defense (91 percent), but they allowed the opposition to score a TD on just 58.6 percent (34 of 58) of their red-zone trips which ranked 55th in the nation. Kansas, Texas Tech, Iowa State and TCU combined to score just 10 TDs on 21 trips (47.6 percent) inside the UT 20.

LEADING THE BIG 12 ON DEFENSE

LEADING THE BIG 12: Texas led the Big 12 in total defense and rushing defense in 2011. The Longhorns led the conference in total defense for four straight years (2008-11) and seven times in conference history. UT has led the league in rushing defense in five of the last seven years and seven times since 1996. Texas has led the conference in pass efficiency defense in 2000, 2005 and 2011 and in scoring defense for the 2001, 2005 and 2008 seasons.

( ) - National Ranking

NON-OFFENSIVE SCORES: Since 1999, UT has scored 84 TDs via returns, turnovers and blocked kicks. The 84 scores during that stretch rank tied for second nationally with Virginia Tech (84), just trailing Kansas State (86). Texas had four non-offensive scores during the 2011 season with an interception return, a blocked punt return and two kickoff returns for touchdowns. There have been 17 kickoff returns for touchdowns in school history with 10 coming during the Mack Brown era. The lone defensive score of the year came at Texas A&M when Carrington Byndom intercepted a pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown. Texas notched its first non-offensive score of the 2012 season when Steve Edmond posted a 22-yard interception return for a TD vs. Ole Miss (9/15). D.J. Monroe added a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Oklahoma State (9/29), to set the Texas record for most career kickoff returns for a TD. Against West Virginia (10/6), Alex Okafor caused WVU QB Geno Smith to fumble on the 1-yard line, and Jackson Jeffcoat recovered the ball in the end zone, Carrington Byndom picked off Landry Jones for a 28-yard interception return for a touchdown against Oklahoma.

RETURN GAME: Texas has improved its kick return game, as well as defending on kickoffs and punts since Mack Brown arrived. Since 1998, the Horns have produced 11 of UT's 28 all-time punt returns for TDs and 10 of the 17 kickoff returns for scores. In contrast, UT has only given up four punt return TDs during the Mack Brown era. It had been 101 games (Kansas State, 1999) since Texas had given up a punt return for a TD before Kansas State returned one in 2007. During that time, Texas scored on four punt returns, while its opponents scored on seven. When Brown arrived in 1998, Texas hadn't returned a kickoff for a score since 1978. Then, in the 2000 Holiday Bowl, Victor Ike returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD, snapping the 265-game streak. That return was the first of eight under Mack Brown. Fozzy Whittaker matched a school record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Oklahoma and then in the next game had another 100-yard return for a TD vs. Oklahoma State. Last season, D.J. Monroe snapped Whitaker's UT record with the third of his career. He had a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD at Oklahoma State.

BLOCK THAT KICK: The Texas special teams have been just that since Mack Brown took over in 1998. Since then, Texas has blocked 82 kicks (49 punts/18 FGs/15 PATs), an average of 5.4 per season (1998-11). That is 57 more than the 25 recorded in the 13-year span prior to Brown's arrival. UT has blocked the most kicks in the nation since 2001 with 70, two more than Fresno State and Rutgers (68). The Horns tied for third in the FBS in 2012 with seven blocked kicks and their three blocked punts led the Big 12. Since Brown arrived, the Horns have had players set or equal UT records for career blocked kicks, single-season blocked kicks, career blocked punts and single-season blocked punts.

STAFF CONTINUITY: Head coach Mack Brown had to make just one on-field staff adjustment in the offseason with co-offensive coordinator Bryan Harsin taking over as head coach of Arkansas State. Larry Porter was added to fill the void. Porter has a long history as a proven running backs coach. Major Applewhite, who coached the running backs the last two years, remained as co-offensive coordinator and takes over for Harsin tutoring the QBs. Darrell Wyatt, the wide receivers coach the last two seasons, was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. Other adjustments included Stacey Searels being promoted to assistant head coach and Bruce Chambers taking over as recruiting coordinator after splitting the duties with Wyatt. Other non-coaching staff additions for 2013 include Patrick Suddes (director of player personnel), Bob Shipley (football analyst) and Greg Robinson (football analyst).

YOUNGSTERS HIT THE FIELD: Texas had a young roster the last two years and many of them also saw the field. In 2011, an FBS-high 18 true freshmen played. During 2012, 16 true freshmen saw action, a number that was tied for first in the FBS with TCU.

GROWING UP: Last season, Texas had just nine scholarship seniors on its roster which was the fewest in the Big 12 and tied for the fourth-lowest total in the FBS. While the Longhorns are a more veteran group in 2013, they still have a relatively small senior class squad. The Horns entered the season with 14 scholarship seniors on the roster which includes six offensive players, six defenders and two special teamers.

HOLDING ON TO THE BALL: Texas lost only five fumbles in 2012, a mark which ranked tied for sixth in the FBS. The Longhorns lost just two fumbles in the final seven games. Despite seven turnovers over the final two regular-season games, Texas still tied for 20th nationally in fewest turnovers committed (16). That mark is just two off the school record in that category (14 in 2008).

BROWN, GRAY AMONG TOP FRESHMAN RUSHERS IN UT HISTORY: Malcolm Brown tallied 742 rushing yards in 2011. He became just the 13th freshman in school history to rush for at least 500 yards in a season and his total is seventh all-time among freshmen. In 2012, Johnathan Gray became the 14th freshman to reach the 500-yard plateau with 106 rushing yards vs. Texas Tech. He ended the year with 701 rushing yards which ranks ninth on the Texas single-season freshman chart. Gray ended up earning honorable mention honors as the Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

PLENTY OF DEPTH: Texas' running backs corps features depth and versatility, returning four backs who each rushed for at least 200 yards last season. In addition to Gray (701) and Brown (324), Joe Bergeron had 567 last year and Daje Johnson had 203. Johnson was the leading receiver among the group with 287 yards on 19 receptions. The quartet was on full display in the opener, combining for 172 yards on the ground and 183 through the air. Brown had his first 100-yard receiving game with 109 yards on three catches. Sophomore Jalen Overstreet also made an impact despite not entering until midway through the fourth quarter, finishing with 92 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

RUN-PASS OPTION: David Ash had 19 touchdown passes and eight interceptions in 2012. He averaged 26.5 yards per TD pass, including a career long 75-yarder to Mike Davis vs. Texas Tech. If you include his 49-yard TD run against New Mexico and 11-yarder vs. Oregon State, he averaged 26.8 yards per score in 2012. Ash was one of only seven QBs in the FBS in 2012 to have a touchdown run of at least 45 yards and a TD pass of 75 yards or more. In the 2013 opener vs. New Mexico State, Ash became the first player in Texas history to post a run and pass of 50-plus yards in the same game (74-yard TD pass, 55-yard TD run).

ASH TAKES OFF: Dating back to the 2011 Holiday Bowl, David Ash has been on a roll. Over his last 14 starts (11-3 record), Ash has completed 248 of 369 passes (67.2 percent) for 3,184 yards

DID YOU KNOW?

From 1978-2000 the Longhorns did not register a kickoff return for a TD, but they have posted at least a kickoff or punt return for a score in 11 of the last 13 seasons. There have been nine kickoff returns for touchdowns since 2000.

(227.4 per game) with 24 TDs and 10 interceptions. Last season, Ash ranked 15th in the FBS in completion percentage (67.3) and 21st in passing efficiency (153.3 rating). His effectiveness was even more apparent at the end of games as he ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency (203.40) during the fourth quarter, according to cfbstats.com. He completed 36 of 48 passes (75 percent) for 498 yards with six TD passes and no interceptions in the final quarter. He led the Longhorns to game-winning drives in the final 3:00 against a pair of ranked opponents – Oklahoma State and Oregon State. Ash is a preseason All-Big 12 pick and member of the watch lists for the 2013 Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Manning and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose awards.

ASH IN UT CAREER TOP 10: David Ash moved into the Texas career top 10 passing yards list with 364 yards vs. Iowa State last season and currently ranks No. 8, just 614 yards behind Bret Stafford for seventh place. As a sophomore in 2012, Ash also reached No. 8 on the UT single-season passing yards list.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND: In the season-opening win over New Mexico State, Texas was able to get a number of players involved. Four players had at least 50 yards rushing (Jalen Overstreet, 92; David Ash, 91; Joe Bergeron, 79; Daje Johnson, 62) and four had at least 50 yards receiving (Malcolm Brown, 109; Johnson, 67; Mike Davis, 63; John Harris, 59). Additionally, eight players caught at least one pass. That mirrored much of 2012, when there were 12 Longhorns who rushed the ball and 18 who caught a pass. Five players had more than 25 rushes, led by Johnathan Gray's team-high 149 carries, and eight Longhorns had more than 10 receptions, led by Jaxon Shipley's team-best 59 catches. Davis chipped in 57 receptions and Marquise Goodwin had 26. Texas had six games last season where eight or more players caught passes.

AMONG THE CAREER TOP 10 IN RECEIVING: Texas has two of the top receivers in school history on the current roster. Mike Davis ranks sixth in career receptions and seventh in receiving yards, while Jaxon Shipley is closing in on the top 10 in both career categories. The Biletnikoff Award committee took notice heading into 2013 as both were placed on the preseason watch list.

BIG-PLAY ABILITY: Mike Davis came up with quite a few big plays for the Longhorns in 2012. He led the team in receiving yards (939) and touchdown receptions (seven), and was second in receptions (57). He averaged 41.1 yards on his seven touchdown catches, including a career-long 75-yarder vs. Texas Tech and a 61-yarder vs. Iowa State. Davis averaged 16.5 yards per catch in 2012 which ranked third in the Big 12 and 21st in the FBS among players with at least 40 receptions.

PULLING THEIR WEIGHT: The Longhorns are fortunate to have all five of their starting offensive lineman back from last season. Against New Mexico State, the unit was instrumental in helping the Longhorns post 300 rushing yards and 300 passing yards in a single game for just the fourth time in school history. Last year, the o-line helped the Longhorns post the 23rd-best scoring offense (35.7 ppg) in the nation, and allowed just 4.1 tackles for loss per game (No. 3 in the FBS) and 1.23 sacks pg (22nd in FBS). The returners are headlined by a pair of awards candidates in seniors Trey Hopkins and Mason Walters. That durable duo has combined to start 69 career games. Walters, who is on the preseason watch list for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy for the second-straight year, has started each of the last 39 games at right guard. That total is tied for third-most on the FBS active list and tied for second among offensive linemen. Hopkins had his 29-game starting streak (16 at LG/13 at RT) snapped in last season's Valero Alamo Bowl. He is also on the preseason watch list for the Outland Trophy.

TIGHT ENDS: Texas lost its top receiving tight end from each of the last two seasons in D.J. Grant, however, junior Greg Daniels returns after starting eight games in 2012, along with sophomore M.J. McFarland, who started four times last season. McFarland had fewer receptions than Grant, but tied him for the team lead in TE receiving yards with 125 to go along with one TD. The Longhorns also received a boost at the position in the offseason with the addition of junior-college transfer Geoff Swaim, the fourth-ranked JUCO tight end by ESPN.com in 2012.

JEFFCOAT BOUNCES BACK, REED EMERGES: After missing the final seven games in 2012, senior defensive end Jackson Jeffcoat took a solid first step in the season opener towards a return to his 2011 form when he led the team in tackles for loss (21) and sacks (8.0). Jeffcoat had seven tackles, four of them unassisted, with a TFL and a pass breakup against New Mexico State. Jeffcoat, a national honors candidate, started the first six games of 2012 and posted 31 tackles, including a team-high 11 tackles for loss before sustaining a right pectoral muscle rupture in the Oklahoma game. He was also second on the team in sacks (4.0) and tied for first in forced fumbles at the time of the injury. He was named to the watch lists for the 2013 Bednarik Trophy, Nagurski Trophy, Lott Trophy and CFPA Defensive Awards. He is also a preseason second team All-America choice by Lindy's and fourth team selection by Athlon. Opposite of Jeffcoat, Cedric Reed made his seventh career start in the opener and tallied a career-high 10 tackles, along with a sack.

HICKS & CO. SEEK RETURN TO FORM: After losing two of its most experienced players to the NFL entering 2012, the linebacking corps quickly lost a third with an injury to Jordan Hicks three games into the season. But that injury allowed a number of players to see their snaps increase. The Horns have seven linebackers on the roster with 10 or more career games played. Junior Steve Edmond started 12 games last year, while junior Kendall Thompson started seven and senior Demarco Cobbs started six. Peter Jinkens also emerged during his true freshman season to start three contests in addition to junior Tevin Jackson (two starts) and sophomore Dalton Santos (one start). Edmond finished second on the team with 103 tackles, followed by Thompson with 60. The group also lost Cobbs to injury late in the year, however as a unit, the LBs combined for 30 TFLs. Hicks hopes to return to his 2011 form, when he started in eight games as a sophomore and had 65 tackles, including four TFLs and one sack, and one fumble recovery. He got off to a good start, posting nine tackles (second on the team) in the season opener vs. New Mexico State.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY: Three starters in seniors Carrington Byndom and Adrian Phillips, along with junior Quandre Diggs, return to positions in the secondary, in addition to junior Mykkele Thompson who saw significant starts when the Longhorns opened in the nickel. That group has combined to play in 131 career games, including 74 starts. Diggs, a preseason All-American and candidate for the Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award, led the team with four INTs and seven PBUs last year, while Byndom, a preseason All-Big 12 pick and Thorpe Award candidate, added three INTs and six PBUs. Byndom has gone head-to-head with some of the top receivers in college football the last two seasons and has answered the challenge. He had 15 pass breakups and two interceptions in 2011, and six PBUs and three picks in 2012. He ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass breakups in 2011 despite starting for the first time and facing some of the top passing offenses in the nation. He has returned two of his five interceptions for touchdowns and is one of just eight players in school history with two or more. Phillips also had two INTs and finished third on the team in tackles with 72 last year, and had an interception in the opener vs. New Mexico State.

DIGGS FOLLOWS IN FOOTSTEPS: Much like his older brother, Quentin Jammer, Quandre Diggs has excelled as a defensive back at Texas. In 2011, Diggs posted one of the top freshman seasons in school history for a defensive back. He was named the 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and was a FWAA Freshman All-American. He tied the school record for interceptions by a freshman, matching Chris Carter's mark of four in 1993. Diggs also had 15 pass breakups to rank second most on the UT freshman list behind Earl Thomas' 17 in 2008. Last season, Diggs led the team in both interceptions (four) and pass breakups (seven). His last interception of the season was his most important one. His third-quarter pick of Oregon State's Cody Vaz set up a touchdown which helped turn the momentum in the Longhorns as they posted a 31-27 win. Diggs ended 2012 tied for 39th in the FBS in interceptions (0.31 per game).

DEFENSIVE TACKLE: On the interior of the defensive line, the Longhorns return two players who started games in 2012, led by junior Desmond Jackson (11 starts) and senior Chris Whaley (nine starts). That duo, combined with sophomore Malcom Brown, tallied 13 TFL, seven by Jackson, four by Whaley and two by Brown. A trio of redshirt freshmen will also look to have an impact this season, including Paul Boyette Jr., Alex Norman and Hassan Ridgeway.

SPECIALISTS: The Longhorns return a number of specialists in 2013, many of whom played key roles as freshmen in 2012. Both sophomore Nick Jordan and senior Anthony Fera are back after handling the place-kicking duties. Holding for the kickers is senior Cade McCrary, who has handled those duties for the last three seasons. Junior Nate Boyer handled short and deep snapping duties in the opener. Sophomore Nick Rose is back after kicking off on 82 of Texas' 85 attempts last season. Sophomore K Ben Pruitt and junior P Will Russ are also back this season.

BACK ON TRACK: After an injury-filled season, Anthony Fera appears to be back on track. The senior, in his second season with the Longhorns, handled both place-kicking and punting chores in the season opener. He averaged 45.7 yards on three punts, including a 68-yarder which was downed at the 1-yard line, and hit all eight of his extra-point attempts vs. New Mexico State. An All-Big Ten selection, Fera injured his groin shortly after transferring from Penn State in the summer of 2012. He missed the first four games of last season and went on to connect on 2 of 4 field goal attempts during his six games of action. Now finally healthy, he won both kicking jobs prior in the 2013 preseason. Fera was 14-for-17 on FGA during the 2011 season. He was named first-team All-Big Ten by ESPN.com as a punter and a Lou Groza Award semifinalist in 2011.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF FOR THREE LONGHORNS: The final day of preseason camp turned out to be a special one for three Texas Longhorns. Walk-ons Nate Boyer, Cade McCrary and Nick Rose, three key members of the special teams unit, were informed by head coach Mack Brown during a team meeting on Aug. 23 they were placed on scholarship for the 2013 season. For Boyer and McCrary, this is their second-straight season on scholarship. Rose, who handled kickoff chores last season as a true freshman, is on for the first time. Boyer is entering his second season as the snapper on field goals and extra points. McCrary is serving as the holder for the fourth-straight season.

BOYER, A KEY CONTRIBUTOR ON AND OFF THE FIELD: Nate Boyer has been an inspiration since arriving on campus in 2010. The junior long snapper earned a Bronze Star for his service with the U.S. Army Special Forces Unit and has provided assistance to autistic children and Darfur refugees. That helped lead to his selection as the 2012 recipient of the Disney Spirit Award as college football's most inspirational figure. Boyer, who first considered enlisting in the military in high school, joined the military at age 20 partly inspired by the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Before that, he spent a great deal of time coaching autistic children through therapy sessions and later provided aid to refugee camps in the Darfur region in Sudan. Boyer was presented with the award during The Home Depot College Football Awards at Walt Disney World Resort on Dec. 6, 2012. Boyer was the first Texas recipient of an award which was first bestowed in 1996. Boyer went on to earn 2012-13 Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year, an award which annually recognizes student-athletes who displayed an extraordinary degree of sportsmanship and/or community service. Along with his studies and football commitment, he also returns to active military duty each summer.

LONGHORN NEWCOMERS: As The University of Texas enters 2013, it looks to build on a 2012 season that culminated with a win over Oregon State in the Valero Alamo Bowl. With that, the Longhorns welcome a strong class of 15 newcomers on National Signing Day. Of the 15, six were selected to play in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl, one was chosen to participate in the Under Armour All-America Game, one in the International Bowl, and two in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl. Five of the players are listed among ESPN's Top 150 national prospects, and eight are in the Top 300. The class also features several prospects who were honor roll students and most of the 2013 signees have been involved in community service efforts. The success Brown and his staff have had in assembling and developing a series of highly regarded recruiting classes goes hand-in-hand with the success of the Texas Football program in the last 15 years.

TEXAS RECOGNIZED FOR ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT BY AFCA: The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) recognized The University of Texas in 2012 for its academic excellence in graduating its freshman class of 2005. Three other Big 12 universities - Baylor, Kansas, and TCU - were also among the 47 schools honored for having a graduation rate of 75 percent or higher. Northwestern and Stanford shared the AFCA's 2012 Academic Achievement Award, which is presented by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. Northwestern and Stanford recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for members of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2005. The AFCA uses the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) formula to determine the award winner, as well as the other institutions honored. The GSR is based on a six-year graduation window for student-athletes, and was developed by the NCAA as part of its academic reform initiative to better assess the level of academic success in FBS universities nationwide. The Academic Achievement Award was established in 1981 by the College Football Association. The AFCA took over presenting the award in 1997.

LONGHORNS IN 2013 NFL DRAFT: Mack Brown continued his streak of sending top talent to the NFL. In the 2013 draft, S Kenny Vaccaro was selected 15th overall by the New Orleans Saints and became the Longhorns' tenth top 20 pick in the last 10 years. Vaccaro marks Mack Brown's 16th first-round pick while at Texas. WR Marquise Goodwin was the 78th overall pick by Buffalo in the third round, making him the eighth Longhorn drafted by the Bills since 1976. Goodwin is the sixth wide receiver to be drafted in the Mack Brown era and the third in the last six years. DE Alex Okafor was the 103rd overall by the Arizona Cardinals and is the 12th Longhorn defensive lineman selected in the last eight years. The selection of Okafor continued the eight-year streak of a Texas defensive linemen being selected.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFL: Texas is not only one of the best at the collegiate level, but since Mack Brown's arrival, it has become one of the premier sources of talent for the NFL as well. As of Sept. 1, Texas had 33 players on NFL rosters, which is tied for fifth-most nationally. Of that group, 24 have started games during their NFL careers, including 20 who started as rookies. Among that group of 33, five have earned a spot in a Pro Bowl and six have participated in a Super Bowl with three coming away as Super Bowl Champions. The defensive backs (10), defensive line (5), linebackers (5) and kickers (2) lead the way and all rank first in the Big 12. In addition, Texas leads the Big 12 in Top 10 picks, Top 30 picks, Top 100 picks and Top 150 picks in the NFL Draft over the last 10 years. UT also has the most Top Five and third-most Top 10 picks in the NFL Draft since 1999. The Horns' eight Top 10 picks are two behind USC and one behind Alabama while their six Top Five picks lead LSU, Oklahoma, and USC, each of which has four.

HORNS PLACE 11 ON 2012 ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 TEAM: Texas had 11 players on the 2012 Academic All-Big 12 team, including seven on the first team. The first-team selections included sophomore DS Nate Boyer, sophomore OT Josh Cochran, senior DE Michael Cruciani, senior WR Marquise Goodwin, senior RB Heath Hohmann, junior QB Case McCoy and junior OG/C Garrett Porter. It marks the third straight year Goodwin and Porter have earned first-team honors, while McCoy did so for the second-straight year. The second team included senior TE Jackson Crawley, senior WR Jaren Nickleson, sophomore WR/TE Miles Onyegbule and sophomore S Josh Turner. Texas has led the conference in both total selections and first-team selections in five of the last seven years. In that span, the Longhorns have had 144 total honorees with 97 of those on the first team, both of which lead the Big 12. The next closest in both categories is Kansas with 105 total and 67 on the first team.

COMEBACKS UNDER MACK BROWN

During Mack Brown's 15 seasons at Texas, the Horns have registered 28 second-half comebacks, including 17 in the fourth quarter. UT has recorded the six largest comebacks in school history during the Mack Brown era.

vs. OREGON STATE (2012): Texas erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit and emerged with a thrilling 31-27 victory over No. 15/14 Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl. OSU took a 27-17 lead into the fourth quarter, but Texas scored a pair of touchdowns over the final 8:18 to secure the win. David Ash hit Johnathan Gray for a 15-yard touchdown to cut the margin to three. The sophomore QB then connected with Marquise Goodwin on a 36-yard TD with 2:24 left in the game.

at KANSAS (2012): Texas trailed twice in the fourth quarter. Case McCoy came off the bench early in the fourth quarter and led the Horns to two scoring drives. Texas tied the game at 14-all with 9:41 remaining on an 11-yard TD run by WR Marquise Goodwin. After the Jayhawks hit a field goal with 2:28 left in the game, McCoy hit tight end D.J. Grant for the 1-yard game-winning touchdown with 12 seconds left lifting No. 24 Texas to a 21-17 victory.

at RV/22 OKLAHOMA STATE (2012): UT trailed twice in the fourth quarter (33-28 & 36-34) before rallying. David Ash directed a 75-yard, eight-play drive that started with 2:34 left in the game. He was 4-for-5 for 70 yards and Joe Bergeron scored a 2-yard game-winning TD with 29 seconds left.

vs. BYU (2011): The Longhorns trailed 13-3 at the half and 16-10 entering the fourth quarter but two rushing TDs in the second half gave Texas a 17-16 win. The game-winning score by Cody Johnson came with 8:46 remaining in the game on a four-yard TD run that capped an eight-play, 52-yard drive.

vs. NO. 21/20 NEBRASKA (2009): Texas held the lead against Nebraska for much of the second-half, but a Nebraska field goal with 1:44 left gave the Cornhuskers a 12-10 lead. The Horns quickly moved down the field on the ensuing possession, setting up a Hunter Lawrence 46-yard field goal as time expired, giving UT a 13-12 victory and the 2009 Big 12 Championship.

vs. NO. 20/18 OKLAHOMA (2009): The Horns trailed 6-3 at halftime but scored 10 points on their first two drives of the second half to take a 13-6 lead. The Sooners came back with a TD to make it 13-13, but UT answered with a field goal early in the fourth quarter to take a 16-13 lead, which would end up being the final score. After giving up the TD to OU with 4:39 left in the third quarter, the Horns' defense didn't allow the Sooners into Texas territory for the rest of the game, allowing just 35 yards on 17 plays (2.1 ypp) and intercepting two passes.

vs. NO. 10 OHIO STATE (2008): Texas trailed 6-3 at the half before taking a 17-6 lead entering the fourth quarter. But, the Buckeyes ran off 15 straight points to take a 21-17 lead with just 2:05 remaining. From there, Colt McCoy led an 11-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard TD pass to Quan Cosby with 16 seconds left to give UT the 24-21 victory.

vs. NO. 1 OKLAHOMA (2008): The Horns erased two 11-point deficits in the first half and trailed by one, 21-20, at halftime. OU went up 28-20 before Texas scored 10 straight to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter. OU answered with a TD early in the fourth to make it 35-30, but UT scored the game's final 15 points over the last 7:37 to win, 45-35. In total, Texas went on a 25-7 run to seal the victory.

at OKLAHOMA STATE (2007): Texas erased two fourth-quarter deficits and a second-half one, including the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history against Oklahoma State. The Horns trailed 35-14 before scoring 24 unanswered points to win, 38-35.

NEBRASKA (2007): Texas trailed Nebraska, 17-9, entering the fourth quarter before running off 19 straight points to win, 28-25. After falling behind 17-3 early in the third quarter, Texas produced 336 total yards and 25 points in the second half to help seal the victory.

at TEXAS TECH (2006): After trailing Texas Tech, 21-0, in the first quarter, the Horns closed the gap to 31-21 at halftime and 31-28 entering the fourth quarter, before going on to win 35-31.

at NO. 4 OHIO STATE (2005): The Horns trailed the Buckeyes, 22-16, entering the final quarter, but Vince Young connected with Limas Sweed for a 24-yard TD with 2:37 remaining to give Texas a 23-22 lead. A late safety gave the Horns a 25-22 victory.

vs. NO. 1 USC (2005): The Longhorns trailed 38-26 with 6:42 remaining in the game before Vince Young led two TD drives, including his game-winning eight-yard TD run with just 19 seconds left, to secure the win and the National Championship.

Prior to 2005: The Horns notched four second-half comebacks and a fourth-quarter comeback in 2004, including a 28-point comeback against Oklahoma State, the largest in school history. UT also registered a halftime comeback in '02, a fourth-quarter comeback in '01, two halftime comebacks in 1999 and two fourth-quarter comebacks in '98.

TEXAS BY THE NUMBERS

3: The Longhorns have had three defensive backs chosen in the same draft twice in the last seven years.

3: The Longhorns have three BCS Bowl victories in four appearances, including winning the 2005 National Championship.

4: Quandre Diggs tied the school freshman record with a team-high four interceptions in 2011. He then added four more as a sophomore.

5: David Ash's 434 yards of total offense was the fifth highest mark in the FBS in week one of the 2013 season.

6: Texas leads the nation with six Top Five NFL Draft picks over the last 10 years.

6: Mike Davis ranks sixth in UT history in career receptions (154) and seventh in receiving yards (2,089) entering his senior season.

7: Texas blocked seven kicks in 2012, which tied for third in the FBS.

8: Eight Longhorns have been drafted in the Top 10 of the NFL Draft in the last 10 years, the third-most of any school in the nation.

9: Texas has produced the top nine scoring seasons in UT history during the Mack Brown era, including a school record 652 points in 2005.

10: Texas has posted a UT record 10 bowl wins in 14 appearances during the Mack Brown era.

11: Mack Brown ranks 11th all-time in FBS history with 236 career wins, which is three more than Bo Schembechler and one fewer than Woody Hayes.

11: Since Duane Akina arrived in 2001, 11 of his 12 starting cornerbacks have gone on to play in the NFL.

12: Texas has only lost back-to-back games 12 times in 15 years in the Mack Brown era.

13: Texas is one of only two schools in the nation to finish ranked in the Top 25 of both polls in 13 of the last 15 seasons (Virginia Tech).

14: Texas finished 14th in the FBS in offensive third-down efficiency in 2012, converting 48.6 percent (87 of 179).

16: Sixteen true freshmen played in 2012, which was tied for most in the nation (TCU - 16; LSU - 15; Ohio State - 15).

18: Texas has won 18 of its last 20 games (.900) that were decided by three points or less.

18: Texas played 18 true freshmen, the most in the nation in 2011.

21: David Ash finished 2012 ranked 21st in the nation in passing efficiency with a 153.28 rating.

22: The Longhorns have played in front of 100,000-plus people 22 times at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

36: As of Sept. 3, there were 36 Longhorns were on NFL rosters, the most in the Big 12 and fifth-most nationally.

39: Texas averaged 39 points per game in the last decade (2000-09), which was the second-most in the nation behind Boise State.

51: Texas' appearance in the 2012 Valero Alamo Bowl marked the 51st bowl appearance in UT history, second all-time in the NCAA.

54: In 15 seasons under Mack Brown, Texas' offense has produced 54 games with 500 or more total yards of offense. UT had accomplished that only 23 times in the 105 years prior to his arrival.

55: Of Mack Brown's 71 NFL draft picks over the last 15 years, 55 have been selected in the first four rounds.

55: The Longhorns have won 55 of 65 games against teams from the state of Texas under Mack Brown.

70: Texas leads the nation with 70 total blocked kicks since 2001, including a nation-leading 41 blocked punts.

71: Texas has won 71 road and neutral site games since 1999, which is the second most in the nation.

73: Texas has registered 73 sellouts in the last 79 games.

77: Texas has won 77 of 92 home games (83.7%) under Mack Brown

84: UT has scored 84 non-offensive TDs since 1999, which is tied for second nationally.

102: Texas' 102 appearances in the BCS standings are the most of any team in the country.

104: Texas has won 104 of 118 games when scoring first during the Mack Brown era.

124: Texas is 124-7 in the Mack Brown era when outrushing an opponent.

132: The Longhorns have spent 132 weeks in The AP Top 10 and have finished the year ranked in the Top 10 seven times during the Mack Brown era. Texas, which had not finished a year ranked among the Top 10 since 1983 prior to Brown's arrival, spent just 16 weeks rated among the nation's Top 10 in the 12 years before Brown took over.

144: Over the last seven years, Texas has the most Academic All-Big 12 selections of any team in the conference with 144.

148: Mack Brown has played 148 true freshmen in his 15-plus years at Texas.

151: Mack Brown's 151 wins at Texas are the second-most in school history, trailing only Darrell Royal's 167.

162: Texas was ranked in The AP Top 25 for a Longhorn record 162 straight weeks until the streak was snapped Oct. 3, 2010. It had been the longest active streak in the nation.

190: Until Oct. 3, 2010, the Longhorns were ranked among the USA Today Coaches Poll Top 25 for 190 straight weeks dating back to late in the 1998 season. The 190 consecutive weeks led the nation and was the longest UT streak in any poll.

200: Mack Brown became the 19th coach, who has spent at least 10 years at an FBS program, to win 200 games. He has 236 career victories.

400: There have been six games in which Texas has rushed for over 400 yards in a game, including two in 2011.

715: Texas set a school record with 715 yards of total offense in its 56-7 season-opening win over New Mexico State.

868: With 868 victories in program history, Texas ranks second on the NCAA all-time victories list behind only Michigan.

SATELLITE RADIO

A live radio broadcast for each UT game can be heard on SiriusXM Satellite: XM 202; Sirius 117; Internet 969; Spanish 970.

SPANISH LANGUAGE BROADCAST

The Longhorns Sports Network will also offer a Spanish Language Radio broadcast of all Texas Football games.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO IN COVERAGE

Any media entity collecting "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/post-game interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, Web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Its usage also must be used only as supporting video/audio for a reported story and not simply as rebroadcasted/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape-delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance, written permission of The University of Texas Athletics Department.

POSTGAME

The Longhorns locker room is closed. Postgame interviews at home will be conducted in the Moncrief Athletics Complex. Interviews on the road will be conducted at a designated area. NO INTERVIEWS ARE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE FIELD FOLLOWING THE GAME. After a NCAA required and team-enforced 10-minute cooling off period, players and coaches will be escorted to the interview area. Failure to abide by this rule will result in termination of credential.

POST-PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Practices are closed to the public and media. There will be post-practice media availability on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Moncrief Athletics Complex, though the best time for interviews is during the Monday news conference which begins at 11 a.m. (CT) on the ninth floor of Bellmont Hall (west side of Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium). Interview inquiries should be sent to associate AD for media relations John Bianco (john.bianco@athletics.utexas.edu).

GAME 1: #15/15 TEXAS (56) VS. NEW MEXICO STATE (7)

AUGUST 31 • DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 99,623 • LHN
WEATHER CONDITIONS: CLEAR SKIES (100 DEGREES)

AUSTIN, Texas -- David Ash threw for 343 yards and four touchdowns and No. 15 Texas set a school record with 715 total offensive yards in a season-opening 56-7 win over New Mexico State.

Led by Ash, the Longhorns (1-0) scored on five straight possessions after falling behind 7-0, averaging 54.6 yards per play on the five touchdowns. Ash hit John Harris for a 54-yard touchdown for the first of the five successive scores, and plays of 66 yards (Ash to Daje Johnson), 24 yards (Johnson run), 55 yards (Ash run) and 74 yards (Ash to Malcolm Brown) followed.

Texas reached the 700-yard mark in total offense for the first time in school history with a balanced attack, racking up 359 yards on the ground and 356 through the air. Ash had 91 yards on the ground, including the 55-yard TD run in the third quarter, while Joe Bergeron finished with 79 yards and Johnson had 62. Brown recorded the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, turning three catches into 109 yards.

Jalen Overstreet, who didn't enter the game until midway through the fourth quarter, led the Longhorns with 92 rushing yards on nine carries. His two touchdowns – one coming from a yard out and the other coming on a 38-yard dash – were the first of his Texas career.

"We rushed for over 300 yards, and David ran the ball well, so that really helped us," said head coach Mack Brown. "That's something we need to do is have our quarterback be an extra runner in key situations. I thought he looked for the run tonight. That's something he didn't do very much last year."

While Ash and the offense produced, the Texas defense forced three turnovers and shut down the Aggies (0-1) after allowing their lone touchdown in the second quarter - an 11-yard touchdown pass from Joshua Bowen to Andrew McDonald. Texas defensive ends Cedric Reed and Jackson Jeffcoat led the way with seven tackles apiece, including a sack for Reed.

Leading 35-7 following the third quarter, Texas kept its foot on the gas, scoring on all three of its possessions in the fourth quarter.

Mike Davis made an acrobatic, 25-yard catch in the corner of the end zone, just getting one foot in bounds to increase the lead to 42-7. Overstreet rushed six times for 43 yards in his first drive as a Longhorn and capped it off with a one-yard touchdown run. The sophomore scored his second touchdown of the game on a 38-yard run, completing the scoring for the Longhorns.

"It goes to show, if we really execute 60 minutes, we can be good," said co-offensive coordinator Major Applewhite. "It's okay to say that. It's out there. Let's go get it.

Texas ran its winning streak in season openers to 14 and is now 15-1 in openers under Brown.
