TEXAS HEADS TO BIG 12

INDOOR MEET: The Texas track and field team, ranked No. 5 nationally on the women's side and 17th on the men's, is gearing up for the 2014 Big 12 Indoor Championships, which will be held in Ames, Iowa, for the sixth time. The Longhorns will send 26 athletes from the both the men's and women's teams to the meet. Under first-year head coach Mario Sategna, the UT men look to defend their Big 12 title, while the women will try to claim the crown after being edged in 2013 by Kansas (150.5 to 148). In 2013, the Longhorns won three men's titles – shot put (Hayden Baillio), heptathlon (Johannes Hock) and 60-meter hurdles (Keiron Stewart) – and four women's crowns - high jump (Shanay Briscoe), pole vault (Kaitlin Petrillose), 4x400-meter relay and distance medley relay. The UT men rolled up 135 points in winning its sixth Big 12 indoor title. Oklahoma was second with 108.50 points and Kansas State third (96). The Longhorns swept the Big 12 indoor and outdoor titles last season for the third time in school history (also 1999 and 2006).

LEADING THE WAY IN THE BIG 12: The Texas men's and women's teams have a number of conference leading marks. The women lead the Big 12 in the 60 meters, 400 meters, mile, 4x400m relay and pole vault, while the men have the top mark in the 400m, 5,000 and shot put.

The women have a least one top-two Big 12 mark in nine events:

- 60 meters – Morolake Akinosun (7.25 – 1st)
- 200 meters – Ashley Spencer (23.46 – 2nd)
- 400 meters – Ashley Spencer (52.33 – 1st); Courtney Okolo (52.51 – 2nd)
- Mile – Marielle Hall (4:41.19 – 1st)
- 3,000 meters – Sara Sutherland (9:10.54 – 2nd)
- 5,000 meters – Sara Sutherland (15:53.98 – 2nd); Olivia Mickle (16:20.07 – 2nd)
- 4x400-meter relay – Kendall Baisden, Briana Nelson, Courtney Okolo and Ashley Spencer (3:30.12 – 1st)
- High jump – Shanay Briscoe (5-11.50/1.82m – 2nd)
- Pole vault – Kaitlin Petrillose (14-7.25/4.45m – 1st)

The men enter the meet with first or second-best mark in the Big 12 in six events:

- 60 meters – Senoj-Jay Givans (6.64 – 2nd)
- 400 meters – Zack Bilderback (46.47 – 1st)
- 5,000 meters – Mark Pinales (14:03.17 – 1st)
- Pole vault – Reese Watson (17-9.75/5.43m – 2nd)
- Shot put – Ryan Crouser (69-8/21.23m – 1st)
- Heptathlon – Wolf Mahler (5,335 – 2nd)

FIRST SEASON AS COMBINED PROGRAM: Texas did not have to look far to find the first head coach for its combined men's and women's. After a 10-year stint as an assistant men's coach (associate head coach from 2009-13) in Austin, Mario Sategna became the head coach of the combined men's and women's program in June. Sategna, one of the most respected field event coaches in the nation, helped the Longhorn men finish among the top 10 at either the NCAA indoor or outdoor meets 13 times, including a sixth-place showing at the 2013 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Sategna was a national champion decathlete at LSU and has coached numerous All-Americans, NCAA Champions and Olympians.

TEXAS MEN'S CONFERENCE HISTORY: The Texas men's track and field team has captured 11 indoor conference titles (five SWC/six Big 12) dating back to the first Southwest Conference Championships in 1974. The Horns have won six of the 17 Big 12 crowns awarded since the league started in 1996-97 (1999, 2006, '07, '08, '09, '13). UT's six Big 12 titles are second only to Nebraska which had won or shared nine before leaving the conference. The Longhorns won or shared four straight titles from 2006-09. UT has finished in the top two at the Big 12 Indoor meet 11 times.

INDIVIDUAL MEN'S CONFERENCE HISTORY: The UT men have captured 111 individual or relay indoor league crowns since the first Southwest Conference meet was held in 1974. UT has won titles in a variety of events, but in the high jump and pole vault alone, the Longhorns boast 23 league crowns. Texas has also captured seven distance medley crowns, including four straight from 2006-09, and eight shot put titles. Ryan Crouser, who sat out the 2013 indoor season, captured the shot put title in 2012.

TEXAS WOMEN'S CONFERENCE HISTORY: The Texas women's track and field team has secured 17 league indoor titles, including 12 in the Southwest Conference and five in the Big 12. The Longhorns captured the final 12 in the SWC (1985-96) and four of the first seven in the Big 12. They were second in each of the last two seasons.

INDIVIDUAL WOMEN'S CONFERENCE HISTORY: The Longhorn women have captured 151 individual or relay indoor conference crowns since the first women's Southwest Conference meet was held in 1983, 66 of them in the Big 12 era.

4X400-METER RELAY INTO THE RECORD BOOK: At the final event of the Tyson Invitational (Feb. 15), the Texas 4x400-meter relay unit posted the top time in the nation this season and a mark just outside the all-time indoor collegiate top 10. The foursome of Kendall Baisden, Briana Nelson, Courtney Okolo and Ashley Spencer crossed the finish line in 3:30.12, well ahead of second-place Texas Tech (3:34.15) and eclipsing Oregon's national-leading 3:30.52a which it recorded the previous day at the Don Kirby Elite Meet in Albuquerque, N.M. The Horns were just off Texas A&M's time of 3:29.93 posted at the 2007 NCAA Indoor Championships which ranks No. 10 on the all-time performance list. That UT time is also No. 3 in school history. The quartet of Keasha Downer, Raasin McIntosh, Moushaumi Robinson and Sanya Richards clocked an NCAA-record time of 3:27.66 in winning the 2003 national title. One year later, Alyssa Aiken, McIntosh, Sheretta Jones and Richards posted a 3:28.69 in capturing the NCAA title. That time ranks No. 3 on the all-time NCAA performance list. The top three times in UT history have been recorded at Arkansas' Tyson Randal Center.

BILDERBACK IMPROVES ON TWO UT LISTS: At the Tyson Invitational (Feb. 14-15), sophomore Zack Bilderback joined Aaron Collins as the only Longhorns to rank among the top five on both the school's all-time 200 and 400-meter performers list. On the opening day of the meet, Bilderback clocked a personal-best 46.47 in the 400 meters, a time which ranks No. 15 on the 2014 NCAA performers list and No. 6 on the all-time UT performance list. He also moved from No. 5 to No. 3 on the UT all-time performers list. One day later, he posted a career-best 21.18 in the 200. That ranks fifth on the school's all-time indoor 200-meter performers list and tied for 36th on the 2014 collegiate list. Collins ranks second (20.89) on the 200-meter performers chart and No. 5 (46.70) on the 400m list. Bilderback is also a member of the UT 4x400-meter relay. He has run the opening leg three of the four times the 'A' unit has competed this season.

FAST FRESHMEN: The Longhorn sprint crew has received a boost from a pair freshmen. Kendall Baisden has had a strong season for the women and Senoj-Jay Givans is coming off his best performance of the season for the men's team. Baisden opened the season at the Arkansas dual meet (Jan. 14) by clocking a personal-best 7.45 in the 60 meters (No. 49 on the 2014 NCAA performers list). Baisden then had a personal-best 53.23 in the 400m (No. 19 nationally) and ran the opening leg of the national-leading 4x400m relay (3:30.12) at the Tyson Invitational. Givans also shined at that meet, posting three career bests in the 60 meters, culminating in a time of 6.64 in the finals of the event. That time ranks tied for sixth on the school's all-time performance list and tied for 16th on the 2014 NCAA performers list.

DISTANCE GROUP GETS A LEG UP: Three Longhorns entered or improved their positioning on the school's all-time performers or performance list two weeks ago at the Iowa State Classic on the same track which will hold this week's Big 12 Championships. Senior Sara Sutherland recorded a time 15:53.98 in the 5,000 meters, which was just off her career best and UT record 15:50.04 (2013). Sutherland has the top four 5,000m times in school history. Another senior, Marielle Hall clocked a time of 4:41.19 in the mile, which is the second best in school history. For the men, Junior Mark Pinales recorded a personal best in the 3,000m (8:13.46) and 5,000m (14:03.17) events at the Iowa State Classic. His mark in the 5,000m ranks eighth in school history.

RAISING THE BAR: The Longhorns will head into the Big 12 meet with two of the top pole vaulters in the nation. Junior Kaitlin Petrillose improved a UT record that she originally set at the 2013 Leonard Hilton Invitational. At the New Mexico Collegiate Classic, she vaulted a school record 14-7.25 (4.45m). With the mark, she moved to the top spot on the national leader board and into a tie for eighth on the all-time collegiate indoor performers list. However, last weekend she fell to second and tied for ninth, respectively, on those two lists when Emily Grove of South Dakota cleared 14-9.50 (4.51m) at the USA Indoor Championships in Albuquerque, N.M. Still only 12 other collegiate women have ever cleared a bar as high as Petrillose during an indoor season. At the same meet, sophomore Reese Watson also improved his personal best, clearing a mark of 17-9.75 (5.43m). Watson ranks 11th on the 2014 NCAA performers list and second in the Big 12, trailing only Alex Bishop of Kansas who has cleared 17-10.50 this year. Watson has cleared at least 17-4.50 (5.30m) in three of his four outings this season.

WOMEN'S SPRINTS LEADING THE WAY: The UT women's sprint unit has historically been a strong group and that is no different this season. The Longhorns should be in position to scoring significant points in the 60, 200 and 400 meters at the Big 12 meet based on the regular season. They occupy at least three of the top eight positions in those events on the Big 12 leaderboard, including five in both the 200 and 400. Mololake Akinosin occupies the top position in the 60 meters (7.25) and Ashley Spencer leads the way in the 400 (52.33). The Horns hold the top four spots in the 400m.

BY THE NUMBERS...

2...Wolf Mahler is second among freshmen on the 2014 NCAA performers list in the heptathlon. He posted a total of 5,335 in January at the Razorback Invitational.
4...Senoj-Jay Givans ranks fourth among freshmen on the 2014 NCAA performers list with his personal-best time of 6.64 in the 60 meters.

5...Texas has a nation's best five athletes ranked among the top 30 on the 2014 national performers list for the women's 400 meters. Texas A&M has four and Florida has three.

TEXAS TIDBITS:

• Kaitlin Petrillose is seeking to become the first Big 12 women's pole vaulter to claim three straight titles. Petrillose, who ranks second in the nation this season with a school-record clearance of 14-7.25 (4.45m), became the eighth performer to sweep the Big 12 indoor and outdoor titles last season (also Candy Mason, Kansas - 1998; Andrea Branson, Kansas - 1999; Erin Anderson, K-State - 2000; Jenny Green, Nebraska - 2004; Kate Sultanova, Kansas - 2008; Shade Weygandt, Texas Tech; Natalie Willer, Nebraska - 2011), though none of the been able to win a third. Texas can also become the second school to claim four straight women's pole vault titles. Natasha Masterson won for the 2012 outdoor title for Texas. Kansas won the first four pole vault titles in 1998-99.

• Ryan Crouser is looking to capture his third Big 12 shot put title. Crouser, a sophomore during indoors, claimed the 2012 Big 12 title, but redshirted last year while recovering from offseason injuries. Crouser made up for that during the 2013 outdoor season as he won both the Big 12 and NCAA titles. Crouser has posted the top mark in the nation this year. He recorded a school-record toss of 69-8 (21.23m) at the New Mexico Collegiate Classic (Feb. 8). That mark is also tied for No. 5 on the 2014 world performers list.

• Johannes Hock, the 2013 NCAA decathlon champion, will not be able to defend his Big 12 heptathlon title. Last season, Hock led from start to finish and posted the top mark in four of the seven events while recording a Big12 meet-record 5,858 points. Due to offseason surgery, Hock will only compete in the 60-meter hurdles and long jump this weekend. Texas has claimed six of the 17 Big 12 heptathlon titles, including the last two. Petter Olson won in 2012 with 5,745 points.
