TEXAS HEADS TO NCAA INDOOR MEET: The Texas track and field team, ranked No. 5 nationally on the women's side and 25th on the men's, is heading to the 2014 NCAA Indoor Championships, which will be held in Albuquerque, N.M. The women have eight entries in six events, while there are three men in as many events. Athletes with the top 16 times/marks and the best 12 relay times earned automatic berths in the field. The Longhorns are seeded No. 1 in the nation in three events. Junior Ashley Spencer is first in the 400 meters (51.54 seconds) and Ryan Crouser has the top shot-put mark in the nation with his school-record toss of 69-8 (21.23m) at last month's New Mexico Collegiate Classic. In addition, he foursome of Kendall Baisden, Briana Nelson, Courtney Okolo and Spencer clocked a nation's best time of 3:30.12 in the 4x400-meter relay at last month's Tyson Invitational in Arkansas. Baisden and Okolo will join Spencer in the 400 meters. Okolo is seeded No. 2 (51.56) and Baisden 11th (52.59). Sophomore Kaitlin Petrillose is one of the favorites in the pole vault. She cleared a school-record 14-7 1/4 (4.45m) at the New Mexico Collegiate Classic, which has her seeded second. Only 12 other women have ever cleared a higher bar during an collegiate indoor meet. Sophomore Morolake Akinosun is the lone Longhorn entered in two individual events. She is seeded sixth in the 60 meters (7.25) and 16th in the 200 (23.54). Senior Shanay Briscoe was also accepted in both the high jump and pentathlon. She was scratched from pentathlon to concentrate on her signature event, the high jump. Briscoe had a career-best total of 4,043 in the pentathlon at the 2014 Big 12 meet, but that was tied for 16 nationally.

WOMEN WIN THE BIG 12 TITLE, MEN SECOND: The Texas women, ranked in or near the top five nationally all season, hope to ride the momentum of their Big 12 indoor title. The Longhorn women, No. 5 in the final U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) National Team Computer Rankings, claimed their sixth Big 12 Indoor title and first in eight years. They posted six individual victories, including ones from NCAA qualifiers Morolake Akinosun (60 meters), Shanay Briscoe (high jump), Kaitlin Petrillose (pole vault) and Ashley Spencer (400 meters). The women rolled up 147 points, well ahead of second-place Baylor (102). The UT men were second after being edged by Oklahoma State (112.50-108.50). The men claimed four individual Big 12 titles and all three of their NCAA entries won Big 12 crowns - Zack Bilderback (400 meters), Ryan Crouser (shot put) and Senoj-Jay Givans (60 meters).

LATE CHANGES TO THE TRAVEL PARTY: Texas added one athlete, but also had a deletion from its travel roster for the NCAA Indoor Championships. On Monday, freshman Senoj-Jay Givans was added to the 60-meter field after a medical scratch. Givans is seeded No. 16 after matching a personal best with a time of 6.64 in winning the Big 12 title two weeks ago. He also clocked the same time at the Tyson Invitational (Feb. 14). One day later, senior Sara Sutherland was scratched from the 5,000 meters due to a knee injury. Sutherland was seeded No. 12 after clocking a 15:53.98 at the Iowa State Classic (Feb. 14). She set the school record (15:50.04) in finishing eighth in the 5,000 at the 2013 NCAA Indoor meet.

FIRST SEASON AS COMBINED PROGRAM:

Texas did not have to look far to find the first head coach for its combined men and women's program. After a 10-year stint as an assistant men's coach (associate head coach from 2009-13) with the Longhorns, Mario Sategna became the head coach of the combined men and women's program in June. Sategna, one of the most respected field event coaches in the nation and a national champion decathlete at LSU, helped the Longhorn men finish among the top 10 at either the NCAA indoor or outdoor meets 13 times, including a sixth-place showing at the 2013 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Two of the athletes he tutored in field events — Ryan Crouser (shot put) and Johannes Hock (decathlon) — captured national titles at that meet. This season, Sategna led the Longhorn women to their first Big 12 indoor title in eight years, with Texas claiming a league-best 10 individual titles (six women, four men) at the two-day meet. The men were second in the team standings, missing out on repeating as Big 12 champions by four points. Since joining UT at the start of the 2003-04 season, Sategna has helped coach seven field event athletes (Crouser, Hock, Marquise Goodwin, Trey Hardee, Donovan Kilmartin, Andra Manson and Maston Wallace) to 11 NCAA titles. That group is among 21 of his athletes to earn 65 All-America honors. Sategna was rewarded for leading the UT women to their first Big 12 indoor title since 2006. The native of Bloomfield, N.M., was voted the Big 12 Indoor Women's Coach of the Year, as well as the NCAA South Central Region Women's Indoor Coach of the Year.

CROUSER LOOKING FOR SECOND NCAA

TITLE: Ryan Crouser is looking to capture his second NCAA shot-put title. Crouser, a sophomore during indoors, claimed the 2012 Big 12 title as true freshman, but redshirted last year while recovering from offseason injuries. Crouser made up for that during the 2013 outdoor season as he won both the Big 12 and NCAA titles. Crouser has posted the top shot-put mark in the nation this year. He recorded a school-record toss of 69-8 (21.23m) at the New Mexico Collegiate Classic (Feb. 8). That mark is also tied for No. 6 on the 2014 world performers list. Crouser broke Jacob Thormaehlen's indoor school record of 67-3 1/4 (20.50m) set at the 2012 NCAA Championships. Crouser's record toss, on his sixth attempt, is the best at a collegiate indoor event in nearly four years. Ryan Whiting (formerly of Arizona State) won the 2010 NCAA title with a toss of 70-7 1/4 (21.52m). In addition, Crouser's winning mark is also the best shot put mark at any collegiate meet since Whiting's toss of 72-1 (21.97m) at the 2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Crouser claimed his second Big 12 indoor crown two weeks ago in Ames, Iowa, with a toss of 67-8 1/4 (20.63m), the second-best performance in school history. In fact, all three of Crouser's efforts this season rank among the top six on the 2014 NCAA performance list. He had a toss of 67-0 (20.42) at the Cherry and Silver Collegiate Classic (Jan. 25), a meet held in Albuquerque. Steven Mozia of Cornell, including a career-best 68-2 1/2 (20.79m) at Ivy League Championships, has the other top three performances this year. A five-time All-American, Crouser finished fifth in the shot put at the 2012 NCAA Indoor Championships with a toss of 65-5 1/2 (19.94m). He has posted five of the top seven indoor shot put performances in school history.

4X400-METER RELAY SEEDED NO. 1: At the final event of the Tyson Invitational (Feb. 15), the Texas 4x400-meter relay unit posted the top time in the nation this season and a mark just outside the all-time indoor collegiate top 10. The foursome of Kendall Baisden, Briana Nelson, Courtney Okolo and Ashley Spencer crossed the finish line in 3:30.12, well ahead of second-place Texas Tech (3:34.15) and eclipsing Oregon's national-leading 3:30.52a which it recorded the previous day at the Don Kirby Elite Meet in Albuquerque, N.M. The Horns were just off Texas A&M's time of 3:29.93 posted at the 2007 NCAA Indoor Championships which ranks No. 10 on the all-time performance list. That UT time is also No. 3 in school history. The quartet of Keasha Downer, Raasin McIntosh, Moushaumi Robinson and Sanya Richards clocked an NCAA-record time of 3:27.66 in winning the 2003 national title. One year later, Alyssa Aiken, McIntosh, Sheretta Jones and Richards posted a 3:28.69 in capturing the NCAA title. That time ranks No. 3 on the all-time NCAA performance list. The Longhorns have won 4x400m relay NCAA title seven times, with the last one occurring in 2004. They also won in 1988, 1990, 1995, 1999, 2000 and 2003.

LEADING THE NATION: Junior Ashley Spencer is not only seeded No. 1 nationally in the 400 meters, but also runs the anchor leg of the top-ranked 4x400-meter relay unit. The two-time defending NCAA 400-meter outdoor champion clocked a meet-record time of 51.54 in winning the 400 at the Big 12 Indoor Championships. It was Spencer's third-straight 400m indoor conference title, but first in the Big 12. Spencer secured the 2012 and 2013 crowns in the Big Ten Conference as a member of Illinois. Spencer became the first Texas woman to win the indoor conference 400 since 2004, though a Longhorn won the indoor 400 six of the first eight years of the Big 12 (1997-04). Spencer is in her first season with the Longhorns after transferring from Illinois where she earned five-time All-America honors and was a 12-time Big Ten champion. Spencer finished third in the 400 meters at the 2013 NCAA Indoor Championships with a personal-best time of 51.27. Olympian Sanya Richards-Ross is the last Longhorn to win the NCAA indoor 400m, claiming the title in 2004.

BILDERBACK CONTINUES TO IMPROVE: At the Tyson Invitational (Feb. 14-15), sophomore Zack Bilderback joined Aaron Collins as the only Longhorns to rank among the top five on both the school's all-time 200 and 400-meter performers list. On the opening day of the meet, Bilderback clocked a then personal-best 46.47 in the 400 meters, a time which ranked No. 15 on the 2014 NCAA performers list and No. 6 on the all-time UT performance list. He also moved from No. 5 to No. 3 on the UT all-time performers list. One day later, he posted a career-best 21.18 in the 200. That ranks fifth on the school's all-time indoor 200-meter performers list. Collins ranks second (20.89) on the 200-meter performers chart and No. 5 (46.70) on the 400m list. Bilderback went on to have an outstanding Big 12 Indoor meet. He took home the men's 400-meter title in a school-record 46.03. It marked just the second Big 12 indoor 400m title in school history (former school record holder Ashton Collins won in 2003). Bilderback was also sixth in the 200 meters (21.49) and helped steer the 4x400-meter relay to its first Big 12 conference title in school history. Bilderback comes into the NCAA meet seeded No. 10 in the 400m.

FAST FRESHMEN: The Longhorn sprint crew has received a boost from a pair freshmen. Kendall Baisden has had a strong season for the women and Senoj-Jay Givans has come on strong over the last month for the men's squad. Baisden opened the season at the Arkansas dual meet (Jan. 14) by clocking a personal-best 7.45 in the 60 meters. Baisden had a then personal-best 53.23 in the 400m and ran the opening leg of the national-leading 4x400m relay (3:30.12) at the Tyson Invitational (Feb. 15). Givans also shined at that meet, improving his career best in the 60 meters three times, culminating in a time of 6.64 in the finals of the event. That time ranks tied for sixth on the school's all-time performance list and was tied for 18th on the final 2014 NCAA performers list. Both Baisden and Givans went on to impress in their first conference meet. Baisden was voted the Big 12 Indoor Women's Freshman of the Year after finishing fourth in the 400-meter final in a personal-best 52.59 at the league meet, fifth in the 200 in 23.77 and ran the second leg of the 4x400-meter relay, which was second in 3:36.57. Givans won the third 60-meter men's crown in UT history and first in 11 years. He matched his career best by clocking a 6.64. He was also fourth in the 200 (21.36). He was added to the 60-meter field at the NCAA Indoor meet earlier this week due to a medical scratch and is seeded 16th. Baisden is the 11th seed in the 400 and will also run the opening leg of the 4x400-meter relay.

RAISING THE BAR: Sophomore Kaitlin Petrillose has had a tremendous indoor season. She improved a UT record that she originally set at the 2013 Leonard Hilton Invitational. At the New Mexico Collegiate Classic (Feb. 8), she vaulted a school record 14-7 1/4 (4.45m). With the mark, she moved to the top spot on the national leaderboard and into a tie for eighth on the all-time collegiate indoor performers list. However, she fell to second and tied for ninth, respectively, on those two lists when Emily Grove of South Dakota cleared 14-9 1/2 (4.51m) at the USA Indoor Championships in Albuquerque, N.M. Still only 12 other collegiate women have ever cleared a bar as high as Petrillose during an indoor season. Petrillose went on to defend her Big 12 indoor pole vault title in record-setting fashion. Petrillose won her league record third-straight women's pole vault title by clearing a meet-record 14-5 1/4 (4.40m) in Ames, Iowa. Once the victory was in hand, she went after the collegiate record of 14-11 (4.55m) held by Tina Sutej of Arkansas. Petrillose had the bar set at 14-11 1/2 (4.56m), but missed all three tries, though just barely grazed the bar on the second attempt. She enters the NCAA Indoor meet seeded No. 2. Petrillose finished tied for 10th at the 2013 NCAA Indoor Championships with a clearance of 13-5.25 (4.10m).

BY THE NUMBERS...

4...Senoj-Jay Givans ranks tied for fourth among freshmen on the 2014 NCAA performers list with his personal-best time of 6.64 in the 60 meters.

6...Kaitlin Petrillose has posted the top six indoor pole vault marks in school history, including four this season.

6...The Texas women have won six NCAA Indoor titles with the last one occurring in 2006.

6...Morolake Akinosun is one of six athletes doubling in both the 60 and 200 meters. She is joined by Dezerea Bryant (Kentucky), Shayla Sanders (Florida), Mahagony Jones (Penn State), Olivia Ekpone (Texas A&M) and Regine Williams (Arkansas).

TEXAS TIDBITS:

- Only Sanya Richards-Ross, a four-time Olympic gold medalist, has run a faster indoor 400-meter time as a Longhorn than Ashley Spencer and Courtney Okolo. Spencer (51.54) and Okolo (51.56) finished 1-2 in the finals of the 400m at the 2014 Big 12 Championships. Those times rank second and third, respectively, on the 2014 NCAA performers list, and third and fourth, respectively, on the all-time UT performance list. Richards-Ross posted a school-record time of 50.82, as well as a 51.45, during the 2004 season.

- Kaitlin Petrillose became the first Big 12 women's pole vaulter to claim three straight titles. Petrillose became the eighth performer to sweep the Big 12 indoor and outdoor titles last season (also Candy Mason, Kansas - 1998; Andrea Branson, Kansas - 1999; Erin Anderson, K-State - 2000; Jenny Green, Nebraska - 2004; Kate Sultanova, Kansas - 2008; Shade Weygandt, Texas Tech; Natalie Willer, Nebraska - 2011), though none were able to win a third. Texas became the second school to claim four straight women's pole vault titles. Natasha Masterson won for the 2012 outdoor title for Texas. Kansas captured the first four pole vault titles in 1998-99.
