RU - Fr. RHP Ricardo Salinas

Sunday: UT - Jr. RHP Chad Hollingsworth (4-0, 1.15)
RU - Jr. RHP Austin Orewiler (1-0, 2.35)

A LOOK AT THE MATCHUP

- The No. 6 Texas Longhorns travel to Houston to take on the No. 13 Rice Owls in a four-game set beginning Friday, Feb. 13. to open up the 2015 season.
- Texas leads the all-time series against Rice 223-54-2. The Longhorns won 3 of 4 matchups last season, including a 3-2 victory in 11 innings in the Houston Regional.
- Texas head coach Augie Garrido (1,920) and Rice head coach Wayne Graham (1,039) have a combined 2,959 wins between them in their 69 years coaching Division I college baseball.

A LOOK AT THE LONGHORNS

- The Texas baseball team ranks in the Top 10 of each major college baseball poll (NCBWA, Perfect Game - 6; Collegiate Baseball - 7; Baseball America, D1Baseball.com - 10).
- The Longhorns return seven of eight positional starters from the team that went 46-21 and finished third nationally last season.
- Eight pitchers return from a staff that had a 2.25 ERA, which ranked fourth nationally, including Friday-night starter Parker French who went 7-5 with a 2.41 ERA last year. French was selected in the 19th round of the 2014 MLB Draft, but elected to return to Austin for his senior season.
- Though eight pitchers return, UT will have to replace a significant amount of innings pitched from last year. Graduation, the MLB Draft and injury mean Texas will be without the arms of pitchers who logged more than 350 innings last year.
- Texas' 2014 recruiting class was ranked seventh-best in the nation by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. The Longhorns signed 10 players for the class of 2014, eight of which are from the state of Texas. Despite three of those being selected in the MLB Draft this summer (RHP Tyler Schimpf, C Michael Cantu, INF Travis Jones), all 10 players reported to campus and of the 21 players signed in the last two years, 20 have joined the Longhorns on the 40 Acres.

EXPERIENCE AT THE PLATE – Of the eight positional starters at the College World Series last year, Texas returns seven in 2015 (though first baseman Kacy Clemens makes the switch to pitcher). Juniors C.J Hinojosa (.298 avg. & nine game hit streak) and Ben Johnson (.405 slg pct. & 21 SB) lead the way while sophomores Tres Barrera (5 HR & 35 RBI) and Zane Gurwitz (.284 avg. & 10 2B) look to build off successful freshman campaigns.

BIG 12 CREDENTIALS - Among returners, RHP Chad Hollingsworth and 2B Brooks Marlow earned second-team All-Big 12 honors in 2014; Ben Johnson received honorable mention; and C Tres Barrera, RHP Morgan Cooper and INF/OF Zane Gurwitz were selected to the All-Freshman team. Barrera was also named Newcomer of the week twice (March 31 & May 19).

DOUBLE PLAY DUO – Texas returns second baseman Brooks Marlow and shortstop C.J Hinojosa this season after they helped Texas finish first in the Big 12 and tied for second nationally with 71 double plays in 2014. Marlow and Hinojosa played a large part in turning a pair, as Marlow was involved in 56 of the double plays and Hinojosa 49. Marlow has had a hand in 109 double plays in his career, which is sixth in school history.

FLASHING THE LEATHER – Marlow was named to the 2014 Rawlings Division I Gold Glove Team. Marlow fielded at a .991 clip last season, committing just three errors in 326 chances.

SPEED IN THE OUTFIELD - UT brings back a lot of speed on the basepaths, including the three starting outfielders who combined for 43 steals in 2014 (Ben Johnson - 21, Collin Shaw - 13, Zane Gurwitz - 9). Johnson not only led the squad with his 21 swiped bags, but was also not thrown out all season.

DIFFICULT ROAD AHEAD - Texas finished the 2014 season third in RPI, played the third most difficult schedule in the country and finished fifth in Iterative Strength according to BoydsWorld.com. The 2015 slate appears just as challenging as they will play 24 games against teams that reached the NCAA Tournament last season.

• Of the 24 games Texas will play against tournament teams, 20 come on the road, including a four-game non-conference series at Rice (Feb. 13-15) and Stanford (March 5-8). Additionally, Texas will play 13 games against teams who won Regional championships last year, with a three-game series scheduled vs. conference foes Oklahoma State (April 3-5), TCU (April 24-26) and Texas Tech (May 1-3), to go along with the four-game set vs. the Cardinal.
• The second half of the schedule will see Texas play 16 of its last 27 regular season games vs. NCAA Tournament teams, starting with a three-game non-conference series at Nebraska (March 27-29). Other games vs. 2014 postseason teams are at Oklahoma State (April 3-5), vs. Sam Houston State (April 14) and at Kansas (April 17-19).
• Texas closes Big 12 play in difficult fashion, facing a pair of 2014 CWS participants in the Horned Frogs before hosting the Red raiders. The Longhorns close the regular season with a conference series at Baylor (May 16-17), with the Big 12 Tournament set for May 20-24 in Tulsa, Okla.

SENIOR ANCHOR – For the second year in a row the Longhorns' pitching staff will be anchored by an experienced senior. Right-hander Parker French (7-5, 2.41 ERA) will look to fill the role RHP Nathan Thornhill (9-3, 1.51 ERA) played in 2014 in leading a young Texas pitching staff.
The outfield will also have senior leadership once again with the presence of Collin Shaw (.355 OBP & 12 SB). Shaw had an impressive NCAA Tournament in 2014, hitting .324, and he fielded at a .991 clip on the year with four outfield assists and several tremendous diving catches.
Senior gold glove-winning second baseman Brooks Marlow also returns in 2015 to provide leadership to the infield. In addition to his excellent defense, Marlow also finished second on the team in runs scored in 2014, and he was third on the team in OBP (.383) and home runs (3) while hitting primarily in the leadoff spot for the Horns.

2014 ACCOLADES - Three Longhorns received postseason recognition for their achievements last season.
• Morgan Cooper (4-2, 2.98) and Tres Barrera (.261, 5 HR) were named second team Pefect Game Freshmen All-Americans at pitcher and catcher respectively. Barrera also went on to win the College Home Run Derby at TD Ameritrade Park by blasting 41 home runs in the contest. Cooper however, will miss the 2015 season because of Tommy John Surgery on his throwing elbow.
• Barrera was also named a second team freshman All-American by Baseball America for his work both behind the plate and at it.
• Sophomore shortstop C.J Hinojosa was named the CWS All-Tournament Team shortstop. He collected five hits including a home run and a double, two walks, three runs scored and two RBI in Omaha.

MAJOR ARMS LOST – The Texas pitching staff will take a significant hit in 2015 after losing over half of its innings (356 2/3 of 601) from last year. RHPs John Curtiss, Nathan Thornhill and Lukas Schiraldi were taken in the 6th, 13th and 15th rounds of the MLB Draft respectively, while lefty Dillon Peters was taken in the 10th round. Sophomore right-hander Morgan Cooper, meanwhile, will miss the 2015 season after undergoing Tommy John Surgery on his right elbow. The righty from Jarrell, Texas put up an impressive freshman campaign, going 4-2 with a 2.89 ERA in 56 innings while striking out 41 en route to being named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team and a second-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game.

PITCHING FACTORY - Pitching coach Skip Johnson enters his ninth season at Texas having built quite an impressive resume for developing pitchers. During his tenure on the 40 Acres 24 Longhorn pitchers have been drafted, including three first-rounders, and his pitching staffs have ranked in the top-10 nationally in ERA six times. In 2014, the staff posted a 2.25 ERA, fourth-best in the country, and the lowest mark at Texas since 1977.

FRESHMAN IMPACT – Texas again brought in a highly-touted recruiting class and several will look to make an immediate impact.
• Kyle Johnston (Flower Mound, TX) went 11-2 with a 0.30 ERA and 129 strikeouts as a senior and was named Dallas Morning News Player of the Year, Texas Sports Writer's Association Player of the Year, first team All-State and first team all-district during his senior campaign.
• Tyler Schimpf (Sacramento, CA) posted a 1.12 ERA with 100 strikeouts in 56 1/3 innings as a senior and was ranked as the 16th best right-handed pitcher in California by Perfect Game
• Connor Mayes (Austin, TX) posted an 11-0 record with a 0.69 ERA and 90 strikeouts as a senior and was named Central Texas Pitcher of the Year
• At the plate, freshmen C Michael Cantu (Corpus Christi, TX) and INF Travis Jones (Humble, TX) will look to contribute to a lineup that returns seven of nine starters from last year's squad.
• Cantu was ranked the number one catcher in the state of Texas by Perfect Game as a senior while hitting .352 for his high school career with 14 home runs and 109 RBI.
• Jones, a career .384 hitter in high school, was named second team all-state by the Texas Sports Writers Association and was named all-area offensive player of the year as a senior.

NEW BASEBALL FOR 2015 - NCAA Baseball will begin using a flat-seamed ball for the 2015 season. The new balls will travel approximately 20 feet further when hit deep into the outfield than the raised-seamed balls used in the past.
• From the NCAA: "Flat-seamed baseballs launched out of a pitching machine at averages of 95 mph, a 25-degree angle and a 1,400 rpm spin rate traveled around 387 feet compared to raised-seamed baseballs that went 367 feet. Due to variables, not every trajectory hit with a flat-seamed ball will travel exactly 20 feet farther than a raised-seamed ball, but a 20-foot average difference is an approximate representation of what can be expected."

A LOOK AT THE STAFF - Head coach Augie Garrido is in his 19th season at Texas and 47th overall with a career record of 1,920-892-9. He is assisted by Skip Johnson (ninth season at Texas), Tommy Nicholson (fifth season at Texas) and Ryan Russ (fourth season at Texas). Johnson has led UT to top-10 national finishes in ERA in six of his eight seasons on the Forty Acres. Nicholson, a volunteer assistant in 2009 and 2010, returned to the staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2013 season. He coaches the infielders and hitters and has landed two-straight top-10 recruiting classes. Russ, in his fourth season as volunteer assistant, coaches the outfielders and helps coach the hitters.

Head Coach Augie Garrido

Eight trips to the College World Series (CWS). National Championships in both 2002 and 2005. Second-place finishes in 2004 and 2009. Seven Big 12 Conference Championships (2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010, and 2011) and four league tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2008 and 2009). These are the results and why head coach Augie Garrido was hired to guide the Texas baseball program in 1996.

During his first 18 years on the Forty Acres, Garrido became the all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division I baseball history by capturing his 1,428th career win on June 9, 2003, (a 6-5 Texas victory over then No. 1 Florida State during NCAA Super Regional action in Tallahassee, Fla.), then moved past Gordon Gillespie as the winningest coach in all divisions with win number 1,894 on March 25, 2014.

He brought Texas back to the CWS for the first time since 1993 during the 2000 campaign, and returned the Horns to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball in 2002 by leading UT to a 57-15 record that produced the school's first-ever Big 12 regular-season and tournament championships, as well as its first national title since 1983. He duplicated the feat in 2005, guiding the Longhorns to their sixth National Championship, the second-most for one school in NCAA history. Texas' rise under Garrido has been the culmination of inking 17 straight top 15 recruiting classes and producing teams that have stood tall against perennial powers such as LSU, Miami (Fla.), Stanford and USC. Now, as he enters his 19th year in Austin, Garrido, who was selected as both the 2002 and 2005 National Coach of the Year, looks to keep the program in contention for college baseball's ultimate prize each and every season.

Garrido is the only coach in baseball history to tally 1,900 or more career victories. He is also the first coach to lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Cal State Fullerton & Texas), guide squads to National Championships in four different decades, and is one of only three coaches in history to win five or more NCAA titles (1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005). Garrido is one of only three coaches in the modern era of NCAA football, baseball and men's or women's basketball to ever lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Nick Saban, Rick Pitino). Additionally, Garrido has earned 15 trips to the CWS and 32 NCAA Regional Championship appearances, including 14 at Texas, while garnering National Coach of the Year honors six times (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005), regional coach of the year accolades on seven occasions (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2005) and conference coach of the year distinctions eight times (1987, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011) after leading his clubs to 25 league crowns.

His overall record after 46 years of college coaching, including a 769-368-2 (.675) mark with UT over the last 18 seasons, currently stands at 1,920-892-9 (.681), which translates into an average of over 41 victories per season.

The Vallejo, Calif., native is just the 13th coach in UT's 120-year baseball history, and, with the exception of the war years of 1943-45 when Blair Cherry was at the helm, is only the fourth Texas head coach since 1911.

As a result of his unique coaching style, Garrido has been ranked as one of the top three baseball teachers in the nation by Major League Baseball Directors of Player Development. To deserve that distinction, Garrido has coached three Golden Spikes Award winners, four National Players of the Year, six College World Series MVPs, 53 All-Americans, 14 All-League MVPs over his career. He has also had 15 of his players selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft, including Longhorns Beau Hale (No. 14) in 2000, Omar Quintanilla (No. 33) in 2003, both J.P. Howell (No. 31) and 2005 American League Rookie of the Year Huston Street (No. 40) in 2004, the duo of Drew Stubbs (No. 8) and Kyle McCulloch (No. 29) in 2006, Chance Ruffin (No. 48) in 2010, Taylor Jungmann (No. 12) in 2011 and Corey Knebel (No. 39) in 2013. In addition, during his 18 years at UT, Garrido has tutored the skills of 27 players who have earned All-America honors a total of 34 times, 25 Freshman All-Americans, including a school-record four in 2006, 153 All-Conference performers, 11 USA Baseball National Team members and 97 players who have gone on to play in professional baseball.

Garrido's name is also held in high regard when people speak of his accomplishments in the College World Series. He is currently tied for second with five National Championships (trailing only Rod Dedeaux's 10 at USC) and 15 appearances (trailing Cliff Gustafson with 17), and ranks third in victories (41) and series games (63) among all-time coaches. He is also one of only eight men in history to coach two or more different teams in the CWS and is only the third Longhorns head coach (Bibb Falk & Cliff Gustafson) in the 120 completed years of Texas baseball to lead the Horns to Omaha.
