AUSTIN, Texas -- Texas Women's Basketball held Oklahoma State to a season-low 42 points in a 59-42 victory on Wednesday night at the Frank Erwin Center.

Texas (19-8, 8-8 Big 12) held Oklahoma State (18-9, 8-8) to 28.6 percent shooting from the field, blocked nine shots, and out-gained OSU in the paint, 32-16.

Junior center Imani McGee-Stafford led the Longhorns' defensive wall with 11 rebounds and five blocks.

The contest marks the lowest point total from a Big 12 opponent of UT's since defeating Missouri, 60-41, on March 3, 2010. The Longhorns have now held eight opponents under 50 points this season.

On the offensive side, three Longhorns registered double-figure points. Junior guard Empress Davenport came off the bench to tie her career high of 15 points in 28 minutes. Freshman guard Ariel Atkins finished with 12 points and three rebounds in 28 minutes, while sophomore center Kelsey Lang registered 11 points with nine rebounds in 26 minutes.

Off the tip, Atkins and Lang combined for five quick points to give the Horns an early advantage, but OSU answered on its own 5-0 run to tie. The teams went back-and-forth in the first half, which featured three ties and six lead changes. Texas took a one-point lead into the locker room at halftime on a last-second layup from Davenport.

The Longhorns held the Cowgirls to just 23 first-half points on 27.8 percent shooting.

Texas pulled away on a go-ahead 3-pointer from Atkins at 15:14 mark of the second half. UT clamped down on defense in the second stanza, holding OSU to 19 second-half points.

Brittney Martin led Oklahoma State with 23 points and a career-high 16 rebounds.

2015 RECRUITING CLASS

NO. 5 IN THE NATION

• UT's incoming 2015-16 class of newcomers is being heralded as a consensus top-10 class, including a No. 5 ranking by ESPN.com. On Nov. 12, the Longhorns signed four-star forward Christina Aborowa (Ondo, Nigeria), five-star guard Lashann Higgs (Round Rock, Texas), and five-star forward Jordan Hosey (Pearland, Texas) to National Letters of Intent.

• All three are top-100 recruits, including two consensus top-10 signees -- Higgs and Hosey.

Karen Aston: "I am so excited to add these three quality young ladies to our Longhorn family. They are not only extremely talented players, but also great students and great people that we are pleased add to our tremendous culture we are continuing to build here at Texas. They are perfect fits for our system, and important pieces to the puzzle of our future success. We are so thrilled that these three chose Texas. Their impact on our program will be felt as soon as they step foot on campus."

WITH KAREN ASTON

Karen Aston returned to the institution where she originally carved her reputation as an energetic leader and relentless recruiter in 2012, becoming just the fourth Texas Women's Basketball head coach in program history.

Since arriving at The University of Texas, Aston has made steps to lay the foundation for the Longhorns' return to national prominence, which she experienced as an eight-year assistant to Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame coach Jody Conradt. Aston was instrumental in the Longhorns' trip to the 2003 NCAA Final Four and a pair of Sweet 16 appearances in 2002 and 2004.

Entering the 2014-15 season, Aston has five postseason appearances as a head coach, a 135-93 (.592) overall record through seven seasons, and a 34-30 (.531) record through two seasons as UT's leader.

Aston bolstered the Longhorns' roster of 10 returning letterwinners for the 2014-15 season with a recruiting class ranked No. 11 by ESPN.com. Included in Aston's marquee recruiting class are McDonald's All-Americans Ariel Atkins and Brooke McCarty, Colorado Gatorade Player of the Year Diani Akigbogun and all-state guard Tasia Foman.

Aston and the Longhorns began a steady incline during the 2013-14 season with five wins over ranked opponents, a third-place finish in the Big 12 standings, a 10-win improvement from the previous season, and winning a game in the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2008. UT's tie for third-place in the Big 12 was the highest league finish since 2005.

As with any Karen Aston-coached team, defense and rebounding were essential factors of success in 2013-14. Texas led the Big 12 in field goal percentage defense (.347) and rebounding margin (+11.1), while enjoying improved success long-range shooting. After finishing last in the league in 3-point field goal percentage in 2012-13 (.278), UT paced the Big 12 with a .365 mark in 2013-14.

Three Longhorns earned All-Big 12 honors in 2013-14, led by first team Nneka Enemkpali (First Team), Imani McGee-Stafford (Second Team) and Chassidy Fussell (Honorable Mention). Fussell finished her collegiate career ninth on UT's all-time scoring list with 1,717 points.

In addition to on-court success, Aston's team reached high academic marks with a 3.32 cumulative team GPA for the 2013-14 academic year, completing ten consecutive semesters with a GPA of 3.0 or better. Each of her student-athletes currently holds a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better, and six were named to the Big 12 All-Academic Team in 2014, leading the conference with five first-team nominees.

In Aston's debut as the Longhorns head coach on Nov. 9, 2012, she guided UT to a season-opening win over No. 14 St. John's, 70-60. Her first recruiting class at UT featured three starters and the 2013 Big 12 Freshman of the Year, Imani McGee-Stafford.

She returned to the Forty Acres in 2012 after five years of experience reviving the women's basketball programs at Charlotte and the University of North Texas.

Aston tripled the Mean Green's victory total in one season, as UNT went 15-16 during the 2011-12 season under her direction after winning just five games the previous year. At Charlotte, Aston led the program to record-breaking heights, with 86 victories in four seasons, including a school-record 27 wins in 2010-11.

Aston led the 49ers to four-straight postseason appearances and the 2009 Atlantic 10 Tournament Championship en route to the school's second ever NCAA Tournament appearance. In her final season at Charlotte, Aston's squad advanced to the WNIT Final Four.

While on Conradt's Texas staff from 1998-2006, Aston saw the Longhorns post a 173-83 (.676) record during that span, with seven NCAA Tournament appearances, two trips to the "Sweet 16" and a march to the 2003 Final Four. The Longhorns also captured the 2003 Big 12 regular season and tournament titles, and UT shared the 2004 Big 12 regular season title. Aston was promoted from assistant coach to associate head coach in July of 2000 after serving as UT's assistant coach for two seasons.

Aston spearheaded UT's signing of 25 nationally-recognized recruits, including seven McDonald's High School All-Americans and seven WBCA/Nike All-Americans. Two of those high school All-Americans - Tiffany Jackson and Erika Arriaran - were named National High School Players of the Year. All eight of the recruiting classes Aston attracted were nationally ranked, including the No. 1 class in the nation in 2005-06.

Aston originally came to Austin from the University of North Texas, where she served as an assistant coach for two seasons (1996-98). Prior to joining the North Texas staff, Aston was an assistant coach at Baylor for two seasons (1994-96).

Following Aston's stint on the Forty Acres, she was named associate head coach at Baylor during the 2006-07 season. With Aston on board, the Lady Bears won 26 games and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Before entering the collegiate coaching ranks, Aston was recognized as one of the top high school women's coaches in the south. She coached five years at Vilonia High School (1988-93) in Vilonia, Ark., and one year at Fort Smith Northside (1993-94) in Fort Smith, Ark. She guided Fort Smith Northside to a 24-10 record and a fifth-place finish in Class 4A. For her efforts, she was named the Arkansas Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

While at Vilonia, Aston was not only the head basketball coach but also the head cross country and track coach. In 1992-93, she was named the Arkansas Basketball Coach of the Year after leading Vilonia to a 36-1 record and a Class 2A State Championship. Aston's cross country teams also claimed back-to-back state titles in 1991 and 1992.

A native of Benton, Ark., Aston was a two-time first-team all-state selection at Bryant High School. She capped her high school career by leading Bryant to the 1982 Arkansas Class 4A State Championship. Aston earned a Bachelors of Arts degree in physical education from Arkansas-Little Rock in 1987. She played two seasons of basketball at UALR after transferring from Ouachita Baptist.
