PROBABLE PITCHING MATCHUP

UT - Fr. RHP Tyler Schimpf (0-0, 3.86)
UIW - So. RHP Cody Richey (0-3, 4.70)

A LOOK AT THE MATCHUP

- ▶ This marks the first meeting all-time between Texas and Incarnate Word. UIW is in just its second season of NCAA Division I baseball.

A LOOK AT THE LONGHORNS

- ▶ The Texas baseball team ranks in the Top 25 of each major college baseball poll (NCBWA - 16; USA Today Coaches Poll - 16; Collegiate Baseball - 17; D1Baseball.com - 18; Perfect Game - 19; Baseball America - 22).
- ▶ Texas scored in the first inning for the seventh time this season on Sunday against Stanford. The Longhorns are 5-2 when scoring at least one run in the first inning. The five runs were the most in the first inning of a game since Texas had six at Oklahoma on 4/11/14.
- ▶ The Horns have smacked 50 extra base hits (35 doubles, six triples, nine home runs) this season. UT blasted five of their nine home runs this past weekend against Stanford, including two from Ben Johnson last Thursday (March 5), the first multi-home run game of his career.
- ▶ In 2014, the Horns had just 22 extra base hits (13 doubles, seven triples, two home runs) through 16 games compared to the 50 this year (see page seven for full comparison).
- ▶ Collin Shaw had six doubles in the series vs. Minnesota (Feb. 20-22), and has a conference-high 11 two-baggers on the year, after having six extra base hits (five doubles, one triple) all of last season.
- ▶ Parker French picked up the 19th win of his career by going seven innings and allowing just one run in Saturday's 3-1 victory over Stanford, lowering his ERA to 1.61 which ranks seventh in the Big 12. French is the Big 12 active career leader in wins and innings pitched (271.0).
- ▶ Ben Johnson had multi-hit games against Stanford in game one of the series (3-for-4) and game four (5-for-5). He has a team-high nine multi-hit games this year and is hitting .443, which leads the Big 12. His 31 hits and 48 total bases also lead the conference.
- ▶ Against Stanford, the offense scored 21 of its 22 runs when the leadoff man reached base safely. For the year, UT has scored 71 of its 92 runs (77%) when the leadoff man gets aboard.

- ▶ Texas has four players hitting over .300 on the year: Ben Johnson (.443), Tres Barrera (.339), Collin Shaw (.308) and Michael Cantu (.304).
- ▶ The four also all have on-base plus slugging percentages (OPS) higher than .800 for the season: Ben Johnson (1.167), Tres Barrera (1.093), Collin Shaw (.883) and Michael Cantu (.828). Last season, the Longhorns finished with one player over .800 (Mark Payton, .828). As a team, UT currently holds an .800 OPS (finished 2014 at .709).
- ▶ Tres Barrera has reached base safely in all 16 games thus far. Barrera has .486 on-base percentage on the season and holds a 17-game reached base streak dating back to 2014.
- ▶ The Longhorn bullpen saw its streak of not allowing an earned run end at 37 2/3 innings with the four earned runs allowed in the top of the ninth of game two of doubleheader vs. San Diego (March 1). However, the relievers still hold a 1.71 ERA (eight earned runs in 63 1/3 innings) on the year.
- ▶ The pitching staff tossed its third consecutive shutout Feb. 29 vs. Minnesota, which was the first time Texas has done that since March 22-24, 2002, against UTPA. Prior to that, Texas hadn't recorded three straight since 1983 vs. Dallas Baptist.
- ▶ The pitching staff did not allow an earned run throughout the entire Minnesota series (Feb. 20-22), and it held Minnesota to an .067 batting average (3 for 45) with runners on base. With runners in scoring position, it held the Gophers hitless (0 for 18), and with two outs Minnesota hit .118 (4-for-34) with zero RBIs.
- ▶ The 31 runs scored by the Longhorns in the Minnesota series was the highest total in a four-game set since they had 34 against Dallas Baptist in 1989.
- ▶ Longhorn base runners swiped six bases Feb. 22 against Minnesota, the most since they had six steals against California on March 30, 2012.
- ▶ Texas is outscoring its opponents 42-9 from the seventh inning on this season.
- ▶ UT is 7-0 this season when leading after six innings.
- ▶ The Texas offense holds a .292 batting average with two outs on the season, and 40 of the team's 85 RBIs (471) have come with two down in the inning.

WEEKLY HONORS
Player	Award (Date)
Michael Cantu	Co-Big 12 Newcomer of the Week (Feb. 23)

BULLPEN STRENGTH - The bullpen has tossed 63 1/3 innings this season and given up just 12 earned runs (1.71 ERA). Senior Kirby Bellow (2.03 ERA), who earned his first career save in game three of the Stanford series, leads the relievers with 13 1/3 innings pitched and eight appearances on the year. Ty Culbreth (2.00 ERA) is tied for fourth in the Big 12 in wins and tied for third in saves (two of each), Jon Malmin has a 0.96 ERA in 9 1/3 IP and Travis Duke boasts a career ERA of 1.10 in 73 1/3 innings of work. Connor Mayes (5 2/3 IP in relief), Jake McKenzie (5 IP), and Andy McGuire (2 IP) are all yet to allow a run this year.

STELLAR START - Ben Johnson set a new career high when he had five hits (5-for-5) in the series finale against Stanford (March 8). Johnson is the second Longhorn to post a five-hit game this season (Tres Barrera 5-for-6 vs. UTSA on Feb. 17), and just the ninth UT batter to accomplish the feat since 2003. Through the first 16 games, the junior left fielder is 31-for-70 (.443) with two doubles, three triples, three home runs, 15 RBIs, 14 runs scored and two stolen bases. With two outs, Johnson is hitting .556 (10-for-18) with eight RBI, including a three-run HR. Johnson leads the Big 12 (t-4th in NCAA) in hits (31), batting average (.443) and total bases (48).

IMMEDIATE IMPACT - Not only have 11 Longhorns made their collegiate debuts, but several contributed in big ways in the Texas victories:

- Joe Baker earned his first career on Feb. 21 against Minnesota (gm. 1) as the designated hitter, going 1-for-2 with a walk, a hit and a run scored in the game.
 - Has reached base in 7 of 13 plate appearances thus far this season.
- Bret Boswell had a two-out single to extend the top of the 10th inning against Rice (Feb. 15) and set the table for the game-winning hit.
 - Had a 3-for-5 day with a double two RBIs and a run scored against UTPA (Feb. 25) that included a walk-off RBI single.
 - For the season, Boswell is second on the team in doubles (5) and fourth in runs with nine.
- Michael Cantu had five RBIs Feb. 20 vs. Minnesota, marking the first time a freshman has done that since Cohl Walla and Jonathan Walsh both achieved it during the 2010 season.
 - Named Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the week for the week of Feb. 16-22). Had a team-high .545 OBP for the week, and tied for the team lead with seven RBIs.
 - Is hitting .304 through the first 16 games, and is second on the team with 13 runs scored and 13 walks on the year.
- Kyle Johnston earned his first career save in his first inning pitched on (Feb. 15) by retiring two batters and preserving a 4-3 Texas lead.
 - In 6 2/3 frames this year, Johnston sports a 2.70 ERA.
- Connor Mayes tossed a scoreless eighth inning at Rice on Feb. 13 in a 3-1 Texas win in his college debut.
 - Pitched three scoreless innings vs. UTSA (Feb. 17) to earn his first collegiate win in his first-career start.
 - Holds a 1.59 ERA in 11 1/3 innings this year with eight strikeouts and has not allowed a run in relief (5 2/3 IP).
- Michael McCann smashed a game-winning RBI double in the top of the 10th inning on Feb. 15 to give Texas a 4-3 lead.
 - Had two hits and a run scored against UTSA (Feb. 17).
- Jake McKenzie drew a walk and scored a run in his first career start in the Longhorns' 4-3 win over Rice on Feb. 15.
 - Has pitch five innings scoreless innings on the season, allowing just two hits and one walk while striking out four.

These quick freshman contributions should not come as a surprise, as Texas' 2014 recruiting class was ranked seventh-best in the nation by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. The Longhorns signed 10 players for the class of 2014, eight of which are from the state of Texas. Despite three of those being selected in the MLB Draft this summer (RHP Tyler Schimpf, C Michael Cantu, INF Travis Jones), all 10 players reported to campus and of the 21 players signed in the last two years, 20 have joined the Longhorns on the 40 Acres.

NEW BASEBALL FOR 2015 - NCAA Baseball will begin using a flat-seamed ball for the 2015 season. The new balls will travel approximately 20 feet further when hit deep into the outfield than the raised-seamed balls used in the past.

• From the NCAA: "Flat-seamed baseballs launched out of a pitching machine at averages of 95 mph, a 25-degree angle and a 1,400 rpm spin rate traveled around 387 feet compared to raised-seamed baseballs that went 367 feet. Due to variables, not every trajectory hit with a flat-seamed ball will travel exactly 20 feet farther than a raised-seamed ball, but a 20-foot average difference is an approximate representation of what can be expected."

BIG 12 LEADERS - Several Longhorns are at or near the top of the Big 12 in a number of categories, including Ben Johnson leading the conference in hits, batting average and total bases on the season.

HIT PARADE - Against UTSA, the Texas offense accumulated 20 base hits, a feat that has only been accomplished by the Horns five other times since 2003. It was the first time the Longhorns had 20 hits in a game in the BBCOR bat era, and marked the only time since 2003 that it had been done at UFCU Disch-Falk Field in a nine-inning game (the 20 hits against Boston College spanned 25 innings). Texas followed that performance with a 17 hit, 13 run outing on Feb. 20 against Minnesota. Their 27 runs in the those two games are the most in back-to-back games since they had 35 vs. UT Arlington and Oklahoma State on April 20th and 23rd of 2010.

THROUGH 16 GAMES - After the first 16 games, the 2015 team compares well to the 2014 squad that finished tied for 3rd in the nation, especially at the plate. The 2015 team batting average (.274) is .032 higher than last year (.242) at this point, and the team ERA (2.78) is just 0.72 points higher than the 2014 squad's excellent 2.06 mark through 16 games.

• The 2015 offense has smashed 28 more extra base hits (50 compared to 22) than the 2014 one at this point, including a nine home run to three advantage, and the current team OPS of .800 is .159 greater than 16 games into last season (.641).

• In contrast, the 2015 Texas pitchers have allowed just five more extra base hits (24 compared to 19) than the 2014 staff at this point.

• A more in-depth statistic comparison of the first 16 games can be found on page seven.

DIFFICULT ROAD AHEAD - Texas finished the 2014 season third in RPI, played the third most difficult schedule in the country and finished fifth in Iterative Strength according to BoydsWorld.com. The 2015 slate is just as challenging as they will play 24 games against teams that reached the NCAA Tournament in 2014, including the four-game sets at Rice (Feb. 13-15) and Stanford (March 5-8) that have already been played.

• 20 of these contests come on the road, including the non-conference series at Rice (Feb. 13-15) and Stanford (March 5-8).

• Additionally, Texas will play 13 games against teams who won Regional championships last year, with a three-game series scheduled vs. conference foes Oklahoma State (April 3-5), TCU (April 24-26) and Texas Tech (May 1-3), to go along with the four-game set vs. the Cardinal.

• The second half of the schedule will see Texas play 16 of its last 27 regular season games vs. NCAA Tournament teams, starting with a three-game non-conference series at Nebraska (March 27-29). Other games vs. 2014 postseason teams are at Oklahoma State (April 3-5), vs. Sam Houston State (April 14) and at Kansas (April 17-19).

• Texas closes Big 12 play in difficult fashion, facing a pair of 2014 CWS participants in the Horned Frogs before hosting the Red Raiders. UT closes the regular season with a conference series at Baylor (May 16-17), with the Big 12 Tournament set for May 20-24 in Tulsa, Okla.

FLASHING THE LEATHER - Senior second baseman Brooks Marlow was named to the 2014 Rawlings Division I Gold Glove Team. Marlow fielded at a .991 clip last season, committing just three errors in 326 chances.

DOUBLE PLAY DUO - Texas returns second baseman Brooks Marlow and shortstop C.J. Hinojosa this season after they helped Texas finish first in the Big 12 and tied for second nationally with 71 double plays in 2014. Marlow and Hinojosa played a large part in turning a pair, as Marlow was involved in 56 of the double plays and Hinojosa 49. Marlow has had a hand in 118 double plays in his career, which is fourth in school history. In its first 16 games in 2015, Texas has turned 17 double plays (third in Big 12), with Hinojosa contributing on 14 and Marlow on nine.

SPEED IN THE OUTFIELD - UT brings back a lot of speed on the base paths, including the three starting outfielders who combined for 43 steals in 2014 (Ben Johnson - 21, Collin Shaw - 13, Zane Gurwitz - 9). Johnson not only led the squad with his 21 swiped bags, but was also not thrown out all season. Through 16 games in 2015, Johnson has stolen two bags, and Shaw and Gurwitz each have one steal.

EXPERIENCE AT THE PLATE - Of the eight positional starters at the College World Series last year, Texas returns seven in 2015 (though first baseman Kacy Clemens makes the switch to pitcher). Juniors C.J. Hinojosa (.298 avg. & nine game hit streak) and Ben Johnson (.405 slg pct. & 21 SB) lead the way while sophomores Tres Barrera (5 HR & 35 RBI) and Zane Gurwitz (.284 avg. & 10 2B) look to build off successful freshman campaigns. The six returners who are seeing regular playing time have helped Texas to a .274 team batting average and an average of 5.75 runs a game through the first 16 games. The team also currently has an OPS of .800 after posting a .709 OPS in 2014.

SENIOR ANCHOR - For the second year in a row the Longhorns' pitching staff will be anchored by an experienced senior. Parker French (7-5, 2.41 ERA in 2014) is filling the role Nathan Thornhill (9-3, 1.51 ERA) played in 2014 in leading a young Texas pitching staff.

- In his first four starts of 2015, French is 2-1 with a 1.61 ERA (7th in Big 12). In 22 1/3 innings, he has allowed just 18 hits, while holding opponents to a .228 batting average.

- French is the active career Big 12 leader in innings pitched with 271.

• The outfield will also have senior leadership once again with the presence of Collin Shaw (.355 OBP & 12 SB). Shaw had an impressive NCAA Tournament in 2014, hitting .324, and he fielded .991 on the year with four outfield assists and several tremendous diving catches.

- Through 16 games, Shaw leads the Big 12 with 11 doubles. He is hitting .308 with an .883 OPS, and is tied for fifth in the conference with 15 RBIs. Shaw also made Sports Center Top-10 grab (No. 2 play) Feb. 17 against UTSA.

• Senior gold glove-winning second baseman Brooks Marlow also returns in 2015 to provide leadership to the infield. In addition to his excellent defense, Marlow also finished second on the team in runs scored in 2014, and he was third on the team in OBP (.383) and home runs (3) while hitting primarily in the leadoff spot for the Horns.

- Marlow has one of the team's four home runs on the season and his four RBI performance against Minnesota (Feb. 22) was the first of his career.

WEEKLY AWARDS - Freshman catcher Michael Cantu was the first Longhorn award winner for 2015 after earning Big 12 Newcomer of the Week Honors (Feb. 16-22). The freshman catcher tied for the team lead with seven RBIs on the week while adding six runs and a pair of doubles, and he drew a team-high six walks to have a team-best .545 on-base percentage.

MAJOR ARMS LOST - The Texas pitching staff will take a significant hit in 2015 after losing over half of its innings (356 2/3 of 601) from last year. RHPs John Curtiss, Nathan Thornhill and Lukas Schiraldi were taken in the 6th, 13th and 15th rounds of the MLB Draft respectively, while lefty Dillon Peters was taken in the 10th round. Sophomore right-hander Morgan Cooper, meanwhile, will miss the 2015 season after undergoing Tommy John Surgery on his right elbow. The righty from Jarrell, Texas put up an impressive freshman campaign, going 4-2 with a 2.89 ERA in 56 innings while striking out 41 en route to being named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team and a second-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game.

A LOOK AT THE STAFF - Head coach Augie Garrido is in his 19th season at Texas and 47th overall with a career record of 1,930-898-9. He is assisted by Skip Johnson (ninth season at Texas), Tommy Nicholson (fifth season at Texas) and Ryan Russ (fourth season at Texas). Johnson has led UT to top-10 national finishes in ERA in six of his eight seasons on the Forty Acres. Nicholson, a volunteer assistant in 2009 and 2010, returned to the staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2013 season. He coaches the infielders and hitters and has landed two-straight top-10 recruiting classes. Russ, in his fourth season as volunteer assistant, coaches the outfielders and helps coach the hitters.

PITCHING FACTORY - Pitching coach Skip Johnson enters his ninth season at Texas having built quite an impressive resume for developing pitchers. During his tenure on the 40 Acres 24 Longhorn pitchers have been drafted, including three first-rounders, and his pitching staffs have ranked in the top-10 nationally in ERA six times. In 2014, the staff posted a 2.25 ERA, fourth-best in the country, and the lowest mark at Texas since 1977.

2014 ACCOLADES - Three Longhorns received postseason recognition for their achievements last season.

- Morgan Cooper (4-2, 2.98) and Tres Barrera (.261, 5 HR) were named second team Perfect Game Freshmen All-Americans at pitcher and catcher respectively. Barrera also went on to win the College Home Run Derby at TD Ameritrade Park by blasting 41 home runs in the contest. Cooper however, will miss the 2015 season because of Tommy John Surgery on his throwing elbow.

- Barrera was also named a second team freshman All-American by Baseball America for his work both behind the plate and at it.

- Sophomore shortstop C.J. Hinojosa was named the CWS All-Tournament Team shortstop. He collected five hits including a home run and a double, two walks, three runs scored and two RBI in Omaha.

2014 BIG 12 CREDENTIALS - Among returners, RHP Chad Hollingsworth and 2B Brooks Marlow earned second-team All-Big 12 honors in 2014; Ben Johnson received honorable mention; and C Tres Barrera, RHP Morgan Cooper and INF/OF Zane Gurwitz were selected to the All-Freshman team. Barrera was also named Newcomer of the week twice (March 31 and May 19).

ACADEMIC SUCCESS - The Texas Baseball team's semester GPA in Fall 2014 was 3.15, and they hold a 3.23 cumulative team GPA. The squad has earned a GPA of 3.0 or better for nine consecutive semesters with a 3.1 or better for seven consecutive semesters.

- Over seventy-six percent of Baseball students hold a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better, and over sixty-six percent of students on the team earned a 3.0 or better in Fall 2014 and were named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

- Eleven students, the most in program history, were named to the 2014 Academic All-Big 12 Team, including John Curtiss, an English/History major, who graduated with Plan I and Academic All-American Honors, and earned the NCAA Elite 89 Award for holding the highest cumulative GPA of any student-athlete of the eight teams at the 2014 College World Series.

- Curtiss also earned the Big 12 Conference's highest academic honors with the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarship and the Dr. Gerald Lage Academic Achievement Award.

- The Baseball program has received APR Public Recognition Awards five times for having multiyear Academic Progress Rates in the top ten percent in their sport (2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13), and they earned the College World Series Award for the team with the highest GPA in both 2007 and 2009.

- Current Baseball students are pursuing majors from nearly every college on campus, including Business, Communication, Education, Engineering, and Liberal Arts, and since 2006, over 30 Texas Baseball student-athletes have returned to campus to earn their degrees.

2014 NOTES:

- Texas' recorded its 35th appearance in the College World Series in 2014, and its eighth trip since 2000, which also leads the nation ended in a tie for third place. The Longhorns' 85 wins in the CWS is also a record, and they have compiled an 85-59 (.586) record overall. Texas' six national titles are tied for second all-time with LSU, trailing only USC (12).
- Texas finishes the year (46-21), and in the top four in the World Series for a record 26th time. The Longhorns have finished in the top four six out of eight trips to the CWS in the Garrido era.
- Head coach Augie Garrido finishes his 15th appearance in the CWS with a 41-22 record. He is the winningest coach in college baseball history (1,920 career victories).
- The 103 bunts during the 2014 season for the Longhorns were the fifth most in a season in the Augie Garrido era. The four seasons with more sacrifices also ended in Omaha, including the 2005 National Championship year (116 sacrifices).
- The Texas pitching finished the year with a 2.25 ERA, the lowest team ERA since 1977 (2.12).
- Travis Duke was nearly untouchable all of 2014 for the Longhorns allowing just one earned run, good for a 0.29 ERA in 30 2/3 innings.
- In the post season the pitching staff had a 1.25 ERA and a .214 opponent batting average.
- The team's CWS ERA was 1.38, which includes their back to back shutouts (6/18 & 6/20). Texas had 13 shutouts on the year, tied for fifth-best in the country.
- The Longhorns finished the year first in the Big 12 and second in the nation in double plays turned with 71. Texas also finishes the year 34th in the country in fielding percentage (.974).
- C.J. Hinojosa's ended the season on a nine game hit streak and an 11 game on-base streak. He was the only Longhorn to record a hit in all five CWS games.
- Hinojosa was named to the CWS All-Tournament Team for his outstanding performance. He had five hits including a home run and a double, two walks, three runs scored and two RBI.
- The Texas offense has 20 extra base hits in NCAA Tournament Play (14 doubles, three triples and three home runs) compared to six (five doubles and a triple) four their opponents.
- The Longhorns hit three triples in their final two games of the year (Gurwitz, Marlow, Barrera) to give them 18 on the season.

BACK HOME IN OMAHA - Texas made its record 35th appearance in the College World Series in 2014, and its eighth trip since 2000, which also leads the nation. The Longhorns' 85 wins in the CWS is also a record, and they have compiled an 85-59 (.590) record overall. Texas' six national titles are tied for second all-time with LSU, trailing only USC (12).

Head Coach Augie Garrido

Eight trips to the College World Series (CWS). National Championships in both 2002 and 2005. Second-place finishes in 2004 and 2009. Seven Big 12 Conference Championships (2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010, and 2011) and four league tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2008 and 2009). These are the results and why head coach Augie Garrido was hired to guide the Texas baseball program in 1996.

During his first 18 years on the Forty Acres, Garrido became the all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division I baseball history by capturing his 1,428th career win on June 9, 2003, (a 6-5 Texas victory over then No. 1 Florida State during NCAA Super Regional action in Tallahassee, Fla.), then moved past Gordon Gillespie as the winningest coach in all divisions with win number 1,894 on March 25, 2014.

He brought Texas back to the CWS for the first time since 1993 during the 2000 campaign, and returned the Horns to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball in 2002 by leading UT to a 57-15 record that produced the school's first-ever Big 12 regular-season and tournament championships, as well as its first national title since 1983. He duplicated the feat in 2005, guiding the Longhorns to their sixth National Championship, the second-most for one school in NCAA history. Texas' rise under Garrido has been the culmination of inking 17 straight top 15 recruiting classes and producing teams that have stood tall against perennial powers such as LSU, Miami (Fla.), Stanford and USC. Now, as he enters his 19th year in Austin, Garrido, who was selected as both the 2002 and 2005 National Coach of the Year, looks to keep the program in contention for college baseball's ultimate prize each and every season.

Garrido is the only coach in baseball history to tally 1,900 or more career victories. He is also the first coach to lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Cal State Fullerton & Texas), guide squads to National Championships in four different decades, and is one of only three coaches in history to win five or more NCAA titles (1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005). Garrido is one of only three coaches in the modern era of NCAA football, baseball and men's or women's basketball to ever lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Nick Saban, Rick Pitino). Additionally, Garrido has earned 15 trips to the CWS and 32 NCAA Regional Championship appearances, including 14 at Texas, while garnering National Coach of the Year honors six times (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005), regional coach of the year accolades on seven occasions (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2005) and conference coach of the year distinctions eight times (1987, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011) after leading his clubs to 25 league crowns.

His overall record after 46 years of college coaching, including a 769-368-2 (.675) mark with UT over the last 18 seasons, stood at 1,920-892-9 (.681), which translates into an average of over 41 victories per season.

The Vallejo, Calif., native is just the 13th coach in UT's 120-year baseball history, and, with the exception of the war years of 1943-45 when Blair Cherry was at the helm, is only the fourth Texas head coach since 1911.

As a result of his unique coaching style, Garrido has been ranked as one of the top three baseball teachers in the nation by Major League Baseball Directors of Player Development. To deserve that distinction, Garrido has coached three Golden Spikes Award winners, four National Players of the Year, six College World Series MVPs, 53 All-Americans, 14 All-League MVPs over his career. He has also had 15 of his players selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft, including Longhorns Beau Hale (No. 14) in 2000, Omar Quintanilla (No. 33) in 2003, both J.P. Howell (No. 31) and 2005 American League Rookie of the Year Huston Street (No. 40) in 2004, the duo of Drew Stubbs (No. 8) and Kyle McCulloch (No. 29) in 2006, Chance Ruffin (No. 48) in 2010, Taylor Jungmann (No. 12) in 2011 and Corey Knebel (No. 39) in 2013. In addition, during his 18 years at UT, Garrido has tutored the skills of 27 players who have earned All-America honors a total of 34 times, 25 Freshman All-Americans, including a school-record four in 2006, 153 All-Conference performers, 11 USA Baseball National Team members and 97 players who have gone on to play in professional baseball.

Garrido's name is also held in high regard when people speak of his accomplishments in the College World Series. He is currently tied for second with five National Championships (trailing only Rod Dedeaux's 10 at USC) and 15 appearances (trailing Cliff Gustafson with 17), and ranks third in victories (41) and series games (63) among all-time coaches. He is also one of only eight men in history to coach two or more different teams in the CWS and is only the third Longhorns head coach (Bibb Falk & Cliff Gustafson) in the 120 completed years of Texas baseball to lead the Horns to Omaha.
