Texas (24-24, 9-12) at Baylor (20-28, 8-13) May 16-17, 2015 Baylor Ballpark (Waco, Texas)

A LOOK AT THE MATCHUP

- ▶ Texas leads the all-time series with Baylor 237-105-4, including a 92-58-3 mark in Waco.
- ▶ In 2014, the Longhorns swept the Bears in a three-game set in Austin that featured a two-out, three-run double from Mark Payton in the bottom of the ninth of game one of the series that gave the Horns a 5-4 walk-off victory.
- ▶ The 346 all-time matchups between the two squads rank Baylor as the second most common opponent in UT history, trailing only Texas A&M (371).

A LOOK AT THE LONGHORNS

- ▶ Texas comes into the series with a 9-12 Big 12 record which puts it in fifth place in the league. Entering Friday's games, the Longhorns are a half-game ahead of West Virginia (8-12) and a game ahead of K-State and Baylor (both 8-13) and can finish no higher than fifth and no lower than eighth in the standings.
- ▶ Pitching matchups for the weekend have not been determined. The Longhorns and Bears are the only Big 12 schools starting their series on Saturday, and Sunday's doubleheader comes just three days prior to the start of the Big 12 Championship in Tulsa.
- ▶ Sunday marks the fifth doubleheader of the year for the Horns who hold a 2-6 record in the previous four. It also marks the first time Texas has played a Sunday doubleheader in league play since 2002 (UT swept K-State).
- ▶ Senior right-hander Parker French earned the 20th win of his career against Texas Tech on May 1 in his last career home start by tossing 7 2/3 scoreless innings with seven strikeouts. The start also moved him into fifth all-time in school history in pitching starts with 51. French is eighth in the Big 12 in ERA (2.34) and 10th in innings pitched (73.0).
- ▶ C/1B Tres Barrera is on an 11-game reached base streak. The sophomore has reached base in 45 of 48 games this season, including the first 17 games of the year.
- ▶ Junior left fielder Ben Johnson leads the Big 12 in triples (7), is second in multi-hit games (24), third in total bases (113) and fourth in hits (73) and slugging percentage (.551). Johnson will miss Saturday's game after being ejected from Sunday's finale vs. Tech (5/3).
- ▶ Nine of UT's 24 losses have come by one run (most in Big 12), five by two runs and six in extra innings. In the last 22 games, the Horns have dropped four in extras and five by one run.

- ▶ The 16 run game at Kansas on April 19 marked the most runs scored by UT since 2011, most extra base hits in the BBCOR bat era (since '11), the most homers in a game since 2010 and the 23 hits were the most since UT matched the school record of 25 in 1998.
- ▶ Junior shortstop C.J. Hinojosa shined in the game, as he became the first Longhorn to hit for the cycle since Kyle Russell on 4/24/07, while driving in four and scoring three times.
- ▶ Ben Johnson also homered twice that day, the second time this season he's done that this year (also March 5 at Stanford). He's the first Longhorn with two multi-home run games in a season since Kevin Keyes did it three times in 2010.
- ▶ Junior left-hander Travis Duke ranks tied for 10th in the NCAA with a career ERA of 1.72 over 94 innings of work.
- ▶ Connor Mayes' 10 strikeouts March 14 vs. WVU were the most by a UT pitcher since May 19, 2011 when Taylor Jungmann struck out 12 Aggies. Mayes holds a 2.79 ERA with 42 strikeouts over 51 2/3 innings on the year.

BULLPEN BOOST - The bullpen has tossed 217 2/3 innings this season and holds a 2.36 ERA. The relievers saw a streak of 22 2/3 scoreless frames come to an end against Texas A&M Corpus Christi (3/31) when Jake McKenzie (2-0, 0.53 ERA in 17 IP) gave up his first and only run of the season via a long ball in the sixth inning. Connor Mayes also saw his scoreless streak out of the pen come to an end against the Islanders when he surrendered three runs in the 10th inning, but he still holds a 1.98 ERA out of the pen this season in 41 innings with 32 strikeouts to lead all UT relievers. Travis Duke boasts a career ERA of 1.72 in 92 2/3 innings of work, which ranks tied for 10th nationally active career leaders, and junior left-handers Kirby Bellow (1.16 ERA, 31 IP) and Ty Culbreth (1.90 ERA, 23 2/3 IP out of the pen) have four saves each. Culbreth is tied for the team lead with three victories.

BEN AT HIS BEST - Ben Johnson set a new career high when he had five hits (5-for-5) in the series finale against Stanford (March 8). Johnson is the second Longhorn to post a five-hit game this season (Tres Barrera 5-for-6 vs. UTSA on Feb. 17), and just the ninth UT batter to accomplish the feat since 2003 (chart on page seven). He is also the first UT hitter to have two multi-homer games in the same year since Kevin Keyes did it three times in 2010.

- Through the first 48 games, the junior left fielder is 73-for-205 (.356) with 11 doubles, seven triples, five home runs, 30 RBIs, 35 runs scored and 16 stolen bases. Johnson leads the Big 12 in triples (7), is second in multi-hit games (24), third in total bases (113) and is fourth in hits (73) and slugging percentage (.551).

- In Big 12 play, he has a team-leading .356 batting average with 13 extra base hits (eight doubles, three triples, two home runs), seven steals and an OPS of 1.020 in 21 games. Johnson is tied for the conference lead with 32 hits and eight doubles and his 52 total bases lead the league during conference play.

- After recording a career-high four steals against Prairie View A&M (4/28), the junior has now recorded career highs in hits (5), home runs (2), RBIs (3), total bases (11) and steals (4) in games this season. The four steals were just one shy of the school record.

SOLID AT HOME - Texas played its best ball this season at UFCU Disch-Falk Field, posting a 17-9 record. The pitching staff was especially salty at home, holding a 2.34 ERA over 26 games, and the offense held an impressive .777 OPS (.404 slg% + .373 ob%), thanks to 74 extra base hits (2.85 a game). The Longhorns blasted 12 home runs this season at home in 26 games, after hitting just five in 2014 over a 33-game span.

WEEKLY AWARDS - Freshman catcher Michael Cantu was the first Longhorn award winner for 2015 after earning Big 12 Newcomer of the Week Honors (Feb. 16-22). The freshman catcher tied for the team lead with seven RBIs on the week while adding six runs and a pair of doubles, and he drew a team-high six walks to have a team-best .545 on-base percentage. - Cantu again earned Newcomer of the week honors the week of April 13-19, by going 7-for-14 in the weekend series against Kansas, with a slash line of .500/.714/.563 while doubling and scoring three times each. The freshman backstop also caught two games and played first base in the other as part of a defense that did not commit an error all weekend long.

- Freshman pitcher Connor Mayes earned Newcomer of the Week Honors March 9-15. The right-hander from Lake Travis tossed 6 2/3 scoreless innings with a career-high 10 strikeouts, while allowing just three hits and issuing one walk in a relief outing vs. West Virginia on March 14. It was the first double-digit strikeout game for a UT pitcher since Taylor Jungmann struck out 12 Aggies on May 19, 2011 in nine innings of work.

MAJOR ARMS LOST - The Texas pitching staff is taking a significant hit in 2015 after losing over half of its innings (356 2/3 of 601) from last year. RHPs John Curtiss, Nathan Thornhill and Lukas Schiraldi were taken in the 6th, 13th and 15th rounds of the MLB Draft respectively, while lefty Dillon Peters was taken in the 10th round. Sophomore right-hander Morgan Cooper, meanwhile, will miss the 2015 season after undergoing Tommy John Surgery on his right elbow. The righty from Jarrell, Texas put up an impressive freshman campaign, going 4-2 with a 2.89 ERA in 56 innings while striking out 41 en route to being named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team and a second-team Freshman All-American by Perfect Game.

ROTATING ROTATION - The Longhorns' pitching rotation has been in flux throughout Big 12 play, as they have used the same combination from one weekend to the next just one time through seven weekends. Beyond Parker French locked in as the game one starter, Texas has used six different pitchers to fulfil the other two games each week. In contrast, last season three pitchers (French, Dillon Peters, Nathan Thornhill) accounted for 23 of the 24 conference starts on the mound.

EXPERIENCE AT THE PLATE - Of the eight positional starters at the College World Series last year, Texas returned seven in 2015. Juniors C.J. Hinojosa (.298 avg. and a nine game hit streak in 2014) and Ben Johnson (.405 slg pct. & 21 SB in 2014) lead the way while sophomores Tres Barrera (5 HR & 35 RBI in 2014) and Zane Gurwitz (.284 avg. & 10 2B in 2014) are building off successful freshman campaigns. These returns have helped the Longhorns to a season OPS of .734, after posting a .709 mark in 2014.

PITCHING FACTORY - Pitching coach Skip Johnson enters his ninth season at Texas having built quite an impressive resume for developing pitchers. During his tenure on the 40 Acres 24 Longhorn pitchers have been drafted, including three first-rounders, and his pitching staffs have ranked in the top-10 nationally in ERA six times. In 2014, the staff posted a 2.25 ERA, fourth-best in the country, and the lowest mark at Texas since 1977.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE - The Longhorns have one of the more difficult schedules in the Big 12 Conference and their slate currently sits as the 21st most challenging in the country (according to Boyd'sWorld.com). This is no surprise, as Texas began the season ranked fourth in Intended Strength of Schedule. Texas has already faced Rice (#22 RPI) in a four game non-conference set and #44 RPI Nebraska (March 27-29) in a three game, as well as conference foes #13 Oklahoma State (April 3-5) and #7 TCU (April 25 & 26) for three games apiece.

TEXAS DEBUTS - Twelve players have made their collegiate debuts for Texas this season: Fr. INF Joe Baker, r-Fr. INF Bret Boswell, Fr. C/1B Michael Cantu, Fr. RHP Kyle Johnston, Fr. 1B Travis Jones, r-Fr. OF Ben Kennedy, r-Fr. INF Connor Macalla, Fr. C Michael McCann, Fr. RHP/INF Jake McKenzie, Fr. OF Patrick Mathis, Fr. RHP Connor Mayes, Fr. RHP Tyler Schimpf ... Sophomores Kacy Clemens and Andy McGuire also made their first appearances on the mound and sophomore Josh Sawyer made his first career start. Several of these players have had significant contributions this season:

• Joe Baker

- Has a .746 OPS for the season and has made several excellent defensive plays at shortstop throughout the year.

• Bret Boswell

- For the season, Boswell is tied for third on the team in doubles (8), and is third in walks (27).

• Michael Cantu

- Named Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the week for the week of Feb. 16-22 and April 13-19.

- Is third on the team with a .270 batting average, leads the squad with 30 base on balls and is fourth in runs scored (24).

• Kyle Johnston

- In 27 frames this year, Johnston sports a 2.33 ERA with 26 strikeouts.

• Connor Macalla

- Lifted a sacrifice fly to center to give Texas a 10 inning win over West Virginia on March 13.

• Connor Mayes

- Named Big 12 Newcomer of the week for the week of March 9-15.

- Holds a 2.79 ERA in 51 2/3 innings with 42 strikeouts on the season.

• Michael McCann

- Smashed a game-winning RBI double in the top of the 10th inning Feb. 15 against Rice.

• Jake McKenzie

- Has pitch 17 innings on the season, allowing just one run on eight hits and five walks while striking out 11 (0.53 ERA).

- These quick freshman contributions should not come as a surprise, as Texas' 2014 recruiting class was ranked seventh-best in the nation by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. The Longhorns signed 10 players for the class of 2014, eight of which are from the state of Texas. Despite three of those being selected in the MLB Draft this summer (RHP Tyler Schimpf, C Michael Cantu, INF Travis Jones), all 10 players reported to campus and of the 21 players signed in the last two years, 20 have joined the Longhorns on the 40 Acres.

A LOOK AT THE STAFF - Head coach Augie Garrido is in his 19th season at Texas and 47th overall with a career record of 1,944-916-9. He is assisted by Skip Johnson (ninth season at Texas), Tommy Nicholson (fifth season at Texas) and Ryan Russ (fourth season at Texas). Johnson has led UT to top-10 national finishes in ERA in six of his eight seasons on the Forty Acres. Nicholson, a volunteer assistant in 2009 and 2010, returned to the staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2013 season. He coaches the infielders and hitters and has landed two-straight top-10 recruiting classes. Russ, in his fourth season as volunteer assistant, coaches the outfielders and helps coach the hitters.

SENIOR ANCHOR - For the second year in a row the Longhorns' pitching staff is anchored by an experienced senior. Parker French (7-5, 2.41 ERA in 2014) is filling the role Nathan Thornhill (9-3, 1.51 ERA) played in 2014 in leading a young Texas pitching staff.

- In his 12 starts of 2015, French is 3-3 with a 2.34 ERA (8th Big 12) in 73 innings (10th Big 12) - French ranks second among active career Big 12 leaders in innings pitched (321.2) and is third in wins (20).

• The outfield also has senior leadership once again with the presence of Collin Shaw (.355 OBP & 12 SB in 2014). Shaw had an impressive NCAA Tournament in 2014, hitting .324, and he fielded .991 on the season with four outfield assists and several tremendous diving catches throughout the year.

- In the first 48 games this season, Shaw is second in the Big 12 with 17 doubles. Shaw also made Sports Center Top-10 grab (No. 2 play) Feb. 17 against UTSA and hit the first four home runs of his collegiate career (3/14 vs. West Virginia, 3/22 vs. Kansas State, 3/29 at Nebraska, 4/28 vs. Prairie View A&M).

• Senior gold glove-winning second baseman Brooks Marlow also returns in 2015 to provide leadership to the infield. In addition to his excellent defense, Marlow also finished second on the team in runs scored in 2014, and he was third on the team in OBP (.383) and home runs (3) while hitting primarily in the leadoff spot for the Horns.

- Marlow has five home runs on the season (t-2nd on the team), is third on the team with 47 hits and his four RBI performance against Minnesota (Feb. 22) was the first of his career.

- The senior also boasts a career .981 fielding percentage thanks to committing just seven errors over the past two seasons combined.

2014 BIG 12 CREDENTIALS - Among returners, RHP Chad Hollingsworth and 2B Brooks Marlow earned second-team All-Big 12 honors in 2014; Ben Johnson received honorable mention; and C Tres Barrera, RHP Morgan Cooper and INF/OF Zane Gurwitz were selected to the All-Freshman team. Barrera was also named Newcomer of the week twice (3/31 & 5/19).

2014 ACCOLADES - Three Longhorn players received postseason recognition for their achievements last season:

• Morgan Cooper (4-2, 2.98) and Tres Barrera (.261, 5 HR) were named second team Perfect Game Freshmen All-Americans at pitcher and catcher respectively. Barrera also won the College Home Run Derby at TD Ameritrade Park by blasting 41 home runs. Cooper however, will miss the 2015 season because of Tommy John Surgery on his throwing elbow.

• Barrera was also named a second team freshman All-American by Baseball America for his work both behind the plate and at it.

• Sophomore shortstop C.J. Hinojosa was named the CWS All-Tournament Team shortstop. He collected five hits including a home run and a double, two walks, three runs scored and two RBI in Omaha.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS - The Texas Baseball team's semester GPA in Fall 2014 was 3.15, and they hold a 3.23 cumulative team GPA. The squad has earned a GPA of 3.0 or better for nine consecutive semesters with a 3.1 or better for seven consecutive semesters.

• The Longhorns tied for the lead league with 12 selections on the Academic All-Big 12 baseball team which was released on May 14. Texas' nine first team selections were a league high and Parker French was named to the first team for the third straight year.

• Over seventy-six percent of Baseball students hold a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better, and over sixty-six percent of students on the team earned a 3.0 or better in Fall 2014 and were named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

• Eleven students were named to the 2014 Academic All-Big 12 Team, including John Curtiss, an English/History major, who graduated with Plan I and Academic All-American Honors, and earned the NCAA Elite 89 Award for holding the highest cumulative GPA of any student-athlete of the eight teams at the 2014 College World Series.

• Curtiss also earned the Big 12 Conference's highest academic honors with the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarship and the Dr. Gerald Lage Academic Achievement Award.

• The Baseball program has received APR Public Recognition Awards five times for having multiyear Academic Progress Rates in the top ten percent in their sport (2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13), and they earned the College World Series Award for the team with the highest GPA in both 2007 and 2009.

• Current Baseball students are pursuing majors from nearly every college on campus, including Business, Communication, Education, Engineering, and Liberal Arts, and since 2006, over 30 Texas Baseball student-athletes have returned to campus to earn their degrees.

Tres Barrera put himself in elite Longhorn company with his 5-for-6, six RBI performance against UTSA on Feb. 17, as it was the first time since 2003 that a UT player had five hits and six RBIs in the same game since 2003. Ben Johnson had a five hit day against Stanford on March 8, making it the first time two UT players have had five hit games in the same season.

20 HIT GAMES SINCE 2003

| Date           | Opponent           | Hits |
|----------------|--------------------|------|
| April 19, 2015 | at Kansas          | 23   |
| Feb. 17, 2015  | vs. UTSA           | 20   |
| May 30, 2009   | vs. Boston College | 20   |
| March 20, 2008 | at Texas Tech      | 22   |
| June 5, 2005   | vs. Arkansas       | 21   |
| April 9, 2004  | at Kansas State    | 21   |
| March 23, 2003 | at Oklahoma State  | 20   |

Against UTSA (Feb. 17), and at Kansas (April 19) the Texas offense accumulated 20+ base hits, a feat that had only been accomplished by the Horns five other times since 2003. It is the first two times the Longhorns had 20 hits in a game in the BBCOR bat era, and the game against UTSA marked the only time since 2003 that it had been done at UFCU Disch-Falk Field in a nine-inning game (the 20 hits against Boston College spanned 25 innings).

Texas followed that performance against UTSA with a 17 hit, 13 run outing on Feb. 20 against Minnesota. Their 27 runs in the those two games are the most in back-to-back games since they had 35 vs. UT Arlington and Oklahoma State on April 20th and 23rd of 2010.

Head Coach Augie Garrido

Eight trips to the College World Series (CWS). National Championships in both 2002 and 2005. Second-place finishes in 2004 and 2009. Seven Big 12 Conference Championships (2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010, and 2011) and four league tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2008 and 2009). These are the results and why head coach Augie Garrido was hired to guide the Texas baseball program in 1996.

During his first 18 years on the Forty Acres, Garrido became the all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division I baseball history by capturing his 1,428th career win on June 9, 2003, (a 6-5 Texas victory over then No. 1 Florida State during NCAA Super Regional action in Tallahassee, Fla.), then moved past Gordon Gillespie as the winningest coach in all divisions with win number 1,894 on March 25, 2014.

He brought Texas back to the CWS for the first time since 1993 during the 2000 campaign, and returned the Horns to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball in 2002 by leading UT to a 57-15 record that produced the school's first-ever Big 12 regular-season and tournament championships, as well as its first national title since 1983. He duplicated the feat in 2005, guiding the Longhorns to their sixth National Championship, the second-most for one school in NCAA history. Texas' rise under Garrido has been the culmination of inking 17 straight top 15 recruiting classes and producing teams that have stood tall against perennial powers such as LSU, Miami (Fla.), Stanford and USC. Now, as he enters his 19th year in Austin, Garrido, who was selected as both the 2002 and 2005 National Coach of the Year, looks to keep the program in contention for college baseball's ultimate prize each and every season.

Garrido is the only coach in baseball history to tally 1,900 or more career victories. He is also the first coach to lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Cal State Fullerton & Texas), guide squads to National Championships in four different decades, and is one of only three coaches in history to win five or more NCAA titles (1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005). Garrido is one of only three coaches in the modern era of NCAA football, baseball and men's or women's basketball to ever lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Nick Saban, Rick Pitino). Additionally, Garrido has earned 15 trips to the CWS and 32 NCAA Regional Championship appearances, including 14 at Texas, while garnering National Coach of the Year honors six times (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005), regional coach of the year accolades on seven occasions (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2005) and conference coach of the year distinctions eight times (1987, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011) after leading his clubs to 25 league crowns.

His overall record after 46 years of college coaching, including a 769-368-2 (.675) mark with UT over the last 18 seasons, stood at 1,920-892-9 (.681), which translates into an average of over 41 victories per season.

The Vallejo, Calif., native is just the 13th coach in UT's 120-year baseball history, and, with the exception of the war years of 1943-45 when Blair Cherry was at the helm, is only the fourth Texas head coach since 1911.

As a result of his unique coaching style, Garrido has been ranked as one of the top three baseball teachers in the nation by Major League Baseball Directors of Player Development. To deserve that distinction, Garrido has coached three Golden Spikes Award winners, four National Players of the Year, six College World Series MVPs, 53 All-Americans, 14 All-League MVPs over his career. He has also had 15 of his players selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft, including Longhorns Beau Hale (No. 14) in 2000, Omar Quintanilla (No. 33) in 2003, both J.P. Howell (No. 31) and 2005 American League Rookie of the Year Huston Street (No. 40) in 2004, the duo of Drew Stubbs (No. 8) and Kyle McCulloch (No. 29) in 2006, Chance Ruffin (No. 48) in 2010, Taylor Jungmann (No. 12) in 2011 and Corey Knebel (No. 39) in 2013. In addition, during his 18 years at UT, Garrido has tutored the skills of 27 players who have earned All-America honors a total of 34 times, 25 Freshman All-Americans, including a school-record four in 2006, 153 All-Conference performers, 11 USA Baseball National Team members and 97 players who have gone on to play in professional baseball.

Garrido's name is also held in high regard when people speak of his accomplishments in the College World Series. He is currently tied for second with five National Championships (trailing only Rod Dedeaux's 10 at USC) and 15 appearances (trailing Cliff Gustafson with 17), and ranks third in victories (41) and series games (63) among all-time coaches. He is also one of only eight men in history to coach two or more different teams in the CWS and is only the third Longhorns head coach (Bibb Falk & Cliff Gustafson) in the 120 completed years of Texas baseball to lead the Horns to Omaha.
