Texas Track and Field is eyeing a national championship this season, and the quest for the title begins this week in Austin as the Longhorns prepare to host the NCAA West Preliminary Rounds.

The nation's top talent from the west region will be in action at Mike A. Myers Stadium from Thursday through Saturday as track and field's finest fight for spots at the NCAA Championships in Eugene, Oregon this June.

Texas boasts one of the top programs in the nation with the women entering the meet ranked No. 7 and the men stand at No. 10. The west region houses some of the best teams in the country. Eight of the women's top 12 teams will be at this meet and half of the men's top 10 teams.

Action begins each day at noon with field events. Running events start at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, 5 p.m. on Friday and 6 p.m. Saturday.

The top 48 athletes in the region qualify for the NCAA West Preliminary Rounds with 12 spots up for grabs at the NCAA championship site. A total of 24 teams qualify for this meet in the two relay events with 12 spots in Eugene available as well. The Longhorns have a total of 29 entries for the men this week and 24 for the women. Both rank in the top five for number of entries.

Texas is coming off a dominant performance at the Big 12 Conference Championships that saw the Longhorns sweep the men's and women's titles. After also sweeping the titles indoors it marked just the fourth time in Big 12 history a school has won all four conference titles. The Longhorns represent three of those occasions with the last coming in 2006.

Fans can keep up with the action online with a live webcast provided at texasports.com. Live results will be provided by branchsportstech.com as well. Updates, results, notes and more will be available on Twitter by following @UTexasTrack and @NCAA. Fans are encouraged to keep up and interact with the meet by following and using the hashtag #NCAATF.

Tickets are available with single-day or all-session passes available. Adult tickets are $35 for all-session and $15 for single-day. Youth age 17 and under and senior citizen tickets are $25 for all-session and $10 for single-day. College students may purchase discounted tickets with a valid university ID for $25 for all-session and $10 single-day. All seats are general admission.

NCAA Championships Qualifying Procedure

The top 48 athletes in each individual event and the top 24 relay teams in the West and East regions compete at separate meets. A total of 12 individuals and relays will advance through the NCAA East and West Preliminary Rounds to the NCAA Championships site in Eugene, Oregon. That meet will be held at Hayward Field, June 10-13.

Running Events:

The sprints and mid-distance events will have a First Round to narrow the field to 24 athletes. A Quarterfinals round will determine the 12 advancing through to Eugene. Long-distance events will only hold Quarterfinals or Semifinals and relays will run Quarterfinals only at the regional meets.

Vertical Jumps:

High Jump and Pole Vault will have two pits competing simultaneously. When the field is narrowed from 48 to 12 athletes, competition will halt.

Horizontal Jumps/Throws:

Long Jump, Triple Jump, Shot Put, Discus, Javelin and Hammer Throw have a new format this year. Athletes will get only 3 attempts. The top 12 athletes will advance. There will be no Finals with 15 athletes getting 3 more attempts as in the past at the NCAA West Preliminary Rounds.

• The Big 12 Conference is well represented in the top 25 with six women's teams and five men's teams ranked this week. Four of the women's teams are ranked No. 12 or better.

Longhorns Sweep Big 12 Championships

- Texas won both the men's and women's titles at the Big 12 Championships in Ames, Iowa.
- The Longhorns also swept the indoor conference championships, marking the first time Texas has accomplished that feat since 2006.
- The double sweep is the fourth time in Big 12 history a school has won all four titles. Texas has now done it three times (1999, 2006, 2015). Nebraska did so in 2000.

Akinosun Claims Four Crowns

- Morolake Akinosun dominated the Big 12 Conference Championships winning four events.

Events to Watch

NCAA WEST PRELIMINARY ROUNDS

Men's 100m

Fast times are expected in this event. A total of 9 men have run sub-10 seconds in this event in the NCAA this year and 7 of them are from this region. Senoj-Jay Givans of Texas is just outside that group at 10.02 seconds.

Women's 100m

Like the men, the fastest women in the nation come from schools in this region. With 4 of the top 6 times coming from the West this year, these heats should also bring great speed to the track. Morolake Akinosun is currently No. 2 in the nation and will see Oregon's Jenna Prandini and Jasmine Todd in this event.

Women's 400m

Courtney Okolo and Ashley Spencer of Texas represent the last three NCAA champions in this event. Okolo won last year and Spencer won as a freshman and sophomore while at Illinois. Kendall Baisden of Texas is ranked third in the nation in this event to give Texas a triple threat.

Men's 10,000m

Runners from the west region represent more than 35 of the to 50 times in the nation this year. Previous NCAA champions and All-Americans are ranked as low as 17th in the region this year to make this one of the deepest fields in either the NCAA West or East Preliminary Rounds this week. Texas will bring 4 runners to the track for this event.

Women's 1500m

The last 2 NCAA Champions are expected to go head-to-head in this event as Arizona State's Shelby Houlihan and Oklahoma State's Natalja Piliusina take to the track.

Men's 110m Hurdles

6 of the top 8 times in the country this year have come out of the West region. Arkansas' Omar McLeod leads the way at 13.21 seconds and broke the indoor collegiate record in the 60m hurdles this year. Spencer Dunkerley-Offor from Texas ranks 6th in the NCAA and is looking to advance to his first outdoor NCAA Championship after finishing 16th in this meet a year ago.

The Bowerman Award is given to the most outstanding male and female collegiate student-athlete in track & field annually by The United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association.

Past winners from the previous four years since its inception have won two Olympic Medals, two IAAF World Championships and six World Championship medals.

The award is named after Bill Bowerman, former legendary coach of the Oregon Ducks and co-founder of NIKE, who make significant contributions to the sport of track & field.

- Crouser came from behind in Round 5 of the discus to claim the lead and eventually won with a new season-best throw of 58.92m (193-4).

Longhorns Sweep Big 12 Pole Vault Titles

- Texas proved to be the top pole vault program in the Big 12 Conference winning the men's and women's titles
- Kaitlin Petrillo defended her title and broke her Big 12 meet record by clearing 4.43m (14-6.25) to win her sixth overall Big 12 title combining indoors and out.
- Reese Watson won his first conference title with his clearance of 5.35m (17-6.50). His win was the fifth men's pole vault title outdoors to give Texas more in that event than any other school.
- Texas also proved to be deep in the pole vault as the women scored 15.5 points and the men tallied 16 with multiple scorers on each side.

Raines Runs to Victory

- Sophomore transfer Sandie Raines made a huge impact for the women's team winning the 5,000 meters at the Big 12 Conference Championships. She led from start to finish and pulled away on the last lap.
- Her win put Texas up by 8 points over Kansas State heading into the final event of the meet, virtually ensuring the team title.
- Raines also finished second in the 1,500 hanging with NCAA champion Natalja Piliusina from Oklahoma State for nearly the entire race. With her win in the 5k and runner-up she tallied 18 points for the women's team.

Texas Takes Top Two Spots in Hurdles

- Freshman Ariel Jones and junior Melissa Gonzalez finished 1-2 in the 400m hurdles to score 18 points for the Longhorns at the Big 12 Conference Championships.
- The win for Jones marks the 11th for the Texas women in the event.
- Both ran personal bests in the race and rank 7th and 8th in the West region, respectively.

Givans Breaks School Record

- Sprinter Senoj-Jay Givans broke his own school record in the 100 meters during prelims at the Big 12 Conference Championships.
- Givans ran 10.07 seconds to advance to the final. He finished second in the final in 10.02, but the time was wind-aided and does not count toward record keeping.

Standard Bearers

- Texas currently holds seven collegiate records combined among the men and women. The nearest competitor is Arizona and Colorado with five.

2015 The Bowerman Watch List

The most prestigious award in collegiate track and field, The Bowerman, is awarded by the USTFCCA annually to the top male and female track and field star annually. Since its inception in 2009, the winners combined to win three Olympic medals in 2012.
