To end one of the finest seasons in program history, freshman guard Lashann Higgs and sophomore guard Ariel Atkins each totaled 19 points to lead No. 7/7 Texas in the 86-65 loss to No. 1/1 Connecticut in the NCAA Regional Final inside Webster Bank Arena.

Texas ends the season with a 31-5 record, marking the first time Texas has hit the 31-win plateau since the 1987-88 campaign. In addition, the Horns played in their first NCAA Elite Eight game since 2003. Texas holds an all-time record in the NCAA Tournament of 38-28 and are now 3-6 in Regional Final play.

Higgs' 19 points ties her career-high and she complemented her points with four rebounds and two steals. Sophomore guard Brooke McCarty joined them in the double figures with 15 points, including four triples on the night. Senior center Imani Boyette and senior forward Empress Davenport led the team with six rebounds apiece, and senior guard Celina Rodrigo totaled seven assists.

As a team, Texas shot 40.6 percent (26-of-64) from the field and 32.0 percent (8-of-25) from behind the arc. UConn shot 56.4 percent (31-of-55) from the floor and 57.1 percent (12-of-21) from downtown. The Horns outrebounded the Huskies, 34-29.

UConn was led by senior forward Morgan Tuck with 22 points.

QUICK HITS

- Texas women's basketball is in the midst of its 43rd season of intercollegiate basketball.
- The Longhorns have won 12 conference regular season titles and 10 conference tournament titles.
- Texas is one of just eight programs in NCAA Division I women's basketball history to reach 1,000 all-time wins. The Longhorns achieved the milestone on January 27, 2016. Texas ranks sixth all-time in NCAA history with 1,014 all-time victories.
- The Longhorns consistently play a rigorous non-conference schedule. The Huskies are the fourth top-15 team that Texas will face already this season. The Longhorns' schedule consists of six non-conference opponents that advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 or further during the 2015-16 campaign.
- Texas head coach Karen Aston is nine wins away from 100 on the Forty Acres. She is 91-49 at UT.
- The Longhorns are seeking their 500th all-time win in the Frank Erwin Center this season. Texas has a 498-96 (.838) all-time record within the friendly confines of the Erwin Center, which opened during the 1977-78 season.
- Since the start of the 2013-14 season, Texas is 48-6 (.889) when playing in the Frank Erwin Center.
- Texas has won the rebound battle in each of its five games so far this season and holds a rebound margin of +13.4. The Longhorns rank 11th nationally in rebound margin.
- Junior guard Ariel Atkins has scored in double figures in each of Texas' five games this season.
- Atkins leads the Big 12 Conference in steals per game at 2.6.
- McCarty needs just one more three-pointer to move onto the Texas all-time career three-pointers made list. McCarty has made 114 three-pointers in her career and, with two more, would tie Vicki Hall (1988-93) for 10th place all-time.
- McCarty ranks fifth in school history in three-point field goal percentage with a .388 clip (114-of-294). Current Texas assistant Jamie Carey holds the school record in three-point field goal percentage at .418. Just three players in UT history - Carey, Kat Nash and Vicki Hall - have shot better than .400 beyond the three-point arc for their careers.
- Senior center Kelsey Lang recently moved into the top-10 on the all-time Texas career blocks list. She currently has 120 career rejections. Lang needs just two more blocks to move past Stacy Stephens (121) for ninth on the all-time career blocks chart.
- Lang has played in 109 games during her Texas career. She needs to play in 24 more games to move into the UT all-time top-10 for career games played at 133.

"Texas got two outstanding prospects. They got both front-court and back-court help with two of the elite prospects of the 2017 class. Virtually the best point guard in the country in Chasity Patterson stayed close to home. She is electrifying, explosive and, end-line to end-line, she is maybe the speediest player in the class of 2017. She is going to be a real crowd favorite. Rellah Boothe, on a pure athleticism, raw talent basis, could be the best player in the country. She has to put it all together, but she's got four years now to do that under Karen Aston. They are both just going to add to the depth that already exists at Texas once they start playing there."

PALO ALTO, Calif. -- Stanford junior guard Brittany McPhee posted a career-high 28 points to lead all-scorsers en route to No. 11/10 Stanford's win over No. 8/6 Texas inside Maples Pavilion on Monday night, 71-59.

Tonight marked Texas head coach Karen Aston's 300th career game as a head coach. Aston holds an all-time record of 190-110 (.635) in her 10th season at the helm of a collegiate program.

The Cardinal leads the all-times series over the Longhorns, 7-4, and picks up its first against Texas since the 2013-2014 season.

"They were the better team. We haven't executed things in practice the way we need to," said Aston. "We went through a stretch where we fouled too much, and we went through a stretch where we weren't helping each other defensively. We will get home and get to work because that's all we can do."

Junior guard Brooke McCarty led the Horns across the board, registering a team-high 20 points and five rebounds on the night. Junior guard Ariel Atkins joined her in the double-figures with 14 points, including a 3-of-6 effort from downtown, and a game-high four steals.

As a team, Texas shot 35.3 percent (24-of-68) from the field to Stanford's 54.9 shooting percentage (28-of-51). The Horns outrebounded the Cardinal, 38-32, and registered nine steals in the contest.

Stanford's McPhee capped off her record night with seven rebounds and two assists.

Texas held the early 9-8 edge headed into the first media timeout, but Stanford answered with a 9-4 rally to lead by four (17-13) with 48 seconds remaining in the quarter. The Horns wasted no time on offense with a quick three-pointer from sophomore guard Higgs, and a buzzer-beating tip-in from Atkins closed the first in favor of Texas, 18-17.

The Longhorns held onto their lead until the 5:23 mark of the game when a Cardinal tie tied the match at 24. Stanford gained momentum behind an 11-3 run to lead at the half, 35-29.

Atkins and McCarty found the sweet spot behind the arc to open the second half, cutting the margin to five (40-35 Stanford) at 8:20 mark of the third. The Cardinal extended their lead to double-digits (52-42), but another trey from McCarty and a layup from freshman guard/forward Joyner Holmes got the Horns within five once again. Stanford continued to find its strength in the paint and held the lead heading into the final stretch, 58-50.

An 8-0 Cardinal run was cut short by a three-point play from McCarty, but Stanford continued to convert in the paint. The Cardinal would outscore the Longhorns, 13-9, in the fourth to close the game with the 71-59 win.

Texas will host its first regular season game against the Houston Baptist Huskies inside the Erwin Center on Wednesday, Nov. 16. Tip is slated for 11 a.m. and the game will be carried live on Longhorn Network.

AUSTIN, Texas -- Freshman Joyner Holmes was one rebound shy of her first career double-double and led all scorers with 22 points and nine rebounds as the No. 8/10 Texas Women's Basketball toppled Houston Baptist, 98-46, in front of 6,378 fans inside the Frank Erwin Center on Wednesday.

With the win, the Longhorns move to 39-4 (.907) all-time in home openers and hold an unblemished 5-0 record under Texas head coach Karen Aston.

This was the first meeting between Texas and Houston Baptist in program history. The Horns lead the all-time series over Southland Conference foes, 36-9.

"I thought our team came out with a lot of energy," said Aston. "It was a difficult game for us to play this morning, honestly, because of the road trip and how late we got back. I was anxious to see how we would bounce back from a loss. I was pleased with the fact that we were focused and ready to play today."

Holmes's 22-point game came behind an 8-of-17 shooting effort (.471) from the floor. She also added three blocks and one assist. Junior Brooke McCarty followed suit with 16 points, including a 4-of-5 effort from downtown, and four assists.

Junior Ariel Atkins posted 11 points with three steals, while rookies Jada Underwood and Alecia Sutton rounded out the double-digit scorers with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Senior Kelsey Lang put up two points and two blocks for the game, moving her onto the Texas all-time top-10 list for career blocks with 112.

As a team, Texas shot 46.1 percent (35-of-76) from the floor while holding Houston Baptist to a 28.8 shooting percentage (15-of-52). The Horns dominated every category across the board, including double-figures in assists (18), blocks (10), and steals (11).

Houston Baptist was led by freshman Lauren Calver with 11 points.

Texas jumped out on a 19-3 run to open the game, but the Huskies found their strength from the three-point range, draining four treys in the first quarter, to try and chip away at the Longhorns lead. Early foul trouble proved problematic for HBU, and Texas went on to end the quarter, 28-17.

The Horns held HBU to only four points in the second stanza and used their quick hands to convert 11 points off turnovers. The 29-4 margin quickly widened the Texas lead heading into the locker rooms, 57-21.

The third quarter played to Texas's post advantage, and the Longhorns went on to claim 14 points inside the paint. Holmes put an exclamation point on the quarter with a buzzer-beating jumper to end the stanza, 81-31.

Texas took its largest lead of the night, a 56-point spread, after a three-pointer from Sutton with 6:55 remaining on the game clock. In the end, the Longhorns finished just two shy of the century mark with the 98-46 victory.

Up next on the slate, Texas will travel to Starkville, Miss. to take on No. 10/9 Mississippi State on Sunday, Nov. 20. Tip-off is set for 5 p.m. and the game will be carried on the SEC Network.

AUSTIN, Texas – Six Longhorns posted in double figures as No. 14/14 Texas Women's Basketball (2-2) downed Northwestern State (3-1) inside the Drum on Thanksgiving Eve, 86-39.

With the win, the Longhorns boast a perfect 5-0 record over the Lady Demons all-time. Texas holds a 47-9 (.839) record against members in the current alignment of the Southland Conference.

"I thought we played well," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "I thought we worked on some areas that we were deficient in against Mississippi State. We got a chance to play everybody and play a lot of young guys some minutes where we can have some teaching moments with them and continue to work on them."

Sophomore Lashann Higgs led the way for the Horns with 14 points, five rebounds, and five assists. Freshman Joyner Holmes and senior Kelsey Lang both notched 12 points while junior Ariel Atkins posted 11 points and a team-high four steals.

Junior Brooke McCarty and freshman Jada Underwood rounded out the double-digits with 10 points and two treys apiece.

As a team, Texas shot 57.1 percent from the floor (36-of-63) while holding Northwestern State to a 28.3 shooting percentage (13-of-46). The Longhorns grabbed up the stats across the board, outrebounding the Lady Demons 39-20 and swiping nine steals to Northwestern State's three.

NSU was led by senior Beatrice Attura with 15 points and five boards on the night.

Texas shot into action with an Atkins jumper and Taylor triple and headed into the media timeout with the 11-6 lead. From there, the Horns went on an 11-3 rally to end the first, 21-9.

After pushing out on an unanswered 22-point run, the Horns held the Lady Demons to only five points in the second stanza. A total of 10 Texas layups were complimented by three-pointers from McCarty and Underwood to send the Longhorns into the locker room with the 47-14 advantage.

A 24-10 margin lengthened the Texas lead in the third quarter. The Longhorns utilized their strength in the paint, handing Higgs back-to-back layups in the heart of the stanza and closing the quarter, 71-24.

All 15 points in the closing quarter came off the Texas bench, including a triple from Underwood and a block from sophomore Olamide Aborowa. The Lady Demons answered with an equal 15 points, but Texas clenched the game, 86-39.

Next, Texas will host No. 3/3 South Carolina in the SEC-Big 12 Challenge on Thursday, Dec. 1 inside the Erwin Center. Tip is slated for 6 p.m. and the game will be televised on ESPN2.

AUSTIN, Texas – Senior Kelsey Lang had a record evening, posting her second career double-double, as No. 14/15 Texas Women's Basketball (2-3) fell to No. 3/3 South Carolina (6-0) inside the Erwin Center on Thursday night, 76-67.

Texas leads the all-time series over South Carolina, 2-1.

"I was really, really proud of our team and how they attacked the game plan," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "Then you look at the stat sheet, and we did some things that we set out to do. We just didn't manage the foul game at all. I'm really encouraged by Kelsey because that's what we need from Kelsey Lang. She stepped up to the plate tonight, and if she continues to work like she has in practice and perform like she did tonight then I'm very encouraged about our future."

Lang's double-double came behind a season-high 15 points, including a 7-10 shooting effort from the floor, and 12 rebounds. The senior also registered a career-high six blocks.

Junior Ariel Atkins registered 14 points and a game-high four assists, and freshman Joyner Holmes put up 11 points and brought down four boards on the night.

As a team, Texas shot 41.2 percent (28-68) from the floor while South Carolina notched a 42.3 shooting percentage (22-52). The Longhorns outrebounded the Gamecocks, 40-37, and posted nine blocks to South Carolina's six.

South Carolina's junior A'ja Wilson paved the way for the Gamecocks with 31 points and 12 rebounds.

Texas maintained a slim advantage until the 1:23 mark of the first when a Gamecock layup squared things at 14. After junior Audrey-Ann Caron-Goudreau blocked one in the paint, sophomore Lashann Higgs managed to fire off a jumper to beat the clock, ending the first, 16-14 Longhorns.

South Carolina was able to capitalize off Texas foul trouble in the second stanza, converting nine points from the charity stripe. After tying things at the 8:34 mark, the Gamecocks pushed ahead to lead by as many as six points, but a junior Brooke McCarty three-pointer made it a one-possession game at the half in the Gamecocks favor, 33-30.

Texas continued to stay on pace with South Carolina in the third, and back-to-back baskets from Higgs tied it at 47 and got the crowd on its feet. Texas took the lead back at the 3:47 mark courtesy of a freshman Joyner Holmes layup, but the Gamecocks close on an 11-3 stretch to head into the final quarter with the 55-49 advantage.

A basket from Lang at the 7:33 mark of the fourth made it a one-possession game (60-57 South Carolina) headed into the final stretch, but the Gamecocks never let the Longhorns closer than that. South Carolina outscored Texas, 21-18, in the closing quarter to seal the game, 76-67.

Up next on the state, Texas will continue its challenging nonconferences schedule as it travels to Uncasville, Conn. to take on the No. 2/2 UConn Huskies. Tip inside the Mohegan Sun Arena is set for 3 p.m. CT, and the game will be broadcasted on ESPN.
