QUICK HITS

- With 19 Longhorns (16 swimmers, 3 divers) making the trip to Atlanta this week, Texas has filled out its maximum allotment of swimmers and divers for a third consecutive NCAA Championship meet.
- Texas returns 13 of the 19 Longhorns who competed at the 2015 NCAA Championships and delivered UT's 11th NCAA team title with 528 points.
- Texas won five individual events at the 2015 NCAA Championships and returns all three swimmers responsible for the five titles.
- Junior Clark Smith became UT's first NCAA champion in the 500-yard freestyle. Smith, the son of former Texas swimmers John Smith and Tori Trees, knocked off defending champion Cristian Quintero of USC and won the event in 4:09.72.
- Junior Will Licon, the 2015 Big 12 Swimmer of the Year, returns as the defending NCAA champion in the 400 individual medley and the 200 breaststroke. The El Paso native became the first Longhorn to claim a national title in the 400 IM last March.
- Joseph Schooling won NCAA titles in the 100 and 200 butterfly and became the first Texas freshman to win two NCAA individual swimming titles at the same meet since Brendan Hansen in 2001. The Singaporean also became the first Texas swimmer to win both the 100 and 200 fly in his Longhorns career. Schooling broke Ian Crocker's 14-year-old school and Big 12 records in the 100 butterfly (44.51). He went on to win nine gold medals for Singapore at the Southeast Asian Games in June and won bronze in the 100m butterfly at the FINA World Championships.

- Texas returns five of the six swimmers who accounted for its two NCAA relay titles last season. All-America junior Jack Conger swam on the victorious 200 freestyle relay and 400 medley relay. Seniors Matt Ellis and John Murray joined Conger on the 200 free relay, while Licon and Schooling joined Conger on the 400 medley relay. Former Longhorn Kip Darmody competed on both NCAA champion relays last season as a senior.
- Texas boasts more NCAA team titles (11) and NCAA top-two finishes (22) than any other men's swimming and diving program since head coach Eddie Reese's arrival in Austin in 1978.
- Soon to wrap his 38th season with the Longhorns, Reese is the only college swimming coach to win NCAA team titles in four separate decades (1981, '88, '89, '90, '91, '96, 2000, '01, '02, 2010, '15). Last March, Reese tied former Ohio State coach Mike Peppe for No. 1 all-time with 11 NCAA men's swimming and diving titles.
- Reese's Longhorns have finished among the top-three at the NCAA Championships in 29 of his previous 37 seasons in Austin. Texas has finished no worse than second at seven of the last eight NCAA Championship meets.
- Texas is tied with Ohio State for No. 2 all-time with 11 NCAA men's swimming and diving team titles.
- Texas has won 114 NCAA individual titles (No. 4 all-time). That total includes 54 NCAA individual swimming titles, 41 NCAA swimming relay crowns and 19 NCAA diving titles.
- Texas has won NCAA titles in all 18 swimming events and two of the three diving events contested annually at the NCAA Championships.

NINETEEN LONGHORNS SET FOR NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

All-America junior Jack Conger finished as the NCAA runner-up behind teammate Joseph Schooling in the 100 and 200 butterfly events at the 2015 NCAA Championships. Conger, who anchored UT's 400 medley relay to victory at that same meet, holds the No. 2 seed in the 200 butterfly (1:40.57), an event in which he holds the American record. Conger also is seeded third in the 100 butterfly (45.19).

All-America senior Matt Ellis helped the Horns to victory in the 200 freestyle relay at the 2015 NCAA Championships. He heads to the 2016 NCAA Championships as the 22nd seed in the 100 freestyle (42.82) and the 23rd seed in the 100 butterfly.

All-America junior Will Glass joined Ellis in a group of six Longhorns that reached the 100 butterfly final at the 2015 NCAA Championships. Glass holds the 13th seed in the 100 butterfly at 46.01.

Townley Haas heads to the NCAA Championships on the heels of an impressive freshman season. Haas, the Big 12 champion in the 200 and 500 freestyles, holds the No. 3 seed in the 500 freestyle (4:12.63), the No. 6 seed in the 1,650 freestyle (14:41.09) and the No. 9 seed in the 200 freestyle (1:33.19).

Ryan Harty also rode a strong freshman season to his first NCAA Championships berth. Harty is seeded eighth in the 200 backstroke (1:40.39), 11th in the 200 individual medley (1:43.26) and 25th in the 400 individual medley (3:44.93). His younger sister, Kaitlin, will swim for the Texas women under Carol Capitani beginning next season.

Freshman Max Holter is seeded 23rd in the 200 butterfly at 1:43.33, and his classmate Tate Jackson is seeded 10th in the 50 freestyle (19.25) after winning the event at the Big 12 Championships. Senior Sam Lewis qualified for a fourth straight NCAA Championships by way of his No. 19 seed in the 1,650 freestyle (14:54.53). The Tyler native is an All-American in both the 500 and 1,605 freestyle events.

All-America junior Will Licon returns for his third straight NCAA Championships appearance after winning the 400 individual medley and the 200 breaststroke at the 2015 NCAA Championships.

The El Paso native defeated defending champion Chase Kalisz of Georgia in the 400 IM and took out defending champion Kevin Cordes of Arizona on consecutive nights at the 2015 NCAA Championships. Licon holds the top seed in the 200 breaststroke (1:50.47), the sixth seed in the 200 IM (1:42.85) and the 13th seed in the 400 IM (3:42.98).

Senior John Martens qualified for a second straight NCAA Championships with his No. 27 national seed in the 400 IM (3:45.13). All-America senior John Murray qualified for his third straight NCAA Championships with his No. 8 seed in the 100 freestyle (42.42), No. 11 seed in the 50 freestyle (19.26), No. 21 seed in the 100 butterfly (46.24). The San Antonio native helped the 200 free relay to victory at the 2015 NCAA Championships.

Sophomore Brett Ringgold reaches the NCAA Championships for a second straight year by way of his No. 5 seed in the 100 freestyle (42.04) and No. 17 seed in the 50 freestyle (19.38). His classmate and former club teammate Jonathan Roberts qualified ninth nationally in the 400 IM (3:41.54). Roberts was one of three Longhorns to swim the 500 freestyle championship final at the 2015 NCAA Championships.

Last season, All-America sophomore Joseph Schooling became the first Longhorn to win NCAA titles in both the 100 and 200 butterfly events. He returns to the NCAA Championships as the top seed in both the 100 (44.62) and the 200 (1:40.48).

Freshman John Shebat qualified 14th overall in the 100 backstroke (45.88) and 25th in the 200 IM (1:44.13). All-America junior Clark Smith became UT's first NCAA champion in the 500 freestyle last season. He returns for a second NCAA Championships appearance as the top seed in both the 500 freestyle (4:08.82) and 1,650 freestyle (14:31.29) and as the 10th seed in the 200 freestyle (1:33.36).

2015-16 Texas Men's Swimming and Diving

Divers Mark Anderson, Cory Bowersox and Sean O'Brien earned their NCAA Championships bids on one-meter and three-meter earlier this month at the NCAA Zone "D" Diving Meet in College Station. Anderson earned All-America honors on all three boards at the 2015 NCAA Championships, and Bowersox is a three-time All-American on one-meter. All three divers have opportunities to earn NCAA Championships bids this afternoon on platform at the NCAA Zone "D" Diving Meet in College Station.

HORNS HOOK 37TH CONSECUTIVE CONFERENCE TITLE

Top-ranked Texas won 19 of 21 events and cruised to its 37th consecutive conference title last month at the Big 12 Championships in Austin.

The Longhorns captured their 20th Big 12 crown with 1,018 points. All-America junior Will Licon was selected as the Men's Swimmer of the Meet, and freshman Townley Haas was named the Men's Newcomer of the Meet. All-America junior Mark Anderson took top honors as the Men's Diver of the Meet and Matt Scoggin was tabbed as the Men's Diving Coach of the Meet.

SMITH FOLLOWS NCAA TITLE WITH RECORD-SETTING SEASON

Junior Clark Smith has done anything but rest on his laurels after winning UT's first NCAA title in the 500 freestyle last season. The Atlanta-born Smith set school and Big 12 records in the 1,650 freestyle at the Big 12 Championships less than three months after toppling NCAA and American records in the 1,000 freestyle at the Texas Invitational.

Swimming the event for the first time in college, Smith dropped the nation's top time and set school and Big 12 records in the 1,650 freestyle in 14:31.29. The mark eclipsed the previous school and Big 12 record of 14:32.75 set by Michael McBroom at the 2013 NCAA Championships

Smith, who went for a 1,000-yard split in the 1,650 freestyle at the Texas Invitational, clocked 8 minutes, 33.93 seconds at the Invite to break the American record of 8:36.49 set by former U.S. Olympian Erik Vendt on Jan. 18, 2008. Smith took down the NCAA record of 8:43.48 set by former Longhorn Michael McBroom on Feb. 1, 2013 in Austin.

The son of a pair of former NCAA champion Longhorns swimmers, Smith nearly took down the NCAA and American records two nights earlier in the 500-yard freestyle. However, his top national mark of 4:08.82 did eclipse the school and Big 12 record of 4:09.32 set by Michael Klueh at the 2009 NCAA Championships.

SCHOOLING POSTS PAIR OF TOP NATIONAL MARKS AT TEXAS INVITE

Joseph Schooling swept the 100 and 200 butterfly events as a freshman at the 2015 NCAA Championships, and the Olympian from Singapore hasn't missed a beat in the butterfly events as a sophomore.

Schooling posted the top times in the country in both events at the Texas Invitational. He clocked 44.98 in the prelims of the 100 butterfly and won the 200 butterfly the following night in 1:40.48. He lowered his 100 fly season-best to 44.62 at the Big 12 Championships.

Last March, Schooling became the first Texas swimmer to win NCAA titles in both the 100 and 200 butterfly events. In doing so, he became the first Texas freshman swimmer to win two NCAA individual swimming titles since Brendan Hansen in 2001. Schooling was the first UT freshman swimmer to win an NCAA individual swimming title since Austin Surhoff in 2010.

CONGER, LICON REMAIN AMONG NATION'S ELITE

Juniors Jack Conger and Will Licon accounted for a bundle of points in the Longhorns' NCAA title run last March, and the duo is on pace for another productive season.

The versatile Conger gives Texas a reliable threat in the backstroke, butterfly and freestyle events in the 100- and 200-yard distances. Better known for his proficiency in the backstroke and butterfly events, it was Conger who not only anchored the Longhorns' 400 medley relay to a 2015 NCAA title but also helped Texas to its first NCAA crown in the 200 free relay since 1996.

2015-16 Texas Men's Swimming and Diving

Conger emerged from the Texas Invitational with the nation's No. 3 marks in the 100 butterfly (45.19) and the 200 butterfly (1:41.40) in addition to the No. 8 national mark in the 200 freestyle (1:34.20). He lowered his season-best in the 200 butterfly to 1:40.57 at the Big 12 Championships.

Licon, the 2015 Big 12 Swimmer of the Year, cemented himself as one of the premier swimmers in the storied history of the Texas program last season with his three individual school records and two NCAA individual titles.

Last March, the 2015 Big 12 Swimmer of the Year defeated American record holder Chase Kalisz of Georgia and became UT's first NCAA champion in the 400-yard individual medley. The following night at the NCAA Championships, Licon dethroned two-time defending NCAA champion and American record holder Kevin Cordes of Arizona and won the national title in the 200-yard breaststroke.

This season, Licon ranks No. 1 in the 200 breaststroke (1:52.82). He also holds the nation's No. 12 mark in the 200 individual medley (1:44.85) and the No. 13 mark in the 400 individual medley (3:42.98).

SPRINT FREESTYLE GROUP IMPRESSES AT TEXAS INVITE

Headed by senior John Murray and sophomore Brett Ringgold, Texas logged six top-12 national swims in the 50 and 100 freestyle events at the Texas Invitational.

Murray, who helped the Horns win the 200 freestyle relay at the 2015 NCAA Championships, ranks No. 11 nationally in the 50 freestyle (19.26) and No. 8 in the 100 freestyle (42.42). Ringgold produced breakthrough swims at the Texas Invite and notched the nation's No. 5 mark in the 100 freestyle (42.04) and the No. 7 mark in the 50 freestyle (19.38).

FRESHMEN CONTRIBUTING EARLY

Texas' balanced roster features a talented group of freshmen who rank among the nation's elite in their respective events

Through the regular season, Townley Haas and Ryan Harty were the nation's only freshmen ranked among the top-two nationally in an individual event and the only freshmen with multiple top-five national marks. In fact, Haas boasted three national top-four marks.

The U.S. national teamer showed off exceptional freestyle range at the Texas Invitational with his No. 2 national marks in the 500 freestyle (4:14.07) and 1,650 freestyle (14:41.09) in addition to his No. 4 national time in the 200 freestyle (1:33.38). Haas also posted the nation's No. 10 mark in the 1,000 freestyle at 9:04.17.

Harty added depth to an already exceptional Texas individual medley group with his No. 2 national time at the 200-yard distance (1:43.26) and his No. 10 mark at 400 yards (3:44.93).

ANDERSON TAKES TWO AT UT DIVING INVITE

All-America junior diver Mark Anderson won the three-meter and platform events in November at the UT Diving Invite Anderson claimed the three-meter crown at the UT Diving Invite with 458.15 points and edged All-America teammate Cory Bowersox by about nine points. Anderson claimed the platform title the next day with 451.95 points. Anderson went on to place sixth on platform last month at the USA Diving Winter National Championships.

LONGHORNS FINISH REGULAR SEASON UNBLEMISHED

Texas took on a rigorous fall schedule but delivered balanced performances across the board and produced a perfect 6-0 fall dual-meet record.

The Longhorns opened the 2015-16 dual-meet season on Oct. 16 with long-course victories over Indiana and Florida. The three teams went head-to-head the next day in a traditional short-course pool, and the Longhorns knocked off both teams once again.

After nearly a month-long layoff, the top-ranked Longhorns hit the road and took on No. 12 North Carolina and No. 5 N.C. State. Texas won 13 of the 16 events contested at North Carolina and cruised to a 160-132 victory (Nov. 13).

The Longhorns made the short trip to Raleigh for a showdown with against No. 5 North Carolina State. The Wolfpack put up a considerable fight, but the Longhorns' depth proved to be too much, as Texas emerged with a 154-136 victory.

The Longhorns opened the new year with dual-meet wins over No. 10 Auburn and No. 3 Georgia. Texas remained perfect at 9-0 on the heels of its dual win at Arizona before finishing the season at 10-0 with a Senior Day win over TCU.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2015 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

- Texas swept the relays on day one (200 free relay and 400 medley relay) for the first time since 1990.
- Texas won the 200 free relay for the fifth time overall (No. 3 all-time) and for the first time since 1996.
- Texas won the 400 medley relay for the 12th time overall (T-1st all-time with Stanford) and for the first time since 2004, when future Olympic gold medalists Aaron Peirsol, Brendan Hansen, Ian Crocker and Garrett Weber-Gale claimed the win. The 2015 Longhorns quartet of Kip Darmody, Will Licon, Joseph Schooling and Jack Conger won in 3:01.23 to break the NCAA, NCAA Championship and U.S. Open record mark of 3:01.39 set by Auburn at the 2009 NCAA Championships.
- As a program, Texas entered the 2015 NCAA Championships with NCAA titles in every swimming event except the 500 free-style and the 400 individual medley. Sophomores Clark Smith (500 free) and Will Licon (400 IM) filled those voids, meaning Texas has won all 18 swimming events currently contested at the NCAA Championships.
- Joseph Schooling became the first Texas freshman to win an NCAA individual swimming title since Austin Surhoff (200 IM) in 2010. The Singaporean Olympian claimed UT's first NCAA title in the 100 butterfly since 2004 (Ian Crocker) and its seventh overall (No. 2 all-time). Schooling broke Ian Crocker's 11-year-old school record (44.72) en route to victory in 44.51.
- No school had ever landed the top-four finishes in a championship final until Texas went 1-2-3-4 (Schooling, Jack Conger, Tripp Cooper, Will Glass) in the 100 butterfly final.
- Texas made history in the 100 butterfly preliminaries when it qualified an NCAA record six swimmers for the championship final. No school had ever sent more than four swimmers to a championship final in any event at the NCAA Championships. The previous high for single team members represented in an event final (championship final and consolation final combined) was five swimmers by USC in 1987 (500 freestyle) and Michigan in 1994 and 1995 (500 freestyle both years).
- Texas' seven NCAA individual titles at the 2015 NCAA Championships moved UT's all-time total to 114 individual swimming and diving titles, good for No. 4 all-time (54 individual swimming, 41 swimming relays, 19 diving). UT had most recently won seven events at an NCAA Championship meet in 2004.

Texas Men's Swimming and Diving Notes

- Texas has won 11 NCAA men's swimming and diving team championships, all under the tutelage of 38th-year head coach Eddie Reese. Texas is tied with Ohio State for second all-time at 11 NCAA titles and ranks behind only Michigan (12).
- No school has won more NCAA team titles than The University of Texas since Reese's arrival in Austin in 1978. Texas leads that 37-year span with 11 NCAA team titles.
- The Longhorns have 11 NCAA runner-up finishes to go along with their 11 NCAA team titles.
- Since Reese took over the Longhorns' program in 1978, Texas has finished in the top-three at the NCAA Championships in 29 of 37 seasons.
- Reese is the only college swimming coach to win NCAA team titles in four separate decades.
- The Texas men's swimming and diving program has produced 39 Olympians who have gone on to win 42 gold medals, 16 silver medals and nine bronze medals at the Olympics.
- No Longhorn has appeared in more Olympic Games than former UT diver Troy Dumais, who represented the USA at the 2000 Sydney Games, the 2004 Athens Games, the 2008 Beijing Games and the 2012 London Games.
- Texas has won 36 consecutive conference championships (17 SWC and all 19 Big 12 Conference titles).
- Reese is tied for No. 1 all-time with Ohio State's Mike Peppe at 11 NCAA team titles.
- Texas ranks fifth nationally with 111 individual NCAA titles.
- Reese's swimmers at Texas have won 51 NCAA individual titles and 35 NCAA relay titles.
- Texas leads the NCAA with 12 national titles in the 800 freestyle relay. UT last won the event at the 2012 NCAA Championship.
- Texas boasts three NCAA champions in the 50 freestyle. The most recent was Jimmy Feigen in 2012.
- Texas has won five NCAA titles in the 100 freestyle. Jimmy Feigen won the national title in 2012.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its five NCAA titles in the 200 freestyle. UT senior Dax Hill claimed the NCAA title in this event in 2012.
- With Clark Smith's NCAA title in the 500 freestyle and Will Licon's NCAA title in the 200 IM won last March, Texas now boasts NCAA titles in all 18 swimming events contested at the NCAA meet.
- Michael McBroom won the Longhorns' lone NCAA title in the 1,650 freestyle in 2011.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its eight NCAA titles in the 100 backstroke. Matt Ulrickson most recently won this event for Texas in 2000.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its seven NCAA titles in the 200 backstroke. Aarol Peirsol won back-to-back NCAA titles for Texas in 2003 and 2004.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its six NCAA titles in the 100 breaststroke. Former Longhorn Brendan Hansen is one of only three swimmers to win four consecutive NCAA titles in this event.
- Texas ranks third all-time with its six NCAA titles in the 200 breaststroke. Eric Friedland most recently won this event for UT in 2011.
- Texas ranks second all-time with its seven NCAA titles in the 100 butterfly. Former Longhorn Ian Crocker is one of only three swimmers to win four consecutive NCAA titles in this event.
- Texas boasts two NCAA titles in the 200 butterfly, including the 2015 crown won by then-freshman Joseph Schooling.
- Texas has won two NCAA titles in the 200 individual medley (IM). UT senior Austin Surhoff won Texas' last NCAA title in this event in 2010.
- Texas ranks No. 3 all-time with its five NCAA titles in the 200 free-style relay and is the defending NCAA champion in the event.
- The Longhorns rank fourth all-time with eight NCAA titles in the 400 freestyle relay, which includes a victory at the 2012 NCAA Championship.
- UT is tied for second all-time with four NCAA titles in the 200 medley relay. Texas most recently won the NCAA title in this event in 2003.
- Texas is tied with Stanford for No. 1 all-time with 12 NCAA titles in the 400 medley relay. The Longhorns set NCAA and U.S. Open records while winning the event last March at the NCAA Championships.
- Texas is tied for second all-time with 10 NCAA titles in the one-meter diving event. Former Longhorn Troy Dumais won consecutive NCAA titles from 2000 through 2002. Former Longhorn Michael Hixon won the NCAA title in the event last season.
- Texas is tied for second all-time with nine NCAA titles in the three-meter diving event. Troy Dumais is the only diver ever to win four NCAA titles in this event. Former Longhorn Michael Hixon won the NCAA title last season.
- Four former Longhorns – Aaron Peirsol, Garrett Weber-Gale, Ricky Berens and Dave Walters – currently hold individual and/or relay world records.
- Peirsol and Walters teamed up with Eric Shanteau and Michael Phelps to set the world record in the 400m medley relay (3:27.28) at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.
- Berens and Walters joined Michael Phelps to set the world record in the 4x200m freestyle relay (6:58.55) at the 2009 FINA World Championships.
- In one of the most thrilling relay finishes in the sport's history, Weber-Gale joined Michael Phelps, Cullen Jones and Jason Lezak to win the gold medal and set a world record in the 4x100m freestyle relay at the 2008 Beijing Olympics. France held a sizable lead in the relay's anchor leg before Lezak chased down Alain Bernard and out-touched him at the wall to secure gold for the Americans.
- Even in retirement, Peirsol continues to hold world records in the 100m and 200m backstroke events. Peirsol broke his own 100m backstroke world record at the 2009 USA Swimming National Championships with a time of 51.94. He remains the only swimmer to break 52 seconds in the event.
- Peirsol set the world record in the 200m backstroke (1:51.92) at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.
- Former Longhorn Dave Walters currently holds the American record in the 100m freestyle. Walters finished in 47.33 at the 2009 FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.

Longhorn Olympians

OLYMPIC HIGHLIGHTS

2012 - LONDON

Diver Troy Dumais became the first Longhorn men's swimmer or diver to compete in four Olympic Games, and he made his fourth Olympic berth count when he picked up his first ever Olympic medal. Dumais teamed up with Stanford diver Kristian Ipsen to win bronze in the three-meter synchronized diving event for the USA. Brendan Hansen won a gold medal in the 4x100m medley relay and bronze in the 100m breaststroke, just 18 months after resuming competitive swimming. Hansen swam the breaststroke leg on the USA's 4x100m medley relay that featured Matt Grevers on backstroke, Michael Phelps on butterfly and Nathan Adrian on the freestyle anchor. Hansen took bronze in the 100m breaststroke in 59.49 and claimed his third career Olympic medal in an individual event. Ricky Berens made a second consecutive U.S. Olympic team, and as he did in Beijing, he helped the USA's 4x200m freestyle relay to the gold medal. Berens joined Conor Dwyer, Ryan Lochte and Michael Phelps on the gold medal-winning relay. Berens teamed up with first-time Olympian Jimmy Feigen to win silver in the 4x100m freestyle relay after the pair swam in the event's preliminary round. First-time Olympian Christian Schurr represented Mexico in the 200m breaststroke but did not advance out of the preliminary round.

2008 - BEIJING

Then-current Texas swimmers Ricky Berens, Scott Spann and Dave Walters joined former Longhorns greats Ian Crocker, Brendan Hansen, Aaron Peirsol, Garrett Weber-Gale and Troy Dumais in representing the United States at the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics. The group accounted for nine total medals - eight golds and one silver. Berens collected his first Olympic gold medal by helping Team USA to a new world record in the 800m freestyle relay. Berens joined teammate Dave Walters in the event's preliminary round before joining Michael Phelps, Ryan Lochte and Peter Vanderkaay in the finals. Peirsol, competing in his third Olympiad, re-wrote his world record on his way to gold in the 100m backstroke. Peirsol, who also took silver in the 200m backstroke, swam the backstroke leg on the world record-setting 400m medley relay that also featured Brendan Hansen, who placed fifth in the 100m breaststroke in Beijing. Ian Crocker and Garrett Weber-Gale swam in the butterfly and freestyle legs, respectively, in the 400m medley relay preliminary round to also earn gold in the event. Weber-Gale joined Michael Phelps, Cullen Jones and Jason Lezak to win a thrilling 400m freestyle relay in which Lezak rallied the Americans from behind in the final 50 meters to seize the gold. Scott Spann added a fifth-place finish in the 200m breaststroke, and Troy Dumais, competing in his third Olympiad, took sixth in the three-meter springboard diving event.

2004 — ATHENS

Former Longhorns swimmers Ian Crocker, Nate Dusing, Scott Goldblatt, Gary Hall, Jr., Brendan Hansen, Aaron Peirsol, Neil Walker as well as former UT divers Justin Dumais and Troy Dumais competed for the United States while current UT rising senior Nathan O'Brien competed for Canada. Crocker, Hansen and Peirsol teamed with Jason Lezak to smash the world record at the 2004 Athens Olympics' final swimming event, the 4x100m medley relay. Peirsol led all Texas swimmers at the Athens Games, duplicating American teammate Lenny Krayzelburg's Sydney sweep of the 100 and 200m backstrokes as well as the 4x100m medley relay. Peirsol, who broke the 100m backstroke world record swimming the first leg of the medley relay, became only the fifth swimmer in Olympic history and second former Longhorn to sweep both backstroke events (Rick Carey, Los Angeles - 1984). Crocker and Hansen each earned Olympic gold, silver and bronze at the 2004 Games. Crocker earned gold in the 4 x 100m medley relay, silver in 100m fly and bronze in the 4x100m free relay. Hansen, competing in his first Olympics, captured gold in the 4x100m medley relay, silver in the 100m breaststroke and bronze in the 200m breaststroke. Three-time Olympian Hall, Jr. won the 50m free capturing his 10th career Olympic medal and second straight in the 50m free. Hall, Jr., Dusing and Walker each earned bronze medals swimming the 4x100m freestyle relay, while Walker also captured his second-straight gold medal in the 4x100 medley relay as he had swum the preliminaries. Scott Goldblatt captured his first career gold as a member of the 4x200m free relay team. Texas swimmers medaled in six individual events and swam at least one leg on all three medal-winning relay squads. U.S. Head Coach Eddie Reese and the American squad earned 18 medals - nine gold, five silver, four bronze.

2000 — SYDNEY

Ian Crocker and Aaron Peirsol, current UT swimmers at the time, as well as former Longhorns Josh Davis, Nate Dusing, diver Troy Dumais, Tommy Hannan, Scott Goldblatt, Gary Hall Jr., Jamie Rauch and Neil Walker competed for the United States at the 2000 Sydney Olympics - accounting for one-third of the entire USA Swimming and Diving Teams. Davis carried the youthful squad, capturing two silver medals as a member of the 400 and 800 freestyle relay teams. In his first Olympics, Walker claimed a gold medal as a member of the winning 400 medley relay and a silver medal in the 400 freestyle relay, while Rauch, Goldblatt and Dusing all earned Olympic silver in the 800 freestyle relay event. Former Longhorn Gary Hall boasted a successful Olympic run, winning gold medals in the 50 freestyle and as a member of the victorious 400 medley relay. He also claimed silver as the anchor of the 400 freestyle relay and a bronze in the 100 freestyle. In addition, Crocker and Hannan teamed up to claim gold in the 400 medley relay, while Dumais narrowly missed a bronze medal by placing fourth in the synchronized three-meter springboard event, and was the United States' top finisher in the three-meter springboard after placing sixth. Peirsol, while still in high school, captured a silver medal in the 200-meter backstroke.

1996 — ATLANTA

Josh Davis earned three gold medals for his contributions to the USA relays. He swam the leadoff leg in finals of the 800m free relay, and took part in the 400m free relay, and swam the freestyle leg of the 400m medley relay in the preliminaries. Former Longhorn Gary Hall, Jr. struck gold swimming the anchor legs in the finals of the 400m free relay and the 400m medley relay. He also raced to two silver medals in the 50m and 100m freestyles. Former Longhorn Brad Bridgewater* swam to gold in the 200m backstroke. Carlos Arena was a member of the Mexican swimming team.

1992 — BARCELONA

Hans Dersch earned a gold in the 400m medley relay by swimming on USA's foursome in the prelims at the 1992 Games, while Doug Gjertsen captured gold in '92 swimming in the prelims of the 400m free relay and a bronze as a member of the American 800m free relay. Shaun

Jordan won gold swimming a prelim leg on USA's 400m relay team. Matt Scoggin earned a spot on the US Diving Team after winning the 10m platform at the trials. He finished 10th in the finals. Christian Styren joined Norway's diving team.

1988 — SEOUL

Chris Jacobs earned a silver in the 100m freestyle (49.08) and two golds as a member of USA's 400m and 800m relays. Doug Gjertsen also swam the third leg of the USA's winning 800m free relay, while Shaun Jordan won gold in the prelim leg on USA's winning 400m relay team. Kirk Stackle also joined the US squad after finishing second in the 200m breaststroke at trials. In addition, Bill Stapleton finished second in the 200m IM at the trials and joined the US team, and Daniel Watters made the US squad in the 100m breaststroke.

1984 — LOS ANGELES

Rick Carey captured three golds, the most ever by a Longhorn, winning the 100m (55.79) and 200m (2:00.23) backstroke and helping the U.S. win the 400m medley relay. Jon Vegard, meanwhile, joined Norway's Olympic Diving Team for the second time.

1980 — MOSCOW

Ken Armstrong was a member of the Canadian Diving Team for the second time. Longhorns Rick Carey, William Paulus and Kris Kirchner earned spots on the US Olympic Team, but missed the action due to the boycott. Kirchner was a member of the 100m and 400m free relays, while Paulus won the USA Trials and set a world record in the 100m fly. Jon Vegard also joined Norway's Diving Team.

1968 — MEXICO CITY

Felipe Munoz won gold in the 200m breaststroke (2:28.7) in Mexico City.

1952 — HELSINKI

David "Skippy" Browning became Texas' first diving Olympian and gold medalist, capturing the 3-meter springboard title for the USA at the 1952 Helsinki Games.

1948 — LONDON

Ed Gilbert was a part of the USA's 500m free relay in London.

1936 — BERLIN

Adolph Kiefer became the first Longhorn swimming & diving Olympic gold medalist, winning the 100m backstroke for the USA in Berlin. His time of 1:05.90 was a new world record.

* - Brad Bridgewater was a Longhorn from 1992-94.

 - Gary Hall, Jr. attended Texas for the 1993-94 season.
