GAME-DAY STORYLINES

- The No. 11/10 Texas Women's Basketball team goes for its 18th consecutive victory on Saturday when it plays host to Kansas. Tip-off in the Frank Erwin Center is slated for 1:30 p.m. CT and the game will be televised nationally by Longhorn Network.
- The Series: Texas and Kansas are meeting for the 34th time in the history of the two programs. The Longhorns lead the all-time series 23-10. Texas has won nine consecutive meetings in the all-time series with Kansas, including a 66-54 victory in Lawrence on Jan. 4.
- Reaching 1,000: A pair of Longhorns - Kelsey Lang and Brooke McCarty - will be recognized before Saturday's game for becoming the 41st and 42nd members, respectively, of UT's 1,000-point club. Lang accomplished the milestone against Kansas State on Feb. 4 and has 1,003 career points, while McCarty has exactly 1,000 points and accomplished that mark with a free throw with 24 seconds remaining in Texas' win against No. 2 Baylor on Feb. 6.
- Longhorns on Nation's Second-Longest Active Win Streak: Texas' active win streak of 17 games ranks second nationally to UConn's 98-game active win streak. The Longhorns are also 13-0 to start Big 12 Conference play for the first time in program history.
- #DefendTheDrum: The Frank Erwin Center has been an extremely friendly venue for the Longhorns, who are 58-6 (.906) at home since the start of the 2013-14 season. Over the past two seasons, Texas is 29-2 (.935) at home. The Longhorns' only two home losses in the past two seasons have come to foes ranked among the top-six in the Associated Press poll.
- 20-Win Seasons: Texas goes for its 20th win of the season on Saturday, which would mark the 34th time in the program's 43 seasons that the Longhorns would reach 20 wins. Texas has eclipsed the 20-win plateau in each of the past three seasons.
- Reaching 70: The Longhorns are 14-0 this season when scoring 70 or more points. Conversely, Texas is just 5-4 when scoring fewer than 70 points.
- Up Next: Texas returns to action on Monday when it travels to Tallahassee, Fla., to take on No. 5/4 Florida State. Tip-off is slated for 6 p.m. CT and the game will be televised by ESPN2.

Junior Brooke McCarty registered a team-high 15 points as No. 15/17 Texas Women's Basketball defeated Kansas inside Allen Fieldhouse on Wednesday evening, 66-54.

McCarty also added six rebounds and a team-high three assists on the night. Freshman Joyner Holmes posted 13 points and a team-high nine boards and three blocks while junior Ariel Atkins notched 12 points and five rebounds in the contest.

As a team, Texas shot 39.1 percent (25-64) from the field while holding Kansas to a 26.4 shooting percentage (19-72). The Longhorns outrebounded the Jayhawks, 61-35, marking the seventh most rebounds recorded in a single game in program history.

Kansas was led by redshirt junior Jessica Washington's double-double of 23 points and 10 rebounds.

QUICK HITS

- Texas women's basketball is in the midst of its 43rd season of intercollegiate basketball.
- The Longhorns have won 12 conference regular season titles and 10 conference tournament titles.
- Texas is one of just eight programs in NCAA Division I women's basketball history to reach 1,000 all-time wins. The Longhorns achieved the milestone on January 27, 2016. Texas ranks fifth all-time in NCAA history with 1,031 all-time victories.
- The Longhorns consistently play a rigorous non-conference schedule. The Longhorns' schedule consists of six non-conference opponents that advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 or further during the 2015-16 campaign. They will conclude that slate on Monday against No. 5/4 Florida State.
- Texas head coach Karen Aston is 108-50 (.684) in her fifth season at the helm of the Longhorns. She is the program's second-winningest coach in UT history behind Jody Conradt's 783 victories on the Forty Acres.
- Since the start of the 2013-14 season, Texas is 58-6 (.906) when playing in the Frank Erwin Center. The Longhorns are 29-2 (.935) at home over the past two seasons.
- Texas has won 17 consecutive games, which is the nation's second-longest active winning streak.
- With Monday's win against Baylor, the Longhorns set the school record for most consecutive Big 12 Conference victories at 13.
- Texas has won the rebound battle in 21 of its 23 games so far this season and holds a rebound margin of +10.7. The Longhorns rank eighth nationally in rebound margin.
- The Longhorns rank 18th nationally in blocked shots per game with 5.4 blocks per game.
- Over the past two seasons, Texas is 11-9 (.550) against foes ranked in the Associated Press Top-25, including a 4-4 mark this season.
- Senior center Kelsey Lang has played in 127 games in her UT career. She needs to play in six more games to move into the all-time Texas top-10 list in career games played. She recently became the 41st member of the school's all-time 1,000-point club and has 1,003 career points at UT.
- Lang currently ranks seventh in UT school history with 163 career blocks.
- Junior guard Brooke McCarty has 158 career three-pointers made, which ranks seventh all-time in UT history.
- McCarty ranks fourth in school history in three-point field goal percentage with a .403 clip (158-of-392). Current Texas assistant Jamie Carey holds the school record in three-point field goal percentage at .418.
- McCarty eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau in her last outing and became the 42nd player in school history to do so. She has 1,000 career points.

DEFEND THE DRUM

- One of the keys to Texas' success over the past four years has been its ability to defend its home court. Since the start of the 2013-14 season, Texas is 58-6 (.906) when playing in the Frank Erwin Center. Five of those six losses have come to opponents ranked in the top-six nationally.
- The Longhorns are 29-2 (.935) at home over the past two seasons, with both losses coming to top-six foes.

NOTES FROM OUR LAST GAME

- No. 11/13 Texas upset No. 2/2 Baylor 85-79 on Monday in Waco's Ferrell Center.
- The Longhorns earned their first win against Baylor since March 7, 2010, snapping a 14-game win streak in the series by the Lady Bears. Texas now leads the all-time series between the two teams 58-35.
- Baylor had won 54 consecutive home games, dating back to March 2, 2014, entering Monday night's contest.
- Texas is on a 17-game win streak overall, which marks the second-longest active win streak in the nation.
- The Longhorns have now won 13 consecutive Big 12 Conference games, which sets a new school record for consecutive Big 12 victories.
- The win marked Texas' first against a top-five opponent since defeating No. 4/5 Tennessee on November 29, 2015.
- Texas used the starting lineup of Ariel Atkins, Joyner Holmes, Kelsey Lang, Brooke McCarty and Brianna Taylor for the 18th time this season and improves to 16-2 with the current starting five.
- Texas won the rebound battle for the 21st time in 23 games this season, out-rebounding Baylor 38-37.
- Texas shot 51.6 percent (33-of-64) from the field in the game, marking the seventh time this season that the Longhorns have shot 50 percent or better from the field. Texas is 7-0 this year when shooting 50 percent or better from the field.
- Junior point guard Brooke McCarty scored a season-high 22 points and reached 1,000 points for her collegiate career. McCarty's 1,000th point came on a free throw with 24 seconds left that put the Longhorns ahead by five. McCarty became the 42nd member of UT's 1,000-point club.
- Junior guard Ariel Atkins scored 20 points, marking the third time this season she has eclipsed the 20-point plateau and the second time in the last three games. Atkins has scored in double figures in 16 of 21 games in which she has played this season.
- Freshman guard/forward Joyner Holmes notched her sixth double-double of the season – best among freshmen in the Big 12 this season – with 18 points and 10 rebounds. She also was 6-of-7 from the free-throw line, including a pair of charity shots with 28 seconds left and Texas ahead by only two. She also blocked two shots and came up with two steals in a career-high 25 minutes.
- Sophomore guard Lashann Higgs scored a season-high 16 points with two rebounds and a steal in 25 minutes. Higgs was 4-of-6 from the free-throw line, including nailing a pair of free throws with 15 seconds left to seal the game.

- Senior center Kelsey Lang brought down nine rebounds and blocked three shots in 33 minutes of action. Lang played in her 127th career game at Texas. She needs to play in just six more games to move onto the UT all-time top-10 list for career games played.
- Lang increased her career blocked shots total to 163, which ranks seventh all-time in UT history. She needs 19 more blocks to surpass Tiffany Jackson (181) for sixth-place all-time in program history.

TEXAS PICKED SECOND IN BIG 12

- Texas was predicted to finish second in the Big 12 Conference this season, according to a vote of the league's 10 head coaches.
- Baylor received nine of 10 first-place votes and was selected as the league's preseason favorite. Texas garnered the conference's other first-place vote.
- The Longhorns finished second in the Big 12 Conference last season, marking the program's best finish in league play since 2004-05.

PERFECTION IN JANUARY

- With its win against West Virginia on Jan. 29, Texas finished the month of January with a perfect 9-0 record. It was the first perfect January for the Longhorns since 1989.
- Texas has been perfect in January on eight previous occasions in program history, with a program-best 13-0 mark in January 1982.
- This season marked the first time the Longhorns have been perfect in January during the Big 12 era.

ASTON SECOND-WINNINGEST AT UT

- Texas head coach Karen Aston is in the midst of her fifth season at the helm of the Longhorns program. During that time, she has taken Texas back to among the nation's elite programs.
- Aston earned her 200th career victory against TCU on Jan. 7. Her head coaching career also includes head coaching stops at Charlotte and North Texas.

- Aston is 108-50 (.684) in her fifth year at Texas.
- Aston recently became the school's second-winningest coach all-time and she has 108 victories on the Forty Acres.

TURNOVERS DOWN IN RECENT GAMES

- A problem that plagued Texas early in the season was turnovers. In losses to Mississippi State and UConn, UT had 24 and 26 turnovers respectively. A 12-point win at Kansas on Jan. 4 saw the Longhorns turn the ball over a season-high 31 times.
- In the last nine games combined, however, the Longhorns have averaged just 12.9 turnovers per game, including a season-low-tying nine turnovers at Texas Tech on Jan. 21. In those past nine games, Texas is also scoring 16.78 points per game off turnovers it has forced during that stretch.
- Through the team's first 14 games of the season, Texas averaged 17.4 turnovers per game and had a turnover margin of +0.4. In the last nine games since, Texas has just 12.9 turnovers and a turnover margin of +4.2.

BOARD PROWESS

- Texas has experienced great success on the rebounding front during the 2016-17 season. The Longhorns are out-rebounding their opponents by a +10.7 margin, which ranks eighth nationally.
- The Longhorns have won the battle of the boards in 21 of their 23 games this season. Texas charted a season-high 61 rebounds on Jan. 4 at Kansas, which marked the seventh-most rebounds in a single game in program history.
- The Longhorns have gone over the 50-rebound mark in six games this season. In the last five games combined, Texas is averaging 37.0 rebounds per game.
- In Big 12 Conference play only, Texas holds a +8.6 edge on the boards, which ranks second in the league. The Longhorns are averaging 33.8 rebounds per game in Big 12 action.
- Last season, Texas either held or tied for the edge in the rebounding battle in 30 of 36 games last year.
- Three Texas players are averaging four or more rebounds per game, led by senior center Kelsey Lang's team-high 8.4 boards per game.

BALANCING ACT

- Staples of this year's Texas team have been depth and balance. In all but four games this season, three or more players have scored in double figures.
- The Longhorns have had seven different leading scorers in their 23 games this season with no player leading the team in scoring more than 10 times (Brooke McCarty).
- Texas has featured seven different leading rebounders in their 23 games this season with no player leading the team in rebounding more than 14 times (Kelsey Lang).
- The Longhorns have used five different starting lineups this season and nine different players have started for UT this year. Though, Texas has used its current starting five 18 times this season, including 14 consecutive games.

HOLMES A FRESHMAN-AND-A-HALF

- When recently asked by a reporter if she still considered star rookie Joyner Holmes to be a freshman, Texas head coach Karen Aston jokingly said she considered the 6-foot-3 wing player to be a "freshman-and-a-half."
- While it's evident that Holmes, a contender for Big 12 and National Freshman of the Year honors, is still developing, her numbers - especially as of late - have been eye-popping. She is a four-time Big 12 Freshman of the Week, including the past three weeks.
- On the season, Holmes is averaging 12.4 points per game and 7.8 rebounds per game with 29 blocks. Among Big 12 freshmen this season, Holmes ranks first in both scoring and rebounding. Holmes also leads all freshman in the Big 12 with six double-doubles this season.

CHANGE WILL DO YOU GOOD

• While Texas returned eight letterwinners and two starters off of last year's team, there was still an adjustment for many of the team's key players. That adjustment just happened to coincide with four meetings with top-11 opponents in the team's first six games this season.

• Of the Longhorns' current starting five - despite four of those players returning from last season - all had to adjust to a new position this season.

MCCARTY LEADING LONGHORNS

• Junior point guard Brooke McCarty has been a steady leader on the court for the Longhorns, averaging 14.2 points per game, shooting 46.8 percent from the field and knocking down 54 three-pointers. She has dished out a team-high 84 assists.

• In all games combined for the Longhorns, McCarty ranks 11th in the Big 12 in scoring, second in three-point percentage (.443) and second in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.5)

• McCarty is a Preseason All-Big 12 First-Team selection and was on the Preseason Watch List for the Nancy Lieberman Award, recognizing the nation's top point guard. Last season, she was a first-team All-Big 12 selection.

• McCarty is in her first season as the team's starting point guard, though she started the past two seasons at the shooting guard spot.

• McCarty has scored in double figures in 20 of her team's 23 games this season, including a season-high 22 points in Texas' win against No. 2 Baylor on Feb. 6 in Waco.

LANG FINISHING ON HIGH NOTE

• Senior center Kelsey Lang struggled in her first three games of the season before really finding her rhythm after the team's loss at Mississippi State.

• In her last 20 games combined, Lang is nearly averaging a double-double with 10.6 points per game, 9.0 rebounds per game and 2.5 blocked shots per game.

• Lang has seven double-doubles this season, and nine career double-doubles.

• Lang has played in 127 career games at Texas and needs to play in six more games to enter the school's all-time top-10 for career games played. She also ranks seventh in school history with 163 career blocks.

TEXAS SIGNEES NAMED McDONALD'S ALL-AMERICANS

• University of Texas women's basketball signees Rellah Boothe and Chasity Patterson have been selected to participate in the prestigious McDonald's All-American Game, slated for March 29 in Chicago, it was announced.

• Boothe and Patterson were both selected to the East Team roster.

• The 16th-annual McDonald's All-American Game will take place March 29 at the United Center in Chicago. The game will be televised by ESPNU and tip-off time is to be determined.

• Boothe and Patterson comprise the nation's No. 3 recruiting class, according to ESPN.com. Boothe is a 6-foot-3 forward from Ocala, Fla., and Patterson is a 5-foot-5 point guard from Houston, Texas. Earlier this week, both were named to the Naismith Trophy Midseason Team.

• Boothe and Patterson will be the ninth and 10th McDonald's All-Americans to play for head coach Karen Aston at Texas, who is in her fifth season leading the Longhorns. The UT roster currently features seven McDonald's All-Americans, which is tied for second-most on any roster in the nation during the 2016-17 season.

LANG ONE OF 30 CANDIDATES FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

• Texas senior Kelsey Lang one of 30 candidates nationally for the prestigious 2016-17 Senior CLASS Award.

• To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

- Lang is an economics major from The Woodlands, Texas, with a 3.5 grade point average. She is a three-time member of the Academic All-Big 12 Teams, earning rookie honors in 2014 and first-team accolades in each of the last two years. She is a five-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

HOLMES PRESEASON NATIONAL FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR BY COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS

- Texas freshman Joyner Holmes has been named the 2016-17 Preseason National Freshman of the Year by College Sports Madness.
- Holmes was the nation's No. 1 recruit in the class of 2016, according to the Blue Star Report and the No. 2 prospect in the espnW Hoop Gurlz Top 100. She was a 2016 McDonald's All-American and was named co-Most Valuable Player of the prestigious Jordan Brand Classic this past spring.
- Holmes averaged an impressive 24.8 points per game, 8.1 rebounds per game, 2.4 assists per game, 2.6 steals per game and 0.8 blocks per game as a high school senior in 2015-16. She charted 13 double-doubles in 35 games last year.

SUTTON BACK FROM ACL INJURY

- Freshman point guard Alecia Sutton was cleared for return to play on Thursday, October 13 following recovery from a left ACL tear during her senior season at Parkway North High School in St. Louis.
- Sutton, a 2016 McDonald's All-American, sustained her injury on December 27, 2015 when her high school team was competing in the 40th Visitation Christmas Tournament and underwent surgery on February 12, 2016. She missed the entire second half of her senior season of high school basketball. At the time of her injury, Sutton was averaging 14.3 points per game for Parkway North.

WNBA EXPERIENCE ON STAFF

- Texas has three former WNBA players on its staff in assistant coaches Jamie Carey and Tina Thompson, and coordinator of community engagement Fran Harris. The Longhorns are one of only six programs nationally to have two or more coaches who are former WNBA players.
- Texas and Penn State are the only two schools in the nation who have three people on their staff who played in the WNBA.

TEXAS SIGNS NATION'S NO. 3 RECRUITING CLASS

The University of Texas women's basketball team signed the nation's No. 3 recruiting class of 2017, according to espnW. It is the third consecutive top-six class for the Longhorns and head coach Karen Aston.

The class consists of 6-foot-3 forward Rellah Boothe, the nation's No. 3 overall player, and 5-foot-5 point guard Chasity Patterson, the nation's No. 4 overall player.

RECRUITING CLASS RANKINGS UNDER KAREN ASTON

2016-17	#3 (Boothe, Patterson)
2015-16	#4 (Holmes, Sutton, Underwood)
2014-15	#6 (Aborowa, Higgs, Hosey)
2013-14	#11 (Akigbogun, Atkins, McCarty)
2012-13	NR (Henderson, Jones, Lang, Taylor, Vander Zee)

IN THE RANKINGS

espnW	No. 3 overall; No. 1 forward
Blue Star Report	No. 2 overall; No. 1 forward
Prospects Nation	No. 4 overall; No. 1 forward

PATTERSON

espnW	No. 4 overall; No. 1 point guard
Blue Star Report	No. 5 overall; No. 1 point guard
Prospects Nation	No. 8 overall; No. 4 point guard

"Texas got two outstanding prospects. They got both front-court and back-court help with two of the elite prospects of the 2017 class. Virtually the best point guard in the country in Chasity Patterson stayed close to home. She is electrifying, explosive and, end-line to end-line, she is maybe the speediest player in the class of 2017. She is going to be a real crowd favorite. Rellah Boothe, on a pure athleticism, raw talent basis, could be the best player in the country. She has to put it all together, but she's got four years now to do that under Karen Aston. They are both just going to add to the depth that already exists at Texas once they start playing there."

RELLAH BOOTHE
NO. 3 OVERALL | NO. 1 FORWARD
OCALA, FLA. | IMG ACADEMY
6-3 | FORWARD
MCDONALD'S ALL-AMERICAN

Boothe, the nation's No. 3 overall recruit and the No. 1 prospect at the forward position, is a 6-foot-3 recruit out of IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla. Boothe is an Ocala, Fla., native who was named to USA Today's Preseason All-America Team.

Boothe is a versatile left-handed player who can excel at any of the five positions on the floor. Blue Star Report rated her as the No. 2 player in the class of 2017.

Last season as a junior at IMG Academy, Boothe was named a Naismith Trophy Third-Team All-American. She averaged 22.7 points per game, 8.5 rebounds per game and 1.6 steals per game. In a game against Fort Myers High School last year, Boothe scored 41 points and brought down 20 rebounds. She was named a USA Today All-USA Third Team selection and was named to the USA Today All-Florida First Team.

Boothe was a member of the gold medal-winning USA U18 team at the FIBA Americas Championship this past summer. In the championship game, Boothe set a Team USA tournament record for free-throw percentage, shooting 9-for-9 from the charity stripe.

Boothe played the first two seasons of her high school career at Potter's House Christian in Jacksonville, Fla. As a freshman, she averaged 19.1 points per game, 10.6 rebounds per game and 2.2 blocks per game, helping her team to a 32-6 overall record. As a sophomore, she posted averages of 20.7 points per game, 13.8 rebounds per game and 2.7 blocks per game, directing her team to a 38-5 record and the National Association of Christian Athletes national championship. In 2014-15, she was named a MaxPreps Fourth-Team All-American.

CHASITY PATTERSON
NO. 4 OVERALL | NO. 1 POINT GUARD
HOUSTON, TEXAS | NORTH SHORE
5-5 | POINT GUARD
MCDONALD'S ALL-AMERICAN

Patterson, the nation's No. 1 point guard prospect, is a 5-foot-5 recruit out of North Shore High School in Houston. She was named to USA Today's Preseason All-America Team.

Patterson enters her senior season at North Shore with more than 2,200 points in her prep career and has helped lead her team to a 96-12 (.889) record over the past three seasons. She is known for her floor leadership skills, her athleticism and her threat as a scorer.

As a junior in 2015-16, Patterson averaged 24.5 points per game, 5.4 steals per game and 4.8 assists per game. She was a Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-State selection and was the District 21-6A Most Valuable Player. Named to the All-Tournament Team of the state tournament, Patterson led her team to the state semifinals with a 36-2 overall record. She was named to the All-Greater Houston first team. In a game against West Brook on Jan. 26, 2016, Patterson impressively recorded a triple-double with 24 points, 12 assists and 11 steals.

As a sophomore, Patterson averaged 21.5 points per game, 4.1 steals per game and 3.9 assists per game. She was a District 21-6A first-team selection and led her team to the regional tournament. In her freshman season of 2013-14, she was named the District 21-6A Newcomer of the Year and a TABC All-State selection. Patterson averaged 15.7 points per game, 3.2 steals per game and 3.1 assists per game. Her squad tallied a 28-7 record and advanced to the regional quarterfinals.

PALO ALTO, Calif. -- Stanford junior guard Brittany McPhee posted a career-high 28 points to lead all-scorsers en route to No. 11/10 Stanford's win over No. 8/6 Texas inside Maples Pavilion on Monday night, 71-59.

Tonight marked Texas head coach Karen Aston's 300th career game as a head coach. Aston holds an all-time record of 190-110 (.635) in her 10th season at the helm of a collegiate program.

The Cardinal leads the all-times series over the Longhorns, 7-4, and picks up its first against Texas since the 2013-2014 season.

"They were the better team. We haven't executed things in practice the way we need to," said Aston. "We went through a stretch where we fouled too much, and we went through a stretch where we weren't helping each other defensively. We will get home and get to work because that's all we can do."

Junior guard Brooke McCarty led the Horns across the board, registering a team-high 20 points and five rebounds on the night. Junior guard Ariel Atkins joined her in the double-figures with 14 points, including a 3-of-6 effort from downtown, and a game-high four steals.

As a team, Texas shot 35.3 percent (24-of-68) from the field to Stanford's 54.9 shooting percentage (28-of-51). The Horns outrebounded the Cardinal, 38-32, and registered nine steals in the contest.

Stanford's McPhee capped off her record night with seven rebounds and two assists.

Texas held the early 9-8 edge headed into the first media timeout, but Stanford answered with a 9-4 rally to lead by four (17-13) with 48 seconds remaining in the quarter. The Horns wasted no time on offense with a quick three-pointer from sophomore guard Higgs, and a buzzer-beating tip-in from Atkins closed the first in favor of Texas, 18-17.

The Longhorns held onto their lead until the 5:23 mark of the game when a Cardinal tie tied the match at 24. Stanford gained momentum behind an 11-3 run to lead at the half, 35-29.

Atkins and McCarty found the sweet spot behind the arc to open the second half, cutting the margin to five (40-35 Stanford) at 8:20 mark of the third. The Cardinal extended their lead to double-digits (52-42), but another trey from McCarty and a layup from freshman guard/forward Joyner Holmes got the Horns within five once again. Stanford continued to find its strength in the paint and held the lead heading into the final stretch, 58-50.

An 8-0 Cardinal run was cut short by a three-point play from McCarty, but Stanford continued to convert in the paint. The Cardinal would outscore the Longhorns, 13-9, in the fourth to close the game with the 71-59 win.

Texas will host its first regular season game against the Houston Baptist Huskies inside the Erwin Center on Wednesday, Nov. 16. Tip is slated for 11 a.m. and the game will be carried live on Longhorn Network.

AUSTIN, Texas -- Freshman Joyner Holmes was one rebound shy of her first career double-double and led all scorers with 22 points and nine rebounds as the No. 8/10 Texas Women's Basketball toppled Houston Baptist, 98-46, in front of 6,378 fans inside the Frank Erwin Center on Wednesday.

With the win, the Longhorns move to 39-4 (.907) all-time in home openers and hold an unblemished 5-0 record under Texas head coach Karen Aston.

This was the first meeting between Texas and Houston Baptist in program history. The Horns lead the all-time series over Southland Conference foes, 36-9.

"I thought our team came out with a lot of energy," said Aston. "It was a difficult game for us to play this morning, honestly, because of the road trip and how late we got back. I was anxious to see how we would bounce back from a loss. I was pleased with the fact that we were focused and ready to play today."

Holmes's 22-point game came behind an 8-of-17 shooting effort (.471) from the floor. She also added three blocks and one assist. Junior Brooke McCarty followed suit with 16 points, including a 4-of-5 effort from downtown, and four assists.

Junior Ariel Atkins posted 11 points with three steals, while rookies Jada Underwood and Alecia Sutton rounded out the double-digit scorers with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Senior Kelsey Lang put up two points and two blocks for the game, moving her onto the Texas all-time top-10 list for career blocks with 112.

As a team, Texas shot 46.1 percent (35-of-76) from the floor while holding Houston Baptist to a 28.8 shooting percentage (15-of-52). The Horns dominated every category across the board, including double-figures in assists (18), blocks (10), and steals (11).

Houston Baptist was led by freshman Lauren Calver with 11 points.

Texas jumped out on a 19-3 run to open the game, but the Huskies found their strength from the three-point range, draining four treys in the first quarter, to try and chip away at the Longhorns lead. Early foul trouble proved problematic for HBU, and Texas went on to end the quarter, 28-17.

The Horns held HBU to only four points in the second stanza and used their quick hands to convert 11 points off turnovers. The 29-4 margin quickly widened the Texas lead heading into the locker rooms, 57-21.

The third quarter played to Texas's post advantage, and the Longhorns went on to claim 14 points inside the paint. Holmes put an exclamation point on the quarter with a buzzer-beating jumper to end the stanza, 81-31.

Texas took its largest lead of the night, a 56-point spread, after a three-pointer from Sutton with 6:55 remaining on the game clock. In the end, the Longhorns finished just two shy of the century mark with the 98-46 victory.

Up next on the slate, Texas will travel to Starkville, Miss. to take on No. 10/9 Mississippi State on Sunday, Nov. 20. Tip-off is set for 5 p.m. and the game will be carried on the SEC Network.

AUSTIN, Texas – Six Longhorns posted in double figures as No. 14/15 Texas Women's Basketball (2-2) downed Northwestern State (3-1) inside the Drum on Thanksgiving Eve, 86-39.

With the win, the Longhorns boast a perfect 5-0 record over the Lady Demons all-time. Texas holds a 47-9 (.839) record against members in the current alignment of the Southland Conference.

"I thought we played well," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "I thought we worked on some areas that we were deficient in against Mississippi State. We got a chance to play everybody and play a lot of young guys some minutes where we can have some teaching moments with them and continue to work on them."

Sophomore Lashann Higgs led the way for the Horns with 14 points, five rebounds, and five assists. Freshman Joyner Holmes and senior Kelsey Lang both notched 12 points while junior Ariel Atkins posted 11 points and a team-high four steals.

Junior Brooke McCarty and freshman Jada Underwood rounded out the double-digits with 10 points and two treys apiece.

As a team, Texas shot 57.1 percent from the floor (36-of-63) while holding Northwestern State to a 28.3 shooting percentage (13-of-46). The Longhorns grabbed up the stats across the board, outrebounding the Lady Demons 39-20 and swiping nine steals to Northwestern State's three.

NSU was led by senior Beatrice Attura with 15 points and five boards on the night.

Texas shot into action with an Atkins jumper and Taylor triple and headed into the media timeout with the 11-6 lead. From there, the Horns went on an 11-3 rally to end the first, 21-9.

After pushing out on an unanswered 22-point run, the Horns held the Lady Demons to only five points in the second stanza. A total of 10 Texas layups were complimented by three-pointers from McCarty and Underwood to send the Longhorns into the locker room with the 47-14 advantage.

A 24-10 margin lengthened the Texas lead in the third quarter. The Longhorns utilized their strength in the paint, handing Higgs back-to-back layups in the heart of the stanza and closing the quarter, 71-24.

All 15 points in the closing quarter came off the Texas bench, including a triple from Underwood and a block from sophomore Olamide Aborowa. The Lady Demons answered with an equal 15 points, but Texas clenched the game, 86-39.

Next, Texas will host No. 3/3 South Carolina in the SEC-Big 12 Challenge on Thursday, Dec. 1 inside the Erwin Center. Tip is slated for 6 p.m. and the game will be televised on ESPN2.

AUSTIN, Texas – Senior Kelsey Lang had a record evening, posting her second career double-double, as No. 14/15 Texas Women's Basketball (2-3) fell to No. 3/3 South Carolina (6-0) inside the Erwin Center on Thursday night, 76-67.

Texas leads the all-times series over South Carolina, 2-1.

"I was really, really proud of our team and how they attacked the game plan," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "Then you look at the stat sheet, and we did some things that we set out to do. We just didn't manage the foul game at all. I'm really encouraged by Kelsey because that's what we need from Kelsey Lang. She stepped up to the plate tonight, and if she continues to work like she has in practice and perform like she did tonight then I'm very encouraged about our future."

Lang's double-double came behind a season-high 15 points, including a 7-10 shooting effort from the floor, and 12 rebounds. The senior also registered a career-high six blocks.

Junior Ariel Atkins registered 14 points and a game-high four assists, and freshman Joyner Holmes put up 11 points and brought down four boards on the night.

As a team, Texas shot 41.2 percent (28-68) from the floor while South Carolina notched a 42.3 shooting percentage (22-52). The Longhorns outrebounded the Gamecocks, 40-37, and posted nine blocks to South Carolina's six.

South Carolina's junior A'ja Wilson paved the way for the Gamecocks with 31 points and 12 rebounds.

Texas maintained a slim advantage until the 1:23 mark of the first when a Gamecock layup squared things at 14. After junior Audrey-Ani Caron-Goudreau blocked one in the paint, sophomore Lashann Higgs managed to fire off a jumper to beat the clock, ending the first, 16-14 Longhorns.

South Carolina was able to capitalize off Texas foul trouble in the second stanza, converting nine points from the charity stripe. After tying things at the 8:34 mark, the Gamecocks pushed ahead to lead by as many as six points, but a junior Brooke McCarty three-pointer made it a one-possession game at the half in the Gamecocks favor, 33-30.

Texas continued to stay on pace with South Carolina in the third, and back-to-back baskets from Higgs tied it at 47 and got the crowd on its feet. Texas took the lead back at the 3:47 mark courtesy of a freshman Joyner Holmes layup, but the Gamecocks close on an 11-3 stretch to head into the final quarter with the 55-49 advantage.

A basket from Lang at the 7:33 mark of the fourth made it a one-possession game (60-57 South Carolina) headed into the final stretch, but the Gamecocks never let the Longhorns closer than that. South Carolina outscored Texas, 21-18, in the closing quarter to seal the game, 76-67.

Up next on the state, Texas will continue its challenging nonconferences schedule as it travels to Uncasville, Conn. to take on the No. 2/2 UConn Huskies. Tip inside the Mohegan Sun Arena is set for 3 p.m. CT, and the game will be broadcasted on ESPN.

AUSTIN, Texas – Five Longhorns scored in the double-figures as No. 17/17 Texas Women's Basketball (3-4) held off Tennessee (4-4) inside the Erwin Center on Sunday afternoon, 72-67.

Although Tennessee has the 23-15 edge over Texas in series history, this is the third consecutive meeting the Longhorns have won over the Lady Vols. Texas possesses a 144-72 (.667) record all-time against members of the Southeastern Conference.

"I think that this win is, first of all, much needed for our team," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "This was just a little bit of a preview of what our games might be like for a while, and that's not a bad thing. It was a good learning experience for our young players."

Junior Brooke McCarty posted 13 points, including two treys, along with four blocks and assists on the match. Freshman Jada Underwood joined her with 13 points of her own, good for her new career high.

Senior Kelsey Lang notched another impressive performance, just two shy of her third-straight double-double with 12 points and eight rebounds. Lang also tied her career-high with six blocks while adding two assists and one steal for the game in a career-high 40 minutes of play.

Freshman Joyner Holmes flirted with her first career double-double, registering 12 points and eight boards. Sophomore Lashann Higgs totaled 12 points, including a 5-of-10 effort from the field.

As a team, Texas shot 45.2 percent (28-of-62) from the floor while holding Tennessee to a 41.8 shooting percentage (28-of-67). Texas outrebounded the Lady Vols, 40-32, and has won the battle of the boards in all seven matches this season.

The Lady Vols were led by junior Jaime Nared with 22 points.

The Longhorns jumped out on an 11-2 run early in the game capped off by a tip-in from Holmes headed into the media timeout. Underwood knocked down the last four points for Texas to close the first stanza in the Horns' favor, 22-12.

Texas took its largest lead of the game at the 6:10 mark of the second quarter when a jumper from freshman Alecia Sutton put Texas on top by 15 (31-16). Tennessee slowly chipped into the Longhorn lead, converting three from downtown, to close the gap to five points headed into the locker rooms, 37-32 Texas.

The Lady Vols opened the second half on a 7-0 rally to take their first lead of the game (39-37) with 6:19 left in the third. From there, it remained a one-possession game, and a buzzer-beater from Higgs put Texas on top headed into the final stretch, 48-46.

After things evened at 52 with 7:36 remaining in the game, the Horns widened their edge to as many as eight (66-58) after a three-point play from Holmes. Tennessee continued to find its strength from behind the arc, knocking down three triples in just over a minute, to make it 70-67 Texas with 7.3 seconds on the game clock. Underwood put things on ice with two from the charity stripe to end the game, 72-67 Longhorns.

Up next, Texas will continue its homestand against UT Rio Grande Valley on Thursday, Dec. 15. Tip-off inside the Erwin Center is scheduled for 7 p.m. CT, and the game will be televised nationally on Longhorn Network.

AUSTIN, Texas – Freshman Joyner Holmes and Senior Kelsey Lang both registered double-doubles as No. 16/17 Texas Women's Basketball defeated UTRGV inside the Drum on Thursday night, 85-61.

The victory marks 500 all-time wins for Texas Women's Hoops inside the Erwin Center. The Longhorns hold a 500-96 (.839) record at home since the Erwin Center opened during the 1977-78 campaign.

This is the first time two Texas players have notched double-doubles in the same game since Imani Boyette and Nneka Enemkpani accomplished the feat against Kansas State on Jan. 26, 2013.

Texas holds a perfect 7-0 record over UTRGV in series history.

"It's always exciting to be part of a win that is historic," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "I'm happy I was the 500th in the Erwin Center, and it just means a whole lot of special basketball has gone on here for a whole lot of years, and we're really proud to be a part of that."

Holmes led the way for Texas with a game-high 16 points and career-high 13 rebounds. The freshman also totaled a career-high four assists and three blocks.

Lang picked up her third double-double of the season with 10 points and rebounds, respectively. She also added one block for the night, moving her in a tie for 8th place all-time on the Texas blocked shots list with Tracy Cook (1998-02).

Junior Brooke McCarty posted 14 points along with five boards and a game-high six assists. Freshman Jada Underwood rounded out the Longhorns in the double figures with 12 points, including a perfect 4-4 effort from both the field and the charity stripe.

As a team, Texas shot 53.2 percent (33-of-62) from the field while holding UTRGV to a 29.2 shooting percentage (21-72). The Longhorns outrebounded the Vaqueros, 50-35, and have not lost a battle of the boards yet this season.

UTRGV was led by senior Shawnte' Goff and sophomore Bernesha Peters with 12 points each.

The Horns opened on a 9-2 push to start the game, and consecutive McCarty to Holmes lay-ups made it 15-10 Texas at a UTRGV timeout with 6:08 remaining in the first. Texas closed with a sophomore Jordan Hosey jumper and six lay-ups to end the first quarter, 29-17.

It was a 17-15 battle with Texas narrowly holding the edge as the Vaqueros found all their points from downtown with five triples in the second stanza. McCarty knocked down her first trey of the game at the 2:51 mark, and the Longhorns headed into the half with the 46-32 lead.

The Horns held UTRGV to only eight points in the third quarter and took their largest lead of the night, a 33-point spread, with just under a minute remaining. Lang knocked down two from the line to close the third, 71-40 Texas.

The Vaqueros held the edge in the closing quarter, 21-14, but it wasn't enough as Texas went on to win the game, 85-61.

Coming up, the Longhorns have a quick turnaround as they host UTSA inside the Drum on Saturday night. Tip is set for 5 p.m. CT, and the game will be broadcasted on Longhorn Network.

AUSTIN, Texas – Senior Kelsey Lang picked up a new school record and her third straight double-doubles as No. 16/17 Texas Women's Basketball (6-4) took down New Orleans (4-5) inside the Erwin Center on Monday night, 80-48.

Lang's career-high 23 points set a new school record for the first player to make 11 shots in a single game with a perfect field goal percentage. The previous record for the most shots made with a perfect percentage was nine by Angela Jackson in the 1997-98 campaign.

Texas leads the all-time series over New Orleans, 2-0.

"I definitely thought that the team was ready to play," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "They paid attention to the things that we prepped for in this game, and I thought that we had some really good moments."

Lang also added 10 rebounds to put her in double-double territory and posted two blocks on the night. Junior Ariel Atkins totaled 15 points, including two three-pointers, and five rebounds.

Freshman Joyner Holmes brought down 10 boards along with three assists, and sophomore Lashann Higgs put up eight points and swiped a career-high five steals.

As a team, Texas shot 51.6 percent (33-64) from the floor, marking the third time this season the Longhorns have shot over 50 percent. New Orleans was held to a 30.4 (17-56) shooting percentage for the game.

New Orleans was led by senior Jewel Angelo with 17 points.

The Privateers managed to remain within striking distance of the Horns in the first quarter with Texas holding the 16-13 edge at the 3:38 mark. The Longhorns then fired off an 8-0 spurt to increase the lead to nine, but New Orleans captured the last two baskets of the stanza to make it 24-17 in favor of Texas.

Atkins knocked down the Horns' first trey of the game to open the second, and Texas continued to distance itself from the Privateers. Junior Brooke McCarty drained a signature triple, and two from the line from New Orleans sent the teams into the half, 43-28 Texas.

The Longhorns only allowed the Mountaineers two points in the third quarter coming from a lone jumper at the 3:52 mark. Junior Tasia Foman picked up two assists and converted a three-point play, and a layup from Higgs closed the quarter, 68-30 Texas.

The Privateers outscored the Longhorns in the final quarter, 18-12, but Texas captured the win, 80-48.

Texas will return to action on Thursday, Dec. 29 as it opens its conference schedule at home against Texas Tech. Tip inside the Erwin Center is set for 7 p.m. CT, and the game will be televised on Longhorn Network.

AUSTIN, Texas – Junior Brooke McCarty registered a team-high 16 points and freshman Joyner Holmes posted her second double-double as No. 16/16 Texas Women's Basketball (7-4, 1-0 Big 12) defeated Texas Tech (8-4, 0-1 Big 12) in the first conference game of the season inside the Erwin Center on Thursday night, 67-47.

With the win, Texas has captured the past three conference lid-lifters.

The Longhorns lead the all-time series over the Lady Raiders, 68-29, and hold a 33-7 edge at home.

"I'm just excited that Big 12 play started," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "I was really pleased with our team's effort. Not everything was perfect, and I don't think it's going to be, but I really thought that we executed a game plan and played hard."

McCarty complimented her 16 points with four rebounds and one assist, and Holmes's double-double came behind 10 points and rebounds. Senior Brianna Taylor rounded out the Longhorns in the double figures with 10 points, including a 5-7 effort from the field.

Senior Kelsey Lang and junior Ariel Atkins were just shy of their double-doubles. Lang posted eight points and tied her career-high with 13 rebounds, and Atkins posted nine points and eight boards along with a team-high three steals in the contest.

As a team, Texas shot 43.7 percent (31-71) from the field while holding Texas Tech to a 33.9 shooting percentage (19-56). The Horns outscored the Lady Raiders, 49-28, and has won every battle of the boards this season.

Texas Tech was led by sophomore Reece Caldwell with a game-high 24 points.

Texas darted off to a 16-4 lead to open the game at the 2:48 mark of the first, converting 12 points off layups. Texas Tech capped off the opening quarter with the next eight points, including two straight from downtown, to cut the margin to 16-12 Longhorns.

The Lady Raiders continued to nip at the Horns' heels, making it a one-possession game (20-17 Texas) after a jumper at the 4:46 mark of the second quarter. Atkins captured the next three buckets with midrange jumpers, and the Longhorns fired off the next ten points to lead at the half, 30-17.

Texas continued to drive ahead in the third, and a McCarty three forced a Texas Tech timeout at the 6:07 mark with the Horns holding the 43-22 edge. The teams continued to trade baskets, and a jumper from sophomore Lashann Higgs ended the third, 48-28 Longhorns.

It was an even 19-19 spread in the closing stanza with Texas Tech finding its strength once again from behind the arc. The Horns closed on an 8-0 stretch to take the game, 67-47.

Up next, Texas will play its first conference road game in Ames, Iowa on New Years Day as it takes on Iowa State. Tip inside the Hilton Coliseum is set for 12 p.m. CT and the game will be televised on FSN.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Junior Brooke McCarty registered a team-high 15 points as No. 15/17 Texas Women's Basketball (9-4, 3-0 Big 12 Conference) defeated Kansas (6-8, 0-3 Big 12 Conference) inside Allen Fieldhouse on Wednesday evening, 66-54.

With the win, Texas is off to its second straight 3-0 Big 12 start and fourth of program history. Texas leads the all-times series over Kansas, 23-10, and has captured the last nine meetings.

"We did what we had to do to win," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "We'll get home tomorrow, and we'll regroup and be ready for TCU on Saturday."

McCarty also added six rebounds and a team-high three assists on the night. Freshman Joyner Holmes posted 13 points and a team-high nine boards and three blocks while junior Ariel Atkins notched 12 points and five rebounds in the contest.

As a team, Texas shot 39.1 percent (25-64) from the field while holding Kansas to a 26.4 shooting percentage (19-72). The Longhorns outrebounded the Jayhawks, 61-35, marking the seventh most rebounds recorded in a single game in program history.

Kansas was led by redshirt junior Jessica Washington's double-double of 23 points and 10 rebounds.

Four straight layups from the Longhorns gave them the early 8-0 edge headed into the first timeout, but a 7-1 run from the Jayhawks lightened things to 10-7 Texas at the 2:09 mark. Junior Tasia Foman knocked down the only three of the opening quarter as the Horns closed on a 7-2 spread to lead at the end of the first, 17-9.

The Jayhawks outscored the Longhorns 21-18 in the second quarter, but Texas paced itself behind two three-pointers from McCarty to hold onto the lead. After two straight triples from Kansas, freshman Jada Underwood notched her first bucket of the night to close the half, 35-30 Texas.

The Longhorn offense took over in the third stanza, outscoring the Jayhawks 19-8. A Holmes layup put Texas up by double-digits (47-36) at the 2:35 mark, and four from Atkins closed out the quarter, 54-38 Horns.

Texas took its largest lead of the night (66-46) after a layup from sophomore Jordan Hosey with 4:11 remaining in the game. From there, both teams were scoreless from the field with Kansas bagging the last six points of the match from the charity stripe, but the Longhorns came away with the 66-54 win.

Coming up, Texas will return home as it hosts TCU on Saturday, Jan. 7. Tip-off inside the Erwin Center is set for 6 p.m. CT as Aston goes for her 200th career win. The game will be televised on Longhorn Network.

AUSTIN, Texas – Freshman Joyner Holmes led all scorers with 18 points as No. 15/17 Texas Women's Basketball (10-4, 0-0 Big 12 Conference) defeated TCU (8-7, 0-4 Big 12 Conference) inside the Erwin Center on Saturday night, 83-54.

The victory marked head coach Karen Aston's 200th career win as a head coach. She is one win away from 100 at the helm for the Longhorns with a 99-50 (.683) record.

Tonight also marked the largest margin of victory for the Longhorns in Big 12 play since Texas won by 37 at Kansas (75-38) on January 13, 2016.

Texas leads the all-times series over TCU, 39-2, and boasts a perfect 19-0 record inside the Drum.

"I was very pleased with the way we played tonight and our effort from start to finish," said Aston.

Along with her 18 points, Holmes added eight rebounds and two steals on her night. Junior Brooke McCarty totaled 16 points along with five boards and assists, while junior Ariel Atkins notched 14 points with a game-high four steals.

Senior Kelsey Lang brought down a career-high 14 boards coupled with six points and a game-high three blocks.

As a team, Texas shot 50.0 percent (34-68) from the field while holding TCU to a 29.8 shooting percentage (17-57). This is the fourth game this season the Horns have shot at or above the .500 mark.

The Longhorns outrebounded the Frogs, 49-30, and have won the battle of the boards in 13 of 14 contests this season.

TCU was led by junior Toree Thompson with 12 points.

Although never relinquishing the lead in the game, the Longhorns found themselves in a tight battle with the Frogs in the first quarter. TCU fought off a 14-8 Texas margin and ended the quarter with the first triple of the game, but Texas held the 16-13 edge.

The Longhorns only allowed eight points in the second quarter, taking their largest lead of the half (30-18) after a freshman Alecia Sutton jumper with 1:22 on the game clock. TCU knocked down a triple to slash into the deficit, but two from the line from freshman Jada Underwood sent Texas into the half, 32-21.

The Horns made it a 20-point game (43-23) after a McCarty trey at the 6:32 mark of the third quarter en route to a high-scoring stanza. Holmes accounted for eight of Texas's 24 points in the third quarter, and the Longhorns held the 56-34 advantage headed into the closer.

Texas continued to drive forward in the fourth quarter, taking its largest lead, a 32-point spread, after a Sutton jumper with 3:24 remaining in the contest (75-43 Horns). A layup from freshman Lashann Higgs sealed the deal for Texas, 83-54.

Next on the slate, Texas will host Oklahoma State on Tuesday, Jan. 10. Tip is set for 7 p.m. CT and the game will be televised nationally on Longhorn Network.

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. – Five Longhorns scored in the double-digits as No. 16/17 Texas Women's Basketball (12-4, 6-0 Big 12 Conference) triumphed over No. 18/19 West Virginia (14-4, 2-4 Big 12 Conference) inside the WVU Coliseum on Saturday afternoon, 73-63.

With the win, the Longhorns are off to their first 6-0 Big 12 start of program history.

Texas leads the all-times series over West Virginia, 7-5, and has captured the past four meetings.

"It was a terrific road win," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "This is a really tough place to play. I have to give this game to our bench. They made the real difference in the game."

Junior Ariel Atkins and freshman Joyner Holmes both registered a team-high 15 points on the game. Atkins' 15 points came behind a 6-of-7 effort from the field while also contributing a game-high three steals.

Junior Brooke McCarty totaled 11 points and three assists while sophomore Lashann Higgs added 10 points with four boards and two steals. In her 120th game in the Burnt Orange, Kelsey Lang rounded out the Horns in double figures with 10 points and a team-high eight rebounds.

As a team, Texas shot 50.0 percent (32-64) from the field, marking the second-straight game the Longhorns have shot at or above the .500 mark. West Virginia held a 45.1 shooting percentage (23-51) from the field and a 46.2 percent (6-13) mark from downtown.

West Virginia was led by junior Teana Muldrow with 22 points.

Texas found itself down 2-8 at the 5:40 mark of the opening quarter, but three consecutive layups from Lang tied things at 10. The Mountaineers extended their margin back to five, but the Horns trailed only by one after another Lang bucket closed the first, 17-16 WVU.

The Longhorns went off on a 12-0 run in the second quarter to take control of the lead for the first time in the game, holding West Virginia scoreless until one from the stripe made it 28-18 Texas at the 3:08 mark. It was back and forth from there, but the Horns maintained the 34-25 edge headed into the lockers.

The high-scoring third stanza was highlighted by a 9-0 Texas rally, six points of which came from Holmes, to lead 53-26 with 2:59 remaining in the quarter. The Mountaineers drained their fifth triple of the game to slash into the margin, but a freshman Alecia Sutton layup ended the third, 59-41 Texas.

The Longhorns held a 20-point spread (63-43) after an Atkins layup at the 9:03 mark, but West Virginia proved tenacious in the final quarter as it outscored Texas 22-14. The Mountaineer move was too little too late as the Horns took the game, 73-63.

Next, Texas will return home to host Oklahoma on Tuesday, Jan. 17. Tip inside the Erwin Center is set for 6 p.m. CT and the game will be carried live on FS1.

AUSTIN, Texas – Freshman Joyner Holmes picked up her third double-double of the season and senior Brianna Taylor tied two career highs as No. 12/14 Texas Women's Basketball (13-4, 7-0 Big 12 Conference) defeated No. 20/20 Oklahoma (14-5, 5-2 Big 12 Conference) inside the Erwin Center on Tuesday night, 86-68.

With the win, Texas extends its win streak to 11 games and is off to the best Big 12 start in program history.

Texas leads the all-times series over Oklahoma, 29-24, and has won five of the last seven meetings.

"It was a really competitive game from the tip," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "It was two competitive teams that really wanted to win, and we made some plays down the stretch and had some players make big buckets for us."

Holmes' double-double included 20 points and 10 rebounds. Taylor tied her career highs for both rebounds and assists with 11 and four, respectively, and brought down 10 boards in the first half alone.

Junior Ariel Atkins totaled 19 points on the evening behind a 9-13 effort from the field. She added four rebounds and a game-high three steals.

Junior Brooke McCarty posted four triples en route to 16 points, and sophomore Lashann Higgs put up 15 points and four rebounds to complete the Texas players in the double figures.

As a team, Texas shot 49.3 percent (34-69) from the field and 41.7 percent (5-12) from downtown. Oklahoma was limited to a 35.0 shooting percentage (21-60) on the game.

The Sooners were led by junior Vionise Pierre-Louis with 16 points and seven rebounds.

It was back and forth in the opening frame with neither team leading by more than four points. After the score tied three times, Texas utilized a 6-2 push to close the first quarter with the 23-19 edge.

The Longhorns continued to drive forward in the second stanza, but back-to-back Sooner treys closed the gap to 32-29 Texas at the 2:32 mark. The Horns responded with the next eight points, including a buzzer-beater from Higgs, to end the half with the 40-29 advantage.

Oklahoma held a perfect 8-for-8 mark from the charity stripe and outscored Texas 22-16 in the third. The Horns found their bright spot behind two more triples from McCarty and a huge block off the glass from Holmes to close the quarter, 56-51 Texas.

The Sooner offense held off two Texas advances in the fourth to make it a two-point game (66-64 UT) with 4:41 remaining in regulation. The Longhorns closed on a 20-4 stretch to clinch the game, 86-68.

Next on the slate, the Horns will travel to Lubbock, Texas to take on the Texas Tech Lady Raiders on Saturday, Jan. 21. Tip-off inside the United Supermarkets Arena is set for 6 p.m. CT. A live, subscription-based stream of the game will be available at TexasTech.TV. Fans can purchase a 24-hour pass for $6.95 to watch the game.

FORT WORTH, Texas – Junior Ariel Atkins led all scorers with 17 points as No. 12/13 Texas Women's Basketball (15-4, 9-0 Big 12 Conference) triumphed over TCU (10-10, 2-6 Big 12 Conference) inside the Schollmaier Arena on Wednesday night, 77-69.

Texas leads the all-times series over TCU, 40-2, and holds a 19-2 mark when the game is played in Fort Worth.

"Credit to TCU," Texas head coach Karen Aston said. "They challenged our discipline in a different way than they did in Austin. With the foul trouble, anytime you get in early foul trouble, it can mess up your rhythm. We've been in a pretty good flow as far as when we sub, in our roles coming of the bench, and it changed a little bit in the first half and I thought it threw us out of our comfort zone."

Atkins totaled 17 points behind a career-high tying three triples while also padding her stats with four rebounds and a game-high three steals. Freshman Joyner Holmes marked her third-straight double dip with 15 points and a game-high 14 boards.

Sophomore Lashann Higgs and junior Brooke McCarty both added 14 points on the evening to round out the Longhorns in the double figures. Senior Kelsey Lang registered eight points while bringing down a game-high five blocks.

As a team, Texas shot 47.1 percent (33-70) from the field and held TCU to a 33.3 shooting percentage (20-60). The Longhorns out-rebounded the Frogs, 41-36, and posted 17 assists to TCU's 6.

The Frogs were led by freshman Amber Ramirez with 15 points.

The Horns trailed the Frogs by one at the 4:46 mark of the opening stanza until an 8-0 spurt in a matter of 41 seconds gave Texas the 18-11 lead. It was an even spread from there, and McCarty layup capped the quarter, 24-18 Longhorns.

Four TCU triples paced the Frogs to a 16-13 scoring advantage over the Horns in the second quarter. Holmes led the way for Texas with eight points to close the half with the 37-34 margin.

It was a close third with Texas holding the narrow 50-49 edge with 1:47 left in the quarter. A 6-2 push ended by a Higgs jumper ended the stanza, 56-51 Texas.

Atkins proved to be the difference maker as she fired off seven-straight points to put the Longhorns up 67-60 headed into the final media timeout. TCU got to within four, but Texas was able to hold the Frogs advance off to claim the 77-69 win.

Next on the slate, Texas will return home to play host to No. 22/22 West Virginia on Sunday, Jan. 29 as part of Exes Weekend. Tip inside the Erwin Center is set for 3 p.m. CT and the game will be televised nationally by FS1.

AUSTIN, Texas – No. 12/13 Texas Women's Basketball (16-4, 10-0 Big 12 Conference) capped its first perfect January since 1989 as it pushed past No. 22/22 West Virginia (16-6, 4-6 Big 12 Conference) inside the Erwin Center on Sunday afternoon, 69-54.

The Longhorns are now on a 14-win streak and boast their best opening conference record in program history.

Texas leads the all-times series over West Virginia, 8-5, and holds a perfect 5-0 record when the game is played in Austin. Today's win marks the Longhorns' second-straight season sweep over the Mountaineers.

"Neither team would probably say it was the best executed game offensively," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "I think it had a lot to do with both teams playing competitively defensively. It was really just two tough, defensively minded teams."

Junior Brooke McCarty led all scorers with 15 points behind a 3-5 effort from downtown. She also tied her season high with six assists. Senior Kelsey Lang totaled 13 points and picked up game highs in both rebounds and blocks with eight and two, respectively.

Sophomore Lashann Higgs lifted the bench with 10 points and a team-high three steals.

As a team, Texas shot 47.3 percent (26-55) from the field while holding West Virginia to a 39.1 shooting percentage (18-46). The Horns out-rebounded the Mountaineers, 35-28, and dished out 15 assists.

West Virginia was led by senior Lanay Montgomery with 11 points.

WVU held the early 6-2 edge, but Texas managed to tie things at 10 after a spin-move jumper from Lang. Two straight buckets from Higgs put the Horns on top by four, but the Mountaineers knocked down a triple at the buzzer to cut the lead to 14-13 Texas.

A 5-0 West Virginia push put the Mountaineers on top again, but the Horns responded with a 7-0 spread of their own to take the 21-18 advantage at the media. Texas stayed in control to lead 30-26 at the half.

McCarty led the way for the Horns with seven points and her first triple of the game in the third quarter, but West Virginia used 66.7 shooting percentage (6-9) to make it a one-possession game at the end of the third, 48-45 Texas.

As steady as ever, McCarty knocked down consecutive threes within 41 seconds of each other to put the Longhorns on top by nine (54-45) at the 8:11 mark of the fourth. Texas held WVU scoreless for over five minutes and held the 21-9 scoring edge to narrow in on the 69-54 victory.

Coming up, Texas will travel to Stillwater, Okla. to match up against Oklahoma State on Wednesday, Feb. 1. Tip inside the Gallagher-Iba Arena is set for 7 p.m. CT and the game will be carried live on Fox Sports Oklahoma.

AUSTIN, Texas – In a match that came down to the wire, freshman Joyner Holmes posted a team-high 21 points as No. 12/13 Texas Women's Basketball (18-4, 12-0 Big 12 Conference) overcame Kansas State (17-7, 7-5 Big 12 Conference) inside the Erwin Center on Saturday evening, 63-58.

With the win, the Longhorns tie their program record for consecutive Big 12 Conference wins with 12. The last time Texas reached this mark was during the stretch between Jan. 29, 2003 to Jan. 10, 2004.

Texas leads the all-times series over Kansas State, 19-14, and has swept the last two season series.

"This was a really fought hard game," said Texas head coach Karen Aston. "I thought our players showed some resilience today."

Holmes also added nine rebounds and a game-high three steals.

Senior Kelsey Lang became the 41st player in program history to reach the 1000-point milestone. She was one shy of her double-dip for the night with 10 points and nine boards. Lang also posted a game-high five blocks, moving her into seventh place on UT's all-time career blocks list with 160.

Junior Brooke McCarty rounded out the Horns in the double-figures with 11 points while senior Brianna Taylor totaled a team-high three assists.

As a team, Texas shot 43.3 percent (25-60) from the floor while holding Kansas State to a 39.3 shooting percentage (22-56). The Longhorns dominated every category, including a 37-34 rebounding margin and 9-3 advantage in steals.

Kansas State was led by senior Kindred Wesemann with 21 points.

The Wildcats opened on a 6-0 spread, but the Longhorns regrouped with an 8-0 rally of their own to take their first lead at the 6:32 mark. Texas pushed its lead to as many as seven, but a KSU three-point play ended the stanza, 20-16 Horns.

The low-scoring second quarter included a nearly four-minute scoreless period, and a 10-7 Wildcat scoring advantage made it a narrow 27-26 ballgame in Texas' favor at the half.

Kansas State lifted the lid on the second half with the first eight points to regain control, 34-37, at the 8:23 mark. The Texas offense caught fire with a 14-0 run including eight-straight points from Holmes, and the Longhorns closed the third with the 44-38 lead.

The Wildcats found their strength from beyond the arc in the closer to make it a tie ball game at 57 with 2:54 remaining in regulation. Two layups from Holmes pushed the momentum in favor of Texas, and free throws ended the game, 63-58 Longhorns.

Coming up next, Texas will play No. 2/2 Baylor in Waco, Texas on Monday, Feb. 6. Tip inside the Ferrell Center is set for 7 p.m. and the game will be carried live on FS1.

WACO, Texas – Junior Brooke McCarty totaled a season-high 22 points and freshman Joyner Holmes posted her sixth double-dip of the season as No. 11/13 Texas Women's Basketball (19-4, 13-0 Big 12 Conference) broke No. 2/2 Baylor's (23-2, 12-1 Big 12 Conference) 21-game winning streak and handed the Lady Bears their first inside the Ferrell Center in nearly three years on Monday night, 85-79.

With the win, Texas snaps its 14-game losing streak to Baylor. The game also marked the Horns' first win over BU since March 7, 2010 and the first ever for Texas head coach Karen Aston.

The Longhorns now boast the second-best active win streak in the NCAA with 17 and hold a perfect 13-0 record in Big 12 Conference play for the first time in program history.

Texas leads the all-times series over Baylor, 58-35.

"This was a really good basketball game," said Aston. "You saw tonight how good the Big 12 was. I'm really proud of our players. I thought they were tough tonight."

McCarty's 22-point night came from a 9-14 effort from the field and made her the 42nd member of the Texas 1,000-point club. She padded her stats with five rebounds and four assists.

Holmes' double-double was the result of 18 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. She also added two assists, blocks, and steals on the night.

Junior Ariel Atkins notched 20 points with three rebounds, and sophomore Lashann Higgs rounded out the Longhorns in double-digits with a season-high 16 points.

As a team, Texas shot 51.6 percent (33-64) from the field while holding Baylor to a 43.9 shooting percentage (29-66). The Longhorns outbonded the Lady Bears, 38-37, and swiped six steals to BU's two.

Baylor was led by sophomore Kalani Brown with 24 points.

McCarty got things firing for Texas on all cylinders with 10 points in the first quarter. After a Baylor free throw got the Lady Bears within four, the junior fired off a triple from way downtown to beat the buzzer and give Texas the 23-16 lead.

Texas shot 73.3 percent (11-15) in the second quarter. Equal 12-point performances from Atkins, Holmes, and McCarty sent the Longhorns into the locker room with the 47-35 edge at the half.

The Horns took their largest lead of the game, a 16-point spread, after a McCarty jumper at the 7:50 mark of the third. Texas kept its edge in double-figures with strong paint play accounting for 12 of its 19 points to end the quarter, 67-54.

The Baylor offense wasn't done yet, pushing out on a 25-5 charge to tie things at 76 with 1:28 remaining in regulation. Holmes captured the next four straight points, and senior Brianna Taylor took a charge that ignited the flame in Texas. Baylor knocked down a triple in the final seconds, but a Taylor layup with four seconds on the clock handed the Longhorns their first win over BU since 2010, 85-79.

Next on the schedule, Texas will return home to host Kansas on Saturday, Feb. 11. Tip inside the Erwin Center is set for 1:30 p.m. and the game will be carried live on Longhorn Network.
