Texas Track & Field returns to action this weekend as the Longhorns host the Texas Invitational. Action is set to take place over two days at Mike A. Myers Stadium beginning on Friday afternoon. This year's Texas Invitational brings student-athletes from across the country with a heavy dose of other teams from the Lone Star State.

The meet will include a number of ranked teams with Kentucky bringing its No. 3-ranked women's team. Texas enters the week ranked in the Top 10 on both the men's and women's side. Other ranked teams competing at the Texas Invitational are: Auburn Men (19), Auburn Women (25) and Kentucky Men (23).

Action starts at 2 p.m. Friday with eight field events taking place. The evening will conclude Friday with running of the 5,000 meters and a 3,000 meter steeplechase. Saturday's schedule starts at 10 a.m. with field events and running events fire off at 10:45. The meet is anticipated to finish at approximately 3:30 p.m. with the 4x400 relays.

Admission to the meet is free. Live results from the meet will be provided online via PTTiming.com. Fans can also get updates on the events through social media by following the team's official Twitter feed @TexasTFXC.

TEXAS TRACK & FIELD NOTEBOOK

Bruckner Breaks School Record

- Freshman Elena Bruckner came to Texas as the No. 1 throwing recruit in the nation and showed her potential at the 90th Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays by taking down the school record in the discus.
- Bruckner muscled the disc out to a distance of 54.64 meters (179-4) on her second attempt to better the previous record of 177-7.
- The discus record, set by Laura Messner in 1981, was the oldest women's school record still standing. Messner set her mark at Texas Relays as well. Now the oldest women's school record is the 1500m and triple jump, but set in 1986. The oldest overall record is the men's 3000m steeplechase set back in 1984.

Burton Continues to Roll

- Freshman hurdler Rushelle Burton won silver at the 2016 IAAF World Junior Championships for Jamaica and has been posting fast times in her first year as a Longhorn.
- Burton crossed the line at the Texas Relays in 12.80 seconds to take second place in the 100m hurdles. That time ranks her fifth in school history and currently puts her at No. 4 in the NCAA this season.
- Burton trails only UTEP's Tobi Amusan, who bested her at Texas Relays, defending NCAA champion Jasmine Camacho-Quinn of Kentucky and Oregon's Alaysha Johnson.
- Burton will face Camacho-Quinn this week at the Texas Invitational. The last time they met, Burton got the best with a 5th-place finish at the NCAA indoor championship compared to Camacho-Quinn's 7th.
- So far this outdoor season, Burton has also played a key role in UT's 4x100m relay team. She ran anchor at both the Victor Lopez Classic and Texas Relays. The Longhorns currently rank 8th in the NCAA this year.

Future Longhorn Wows Crowd at Texas Relays

- Incoming freshman Sam Worley showed what the future could look like for the mid-distance program at Texas as the high school senior grabbed a victory in the Jerry Thompson Men's Mile at the 90th Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays.
- Worley bested a few of his future teammates and Lifetime Longhorn Leo Manzano with an amazing time of 4:00.61 to narrowly miss becoming just the 10th American high school runner to clock a sub-4 minute mile. Instead, Worley ranks No. 11 all-time in U.S. history with his mark.

Standard Bearers

- No school holds more current collegiate records than the Texas Longhorns. The men and women combine to hold a total of 7 collegiate records in NCAA championship events half way into the end of the 2017 outdoor season. The nearest competitor is Texas A&M with 6. Oregon and Arkansas each hold 5 records. Colorado and LSU have 4, and all of Colorado's records are held by a single athlete.
- Two of UT's records were set during the 2016 campaign. Ryan Crouser tied the indoor collegiate record in the shot put at the Big 12 Indoor Championships. Courtney Okolo already owned the collegiate record in the outdoor 400 meters, but she cut .32 off her time running 49.71 seconds at the LSU Alumni Gold in April.

Mahler Among Best in Texas History

- Redshirt junior Wolf Mahler put together the best 2 days of his career at the 90th Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays as he

EVENTS TO WATCH

TEXAS INVITATIONAL

WOMEN'S 100M HURDLES

This event will feature 2 of the top hurdlers in the NCAA as UT's Rushelle Burton takes on Kentucky's Jasmine Camacho-Quinn. Burton currently ranks No. 4 on the NCAA list with a time of 12.80 seconds. Camacho-Quinn is No. 2 at 12.69. Burton finished 5th at the NCAA Indoor Championships in the 60m hurdles with the Kentucky runner taking 7th. Camacho-Quinn is the defending NCAA champion outdoors in this event and represented Puerto Rico last summer at the Olympic Games in Rio.

MEN'S 110M HURDLES

The men's hurdles will also be an event loaded with top talent. Spencer Dunkerley-Offor of Texas faces Kentucky's Nick Anderson and Daniel Roberts. Both rank in the top 20 in the NCAA this season. Auburn's Wellington Zaza also is in the top 20 to make this a strong field on Saturday.

WOMEN'S 100M

With 4 runners ranked in the top 16 of the USTFCCCA Rankings, this event features lots of speed. Sophomore Teahna Daniels makes her season debut in the event and will see a trio of Kentucky runners who have all run 11.40 or faster this year.

MEN'S 100M

Senior Senoj-Jay Givans makes his outdoor season debut and will be running his primary individual event. Givans became the first Longhorn to run a wind-legal sub-10 in the 100 meters. He is ranked No. 1 in the event according to USTFCCCA.

MEN'S 400M HURDLES

Olympian Byron Robinson is in the field and is expected to go up against Michigan's Taylor McLaughlin, who finished 5th at the NCAA Championships last year.

WOMEN'S SHOT PUT

Lifetime Longhorn Michelle Carter will step in the circle on Saturday afternoon to throw the shot put. Carter won gold at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games, becoming the first American woman to win the event in Olympic history. She also is the American record holder in the shot put and has been the top thrower in the U.S. over the last 9 years.

CONGRATS TO 2016 BOWERMAN WINNER COURTNEY OKOLO!

finished 3rd in the decathlon with a total of 7,897 points.

- Mahler posted personal records in nearly every event, including an impressive 4 PRs in the high jump alone to catapult himself to No. 4 in school history with his point total.
- He stands No. 6 in the NCAA this season and is knocking on the door of joining the 8000-point club.

Robinson Debuts in Primary Event

- Olympian Byron Robinson made his season debut in his primary event at the Texas Relays, clocking 51.21 seconds to advance to the final of the men's 400 meter hurdles.
- In the final Robinson ran 49.93 seconds to finish in second place and stand 6th on the descending order list this season.

Long Posts PR in Outdoor Debut

- In her first outdoor meet of the season, All-American Kally Long set a new outdoor personal record at the Texas Relays with a clearance of 4.40m (14-5.25).
- Long almost tied the school record, being knocked out of the competition at 4.50m. Her 3rd attempt saw her get hip clearance over the bar but she brushed it and it fell for her final miss.
- She currently leads the Big 12 in her event outdoors and ranks No. 5 in the NCAA.
- 5 of the top 10 marks in the country came from the Texas Relays.

Steeplechasers Making Impact

- Redshirt freshman John Rice posted a victory for the Longhorns in the men's steeplechase at the Texas Relays.
- He ran his first race over the barriers since high school and clocked in at 9:04.30 while holding off a late charge from the competition. His time is No. 3 in the Big 12 this season.
- Sophomore Meghan Lloyd flirted with breaking the school record in the women's 3,000 meter steeplechase during Texas Relays by shattering her previous PR.
- Lloyd ran 10:30.17 to finish second and miss the record by less than four seconds. Her time puts her just outside the top 30 in the NCAA and is 3rd in the Big 12.

Triple Jumpers Fly at Texas Relays

- Freshman O'Brien Wasome found himself in a tight battle in the men's triple jump during Texas Relays with 5 of the top 10 marks in the NCAA this season coming out of that competition.
- Wasome leapt an impressive 16.31m (53-6.25) for a new personal best. That mark also ranks 6th in school history.
- Wasome finished 4th in the meet and currently stands at No. 2 in the NCAA behind Baylor's Felix Obi. He is tied with NCAA indoor champion KeAndre Bates of Florida at 16.31m.
- Moving up the conference rankings for women was redshirt freshman Georgia Wahl as she put together her best performance as a Longhorn.
- Wahl leapt 12.77 meters (41-10.75) in the B section of the women's triple jump to finish in fifth place. Her mark was wind-aided and does not count toward official records, but it does move her into 4th on the Big 12 list this season. She also is now in the top 30 at the national level.

Hurdlers Roll at Victor Lopez Classic

- Texas hurdlers put on a show for the fans in Houston last month with the Longhorns winning the women's 100 meter

BEVO BREAKTHROUGH PERFORMANCE OF THE WEEK

This season the coaching staff is recognizing one Longhorn every week who goes above and beyond in competition and wears Burnt Orange with pride while representing Texas with the BEVO Breakthrough Performance of the Week.

Last week's winner was freshman thrower Elena Bruckner. She won the discus and took 4th in the shot put at the 90th Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays. Bruckner broke the school record in the distance, the oldest school record standing since 1981. Bruckner also wowed the crowd singing The National Anthem prior to the start of Friday's festivities at the meet. Bruckner ranks No. 2 in the Big 12 in both events.

hurdles, men's 110 meter hurdles and women's 400 meter hurdles. All with some of the top times in the nation.

- Freshman Rushelle Burton showed why she was one of the top high school runners in the world last year, clocking 13.12 seconds to win and post the No. 3 time in the NCAA at the time in the 100 meter hurdles.
- Redshirt junior Spencer Dunkerley-Offor followed suit by winning the men's 110 hurdles with a blazing time of 13.86 seconds. That time put him No. 2 in the NCAA list to-date in the season.
- Junior Ariel Jones ran her first 400 meter hurdle race of the season and got a win in her hometown. Jones clocked 58.29. Sophomore Mariam Abdul-Rashid ran right with Jones in second place and a time of 58.41. The pair still stands in the top 20 in the NCAA so far this season.

Golden Shines in Houston

- Sophomore Zola Golden grabbed 3 wins at the Victor Lopez Classic besting the field in the 100m, 200m and 4x100m.
- Golden clocked a new personal best time 11.71 seconds despite slowing down early in the 100.
- She finished the 200 in 23.26 seconds, which still ranks 32nd in the NCAA this season.
- Golden also ran the 3rd leg of the victorious 4x100 relay, which clocked 44.64.

Bruckner Sweeps Throws Events at Rice

- Freshman Elena Bruckner continued her early success as a Longhorn with a pair of victories at the Victor Lopez Classic. She posted a new season best mark in the shot put at 16.53m (54-4.25).
- Her shot put mark ranks her No. 20 in the NCAA so far this season and No. 5 in school history.
- She was not even scheduled to compete in the shot put until minutes before warmups started.
- Bruckner won the discus with a distance of 50.70m (166-4).

Caldwell Breaks School Record Twice

- Junior Lauryn Caldwell broke her own school record in the hammer throw twice to open the outdoor season.
- Caldwell finished 5th at the UTSA Invitational with a final mark of 55.42m (181-10). She improved her previous record by nearly 5 feet.

Crouser Dominates in Javelin Debut

- Junior transfer Haley Crouser posted her first win as a Longhorn when she crushed the field in the javelin at the UTSA Invitational to open the outdoor season.
- Crouser posted a throw of 51.41m (168-8) to set a new meet record and defeat the field by more than 50 feet.
- Her throw ranks her 8th on the NCAA list so far this season.

Bruckner Breaks Meet Record

- Freshman Elena Bruckner wasted no time making her presence known in her primary event as she broke the meet record in the discus at the UTSA Invitational.
- Bruckner tallied a distance of 52.83m (173-4) to win by just 1 cm over Purdue's Micaela Hazlewood. The throw ranks Bruckner 5th on the all-time list at Texas as she eyes the school record.

Peterson Opens Outdoor with Victory

- Redshirt sophomore Brian Peterson made it a clean sweep for the Longhorns in the discus at the UTSA Invitational to open the season.
- He got his victory with a throw of 52.15m (171-1) to also set a new meet record, bringing the total for the Longhorns to 3 meet records at the UTSA Invitational.

Wasome Joins Group of Elite Freshman

- Triple jumper O'Brien Wasome finished 3rd at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a leap of 16.49m (54-1.25). It was the best finish by a Longhorn in the event since Chris Hercules finished 2nd in 2001.
- The distance of 16.49m puts Wasome among the best freshmen in NCAA history. He is now 1 of 6 freshman to hit the 16.40m mark indoors in the triple jump, joining Christian Taylor (Florida), Will Claye (Oklahoma), Clayton Brown (Florida), Bryce Lamb (Texas Tech) and KeAndre Bates (Florida).
- It is elite company that has gone on to do well on the international stage as Taylor has won back-to-back gold medals at the Olympic Games with Claye taking silver at both the London and Rio Olympic Games behind Taylor.

McCarter Makes Mark at NCAA Indoor

- Sophomore Steffin McCarter proved to be an emerging elite jumper for the Longhorns with his 3rd-place finish in the long jump the NCAA Indoor Championships.
- McCarter's distance of 7.83m (25-8.25) made him the first Longhorn to finish in the top eight since Marquise Goodwin took 3rd place in 2012 and 2011.

Givans Grabs Fourth Place

- Senior Senoj-Jay Givans clocked his fastest time of the season during the final of the 60 meters at the NCAA Indoor Championship to finish in 4th place.
- Givans ran 6.59 seconds to tie his mark from the Big 12 Championship and register his best finish at the indoor championship meet.
- Givans became the first man to win the Big 12 title in the 60 meters three times.

Long Returns from Injury

- Junior Kally Long is set to return to competition this week at the NCAA Championships in the pole vault after an injury suffered during competition on Feb. 11 at the Husky Classic.
- Long told reporters this week she missed landing in the pit on an attempt, landing on the ground and poked a hole in her lung. Due to the air escaping her lung into her body, she was unable to travel because of pressure changes and spent a week in the hospital in Seattle before returning to Austin.
- Long also had a displaced rib from the incident that prevented her from competing at the Big 12 Championship.
- After getting a clean bill of health and being cleared to compete, Long is ready for NCAA Championships this week and had practice last Friday in her first jumping session since the injury.
- In practice this week, Long said she is right back where she left off before the injury.

Petty Earns All-America in NCAA Debut

- Junior Shay Petty joined teammate Kally Long in the pole vault at the NCAA Indoor Championships and came away with a 10th-place finish.
- Her clearance of 4.20m (13-9.25) on her second attempt gave her second-team All-America honors in her first NCAA Championship experience. If she had cleared on her first attempt, Petty would have tied for 7th place and been a first-team member in her debut.
- With Petty and Long both in the competition, Texas joined Arkansas as the only teams with multiple women's pole vaulters to qualify for the NCAA Indoor Championships.

Longhorns win Men's Big 12 Championship

- Texas claimed its 8th men's title at the Big 12 Indoor Championship this year. The men scored a total of 123.5 points en route to their victory.
- The Longhorns won 3 events: 60m, Heptathlon, 4x400m Relay.
- Senior Senoj-Jay Givans won his 3rd title in the 60m clocking in at 6.59 seconds.
- Texas scored big in the heptathlon finishing 1-2-3 and grabbing 24 team points.
- It marked the 8th time Texas has won the heptathlon. Kansas State is closest behind with 5 titles in the event.
- The win in the 4x400m Relay ensured the team title and was the 2nd win for the Longhorns in that event.
- Texas had a complete team effort in the win, scoring points in all but 3 of the 19 events.

Texas Rakes in Big 12 Awards

- The Longhorns had a strong showing at the Big 12 Indoor Championship for both the men and women that resulted in Texas winning 3 of the 6 conference's postseason awards.
- Head Coach Mario Sategna was named the Men's Head Coach of the Year by his peers for the 2nd time.
- Senior Senoj-Jay Givans earned the Men's Outstanding Performer of the Year. He won the 60m while also taking 3rd in the 200m and running on the winning 4x400 to secure the team title. He tallied a total of 18.5 points for the team.
- Freshman Rushelle Burton won the Women's Outstanding Freshman of the Year after she was the only freshman to win an individual event. Burton ran 8.03 seconds in the hurdle prelims and won with a time of 8.09 in the final.

Women Dominate Big 12 Sprints

- Texas won 3 of the 4 individual sprint events at the Big 12 Championships: Teahna Daniels 60m; Rushelle Burton 60m Hurdles, Chrisann Gordon 400m
- 58 of the team's 100 points came from the 4 sprint events.
- The women tallied 21 points in the 60m hurdles finishing 1-2-6 in the final with Burton joined by Ariel Jones and Mariam Abdul-Rashid
- Texas got a 1-2 finish in the 400m with Gordon and Zola Golden.
- Daniels also finished 3rd in the 200m with Golden taking 6th.
