Texas Track & Field has swept the Big 12 Outdoor Championship the last two years, and the Longhorns begin their quest for a three-peat on Friday. This year's conference championship meet is set to run Friday through Sunday from Rock Chalk Park in Lawrence, Kansas.

This year's Big 12 Championship will again feature some of the top teams in the nation with four men's teams ranked in the Top 15 by the USTFCCA and three women's teams ranked No. 12 or better. Texas comes in as the only Big 12 school with both teams ranked in the Top 10. The conference also boasts some of the elite individuals in the nation with 25 individuals ranking in the top 5 in the NCAA this season in their respective events, including four holding the No. 1 mark of the outdoor season.

Texas claims a pair of those No. 1 rankings with senior Chrisann Gordon in the 400 meters and freshman Rushelle Burton in the 100 meter hurdles. They hope to help lead the women's team to its fourth consecutive Big 12 championship while the men eye their third straight.

"We have a lot of veterans returning from last year's squad, but at the same time, anytime you win a team championship, it's going to take a complete team," said Head Coach Mario Sategna. "We have some youngsters that I think had a great learning experience for them at the indoor conference meet. For the outdoor, as long as we go out there and do the things we've been doing this entire outdoor season we're going to be in good shape."

The Texas men rank No. 10 in the nation heading into the meet and will see strong competition from fellow ranked teams in No. 3 Texas Tech, No. 13 Baylor, No. 14 Kansas and No. 24 Oklahoma State. The Longhorn women stand at No. 9 and will get their toughest push from Big 12 indoor champion Baylor, ranked No. 11, and No. 12 Kansas State.

Action is set to start from Rock Chalk Park at 11 a.m. Friday with the decathlon and heptathlon opening the meet. Friday will also see finals for the hammer throw and javelin, with the only running event on Day 1 being the 10,000 meters to close the evening. Combined Events are slated to begin Day 2 at 10 a.m. Saturday, and field event finals scheduled are men's and women's long jump and shot put along with men's high jump and women's pole vault. Running event prelims start at 4 p.m. Saturday and close with the final of the 3,000 meter steeplechase. Sunday's final day of competition starts at 2:30 p.m. with the remaining six field events. Running events fire off at 5 p.m.

A win by the Texas women would be their fourth straight and give them every Big 12 outdoor title since Coach Sategna took over the combined program.

EVENTS TO WATCH

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

• WOMEN'S 400M

Texas has dominated this event with 10 wins in the Big 12's history. No other team has more than 4. Senior Chrisann Gordon and sophomore Zola Golden currently rank 1-2 in the conference and 1-8 in the NCAA this season. They will look to keep the team's run of 3 consecutive 400m titles going.

• MEN'S 200M

Senior Aldrich Bailey Jr. ran a wind-aided 19.99 his last time on the track in the 200m. He is the defending champion in this event and was last year's Big 12 High Point Scorer at this meet. There have been 4 back-to-back winners of that award.

• MEN'S POLE VAULT

A battle between Texas and Kansas to see who is best in Big 12 history awaits this event. Both teams have had 5 champions in Men's Pole Vault, and the Top 5 ranked vaulters in the conference are Longhorns and Jayhawks.

• WOMEN'S 100M/200M

Texas has won these sprint events for 3 straight years. Sophomore Teahna Daniels hopes to keep that streak alive. She currently ranks No. 1 in the Big 12 in the 100m and is No. 3 in the 200m.

• MEN'S DECATHLON

Texas has seen great success in this event over the years. With senior Wolf Mahler solidly qualified for the NCAA Championships at No. 7 in the nation, can junior Steele Wasik and freshman George Patrick post scores to qualify as well and give the Longhorns a trio in the event at Hayward Field in June?

• WOMEN'S 400M HURDLES

Junior Ariel Jones goes for her 3rd consecutive win in this event. Texas has dominated this event with 12 total wins in 20 years. Only Texas legend Raasin McIntosh has won this event 3 times in their career.

• WOMEN'S JAVELIN

Junior Haley Crouser currently ranks No. 1 in the Big 12 in an event the Longhorns have never won a Big 12 women's title in.

• WOMEN'S 5000M

Senior Sandie Raines is the back-to-back defending champion in this event. She looks to become the first woman in Big 12 history to win 3 titles in the 5000m. She will face strong competition in elite runners from Baylor, Kansas and TCU.

• MEN'S 4X400M RELAY

With a tight team battle expected on the men's side for the team title, it could come down to the final event to crown a champion. The Longhorns, Texas Tech and Baylor all rank among the nation's best this season, and Texas has never won a Big 12 title in the men's 4x400m.

• MEN'S 100M

Senior Senoj-Jay Givans looks to close his career with his first Big 12 title in this event. He ran sub-10 last year at the NCAA Championships and has proven to be the top sprinter in the conference indoors with 3 titles in the 60m.

• MEN'S 400M HURDLES

Senior Byron Robinson finished 9th at the 2016 Olympics in this event and is the defending Big 12 champion.

Throwers Take Momentum into Big 12's

- Freshman Elena Bruckner got another win in the shot put at the Longhorn Invitational to close the regular season.
- Bruckner posted a new PR of 16.67m (54-8.25) to move to No. 2 in the Big 12 while defeating the No. 14-ranked thrower in the nation.
- Junior Haley Crouser continued her dominance in the javelin with a win at 50.51m (165-8).
- She currently leads the conference in the event and looks to win the first Big 12 title in women's javelin for Texas.
- Junior Lauryn Caldwell also posted a personal best in the shot put.
- She finished 4th with her mark of 15.28m (50-1.75)
- Bruckner and Caldwell are both threats to score in 3 different throwing events. They each rank No. 9 or better in the shot put, discus and hammer throw.

Distance Runners Grab Wins to Close Regular Season

- Freshman Destiny Collins got the first win of her collegiate career at the Longhorn Invitational.
- In windy conditions she crossed first in the 3000m
- Sophomore Charles Mills got a win for the men in the 1,500 meters with a time of 3:56.57 facing those stiff winds.

Lloyd Breaks School Record

- Sophomore Meghan Lloyd broke her first school record as she became the fastest Longhorn in the steeplechase at the Cardinal Classic, clocking in at 10:20.37.
- Lloyd bests the previous school record of 10:26.90 set by Brittany Marches in 2014, also set at a meet hosted by Stanford.
- Lloyd shattered the previous record by more than six seconds and is now the Big 12 leader in the event this season.

Gordon, Robinson Sweep Big 12 Awards

- Texas claimed both the men's and women's Big 12 Track & Field Athlete of the Week awards on Wednesday as the conference announced Chrisann Gordon and Byron Robinson as this week's winners.
- Gordon, a senior from Jamaica, threw down the fastest time in the nation last weekend to win the 400 meters at the LSU Alumni Gold. Her time of 50.64 seconds establishes her as the No. 1 runner in the NCAA with just a few weeks left in the regular season. With that time, Gordon shattered her previous personal best by nearly half a second and she is now the No. 4 performer in school history.
- Gordon's time also puts her at No. 3 on the world list so far in 2017 and she is .34 of a second ahead of No. 2 on the NCAA list.
- Robinson ran his fastest time of the season in the 400 meter hurdles at the LSU Alumni Gold, clocking in at 49.55 seconds. He finished second behind a post-collegiate runner and now stands at No. 2 on the NCAA descending order list.
- His time was not far off his mark from a year ago when he ran the No. 1 time in the NCAA all season in 2016 at the LSU meet. Robinson also ran the anchor leg of the winning 4x400m relay that finished in 3:05.59. That time puts the Longhorns at No. 12 in the NCAA so far this season.

Rogers Makes Statement in 1500m

- Sophomore Alex Rogers did not get the win in the invitational section of the 1,500 meters at the Cardinal Classic, but he made a big statement with his time of 3:40.85 as he went toe-to-toe with a pair of All-Americans, including Big 12 champ Craig Nowak from Oklahoma State.
- Rogers finished third with Colorado's Ben Saarel clocking 3:40.24 and Nowak at 3:40.41.
- His time puts him at No. 6 in the NCAA this season and the No. 3 performer in school history ahead of Kyle Merber.
