USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO COVERAGE

Any accredited media entity collecting "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/postgame interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage (see note below regarding policy on game video on web), or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. That three (3)-minute package may contain no more than two (2) minutes of game highlights. Its usage must be only as supporting edited video/audio for a reported video/audio story and not simply as a raw video post/rebroadcast/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Accredited media entities may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance written permission of The University of Texas athletics department. Video is for news usage only and may not be sponsored or sold. This policy includes all games, matches, practices and events involving any of Texas' athletics programs. It includes all media events — press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews.

NOTE REGARDING USE OF GAME VIDEO: Policy permits entities to use up to two (2) minutes of video on air (whether taken from the network feed or shot themselves) or on the entity's website. Reports and features must be filed postgame and not during the game. If a game/event is contracted to a network television partner, all highlights may remain on a website no longer than 48 hours following the game/event's conclusion. Highlights may not be used via social media platforms except as a link back to the website/URL hosting the highlights.

EXCEPTION: With advance written permission from the UT Athletics department, media entities will be permitted to shoot and rebroadcast the Tom Herman portion of the Longhorns weekly Monday press conferences in its entirety. Video from that 20-minute press conference can be used for either over the air rebroadcast or web postings. Live distribution of the weekly Monday press conference is not permitted. If posted on a website, it must be removed 48 hours after the conclusion of the press conference.

A NEW LEADER ON DEFENSE

• Texas head coach Tom Herman announced Chris Ash as the program's new defensive coordinator on Tuesday, Dec. 17. Ash has spent five seasons as a defensive coordinator across stops at Wisconsin, Arkansas and Ohio State.
• Four of his five defenses ranked in the top 25 statistically, including a top-10 defensive unit in 2015 at Ohio State.
• Ash and Herman previously worked together at Iowa State (2009) and Ohio State (2014). Herman was the offensive coordinator and Ash the co-defensive coordinator for the Buckeyes in 2014, when they won the inaugural College Football Playoff.
• During the 2014 season, Ash's first at Ohio State, the Buckeyes jumped from 112th in pass defense and 47th in total defense to 29th and 19th, respectively.
• Ohio State fielded the nation's No. 2 scoring defense and ranked ninth-best in total defense in 2015, Ash's second year as a coordinator in Columbus.
• He left Columbus in 2016 to become the head coach at Rutgers, where he spent three-plus seasons in charge.
• Ash will not coach the Longhorns in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

TUSSLING WITH THE TOP 25

• The Horns are 7-9 against top-25 foes during Tom Herman's three seasons as head coach, and are 6-5 against ranked opponents since the start of the 2018 season after going just 1-4 against top-25 foes in 2017.
• Texas defeated No. 5 Georgia, No. 7 Oklahoma, No. 17 TCU, No. 18 Iowa State and No. 22 USC last year.
• Last season, UT defeated top-25 opponents in consecutive weeks for the first time since the 2008 season when they beat No. 22/21 USC, 37-14, on Sept. 15 and then No. 17/17 TCU, 31-16, on Sept. 22.
• The Horns bested No. 16 Kansas State, 27-24, on Nov. 9 to earn their first ranked win of 2019.

HERMAN'S COMEBACKS AT TEXAS

• Texas has recorded five comeback wins when trailing by at least 10 points during Tom Herman's three seasons as head coach. That tally includes a pair of 14-point comebacks against No. 16 Kansas State and Texas Tech in 2019.
• UT also came back from an 11-point deficit against No. 22 USC in 2018 and a 10-point deficit against K-State in 2017.
• Texas' two 14-point comebacks in 2019 are tied for the program's largest since a 21-point rally against Oklahoma State in 2007. That day, the Longhorns flipped a 35-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 38-35 victory.
• Texas' 2019 comebacks also marks the first time since the 2007 season that the Longhorns have posted multiple 14-point comebacks. The 2007 Horns also came back from a 17-3 deficit to best Nebraska, and rallied from a 10-0 deficit to beat TCU.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

• In Tom Herman's three seasons as head coach, Texas is 16-4 when the Longhorns win the turnover battle. On the flip side, UT's record stands at 8-11 in games where Texas either ties or loses the turnover battle under Herman.
• Texas was 10-6 when winning, and 6-14 when either tying or losing, the turnover battle in the three years prior to Herman's arrival.
• Since Herman's arrival, the Longhorns are 9-0 when creating three or more takeaways and are 10-5 when not committing any turnovers.

CLOSING OUT THE HALVES

• Texas has been especially productive offensively toward the end of halves this season. In the second and fourth quarters, UT has produced 283 of its 417 points (67.9%).
• The Longhorns have scored 144 points in the fourth quarter this season (12.0 avg). That leads all FBS teams this season.

GAME NOTES

THREE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS

• With a 49-24 victory over Texas Tech back on Nov. 29, the Longhorns picked up their seventh win of the season and secured the program's third-straight winning season.
• It is the first time since 2011-13 that Texas has put together three consecutive winning campaigns, and the first time since 2012-14 that UT has earned bowl eligibility in three-straight seasons.
• Texas has totaled 24 wins in its three seasons under head coach Tom Herman thus far, an eight-win improvement from the three seasons prior to Herman's arrival on the Forty Acres.

SENIOR DAY SUCCESS

• Texas' triumph over Texas Tech on Nov. 29 marked the Longhorns' second-straight senior day victory. UT previously bested No. 18 Iowa State, 24-10, on senior day in 2018.
• It is the first time Texas has won back-to-back senior day games since 2008-09.
• Prior to the past two seasons, Texas had lost its last four senior day games, and seven of the last eight since its senior day win in 2009.

A TRIO ABOVE THE CENTURY MARK

• Texas senior WRs Devin Duvernay and Collin Johnson, as well as sophomore RB Keaontay Ingram all hit the century mark against Kansas State.
• Duvernay had nine catches for 110 yards, Johnson had seven catches for 110 yards and Ingram carried the ball 16 times for a career-high 139 yards and two touchdowns.
• It was only the third time in Texas history that the Longhorns have had two 100-yard receivers and a 100-yard rusher in the same game.
• Texas previously achieved the feat at Ole Miss in 2012 and vs. Oklahoma in 2008.
• Texas' senior WR duo both also logged more than 100 receiving yards against TCU in UT's last outing before the K-State victory. It was the first time in school history that Texas has had multiple 100-yard receivers in consecutive games.

TEXAS JOINS THE 390/100/100 CLUB

• Texas' victory over Kansas marked the first time in UT history that a Longhorn trio had a 390-yard passer (QB Sam Ehlinger, 399 yards), a 100-yard rusher (RB Keaontay Ingram, 101 yards) and a 100-yard receiver (WR Devin Duvernay, 110) in the same game.
• The Longhorns' trio was one yard shy of being the first 400/100/100 crew in UT history.
• Further adding to Texas' well-rounded display against Kansas, WR Collin Johnson (8 catches, 96 yards) was four yards shy of breaking the century mark and QB Sam Ehlinger (14 carries, 91 yards) was nine yards shy of his third-career 100-yard game.

SUSTAINED SCORING DRIVES

• Texas has had 43 scoring drives of 10-or-more plays since the start of the 2018 season. Of those 43 scoring drives, 32 resulted in touchdowns (74.4%).
• UT logged two fourth-quarter touchdown drives against Iowa State that totaled 25 plays and covered 169 yards.
• The Horns put together 13-play, 67-yard drive that melted the final 6:45 off the clock against No. 16 Kansas State. Cameron Dicker booted a 26-yard field as time expired - his second such kick in 2019 - to cap the drive and seal the Longhorns' 27-24 win.
• K-State entered the game averaging more than 35 minutes of possession per game. Texas' 6:45 drive helped the Longhorns win the time-of-possession battle by nearly two-and-a-half minutes.
• UT had four sustained drives against Kansas, including three touchdown efforts. Sam Ehlinger capped all three TD drives with passes to Jake Smith, Brennan Eagles and Devin Duvernay. The fourth drive resulted in Cameron Dicker's game-winning 33-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter.
• In the AT&T Red River Showdown against No. 6 Oklahoma, Cameron Dicker booted a 32-yard field goal to cap a 14-play drive, and QB Sam Ehlinger rushed in from four yards out to finish a 10-play touchdown drive.
• UT logged a 19-play, 86-yard drive that ended with a two-yard TD run from QB Sam Ehlinger against No. 6 LSU. It was Texas' longest scoring drive since a 22-play, 80-yard TD against Texas Tech in 2010.

CLOSING UP SHOP

• Texas' defense struggled in the early goings, but found its footing and locked down a potent Texas Tech offense in the regular-season finale on on Nov. 29.
• After allowing 21 points in the first 22 minutes of the game, the Longhorns held the Red Raiders to just three points over the final 38 minutes. Texas outscored Texas Tech, 35-3, over the final two-thirds of the game.
• The Longhorns logged eight tackles for loss, including four sacks, against Texas Tech. UT's eight TFLs were its most since logging 12 against Oklahoma State back on Sept. 21, and its four sacks were tied for the team's season high.
• Texas forced two Red Raider fumbles, marking the second-straight week that the Horns punched the ball out multiple times. The Longhorns also broke up seven passes, their highest total this season.

CLAMPING DOWN ON THE CYCLONES

• The Texas defense held Iowa State to just 23 points on Nov. 16 - the Cyclones' lowest scoring output in six weeks. Iowa State entered the game averaging 36.4 points per game, which would as top mark in ISU's history.
• The Longhorns held Iowa State to only 112 rushing yards, nearly 50 yards under the Cyclones' season average (156.0).
• After Iowa State scored on its opening drive in the first quarter, Texas' defense held the Cyclones scoreless on its next four possessions.
• Iowa State scored 10 points on its first two drives in the second half, but the Horns allowed only three points on the final five possessions (0.6 points per possession).

A DYNAMIC DAY FOR THE DEFENSE

• Texas' defense allowed only 17 points to a potent Kansas State offense on Nov. 9, including just three points over the final three quarters.
• After surrendering touchdowns on the first two drives of the game, the Longhorns kept K-State scoreless on its next six offensive possesions.
• The Wildcats' offense only recorded points on their final possession of the game - a 45-yard field goal.
• After K-State opened the game 5-of-6 on third down, the Horns did not allow a third-down conversion on the Wildcats' final five attempts. K-State was 0-for-4 on third down in the second half.
• The Longhorns held K-State to just 51 yards rushing on 26 carries (2.0 ypc). The Wildcats rushed for 555 yards and 11 TDs in their previous two games.
• UT also limited KSU QB Skylar Thompson to just 36 yards on 4-of-10 passing in the second half.

• Eight different Longhorns have intercepted at least one pass this season.
• Senior DB Brandon Jones (pictured below) intercepted a pass against No. 6 Oklahoma to become the eighth Longhorn with an interception this season. It was the second-straight year that Jones has intercepted a pass against the Sooners.
• In each of Tom Herman's first two seasons as head coach, the Longhorns had only four players with at least one interception at the halfway point of the regular season.
• Texas intercepted four passes against West Virginia on Oct. 5. It was the first time that UT has intercepted four passes in a game since doing so at Kansas on Sept. 27, 2014 (64 games).
• LB Ayodele Adeoye, DB B.J. Foster and DB D'Shawn Jamison (two) all intercepted passes against WVU.
• After UT's four-pick day at WVU, the Horns had seven players with an interception through five games for the first time since 2002, when the Longhorns also had seven.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

• One of the keys to success in the Tom Herman era has been UT's ability to score points off turnovers, while limiting opponent points after turnovers of their own.
• Since 2017, Texas has forced 64 turnovers and scored 215 points off of them.

EHLINGER AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

• Since the start of the 2018 season, QB Sam Ehlinger has led the Longhorns against 11 ranked opponents. Texas is 6-5 in such matchups, and Ehlinger has been a key contributor throughout the Horns' contests against the nation's elite.

• In those 11 games, Ehlinger has completed 240-of-364 passes (65.9%) for 2,875 yards, 17 touchdowns and only two interceptions. He has also rushed for 496 yards and 15 touchdowns.

• Ehlinger has totaled at least three TDs in seven of those 11 games. In four of them, he has recorded at least four TDs and twice (vs. No. 7 Oklahoma, 2018; vs. No. 6 LSU, 2019) he accounted for a career-high five touchdowns.

• The Texas QB has rushed for at least one TD in nine of UT's 11 games against ranked opponents since 2018, highlighted by a quartet of multi-TD performances. Most notably, he rushed for three TDs last year versus No. 7 Oklahoma (W, 48-45) and for three TDs against No. 5 Georgia in the Allstate Sugar Bowl (W, 28-21).

NOTABLE 2019 PERFORMANCES

• Threw for a career-high 401 yards against No. 6 LSU. He was the first quarterback to throw for more than 400 yards against LSU since West Virginia's Geno Smith racked up 463 yards in 2011.

• Ehlinger's performance against LSU was the sixth 400-yard passing game in Texas history and the first by a UT quarterback since Colt McCoy versus UCF in 2009.

• Nearly added another 400-yard performance to his resume, as he racked up 399 yards through the air in a 50-48 victory over Kansas. Much of his production came in the fourth quarter, as Ehlinger completed 11-of-15 passes for 204 yards and two touchdowns.

• Ehlinger totaled 490 yards of offense (399 pass/91 rush) against Kansas - the best single-game output of his career. It is the No. 3 mark in school history, and Ehlinger now owns Texas' No. 3 and No. 4 performances all-time.

• At the time, he was just the fourth Power Five QB in the last 20 seasons (now one of five) to throw for 390-plus yards and rush for 90-plus against a conference opponent. Two of the other four were Heisman Trophy winners. A look at the instances:

GAME NOTES

DRIVING THE HERD

• QB Sam Ehlinger has steered the Texas offense throughout the 2019 season, putting up numbers comparable to some of the best offenses in school history.

• With the UT down 20-7, Ehlinger led a pair of fourth-quarter TD drives at Iowa State. The two drives totaled 25 plays and covered 169 yards. The second scoring drive was a 15-play, 89-yard drive that ended when Ehlinger found WR Malcolm Epps in the endzone from seven yards out.

• On that drive, penalties stalled Texas' momentum, including putting the Longhorns in a 2nd-and-35 situation at their own 37-yard line. The Texas QB overcame the situation though, as he completed 7-of-10 passes for 95 yards and the go-ahead touchdown. Ehlinger also carried the ball three times for 19 yards on the drive.

• Against No. 16 Kansas State, Ehlinger led the Longhorns on a 13-play, 67-yard drive that took the final 6:45 off the clock. The drive ended with Cameron Dicker's game-winning 26-yard field goal as time expired.

• On that drive, Ehlinger completed 4-of-4 passes for 53 yards, including an 18-yard connection with WR Devin Duvernay that moved the chains on 3rd-and-14. Ehlinger also rushed for 14 yards and helped center the ball for Dicker's game-winning field goal.

• Texas' six touchdown drives vs. Kansas averaged 7.8 plays per drive and covered an average of 71.7 yards. All six drives covered at least 65 yards, highlighted by a 10-play, 84-yard drive that Ehlinger capped with a 14-yard touchdown pass to senior WR Devin Duvernay.

• Ehlinger led the Longhorns on three scoring drives in the final 10 minutes of Texas' 50-48 win over Kansas. The Texas QB completed 9-of-13 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown in that span.

• On Texas' game-winning drive, Ehlinger completed 5-of-7 passes for 57 yards. He also picked up a crucial first down for UT, as he moved the chains on 3rd & 6 with an 8-yard rush that moved Texas out to midfield.

• Leading the Longhorns through dominant offensive stretches is nothing new to Ehlinger in 2019. Over five quarters of action against LSU (second half) and Rice (first three quarters), Ehlinger led Texas to scores on 11 of the 12 (91.7%) drives he directed. Nine of those drives resulted in touchdowns.

• During those five quarters, at one point, Ehlinger led the Longhorns on nine straight scoring drives – eight of which were TDs. During that streak, Texas' scoring drives averaged 9.7 plays and 75.7 yards per drive.

• All nine scoring drives covered at least 73 yards, topped off by UT's 19-play, 86-yard TD drive vs. LSU.

SUCCESS ON THE GROUND

• QB Sam Ehlinger rushed for two scores against No. 6 Oklahoma in the 2019 AT&T Red River Showdown, bringing his career total to eight rushing TDs against the Sooners. No other player has rushed for more scores against OU over the last 20 seasons.

• The Texas QB has scored 24 rushing TDs in his career, the most recent of which came against Texas Tech on Nov. 29. Ehlinger finished with 83 yards on 10 carries and one touchdown. His 24 career rushing touchdowns are tied with Tyrone Swoopes for the third-most by a quarterback in Texas history.

• Earlier in the year against Kansas, Ehlinger paired 399 yards through the air with a season-high 91 rushing yards to help lift the Horns past the Jayhawks in a 50-48 shootout. It was Ehlinger's third-most productive day as a runner, falling behind only a pair of 100-yard outings against K-State and OU during his freshman season in 2017.

• Ehlinger also rushed for 70 yards against Oklahoma State to become the 52nd 1,000-yard rusher in Texas Football history. He is the sixth QB in Texas history to achieve that feat, and the first since Colt McCoy (2006-09). He sealed Texas' win over the Cowboys with a 29-yard run on 3rd & 9 that gave UT a first down with just over 70 seconds remaining on the clock.

EHLINGER PRIOR TO 2019

• In 2018, Ehlinger threw for 3,292 yards (fifth in UT history) and 25 touchdowns. He also rushed for 482 yards and 16 scores, setting the school record for most rushing TDs by a QB.

• Ehlinger's sophomore campaign made him the only player in UT history to pass for at least 25 TDs and rush for at least 15 in a season.

• He is the sixth Power Five quarterback to reach those numbers in the last 20 years, and the other five all were Heisman Trophy winners (Tim Tebow, 2007; Cam Newton, 2010; Johnny Manziel, 2012; Marcus Mariota, 2014; Lamar Jackson, 2016-17).

• Ehlinger's 41 touchdowns accounted for in 2018 were the second-most in school history, trailing only Colt McCoy, who had 45 in 2008.

• Ehlinger threw just five interceptions, and attempted a school- and Big 12-record 308 consecutive passes without an interception in between picks in the season opener and the regular season finale at Kansas.

• He had 3,774 yards (3,292 pass/482 rush) of total offense in 2018, fifth-most in school history. Only Colt McCoy (2007-09) and Vince Young (2005) have had more.

• Earlier in 2018, he became the first Longhorn QB since Colt McCoy (2008) to have at least two passing and one rushing TD in three straight games (Tulsa, USC, TCU).

• He passed for more than 200 yards in six-straight games to begin the 2018 season, becoming the first Longhorn QB since McCoy in 2007 to do so. McCoy (8 straight 2007), Applewhite (11 straight 1999) and Peter Gardere (7 straight 1992) are the only other UT QBs to have longer streaks to begin a season in school history.

• He was the first Longhorn QB since Vince Young (Oct. 15, 2005 vs. Colorado) to rush for three TDs and pass for two more in a game. Just McCoy (twice) and Chris Simms have had more TDs in a game since 2000.

• Ehlinger had 10 games last season with three-or-more touchdowns responsible for, tying Colt McCoy (2008) for the single-season school record.

• As a true freshman in 2017, Ehlinger passed for 1,915 yards and rushed for 385. He was the first Texas quarterback since Colt McCoy in 2008 to lead the Longhorns in both passing and rushing yards.

• In just his third career start (vs. Kansas State, 2017), Ehlinger completed 30-of-50 passes for a Longhorn true freshman record 380 yards and two touchdowns. He added 107 yards rushing, also a record for a Longhorn true freshman quarterback. His 487 yards of total offense set a Texas freshman record.

• His historic day vs. Kansas State made him only the third quarterback in school history to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game. Colt McCoy (at Texas A&M, 2009) and Jerrod Heard (vs. California, 2015) are the other two.

EHLINGER'S NOTABLE CAREER MARKS

• Ehlinger is the third Longhorn to eclipse 8,000 career passing yards. He currently sits second in UT history with 8,669 career yards through the air.

• Ehlinger currently ranks second in school history with 10,126 yards (8,669 pass/1,457 rush) of total offense. He crossed the 8,000-yard mark with a 490-yard day against Kansas, and surpassed 9,000 yards with a 303-yard effort against No. 16 Kansas State. Ehlinger became only the second Longhorn to surpass 10,000 yards of offense with a 431-yard day against Texas Tech in the 2019 regular-season finale.

• Has thrown for 65 touchdowns in his career, the second-most in UT history.

• Ehlinger has passed for at least 200 yards in 28 career games, the third-most in school history. He also has nine career 300-yard games, the third-most in UT history.

• Ehlinger ranks fourth among Power Five QBs in career passing yards per game (247.7) and is seventh in passing yards (8,669). His 10,126 yards of total offense ranks sixth among Power Five QBs and fifth on a per-game basis (289.3). He has the most career yards of total offense of any non-senior in the FBS.

• His 24 rushing TDs rank second among active Power Five quarterbacks and his 65 TD passes are eighth-best. Ehlinger's 89 total touchdowns accounted for rank as the fifth-best tally among active Power Five QBs.

• He, Jalen Hurts (Oklahoma) and Riley Neal (Vanderbilt) are the only three active Power Five players with at least 8,000 career passing yards and 1,200 career rushing yards.

• Ehlinger has 13 career games with a passing and rushing touchdown. That is tied with Vince Young (2003-05) for the second-most by a Texas QB all time, behind only Colt McCoy, who achieved the feat 14 times during his four-year career on the Forty Acres.

DUVERNAY DOMINATING IN 2019

• An All-America candidate for the first time in his career, senior WR Devin Duvernay's has staked his claim as one of college football's best receivers with his play in 2019.
• He has caught 103 passes (No. 2 in school history) for 1,294 yards (No. 2) and eight TDs (No. 10).
• Duvernay leads the country in receptions per game (8.6) and receptions (103). His 1,294 receiving yards are fourth among FBS receivers this season.
• He earned All-Big 12 First Team honors from the league's coaches and received honorablem mention as the league's Offensive Player of the Year.
• Duvernay is the second Longhorn to surpass 1,200 receiving yards in a season. Jordan Shipley was the first to do so in 2009, and was a consensus first-team All-American that season.
• His 103 receptions are the second-most in school history, and he is just the third Longhorn to make at leaset 100 catches in a season. Kwame Cavil was the first with 100 receptions in 1999, followed by Jordan Shipley with a school-record 116 catches in 2009.
• The Sachse, Texas native is one of only two Power Five receivers with at least 90 receptions, 1,000 receiving yards and seven receiving touchdowns this season.
• Duvernay has produced seven 100-yard games this season, including two against ranked opponents. That puts him alongside Jordan Shipley (2009) and Wane McGarity (1998) for the most 100-yard games in a season in Texas history.
• He posted a streak of four-straight 100-yard games, beginning against Kansas on Oct. 19, the longest streak by a Longhorn since Williams set the school record with seven-straight 100-yard outings across the 2002 and 2003 seasons.
• Duvernay's seven 100-yard games are one shy of LSU's Ja'Marr Chase for the FBS lead. he is one of only two Big 12 receivers with more than four 100-yard games this season.
• He has made at least one catch in 26 consecutive games, the second-longest streak among active Texas receivers.
• Duvernay has made 27 catches (33 targets) on third down, converting 23 of those into first downs for the Longhorns on offense.

BALL MAGNET

• Devin Duvernay has made at least six catches in all 12 games this season. In his first three seasons on the Forty Acres, Duvernay had only two games with six catches.
• He is the fifth Power Five wide receiver since 2000, and first since 2013, to have at least six catches in the first 12 games of the season. The other four are Oklahoma State's Rashaun Woods (2002), Oklahoma State's Justin Blackmon (2011), Baylor's Kendall Wright (2011) and Oregon State's Brandin Cooks (2013).
• Blackmon, Cooks and Wright all went on to be first-round picks in the NFL Draft. Blackmon and Cooks also both won the Blletnikoff Award the same year they achieved the six-catch feat.
• Duvernay's 12-straight games with at least six receptions is tied with Kwame Cavil (1999) for the longest streak in school history. Jordan Shipley holds the school record for most six-catch games in a season, as he did so 13 times (14 games) during his historic 2009 campaign.
• He has made at least eight catches on nine occasions in 2019, the most by a Longhorn in a single season all time.
• Duvernay also has six games with nine-or-more catches this year, the most since Jordan Shipley also had six such instances in his historic 116-catch campaign in 2009.
• He leads all FBS receivers with 12 games with at least six catches, nine games with at least eight catches and six games with at least nine catches.
• Duvernay has a pair of 12-catch games so far in 2019, doing so against both No. 6 LSU and Oklahoma State.
• His 12-catch performances are a career-best and he is the only receiver in Texas history to have multiple games with 12-or-more catches. Duvernay achieved the feat in a three-game stretch and is one of only four Power Five players with multiple 12-catch games this season.
• He made 10 catches vs. No. 13 Baylor to become the fourth player in team history to record double-digit catches on at least three occasions in a single season. He is the first Longhorn to do so since Jordan Shipley in 2009.

Williams set a school record with seven-straight 100-yard outings.

• Duvernay made 10 catches for 78 yards in a road matchup at No. 13 Baylor on Nov. 23. It was his third game with double-digit catches, the most by a Longhorn in a season since Jordan Shipley in 2009.
• It also marked his sixth-straight game with at least eight receptions.
• On Senior Day vs. Texas Tech, Duvernay caught six passes for a career-high 199 yards and one touchdown. His 199 yards rank as the No. 3 mark in school history and were the most by a Longhorn since Jordan Shipley's 273 yards against UCF in 2009.

GAME NOTES

BY THE NUMBERS

2 Sophomore K Cameron Dicker is the only player in Texas history to log mutliple game-winning plays as time expired. He did so with walk-off field goals against Kansas and K-State this season.

2 QB Sam Ehlinger owns two of the top four total offense games in UT history (490 vs. KU, 2019; 487 vs. K-State, 2017).

4 QB Sam Ehlinger has thrown four touchdown passes on four occasions this season, the most in a season in UT history.

8 Texas has posted eight offensive plays that resulted in gains of 50 yards or more in 2019. That comes one year after Texas was one of only two FBS schools that did not post a 50-yard play in 2018.

8 Sophomore LB Joseph Ossai has made at least eight tackles in seven games this season, highlighted by a career-high 10 tackles at TCU.

9.5 Junior DL Ta'Quon Graham leads the Longhorns with 9.5 tackles for loss this season.

13 Texas has lost only 13 turnovers in 2019, tied with Kansas State for the fewest among all Big 12 teams this year.

20 Texas is 20-1 under Tom Herman when outgaining their opponent.

36 UT has scored at least 36 points in seven games this season, the most for the Longhorns since the 2009 team did so nine times.

52 The Longhorns have scored 52 points off of 19 forced turnovers this season.

56 The Longhorns have produced 56 plays this year that have resulted in gains of 20 yards or more, including eight that have gone for 50-plus yards.

56 The Alamo Bowl marks Texas' 56th all-time bowl appearance, tied for the second most in college football history.

76 Since the start of the 2018 season, Texas QB Sam Ehlinger has accounted for 76 total touchdowns (54 pass/22 rush).

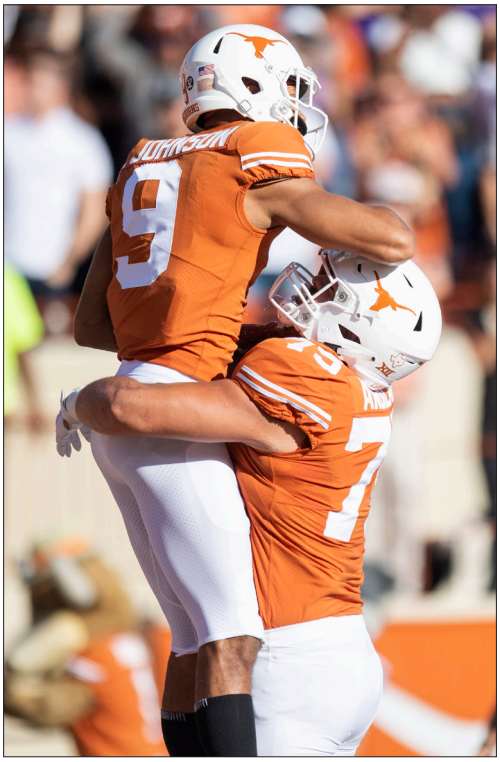

80 Senior DB Brandon Jones (86) and sophomore LB Joseph Ossai (81) both have logged at least 80 tackles this season. Texas is one of only three Big 12 schools to have more than one player log at least 80 tackles this season.

103 Senior WR Devin Duvernay leads the country with 103 receptions and 8.6 receptions per game.

500 Texas is one of three Big 12 schools to field three players who have rushed for more than 500 yards this season. RB Keaontay Ingram (745), RB Roschon Johnson (600) and QB Sam Ehlinger (590) make up the Longhorn trio.

JOHNSON'S STANDING AMONG TEXAS' ELITE

- In 2019, senior WR Collin Johnson is looking to cement himself as one of Texas' most statistically successful WRs.
- So far this season, Johnson has made 35 catches for 497 yards and scored two TDs. He missed UT's games vs. Rice, vs. Oklahoma State, at West Virginia, at Iowa State, at No. 13 Baylor and Texas Tech due to injury.
- For his career, Johnson has 185 receptions (6th in school history) for 2,562 yards (6th in school history) and 14 touchdowns (T-10th in school history).
- He has logged at least one reception in 33 straight games played, tied with Jaxon Shipley for the third-longest streak in school history. It is the longest active streak by a Longhorn.
- Johnson opened his senior campaign with four catches for 59 yards and a touchdown against Louisiana Tech. He later hauled in six passes for 82 yards in the 2019 AT&T Red River Showdown against No. 6 Oklahoma.
- The senior WR continued his return to form against Kansas, hauling in eight passes for 96 yards in Texas' 50-48 victory at DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium.
- He logged his first 100-yard game of the 2019 season, and the fifth of his career, with a seven-catch, 101-yard outing at TCU.
- Johnson bagged his second-straight 100-yard day with seven catches for 110 yards and a touchdown against No. 16 Kansas State. It was his sixth career 100-yard game
- He is tied with his fellow senior WR Devin Duvernay for the most career 100-yard games among active Longhorn receivers.
- The San Jose, Calif. native set a Big 12 Championship Game record with 177 receiving yards against Oklahoma last season.
- He finished 2018 with 68 catches (t-8th single season) for 985 yards (10th) and seven touchdowns, a season after having 54 catches for 765 yards and two TDs.
- Last year, Johnson became the seventh receiver in Texas history to catch a touchdown in at least four consecutive games.
- A look at Johnson's career marks in the Texas record books is available at the top of the next column:

GAME NOTES

TWO IS BETTER THAN ONE

• Texas boasts one of the deepest wide reciever groups in the country this season. With seniors Devin Duvernay and Collin Johnson leading the pack, the Longhorn receivers have helped UT produce one of the nation's most potent passing offenses in 2019.

• Duvernay's historic pace, as mentioned earlier, has paired extremely well with the solid production Texas has gotten out of its other receivers this season.

• A look at where Texas' 2019 receiving tandems stand among the program's elite receiving duos:

BIG-PLAY BRENNAN

• Sophomore WR Brennan Eagles has caught 30 passes for 518 yards and six touchdowns this season.

• Two of Eagles' touchdown catches have been in excess of 50 yards. The sophomore hauled in a 55-yard pass for a touchdown against LSU and then recorded a 73-yard score against Oklahoma State two weeks later.

• Against LSU, Eagles caught five passes for 116 yards and the one touchdown. His four receiving TDs are tied with Devin Duvernay and Jake Smith for the team lead.

• The sophomore WR bounced back to form in Texas' win over Kansas, hauling in six passes for 76 yards and a touchdown - his first since scoring against Oklahoma State.

• With senior WR Collin Johnson nursing a hamstring injury, Eagles picked up the slack against Iowa State. He hauled in four passes for 84 yards and a touchdown.

• Like he has throughout most of the year, Eagles picked up yards in chunks for the Longhorns. His four catches against Iowa State covered 33, 14, 7 and 30 yards.

• He has five catches of more than 30 yards this season, the second-most by any Longhorn receiver.

• Eagles has made multiple catches in eight games this season. His six catches against Kansas were a career high for the standout sophomore.

SPOTLIGHTING SMITH

• Freshman WR Jake Smith has been a solid performer for the Longhorns in 2019, reeling in 25 passes for 274 yards and six touchdowns.

• Smith is averaging a touchdown every 4.2 receptions during his first collegiate season. Compared to the five FBS receivers who have hauled in at least 14 touchdowns this season, Smith's 4.2 catch-to-TD ratio is better than both Arkansas State's Omar Bayless (5.3), LSU's Justin Jefferson (6.3) and SMU's James Proche (7.3). LSU's Ja'Marr Chase, who leads the nation with 17 touchdown catches and won the Biletnikoff Award, is averaging a TD every 4.1 receptions (73 rec/18 TDs), while Oklahoma's CeeDee Lamb, a Biletnikoff Award finalist, is averaging a touchdown every 4.1 receptions (58 rec/14 TDs).

• Smith's six TD catches are tied for the fourth-most by a freshman in the FBS this season. They are also the second-most by a freshman in Texas history. Roy Williams (2000) holds the school record with eight TDs as a freshman.

• Against Rice, Smith hauled in six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns. All three of those marks were career-bests for the Scottsdale, Ariz. native.

• His six receptions tied for the 10th-most in a game by a UT freshman and his two TD catches matched the UT freshman record. It was the seventh multi-TD outing for a freshman receiver in school history.

• The freshman got back in the scoring column after a two-game absence when he caught a 10-yard TD pass from QB Sam Ehlinger in the first quarter against Kansas. Smith finished with four catches for 34 yards against KU.

• Smith was held out of the endzone in his next four appearances, but hauled in a 26-yard reception from QB Sam Ehlinger in Texas' win over Texas Tech on Nov. 29. Smith finished with three catches for 51 yards against the Red Raiders.

THE INGRAM IMPACT

• Sophomore RB Keaontay Ingram has carried the ball 131 times for 745 yards (5.7 yards per carry) and six TDs in the 2019 season. He has also caught 27 passes for 216 yards and two touchdowns. His 27 receptions rank as the 10th-best mark by a running back in school history.

• When the Longhorns visited No. 13 Baylor, Ingram carried the ball seven times for 86 yards before missing the second half due to injury. His last carry was a 68-yard run - the longest of his career - that allowed sophomore K Cameron Dicker to boot a 48-yard field goal as time expired in the first half on Texas' ensuing offensive play.

• Ingram had perhaps his best outing as a Longhorn in Texas' come-from-behind win over No. 16 Kansas State. Against the Wildcats, he carried the ball 16 times for a career-high 139 yards (8.7 ypc) and two touchdowns.

• Ingram totaled 114 of his 139 rushing yards on nine second-half carries (12.7 ypc). Thirty-four of those yards came on three carries (11.3 ypc) during Texas' final two scoring drives in the fourth quarter.

• It was Ingram's third 100-yard performance this season, and the fourth of his career.

• All three of his 100-yard outings in 2019 have come against Big 12 opponents, making him the first Longhorn to hit the century mark three-or-more times against conference foes since D'Onta Foreman in 2016.

• His 139 rushing yards were the most by a Big 12 back over the Nov. 9 weekend, and he was the league's only player to rush for more than 100 yards and scored at least two rushing touchdowns during that week.

• The Carthage, Texas native racked up 92 all-purpose yards against TCU. He ran the ball 16 times for 71 yards and caught three passes for 21 yards vs. the Horned Frogs in Fort Worth. Ingram's receiving touchdown came on a 17-yard connection with QB Sam Ehlinger with just over one minute remaining in the first half.

SPECIAL FORCES

The Longhorns special teams units are called Special Forces and named after Frank Denius, who was one of the 10 most decorated soldiers to serve in World War II. Denius stormed Omaha Beach in Normandy at age 19.

The kickoff unit is named Cobra Strike after Operation Cobra. Denius served with the 230th Field Artillery Battalion during the operation that broke through German defenses that had pinned down Allied forces in Normandy for seven weeks following the D-Day landings.

The punt unit is dubbed the A-Team in honor of former UT long snapper Nate Boyer. He served six years in the Green Beret Special Forces unit as part of Operational Detachment Alpha (ODA), also known as an SFOD-A or A-Team, prior to joining UT Football in 2010.

The punt return unit is called Posse, as the unit must work together as a brotherhood. The unit honors 1959 Longhorn Hall of Honor inductee, Maj. Gen. Kearie Lee Berry, who survived the Bataan Death March and 40 months as a Prisoner of War during World War II.

The kickoff return unit is named Six in honor of a University of Texas graduate who served on SEAL Team Six but was killed in action in a 2011 helicopter crash. The unit's logo was designed by his best friend and depicts the Gold Squadron logo for which he was a member.

The field goal unit is named Sniper, as the kicker needs pinpoint accuracy to succeed. The unit is named in honor of proud Texan Chris Kyle, a Navy SEAL veteran who earned numerous medals during his tours in Iraq and regularly referenced his love of the Longhorns in his book 'American Sniper.'

• During the final week of the regular season, Johnson, a true freshman, was the only Big 12 competitor to rush for more than 100 yards and more than one touchdown.
• Seven of Johnson's 23 carries (30.4%) resulted in either a first down or a touchdown for the Horns against Texas Tech.
• He averaged 7.4 yards per carry (5 carries, 37 yards) in Texas' win over No. 16 Kansas State.

BREWER BREAKING OUT

• Junior TE Cade Brewer emerged as an offensive weapon for the Longhorns this season, but has missed time after suffering an ankle injury at TCU. He started the first eight games of the season, catching 10 passes for 149 yards and one touchdown.
• Brewer's 14.9 yards per reception ranks second among Longhorn receivers with at least 10 catches this season. He trails only Brennan Eagles, who has averaged 19.3 yards per reception, in that category.
• Brewer logged multiple catches in three games this season, highlighted by a three-catch, 71-yard day against Kansas on Oct. 19. The Texas TE caught a 51-yard pass from QB Sam Ehlinger in the fourth quarter that helped set up a go-ahead touchdown with less than three minutes remaining in the game.
• Brewer's three catches, 71 yards and 51-yard reception are all the best single-game marks of his three-year career.
• The Austin, Texas native also caught multiple passes against Oklahoma State and in the season opener vs. Louisiana Tech.

GAME NOTES

SHACKELFORD'S SUCCESS

• Texas senior OL Zach Shackelford has received numerous accolades during the 2019 season, including being named a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award, a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy and a watch list candidate for the Rimington Trophy, which honors the nation's top center.
• Shackelford is the third Longhorn to be named a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. Colt McCoy (2009) and Emmanuel Acho (2011) are the other two.
• He earned first-team All-Big 12 honors this season, the second time in his career he has been recognized.
• Shackelford is one of six Longhorns that were elected as a 2019 team captain by their teammates.

• Sophomore OL Samuel Cosmi was named to Pro Football Focus' Eckrich Team of the Week after a solid showing against Louisiana Tech in the season opener.
• Cosmi did not allow a QB pressure on 47 pass-blocking snaps against Louisiana Tech, according to PFF.
• The Humble, Texas native has played in all 26 possible games of his UT career and started in 25 of those.
• He earned honorable mention as the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year in 2018 and again as the Offensive Lineman of the Yeare in 2019.

BIG-MAN TOUCHDOWN

• Against West Virginia, Texas OL Samuel Cosmi converted a 12-yard rushing touchdown - the first of his career. He is the first Texas OL with a rushing touchdown since UT's individual stats are available, beginning in 1947.
• Cosmi is just the third OL in Big 12 history to score a rushing touchdown as well. Ironically, in addition to Cosmi's score, Tom Herman also was the offensive coordinator at Iowa State in 2009 when he called the lateral play to OT Scott Haughton who scored from 12 yards out. Texas Tech G Casey Jones is the only other offensive lineman to rush for a TD in Big 12 history and he did it on a one-yard goal-line plunge in 1996.

O-LINE CONTINUITY A KEY

• Texas started the same five on its offensive line in 11 games this season. After redshirt freshman Junior Angilau went down with an injury against No. 16 Kansas State, junior Denzel Okafor made his fifth career start, and first of 2019, at Iowa State.
• If you include the 32 starts Parker Braun made while at Georgia Tech, and Okafor's five career starts, the six Texas offensive lineman to start games this season have combined to make 151 career starts.
• Last year, Texas' starting offensive linemen missed just four combined games and the Horns used only three different starting combinations all season long.
• The continuity along the offensive line has been key in Texas' success and growth offensively after UT was forced to use eight different starting offensive line combinations in 13 games during the 2017 season.
• In 2019, UT's offense is averaging 468.2 ypg (172.0 rush/296.2 pass). In comparison, the Horns averaged 411.3 ypg (153.1 rush/258.2 pass) in 2018 and 398.5 ypg (139.6 rush/258.8 pass) in 2017.
• Last year, center Zach Shackelford was named first-team All-Big 12 by the AP and second-team by the coaches, while right tackle Samuel Cosmi was honorable mention as the Big 12's Offensive Freshman of the Year. Cosmi was also a freshman All-American.

LEADING FROM THE BACK

• Senior DB Brandon Jones has been a force for the Texas defense so far in 2019. He has racked up a team-high 86 tackles tackles (7.2 pg), including 4.5 for a loss, broken up four passes, picked off two passes, forced one fumble and recovered one.
• Earned second-team All-Big 12 honors in 2019 from the league's head coaches.
• He is one of six team captains elected by their teammates for the 2019 season. Was also a semifinalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and is a semifinalist for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award in 2019.
• The senior led a UT defense that held a potent Oklahoma State offense to just three TDs on 14 possessions, forcing field goals on two drives that ended inside the Texas 10-yard line.
• Against OSU, Jones led a secondary that limited 2018 Biletnikoff Award finalist Tylan Wallace to just five catches for 83 yards. The Horns held Wallace to just two catches for 17 yards in the second half. Wallace had 10 catches for 298 yards and four TDs in his previous two games.
• Jones missed four games last season, however he still finished fourth on the team in total tackles with 70 and led the team in tackles per game (7.0 pg). He was also second on the team with two interceptions and still earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

JONES A TACKLING MACHINE

• Brandon Jones, who had 70 tackles and earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors a season ago, is the first Longhorn to log at least 70 tackles in consecutive seasons since Steve Edmond did so from 2012-14.
• He posted a career-high 12 tackles (11 solo) during Texas' 49-24 win over Texas Tech in his last game at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.
• Jones tied for the team lead with nine tackles against Iowa State. It was his third game with at least nine tackles in his last four outings.
• In Texas' come-from-behind win over No. 16 Kansas State, Jones logged a team-high six tackles, one tackle for loss and forced a fumble that was recovered by DL Moro Ojomo.
• Jones also returned a K-State punt 53 yards - a career long - to set up a Texas TD drive early in the fourth quarter. It was the longest punt return by a Longhorn since D'Shawn Jamison's 90-yard touchdown, which also came against Kansas State, on Sept. 30, 2018 (18 games).
• He helped lead a UT defense that held K-State to just three points on its final seven possession where the offense saw the field.
• Led a Texas secondary that limited K-State QB Skylar Thompson to just 36 yards on 4-of-10 passing in the second half.
• Played a key role in helping the Longhorns hold K-State to 51 rushing yards on 26 carries (2.0 ypc). Entering the game, the Wildcats had rushed for 555 yards (277.5 ypg) and 11 touchdowns in their previous two outings.
• The senior notched a career-high 11 tackles, and picked off his second pass of the season, at TCU. It was Jones' second-straight outing with double-digit tackles.
• Jones logged 10 total tackles, all of them unassisted, against Kansas the week prior.
• The Longhorn captain made five tackles against No. 6 Oklahoma and intercepted a pass, marking the second-straight year that Jones has picked off a pass in the AT&T Red River Showdown.
• Jones logged seven tackles, including six solo stops, against Oklahoma State. He tied his career high with two tackles for loss and broke up a career-best two passes.

STRONG AND STERN(S)

• Sophomore DB Caden Sterns has been an impact performer in 2019, racking up 50 tackles, highlighted by a career-high 12 vs. Oklahoma State. Sterns missed four games (at WVU, vs. OU, KU, at TCU) due to injury, but returned to action with a five-tackle outing against No. 16 Kansas State on Nov. 9.
• Sterns bagged six tackles at No. 13 Baylor on Nov. 23, his second-best output since returning from injury.
• He notched eight tackles, his first sack of the season, and two tackles for loss on the road against Iowa State.
• Sterns was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Freshman of the Year in 2018. He was the seventh Longhorn to earn Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, joining Cory Redding (1999), Derrick Johnson (2001), Rodrique Wright (2002), Brian Orakpo (2005), Quandre Diggs (2011) and Malik Jefferson (2015).
• Sterns started all 13 games in which he played (missing only the Sugar Bowl due to injury), becoming the first UT true freshman DB since Blake Gideon (13 starts) in 2008 to start the first 13 games of his career.
• He had 62 tackles (three TFL), four interceptions, four pass breakups and a blocked FG in 2018.
• He had two interceptions against TCU and was named Thorpe Award Player of the Week, as well as Big 12 Newcomer of the Week, for his effort.

• This season, Roach has logged 36 total tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and one quarterback hurry. He also blocked a PAT against Kansas, which was recovered and returned by D'Shawn Jamison for a defensive two-point conversion in the fourth quarter of a 50-48 win.

• In his final game at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium, Roach racked up four tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. His two TFLs led the team against Texas Tech.

• In his best outing of the season, Roach notched five total tackles, four TFLs, and his first sack of the season at TCU. He is the second Longhorn to record four TFLs in a game during Tom Herman's tenure as head coach (4.0 - Gary Johnson vs. USC, 2018).

He made his return against West Virginia and finished the season strong with at least four tackles in each of the last three games against Kansas, No. 5 Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship Game, and No. 5 Georgia in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

• Prior to the 2018 season, Roach played in all 25 games (13 in 2017/12 in 2016) with a total of eight starts (three in 2017/ five in 2016).

GAME NOTES

HONORING A LONGHORN LEGEND IN 2019

• The Longhorns will honor legendary running back Cedric Benson by wearing his number 32 decal on their helmets in his honor.

• Benson, the 2004 Doak Walker Award and eight-year NFL veteran, passed away in a motorcycle accident on Sat., Aug. 17 in Austin. He was 36 just years old.

• After Benson's passing, Mayor Steve Adler proclaimed Aug. 22, 2019, as 'Cedric Benson Day' in Austin.

• Prior to the Longhorns' practice on Saturday, Aug. 24, the team honored Benson with a prayer and moment of silence. UT also held a moment of silence prior to the start of its game against Louisiana Tech.

• Benson's funeral service was held in Austin on Sat., Aug. 24 and his body was laid to rest in the Texas State Cemetery on the morning of Monday, Aug. 26. The Texas State Cemetery is the final resting place of Governors, Senators, Legislators, Congressmen, Judges and other legendary Texans who have made the state what it is today.

• A four-year starter who was the first freshman in Longhorn history to rush for 1,000 yards, Benson played at Texas from 2001-04 and his 5,540 yards rank second only to Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams in UT history and are ninth-best in NCAA history.

• He scored 64 career rushing touchdowns (No. 9 on the NCAA all-time list), earned first-team All-America honors and won the Doak Walker award, given to the nation's top running back, as a senior in 2004.

• His first career start came at Oklahoma State as a freshman, he rushed for 131 yards and proceeded to register a UT freshman record five straight 100-yard games. He would go on to run for at least 100 yards 25 times (No. 2 in UT history) during his illustrious Longhorn career.

• Benson was the only player in school history to rush for at least 1,000 yards in four seasons, something only five other players in NCAA history had done when he accomplished that feat. His UT record 1,112 career carries were a shining example of his willingness to put the Longhorns on his back and carry them to victory.

• Inducted into the Texas Athletics Hall of Honor in 2014, he helped the Longhorns post a 43-8 record in his four seasons on the Forty Acres. That record includes a 3-1 mark in bowl games, three 11-win campaigns, and at least 10 wins all four years. UT finished the year ranked in the top six three times, earning a No. 5 ranking in the final AP Poll in 2001 and 2004.

HEAD COACH

A Texas Ex and former University of Texas graduate assistant with deep ties to the state of Texas, Tom Herman was named the 30th Head Football Coach at The University of Texas on Nov. 26, 2016. He is wrapping up his third season at UT in 2019 and his fifth season overall as a head coach.

He has amassed 24 wins at Texas so far, the third-most by a head coach in his first three seasons at UT.

Herman led the Longhorns to a 7-5 mark in 2019, marking his third-straight winning season at the helm in Austin. The Texas head coach has led his teams to bowl games in all three seasons at UT and in all five season overall as a head coach. Nine Longhorns earned All-Big 12 recognition under Herman in 2019, with WR Devin Duvernay and OL Zach Shackelford both collecting first-team honors. DB Brandon Jones and OL Samuel Cosmi both were named second-team performers.

QB Sam Ehlinger became only the third Longhorn to surpass 4,000 yards of total offense in a season, joining Longhorn Legends Vince Young (2005) and Colt McCoy (2008) in that exclusive club. Ehlinger has totaled 35 touchdowns so far in 2019, the fourth-most in school history. The offense ranked 18th nationally in scoring offense, 15th in total offense and converted third downs at the ninth-best rate of any team in the FBS. Texas surrendered the fewest turnovers of any Big 12 team. The Horns also were a top-10 team offensively in the red zone. On defense, the Longhorns stuffed opponents on fourth down and turned opponents over 19 times. UT's plus-six turnover margin ranked 25th nationally and the Longhorns were a top-30 team in the country defensively on fourth downs.

In 2018, Herman led his Longhorns to a 10-4 mark, Sugar Bowl victory and a Big 12 Championship Game appearance in just his second season at the helm. The 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl marked Herman's second appearance in a NY6 Bowl Game in just four seasons. DE Charles Omenihu was named Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year, while S Caden Sterns was UT's seventh all-time Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. In total, 18 Longhorns garnered All-Big 12 recognition, including four on the first team. In all, 10 players went on to an NFL opportunity, including draft picks Omenihu and CB Kris Boyd.

QB Sam Ehlinger became the only player in UT history to pass for at least 25 touchdowns and rush for at least 15 in a season, while the Longhorns controlled the ball and kept it secure in 2018. The offense ranked 22nd in the nation in time of possession despite playing in the fast-paced Big 12, along with being 12th in total first downs. Texas was also tied for 15th in turnover margin at plus-nine, and tied for fourth in turnovers lost with just 11. The offense had a stretch of 295 total plays, including three straight full games without a turnover, leading to a total of five turnover free games for the season. On defense, Texas continued in its strengths of strong red zone defense, ranking 17th nationally, and stopping the run, allowing just 131.4 yards per game to rank 28th.

In his first season at Texas, Herman guided the Longhorns to a 7-6 record and a victory in the Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas Bowl over Missouri. Both P Michael Dickson and S DeShon Elliott were named unanimous All-Americans, with Dickson becoming UT's first-ever winner of the Ray Guy Award. Seven players were named All-Big 12 and 14 were named to the Academic All-Big 12 teams. Linebacker Malik Jefferson was named Big 12 Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year, defensive lineman Poona Ford was named the Big 12 Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year, and punter Michael Dickson was named Big 12 Conference Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season. Elliott joined the trio of players of the year as a unanimous first team All-Big 12 selection.

Texas was stout defensively, finishing third nationally in third-down defense (.271) and seventh nationally in fourth-down defense (.300). The Longhorns finished eighth nationally in rushing defense (106.8 ypg) and 41st in total defense (365.6), after finishing the 2016 season 76th and 94th, respectively. UT had eight non-offensive touchdowns (five interceptions, two fumble returns, one punt return) in 2017 after not recording any during the previous season.

Herman saw 12 players earn an opportunity in the NFL following his first season, including four Longhorns being selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. Offensive lineman Connor Williams was taken in the second round by the Dallas Cowboys, Jefferson went in the third round to the Cincinnati Bengals, Dickson was selected in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks and Elliott was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the sixth round.

Herman came to Texas after compiling a 22-4 record in two seasons at Houston, the fourth-best record in the FBS in that span. His first season as head coach at Texas will mark his 14th spent in the state of Texas out of 20 years coaching on the collegiate level. That includes his time as a graduate assistant at UT (1999-2000), where he earned a master's degree in education.

Following his first season at UH, Herman was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Awards, while also being chosen as the Football Writers Association of America's First-Year Coach of the Year and the American Athletic Conference's Co-Coach of the Year.

Herman became just the fourth head coach in NCAA history with at least 13 wins in a rookie season, joining Chris Petersen (Boise State - 2006), George Woodruff (Penn - 1892) and Walter Camp (Yale - 1888), and just the fifth head coach in NCAA history to win the first 10 games of his career, joining Petersen, Larry Coker (Miami - 2001), Woodruff and Camp in accomplishing the feat.

He led the Cougars to their first New Year's Bowl in 30 years, its second 13-win season in program history and its 11th conference championship in program history by claiming the inaugural AAC Championship. He led all FBS coaches in their first year with a program with 13 wins as Houston finished third nationally with a 92.9 winning percentage at 13-1.

With a 38-24 win over No. 9 Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Herman joined College Football Hall of Famer Bill Yeoman as just the second coach in Houston history with a win in one of the New Year's Six bowls and the second with a bowl victory over a top-10 opponent. Houston ended the 2015 season ranked No. 8 in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, its highest finish since ranking No. 5 in 1979, and just the sixth time in program history to finish in the top 10.

Houston was one of just two schools nationally to play at least four ranked opponents in 2015 and remain undefeated in those contests, while it was one of eight teams nationally with at least four wins against ranked opponents. Three of those wins came by double-digits, the fourth-best total in the nation.

Ranking 10th in scoring offense (40.4 points per game) and 21st in scoring defense (20.7 points per game), Houston was the only program in the nation to rank in the top 10 in scoring offense and the top 25 in scoring defense. UH ranked fifth nationally with an average margin of victory of 19.7 points per game. The Cougars ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 108.9 yards per game, while ranking 13th in rushing offense with an average of 235.8 yards per game. Houston was the only team in the nation to rank in the top 13 in both categories.

In 2016, Herman guided his program to a 9-3 record, including wins over No. 3 Oklahoma and No. 3 Louisville. Houston became the first program nationally to defeat two top-five teams. Herman's Cougars join Alabama as the only two teams in the nation with double-digit wins over two top-10 teams this season.

Houston ranked as one of the most efficient and disciplined teams in the country under Herman, as their offense ranked 34th and the defense 15th when he was hired by the Longhorns.

In the regular season, Houston's offense ranked 15th in third down conversions, sixth in completion percentage, ninth in first downs and 21st in scoring offense in 2016. Ward, Jr. led the Cougars offense, as he was named a semifinalist for both the Davey O'Brien Award and The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. He finished the regular season with 3,328 passing yards and 518 rushing yards. He was 294-of-435 (67.6%) passing, ranking in the top-12 nationally in completion percentage, completions per game and passing yards. He had 31 total touchdowns in 12 games. For his career, Ward is fifth in Houston history with 8,202 passing yards, 52 touchdown passes and 699 completions.

Defensively, Houston featured the nation's third-ranked rush defense in addition to the nation's 15th-best defense in total yards allowed. The Cougars were third nationally with five defensive touchdowns on the season and allowed just 22.6 points per game in 12 regular season contests. They also ranked as one of the nation's best in bringing pressure, ranking in the top-20 in sacks (13th) and tackles for loss (19th). Freshman DT Ed Oliver, an All-American, was sixth nationally with 19.5 tackles for loss. He added seven quarterback hurries and led all defensive linemen nationally with his nine pass breakups. LB Steven Taylor, the Cougars leading tackler, ranked 26th nationally with 8.5 sacks. As a team, Houston finished the regular season with 90 tackles for loss and 37 sacks.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Herman helped develop record-setting and explosive offenses in each of his 10 seasons as an offensive coordinator, including three seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State where he won the 2014 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. He helped the Buckeyes win the 2015 College Football Championship (following the 2014 season) with third-string quarterback Cardale Jones under center in wins over Alabama and Oregon, and a Big Ten Championship win over Wisconsin. Herman's 2014 Ohio State offense finished the season ranked fifth in scoring offense at 44.8 points per game and ninth in total offense at 511.6 yards per game despite losing Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback Braxton Miller prior to the season. With freshman J.T. Barrett taking over the reins, Herman molded the quarterback into a formidable leader who finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named a FWAA Freshman All-American.

After leading the Big Ten in scoring in 2012 at 37.2 points per game and ranking 10th nationally in rushing at nearly 250 yards per game, Ohio State's offense under Herman went to a new level in 2013, ranking third nationally in scoring at 45.5 ppg and fifth in rushing at 308.6 ypg.

Herman, who was named the 2013 Rivals.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year and national Top 25 recruiter, arrived in Columbus after spending three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Iowa State.

During his time at Iowa State from 2009-11, Herman's well-balanced offense was very evident as Iowa State quarterback Austen Arnaud ended his career as the Cyclones' No. 2 all-time leading passer with 6,777 yards and 42 touchdown passes, while running back Alexander Robinson finished his Iowa State career as the Cyclones' fourth all-time leading rusher with 3,309 yards.

Herman spent 2007 and 2008 as offensive coordinator at Rice before heading to Iowa State. During his two seasons with the Owls, his offenses broke over 40 school records and, in his second season, the Owls won 10 games and went to a bowl for the first time since 1954.

Prior to Rice, Herman directed offensive attacks for two years (2005-06) at Texas State, where Bobcat squads led the Southland Conference in total offense. The 2005 Texas State club was eighth nationally in scoring and made a run to the FCS semifinals in the school's first appearance in the Division 1-AA playoffs. Herman also worked four years (2001-04) as an assistant coach at Sam Houston State as special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach, helping them to a pair of conference titles and trips to the FCS semifinals and quarterfinals.

The job with SHSU was his first after his time as a graduate assistant at Texas, where he assisted with the offensive line on the Longhorns' Cotton and Holiday Bowl teams. He received his coaching start in 1998 as a wide receivers coach at Texas Lutheran.

Herman was born in Cincinnati and still has family there. He was raised in Simi Valley, Calif., and he played collegiately as an all-conference wide receiver at California Lutheran, graduating in 1997 with a degree in business administration. He received a master's in education from the University of Texas in 2000.

Herman and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Priya, and two sons, TD and Maverick.
