Head Coach John Fields

22nd season at Texas

Full name _____ John Fields
 Birthdate _____ January 10, 1959
 Hometown _____ Las Cruces, N.M.
 College _____ New Mexico '82

John Fields directs the Men's Golf program for The University of Texas with an acting ethos that befits UT's proud chorus, "Texas Fight."

The Longhorns' 2011-12 season personified the competitive composure of their steward, claiming UT's first men's golf national championship since 1972. UT topped Alabama, 3-2, with All-American Dylan Frittelli's 30-putt birdie putt on the 18th hole.

UT met the Crimson Tide on the final day of team match play at California's historic Riviera Country Club, and Alabama forced UT to climb out of a 2-0 hole for its eight victory of the season.

Fields became the Longhorns' golf coach in August 1997, and has guided UT to six top-five finishes at the NCAA Championships and eight appearances in the top 10 in the final rankings.

Fields came to Austin after leading the University of New Mexico to nine NCAA Championship appearances in 10 years. His consistent effort on the recruiting trail translated into building a successful program - a formula that has continued to prove successful at Texas.

He also has produced 21 All-Americans at Texas (Beau Hossler, Matt Bortis, Matt Brost, Brad Elder, Dylan Frittelli, Doug Ghim, David Gossett, Cody Gribble, Gavin Hall, Jason Hartwick, Charlie Holland, Bobby Hudson, John Klauk, Lance Lopez, Matthew Rosenfeld, Scottie Scheffler, Jordan Spieth and J.J. Wall) who have earned a total of 37 All-America honors.

The architect of a Texas team that won eight team titles during the 2011-12 season, Fields' Longhorns held the No. 1 national ranking all but two weeks during the year and boasted two of the top three players in the country in Spieth (No. 2) and Frittelli (No. 3). Fields was named the Golfweek and NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year after leading Texas to its first NCAA Championship in 40 years.

Texas advanced to its fifth NCAA match play in seven years, the most of any team in the country. Behind senior leaders Doug Ghim and Scottie Scheffler, the Horns posted seven top-five finishes and seven top-six individual finishes. Texas won the NCAA Regional in Raleigh, N.C. and finished in a tie for sixth at the NCAA Championship led by Ghim's third and Scheffler's sixth-place individual finishes. The Horns fell to Duke, 3-2 in the quarterfinal round.

Ghim became the Longhorns' first Ben Hogan Award winner in May of 2018. He was the Big 12 individual champion and the Raleigh Regional Champion, earning him PING All-America First Team and Golfweek All-America First Team honors. Scheffler joined Ghim with PING All-America Third Team and Golfweek All-America Third Team accolades. Scheffler was the low amateur at the 2017 U.S. Open and Ghim won the Silver Cup after finishing as the low amateur at the 2018 Masters Tournament.

In 2016-17, Fields led the Longhorns to their fifth-straight Big 12 Championship, outlasting Oklahoma State in the final holes of competition. Led by senior Gavin Hall and juniors Scottie Scheffler, Texas welcomed sophomore Steven Chervony and newcomer Spencer Soosman into the lineup.

The Longhorns posted eight top-five finishes in 2016-17, including first-place finishes at the UT Longhorn Shootout and Big 12 Championship and a runner-up at the NCAA Regional in Austin. Ghim and Scheffler both earned medalist honors for the season and were named Second Team All-Americans, while Hall earned honorable mention accolades. Texas closed the 2016-17 with a 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championship, Scheffler leading with a tie for third.

The 2015-16 season was one to remember, as Fields guided the Longhorns to seven team wins and two runner-ups, including a runner-up finish at the 2016 National Championship in extra holes. Texas won its fourth-straight Big 12 Championship and advanced to its 10th-straight NCAA Championship appearance under fields. Fields was named Big 12 Coach of the Year and landed three golfers on the All-Big 12 team, including junior Beau Hossler.

Hossler medaled in five tournaments, was named Big 12 Player of the Year in consecutive seasons and was a finalist for multiple player of the year honors, including the Ben Hogan Award and the Haskins Award. He earned the country's No. 1 ranking in February of 2016 and maintained his ranking through most of the spring.

Hossler was not the only player to win that year, as junior Gavin Hall raked in two medalist honors as well. All five golfers had at least one top-10 finish and all had at least one round in the 60s during the season.

At the 2016 NCAA Tournament, Fields led Hossler, Gavin Hall, Doug Ghim, Scottie Scheffler and Taylor Funk into the stroke play portion, finishing in first after four rounds and advancing to match play. The Horns defeated Oklahoma in the quarterfinal round, USC in the semifinal round and was set to face Oregon in the NCAA Finals on the Ducks' home course. After conceding the first point to a Hossler injury, it was up to the remaining four to put three points on the board. The match came down to Funk, finishing all square at the end of 18 holes. Funk fell on the third extra hole and Texas finished in second.

In the 2014-15 season, Fields boasted one of the best Texas teams of all time after winning seven events and raking in the All-American awards with Hossler, Ghim, Scheffler and Hall all earning honors. The Longhorns won their third-straight Big 12 Championship and followed with a win at the NCAA Regional in Lubbock going into the NCAA Championships. Texas survived stroke play and made it into the first round of match play before falling to USC in the quarterfinal round. Scheffler was named Freshman of the Year and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, while Hossler was named Big 12 Player of the Year.

The Longhorns tied for 12th place at the 2011 NCAA Championships after taking fifth at the NCAA West Regional Championship. Frittelli collected his second consecutive PING third-team All-America selection after posting a career-best tie for 20th place.

Frittelli, Gribble and Hudson earned PING All-America honors during the 2009-10 campaign that saw the Longhorns win two events (NCAA East Regional, Puerto Rico Classic) and tie for 21st place at the NCAA Championships. Frittelli, the 2010 Big 12 Conference Player of the Year, and Gribble earned third-team All-America honors, while Hudson earned an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, Texas placed 26th at the NCAA Championships after qualifying for the event with a third-place finish at the NCAA Austin Regional Championships at The University of Texas Golf Club. Then-UT junior Lance Lopez captured the regional with a 4-under par effort to become the fourth current Longhorn to have won a college tournament. The win also secured Lopez's standing as an honorable mention All-American.

Texas posted six top-five team finishes during the 2008-09 season and won the season-opening Gopher Invitational and the Turtle Bay Collegiate Invitational. Additionally, Frittelli took medalist honors at the Puerto Rico Classic as a true freshman.

In 2008, Fields led Texas to the NCAA Championships after placing second at the Big 12 Championships and emerging from a three-team playoff at the NCAA West Regional Championship. Texas missed the final-round cut and placed 19th overall at the event. Fields guided Texas to the team title at UT's Morris Williams Intercollegiate, where redshirt freshman Bobby Hudson took medalist honors behind a course-record 65 at The UT Golf Club. In addition, Holland scored his first tournament victory at the Fresno State Lexus Classic.

In 2007, Fields led the Longhorns to a tie for 11th place at the NCAA Championships, as redshirt freshman Charlie Holland chipped in UT's top individual showing by tying for 22nd place. Texas qualified for the NCAA Championships by placing ninth at the NCAA Central Regional Championship in Sugar Grove, Ill.

Fields' Longhorns came alive in the fall of 2006, scoring victories at the Isleworth Collegiate Invitational and the Aloha Purdue Collegiate. UT ran away with a 12-stroke victory at the Isleworth before closing out the fall with a six-stroke win at the Aloha Purdue Collegiate. Texas later added top-five showings at the Morris Williams Intercollegiate (4th) and the Big 12 Championship (4th).

In 2005-06, Fields guided Matt Rosenfeld to UT's 36th all-time conference medalist honors at the 2006 Big 12 Championship. The Longhorns finished the season ranked 18th by Golfstat.com and placed among the Top Five at five of 12 tournaments. Matthew Mills and Jeff Bell were both named to the PING South All-Region team and Bell joined Rosenfeld on the Academic All-Big 12 team. The Longhorns fell one-stroke short of qualifying for the NCAA Championship with an 11th-place finish at the Central Regional.

In 2004-05, Texas finished fourth at the Big 12 Championships and 24th at the NCA Championships. Matthew Rosenfeld was named a PING All-American for the third time in his career and Jeff Bell was named to the PING South All-Region Team. UT finished in the top five of seven out of its 11 regular season tournaments and had three individuals place among the top three on separate occasions.

During the 2003-04 season, Fields' team once again proved itself on the course with 13 consecutive top-10 showings to close the season, including a record-setting third-straight victory at the Big 12 Championships and a fourth-place effort at the NCAA Championship. In addition to the team's other victory at the Cleveland Golf Classic, Longhorns copped four individual titles.

Senior Jason Hartwick alone scored three wins, including the Big 12 Championship with his nine-stroke victory. Matthew Rosenfeld also won the Cleveland Golf Classic, leading a pack of three UT golfers at the top of the leader board as Hartwick and Jeff Bell finished tied for second. Hartwick was chosen as the 2004 Big 12 Golfer of the Year and later added his fourth-career All-American nod with a first-team selection. Fields earned his third straight Big 12 Coach of the Year honor after his record-setting third-consecutive Big 12 title.

The 2002-03 season typified the type of successful golf Fields coaches. The Longhorns finished in the top 10 in all 13 stroke-play tournaments the team played. The team's continued success at the conference championships parleyed into similar results for the rest of the season as UT went on to finish fourth at the NCAA Central Regional in Manhattan, Kan., and tied for ninth at the NCAA Championships in Stillwater, Okla. At the conclusion of play in 2003, Texas was ranked fifth in the final Golfweek/Sagarin ratings. Wall continued to play well in the twilight of his UT career, finishing in a three-way tie for third at the regional. In his final collegiate tournament he helped usher in a new team leader on the course as freshman Matthew Rosenfeld capped a tremendous first-year campaign with a third-place finish at the national championships. Hartwick captured a tie for sixth place in the final event of the year.

At the conclusion of the season, several Longhorns - including Fields - were honored for their success on the course. Hartwick (third team) and Rosenfeld (honorable mention) were PING All-America selections, and both joined Wall on the All-Big 12 team. Rosenfeld was also honored as the Big 12 Freshman of the Year, and Fields was recognized by his peers as the Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second-consecutive season. Hartwick's All-America honor was the third of his three-year career in Austin.

The 2001-02 campaign proved not only to be the most successful during Fields' tenure at UT, but also one of the best in school history. The Longhorns posted a total of five tournament team titles during the season, including a stretch of four consecutive wins during the spring schedule. This marked the first time that Texas had won at least five team titles in a season since 1992-93, when the Horns also captured a total of five tourney crowns. The four consecutive team wins tied a school record, set in both the 1972-73 and 1982-83 campaigns.

Texas concluded its win streak with a one-stroke victory at the Big 12 Conference Championships at Prairie Dunes Country Club in Hutchinson, Kan. The Longhorns trailed Oklahoma by 10 strokes entering the final round, but made up 13 strokes on the Sooners and held off a late surge by Oklahoma State to capture their first-ever Big 12 team title. UT's winning score of 10-over-par 850 marked a Big 12 Championships record.

Texas capped off the season with a tie for third place at the NCAA Championships in Columbus, Ohio, which marked the best finish for Texas at NAAs since 1995 when the Horns also placed third. For his efforts, Fields was tabbed the Big 12 Coach of the Year. Senior John Klauk claimed second-team GCAA (Golf Coaches Association of America) All-America honors, while sophomore Jason Hartwick was named to the third team. In addition, junior J.J. Wall was tabbed an honorable mention All-American.

The 2000-01 Longhorns finished in the top five in 10 of 13 tournaments, including a team title at the Waikoloa Intercollegiate. UT concluded the campaign ranked No. 6 in the final MasterCard national rankings. Freshman Jason Hartwick and junior John Klauk earned honorable mention All-America accolades, while Hartwick was tabbed the Big 12 Conference Newcomer of the Year.

Texas enjoyed an excellent season under Fields in 1999-2000, when it earned two tournament victories and finished in the top five in seven of 13 events. The Longhorns capped off the season by winning the team title at the NCAA Central Regional and recording a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Sophomore David Gossett earned first-team All-America recognition for the second straight year, while sophomore Matt Brost garnered honorable mention All-America accolades. Gossett began the year by winning the 1999 U.S. Amateur title, defeating Sun Yoon Kim (9-and-8) in the 36-hole match-play final.

He then went on to post three top-five individual finishes and tied for third place at the NCAA Championships. In July 2000, Gossett became the seventh player under Fields to turn professional and play on the PGA Tour or the Nationwide Tour (formerly the Buy.com Tour). UT posted three tournament victories and finished in the top three in seven of its 14 appearances during the 1998-99 campaign. The Longhorns placed third at the Big 12 Championships and ended the year ranked No. 15 in the final MasterCard national rankings.

In Fields' first season with the Longhorns, UT recorded four top-10 showings in 12 appearances, highlighted by a second-place finish at the Big 12 Championships. Senior Brad Elder earned third-team All-America honors and ended his collegiate career as the nation's No. 1 amateur according to the Golfweek/Titleist amateur rankings.

While at the helm of the New Mexico men's golf program, the Lobos won three Western Athletic Conference titles and never finished lower than third in the league championships during Fields' 10 seasons. At the NCAA Championships, New Mexico placed in the Top 15 a total of five times, including a sixth-place finish in 1996, the school's best showing since 1979.

He tutored four WAC Players of the Year, three WAC individual champions, nine All-Americans, 24 all-conference players and six Academic All-Americans. He earned four WAC Coach of the Year honors (1989, 1993, 1995 and 1996) and four NCAA District VII Coach of the Year honors (1993, 1995, 1996 and 1997). Fields' efforts also helped bring the NCAA Championships to Albuquerque in both 1992 and 1998. PGA Tour veterans Doug LaBelle and D.J. Brigan earned second-team All-America honors under Fields at New Mexico.

Current PGA Tour members who played for Fields include: Brad Elder, David Gossett, Tim Herron, Kent Jones and Sean Murphy. Herron graduated from New Mexico in 1993 after earning first-team All-America honors and turned pro the year he graduated. Jones, a two-time Academic All-American, earned his degree from New Mexico in 1990 and turned pro in 1992. Murphy has enjoyed a pro career since 1988, while Elder earned his PGA Tour card in 2000. One of the rising young stars in professional golf, David Gossett began his fourth full year on the PGA Tour in 2004.

A native of Las Cruces, N.M., Fields was a four-year letterman at New Mexico before earning his degree in 1982. He was a member of Lobos golf teams that finished fifth and seventh at the NCAA Championships.

While earning his degree as a fifth-year senior, he served as a part-time assistant for the Lobos program during the 1981-82 season, before spending the next year on the PGA European Tour. After his stint on the professional circuit, Fields became the assistant head golf professional at Mesa del Sol Golf Course in Yuma, Ariz., where he became a Class A PGA member in 1986. He then took the New Mexico coaching job in November 1987.

Fields, born on January 10, 1959, and his wife, Pearl, a 1982 graduate of New Mexico, have two children, Marshall and April.

ASSISTANT COACH JEAN-PAUL HEBERT

9th season at Texas

Full name _____ Jean-Paul Hebert
College _____ Texas '94

Former All-America selection Jean-Paul Hebert (JOHN-PAUL A-bear) is into his fifth season as the Assistant Men's Golf Coach. Prior to this position, Hebert served for three and a half years as the team's volunteer coach.

Hebert joined the Longhorns in a volunteer capacity in November of 2010. In that role, Hebert assisted in 14 team victories, nine medalist honors, back-to-back Big 12 Championships (2013 & 2014), and the 2012 NCAA Championship at Riviera Country Club. Additionally, he helped coach and develop the talents of five All-Americans in Cody Gribble, Dylan Frittelli, Jordan Spieth, Julio Vegas, and Brandon Stone.

Since coming on board full time on June 1, 2014, Hebert has supported the development of four more All-Americans in Beau Hossler, Scottie Scheffler, Gavin Hall, and Doug Ghim, and has been a part of 19 team victories, three additional Big 12 titles, and a dramatic runner-up finish at the 2016 NCAA Tournament.

A distinguished Texas Ex, Hebert played for Texas from 1991-1994 under head coach Jimmy Clayton. With Justin Leonard as a teammate, Hebert played a major part in leading the Longhorns to four Southwest Conference titles, and a second place finish at the 1994 NCAA Championship his senior year. Individually, Hebert earned All-America honors in three straight seasons (1991-93), and was a four-time All-SWC selection. His 24 top-10 finishes throughout his collegiate career included a win at the 1992 Miami (Florida) National Collegiate, and a T3 finish at the 1993 NCAA Championship. Hebert graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Communications (1994).

Twice nominated as a finalist for the Jan Strickland Assistant Coach of the Year (2016 & 2017), Coach Hebert's impact at Texas has not gone unnoticed.

Born and raised in Houston, Hebert was influenced primarily by his father Jay Hebert (1960 PGA Champion, and 1971 Ryder Cup Captain), as well as his uncle Lionel (1957 PGA Champion), and was molded by dozens of other great players and teachers including Jackie Burke, Dave Marr, and the Harmon family just to name a few.

Following his collegiate career on the Forty Acres, Hebert competed professionally, and later worked for Golf Channel and CBS as an associate producer for live tournament golf. He is also member of the PGA of America.

RICHIE COUGHLAN

2nd season at Texas

Full name _____ Richie Coughlan
College _____ Clemson '97

Coughlan enters his second year with the Longhorns after an eight-year stint on the European and PGA Tours and extensive golf instruction experience.

He became the first player in history to qualify for the PGA Tour and the European Tour in his rookie season in 1997. He earned four top-25 finishes on the PGA Tour, including a ninth-place showing at the B.C. Open in 1998.

After leaving the professional ranks, Coughlan worked as a staff instructor at the Schenectady Municipal Golf Course before moving on to become a PGA Tour Academy Staff Instructor at Weston Hills Country Club and World Golf Village.

In 2010, Coughlan became a PGA Tour Academy Staff Instructor at TPC San Antonio before becoming the Head Instructor from 2011 to 2016, earning PGA Tour Academy Instructor of the Year honors in 2014.

He has worked extensively with top junior golfers of AJGA standard, college players competing at all division levels, and professional mini tour players, including Cameron Beckman, Frank Connor, and Mike McCullough.

As an amateur, Coughlan appeared on the 1997 Palmer Cup and 1997 Walker Cup, representing Great Britain and Ireland in both events.

He graduated from Clemson University in 1997, earning All-America honors in 1996 and 1997, and was named the NCAA Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year in 1997. He was inducted into the Clemson Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.
