RYAN MURPHY
HEAD COACH

In five impressive seasons at the helm of the University of Texas women's golf program, Ryan Murphy has returned the Longhorns to among the nation's elite, culminating with three consecutive Big 12 Conference Championships for the first time in program history and the school's best finish [T12th] at the NCAA Championship since 2004 in 2017-18.

Murphy, who as an assistant coach helped the Texas men's golf team to the 2012 NCAA Championship, was named the fourth head women's golf coach in program history on May 29, 2014. He has been named the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year in each of the last two seasons.

Under the direction of Murphy, Texas golfers have recorded 10 of the best 11 18-hole scores in program history, and each of the top-seven 54-hole totals in school annals. Eighteen of the top 19 18-hole team scores in school history have come during Murphy's tenure. Additionally, each of the top 12 54-hole team scores in program history have been charted by Murphy's teams.

Murphy's freshman class for the 2018-19 season was ranked No. 3 by Golfweek. The class includes Hailee Cooper, the nation's No. 9 prospect from Montgomery, Texas, and Sára Kousková from Prague, Czech Republic.

Last season, Murphy led the Longhorns to their second consecutive Big 12 Conference Championship, a second-place finish at the NCAA Austin Regional and a tie for 12th place at the NCAA Championship, which marked the program's best finish at the NCAA Championship since 2004. His team won three tournaments and also earned three individual tournament medalist honors. In 13 tournaments in 2017-18, Texas recorded nine top-five team finishes and UT golfers posted 19 rounds in the 60s.

Murphy's mentorship of freshman Kaitlyn Papp resulted in her becoming the first golfer in program history to be named both the Big 12 Player of the Year and the Big 12 Freshman of the Year. She was one of three First-Team All-Big 12 Conference selections for the Longhorns in 2017-18, joining senior Sophia Schubert and sophomore Emilee Hoffman. It marked the first time since 2003 that Texas had placed three people on the All-Big 12 Team in a single season.

Schubert in 2017-18 became the program's first WGCA First-Team All-American since 1997 and Papp was named a WGCA Second-Team All-American. Schubert broke her own single-season school-record stroke average at 71.76.

In his third season of 2016-17, Murphy directed Texas to its first Big 12 Championship since the 2011 season. The Longhorns finished 13th at the NCAA Championship which, at the time, marked the best finish for Texas since a tie for 13th in 2012. The team posted 11 top-four finishes during the season, including two team wins and two individual medalists.

Murphy mentored Schubert to Honorable Mention All-America honors from both Golfweek and the Women's Golf Coaches Association. Schubert, who also was an All-Big 12 Conference selection, concluded her junior campaign with a team-best 72.49 stroke average and finished as the Longhorns' low scorer on seven occasions, including five top-five team finishes and individual medalist honors at the Lady Buckeye Invitational.

Schubert, in August 2017, became the third Longhorn to claim the U.S. Women's Amateur Championship, joining Michiko Hattori [1985] and Kelli Kuehne [1995 and 1996]. Her victory earned her exemptions into four of the five major women's championships - The Evian Championship, the ANA Inspiration, the U.S. Open and the Women's British Open.

Also in 2016-17, Murphy mentored freshman Greta Isabella Voelker to Big 12 Freshman of the Year accolades. She became the third golfer in program history to earn that distinction, joining Randi Meadows [1999] and Kelley Louth [2005]. Voelker posted seven top-15 finishes her rookie season, including four top-10 showings. She was the individual runner-up at the Las Vegas Collegiate, where she tied the school record for lowest 18-hole score at 65.

Fellow rookie Hoffman was the runner-up at the 2017 Big 12 Championships and earned a spot on the 2017 Big 12 All-Tournament Team. Hoffman, who was one of three collegiate golfers nationally to be selected to represent the United States at the World University Games, also tied the school record for lowest 18-hole score (65) at the Lady Paladin Invitational, winning individual medalist honors in that event with the fifth-lowest 54-hole score (210) in program history.

Murphy's 2015-16 team earned a runner-up finish at the Big 12 Championships. The Longhorns earned seven top-five finishes in 12 events and individuals posted 12 top-10 individual finishes, led by Schubert's five. At least four golfers finished in the top-10 at least once during the season. Texas returned to the NCAA Championship for the first time in two years, finishing 23rd.

In Murphy's first season, he led the Longhorns to a vastly improved season, where they earned 10 top-10 team finishes, including three in the top five and a bid to the 2015 NCAA San Antonio Regional. During the 2014-15 season, Murphy coached senior Bertine Strauss into one of the nation's best. Strauss earned six top-10 individual finishes, including four in the top five and the first win of her career at the Ping/ASU Invitational in April. She went on to Big 12 Player of the Year honors, qualified for the NCAA Championship and gained full LPGA membership in December of 2015.

Murphy was named the head women's golf coach at Texas after six seasons as an assistant men's coach for the Longhorns. During that time, Murphy recruited and developed the talents of All-Americans Dylan Frittelli, Cody Gribble, Beau Hossler, Bobby Hudson, Jordan Spieth, Brandon Stone and Julio Vegas. From 2008-14, the Longhorns recorded 19 team titles, including their first NCAA Championship title since 1972, and 12 medalist honors. Murphy was named the 2013 Jan Strickland Assistant Coach of the Year, recognizing his efforts as the top NCAA Division I, II, III, NAIA or NJCAA assistant coach that, among other things, has helped their student-athletes both excel on the course and in the classroom.

Prior to arriving on the Forty Acres, Murphy was the men's head golf coach at NCAA Division II power St. Edward's [Texas] University. He led the Hilltoppers to national prominence as he guided St. Edward's to a tie for first at the 2008 NCAA Division II Men's Golf Championships before falling in a three-team playoff for the national title. The Hilltoppers qualified for the NCAA Championships by posting a 31-stroke victory in the eight-team NCAA Men's South Central Regional Championship at the Grey Rock Golf Club in Austin.

Murphy was a four-year letterwinner for New Mexico from 1994-97 under current Texas men's head coach John Fields. He twice earned Academic All-America honors for his performance in the classroom. Murphy had a career stroke average of 75.04 and played in the NCAA Championships each of his four seasons. He was a member of UNM's Western Athletic Conference championship team in 1996 and helped lead the Lobos to a sixth-place tie in the 1996 NCAA Championships, their best finish since 1979. Murphy's best career finish as an individual was a tie for sixth in the 1995 WAC Championships. His low round was 68 in both the 1995 and 1996 Taylor Made Intercollegiate, and his low tournament was 213 [-3] in the 1994 John Burns Intercollegiate.

Murphy began his coaching career as an assistant men's coach [2001-05] at his alma mater where he helped the Lobos to a fifth-place showing at the 2005 NCAA Championships and three consecutive Mountain West Conference titles.

Murphy earned a bachelor's degree in criminology in 1997 and a master's degree in sport administration in 2001 from New Mexico. He married the former Terry Furuta in June 2010, and the couple has two sons - Aiden and Jackson.

KATE GOLDEN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

One of the most accomplished golfers in University of Texas history and an 18-year LPGA veteran, Kate Golden is in her ninth season on the women's golf coaching staff at her alma mater, currently serving as associate head coach.

Golden has helped return the Longhorns to among the nation's elite programs. Together with head coach Ryan Murphy over the past five seasons, Golden has helped the Longhorns win three consecutive Big 12 Conference Championships and advance to the NCAA Championship for four consecutive years. In 2017-18, Texas posted its best NCAA Championship finish [T-12] since 2004.

Since the start of the 2014-15 season, she has helped Texas golfers record 10 of the best 11 18-hole scores in program history, and each of the top-seven 54-hole totals in school annals. Additionally, 18 of the top 19 18-hole team scores in school history have come during that time, as well as each of the top 12 54-hole team scores in program history.

Golden returned to the Forty Acres in advance of the 2010-11 season as a volunteer assistant coach. In total, she has worked with teams that have advanced to six NCAA Championships and have won four Big 12 Conference Championships. She has helped mentor several All-America selections in Bertine Strauss [2015], Sophia Schubert [2017 and 2018] and Kaitlyn Papp [2018].

Golden joined the Texas staff after serving as the interim women's golf head coach at Florida State during the spring 2010 season. Under her tutelage, the Seminoles finished in 10th place at the 2010 NCAA Championship to earn their best national finish since winning the 1981 AIAW Championship. Additionally, Golden guided FSU to a No. 14 finish in the national rankings by Golfstat and a No. 22 showing in GolfWeek's season-ending standings after inheriting a team that was unranked in both polls.

Prior to her stint in Tallahassee, Golden was a volunteer assistant coach for the University of Houston men's golf team.

Competing in the LPGA from 1992-10, Golden's professional career included a victory at the 2001 State Farm Classic, appearances in more than 30 major championships and nearly $1.5 million in career earnings. En route to the State Farm Classic title, Golden set a then-tournament record of 21 under par during the 72-hole event. She totaled eight top-five finishes and 14 top-10 showings.

A 1989 University of Texas graduate, Golden was a four-year member of the women's golf team under former head coach Pat Weis. She earned second-team All-America honors in 1989 and was a three-time All-Southwest Conference first-team selection [1987-89]. Golden was named to the Southwest Conference All-Decade Team for the 1980s and won three collegiate events during her career.

The 1987 Southwest Conference individual champion, Golden is the daughter of Texas Ex Joe Bob Golden, the 1954 Southwest Conference men's golf individual champion. The Goldenes were the only father-daughter tandem in the history of the Southwest Conference to win individual conference titles in the same sport. Joe Bob Golden played at Texas for Harvey Penick from 1952-54 and served as his assistant while attending law school at UT.

A former member of the LPGA Board of Directors and the LPGA Player Committee, Golden is currently on the Board of Directors for the charitable organization Golfers Against Cancer.

The Betsy Rawls Longhorn Invitational annually features many of the top women's golf teams in the country. Until 2010, players and coaches made their plans to come to Austin each spring to compete in one of the most prestigious regular-season tournaments in the country. It is now a fall tournament and, in 2018, the 45th edition of the tournament took place Oct. 19-21 at The University of Texas Golf Club.

It was in March of 1974 that Texas head coach Pat Weis had the foresight to establish what has not only become a tradition at UT and Austin, but a tradition that dominates collegiate golf for one weekend. This annual event originally known as the Texas Invitational has evolved into one of the strongest collegiate invitational tournaments of the year.

In 1977, the Texas Invitational was renamed to honor Betsy Rawls, a 1950 Texas graduate and one of the most prolific golfers of her day. Rawls won more than 50 tour championships between 1951 and 1975, including four U.S. Opens, and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1977 and into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

The tournament champions' list reads like a "who's who" of women's golf. Nancy Lopez, Beth Daniel, Jody Rosenthal, Val Skinner, Michiko Hattori and Annika Sorenstam are just a few of the past winners who have made the Betsy Rawls tournament one of the marquee events in women's golf.

In 2018, Texas won its second consecutive Betsy Rawls Invitational with a seven-stroke victory. Freshman Hailee Cooper, in just her third career tournament, captured the individual title with a nine-under-par 207.

Young and the restless: No. 2 Texas heads to OU-hosted regional with eyes on a bigger prize

UT junior Emilee Hoffman will be joined by two freshmen and two sophomores.

Story highlights

- Second-ranked Texas has won four tournaments this season.
- The Longhorns won the Big 12 tournament by 37 strokes.
- Four UT golfers topped the Big12 leaderboard.

Texas junior Emilee Hoffman is only 21 years old, but she might feel a little older whenever she steps into the tee box these days.

Since the roster for the women's golf team at Texas has only three juniors and one senior, Hoffman is a veteran among the Longhorns. She is the only upperclassman who will travel with the team to its NCAA regional, which gets underway in Norman, Okla., on Monday. Joining Hoffman at the Jimmie Austin OU Golf Club will be sophomores Kaitlyn Papp and Agathe Laisne and freshmen Hailee Cooper and Sara Kouskova.

"It doesn't really feel like I'm the old lady, but they probably think I am," Hoffman said last week.

Don't let Texas' youth confuse you. These Longhorns have grown up quickly. UT enters its regional ranked second in the WGCA poll. Only USC, which is in a regional hosted by Washington, is ranked higher.

Kaitlyn Papp, hitting a tee shot during the Augusta National Women's Amateur on April 6, has qualified for the 2019 U.S. Women's Open. [ANDY NELSON/FOR THE AUGUSTA CHRONICLE]

The top six teams from each of the NCAA's four regional tournaments will compete for a national title May 17-22 at the Blessings Golf Club in Fayetteville, Ark.

Joining Texas and the host Sooners in the 18-team regional field are No. 5 Wake Forest, No. 11 Florida and No. 15 Arizona State.

Texas is coming off a 37-stroke victory in the Big 12's tournament. Led by Laisne, the Longhorns claimed the first four slots on the individual leaderboard. Laisne became UT's first conference champion since Madison Pressel in 2011.

"I think we're all doing pretty well individually," said Papp, who competed at Lake Travis as a high school golfer. "All of our games have been in good shape this season. Everyone's been working really hard. Hopefully (it will be) a good experience at regionals."

The Big 12 tournament was UT's fourth victory of the season, a feat last accomplished by the program during the 1992-93 season. Cooper, Laisne and senior Maddie Luitwieler have all posted the lowest score for UT during those four wins.

The Longhorns have also fared well in non-team events this season. In April, Texas sent Hoffman, Laisne and Papp to participate in the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur. Last week, Papp qualified for the 2019 U.S. Women's Open.

"It helps a lot because we had more pressure there," said Laisne, a native of France who has already participated in three of the LPGA's major tournaments. "For the other tournament, we can implement what we learned from that tournament to the others. It was good also to see how good we were compared to the people that play only in Europe or only in Asia.

upperclassman who will travel to this year's regional in Norman, Okla. (Stephen Spillman / for Statesman)

Texas coach Ryan Murphy admits he has a tough time living in the moment and is often thinking about what's next. With the possibility of those young golfers sticking around for a while — "They all want to graduate, I think" Murphy said — Texas could be primed to make a run in the upcoming years. UT has never won a women's golf national championship; its best showings were runner-up finishes in 1993 and 2002.

But why can't the future be now? Is this Texas team capable of contending in the upcoming weeks?

"Yeah, for sure," Laisne asserted.

Texas women's golf has sights set on national title after blowout win in Big 12 championship

AUSTIN, Texas — If Texas women's golf coach Ryan Murphy were a chef, he would be a combination of Emeril Lagasse, Bobby Flay and Mario Batali because of that trio's ability to find the best in everything, star power and attention to history, respectively.

What Murphy has cooked up in his five years at the helm of the Texas program, namely a real chance to win the national championship with a group of women from here, there and everywhere, is nearly ready to be served.

Texas enters Monday's NCAA Norman Regional as the second-ranked team in the country and rising like a rocket, having captured its third straight Big 12 Conference title two weeks ago by a record 37 shots in the league championship in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

The Longhorns also established a league mark for the most golfers in the individual top five, becoming the first team in Big 12 Championship history to finish with the top four golfers in the individual standings and just the third all-time to place four golfers in the top-10 individually.

"I think we are playing our best when it counts the most, and that's been the goal all year," said Texas sophomore Agathe Laisne, who captured the individual title at the Big 12 championship with a 2-over-par 218. "Coach Murphy has put together a plan for us and we've worked hard to get to where we are — now we just have to finish."

Laisne is the third Big 12 individual champion in program history, joining Heather Bowie (1997) and Madison Pressel (2011), and the conference individual crown marked Laisne's first collegiate career win. Her 12 birdies during the Big 12 championship were the most of any golfer in the field.

Laisne will join sophomore Kaitlyn Papp, junior Emilee Hoffman and freshmen Hailee Cooper and Sara Kouskova in Norman beginning Monday. UT's lineup features four of the top 42 players in the nation, with Papp ranked 14th, Laisne at 18th, Cooper at 22 and Kouskova listed at 42.

The top six teams and the lowest-scoring three individuals outside those squads will advance to the national championship tournament, to be held May 17-22 at The Blessings Golf Club in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

"It's important to be peaking at the right time," Murphy said. "That's the goal, and you try to be setting it up like that, but it's tough because these girls have school to contend with as well and everyone's academic calendar is a little different. I try to have a good balance between rest and practice heading into this stretch of the year.

“This is the hardest working team I’ve ever had — they really bust it. At times I think they are working too hard and not resting enough, and the team chemistry has been fantastic.”

Texas is one of seven ranked teams competing in Norman, including No. 7 Wake Forest, No. 10 Florida, No. 15 Arizona State, No. 18 Oklahoma, No. 24 TCU and No. 25 Pepperdine.

The Longhorns have advanced to the NCAA Championship 27 times and have made three consecutive appearances, most recently tying for 12th last season in Stillwater, Okla., in the program's best finish since 2004.

“The Big 12 was really great for all of us — our games are in good shape,” Papp said. “Even though we have a young team, we all have a lot of experience on the junior level and that’s helps.”

Laisne’s move up the Texas’ ladder and her win in the league championship take nothing away from the performances of her teammates.

Papp (who played in high school at nearby Lake Travis) has been the squad’s erstwhile top golfer all year, posting pair of runner-up finishes. She also was one of three Longhorns’ players, along with Laisne and junior Emilee Hoffman, who were chosen to compete in the inaugural Augusta National Women’s Amateur at the storied Augusta, Ga., home of the Masters Tournament.

Papp finished tied for fifth at 1 under par, with Laisne in 29th at 10 over. Hoffman finished 37th and did not make the final cut in Augusta.

Papp qualified last week for the U.S. Women’s Open by winning Sectional Qualifying at Canyon Creek Country Club in Richardson, Texas. The Open in at the Country Club of Charleston in South Carolina May 29-June 2.

“With the people we had on the team and the ones we had coming in, I expected us to be this good and a really solid team,” Papp said. “Our goal is to just go out and compete and play well like we have been all season.”

The Longhorns have won four tournaments this season, marking the first time they have captured four events in a single season since notching five wins in 1992-93. The school record for most victories in a single campaign is six, accomplished in 1987-88.

Since the start of the 2017-18 season, Texas has earned seven team wins and posted 18 top-five finishes in 23 events during that span.

The Longhorns already this season have broken the school records for best 18-hole team score (272) and best 54-hole team score (824).

“We are all playing really solid and we are looking forward to continuing that success,” said Hoffman, who along with Papp was an All-America last season. “This is a special team – we have great chemistry and really motivate each other to get better every day. How you work in practice carries over to how you play in the tournaments. Our work ethics are very similar and we push each other to stay on track.”

KAITLYN PAPP

Conversations (/conversationsblog/category/Conversations)

Even by Kaitlyn Papp's standards, it's been a busy year. The Texas Longhorns sophomore and world's 26th-ranked amateur turned the most heads with her fifth-place finish at the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur in April, but that's hardly been her only time on the front page of a leaderboard. In her last nine months, Papp has tallied seven

...and even in her last three months, Papp has earned seven top-10 finishes, an appearance in the 2018 Arnold Palmer Cup (she'll be on the 2019 team too), and a second-place finish at the Big 12 Championship (helping lead Texas to the team championship). Papp and her Texas teammates will be the top seed at their regional in Norman, Okla., from May 6-8, at a South-heavy site also featuring Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Florida, and Texas A&M.

LYING FOUR: I was just looking at your page on the World Amateur Golf Rankings website (<https://www.wagr.com/playerprofile/kaitlyn-papp-19684>), and you've had an insane month. You were seventh at Auburn, fifth at Augusta; you finished second in the Big 12 Championship, and you guys won the team championship. Has it been fun or exhausting?

KAITLYN PAPP: It's been more fun than exhausting. I didn't realize it's only been a month since I've played all those tournaments. It's been a lot of fun. I'm just happy to have had some good results.

LYING FOUR: You spent some time as a kid in Japan, right?

KAITLYN PAPP: Yes.

LYING FOUR: What was that like?

KAITLYN PAPP: It was awesome. I was 4-8 years old at the time. My dad was in the Navy, stationed at Kadena Air Base in Okinawa. I went to elementary school on the base, but still we got to experience Japanese culture, try out the food, and go to the beach. It was a really fun out the road, and go to the beach. It was a really, really nice place to live.

LYING FOUR: So how did you get invited to the Augusta National Women's Amateur? I was never quite sure whether it was purely by invitation or whether there was some sort of de facto qualifying process.

KAITLYN PAPP: The Augusta committee sent out invitations in the mail, very similar to the Masters invitations. And the invitations were based on your WAGR ranking. I think the top 30 Americans had priority, and they made their way down the list after that.

LYING FOUR: Did you have a heads-up that this was coming before you got your actual invitation?

KAITLYN PAPP: No, they never e-mailed us or called us saying that we were invited, but I think a good amount of us knew based on our rankings that we would most likely get invited. But it wasn't official until you got it in the mail.

LYING FOUR: Do you remember getting that in the mail?

KAITLYN PAPP: Yeah, I actually wasn't home. I was at the golf course. But my sister was home for Christmas break. So she picked it up for me and waited until I got home so I could open it. I was just really, really happy and excited to officially be invited. I was in awe to get an invitation like that in the mail.

LYING FOUR: Had you been to Augusta National before?

KAITLYN PAPP: No, I hadn't. About a month before the tournament, me and two of my teammates took a practice trip out there, so we were fortunate to get out on Augusta a month before. But before the invitation, I'd never been to Augusta.

LYING FOUR: Did you get to drive up Magnolia Lane?

KAITLYN PAPP: Yes. We got to drive up it, I believe, twice. It was amazing.

LYING FOUR: So on Saturday, in the third round, standing over that tee ball on the first tee — what is that like? I would still be standing there. I don't think I could take the club back.

KAITLYN PAPP: I think everybody was probably a little bit nervous because of all the people that were there. We'd never seen crowds that big. So it was a new experience for everybody playing on Saturday. You had to just kind of block it out of your mind and focus on what you were trying to do.

LYING FOUR: Outside the magnitude of the event and the pressure of playing at a place like Augusta National, was there anything about the course that surprised you?

KAITLYN PAPP: On TV, the course looks very flat, especially the fairways. The fairways have a little bit more slope than you would think. So you didn't have a lot of slope than you would think. So you didn't have a lot of really flat, even lies out there. You wouldn't be able to tell just from watching on TV. And the greens lived up to the expectations of just being really fast and having a lot of break, especially break that you wouldn't imagine when you're reading the putt.

LYING FOUR: I've only been once. I remember walking along the 10th fairway — it's like a ski slope. But you would never know from TV.

KAITLYN PAPP: Right.

LYING FOUR: What was your favorite hole out there?

KAITLYN PAPP: I would say No. 12, the par 3. I don't know why it's my favorite. I just think it's the prettiest hole on the course with all the flowers behind the green. I think that's the most memorable.

LYING FOUR: Is it one of those situations where it's a little hair-raising early on, but once you get a few holes under your belt it's all the same? Or were you walking on eggshells the whole round?

KAITLYN PAPP: On the putting greens, you had to really respect them the whole round. On the first green, I felt like I barely hit my putt, and it went 10 feet by the hole. I made it coming back. So I had to adjust in my mind, "OK, these are a lot faster." [laughs] But my speed got better during the round.

LYING FOUR: Did you meet anybody cool while you were there?

KAITLYN PAPP: Bubba Watson was there on the tee box that morning. He wasn't there when I teed off, but I got to meet him after the round. And I met Condoleezza Rice, Nancy Lopez; I met Annika Sorenstam again, Lorena Ochoa. So it was really cool.

LYING FOUR: I remember back in 2016, when golf was going to be played in the Olympics for the first time in forever, people were excited to be participating but had a hard time pegging where it fit in their career accomplishments, just because it was so new. Have you had time to figure out how your performance compares to other achievements in your career?

KAITLYN PAPP: I feel like it's up there with one of the top achievements so far. It's probably up there with the strongest field you'll see all year, along with the U.S. Amateur. It had the most elite field, and we played two really great, challenging golf courses. All around, it was just a great event to play in.

LYING FOUR: What does the future hold for you?

KAITLYN PAPP: I definitely want to play pro golf and see where that takes me. That's been my dream since I was probably 10 years old.

LYING FOUR: Before you make that jump, what do you see in your game that you're doing really well, and what do you need to improve on?

KAITLYN PAPP: Just tightening up my short game is the big thing. Putting is everything on the LPGA Tour. And just trying to get a little more distance off the tee and through my bag. Just tightening the little things up.

Five questions with Hailee Cooper

Learn more about the freshman golfer from Montgomery, Texas.

10.15.2018

One of the nation's top golf prospects, Hailee Cooper is in her freshman season with the Texas women's golf team. Cooper is off to a strong start with a pair of top-20 finishes in her first two tournaments, including a top-five showing at the Schooner Fall Classic, and all six of her rounds as a collegiate golfer have come at par or better.

Learn more about Hailee in these five questions.

Q: How did you get started in golf?

Hailee Cooper: "When I was a couple days old, my grandpa [Mac Hairston] was a big golfer. I was like two or three days old, I was brought home and there was a little golf grip and I still have it. He put it in my hand and I grabbed the grip. He said, 'She's going to be a golfer.' My dad [Ronnie] was really big into getting me into golf young. When I was four or five, I would just hit some little whiffle balls in the front yard. My dad said that whenever I could hit it out of the yard, then we would go to the actual golf course. I started hitting it out of the yard so he took me to the course when I was like six-and-a-half and I started playing tournaments when I was seven."

Q: You played both soccer and golf - what made you choose golf as the sport you would focus on?

Hailee Cooper: "I had just played in a tournament when I was 10 and I played really well - it was the world championships and I got second. My friend actually had broken her arm playing soccer at our last tournament that year. My dad was saying that if I got hurt in soccer then I wouldn't get to play golf for however many months. I was like 'I don't know if I could do that.' I could go without soccer for months and months, but I don't think I could go without golf, so that was when I found out that I really loved it and I wanted to continue that."

Q: Why did you choose to attend and play golf at the University of Texas?

Hailee Cooper: "Texas just has such great coaches and such a great facility. It's a mix of everything that I wanted. I wanted a good college experience and to be at a big school, but I also wanted to be at one of the top golf programs in the country and at one of the greatest academic schools in the country."

Q: How has the transition from high school to the University of Texas gone - academically, athletically and socially?

Hailee Cooper: "It's been difficult. As I come in, school is harder, of course. I get to practice golf every day and I love it. Socially, I don't have as much time. Luckily, I have the girls on the team and some other athletes that I've made friends with and some friends from my high school. I'm really enjoying it. I'm really busy and I like being busy."

Q: What is something that people might not know about you?

Hailee Cooper: "I used to sing a lot and I was pretty good. I can still sing a little but only in the shower - no one else hears it. I used to sing a lot of Christian contemporary music. I was never in a church choir, but I loved singing that for our choir concerts at school and I loved anything pop."

Five questions with Kaitlyn Papp

Learn more about the sophomore golfer from Austin, Texas.

08.31.2018

Kaitlyn Papp, the 2018 Big 12 Conference Player and Freshman of the Year, will be a sophomore for the Texas Women's Golf team in 2018-19. She has played in 13 tournaments and 38 rounds for the Longhorns with a collegiate stroke average of 72.05. Papp was named a Second-Team All-American by the WGCA in 2018. She is a physical culture and sports major.

Learn more about Kaitlyn in these five questions.

Q: Who inspired you to get into golf and why?

Kaitlyn Papp: "Originally, Liz Janangelo inspired me to get into tournaments and competitive golf. She was super nice to me when I watched her at the Kingsmill Championship at 10 years old, and I realized then that I wanted to be on the LPGA Tour too."

Q: What is an obstacle that you've had to overcome in your life and how did that experience shape you?

Kaitlyn Papp: "Being a military kid, we moved around a lot, which was fun but also difficult as well. It has taught me to be mentally tough and I can handle a lot of things life throws at me."

Q: What would you most like to be known for as a University of Texas golfer?

Kaitlyn Papp: "I'd like to be known as someone who worked hard at anything I set my mind to and as a positive influence on anyone I meet."

Q: What is something most people might not know about you?

Emilee Hoffman, a Folsom, Calif., native, will be a junior for the Texas Women's Golf team in 2018-19. She has played in 27 career tournaments for the Longhorns and was a 2018 Golfweek Honorable Mention All-America selection. She is a sociology major.

Learn more about Emilee in these five questions.

Q: Under what circumstances did you begin playing golf?

Emilee Hoffman: "I started playing golf because it was fun and something I did to spend more time with my dad. Over time, it became our thing together and he's been my coach ever since. When I was younger, my dad would take me out on the course with him and I would play every hole from about 100 yards. I just remember him slowly putting me further and further away from the hole as my skills progressed."

Q: Who is a collegiate or professional golfer you admire and why?

Emilee Hoffman: "I really admire Matt Kuchar. I love how positive and kind he is, and he always seems like he's having fun when he's playing. I think he represents the game of golf well."

Q: How have you seen yourself grow – personally, athletically and academically – since you first arrived on the Forty Acres?

Emilee Hoffman: "Attending The University of Texas has really shaped me into a better person in all three categories. Being so far from home in Sacramento, Calif., was very difficult at first, but I think it has really pushed me to become more independent. I've learned so many things about myself so far and I'm excited that I have two more years to continue growing."

Q: What advice would you give to a young girl who would like to one day be in your shoes?

Emilee Hoffman: "To remember why she started playing golf in the first place. To always play golf to have fun and because you enjoy playing the game."

Q: What is something most people might not know about you?

Emilee Hoffman: "I took an ASL [American Sign Language] course last semester and I loved it! I hope one day to become fluent in sign language and perhaps help grow the game of golf for deaf individuals."
